PREFACE

This volume of investigation and research in connection with the Beazell family is a work that has grown out of a desire for future generations to have a fuller knowledge of the Beazell family in America. Months and years of work back into the past have been occupied in gathering material.

My investigations, I might add, are incomplete and might continue for years to come, and at great cost very few have any conception of the time and labor involved in a work of this kind. I have written many hundred of letters and travelled many miles; through the mail and by automobile. My labor has been one of honor and duty: honor, to those who have preceded us in life's journey; and of duty, to those following after. It has been a most interesting and satisfying hobby for me. I feel it has been a worth-while project. I consider it an honor to place this material in the hands of the Beazell Family so that it may become a permanent reference source for all those interested in the genealogy of this fine old family.

This genealogy is offered with the hope that members will respond with corrections and additions.

Thus gathering up the fading memorials of the far distant past with the more recent, we transmit them to the present and future generations yet unborn.

THE BEAZELL FAMILY
by Dr. John S. Van Voorhis

Sketch of a remarkable man - story of the early settlers - men and women of pioneer time.

BENJAMIN F. BEAZELL,
died 27 August 1886

Died, at his late residence in Rostraver Township, Westmoreland County Friday, 27 August 1886. He was born in Rostraver Township, Westmoreland County, Pa. 02 January 1796. His grand-father and grand-mother came from Bazil on the Rhine, in Germany (Switzerland); and located in Berkeley County, Virginia. In 1760 Matthew and Catherine made acquaintance on board the ship during the voyage to this country and were married at Georgetown, now in the District of Columbia, before settling in the town now known as Martinsburg, W.Va. Whilst residing here, William and Elizabeth, twins, Matthew and Christina, John and Luke were born to them. In 1774, Matthew Beazell and family left Virginia and settled first in a cabin on land now owned by James Moore, known at this day as Moore's Woolen Factory, in Rostraver Township. In 1775 he moved to a cabin on the land recently sold by William Jones to Andrew Graham in the same Township. Here he purchased what was then known as a "location sight", containing 290 acres. Here the remainder of his children were born, viz: Catherine, Barbara and Joseph. The latter died when a mere lad. Matthew died, but in what year we have overlooked. His tombstone will tell; it was placed near the

WEST NEWTON ROAD

on what was then known as the Penticost Farm now owned by either John Rankin or Joseph Power. For many years this stone was the wonder of the stranger. Some years since it was removed by kind friends to the graveyard at Fells Church. His wife died in 1815 at the house of Robert Stevens on Redstone Creek. The wife of Stevens was her daughter Catherine. His son Matthew died on the farm now owned by David Finley, near Webster; his remains were buried at Fell's Church. His wife was a Miss Neal, whose second husband was William Sampson, the father of James Sampson, of Horse-Shoe. The late Mrs. Belar, of Monongahela City, was a daughter of Matthew Beazell. John Beazell married Mary Sutherland, moved to the neighborhood of Warren, Ohio, where he died and all of his family except one. Luke married Elizabeth English, lived in different parts of the Forks and died on the farm now owned by a man named McGogney, adjoining the well-known Hassier farm in Rostraver Township. His remains were

INTERRED AT FELL'S CHURCH

He had sons, Matthew, Joseph, John, James, Lemuel and William, all of whom are dead except William. His daughters were Margaret, married Van Reeves, and died recently in Coal Center; Catherine, widow of James Ailes; Mary, widow of A.R. Smith and Eliza who never married. Mrs. Ailes resides in California, Pa. and Mrs. Smith and Eliza in Webster. Joseph married a Miss Sphar, a sister of John Sphar of Allen Township, Washington County (Pa.). Joseph died a few years since, in the old McCrory house on Maple Creek, where his widow still resides. James married a Miss Springer, whose grand-father emigrated from Stockholm in Sweden, and settled on the farm called "Springersburg" near Belle Vernon in very early days. James and his wife both died at their home on part of the original Springer homestead. Their remains are in the Belle Vernon Cemetery. Matthew died a few years ago in Rostraver Township. Lemuel died in Webster not long ago. John was married to Jane Patterson at the residence of the late George Householde, in Rostraver by Rev. Hiram Miller, 25th. November 1853 and died in Belle Vernon, Pa. 13 Jan. 1879.

WILLIAM ALONE REMAINS

and has long lived in Fallowfield, Washington County (Pa.) near John Withrow's Blacksmith Shop. He is a lively and hearty man. Elizabeth, one of the daughters of Matthew Beazell and the older, married John Sturgess, removed to Kentucky, and then to Missouri. Christina married John Fell. She died in the house now occupied by John Coughenor and owned by the heirs of William Flannegan, deceased. William, the remaining son of Matthew Beazell the elder, was the father of the deceased, the object of this sketch. William married Rebecca Fell in part of the house owned by the deceased. William died also in the Coughenor house. He had 12 children, among them were four boys, Matthew, William, John F. and Benjamin F., the deceased, of whom we are writing. Matthew died in Webster many years ago. He was the father of H.B. Beazell of Baird Station. John F. Beazell lived in Uniontown and was for many years editor of the Pennsylvania "Democrat" printed in that place. The deceased was the last of the family. Benjamin F., the subject of this sketch was married to Sarah Sampson, 17 Nov. 1820 by the Rev. John White. She was the daughter of William and Dorcas (Neal) Sampson. Dorcas was a Neal, sister of James Sampson's mother. Her father settled on Long Run and was killed by the Indians.

At the date of his marriage, Sampson lived at the old "Black Horse Tavern" now owned by Levi Weaver. This and the Red Lion Hotel on Redstone were the two celebrated stopping places between Uniontown and Pittsburgh in the old times. The issue of this marriage was a large family of boys and girls, among whom was Dorcas, married to John Darr, of Rostraver, William married Elizabeth Biggs, of Sewickley Township. Thomas died aged 14 years; James married Jessie Woodruff, sister of James' wife; Mary J. and Rebecca remained at home; Frank married Mary D. Welling of Ohio, and is now a minister in the M.E. Church of the Pittsburgh Conference, and stationed now at Latrobe; Sarah Emma is the wife of Dr. J.A. Mink, of Topeka, Kansas; Samuel is a farmer and John a lawyer in Chillicothe, Mo. James and William live in Rostraver.

Benjamin F. the deceased, joined the Methodist Episcopal Church which stood on the site of the present stone building known as the Fell's Church. Rev. John Watterman was the minister at the time. His wife joined the same church in a short time after Benjamin did. Benjamin's grandfather Fell donated a part and his father the remainder of the lot which now BElONGS TO THE CHURCH

The Beazells and Fells hewed the logs for the old church. They whipped-sawed the material for the stairs and the pulpit. The floor was made of split logs and so were the seats. The building presented an unfinished appearance. This was so plain to the stranger that at the first time Lorenzo Dow preached in it, he used the following expression in his prayer: "Oh, Lord, here is a house, from all appearance, has been building for forty years and not finished" and he prayed the Lord to put it in the hearts of the people to finish it and revive His work. Richard Ferguson did the Clarking for him on this occasion, singing St. Matthews as fast as he could. This was in 1818, B. Bascom, the celebrated Divine, preached in this old church on more than one occasion. The present stone building was erected in 1834. The Board of Trustees, under the supervision it was built consisted of Hugh C. Ford, Manarsah Reeves, Samuel Jones, Benjamin Thomas, Luke Beazell, Nathaniel Lender, Benjamin Stewart, Randal Johnson and Benjamin F. Beazell, the deceased. The carpenter work was done by Townsend for four hundred dollars; the plastering by Michael Dravo.

THE DEDICATION SERMON

was preached by Rev. Chas. Elliott, among the many distinguished Divine who preached in the old and new church we may mention Bishops McKendry and Morris, and the Revs. Chas. Cooke, J.C. Sansom, Jamison, Smith and Millers and Rev. B.F. Beazell son of the late Benjamin F. Beazell.

William Beazell, father of Benjamin Beazell, laid out the town of Webster in 1835 the late Jos. VanKirk doing the surveying. Benjamin builded (sic) the first house in the town long known as the J.C. Sansom mansion, on the lot now occupied by Dr. Krepps. During the first five years of his married life Benjamin lived on the Fell Farm. In 1825 he rented what was known at that time as the "Daily Farm" on which he lived two years; he then moved to the Black Horse Tavern and kept store for Samuel Walker for a time, then bought out Walker and run the store himself until 1835. In the spring of 1836 he moved to his house in Webster where he carried on merchandising and boat building until 1841, excepting two years he moved back to the Black Horse Tavern. In 1844 he purchased the old Fell Homestead in which he lived to the day of his death. In 1835 he built for Capt. Shrodex the steamboat "Moravian" he and flat boats for the lower trade as it was then called. For himself he built a trade boat - loaded it with a variety of goods, as flour, cherry bounce and boiled cider. For the latter he paid three dollars per barrel and sold it for five dollars, making a nice profit. He sold his cargo on the way and at Cincinnati, and walked home carrying the proceeds. Father Beazell by his example and precept was a power of good in whatever community he resided. He was a walking encyclopedia of religious experience. His interest in the church was only exceeded by his zeal in the cause of Christ. About a year ago his wife preceded him to the spirit land.

EXPLANATION OF NUMBERING SYSTEM

The simplest possible plan has been adopted to facilitate the tracing of lines of descent.

"CLASSICAL PERSON - NUMBERING SYSTEM"

Initial ancestor is assigned number 1 (Matthew Beazell). His children are assigned in order of birth the number 2 thru.... For each succeeding generation numbers are assigned beginning with the next number after the last one used in the previous generation. The names and numbers following the name denote the line of descent from the ancestor. The number placed at the left, preceding the name of the child, IF UNDERLINED signifies that the person will appear in a subsequent chapter as a parent, and designated by the same number.

NO FURTHER EXPLANATION IS NECESSARY.

NOTE:

The spelling of the name is found throughout this family in many different ways:

BASLE: BAZEL: BEAZEL: BEAZELL

At the request of the family - BEAZELL will be used in this document.

ANN CATHERINE SMITH, b. 1734 (1732) Switzerland (Germany).
d. 25 Jan. 1815 (1817) aged 83 years, Redstone Creek, Fayette Co., Pa., at the home of her daughter Mrs. Robert Stevens.

Both are buried in Fells Cemetery, Fellsburg, Westmoreland Co., Pa.

Following history taken from the pages 255 and 256 of Old and New Monongahela by John S. Van Voorhis, 1893.

"Matthew and Ann Catherine Smith Basle came to America in 1757 from Bazil-on-Rhine, in Germany and located in Berkeley Co., Va. in 1760.

Matthew and Catherine became acquainted on board the ship during the voyage to this country and were marrried in Georgetown, now in the District of Columbia,
before settling in the town now known as Martinsburg,
W. Va.

In 1774 Mathew Beazell (Basle) and family left Va. and settled in a cabin on land owned by James Moore, known at this day as Moore's Woolen Factory, and now owned by a man named Kelly, who purchased it from the heirs of Samuel W. Power. The farm is on the West Newton road between Belle Vernon and that town in Rostraver Twp., Westmoreland Co., Pa. The old factory has long since been converted into other uses.

In 1775 Beazell moved to a cabin on the land recently sold to Andrew Graham by Wm.Jones - same Twp. Here he purchased what was known as a "location site", containing 200 acres.

Tombstone for Mathew Beazell was placed over his grave, which was near the West Newton Road on what was then known as the Pentecost farm, now owned by either John Rankin or Joseph Power. For many years this stone was the wonder of the stranger. Some years later it was removed by kind friends to the graveyard at Fells Church Graveyard."

TO: Mrs. Enoch Colvin, Monongahela, Pa.

"Dear Mrs. Colvin:-

I am able to give you the following information regarding ROBERT STEPHENS. The family tradition is that he came to the Red Stone District after the Revolution. His name is not among those who served in the Revolutionary Army from the Red Stone section.

He was a nephew of my ancestor, John Stephens, and was Executor of his will (Fayette Co. Will Book #1, pg. 86-87, of May 1806).

The first census of the United States, 1790, lists Washington Township, Fayette County, Pennsylvania.
Robert Stevens, head of family
1 - son over 16
1 - son under 16
2 - women

The difference in spelling need not be considered as it was evidently written by the person taking the census. The record shows he had two sons and a daughter.

The following real estate record is from an old deed in my possession:
"The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by Patent bearing date the 28th day of September A.D. 1786, inrolled in the Rolls Office in Patent Book NO. 8 page 15 did convey to John Patterson a certain tract of land in Washington Township, Fayette County, Pa. called "Patterson's Choice". And the said John Patterson by indenture bearing date of 9th. day of April 1795 did convey a part of the above named tract to ROBERT STEPHENS. And the said ROBERT STEPHENS becoming insolvent, his part of said tract of land containing 140 A's was sold by Daniel Lynch, Sheriff, by deed dated 8th. of January 1823 to William Stephens. And the said William Stephens and Elizabeth, his wife, by deed dated 6th. June 1831 conveyed to Samuel Nutt."

The farm was located about one mile from the present Little Red Stone M.E. Church and the supposition is that the family left the district after the sale of the farm in 1831. I have found no further trace of them.

Yours very truly,

(signed - W.R. Stephens)"

NEWS OBIT (paper source unknown)

"REBECCA LESLIE, died March 29, 1875, in Liberty, Trumbull Co. Ohio., in the ninetieth year of her age. She was trained up in the fear of the Lord. In her sixteenth year she was converted and united with the M.E.Church, and for nearly seventy-four years "walked with God". It was her privilege in early life to sit under the ministry of the sainted Asbury, Whatcoat, and George, and others of that heroic band that laid broad and deep the foundations of our beloved Methodism on this continent. For many years her house was a quiet and peaceful retreat for the weary itinerant. Her religious experience was not of the stormy or demonstrative kind, but calm and peaceful as a summer evening, always trusting in God with unwavering and childlike faith. She was well read up in the standard writings of the Church, though for some years her reading was principally confined to the Bible, Christian biography, and the PITTSBURGH CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE. Perhaps none read the pages of that excellent paper with more pleasure than did this aged mother in Israel. When death came she was not taken by surprise. She had long been preparing for that hour, and with her head leaning on Jesus's breast, without a struggle she passed away from earth to join in the songs of the redeemed before the throne."

They then rented the "Daily Farm" for two years; then moved to "Black Horse Tavern" and kept store for Samuel Walker for a time. They bought out Walker and continued to operate the store until 1835. In 1836, they moved to the new house in Webster, Westmoreland Co., Pa. where he carried on merchandising and boat building until 1841. In 1844 they purchased the old "Fell Homestead" where they lived the rest of their lives.

Benjamin F. Beazell built keel boats and flat boats for the lower river trade. For himself, he built a trade boat, loaded it with a variety of goods as: flour, cherry bounce, boiled cider. He paid $3. a barrel for the boiled cider and sold it for $5. a barrel. He sold his whole cargo on the way and the boat in Cincinnati, and walked home carrying the proceeds.

BENJAMIN F. BEAZELL, the father of the Rev. B. F. Beazell, of the Pittsburgh Conference, was born in Westmoreland county, Pa., January 2nd, 1751, and died August 27th, 1838. He had the unmistakable advantage, in the days of his youth, of the care, the prayers, the religious instruction and the godly example of truly pious parents; whose house was the home and resting-place of our early itinerant preachers. It was not, however, until he was nearing his thirtieth year, that he felt the absolute necessity of a change of heart. While passing through severe and protracted affliction, and profoundly meditating upon his moral condition, he was led to a deep conviction for sin, which ultimately issued in a thorough, clear and joyous conversion. In 1828, under the ministry of the Rev. John Waterman, he gave his name to the church, in the communion of which he died, in peace. He often expressed the desire that but little should be said concerning him, after his death, frequently observing: "I am but a sinner saved by grace." Though we would not be unfaithful to the dead, any more than to the living, yet we must take the liberty to say, after a most intimate acquaintance with our departed brother for more than half a century, that as a husband, a father, a citizen, a Christian, he acted well his part, maintaining a propriety and dignity of character in all these relations, which his children have a right to regard as of more value than silver and gold. His last days were days of suffering, which he endured without a murmur; his intellectual faculties, which age and bodily infirmities had not impaired, remained in full vigor to the end; and as the hour of dissolution drew near, his anticipations became more joyous, so that he closed his long life not only in peace, but in triumph. — S. WAREFIELD.

SARAH SAMPSON, wife of Benjamin F. Beazell, was born April 18, 1801, and died Aug. 11, 1885. She joined the church under the ministry of Rev. Wm. Stevens, more than half a century ago. Nearly sixty-five years since she and her husband formed their home, which has always been one of hospitality. "In him the needy, the friend and the Lord's workman have had a hearty welcome. Always near to the famous "Fall's meeting-house," it has been "the way-side inn" of Waterman, Blaceon, Elliott, Cooke, Sanson, and the never broken succession of the ministers of the church in all these years. From early life to extreme age her heart and hands have ministered to the necessities of others, and always with the same cheerful, gentle spirit. As a Christian she was pure, sincere, consistent, and in her life exemplified to the world all the Christian graces. As a wife and mother she was self-denying and faithful. "Her children rise up and call her blessed, her husband also, and he praiseth her." As a friend she was true, gentle and kind. A day or two before she died she said: "I see the loved ones gone before, who have been washed in the blood of the Lamb." Her last hours were those of rest, peace and joy. She slept in Jesus. Her five sons and one of her grandsons carried her to the grave, there to rest in hope "until the day breaks, and the shadows flee away." W. C. WEAVER.

SKETCH OF A REMARKABLE MAN—STORY OF THE BEAZELL FAMILY—OF PIONEER TIMES.

BENJAMIN F. BEAZELL, DIED, AUGUST 27, 1880.

Died, at his late residence in Rostraver township, Westmoreland county, Friday, August 27, 1880, Mr. Benjamin F. Beazell, a native of Virginia, who was born in Rostraver township, Westmoreland Co., Pa., January 22, 1793. His grandfather and a grand-grandmother came from Hali, in Germany, and located in Berkeley Co., Virginia, in 1760. He married Catherine Barbara Jones to Andrew Graham, in the same township, where he was born. They purchased what was then known as "Springersburg" near Hollenworth in very early days, the farm was called "Springersburg" near Hollenworth near the house where he was born, and was occupied by John Coughenour, removed to the town now known as Martinsburg, West Va., whilst residing here, William and Elizabeth, twins, Matthew, Christina, John, and Luke were born to them. In 1761 Matthew Beazell and family left Virginia and settled first in a cabin on land now owned by James Moore, known at this day as Moore's woolen mill, in Rostraver township. In 1762 he moved to the farm, purchased from the late Mr. John Coughenour, and sold to Thomas Johnson, in the same township. Here he purchased what was then known as "Beazell's farm," containing 290 acres. He had seven children of his own, viz: Catherine, Barbara, and Joseph; the latter died when a mere lad. Here Matthew died, but in what year we have overlooked. His tombstone will tell; it was placed over his grave near the house of Robert Reeves, on Redstone creek. The wife of Reeves was a daughter of William and Dorcas Beazell. Mary, wife of Samuel Beazell, married Mary Sutherland, moved to the neighborhood of Warren, Ohio, where he died and all of his family except John, were buried in the Presbyterian church. He was a power for good in every community in which he resided. He was a walking encyclopedia of religious experience. His interest in the church was only exceeded by his zeal in the cause of Christ. About one year after his wife preceded him to the spirit land. He was born in Rostraver, near the house of Mr. Beazell, who was a native of Virginia, and located here in the year 1761, and was occupied by John Coughenour, removed to the town now known as Martinsburg, West Va., whilst residing here, William and Elizabeth, twins, Matthew, Christina, John, and Luke were born to them. NEWS OBIT: (paper source unknown)

"John F. Beazell was born in Westmoreland Co., Pa., 01 January 1805, and died at his home in Uniontown, Pa. 31 August 1876. He was the son of William and Rebecca Beazell, and was connected with the large and honorable family of his own name who still live in, or have gone forth from the county in which he was born; and through his mother, was connected with the equally respectable family of Fells, in the same neighborhood. The maternal grandfather, Benjamin Fell, was a Revolutionary Patriot, and a member of the first Continental Congress; and largely through the influence of his family was built the Old Fells Church in Rostraver Twp. Westmoreland County, one of the early and noted churches in Western Pennsylvania.

Bro. Beazell, in his youth, was a student of Madison College, located at Uniontown, Pa., with Simon Elliott, Alfred Sturgis and others, when under the charge of Bascom, Fielding, and Dr. Elliott. We have heard him relate many incidents of those early days, and those mighty men of God, especially of revivals of religion in the town, and among the students. In these meetings he was himself an active worker, being then a member of the Church, and an earnest Christian. After his graduation from college he engaged in Steamboat-building at Webster, on the Monongahela River, and afterwards in the glass business at Cookstown, on the same river. About 1847 he removed to Uniontown, Pa. and purchased the "Pennsylvania Democrat", of which he became also the editor. Afterwards he changed the name of the paper to the "American Standard", under which it still continues. In 1866 he retired from the paper, and was not again engaged in any public or very active business, as shortly after this commenced the affliction which finally terminated his life.

He was a good man. He was a man of clear head, positive convictions, and fearless utterance -no mean endowments-but still he was above all these a religious man. His religion was above all else, and seemed to be independent of things earthly. His Christian life commenced when he was quite young, and continued with increase and power to the close of life.

He was always, when health allowed, an active member of the M.E. Church and for a great number of years a class-leader. Life's pathway was not all sunshine to him, but he made it bright with his cheerfulness. In the midst of business reverses, and excruciating physical suffering, he was always trustful and hopeful. The furnaces of affliction through which he passed seemed but to purify his character. As it is some years since the writer was his pastor, and had personal knowledge of him, the following, written by a member of his family, will most fittingly tell of his life's close:

- continued -
"Although his illness was of long duration, and his sufferings most severe, yet never, even in his most agonizing hours did one word of repining, or a murmur arise from his lips. His years of suffering seemed almost a continuous prayer, for sleep was almost impossible, and day and night his tongue uttered praise to God. It seemed the will of God that his sufferings should continue almost to the last, yet his intellect remained unclouded, retaining all its brightness until life was gone. Great peace was his to the last. Although speechless, he listened attentively with clasped hands to a prayer offered beside him, and when asked, "Is all well with you?" bowed his head, looked upward, clapping his hands again and again, and then calmly, gently, fearlessly as a wearied child, fell asleep in Jesus."

In early life he was united in marriage to Miss Miller, of Uniontown, who, with a large family now survive him, and mourn the loss of a devoted husband and affectionate father."

-Rev. C.W. Smith-

NOTE:
Jacob Beeson with his brother Henry, was a proprietor of Uniontown. They were "English Friends" and descendants of a sister of William Penn. Jacob Beeson's wife was Elizabeth Hedges, a descendent of Sir Charles Hedges, Sec. of State under Queen Anne of England. She was a member of the English Church, but in her later years, she used the language and adopted the simple dress of her husband's people.

FANCY WORK AT EIGHTY

The day of the knitting and crochet needle is in a measure a thing of the past, giving way to the modern feminine, decorative arts, pencil, brush and embroidery needle, by which are fashioned the still more modern designs. Not less beautiful than the present creative fancies of the fancy work artist are the old time pieces of lace or rare needle work fashioned by the skilled fingers of our grandmothers, and occasionally such a bit of work falls within notice of an appreciative eye.

A lady of this city who is herself an artist of the needle and a lover of all the beautiful in that line, has in her possession, a piece of lace of unusual richness and beauty, the work of an old lady well known in this vicinity. MRS. SARAH BEAZELL, of Allen Twp., mother of Mrs. Dunlevy and Mrs. Cornelius Carson of this city, knit the lace in April, 1893, and presented it to her friend. The perfection of the work is all the more remarkable in that Mrs. Beazell was eighty-four years old last March, and as one would suppose long past the age of such intricate work. However, Mrs. Beazell is a woman of remarkable memory, lively and cheerful of disposition, and possessing wonderful activity for one of her years. This work of her hands is but one loving momento of her thoughtfulness and constant effort to please those who enjoy her friendship.
BEAZELL, SARAH, nee Sphar, was born in a family which has long been influential in Methodism along the Monongahela Valley. She was born 15 March 1809, and died 10 January 1898. She was married 20 July 1828, to Joseph Beazell, who on 22 January 1881 was suddenly removed by death. He was born 27 March 1799, in Westmoreland Co., Pa., but after marriage settled on Maple Creek, Washington Co., Pa. Here thirteen children were born, twelve of whom were reared to maturity, and nine still survive, all members of the church. Sister Beazell and her husband were converted at Mount Tabor, in a meeting held by the Rev. S. S. Rothwell and other local brethren, in 1866. They united with Ebenezer Church, where they remained faithful members till called above. Sister Beazell lived to a good old age in full possession of her faculties and in fairly good health, till about a year ago she began to fail. To her pastor a few days before her death, she expressed her confidence in Christ; she especially enjoyed the singing of the Twenty-third Psalm. The sweetness of her disposition and her patient submission in affliction were apparent to all. Her faith was like the faith of a child—simple and trustful, and her ideals were expressed in the lines of Doctor Watts, beginning, "Let love through all your actions run," etc., which she learned in childhood, and which she often repeated to her children and grandchildren in her latter days. Thus she herself strove to live, and now her children treasure the memory of her gentle words and loving deeds as their richest heritage.

Rostraver, Tp., has lost by death one of its most aged and respected citizens, Mr. Matthew Beazell, which took place at his late residence on last Saturday, aged about eighty-two years. The remains were interred, Monday, at Fells cemetery.

Lucinda N., wife of Matthew Beazell, died January 17th, 1864, aged 51 years. Her life had been devoted to God and his service. Her end was victorious-triumphant. Among the last words which fell from her lips were, "Jesus, I am almost home." A member of the church militant for 31 years, she has been transferred to the church triumphant. Our loss is her eternal gain.

NEWS OBIT:(source unknown)

"Margaret Beazell, widow of the late Van Reeves, of precious memory, entered into her Christian inheritance by death on 25 January 1881, in Greenfield, Pa. She was born near Fell's Meeting-house, in Westmoreland Co., Pa. 22 February 1805. Was married in 1827, and with her husband soon after joined the M.E.Church at Howe's Church, near Greenfield, and their house became at once not only the home of the ministers of the Gospel, but of the ministers of the Church; for in that early day, houses of worship were few in this region of the country. Such men as Sansom, Lauck, Stevens, and a host of others, whose praise is in all the churches, found a cheerful resting place as well as open field of labor at the fireside of Mother Reeves. Her religious experience was a peculiarly happy one. She was always on the "glory side" of the cloud of God's Grace. She was governed by a principal of piety, ever faithful in the minutest detail of the divine life.
As a friend, no changes of fortune or society affected her. As a wife, she was a true helpmeet, always ready to bear more than her share of the burdens of the household. As a mother, her character shone most brightly as she endeavored to mould the lives of the children she bore.
It was in the home more than any other place her religion was manifest.
She ruled her house with the word of love. It has been my privilege to meet but few whose religious character was so well developed. Modest, even retiring, in her disposition, she was ever ready to give a reason of the hope that made her path so joyous. For many years she had walked in widowhood, with an equally divided family-husband and five children in heaven; she and five others on the earth. Yet she lived in such communion with the unseen as to realize that her family was still a unit.
She is gone from us and we feel that the links that bind us to the heroic age of Methodism are being broken. She often spoke of the past and called up many of the old heroes of Western Pennsylvania Methodism
She had heard preach; but she lived eminently in the present. With rejoicing she waited for weeks the Master's Call, and when the message came it found her ready. She rests from her labor and her works do follow her."

* - These three are buried in Howe Cemetery, nr. Coal Center,
The funeral of Miss Maggie Montgomery, of which you made mention last week, was very largely attended on Monday afternoon. Owing to serious illness of her mother, Maggie had been taken some five weeks previous to her death, to Mrs. Ailes on Fifth street, where she was tenderly and kindly cared for her few remaining days; but the day she was carried to Mrs. Ailes was the last time she ever looked upon the face of her mother. She died, or rather fell asleep, on Sunday morning about eleven o'clock. Shortly before she passed away she had those around her to sing "Whiter than Snow," which was a favorite piece with her; during the singing she was seen to be repeating the words. On Saturday evening she was deprived of her sight and could only tell who was in her room by their voice. The most touching scene connected with this death was the viewing of the corpse by the mother who was still confined to her bed. The remains of Maggie were brought to her mother's room and left with her a couple of hours before the funeral. The services were conducted by the Rev. Lauck, and were held in the yard, it being a beautiful day. The attendance was large, especially of her young associates and acquaintances; her young lady associates viewed the remains together and were deeply affected. They also had a separate place in the procession, while the young men were her pall bearers. This was a heavy stroke on the family and they have the sympathy of the community.

Miss Louise Montgomery, former resident of California, died at the home of her niece, Mrs. Helen Johns, 230 Craig street, Pittsburgh, yesterday. A daughter of the late James and Mary Reeves Montgomery, she was born at Coal Center. Her grandparents were among the early settlers of California and her father was a Veteran of the Civil War. She leaves one brother, Frank, the niece, Mrs. Johns, and one nephew, Edgar Chambers.

Funeral services will be held today.

Prominent Resident of River Town Succumbs to Sudden Stroke of Apoplexy—Was Member of Town Council.

Coal Center, Jan. 13.—Leonidas H. Reeves, aged 74 years, one of the best known residents of this town and community, died very suddenly this afternoon at 4 o'clock. His death was due to apoplexy.

Mr. Reeves had apparently been in the best of health and this morning attended church services as usual. The stroke came without warning.

Born here February 25, 1850, Mr. Reeves had spent his entire life in this town. He had for many years been engaged in the mercantile business. At the time of his death he was a member of the Coal Center borough council and had throughout his career taken an active interest in civic affairs. He was a Democrat in politics. He was also one of the most active members of the Coal Center Presbyterian church. He had for many years been choir leader and was also a member of the board of trustees.

His wife survives and also a son, H. B. Reeves, who lived with his parents, and a daughter, Mrs. W. Homer Hendricks, of New York City.

The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

The funeral of L. H. Reeves was held in the Presbyterian church in Coal Center on Wednesday afternoon. Interment was in the Rehoboth cemetery. The deceased was a member of the McKean Commandery of Charleroi and the Knights Templar acted as escort. The funeral was largely attended.

Mrs. Olivia Bartman Reeves, wife of L. H. Reeves, died at the family home at Coal Center at 3 a.m. on Wednesday, of capillary bronchitis, in her 54th year. Mrs. Reeves had been ill but 10 days, and until the day preceding her death hope of her recovery was entertained.

The deceased was a daughter of the late Henry and Sarah Bartman, and was born at Brownsville. After her marriage to Mr. Reeves they resided here for years, going to Coal Center about 20 years ago. Mr. Reeves still has business interests here and at Monessen. To the union were born two children, Henry B. and Anna, both of whom survive.

Mrs. Reeves early in life united with the Rehoboth Presbyterian church, and later was a charter member of the First Presbyterian church of Belle Vernon. An upright and consistent Christian, she did much good in the Master's cause. She was bright and intelligent, and to know her was to love her. She was a sister of Mrs. Ferris Baker, who is now the only member of the family living, and was well and favorably known here, numbering her friends by the score. They were shocked by the news of her death, cutting her down as it did in the prime of life.

Funeral services will be conducted in the Presbyterian church here at 12:30 today, conducted by Rev. J. R. Morris, of California, assisted by Rev. F. M. Moore, of Coal Center. The remains will later be laid to rest at Rehoboth cemetery.

John N. Beazell died at Belle Vernon, Pa. January 13, 1879 in the 68th year of his age, after a prolonged and painful illness due to disease of the stomach. He was converted when in youth, and joined the M. E. Church of which he remained a member until his death called him away. For nearly half a century he was faithful in the attendance of all the means of grace, having great love for God's house. But when sickness came upon him, depriving him of that privilege, it did not deprive him of sweet communion and fellowship with his God. The blessed promises of God's word were fully verified in his case, and while he had found that religion was good to live with, he also found it was better to die with. He leaves a wife and six children to mourn their loss.

"Samuel L. Beazell, was born 09 January 1856 and was suddenly killed 24 June 1863.

"Sammy", as he was familiarly called, was a child of much promise. He made himself very interesting in our Sabbath-school. He loved the Sabbath above every other day, because it was identified with the Sabbath-school, where he listened to the instructions of kind teachers, and read glorious words of promise and encouragement from God's word. His last conversation on earth with his mother was about the Sabbath and the Sabbath-school; and with a light heart he stepped forth to attend to the work assigned him, preparatory to the calm rest of Sabbath, and was brought back cold in death's embrace. "Of such is the kingdom of heaven."

In Memoriam

Mrs. Jane (Patterson) Beazell

was born in Rostraver township, Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania, near the mouth of Cedar Creek, December 24, 1827, and died at Belle Vernon, Pennsylvania, on November 20, 1909.

On November 25, 1852, she was married to John Nelson Beazell, who died on January 13, 1879.

We heard the song of triumph
They sang upon that shore.
Saying Jesus hath redeemed her,
To suffer nevermore.
Then casting her eyes backward,
On the race that she had run,
She shouted loud hosannas,
Deliverance has come.

Then palms of victory,
Crowns of glory.
Palms of victory I shall bear.

Compliments of her grandson

OLD RESIDENT
PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Jane Patterson Beazell, Died Late Saturday Afternoon at Main Street Home.

LIFE WAS ONE OF GOOD DEEDS

Mrs. Jane Patterson Beazell, 82 years old, widow of the late John Nelson Beazell, a pioneer resident of Belle Vernon, died at her home on Main street at 3:45 Saturday afternoon. She had been invalid since 1902, when she sustained a stroke of paralysis. On Aug. 7 of this year she had a second stroke, from the effects of which she had not recovered when she was stricken with pneumonia. This proved too much for her enfeebled constitution. Peacefully she left her life away, having no strength left with which to combat the death angel. Her last illness was of short duration. During it she never complained, but was ready to go at the call of the Master whom she had so long and faithfully served.

Mrs. Beazell was the youngest daughter of William and Jane (Corwin) Patterson and was the last of a family of 12 children. She was born in Rostraver township, Westmoreland county, near the mouth of Cedar Creek, on Dec. 24, 1827. On Nov. 25, 1849 she was married to John N. Beazell. They lived in Westmoreland county, where Mr. Beazell followed the trade of a miller, then in Washington county, coming to Belle Vernon on the first day of April, 1861.

To this union were born seven children, six of whom are living. They are Mrs. Winfield S. Harvey, Robert M. Beazell, Charles A. Beazell, Harry N. Beazell and Miss H. Alberta Beazell, of Belle Vernon, and William H. Beazell, of Memphis, Tenn. Samuel L. was killed at the age of eight at the Speers saw mill, at the mouth of Speers run, then a boatyard, in 1863. Mr. Beazell, who was 16 years his wife’s senior, died on Jan. 15, 1874.

Mrs. Beazell was one of the most estimable women this section has ever known, her life being one long record of good deeds. A member of the Methodist Episcopal church since childhood, she carried her Christianity into her everyday life and made it practical. As long as she was able she attended church services and was a moving spirit in its religious work. She was one of those good old souls whose apparent sole aim in life is to minister to the wants of others, so few of whom in these days bless any community. “Aunt Jane” will be sadly missed, more especially by her children and grandchildren, to whom her life was devoted, but by all, for to know her was to love her.

Both the Beazell and Patterson families are prominent in this section, being among the earliest settlers. Antecedents of the former came from Germany before the days of the Revolutionary struggle, and of the latter from Ireland. The deceased was related to many of the older families in the “Forks of the Yough,” that section lying between the Monongahela and Youghiogheny rivers. Two sons are well-known business men here, one being a member of council and another a former member of that body. The oldest son has for some years held a responsible position with a Western railroad.

AILES.—Ann Katharine Ailes, aged nearly ninety-one, died at California, Pa., April 9, 1904. She was a lifelong Methodist, and during the years of her activity was a notable worker in the church. She was an original member of the W.F.M. Society Auxiliary and during its entire history was an officer in it, enthusiastic and faithful in the performance of every duty. She was known throughout the community as "Aunt Katie", a term expressive of great endearment. She closed her long life peacefully and, in firm assurance of a glorious resurrection. H. N. C.

JAMES P. AILES was born in Washington County, Pa., February 8, 1814, and died of congestion of the brain at his residence in California, Washington Co., Pa., August 4, aged 56 years and 6 months. He passed from labor to reward very unexpectedly to all; even his most intimate friends had no time to learn of his condition, until it was said of him, "he is no more." He was no ordinary Christian. The world is seldom blessed with a heart so holy and a life so pure. His prayers at home and in the house of God were full of divine unction. His faith knew no denial and his works no end. He was always ready for every good word and work. For sixteen years he was a class leader in this place, and for thirty-two years a member of the Church. In his removal the Church has lost a zealous leader, a devoted Sunday-school teacher, and a true friend. His house has been the home of the preachers. He left no dying words of cheer or counsel, as he continued in a state of unconsciousness until the end. He died with his armor on, and could not have added his dying testimony; the Church would have been impoverished. He had left a devoted Christian wife to mourn her loss. May the Lord be her portion forevermore. J. G. Goodyear.

"Eliza Jane Beazell, was born 10 Aug. 1815, and departed this life at Webster, Pa. Nov. 6, 1893. She was the daughter of Luke and Elizabeth Beazell. Blessed with a Christian home, she joined the church in 1832, at Fells Church and during all her sixty-one years of membership her Christian life, though not demonstrative, was consistent and conscientious in the highest degree. With a firm and steadfast mind she met and discharged all her duties in a spirit of faithfulness. Naturally retiring and domestic in her disposition, yet she was deeply intelligently and prayerfully interested in the prosperity of the church the whole church at home and abroad, was loved in her heart and remembered by her legacy. Her long life was devout and useful, distinguished by an unbroken uniformity of prayer, faith and good works. Her last illness was of long duration, but she was calm and peaceful, and when the call came, quickly and unexpectedly to all, she closed her eyes on earth, and opened them in heaven."

"LIZZIE SMITH", daughter of Ami R. and Mary E. Smith was born 25 May 1861, and died 12 August 1884. Lizzie was always an exemplary and moral young woman, but during our protracted meeting at Webster last winter she felt her need of Christ, and came to Him, believed upon His name and found peace in believing. A few weeks before she died she, with others, was received into full membership. Shortly before she died she said to her widowed mother: "Mother, for your sake I would desire to live, it it was God's will; but if it is not His will I am not afraid to die, for I have made my peace with God." She sleeps in Jesus, in hope of a glorious resurrection. W. C. Weaver
Ami Rhami, Smith died at his late residence, in Rostraver township, Westmoreland county, Penna., on Saturday morning, October 27, 1883. He was the son of Dr. Belt Smith, who was born in the State of Connecticut in 1762, and came to the Forks sometime between the years 1785 and 1789, and died Oct. 17, 1841. In the house recently torn down by Harry Markle, near the end of the West Newton bridge, in Rostraver township. He was well educated, especially in polite literature and general science, and in manners was an accomplished gentleman. He studied medicine before leaving his native State. He migrated to the Forks ostensibly as a Yankee school teacher, and as such obtained a school in the neighborhood where he first tarried over night. During the progress of his school a little child became very sick in the family with whom he boarded. A doctor from the region of Brownsville was called, who visited the child every third day. One night the patient became worse to the alarm of all the household. The school teacher was aroused from his sleep. On looking at the little sufferer, he remarked that (if it was agreeable) "he had in his saddle bags a preparation which he thought would help it." He gave the medicine under which it so rapidly improved as not to require any longer the physician who had been attending it. During the progress of the patient's recovery, the doctor remarked to her benefactor, "You are no school teacher, but a doctor, and I want you to put out your shingle, and I will board you until you earn money enough to pay me." He took her advice and in a short time he acquired an extensive and lucrative practice. He married Elizabeth Patterson, who died May 23, 1844, in the same house where the doctor had died. This property, called "Allison Delight," was deeded to him in 1791, and has ever since been known as the Dr. Smith homestead. He left a very large landed estate to his children. He had a large family of children. Representative of four generations he buried in the Behoboth graveyard, and one of the fifth is buried at West Newton. His son Ebenezer died in early life. Amanda died Sept. 16, 1819, in her 19th year. Alvina died Sept. 12, 1822. She was the first wife of John Neebolt, who at one time owned the farm on which Greer McIlvain now lives, in Carroll township; also the farm on which Gibsonton mills now stand. He is still living, as far as we know, in Bloomington, Illinois. Elizabeth, or as she was better known, Betsy, married John Housman, and died May 27, 1834. She was the mother of Bela S. Housman, living still on part of the old homestead, in Rostraver, and of E. F. Housman, one of the present editors of the Greensburg Herald and Tribune. S. Stanhope died unmarried January 9, 1859. Talitha-Cumi died April 13, 1846. Polly married Hugh Wright. She died March 20, 1827, and her husband November 10, 1828. Both buried at Behoboth. One of his sons resided near Nashville, Illinois, whose son-in-law is an elder in the church to which Rev. J. H. Stevenson has just removed from Scotland. Bela B. Smith, son of the Dr.'s, died April 27, 1859, in the house in Rostraver in which his grand-son, Joseph Smith, now lives. His wife was Nancy Plumer, and died March 12, 1870. Misajah has many years resided in Washington, D. C., and is the only survivor of the family. He is the father of Postmaster Harman D. Smith, of West Newton, and Anezzi Smith, long an employee of the U. S. Senate.

Ami, another son of Dr. Smith, died January 7th, 1821. He was the father of Polly, the first wife of Jas. H. Van Voorhis, formerly of this city, but now of Cooperstown, Dakota. She died July 29th, 1848. Margaret was the wife of J. C. Cook, of Behoboth, and died July 29th, 1849. Amanda married a man the name of Carr, and died in March, 1853, at Montecello, Illinois; and Elizabeth, the only survivor of Amzi's children, is the wife of Dr. J. S. Van Voorhis, of Bellersun, Pa.

Harriet, daughter of Dr. Smith, married Hon. John Fuller, of Connelsville, Pa. She was the mother of Dr. Smith Fuller, and Amzi S. Fuller, of Uniontown, Pa. Amzi Rhami, the subject of this sketch, was born 29th October, 1803; was buried at Behoboth on his birth day. His first wife was a Miss Clark, from Connelsville, and was an aunt of Mrs. Nathan Cleaver, of this city. Her daughters Maggie, at the homestead, and Mrs. Sarah A. Flanagan, survive her. She died Oct. 27, 1854, being the same day of the same month of her husband's death. The deceased's second wife was Mary Jane Power, sister of John Power, of this city and mother of Mary Jane Power Smith, who died March 11, 1883, at the house of Mr. John Power.

His third wife still lives. She is a daughter of the late Luke Beazell, and with her daughter Lizzie, remains at the homestead, who with Maggie, made up the home family of the deceased. The deceased joined Behoboth church in 1829, under the ministry of Rev. Robert Johnson, never having severed his connection. Whilst in health, he not often failed to be in his seat. In all his dealings with men and the church he was prompt and upright. He has gone down to the grave not only old and full of years, but carrying with him the universal love of his fellow men, and with the brightest prospects of a glorious immortality.

Edwin H. Beazell, one of the pio-near, industrial leaders of the Canonsburg district, died at his home there Tuesday night. Death was attributed to a heart attack and followed an illness of about two weeks.
Funeral services will be held Friday morning at 11 o'clock, at St. Thomas Episcopal Church with the rector, the Rev. A. L. Gaylord in charge. Burial will be in Oak Spring Cemetery.

Mr. Beazell was born at Mt.
Union, Ohio, April 27, 1866, the son of Margaret L. Woodruff of Talmadge, Ohio, and John S. Beazell, a native of Webster, Westmoreland County.

He attended elementary school in Ohio and entered Lehigh University, where he was graduated with a degree in Civil Engineering in 1890. He went to Wyoming where he was engaged in railroad construction work for several years, coming east to Pittsburgh, where he became associated with the Keystone Bridge Works and later, about 1900 came to Canonsburg,
as works manager of the Port Pitt Bridge Works, which position he retained until his retirement in 1922.

Mr. Beazell was identified with many of the early industrial efforts of the community, was an extensive property owner and served on both council and the school board as well as the Canonsburg Planning Commission.

He was a charter member and one of the organizers of the Phi Delta Theta college fraternity of the Lehigh chapter, a member of the Masonic fraternity and senior warden of the Episcopal Church parish here for many years.

Mr. Beazell is survived by one daughter, Margaret Couch Beazell
at home.
71. BEAZELL, (Rev.) Benjamin Franklin

b. 27 Feb. 1844 d. 01 June (Jan.) 1915

She was d/o Rev. David Stewart Welling and Rebecca (Dickerson) Welling of Columbus, Ohio.

He was an elder of the Pittsburgh Dist. of M.E.Conf. - in 1890 he resided in Pittsburgh where he was a minister in the M.E.Church.

Mary D. Beazell, wife of the Rev. B. F. Beazell, D.D., of the Pittsburgh Conference, was born Jan. 23, 1845, and entered into rest after a lingering illness May 12, 1893. She was the daughter of Rev. D. S. and Rebecca Dickerson Welling. Trained in a Christian home, she was from childhood familiar with the Holy Scriptures, and at the age of twelve years she entered into a clear, joyful and confident Christian experience which brightened all her pathway, sustained her in suffering, and gave her complete triumph over the last enemy.

The keynote of her experience is contained in this verse of Scripture often quoted by her during the last weeks on earth: "Redeemed with the precious blood of Christ." Not many hours before her departure, as her husband gave her a drink of cold water, she exclaimed: "How refreshing! I shall soon drink of the fountain of the water of life freely."

Her home life was sanctified and beautified. She was mother, teacher and companion to her children, and a constant inspiration and help to her husband in his work. Her heart was filled with love for her dear ones, and kind and sympathetic toward every one. She possessed rare gifts as a writer and speaker, and these were fully consecrated and frequently employed in the cause of Christ. She was one of the first to espouse and, loyally support with voice and pen the work of the woman's missionary societies, and those who have listened to her in the public meetings of these societies will not soon forget her earnest and eloquent pleadings for the oppressed and benighted at home and abroad. Always intensely interested in the things of nature, she took up the study afresh during the last two or three years while seeking to regain her health. With her children about her, no flower which bloomed, no bird which sang failed to give her delight. This interest and pleasure she communicated to others, and there are many who testify that she first taught them to see God in nature, and nightly to study his wonderful works.

She rests from her labors, and is "with Christ, which is far better;" but the memory and influence of her pure and unselfish life, remain to bless and cheer the hearts of all who knew her and were associated with her.

MRS. AMELIA LYON BEAZELL

Mrs. Amelia Lyon Beazell, 55, died last night at 8:20 o'clock in the home of her niece, Mrs. J. R. Conner, 425 Allison avenue. Mrs. Beazell had been in poor health for two years and had become progressively worse the past few weeks.

Mrs. Beazell was born in Pittsburgh, February 24, 1835, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lyon. She spent her early years there and in 1858 was married to the Rev. B. F. Beazell.

They made their home in Wilkinsburg during the time Dr. Beazell was presiding elder of the Pittsburgh District of the Methodist Episcopal Conference. They moved later to Blairsville where Dr. Beazell served as a pastor and still later to Coraopolis, after which they went to Pittsburgh where Dr. Beazell was pastor of the Perryville Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, North Side.

In 1905 they moved to their farm near the old Fells church, near Webster, which church he served as pastor until his death June 1, 1915.

Short services for the family will be held in the home of Mrs. J. R. Conner tonight at 8 o'clock in charge of the Rev. Henry C. Rogers, pastor of First Presbyterian Church. Further services will be held in the old Fells Church tomorrow afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock with burial in the church cemetery.

AN INTERESTING RELIC.

At the late session of the Pittsburgh Conference, the Rev. B. F. Beazell, D.D., presented to the Conference a gavel made of wood from the original Fell's meeting-house. It was requested by vote of the Conference to furnish for publication his remarks upon that occasion.

It is my privilege to present to the Conference a gavel, bearing this inscription:

"Fell's Church, 1792; Pittsburgh Conference, 1895." It was cut from a white oak log of the original Fell's meeting-house, built in 1792, which was one of the very first of the denominations west of the mountains, the church at Uniontown, perhaps, only preceding it. The present structure, of stone, of ample size, with galleries, in good state of preservation, was built in 1854. Dr. Charles Elliott dedicated it, preaching from the text, "He loveth our nation, and hath built us a synagogue." Dr. Samuel Wakefield, who has so recently "fallen asleep," was admitted to the Conference the same year. Not fewer than one hundred itinerants, I judge, have, in some capacity, served this society, since its first organization. Of those yet in our ranks who have been pastors are Josiah Mansell, T. C. Hatfield, J. W. Koessler, J. J. Hays, J. B. Taylor, Charles McCaslin, W. C. Weaver, M. M. Hildebrand, J. S. Wakefield and William Mulvey. Drs. C. A. Holmes, R. L. Miller, L. R. Beacon, J. A. Miller, N. G. Miller and T. H. Woodring have served it as presiding elders.

Benjamin Fell, whose name the church bore, was a noble character. He would be a man among men to-day, as he was more than a century ago. He was a Quaker, of wide family connections in the eastern part of the state. During the terrible winter of 1777-8, when Washington and his army lay encamped at Valley Forge, suffering untold miseries, Fell put himself and his possessions at the service of the General. All his family were royalists; he alone espoused the cause of the Colonies. The British offered a reward for his head, and for a time he took refuge within Washington's lines. Subsequently, as a time-worn paper in my hand, bearing the date of 1781, shows, he was a member of the General Assembly of the state from the county of Bucks. Later, coming to the West, he bought six hundred acres of land, chiefly unbroken forest, on the crest between the Youghiogheny and Monongahela rivers. This, in the patent by which he held, is named "Fellsburg." In the center of this he lived, and the most attractive spot he chose for the graveyard and church.

To his hospitable home, on the northern borders of the famous "Bedstone Circuit," the earliest itinerants came, and established a society and preached regularly about ten years before the church was built. (Quinn, as quoted by Stevens.) He and his family were among the earliest converts to the new faith. A modest stone in the old burial-ground bears this inscription:
In memory of Benjamin Fell.

A patriot and a Christian.

A friend of Washington, and a friend of God.

That original building was not of the cheap, hastily constructed sort. Doctor Vanvoorhis, the historian of the Monongahela Valley, says the two families, Fell and Beazell, in whose homes the first class and preaching services were held, "cut the trees and hewed the timbers for the first church." It was about forty feet square, with galleries, and ultimately with pulpit and pews of the choicest walnut. The finishing touches, however, seem to have been delayed for some years. Meanwhile Lorenzo Dow, the far-famed eccentric herold, came to fill an appointment sent forward—as was his custom—a year in advance. Punctual to the minute, he mounted the temporary pulpit, and faced a congregation which filled to overflowing the slab benches and packed doors and windows. In his opening prayer he exclaimed: "O Lord, here is a house that has apparently been forty years in building, and is not yet finished. I pray thee to put it into the hearts of these good brethren to finish thy house, and then gloriously revive thy work." The prayer was answered. The building was soon completed, a glorious revival followed, and the society became a tower of strength to the denomination for many years. Indeed, for eleven decades the candlestick has not been removed from that hill, and the "Forks of the Yough," as the region was familiarly known in earlier days, has not been without regular public service, conducted by regularly appointed preachers. A vigorous society still worships there.

Imagine this bit of wood to be, not a gavel, but a phonograph which through the years before any of us had entered upon our life-work was recording the utterances of that old sanctuary! Let us listen, as it repeats some things of the "storied past." What shouts of triumph, what songs of praise and gladness we hear! The silvery voice of James G. Sansom, whom many of us in childhood delighted to reverence, and the mellow voice of Thomas M. Hudson, are again in our ears. The indescribable Henry B. Bascom, and the really great John Waterman are heard. Faithful Thornton Fleming and Asa Shinn, who began to preach before he had ever seen a meeting-house or a pulpit, are with us. Time would fail us to listen to all who have proclaimed a free and full salvation from that old pulpit. But how gladly would we linger to hear James Quinn, the earliest and best historian of the region; Valentine Cook, presiding elder of the District just a century ago, who, more than any other man of his day, opened a highway for Methodism in Western Pennsylvania; Bishop Roberts, who had there attended quarterly meetings in his youth; Bishop McKendree, the matchless camp-meeting preacher; and last of all, and greatest of all, the apostolic Francis Asbury. "And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise; God having provided some-better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect."

Brothers, let us in imagination this morning stand on that sacred spot, and go backward a century in the calendar of the years. Looking toward the rising sun, the dim outline of the mountains is in view. It reminds us that almost all of Methodism was then beyond them, to the east. Facing now toward the west, we look down the valley of the Monongahela, to the spot where we are now assembled; and in fancy take in the unopened empire of the Ohio and Mississippi valleys, and the vast unexplored regions of the West, Southwest and Northwest. Stevens, the historian of the church, tells us that in 1792 there were nearly 5,700 members and thirty-five traveling preachers west of the Alleghenies. These thousands have grown to as many millions in the same territory in the various households of our common faith; and our own church alone replaces the thirty-five by ten thousand itinerants, who proclaim the same gospel, and hold sacred the same doctrines and ordinances. Truly, what hath God wrought? May the great Head of the church make us as sons worthy builders upon these foundations our fathers have laid!

SAD DROWNING.

An anxious hour immediately began to work in and around the barges and work, and in a very short time the body of Miss Power was brought to the surface by means of a pole in the hands of R. B. Patterson, and sullenly, sorrowing friends bore the body to the bereaved mother and sisters.

Miss Power has but recently been ill with a severe attack of erysipelas, and although improved in health, was rather depressed and nervous at times, causing her friends many anxious thoughts. No doubt her sudden and fearful death is the result of temporary derangement of mind, caused by ill health. As far as can be learned she had been unusually quiet and depressed evening before. Some of her young friends, who had called with the expectation of Jennie accompanying them to prayer meeting, found her decided-your hearted and not at all well. Evidently she arose in the night, dressed erself very carelessly in her usual appearance, a black dress and, shoes, not stopping to fasten either. Hastily throwing a shawl over her head, she slipped out of the house, wended her way to the river and ended her life.

A lead pencil found sticking in her dress leads to the belief that she may have written some words of farewell,
but as yet nothing has been found.

Miss Jennie Power was a young lady loved and admired by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. She led a quiet, peaceful life, but as a rule was light hearted and joyous in all social intercourse. Was an earnest worker in the church and Sabbath school, where her helping hand and christian virtues will be sadly missed, and was the comfort and pride of the widowed mother, sisters, and brothers, who have the warmest, deepest sympathy of the entire community in their trouble.

Coroner Johnston was notified and arrived in this city on the 24th, and will return to explain this afternoon.

ELIZABETH WOMAN
AMONG FIRST TO VOTE
FOR HARDING TUESDAY

Mrs. Louisa B. Woods, widow of James Woods and daughter of Joseph and Sarah Spahr Beazell, died January 5, aged one hundred years and eight months. She was a descendant of the Beazell family, which was instrumental in establishing Fells Church, one of the earliest Methodist preaching points west of the Allegheny Mountains. She united with the Concord Church when a young woman and after her marriage, May 19, 1852, transferred her membership to Fells Church, where she remained a loyal member until her death, maintaining an active interest during her seventy-seven years' association with it. Her last opportunity to worship at Fells Church was on the Sabbath following her one-hundredth birthday, which also happened to be "Mother's Day." Her life was marked by Christian beauty and manifested a diligence and simplicity of service. Of her three sons and two daughters only one survives, Mrs. J. B. Secrist, of West Newton, Pa., with whom she spent her closing years. Funeral services at Fells church were in charge of her pastor, F. M. Kees, assisted by Revs. R. L. McQuiston and Noah Fehr, and interment was in Fells cemetery.

Married

At noon June 7, occurred the marriage of Bertie L. Woods and R. Coulter Crowthers, at the home of the former's father, James Woods, near West Newton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Wakefield, of Latrobe, and the newly married couple went at once to Cincinnati, where a new home awaited them. Mr. Crowthers is a graduate of the California Normal, also of Meadville College. He formerly resided in California, and is now in Cincinnati, where as the resident agent of the Lyle Coal Company, he is proving his ability as a rising young business man. Miss Woods was a student at the Normal some time since, and has quite a number of relatives in this vicinity.

Married.

A brilliant wedding was the happy event yesterday at the residence of Mr. James Woods, near Torrence's, in Allegheny county. Mr. I. C. Caucas, of near West Newton, and Miss Lizzie Woods, were the contracting parties. The presents were numerous and elegant. The party started on their bridal tour to the eastern cities.
One Hundred Years Young

Louisa Beazell Woods, con't

Born May 6, 1820; has lived 313,001 days

The town of West Newton, on the site of an ancient settlement, held a reception for Mrs. Woods, who had many interesting friends and relatives in honor of the centennial of her birth. Her having reached her one hundredth year is a landmark in the history of the town. She was born at what was then the old homestead, and has lived her whole life in this city.

Mrs. Woods is the daughter of Joseph Beazell and Sarah Spohre Beazell, both native born Pennsylvanians.

On May 19, 1852, she was married to James Woods. Immediately following their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Woods took up their residence on the Woods farm, located at the Torrance cross roads in Elizabeth township and she resided on the farm until May, 1923, a period of 71 years. Since that time she has been living with her daughter, who is her only living offspring.

Her father and mother died after reaching the ripe age of nearly ninety years. Three sisters, Mrs. Sue A. Lash, aged 89, of Constantine, Michigan; Mrs. Margaret Dunlevy, aged 86, of Monongahela, Pa., and Miss Emma Beazell, aged 82, of Spears, Washington county, Pa., are living and enjoying good health. Mrs. Woods is the oldest of a family of thirteen children born to Mr. and Mrs. Beazell.

A representative of The Daily News, together with Thomas E. Birch, local photographer, called at the Secrist home yesterday where the above photograph was taken. The visit to the home was without any previous arrangement and Mr. Birch was left waiting in an automobile while The Daily News representative entered the house to see if Mrs. Woods was willing to be interviewed and to sit for a photograph. Mrs. Secrist is a very kind woman and in a pleasing manner said she would speak to her mother about it and asked her to come down into the living room.

Mrs. Woods was on the second floor at the time. There are 15 steps in the flight, of stairs leading from the first to the second floor and Mrs. Woods without any aid and without glasses came down the steps into the living room and was introduced to the newspaperman. She was smiling and in a very pleasant way answered questions that were asked her. Her hair is more black than gray and while her shoulders are stooped she does not appear to be more than 75 or 80. Her health is remarkably good and while her mind is not clear...
times she recognizes and talks of her relatives in a perfectly natural manner.

Upon being asked how it felt to be 100 years old, she laughed and replied, "Oh, I don't know; I notice that I am that old."

"What do you believe to be the greatest invention during the 100 years you have lived?"

She answered, "There have been many remarkable things invented, but I guess I'll say the radio and the airplane are the greatest."

"What do you think of the airplane?"

"Well, I like to watch them; I have been down at Bettis Field twice, but I guess if they let me fly around on the ground for awhile yet I will be satisfied."

"Are you a believer in women's suffrage?"

"Sure I am; I voted for Coolidge and for Hoover." "What kind of a president do you think Hoover will make?"

"I think he will make a good one or I wouldn't have voted for him."

At different times during the interview Mrs. Woods seemed to get the impression that the reporter was a minister and she asked him several times if he was a preacher.

The last time she asked him, he replied: "No, I am not that good, but I wish I were as good as a minister." "Quick as a flash she said: "Well, you have the spirit anyway."

Mrs. Woods is truly a remarkable character, not alone on account of her age, but for many other reasons. Her daughter stated that she was no bother at all, that she needed very little attention and that she was a very good sleeper. She goes to bed every night at 9 o'clock and gets up at 7 in the morning.

She eats well and has never had a severe sickness in all her lifetime.

More than 100 persons attended the reception and heaped congratulations upon this well-liked centenarian. The birthday cake, with its 100 candles, was a sight not to be forgotten, one of the guests remarked. A little, great-granddaughter shouted that: "Grandma still has enough breath to blow out all the candles."

Luke Beazell, con't

Mr. Beazell united with the U. B. church in 1876 to which faith he has remained true and consistent and has enjoyed the rich blessing that comes through Christ as life's greatest reward. Mr. Beazell did not confine his support to one church, giving of his means to all just and righteous causes.

As a citizen he was highly esteemed, and in former years was active in whatever movements that were inaugurated for the advancement of the welfare of the county.

Since his retirement from the active management of his estate he has devoted his time and energy to the enjoyment of life in his way.

A passing on he has left his life companion to deeply mourn his departure, and to look to that reunion which will unite them in that world where there is no sorrow or sickness, no parting for evermore. The funeral occurred from the home Wednesday at 1 30 clock Rev. Jenkins, of Ambia, preaching the discourse. The body was laid to its last rest in the beautiful Beazell cemetery.

Card of Thanks.

We cannot refrain from thus publicly expressing our gratitude to our many friends, for their consideration and kindness shown us during the last illness of our dear daughters and sisters. Never were friends more kind than they were during the trying ordeal through which we have passed. Accept our thanks, our grateful thanks. Mr. and Mrs. Luke Beazell, Mr. Newt Newtson, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Davis, Mr. Wm. Beazell.
OBITUARY

Elizabeth Jane Beazell, daughter of Edward and Emmelia Ferguson, was born in Ross County, Ohio, on April 14, 1833, and departed this life in her late home in Boswell, Ind., March 29th, 1927, at the advanced age of 93 years, 11 months and 15 days.

When ten years old she came with her parents to Bluffton, Ind., where they lived until 1851 when they moved to Oxford, Ind. Later Elizabeth returned to Bluffton and made her home with an aunt, Mrs. Mary Wilson, at whose home she was married to Mr. Luke Beazell, Dec. 24, 1856. She and her husband spent the first year of their married life with the aunt in Bluffton, the following year coming to Oxford where they lived upon various farms in the community until 1874 when they moved to the well known Beazell farm north of Chase. Here they labored, toiled and lived until 1897 when they took up their residence in Boswell, Ind.

To this union six children were born: William, Emma, James, Elizabeth, Sarah and Morrison. Three of whom, preceded their mother to the spirit world, James in 1888, Elizabeth and Sarah in 1896. The remaining children are Mrs. S. P. Davis of Lafayette, William and Morrison of Boswell.

There also remain 16 grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren besides two brothers, W. H. Ferguson, LaVerne, Minn., and Lash Ferguson of either Plankington, S. Dakota, or Salt Lake City, Utah; one sister, Mrs. Martha Underwood of Oxford, Ind. Mention should be made here of Mrs. Nettie Smith who for the past seven years has been with Grandma Beazell, caring for her needs and comfort with the same faithfulness and tender compassion that one would expect from an own daughter.

The deceased was a woman of remarkable personality, possessing a wonderful memory out of which she drew a fund of knowledge and facts deeply interesting to younger folk. Her experiences down through the early development of this community carry a degree of interest peculiar to pioneer living.

Mrs. Beazell became a charter member of the Chase church of the United Brethren in Christ in 1876 and maintained her identity with this faith to the close of life.

For the last few years she was a valuable member of the Ladies' Aid Society and the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church at Boswell.

When well advanced in years, it fell to her lot and privilege to take into her home two grandchildren, Charles and Elizabeth Kirtley, rearing them to maturity with a mother's love and care.

For several years Mrs. Beazell has been anxiously awaiting the call home. She will be missed because of what she was, yet none would call her back to the scenes of earth.

A kind neighbor, a loyal friend, a loving wife and true mother are attributes she has merited.

Funeral services were held from the late home in Boswell on Friday 1:00 P. M. April 1, Rev. J. C. Bailey, former pastor of the deceased, of South Whitley officiating, assisted by Rev. J. P. Alford of the M. E. church.

Interment was made in the Boswell cemetery.

CRYSTAL WEDDING.—The celebration of the crystal wedding of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Bradley took place at their residence last Monday evening and as a pleasant social gathering was all that could be desired. The department of the bride and groom was such as to display but very little excitement on the part of either, which, no doubt, is much more than could be said of them at the same hour just fifteen years previous. The wedding presents were all "recherche" and were highly appreciated by the bride and groom, while on the other hand, a feast of the delicacies of the season was served in such elegance and profusion as to more than satisfy and delight the guests. The presents were, by Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Harst, celery glass and finger bowl; Mr. and Mrs. John Denny, perfumery, butter dish; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Speer, cake stand and spoon holder; Miss May Mcknight, of Plainsfield, fruit dish; Mr. and Mrs. Mra. --Funeral services will be held from the late home this afternoon at 2 o'clock, with the Rev. Edward L. Bottericher, pastor of the Methodist Church, Monessen, officiating. Burial will follow in Monongahela Cemetery.

MRS. MARGARET J. DUNLEVY

At her home in Monongahela, March 2, death removed one of the valley's oldest and most highly esteemed residents, Mrs. Margaret Jane Beazell Dunlevy, in her 94th year. She was the wife of Bartimeus Dunlevy. Mrs. Dunlevy's illness extended over a period of two years.

The daughter of Joseph and Sarah Sphar Beazell, pioneer residents of this district, she was born in Rostraver Township, Westmoreland County, May 28, 1843, and had lived in Monongahela for the past 80 years. She was one of a family of 13 children, of whom only one survives, Miss Emma Beazell, of Speers.

Mrs. Dunlevy united with the Mt. Nabor Church at the age of 18 and had been a consistent member of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Monongahela for 60 years. She was also a charter member of the Ladies' Aid Society of that church. On January 21, 1875, she united in marriage to Bartimeus Dunlevy. Two years ago the aged couple celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary with all members of their family present on the happy occasion. Her passing marks the first death in the four-generation family connection.

Mrs. Dunlevy was a woman of fine character, an exceptional personality.

Surviving with the husband and sister are two sons, Charles L. Dunlevy, of Monongahela; Joseph B. Dunlevy, of Washington; two daughters, Mrs. J. W. HILL and Mrs. D. C. Farquhar, of Monessen. Seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services were held from the late home at 630 Shelby street, Monongahela, March 4, with the Rev. J. Allen Kestle officiating. Burial in Monongahela Cemetery followed.
MONONGAHELA, Pa., Jan. 19—In the days when brides walked to the altar at 16 and girls were considered "old maids" at 25, Margaret Beasell dared to be different.

"I'm going to wait for the right man no matter how long I wait," she said—and that was a long time ago.

Friends were married in the little community where she lived at Speere, Pa., near Charleroi, and settled down in farm homes to be wives and mothers.

The Civil War came and war brides were the heroines of the day. Margaret Beasell was in her twenties then, but still she waited while others said "I do."

When she was 31 she married Bart Dunlevy. Tomorrow the couple will celebrate their sixtieth wedding anniversary in Monongahela. Mrs. Dunlevy is 91—her husband 87.

They have had 60 happy years together. Their four children, all their grandchildren and great-grandchildren are alive.

"Am I glad I waited," Mrs. Dunlevy asked. "Of course I am. I made a wise choice and have never been sorry."

Mrs. Dunlevy was one of eight daughters on the Beasell farm at Speere. Her own family, she said, didn't look on her as a spinster because she had passed the 30 mark. She had beaux who took her to spelling bees and singing fêtes.

They both frown on brief courtships and marriages at too early an age.

"It's my opinion that a couple needs to study each other for at least a year before they decide to be married," Mr. Dunlevy said. "We went together two years before our wedding."

For many years Mr. Dunlevy was in the dairy business in Monongahela. Both he and Mrs. Dunlevy enjoy auto rides and are quite active for their years.

They will mark their sixtieth anniversary with a dinner to be held at the home of Mrs. William Hill, a daughter, on Union Street, Monongahela. Four generations will attend.

Wife, Who Waited for 'Right Man,' Now Married 60 Years
Monongahela Couple Celebrating Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary

On a wintry day sixty years ago, the river frozen and the land white with a heavy blanket of snow—a distinct contrast of today's balmy breezes and sunshine—a young Speers lass and a Monongahela lad bundled into a sleigh and journeyed to Brownsville where they were married. Today this couple, Mr. and Mrs. Bart Dunlevy are happily celebrating their sixtieth wedding anniversary at their home in Monongahela and this evening will be guests of honor at a dinner to be given in the home of Mrs. William Hill, a daughter, Union street, Monongahela. Four generations will attend.

Mrs. Dunlevy, the former Margaret Beazell, of Speers, one of eight daughters, is aged 91 years and her husband 87. Sixty happy years have been the reward of Mrs. Dunlevy's determination to wait for "The right man—no matter how long" as she expressed it when a girl.

Blessings have been many to this ideal couple who today will have to rejoice with them their four children and all their grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Interviewed today both Mr. and Mrs. Dunlevy frowned on brief courtships and marriages at too early an age.

"It's my opinion that a couple needs to study each other for at least a year before they decide to be married," Mr. Dunlevy said. "We went together two years before our wedding."

For many years Mr. Dunlevy was in the dairy business in Monongahela. Both he and Mrs. Dunlevy enjoy auto rides and are quite active for their years.

Married on Wednesday Sept. 20, 1911

One of the priciest home weddings that has been solemnized during the present season was that on Wednesday afternoon, of Miss Blanche Bebout, of near Library, and Mr. Joseph B. B. Dunlevy, of this city. The ceremony was performed at the bride's home and Rev. Hyde, of Library officiated. The bride wore white marquisette over white liberty satin trimmed with pearls, with a white tulle veil caught with a cluster of roses and lilacs. She carried white bride's roses. The maid of honor was Miss Etta Mollenour, of Library, who wore pale green satin dress in line with pearl trimming and carried pink roses. The groom was attended by Mr. Hugh Frampton of this city. The party entered the room to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by the Misses Mesta.

Immediately after the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained with six o'clock dinner, which was a most elaborate five course affair served by a Washington caterer. After the dinner Mr. and Mrs. Dunlevy left by machine for Pittsburgh, and from there on a western trip. For a traveling gown Mrs. Dunlevy wore black broad-cloth, trimmed with white point lace and a black velvet picture hat.

Mrs. Dunlevy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bebout, of near Library, and is very well known. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bartley Dunlevy and has been a resident of this section all his life.

There were guests present from all along the valley, including the following from Monongahela:

Mr. and Mrs. Bartley Dunlevy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunlevy, Mr. and Mrs. William Hill and daughter Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hayden, Mrs. Thomas Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Lena Beazell, Hugh Frampton, Walter Sumney, and Bascomb Carson.

JOSEPH BASCOM CARSON.
Joseph, Bascom Carson, son of Cornelius Carson, of 502 Fourth street, died Monday, October 22, at 2:30 a.m., at Ft. Bayard, New Mexico, aged 36 years. He had been ill for a period of eight years, and had been in the southwest practically all that time for the benefit of his health.

Mr. Carson was born in Monongahela, April 6, 1892, and his early life was spent in this city. At one time he was employed in a clerical position in the Monona mills, and lived in that town for a number of months. He also resided at LaVeta, Colorado.

He was a member of the First Methodist Episcopal church of this city; of Henry M. Phillips Lodge, No. 337, F. & A. M.; Monongahela Chapter, No. 249, R. A. M.; Valley Council No. 49, R. A. M.
Cornelius Carson, recently elected to the Legislature, was tendered a most delightful surprise yesterday, New Year's Day, when a dinner was given at his home on Fourth street, in his honor. The surprise dinner was arranged and given by his daughters; Mrs. Thomas Anderson, of town, and Mrs. Charles Hayden, of Forward township. Mr. Carson had been down town in the morning and at noon made his way home, and when entering he found quite a few visitors, among whom were his brothers, and sister, and the fair began to take the looks of a family reunion. Then a few other guests arrived and when dinner was announced a great large table fairly groaning with good things, appeared, and it was then that Mr. Carson was wholly aware that he was being honored in an extraordinary manner. There were fifty or more guests that took dinner, and the bountiful and appetizing repast was heartily partaken of by all, and the good things offered by the daughters of the honored one proved most savory to the guests. At the conclusion of the dinner, at an opportune time, Coroner James T. Heffran, who was a guest, arose, and in a neat speech presented Mr. Carson with a fine leather hand bag, one of the best kind. Mr. Carson fittingly responded with a few words of thanks and appreciation for the gift and for the whole affair. The decorations on the table and throughout the home were of the Christmas idea and were prettily arranged. All day Mr. Carson was greeted by friends who dropped in to congratulate him on his recent victory and election, and to wish him much success when he goes to Harrisburg next Monday. Over one hundred visited the Carson home during the day. At evening, Messrs. David Woodward, James Hayward, Sr., William Downer and others visited friends of Mr.

CORNELIUS CARSON

Cornelius Carson, aged 83 years, former member of the State Legislature and one of the best known and most highly respected citizens of Monongahela, died last night, January 3, 1932, at 9:20 o'clock at his home in that city. His death was due to a general decline. He was well known in Charleroi and the entire section.

Mr. Carson, who was a lifelong member of the Democratic party, took an active interest in party affairs, serving as a member of the Monongahela Council and in 1912 was elected as a member of the State Legislature. He was an active member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

His wife preceded him in death by 25 years and he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Blanche Carson Anderson and Mrs. G. A. Hayden, of Monongahela; eleven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. Five brothers and one sister also survive. They are Isaac, of Allemon; Robert, of Grand Junction, Ohio; Henry, Noah, and Joseph, of Fallowfield Township, and Mrs. Margaret M. Carson, of Coal Center.

Funeral services will be held in the First Methodist Church of Monongahela tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, with interment to follow in Maple Creek Cemetery.

EDITH E. CARSON

Edith E. Carson, aged 20 years, granddaughter of Cornelius C. Carson, of this city died this morning, Tuesday, February 24, 1925, at the home of her aunt, Miss Emma Beazell of Twilight.

The deceased was a former well-known resident of Monongahela and made her home with her grandfather here, later moving to the home of her aunt, where she has since resided.

She is survived by one sister, Sarah L. Beazell of Elizabeth. Funeral services will be held from the home of Cornelius Carson, 502 Fourth Street, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. George P. O'Hara and Mrs. Cornelius Carson are guests with Mrs. Beazell, Mrs. Carson's mother, near Bellevernon. Today Mrs. Beazell entertained a few friends at dinner. It being the anniversary of her birth, and none will more heartily enjoy the gathering than this cheery, energetic old lady, whose heart is as young and spirited as that of her charming young grand-daughters, who rank among Monongahela's favorite girls.
Margaret A. Carson, daughter of Cornelius and Sarah J. Carson, was born July 7, 1875, and died in Monongahela, Pa., Dec. 12, 1894. She was converted and united with the church in March, 1888. Her life was consistent with her early profession. She graduated from the city high school with honor in 1893; and taught a public school last winter, and was re-elected for the present year. During the early summer her health began to fail. She gradually grew worse until her disease developed into consumption. When she was told that there was no hope, it gave her no alarm. Her last days were spent in peaceful resignation. A short time before her death she bade her friends farewell, and requested them to sing when she was dying, "We'll never say good-by in heaven." Music charmed her last hours on earth, and greeted her first in heaven. A beautiful flower transplanted into that sun-bright clime, to bloom forever.

Mrs. Rachel Beazell Bedsworth

For the first time since the establishment of the household, many years ago, death entered the home of Samuel Bedsworth in Rostraver township near Belle Vernon, and took away the wife and mother, Mrs. Rachel Beazell Bedsworth, who died last Thursday evening at 10:40 o'clock. The deceased was sick only one week and her death was due to intermittent fever and complications incident to old age.

Mrs. Bedsworth was born 75 years ago. She was the daughter of James Beazell and was born and raised near her late home. When she attained the age of young womanhood Rachel Beazell was married to Samuel Bedsworth, and the young couple began housekeeping at the homestead where their long and happy life was spent together. Mrs. Bedsworth is survived by her husband, Samuel Bedsworth, and five children, four sons and one daughter. These are R. L. Bedsworth of Charleroi; James Bedsworth of the state of California; J. B. Bedsworth of Belle Vernon; F. L. Bedsworth who lives at home, and Mrs. Mattie Douglass of Braddock.

Funeral services were held at the late home on Saturday at 2 p.m., and were conducted by Rev. Holmes, pastor of the Methodist church at Belle Vernon. The interment took place in the Belle Vernon cemetery.

Levy Bedsworth, 63 Washington avenue, a former Charleroi tailor, died last night at 11 o'clock. Mr. Bedsworth had been in fair health for some time, and but recently discontinued his tailoring business at his location in Fallowfield avenue, between Fourth and Fifth streets.

Decedent was born in Belle Vernon December 16, 1884. Coming to Charleroi in its primitive days and engaging in the mercantile trading business, he soon became one of the growing town's well-known citizens. Quiet and unostentatious, he was a gentleman imbued with firm convictions in the eternal fitness of things which conduct for the right, and in passing to that bourne from whence no traveler returns, he leaves as his best legacy an honored name. In his passing as a business man from the category of Charleroi's pioneers, his death will be deplored.

As a tailor he was recognized not only as a master workman, but he was a credit to the profession. There survive his widow, and one brother, Frank Bedsworth, of Belle Vernon.

During the tenure of his mundane existence, Mr. Bedsworth fraternized, and was a member of the Charleroi lodge of Elks and of the Odd Fellows, being a charter member of the three links organization.

Funeral services will be held at his late home on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with the Rev. Robert J. Shields, pastor of the First Presbyterian church officiating. Burial will be made in the Monongahela cemetery.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ballou Succumbs When She Is Forced to Pass Over Fortnight.
Other Old Residents Go.

Mrs. Elizabeth Beazell Ballou, widow of the late William F. Ballou, almost 81 years old, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John L. Houseman, with whom she had lived for many years. At 1:50 a.m. on Friday, Dec. 10, as the result of an apoplectic stroke. For 14 days and 12 hours she had lain without taking a bite to eat or a drop of water, one of the most remarkable cases this section has ever known. Her first stroke was on May 12, 1907, since which time she had been an invalid.

The deceased was a daughter of James and Martha (Springer) Beazell and was the fifth of a family of 14 children. She was born on March 2, 1829, on the Miller Farm on the site of Monessen. She married Mr. Balou on Jan. 27, 1852.

They went to housekeeping near Monongahela, on Monogos creek, later living at Brownsville and then in Greene county. Mr. Ballou enlisted with the Union forces in 1862, and on Oct. 19, 1863, he was wounded.

A drunken surgeon gave him too much Chloroform preparatory to performing an operation and killed him. The remains were brought home and interred in the "Old Methodist graveyard" at Greensboro.

Following this Mrs. Ballou came to her father's home, remaining until his death in 1868. She lived at various times at California, Pa., and Cleveland, O., coming to Belle Vernon in 1871. She built several houses, but had lived in the one where she died on Speer street all but two years since coming here.

Mrs. Ballou was the mother of three children, Mrs. Houseman being the only survivor. But three of the Beazell family are now living - Miss Anna Catherine and Albert Beazell, who is in the State of California. There are the three youngest of the family, Miss Ellissif, one of the older ones, dying on Sunday. Mrs. Ballou was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, joining before her marriage. A kindly, Christian woman, she was endeared to a very large circle of friends. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Norman Phillips, pastor of the Monessen Christian church, at 2:30 on Saturday, interment being at the Belle Vernon cemetery.

A Veteran Gone.
If there ever was a noble hearted good fellow on this round ball we live upon, it was Lea Beazell. He is dead now, and forever we shall hear no more his good cheer, his genial salutes and his hearty voice.

Leander N. Beazell was born in Belle vernon, March, 1831, the son of William and Susan Beazell. In young manhood he learned the carpenter's trade; then in 1862 he went into the army as a soldier in the 18th Penn's Cavalry. After the war he took up farming, and has since followed that vocation having a few years since bought the Temple farm on the pike; and in his house there, at 10 45 Saturday morning he went to the eternal camping grounds. Mr. Beazell was married to Rebecca, daughter of Stephen Calvyn, who survives him, with three children. His father and mother survive him; his brothers and sisters living are Emira, wife of James Young; Luke and John Spencer of California, Pa.; Margaret Elizabeth, married to John DeHaven, of Nebraska; William, in Ohio; Mary Lucinda and Samuel at home; and Robert West of this city.

Church, died in his home near Worthington, Ohio. Mr. Norcross was born in Brownsville, Pa., and was ordained a minister when 25 years of age. He was appointed president of the Cambridge district of the East Ohio Conference at the age of 36 and also served as superintendent of the Cleveland, Cuyahoga, Columbus and Zanesville districts.
He was a member of the General Conference of the church in 1884, and in 1894 and 1910 he was chairman of the General Conference committee on temperance, from which grew the present Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals. He was also a delegate to the Ecumeni-

in Brownsville, Aug. 12, in the 82d year of her age. She was converted and united with the church at a meeting held in Brownsville by the writer in 1881. Her mind was analytic and habit thoughtful. As a result conversion was to her a full acceptance of Christ as a Saviour, and Christian life an entire consecration to the service of God. None was more faithful in attendance upon the means of grace, nor more ready to discharge duty in an intelligent way. Her sufferings were short but severe. She died with a sure hope of a better life beyond.

Her mother died while still an infant, so she was cared for and raised in the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Allen. Mrs. Mathews' ancestors, the Beazelle, were of an old and honorable German family from near the Rhine. She was married in her 19th year to M. H. Mathews, who survives her. Shortly after their marriage they moved to Bealsville on the pike, where he engaged in the mercantile business. The young couple lived there four years. From this place they went to Brownsville, at the time of the beginning of the civil war, where Mr. Mathews was engaged in business 23 years. Leaving Brownsville in 1884, the family moved to Allegheny and Pittsburgh where they resided eight years. From there Mr. and Mrs. Mathews removed to California three years ago and made their home on Fifth street.

For forty-eight years Mr. and Mrs. Mathews have trod life's pathway together, living a happy and contented life. She has been a life member of the Methodist Episcopal church. Of a cheerful disposition and home-like soul, she thought her home the proper field for her labor and influence where she bestowed her loving care and labours. Seven children, four sons and three daughters, make a home. Her son, Wilbur Alan Mathews, was a graduate of the Pittsburgh Academy. In 1913 he was captain of the Cornell golf team. He left Cornell for the officers' training camp. He was a member of the Thomasburg Golf Club and the Christ Methodist Episcopal Church.

Ann M. Bailey, Brownsville, Pa. m/2 - 24 Jan. 1894 in Christ Episcopal Church, Brownsville, Pa.

Isaac was drafted into the militia - 168th. Reg. 9 mo. service -
Adjutant Rank from 23 Nov. 1862. (Civil War).

Almeda Beazell, daughter of the late Isaac and Ann M. Bailey, of Brownsville, Pa., and wife of Isaac R. Beazell, died at Brownsville, Dec. 30th, 1881, in her 41st year. She was born near the town in which she closed her life, was united in marriage to her now bereaved husband in Nov. 1864, and was converted and joined the M. E. Church at Brownsville in Nov. 1869, during the pastorate of Rev. L.R. Beacom. For a number of years past she had resided in Pittsburgh, where she was a faithful member of Smithfield Street Church. These statements give the birth, parentage, marriage, conversion, and death,—
the principal points in the life-history of a most estimable Christian woman. The striking traits of her character were modesty, because of which she was fully known to those only who came into intimate relation with her; high consideration for the rights and feelings of others, which made her self-sacrificing and ever ready to oblige;
true charity, which led her to seek out and relieve the distressed; warm affection, which made her a dutiful daughter, and a loving and devoted wife; meekness, which made her an humble, trustful, and faithful Christian.
Death, though he came to her Just at the maturity of her powers, and when life was brightest and most inviting, found her ready and fearless. Her life was beautiful and her death triumphant. C. W. Smith.

FOR DIVINE GUIDANCE

ISAAC R. BEAZELL

O my Father, in this hour
Save me from the tempter's power;
Help me to rely on thee,
Thus to gain the victory.

Saviour, thou for me hast died;
May I still in thee abide:
Strengthen, keep me, lest I stray
From the strait and narrow way.

Holy Spirit, guide me right,
In the dark as in the light.
Let me in thee ever trust,
Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

Ready to fulfill each day
The tasks thou giv'st me by the way,
So at least my soul shall be Saved to all eternity.

—Miss Mary E. Hibbard and Dr. John S. Woods were united in marriage, Wednesday evening, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J.S. Beazell, a few miles east of La Cygne.
The ceremony was pronounced by Rev. W. A. Crawford, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Kansas City, Kan., the home of Dr. Woods, and where himself and bride will reside in the future. The party was attended by some thirty-five or forty relatives and friends. Among those present were the doctor's mother and sister from Pennsylvania, invited guests from Fort Scott, and the following from La Cygne: Mrs. N. J. McFadden, Mrs. Lizzie D. Hamlin, Rev. and Mrs. Sprague Davis, and Messrs. T. N. Marshall, Dallas Alexander and A.R Cary.
There was a large number of elegant presents, but they were not displayed. The Journal acknowledges the receipt of a liberal allowance of choice wedding cake, at the same time joining the numerous friends of the bride and groom in wishing them long lives of marital felicity.

Mr. Secrist Passes Away

Death Claims Citizen Prominent In Church Work

When death at 1 a.m. Monday, January 21, 1935, claimed James B. Secrist, one of the oldest and most widely known citizens in this vicinity, there was brought to a close a life much devoted to his church and home. His last illness was of only two weeks duration.

James Blackburn Secrist was born in South Huntingdon township Aug. 10, 1841, a son of the late Christian and Jane Blackburn Secrist. He spent his entire life in the township in which he was born and in West Newton. He was educated in the public schools here, his early training beginning in the "Little Round Schoolhouse." He also attended the West Newton Academy.

On July 17, 1859, at the age of seventeen, he united with the Methodist Episcopal church of West Newton, and that church remained one of his life-long interests. When the Pittsburgh Conference of 1879 provided for the erection of a new church in West Newton, Mr. Secrist was appointed a member of the building committee. The present church edifice was erected under his leadership. For nearly half a century he represented the interests of the local church in the councils of the larger ecclesiastical bodies. For sixty-six years he occupied the position of musical director, either active or emeritus, in the local church. For more than fifty years he served as a trustee.

Mr. Secrist was married in 1870 to Miss Eliza Bell, of Buen Vista. To this union two children were born. Mrs. Secrist died in 1900. In 1903 Mr. Secrist was united in marriage with Mrs. Elizabeth Woods Carothers, of West Newton, who survives her husband.

In addition to his widow, a daughter, Miss Laura P. Secrist, and a son, William B. Secrist, of Pittsburgh, also survive.

Funeral services were conducted at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Methodist church, in charge of his pastor, Rev. J. E. Morrison. Rev. Morrison was assisted by Rev. G. Meade Daugherty, of Charleroi, and Rev. E. C. Lindsey, of Mount Pleasant, both former pastors of the local church, and Rev. Noah Fehl, of the First Baptist church. The scripture lesson from the fifteenth chapter of Corinthians was read by Rev. Fehl. Prayer was offered by Rev. Lindsey. Mr. Secrist's favorite hymn, "Forever Here My Rest Shall Be," was read by Rev. Morrison, who also spoke of Mr. Secrist's life in its relationship to the church. Rev. Daugherty also spoke briefly, dwelling particularly on his personal experiences with Mr. Secrist. Burial was made in the family plot in West Newton cemetery.

Mr. Beazell was converted and joined the Church of the United Brethren in Christ at Chase, Ind., when a young man and remained identified with that branch of Christians until the end. He was a charter member of the church. The living of an upright life, the breathing of sincere prayers, the words of confident testimonies, the support of worthy objectives, and the maintenance of consistent standards of living, can not help but to sow seeds of well-being in the garden of other people’s lives.

Mr. Beazell experienced the customary hardships, along with others, in the pioneer days of Benton county and was given much credit by his father for the father’s success in life. Notwithstanding his physical constitution was not of the most rugged type. He took great pleasure in the welfare of his family and labored for their joy and comfort.

Since the more complete failing of his health some four years ago he has endeavored to make it as easy as possible for those who should care for him. During this time his motto has been, “I try to do the best I can,” and this has been exemplified in his patience and consideration of all.

He gave due consideration for the need and comforts of his parents while they were living. His mother preceeding him in death in 1927 when William was 69 years old.

The near kinfolk who mourn his departure from this life are: the widow Mrs. Nora Volz Beazell, the son W. Harvey Beazell at home and the daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Luse of Waynetown, Ind., a sister Mrs. Ema B. Davis of Lafayette, and a brother J. Mowerson of Boswell. A large number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held from the Simpink’s Funeral Home, Rev. J. C. Bailey, Syracuse, Ind., officiating assisted by Rev. N. T. Gottschall, Pastor Methodist Church. Burial was made in the cemetery at Boswell, Ind., Oct. 19, 1944.

In 1879 the deceased united with the U. B. Church at Chase, but on removing to East Lynn, Ill., she united with the M. E. Church. She afterward returned to Boswell and from there went to live with her parents. She had been a constant sufferer for three months when death came to her relief.

Mrs. Kirtley was known and loved by a large circle of friends. Her manner was quiet, her disposition kindly, her character beautiful and her conduct always exemplary. She bore her severe illness without a murmur of complaint and met the terror of death without regret or fear. Her death at the prime of life is sad, but her influence for good will endure for many years so that she being 'dead yet speaketh.' She leaves to mourn her loss, a father, mother, one sister, two brothers who will sadly miss her.

Those acting as pall bearers were Mrs. Kiger, Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Royal, Mrs. Lee Albaugh, Mrs. Anna Eberly, Mrs. Josie Johnson and Mrs. Bolla Miller.

After a prolonged illness, Elizabeth Jane Kirtley passed away early Monday morning Aug. 3, at the home of her parents: Luke and Elizabeth Beazell, one and one-half mile north of Chase.

The deceased was born in Benton county Aug. 29, 1863, and died Aug. 3, 1896, aged 32 years, 11 months and 26 days. On Feb. 12, 1882, she united in marriage to W. T. Kirtley. To them were born two children, Charley aged 12 years, and Lizzie, the 11 months old babe. The children will be cared for by their 'grandparents' Beazell, it being their mother's request. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence and was largely attended. Rev. A. G. Yoont conducted the services, which were simple and impressive, the Scripture lesson being John xiv:2; after which the remains were laid to rest in the vault in the Boswell cemetery, being accompanied to the grave by a large concourse of relatives and friends. The floral offerings were abundant and very pretty.

Mrs. Salie Beazell Newton, wife of Mr. Newton Newton, died Thursday, Aug. 18, at 2 p.m., after a long and painful illness of seven months. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luke Beazell and her death is the second visitation within the past two weeks made to the family of the bereaved parents. Deceased was born in Benton county Aug. 21, 1865, and died Aug. 13, 1896, aged 30 years, 11 mo., 8 days. She united with the U.B. Church in 1879 and lived a consistent Christian life.

On Dec. 24, 1889, she was married to N. M. Newton. This union was blessed with two children, a little son aged 8 years and Hazel, a babe seven months old. The funeral was held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at her home and was largely attended. Rev. A. G. Yount preached a beautiful discourse from the text "Rejoice because your names are written in heaven".

Luke x-20. Her favorite hymn was "Cleaning Wave", which she requested to be sung at her funeral, after which the remains were interred in the vault in the Boswell cemetery. The floral offerings were very beautiful. She leaves a family, mother, father, two brothers, a sister and a host of friends to mourn her loss.

The deceased was one of those kind-hearted mothers whom a community learns to love and respect as a comforter to those in trouble, and her death leaves a great circle of relatives and friends one, who will be sadly missed. She was just entering upon a happy home life surrounded by all that made life sweet to her. The following ladies acted as pall bearers: Mrs. Frank Kiger, Mrs. Joe Royal, Mrs. Andrew Johnson, Mrs. James Kelley, Mrs. Guss Petersohn and Mrs. Thomas Dunman.

"Oh, why must we lose our loved ones? Why must our dear sisters go Away from our home and fireside, And fill our hearts with woe!"

"Why are there voices so silent? Why are their lips so dumb? Why are their eyes so sightless, And hands so cold and numb?"

"Once warm hands, now so cold, Lay lovingly in ours. Why do we mourn that they're gone To twine celestial bowers?"

"Once those hearts that lie so still Beat response to Nature's call. Now the souls that nourished them, In Paradise shall call."

"We will trust Thee Heavenly Father With our sisters for awhile, And the hope to once more meet them, Shall the waiting time beguile."

Mrs. Emma Davis.

Judge Thomas Laid Away Saturday

Esteemed Citizen of Constantine is Taken by Toxic Goitre and Pneumonia--Loss Felt Deeply

Was Prominent Man in St. Joseph County; A Leader in the Village

Judge Wilber Fitch Thomas, without question the best known and most highly esteemed citizen of Constantine, passed away at his home here Wednesday evening, May 10, at 8:30 o'clock. His health had been gradually failing since last holidays, but not until a few weeks ago was any anxiety felt because the failure had been almost unnoticeable. Vigorous measures were taken to restore health but nothing seemed to avail and two weeks before his death he was confined to his bed. A toxic goitre had developed and so poisoned his system as to sap his vitality and render him a victim of pneumonia. Death came quickly after this complication set in.

To those who have known him, the name of Judge Thomas has always meant the embodying of those lofty qualities, those high moral standards and that fairness of mind which spells the highest type of manhood.

All of St. Joseph County mourn the loss of its most representative citizen. In social, religious, fraternal and political endeavors, he was a leader. His character was untarnished. As a citizen he had keen appreciation of the respect and consideration and his advice in many instances led to the formulation of county policies.

Judge Wilber Fitch Thomas was born in Constantine November 14, 1867. He was the son of Dr. Daniel E. and Martha (Meade) Thomas. There were four brothers, of whom two, Everett D. of Three Rivers, and Herbert D. of Chicago, survive. He was graduated from the Constantine high school with the class of 1885. Immediately thereafter he entered the law offices of Keightley and Knowlen and studied law until March 26, 1888, when he was admitted to the St. Joseph County Bar. He opened offices in White Pigeon where he remained until 1903, when he returned to Constantine.

He was a practicing attorney from January 1, 1899 until 1903. From January 1, 1903 until January 1, 1913, he was Judge of Probate. His wide sympathy and thorough legal training fitted him pre-eminently for this most responsible position and placed him in the van among the Probate Judges of the State.

Throughout the greater part of his life he spent much of his energies in the interests of the village of Constantine. At the time of his death he was president of the board of education and village attorney. From April 1, 1914 until March 31, 1916 he was village president and in that capacity he carried on the business of the village...
Judge Thomas, con't

duties he owed his village, our county, state and nation, and faithfully, he performed every one of them.

Early in life he joined the Methodist Episcopal church and never wavered in his devotion to the Master and His church. Always a member of the oficial board, much of the time supertendent of the Sunday School; teacher of the men’s class and interested and helpful in every phase of Christian life.

He was a member of the Masonic fraternity and considered it an adjunct of the church. He was a firm believer in fraternalism and practised its precepts.

His political life is a part of the history of this county. In politics he was as honest and fearless as in his private life. Political chicanery or dishonor was always rebuked and never participated in by him.

He was in great demand at political,
religious and fraternal banquets and at Y. M. C. A. camp fires. His addresses abounded in common sense, wit and uplifting eloquence that will never be remembered. He was a prince among men and yet so modest and unassuming that praise or conspicuous mention or place was obnoxious to him.

With his passing, St. Joseph County loses one of its leading citizens, a man who had taken an active interest in county and community affairs and who,
by his counsel and direction, has carried many projects to success. He was ever known to refuse a public trust or shirk a duty imposed upon him by the dictates of his conscience.

In county Republican circles Judge Thomas was always listened to with in a most efficient manner.

He was married to Miss Anna Maude Lash, May 27, 1891. To them five children were born, all of whom survive:
Lash, of Chicago; Sidney D., of Royal Oak; Mrs. Wilma F. Beatty and Anna, of the home; and Henry E., a student in the University of Michigan.

Mrs. Thomas died October 17, 1904.

The judge maintained the home and became both father and mother to his children, having the closest companionship with them. They were all his pals.

On October 1, 1913, he was married to Miss Grace M. Welch, a most happy union. She survives him. There are two grandchildren, Robert B. and James, Lash Thomas.

The funeral services were held from the home on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o’clock, his pastor, Rev. A. E. Wynn, officiating. The spacious home and front lawn were overflowing with the many friends from the whole county.

The county officers and members of the Bar Association, headed by Judge Johnson, acted as honorary pall bearers and escort of honor. His casket was embowered in flowers, among which were tributes from the Constantine and Centreville Methodist churches, the Masonic order, the St. Joseph County Village Fire Insurance Company, of which he was president for many years,
the school board and scores of friends.

His body rests in the Constantine cemetery, whither it was borne by Edward E. Harwood, J. Murray Benjamin, Edward Hotchin, Harry Bonebright, William Bailey, T. Arthur Beesley and William Davey, old and valued friends.

Not many men have a team of horses tossed over their heads and survive to retire an active life of railroading — but that is the case of G. M. Bradley, prominent California man well known throughout the Monongahela Valley as a railroad station clerk.

Mr. Bradley retired September 1 as station agent at the Monongahela Railway station in California after 40 years and eight months of service. He and Mrs. Bradley this week moved to Linesville where they will make their future home. They plan to spend the winter in Florida.

Mr. Bradley entered railroading in New Concord, O., where he was employed by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. He started work for the Pennsylvania Railroad company January 10, 1901, as a chief night clerk at McKeesport. March 1, 1903, he was promoted to an agency at Elrama March 1, 1903.

He served as an agent on the Monongahela Division at Rice Landing, Belle Vernon and West Monessen. He came to California November 1, 1923.

It was while he was agent at Belle Vernon in 1917 that he experienced his close shave with the team of horses. He recalls the incident with amusement but relates it was anything but funny at that time. A teamster was driving south with a load of telegraph poles. As he turned at the crossing in Belle Vernon a fast Uniontown express train hurtled down the tracks and the pilot of the locomotive struck the horse tossing them 60' feet. In their flight they hurled over Mr. Bradley's head where he stood on the station platform. His son, Morrison, at that time a youngster, wasTerrified by the accident, both team and teamster were killed.

During his 18-year stay in California Mr. Bradley has actively participated in civic and church activities. He is a member of the California Presbyterian church and for a number of years was a member and president of the church Board of Trustees.

Mr. Bradley was born at Zionsville, Ind., January 26, 1874. His family moved to New Concord, O., in 1887. He graduated from Muskingum college at New Concord in 1894. His mother, Mrs. Lizzie Beazell Bradley, was a teacher in West Pike Run township schools at one time. Miss Emma Beazell, 84, who resides at the old Beazell homestead at Twilight, is a sister of his mother. His mother's people were pioneer Mercer and Crawford counties. settler in Washington and Westmoreland counties.

In an interview Mr. Bradley declared he intended to lead a retired life at his new home Linesville where he and his wife have a property. He expects to busy with his gardening hobby.

His children are Morris Bradley, Ellwood City; Eugene Bradley, Dravosburg, and Helen, wife of Charles Moore, Brentwood, Pittsburgh.

Along Main street, Frank Beazell, local haberdasher, is known as an agile thinker-upper of rib-tickling quips. You can't beat Beazell to the draw, for he always has a faster comeback. When The Register-Pajaronian candid camera man poised his lens, Beazell, above, was probably thinking up a new one.

Lash L. Beazell Loses Life While Heroically Saving Small Boy from Death in River—Nephew of County Coroner.

Speers, June 11.—In a heroic and successful attempt to rescue a small boy from drowning, Lash L. Beazell, aged 18 years, lost his life in the Monongahela river just north of the Belle Vernon bridge here this afternoon about 2:30 o'clock.

Young Beazell had been assisting his family in moving during the morning and early afternoon and had gone down to the river to take a swim. He found a number of young boys from seven to 10 years of age in swimming. The steamer Alicia, with a tow of empty coal barges, was passing at the time and Wade Speers, aged seven years, was caught in the wash of the steamer and was drowning. Young Beazell, who had not yet removed his clothes, jumped into the water to rescue the boy. He succeeded in getting the little fellow near enough to the shore for others to pull him out, but sank himself before anyone could rescue him. The body was recovered about an hour and a half later.

The Beazell boy was an experienced swimmer and perfectly at home in the water. It is thought that the exertion of the day and his exhausted condition was the cause of his being unable to save himself.

He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Beazell, of this place, and a popular young man, having spent all of his life here. He was an active member of the Speers Methodist Episcopal church. He was a graduate of the Charleroi High school and a member of the Alpha Phi Beta fraternity.

He is survived by his parents, one sister, Myrtle, and two brothers, Arthur and Fred, all at home. James T. Heffran, coroner of Washington county, is an uncle of the young man.

Funeral services will be held at his late home Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment will be in the Belle Vernon cemetery.

BEAZELL — Fred J., 78, of 137 Wilson St., Struthers, Ohio, died Friday, May 11, 1984, at 12:52 a.m. in Southside Hospital, Youngstown, Ohio. Friends will be received at the Davidson-Becker Funeral Home, 11 Spring St., Struthers, Ohio, Sunday from 7 to 9 p.m. Services will be held Monday at 10 a.m. in the funeral home, with the Rev. Robert Dieterich officiating. Additional services will be held Monday at 1:30 p.m. in the Chapel of Belle Vernon Cemetery. Burial will be in Belle Vernon Cemetery. HEFFRAN DEATH
A SAD AFFAIR

Daughter of Coroner and Mrs. J. T. Heffran Beloved
by Speers People

To the Editor of the Charleroi Mail:

Sir—One of the saddest deaths that ever occurred in this community was that of Lillian Beazell Heffran the nine year old daughter of Coroner and Mrs James T. Heffran of Speers. Although she had been sick for seven weeks, her case did not become, alarming until a few hours before her death.
Besides her father and mother she leaves one sister Hazel and one brother, Harold. Lillian was the baby and naturally a favorite, not only at home but in the town. She was a pleasant, loving girl, who met everybody, young and old with a smile and pleasant words. The writer has always known her and always found her to be a girl admired by all who knew her.

On Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock
the funeral services were held at the Methodist church at Speers with intement in the Howe cemetery. That she was loved by everybody was plain to see. Long before the hour for the services the church was filled to overflowing, and by the time the church was reached by the funeral it was found that not over one-half the people could gain an entrance to the church. The aisles and rear of the church were filled and we may say scarcely standing room on the church lawn. Every available seat was taken except the one Lillian always occupied in her Sunday school class.

Rev. L. Z. Robinson had charge of the services and was assisted by a former pastor, W. F. Setter, and Rev.
Richards of the Charleroi M.E. church.
The singing was furnished by a part of the M. E. choir of Charleroi and was greatly appreciated not only by the immediate friends, but by all.

The beautiful floral tributes were beyond anything ever witnessed by the writer. A number of sprays were sent and brought from Washington and other points away from home and that Lillian was loved by her own Sunday school and church was proven by the fact that ten sprays came from her own Sunday school and church.
When the carriage came with the flowers eight young ladies met it and carried them to and from the church.

It was indeed a sad day at Speers.
There were no dry eyes. Such a feeling cannot come over such a crowd of people very often and as her little girl friends bore her little body from the church the grief that overwhelmed all her playmates and in fact every bady will long be remembered. Lillian will not only be missed in her own home but in all homes she called on, and will be missed by all. While she has gone to her home in Heaven and is better off than those who miss her, yet one little voice is silent in our town. In school and Sunday school entertainments she was a leader of the children, always prepared and spoke and sang with a smile. In the Children's Day next Sunday evening
her response song will be missed.

William Aten, Clyde Yohe, George Hayha and Joseph Dunlevy, and attended by Miss Emma Carson, sister of the bride. The bride was many admiring eyes followed the happy pair.

They were met at the altar by Rev. John Connor, who performed the cere­ the popular bride. Mr. and Mrs. Hayden will reside in McKeesport, and will be at home to their friends after August 31st.

Mrs. C. A. Hayden Marks 90th Birthday

Many Friends, Relatives Join In Celebration

More than 135 persons attended an "open house" reception in celebration of the 90th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Charles A. Hayden held in her home at 455 Fourth Street, Monongahela, on Friday, May 29. During the week preceding the birthday Mrs. Hayden received a daily "shower" of birthday cards.

Her three daughters, Mrs. Gilbert Hancock of Loganton, Mrs. Enoch Colvin and Mrs. George Scott of Monongahela, served jointly as hostesses for the affair.

The home was decorated with a variety of beautiful floral arrangements, all gifts of friends and relatives. Mrs. Hayden wore a blue printed silk dress with a corsage of white orchids given to her by her great-grandchildren.

The dining room table was centered with a three-tiered white birthday cake, a gift of the Thursday Afternoon Bridge Club of which Mrs. Colvin is a member. Assisting in serving refreshments were the honor guest's three granddaughters—Mrs. Thurman Craven of Charleroi, Mrs. Charles Hancock of Bentleyville and Mrs. William Lucas of Bellefonte.

-Sarah Jane Beazell Carson reached the 90th-year milestone in her lifetime on Friday, May 29, and was joined in celebrating her birthday by many friends and relatives at an "open house" reception. She has resided in the area her entire life, graduating from Monongahela High School and California Normal. She is a former school teacher and wife of the late Charles A. Hayden. Hostesses at the party were her three daughters, pictured with her (left to right): Mrs. George B. (Sarah) Scott, Mrs. Gilbert W. (Maud) Hancock, and Mrs. Enoch C. (Margaret) Colvin.
Granddaughters who could not be present on Friday and who visited their grandmother prior to the event or telephoned best wishes were Mrs. William Gilbert of Muncy, Mrs. Donald Decherd of Columbus, Ohio, and Mrs. Raymond Pagel of Cleveland, Ohio. Her grandsons are Charles Hancock of Bentleyville and Charles, Robert and John Scott of Monongahela. Six of the great-grandchildren were present. They were Sandra Lee and Sally Jo Hancock, Cathy Jane and Nancy Lee Draven, and Andrew and Amy Jo Lucas. Those unable to attend were Douglas and Kaye Decherd, and Scott Pagel.

Mrs. Hayden, the former Laura Irene Carson, was born May 29, 1874, in Westmoreland County, the daughter of Cornelius and Sarah Jane Beazell Carson. She was the eldest of nine children and is the last surviving member of her family. She spent her childhood in Carroll Township and Monongahela and was graduated from Monongahela High School, with a class of thirteen members, in 1893. After attending California Normal she taught school for six years in Charleroi and vicinity, her first position as teacher at the old Fremont School.

Following her marriage on June 29, 1898 to Charles A. Hayden of Elizabeth, the couple lived in McKeesport, where Mr. Hayden had a flour and feed store. They engaged in farming in Forward Township, Allegheny County, for thirteen years before moving to Washington County. In 1913, they purchased the Albert Jones farm in Somerset Township where they operated a dairy farm and raised prize Guernsey cattle for almost forty years. The Haydens retired to the present home on Fourth Street, Monongahela, in 1952. Mr. Hayden passed away early in 1953. In the family are five daughters, Margaret, Maud, and Sarah, nine grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Hayden has been active in many organizations outside the home. She is a member of the First Methodist Church of Monongahela and its women's organizations; the Monongahela Chapter, Order of Eastern Star; a past president of Ginger Hill Community Club; a former secretary of Washington County Federation of Women's Clubs; a member of Ginger Hill Grange for almost fifty years, having served as its only woman master in 1926 and 1927, a member of Washington County Pomona Grange, Pennsylvania State Grange and the National Grange.

Mrs. Hayden leads a very quiet life, due to a broken hip suffered several years ago. This, however, does not lessen her interest in people, and she thoroughly enjoyed meeting the many friends who called on her for her birthday.

Pretty Home Wedding Saturday Was Followed 1935 By Attractive Dinner

Saturday, May 18th, at one thirty p.m., the home of Dr. and Mrs. D. C. Farquhar, was the scene of a beautifully appointed wedding, when their daughter, Eleanor Louise Farquhar, became the bride of Mr. Robert S. Hardgrove, of Cleveland, Ohio. The home was decorated with delicate spring tone flowers. A prie deau of white satin and chromium, with background of palms and bridal wreath formed a beautiful setting for the service, which was read by Reverend Daniel Melroy Paul, of Pittsburgh, a former pastor of the Monessen Methodist Episcopal church.

The bride was lovely in a gown of powder blue silk crepe and carried Johanna Hill roses, delphinium and lilies of the valley. She was given in marriage by her father, and attended by her sister, Mildred, of New York, who was attired in pearl gray and pink silk crepe and carried an arm bouquet of briarcliff roses and clarkia. Ward Hardgrove, of Cleveland, Ohio, brother of the groom, acted as best man.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Vivian Beazell, of Charleroi, sang “O Promise Me” and “For You.” She was accompanied by Miss Margaret Gunderman, of Charlerooi, who also played wedding music throughout the ceremony. Only the immediate members of the two families were in attendance. These included from out-of-town, Mr. Beecher E. Hardgrove and Miss Miriam Hardgrove, father and sister of the groom, from Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. B. Dunlevy, grandparents and Mrs. J. W. Hill, an aunt of the bride, from Monongahela, and Mrs. Daniel Melroy Paul, from Pittsburgh.

After the ceremony there was a reception and dinner served by Caterer Johnson, after which the couple left for a trip through the South. They will be at home, after June 1st, at 2305 State Road, Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio. The groom holds a responsible position with the Prudential Insurance Co., of Akron, Ohio. The bride is a former Monessen girl, having graduated at the local High School, Bucknell University and School of Applied Social Science of Western Reserve University in Cleveland. For the past four years she has been employed as a supervisor in social science in Cleveland. The best wishes of their many friends go with them.

Wedded on Monday

With only the members of the immediate families present, a quiet, but interesting wedding took place Monday afternoon at two o'clock, in the parsonage of the Methodist Episcopal church at Leechburg, when Miss Lillian Virginia Crilley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Crilley, and James Harold Heffran, son of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Heffran, of Speers, were united in marriage. Rev. William F. Hogg, an intimate friend of the Heffran family, and a former pastor of the Methodist church, performed the ceremony.

Immediately following the service the young couple and the wedding party returned to the Heffran home, where a bridal dinner was given, in their honor at Wagner's Tea Room. Mr. Heffran's father is secretary of the Charleroi Chamber of Commerce, and a member of the State Assembly from Washington county. Mrs. Heffran's father, Mr. Crilley, is secretary and treasurer of the Mt. Pleasant Beverage Co., of Mt. Pleasant. Both are prominently known. Mrs. Heffran is also a well-known young lady. For the present they plan to make their home with the groom's parents.

Enroute home, the automobile party met with an accident when the automobile was wrecked. They were thrown from the machine, and received minor injuries, reported.
