HARPY COUNTY LINE OF THE BEAN FAMILY.

FOREWORD:

This is only an attempt at recording genealogical data. Biographical matter has been omitted from this pamphlet for want of space and incompleteness of information at hand. This may be taken up in the future if time permits.

As many of the family have the same given name, to avoid confusion it is convenient to place a number before most of them. Additional names appearing has prevented giving numbers in regular order in this pamphlet. Abbreviations: b. born; c. children; d. deceased; cem. cemetery; Res. residence.

Since the matter beginning with page 1 was printed this additional information has been obtained.

As far back as we now definitely know the Bean and Tucker families are closely associated. On March 17, 1917 Josephus Tucker, age 96 years, of Meigs county O., states he is a cousin of Josephus Tucker late of Athens, Ohio. His father's family about the year 1820 was as follows; first names on each line are brothers and sisters:

David Tucker, b. 1765, m. an Austin, c. Josephus of Meigs co., b. 1821, and others.

Aaron Tucker, m. --------------------- remained in Hardy co.

Rausa Tucker, m 15 ... Bean, sister of 17, 18, 19 & 20; c. Josephus of Athens, O.

Thomas Tucker, m. Nancy Marshall, moved to Ohio and later to Illinois.

Nathan Tucker, m. in Hardy county, moved to Missouri in 1830.

Elizabeth Tucker, m. Jeremiah Barnhall, moved to Athens county, Ohio.

Nancy Ann Tucker, m. 178 Dr. George Bean, moved to Athens county, Ohio.

Ruth Tucker, d. 1843, m. 20 Bennett Bean of Hardy co., Va., see on page 7.

This shows additional information to that on page 2. 17 William Bean; 18 James Bean; 19 Thomas Bean and 20 Bennett Bean, brothers, had a sister 15 ... Bean who married Rausa Tucker. They all lived in Hardy county. There may have been other brothers and sisters, names as yet unknown to us.

17 William Bean, 1740-1842, m. Susan Tucker, they had flour mill at Canaanvillia, O.

Mrs. J. Goodrich Ewing, Coolville, O. is a daughter of Josephus Tucker of Meigs co.
Quoting from an address by Hon. Josiah Drummond, "In Scotland 'Bean' means fair and is often used by Highlanders to distinguish a particular man of fair complexion. It is known that three distinct families came to this country about the same time, 1660; one settled in Virginia, one in Maine and one in New Hampshire."

A list published in 1832 shows 12 Bean, Revolutionary pensioners. This represents a small number of those of our name actually engaged in that war. The name occurs several times in Dandridge's "American Prisoners of the Revolution."

Cartmell in his book "Shenandoah Pioneers" page 437, "Mordecai Bean appeared in Frederick county with Isaac Zane about 1767 and applied for a patent for ungranted lands along the North mountains. This then was the seating of a family that for nearly a century held large sway in that section."

Kercheval in his very interesting book; "Valley of Virginia" 1833, speaks of Bean's smelter, also of Zane's cave on the lands owned by heirs of the late Maj. James Bean, in Frederick county.

City Directories of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia for 1815 contain our family name. Evidently the name Bean in America was fairly numerous in both city and country early in the history of our nation.

Many of our line was in the Federal and Confederate armies. We hope to make individual mention of them in biographical notes at some future time.

Walker's "History of Athens County" and the Athens County Records afforded some data. Inscriptions on tombstones supplied many dates which are important.

We feel very grateful to many relatives who have so kindly and promptly responded to letters of inquiry.

We hope you will get the intended meaning where there are typographical errors.

Our motive in the beginning of this was to restore our immediate family record which was lost, as it progressed interest broadened.

Sincerely yours,

Josephine Bean Wilson.

Athens, Ohio, August 1, 1917.
THE BEAN FAMILY OF HARDY COUNTY, VIRGINIA; NOW
WEST VIRGINIA, AND ATHENS COUNTY, OHIO.

Hampshire county was organized in 1754 and Hardy county was formed from this county in 1786. When we mention Hardy county this particular place is meant.

This brief outline is put in this form before it is forgotten or lost. It may serve as a basis for more extensive research. Any additional information or correction will be appreciated. One member is as important as another; where information is brief or absent, it is because the data was not in our possession.

The name Bean is found at Norwich, England, 1622. It is said, the Scotch immigrant, John Bean settled in Exeter, New Hampshire in 1660. In 1824, 61 Bennett Bean of St. Mary co., Maryland, fourth generation from John Bean, 1716; relationship to the Hardy county line as yet unknown. Frequent use in both lines of the Christian names, John, Bennett and Robert is suggestive. However, it is definitely known the following line of the family, which we are not able at this time to trace beyond the four brothers named on the next page, who lived near Hagerstown, Maryland. Before 1794 they moved to the virgin forest in the next state and established what is known as the Bean Settlement on North River about Inkerman, Hardy county, Virginia, now in West Virginia. The Bean Cemetery mile and half south-west of Inkerman, mostly used by descendants of 20 Bennett Bean. Many of families of 18 James Bean and 19 Thomas Bean rest in Asbury Cemetery, four miles south-west of Inkerman.

Some of the family were among the early settlers of Athens county, Ohio. 16 Moses Bean served on the Athens county grand jury, July, 1806; August, 1808 and April, 1811. Dr. George Bean was one of the first three trustees of Canaan township in 1819. At that period the family settled mostly in Canaan township. Others soon followed, and now many of the family live about Guyssville and other parts of Athens county. There is also a Bean Cemetery mile east of Guyssville, this and the cemeteries at Canaanville and at South Canaan Church contain many graves of the Bean family.
On this page is a chart intended to give a brief, general view of the family. The earlier known members are shown and a few names more recent are given for clue to identity of descent. To show much as possible on this page only the Christian name is used: it should be understood the surname is BEAN, unless it is indicated otherwise by marriage. Concerning the Hardy county line of the family we are now able to name four brothers: 17 WILLIAM BEAN; 18 JAMES BEAN; 19 THOMAS BEAN; 20 BENNETT BEAN, who lived in Maryland prior to formation of the Bean Settlement.

As yet it is not determined whether 16 MOSES BEAN was a brother 17, 18, 19 and 20 or not.

Some Data for a Brief History
Saint Mary's County, Maryland Line of the Bean Family,

As I am a descendant of the Saint Mary's County, Maryland, BEAN family, I am making an effort to learn if we are of either English or Scotch descent. Ralph Bean, died 1695 was from England, that only suggests he was English as we do not know his birthplace. So I would like to know the general opinion of the Bean families living in Saint Mary's county, whether they consider themselves of either, English or Scotch origin.

I am preparing a brief history of the Saint Mary's Bean Family and Some of It's Branches. I shall be pleased to mail to you a copy of the booklet free when printed, as an appreciation of your kindness in filling in what you can of the blanks of this sheet. I am doing this for sake of our Bean Family History at my expense for the pleasure it affords me. No difference how little, information you may have it will assist greatly.

My maiden name was Josephine Bean. My husband is physician to State institution here.

I trust this is of interest to you as I do not wish to intrude.

Stamped envelope inclosed for reply.

Yours truly

Oct. 29, 1919.
Mrs. Milo Wilson,
Gallipolis, Ohio
The first BEAN family in Saint Mary's county, Maryland seems to be represented by 1 Ralph Bean, sea captain and boat owner, who came from Southwark, Surrey, England and died in Saint Mary's county in 1695. He had brothers, 2 Walter Bean, 3 John Bean, 4 Robert Bean in Saint Marys co. and a sister Sarah Bean in England.

"Heads of Families First Census of United States, 1790" gives in Saint Mary's county, Maryland following named Bean families.
