DEDICATION

This book is dedicated with love and devotion to my family. To my mother, Dora Naomi Morgan, who started me on this quest by giving me the files that she had so faithfully collected over her lifetime. To my father, who assisted me in finding information that was vital in the confirmation process. To my wife, my thanks for her patience and understanding while I undertook the correspondence, research and compilation of this book. This book was written with the hope that my two children and grandchildren will learn about their ancestors and provide them a printed genealogical record.

PREFACE

During the first five decades of my life, I had no real interest in knowing anything about my ancestors or their families. My interest centered on scientific areas which included assembling, and programming computers. One afternoon, my mother showed me file containers, boxes, and books that she had been collecting over the past sixty years containing an assortment of family history. It was through the combination of this partially organized data and the availability of the personal computer that the organization began.

The collection of family genealogical data began as being a helpful endeavor and progressed to a hobby and has ended up being a quest. The original data contained much conflicting information, many stories, first hand accounts and pictures that provided many leads into the family history. As I have collected information on my father and mother's side of the family two books have been written. This book concentrates on the Morgan side of the family. The book, The Heflin Genealogical Collection, concentrates on the Heflin side.

This book is arranged in a way to provide a quick, efficient way to locate any individual and a corresponding family group. Unlike some genealogical histories, the female members of the families have been included. Each ancestor will be cross referenced, wherever possible, along with the stories pertaining to that individual.

The data presented is believed to be true, however, should the reader find documentation to the contrary, I would appreciate knowing of the discrepancy and any corrections will be included in any future publications. The inclusion of notes will permit the reader to determine the documentation available for any data. As the family history unfolds, it is apparent that an ending is not possible and presently, my pedigree ends with the elusive Jacob Morgan I. This book should be viewed as being nothing more that a collection of genealogical data that has been collected through the years, by many individuals, up to July, 1993. The data base has been updated and corrections made since the publication of The Heflin Genealogical Collection, which was printed in February, 1993. As this information becomes more difficult to obtain and document as time passes, this publication is printed on neutral paper designed to last three hundred years and will "hopefully" not prematurely deteriorate with age.

I wish to acknowledge and thank the following individuals for their assistance in the compilation of this book which, without their help, would not be possible:

Mrs. Carolyn Bearden - Finley, Ohio
Mrs. Elaine Davis - Houston, Texas
Mrs. Judith Hart Fagan - Canal Winchester, Ohio
Mrs. Dora M. Heflin - Morgantown, West Virginia
Dr. Harry B. Heflin - Morgantown, West Virginia
Mrs. Regina Riel Heflin - Salt Lake City, Utah
Mrs. Martha Kaufman - Seville, Ohio
Mrs. Lori Morgan May - Charleston, West Virginia
Mrs. Helen Lou Riggs - Deceased
Mr. Donald E. Roby - New Castle, Wyoming
Mrs. Beulah Rolston - St. Marys, West Virginia

Without the use of the personal computer and the use of the modem which allowed the direct connection to libraries, bulletin boards, international computer services such as Compuserve and Prodigy via telephone lines, the constant world-wide exchange of genealogical data at a sufficiently rapid rate would have been difficult or impossible. Computer technology also assisted in timely verification and correlation of data. The LDS Genealogical Library located in Salt Lake City provided an excellent database. This, combined with their Personal Ancestral File computer software was utilized extensively during this investigation.
HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

This book has been designed to facilitate a quick, accurate compilation of information about the Morgan side of my ancestral tree. The chapter on the history of the Morgan name relates the historical background of our family back to our early beginnings in Wales. Names of individuals in the history section are in bold face type to allow the reader to locate names quickly.

The Numbering System: Genealogists and historians use various numbering systems to assign numbers to individuals, families and marriages. Each individual has been assigned a "RIN" number and even though two people may have identical names, the assigned "RIN" number must also match to be the same individual. The numbering remains the same for all the charts. Therefore, one may switch from chart to chart knowing an individual with an identical number is, in fact, the same person. A marriage numbering system allows the same cross referencing by each marriage being assigned a "MRIN" number. Both of these numbers are consistent only within the books written by the author. As continuing corrections are being made, some of the "RIN" numbers may differ for the same individual between this publication and The Heflin Genealogical Collection. Should the reader find a book by a different author, one should assume that both the "RIN" and "MRIN" numbers are always different. This numbering system is used extensively by genealogical computer programs used by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day-Saints.

PEDIGREE CHARTS: Instructions appear at the top of each pedigree chart which allow the reader to move quickly from chart to chart. After each individual name a "RIN" number is printed and a "MRIN" number is printed to the left of "MARR:" The remainder of these charts are self explanatory.

FAMILY GROUP RECORDS: Many notes for individuals may be found in the family group records. These notes represent a collection of information given to me over a period of years and some have been copied with little or no modifications to preserve their original form and meaning. As verifications were found, the affected note has been changed to reflect the verified correction. Many of the ancestors do not have any notes. The family group records have been arranged in ascending numerical order. The number of each family group record is the same as the "MRIN" number.

END-OF-LINE LIST: As with any genealogical collection, the data is incomplete and research is and will be needed to fill in the missing blanks. The End-Of-Line List has been included and offers the reader a quick way of determining the earliest ancestors included in this book. Blank copies of a pedigree and family group sheets are included at the end of the book for the reader to copy and add names of individuals and families to the family tree.

DATA VERIFICATION AND CORRECTION: When information is found that is incorrect, confusing or incomplete, please make a note of it and send the suggested change to the address included throughout the book. Please include the "RIN" or "MRIN" numbers to insure accuracy. All dates should be included and verified whenever possible. If you have traced your ancestors of the Morgan family, but are not sure where you may connect with the individuals listed in this book, please send them to me and I will attempt to make the connection as information and time become available.

INDEXES: Indexes have been included which will afford the reader a rapid way to determine the location of each subject and if a particular individual is included in this collection. An asterisk after a page number indicates that a photograph has been included.
THE HISTORY OF THE MORGAN NAME

History records that Morgans came from various parts of western Europe. The general use of surnames was not started in England until about 1070 A.D. when the practice was introduced by the Normans under William The Conqueror. The countries of Germany, Wales, England and Scotland have been included in the study to find family lines with the surname of Morgan. Datsun on Surnames, the Boston edition of 1857, gives the following information about the Morgan name. Welch Morgan is a name given to one who lives by the sea. Lower’s book, Dictionary of Family Names, indicates that Morgan is a Welch name of high antiquity. He continues by stating that the name signifies "of the sea". French Morgan wrote in his book, Descendants of Colonel Morgan Morgan, the derivation of the word Morgan is Cymric. He notes that Morgan is from a combination of the words mur or sea and gin which means begotten.

French Morgan states that one of the first Morgans recorded in history was a Celtic monk of Bangor, named Thomas Morgan. He was the founder of the Pelagian heresy in the fourth century, about 360 A.D. King Arthur, the legendary King of Britain, had a son named Morgan. The area of Wales, called Glamorgan, was given that name to indicate that it was the country of man born by the sea. Another Morgan can be found in the legend of King Arthur. His name was Morgan Mwynfawr. Many names of Morgan appear in the literature and history of Wales and England. William Morgan, a rector who later became a bishop, became famous by translating the English Bible into the Welsh language in 1567. William is said to be the son of John-ap-Morgan-ap-Llywelyn and Lowri. She is said to be the daughter of William-ap-John-ap-Madog. The word ap means (son of). History records that a trial by Jury, the Apostolic Law, was established by Morgan of Glamorgan in 725 A.D. Mary Mergenthal states that the name of Morgan was the thirty-seventh most common surname in England and Wales.

Dr. Don Yoder wrote in his book, The Morgan Family History, the name of Morgan in England and in the United States of America is derived from the surname Morian originating in Germany. He continues to say that the dialect pronunciation Marria and Morian is Palatine for High German Morgen. If this is true, the Morgans came from the same area of Germany as the Heflins in the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries. Avice Morgan in her book The Morgan Family History says that the Morgan families used the Rhine River to make their way out of Germany. For centuries, the Rhine River served as a trade route to Rotterdam, Amsterdam, and other seaports of the Netherlands. From these cities, Morgans boarded ships to carry them to Wales, England, the American Colonies and other ports east. Ship and immigration lists show that many Morgan families immigrated to Barbados and Jamaica. Morgan is derived from a German word meaning good morning or early/first. This is quite a different meaning than in Wales. A review of the literature reveals a very clear separation between the Morgans of Germany and those of England and Wales. As one reviews the history of the Thirty Year's War and learns how the Palatinate area of Germany was destroyed, it becomes easy to understand why the Morgans of Germany moved to the American Colonies. The Thirty Year's War was divided generally into four periods of many different wars, was fought between the years of 1618 and 1648. The first two periods, the Bohemian and the Danish had a predominantly religious character and developed from a revolt in Bohemia into a general conflict of Catholic and the Protestant segments of Europe. The last two periods, the Swedish and the French - Swedish, were primarily political struggles. These wars were directed against the ruler of the Hapsburg House and were wars of conquest by Sweden and France, fought upon German Soil. These wars cut the population of Germany from 20,000,000 to 13,500,000. Word was reaching the peasants of Europe about a new world across the waters and it is reasonable to assume that Wales, England and the Netherlands would be a likely country to emigrate in preparation of their continuation of their migration eastward.

The Morgan ancestors may have initially come from Germany and other parts of Europe in prehistoric times, but the Morgans of England and Wales had established a history long before the Thirty Year's War. The county of Glamorganshire was located in the southern portion of Wales and was bounded on the south and west by the Bristol Channel. Glamorganshire was the third largest county in Wales. Presently this area is called the county of Glamorgan and is geographically divided into Glamorgan and South Glamorgan. The latter containing the cities of Cardiff and Newport. It is said that Cardiff was the cradle of Glamorgan and information given for numerous individuals dates long before 1400. French Morgan states "The line of Morgan finds its first ancestor with the third son Bleddri. Thus, all Morgan tribes of the world are of one kindred and of one family". Another early listing states that Morgan, the son of Angharad and Llewelyn, lived in Tredegaar and St. Clere. He married Maud, the daughter of Rhun was the son of Grono, the son of Llwarch, Lord of Cibwr. Morgan died prior to 1384. Therefore, the members of the Morgan families of Wales and Germany may have adopted the Morgan surname and may not have been of the same blood line and may not have been related genetically. However, the common ancestor of the Morgans of Wales and Germany has yet to be documented. I have seen no specific documentation after 400 A.D. that shows any direct connection of my Morgan family to the Morgan families of Germany.

Harold Whitehall, a professor of English at Indiana University, stated in the Outline History of the English Language, the old English language was derived first, from Indo-Europen, which became Germanic, then W. Germanic, then Low German, then Old English, then Middle English, which finally became Modern English. He also states that the English language is closely related with the Dutch and Frisian languages. It is more remotely connected with the German language. The Latin, Greek, Welsh and Russian language are even more remotely connected with to German. Tribes from the northwestern Continental fringe of Europe, who spoke a form of West Germanic, did invade and conquer Romano-Keltic England. Therefore the German people, possibly including some Morgans were in direct contact with people living in England and Wales. Following this course of reasoning, the Morgan clans of Wales and Germany could have been related but this connection may have been very remote.

Albert L. Morgan in his publication The Miles Morgan Family Continued Through Timothy Morgan of West Springfield, Massachusetts and Rochester, Vermont help confirm that numerous Morgan families were found in Wales, especially Glamorgan County. The English name, Glamorgan, is a corruption of the original Gwald-Morgan. This was the country or territory of Morgan, a ruler of this region in the ninth century. Glamorgan is a county bounded on the south and west by the Bristol Channel, on the east by Manmouthshire and on the north by Brecknockshire and Carmarthenshire. Its length from east to west is 53 miles and has an extreme breadth from the shore to the interior of 27 miles. It has an area of about 792 square miles. Much information from the year 1089 to the present times about the genealogies of the lordships and older families with the surname, Morgan, are found in A History of the Family of Morgan. Notes from the History of the Upper Monongahela Valley also said that the Morgan name is of Celtic origin and pointed out that it was from the only clan that was never conquered or subdued. This reference maintains that the word Morgan when traced to its origin means seabrink or one who is born on the seashore. Many historical publications collaborate the fact that the family of Morgan is ancient and its members have held many important positions in early English, Welch and German History. Apparently, the Morgan families who immigrated from Germany spelled their name Moryen. Avice Edith Morgan, whose ancestors can be traced directly from Germany, said she used the Moryen spelling for the first five generations in her book The Morgan Family History and then used the Morgen spelling thereafter. After their arrival in the American colonies, the country of origin made little difference as all Morgan families started spelling their surnames the same. Many contemporary surnames, with a slight difference in spelling, are found and possibly may be a descendant of an ancestor of our family.
EARLIEST ANCESTOR

End-of-Line

This is a portion of the book that I wish did not have to be written. Many years of research have yet to reveal, with documentation, the parents of Jacob Morgan (Rin# 538). History records that Jacob Morgan is a common given name within the Morgan family. Men with the surname of Morgan, with a given name of Jacob, were living in most of the thirteen colonies after they had immigrated from England, Wales and Germany. Earnest E. Roby wrote in his publication that Jacob Morgan, (RIN# 2006), immigrated from Wales to America between the years 1732 and 1735. Notes from the Dora Morgan Heflin collection, states that Jacob Morgan came from Britain to North Carolina in 1732. Mr. E. E. Roby supported Dora Morgan Heflin’s belief by writing that Jacob hired out as a servant to the captain of the ship to pay for the Atlantic crossing. Mr. Roby writes in his History of the Morgans from the Earliest Generation Down to Present Generation that Jacob Morgan came from Scotland or Wales to the Carolinas near the year of 1732. Dora Heflin also found information in the Washington County, Pennsylvania, courthouse that a Jacob Morgan living in Rowan County, North Carolina entered this country at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on October 10, 1717 on the ship Phu. In 1760 Rowan County encompassed much of the north western section of North Carolina. Jacob hired out to the Captain for his transportation to America. The Captain, in turn, hired him out to one of the Planters. After his release, he may have settled in North Carolina. Roby said that Jacob Morgan is listed as the only Morgan emigrant up to and including the date of 1861. Through the passing years, additional ship passenger lists name numerous immigrants with the surname of Morgan, entering this country during this time period. Some entries date back into the sixteen hundreds. However, he may have been the only individual with a name of Jacob Morgan on a particular ship or port of entry for a specific date. His name is supposedly written on the back of the ship list which is on file in the
The History of Pleasants County by Robert L. Pemberton relates that most of the Morgans of Pleasants County, West Virginia are descendants of the Jacob Morgan, who immigrated from Britain to North Carolina about 1732. Roby believed there were two boys who came over on the ship and Jacob was 14 years of age at the time of his voyage to America. This would mean that Jacob I was born around 1718. It is my belief that this information was obtained by Pemberton from the writings of Earnest E. Roby as the information is very similar and no additional facts have been introduced in the latter publication. The notes from all three sources (Heflin, Roby and Pemberton) state that the immigrate, Jacob Morgan, married a McCoy. Again, this information may have originated from the same source, i.e. Ernest E. Roby. Mrs. Martha Kaufmann told me that her ancestors believed that Jacob's (Rin# 538) father was named Jacob. This means that three unrelated sources have found that the father's name was Jacob. Family lore says that Jacob and his cousin met near Clarksburg, (West) Virginia, to keep check on the Indians. Jacob then traveled from Clarksburg to Fishing Creek and his cousin went in another direction.

Adequate information has been collected and documented to confirm my family line back to Jacob Morgan's son whose name was also Jacob, (RIN# 538). To prevent confusion, the author has taken the liberty to label the three generations as Jacob Morgan I (the immigrant, RIN# 2006), Jacob Morgan II (his son RIN# 538), and Jacob Morgan III (RIN# 545), the son of Jacob Morgan II. I have seen the tombstones of Jacob Morgan II and Jacob Morgan III which are located in the Old Morgan Cemetery in Wetzel County, West Virginia, near Smithfield. However, the location of the burial places of Jacob Morgan I or his wife Mary McCoy have never been located. It is of interest to note that on the uphill side of Jacob Morgan II's grave is a rather small tombstone which has the word FATHER inscribed on its surface. The topography of the ground suggests that a full sized grave is located at that spot but no mention is made of a date of birth or death. No reference is made about any wife on the stone. Information about the descendants of Jacob Morgan II consists of wills, deeds, tombstone inscriptions, Bible listings, war papers, etc. and all are available and verifiable. Jacob Morgan II and his son Jacob Morgan III lived in the Fishing Creek area located in Wetzel County, (West) Virginia.

RESEARCH PATHS

The search continues to establish the link beyond this earliest Jacob. Early in my research efforts, I received a note saying that I was "indeed a direct descendent of Colonel Morgan Morgan". As an aid to future research, the following area of Morgan research has been included in this book.

Colonel Morgan Morgan

The French Morgan book, A History and Genealogy of the Family of Col. Morgan Morgan, the First White Settler of the State of West Virginia, provided an excellent source of genealogical data but the only reference that was found pertaining to my ancestors would be one of the missing branches of the Morgans. Prisicilla Dawson Kingston's publication The Morgan Newsletter also provided no links to the Colonel Morgan Morgan line and my family. It is possible that my line connects with the ancestors of Colonel Morgan Morgan. A footnote on page 258 of The Monongalia Story necessitated a change of direction for the research being conducted. This footnote stated that Jacob Morgan conducted an academy in Morgantown in 1782. Realizing that Jacob Morgan was credited by some to be the founder of Morgantown, several months of research was undertaken to determine if a link could be found. French Morgan, backed by numerous history books state that the son of Colonel Morgan Morgan, Zackquill Morgan, founded Morgantown. Research into this Pennsylvania group of Morgans found, in fact, that both Jacob and Zackquill Morgan founded Morgantown. The importance difference is that Zackquill founded what is now Morgantown, West Virginia and Jacob founded Morgantown, Pennsylvania located in Berks County. To further cloud the issue, a newspaper article whose source is unknown, provided by Dora Morgan Heflin, states that one of the older citizens dying in 1916 included John Wesley Morgan. He passed away on the fifteenth of February at the age of seventy nine and had served as county commissioner, was a native of Wetzel County, and was a member of the celebrated Morgan family which descended from Morgan ap Morgan. John Wesley and the grandfather of Dora Morgan Heflin, Francis Morgan, were brothers.

Colonel and General Jacob Morgan

The information provided by the Genealogical Society of Pennsylvania says that General Jacob Morgan was a son of Colonel Jacob Morgan and a grandson of Thomas Morgan. The grandfather came to the America Colonies before December 6, 1741. Colonel Jacob Morgan was born in 1716 which is within the time frame that Jacob Morgan I should have been born. Colonel Jacob Morgan lived in Caernavon Township, Berks County, near Morgantown, Pennsylvania and died on November 11, 1792. General Jacob Morgan, the eldest son of Colonel Jacob Morgan was also born in Berks County, Pennsylvania on September 1802. Again, no plausible link could be established.

Levi and Jacob Morgan of New Jersey

Virginia Tuttle, who assisted French Morgan and finished writing his book, wrote a letter to Dora Morgan Heflin saying: "I really believe that Jacob Morgan III, the earliest one, was a brother to Joseph, and that they were the nephews of Levi Morgan from New Jersey and not Levi, the son of Zackquill who founded Morgantown, West Virginia". Mrs. Tuttle also suggested that Mrs. Hamner of Texas descended from these two brothers. I discussed this possibility with Mrs. Betty Jane Cunningham Hamner and she indicated that the research she had completed indicated that this was not true. Levi's father is listed as Charles Morgan, whose father is John Morgan, whose father is Sir William Morgan. D. Breedlove wrote that William Morgan married Elizabeth Morgan. His father is William Morgan of Dinero, Diveron or Duffryn and was born in Llanfabon, Wales. Her father was Sir William Morgan of Tredegar. William and Elizabeth had three sons and their names were Miles Morgan, John Morgan and James Morgan. Captain Miles Morgan, son of James, founded Springfield, Massachusetts. J. C. Morgan descended from this line. John Morgan was the first settler in Northern Virginia and General Daniel Morgan descended from this line. Notes from the History of Upper Monongahela Valley say the Virginia Branch of the Morgan Family was founded more that two centuries ago. This would be in the eighteenth century. During successive periods of our colonial, revolutionary, and national history, the Morgan family has given our country many able and useful citizens, distinguished as soldiers and in the learned professions. James Morgan settled in Sandy Bay, near Gloucester, Massachusetts, and moved to Roxbury, New London, Connecticut. All three brothers left Bristol, England in March 1636 and arrived in Boston in April, 1636 on the ship Mary. Information from the Wetzel County History Book states that a son of John Morgan Jr., Levi Morgan, was born in New Jersey in 1736. This information does indeed fit but in the same sentence it states that Levi was born in Pennsylvania and also states in the same article that the monument of Levi Morgan in New Martinsville, West Virginia was erected in 1909. This confirms that information about the two Levis in some writings are confused as the Levi for whom the monument is erected is a descendent to Colonel Morgan Morgan. Another sentence in the same article says that the Levi Morgan family is known as the New Jersey Morgans.

Richard Morgan

Richard Morgan, who lived in Frederick County, Virginia, was born in Wales sometime before 1700 and came to the American colonies when he was a young man. In 1734, he received a large grant of land from Lord Fairfax under King George II. These tracts of land were located near Shepherdstown, Virginia and extended to the foot of the North Mountain. Richard married a girl with the first name of Jane and they had at least seven children. An unconfirmed second wife possibly was Alice Van Metre. A Jacob Morgan is listed as being a son of Richard and Jane. His date of death is listed as being 1780. This fits the required time frame and the geographical location for our missing Jacob. The wife, however does not fit as the name that is often listed is Mary McCoy. Jacob's, Richard Morgan's son, wife had the first name of Jane.

Jacob Morgan of Morgan's Swamp, North Carolina

Richard Vann, hired to research Jacob Morgan by Dora Morgan Heflin, found that William Morgan had a son named James Morgan who lived in Perquimans County, North Carolina. James had two daughters, Elizabeth and Rebeckah, and his two sons were named Jacob and Charles. Hannah was the executrix and the wife of James. Jacob and Charles lived in Morgan's Swamp, North Carolina. I have been told that Morgan's Swamp was located around the Yadkin River in Rowan County, North Carolina. A portion of the Great Dismal Swamp near or in Perquimans County has not been ruled out. This fits both the required time frame and the geographical location. It is the closest correlation of information that I have yet found, but again, no confirmation has been established. Research is being conducted as this book is being typed. It is also possible that Jacob Morgan's (RIN# 538) father was not named Jacob. However, the information provided by Martha Kaufman and her ancestors leads me to believe that Jacob was, in fact, the correct name. Several years of the newsletter, The Morgan Migrations, was reviewed and no trace of our branch of our Morgan family was found.

Morgan Wills

A review of additional Morgan wills, state an inventory was taken for Jacob Morgan in 1752 in Accomack County, Virginia. Another inventory for a Jacob Morgan was taken in 1772 in Amelia County, Virginia. An additional search was undertaken utilizing a international genealogical index to compile a listing of any individuals with the name of Jacob Morgan who lived the British Islands and could have come to America in the period between 1700 and 1750. The list was limited to include only those with birth dates between 1715 and 1759. This would limit the age for Jacob to have a son when he was between the ages of sixteen and sixty.
Data, that has just been received, is being reviewed to study the family of James Morgan who married Rachel Jack. James had a son named Hugh Morgan. Hugh married Elizabeth Pool and they had six children. Jacob Morgan is the first child listed and he was born in the correct time frame in a probable area of the country. His brother, Nathan, was born on April 19, 1777. The names of Jacob's brothers and sisters have names that are commonly found in my line of the Morgan's. They include: Nathan, Hugh, and Elizabeth. Two names in this family which are not found as often are Robert and Rachel. The area of Cecil County, Maryland is next in line to be studied as some of the Morgan's of Rowan County, North Carolina came from these headwaters of the Chesapeake Bay.

The search continues!

Pay Poole stated in the Pleasants County History, p. 258, that Frank Poole moved from Chautauqua Lake, New York, to Ellenboro in 1883 during oil boom. He then moved to Sistersville and finally St. Mary's. However, there is some question about this because it was said that he and Abbie Titus were married in New York in 1885 and the grandpa of Helen Louise Scott was born in Westfield, New York in 1887.

The date of his marriage came from the family Bible.

IUSBAND Ephriu Stokley HORGAN-497
WIFE Edna Ethel WACKER-498

HUSBAND - Ephriu Stokley HORGAN-497

Ephriu Morgan was known to his family and friends as "Stokley".

Cave Run is located near Hebron, Pleasants County, West Virginia.

Ephriu was baptized at the Pine Grove Church of Christ.

Stokley attended high school at Harrisville located in Ritchie County. While attending school, he lived with an older sister Clara Morgan Hemsworth. Her home was near the high school. This accomplishment was very unusual for the time. It is said that Stokley was very ambitious and was a very hard worker. After Stokley and Edna Morgan were married, they moved into the home at Rock Run presently owned by Harry and Dora Heflin. Stokley and his wife lived there the rest of their lives. Stokley owned two farms, a two story home, a barn, a chicken house, a pig pen, and outhouse, a two story cellar house and a two car garage. He was considered to be a very prosperous farmer. He planted a large orchard on the hill behind the house.

Stokley Morgan suffered from pernicious anemia which could not be cured at that time. The illness caused his mind to weaken and he became confused at times. During the last portion of his illness, he used to think that his barn was on fire. Edna Morgan told the author that the cure prescribed for this illness was to eat a large quantity of liver each day. I believe she said two or three pounds a day. He finally took his own life by hanging himself in a barn which used to be located about three hundred feet north of the house. This present location would be under what is now a high tension electric line tower.

Silas McGregor officiated at the wedding of Ephriu and Edna Morgan. They, the minister, and their attendants were all in buggies pulled by horses. The couple was married in the middle of a dirt road after meeting the minister half way. Those present were Floyd Wagner, Lizzer Correll, Ora Morgan, Maggie McGregor, Cy Morgan, Rose Conklin, and other relatives. Rev. McGregor was Stokley's uncle, (his mother's brother). The marriage certificate states that "Stokeley" was 21 years old and Edna was 17 years old when they got married.

Data confirmation came from personal knowledge, family Bible, marriage certificate and tombstone inscriptions.

The first edition of The Heflin Genealogical Collection, lists his middle name as Stokley. After a continuing review of the documentation, I find that his name was spelled in three ways - Stokely, Stokely and Stokley. His tombstone lists his name as Stokely and this is the spelling I chose to use. Many of his papers list his name as E.S. Morgan. I believe that Stokely may have been a misspelling of his name. The obituary notice for Edna, his wife, lists his name as Stokely. Mrs. Dora Naomi Morgan Heflin said that Stokley was the correct spelling.

The same is true for his first name. The first edition lists his first name as Ephriu. Again, after additional review of the documentation, I have decided to use the spelling as found in his marriage license, Ephriu.

MRS. EDNA MORGAN
ST. MARYS — Mrs. Edna Wagner Morgan, 93, of Rt. 1, St. Marys, died at 2:15 a.m. Frida, Feb. 29, in University Hospital, Morgantown.

She was born Jan. 3, 1887, at Sugar Creek, Pleasants County, a daughter of the late Elroy and Virginia Wagner.

Her husband, E. Stokeley Morgan, preceded her in death.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Harry B. Heflin, Morgantown, Mrs. George H. Rolston, Belmont; one foster son, William Perdue, Baltimore, Md.; three grandchildren, Mrs. Helen Lou Riggs, Bogart, Ga., Dr. B. Morgan Heflin, Columbus, Ohio, and Atty. G. Drew Rolston, Logan, Ohio; two foster grandchildren, five great-grandchildren.

One daughter, one son, and one brother also preceded her in death.

Mrs. Morgan was a member of the Pleasant Valley Methodist Church, Pleasants County, and Hebron Woman's Club.
The information of her birth, death and burial came from the obituary notice.

The Wagners all settled on Sugar Creek. Uncle Friend lived in the old homestead for his entire life.

The Wagner family moved from Sugar Creek to Rock Run in 1900, according to the obituary.

She was baptized at the Sugar Creek Methodist Church.

After Edna got older, she lived on the farm in the summer and took turns living with each daughter's family in the winter. During the last few years of her life, due to the death of her daughter Helen and the illness of Beulah, she lived with Dora (Morgan) Heflin and Harry B. Heflin on the Rock Run Farm in the summer and in Harry and Dora's home in Morgantown, West Virginia during the winter months.

Edna loved handicrafts and was still making quilts and beautiful things until her last illness.

She won a National Quilt Award for a five pointed star quilt she pieced and quilted. Beulah Heflin has the certificate and medal. The last quilt she was working on, at the time of her death, was a blue and white one with an Ocean Wave pattern.

She died of intestinal complications after eating a small piece of chicken bone. She spent twenty nine days in the Intensive Care unit at the West Virginia University Hospital.

All of her children were born at the Rock Run home in the upstairs room on the southeast corner of the house. It faced the road and down the creek. The bed in which they were born is still in the room as of this writing (1993). Dr. Boyers came to the home at the time of delivery. His office was located in Ellenboro, West Virginia.

Minnie Watson, a neighbor girl, helped her at times. Dora has a "motto jar" very small, that "Minnie Miny" gave her. It was on a big rock that covered an old spring, at the Watson farm home. The Watsons' got their drinking water from the spring.

She was used to cooking for the family and harvest bands and was considered to be an excellent cook. Edna seldom measured anything while she was cooking but knew exactly how much of anything the recipe required.

Edna was overweight when she was middle-aged and suffered a severe heart attack. She recovered completely from the heart problem and suffered no additional attacks for the remainder of her life. She did lose a lot of weight after the attack.

HUSBAND - Harry Bruce Heflin

Harry Bruce Heflin first attended a one room school and walked about four miles to school each morning. He then left home to attend high school in Pennsboro, West Virginia, which was about two miles over the hill from his home on Gnal’s Run. He started his career as a teacher in a one room school located just below the blacksmith shop in Highland on Bond’s Creek about three miles over the hill from his wife’s mother’s farm on Rock Run. Each morning he would walk over the hill from his home to school. Harry started one of the first hot lunch programs in the country for his students.

He attended Glenville State College in Glenville, West Virginia. He told me he “thumbed” a ride in an automobile, went to Glenville with a suitcase and twenty five dollars. After climbing the hill at the college, he asked to see the President and asked him if he could attend school.

After graduating from Glenville, he attended Peabody College in Nashville, Tennessee. He then received his Ph.D. from the University of Pittsburgh. Dr. Heflin then returned to the college he attended as a student as President.

After a number of years, he transferred to the West Virginia University in Morgantown, West Virginia as vice president in charge of administration and finance. He later became President of West Virginia University in 1981 and later retired as President Emeritus. After leaving the Presidency, he became the Vice Chancellor of Education for the state of West Virginia and moved to Charleston.

Harry and Dora both attended Glenville State College when they married. Dora’s mother lived with them for a while when they were living in Glenville in a rented apartment.

Harry was baptized at the Pennsboro Church of Christ.

Harry and Dora were married at the minister’s residence on Devy Ave. in St. Marys, Pleasants County, West Virginia.

During their retirement years, they lived in Morgantown, West Virginia, in the winter and on the farm on Rock Run during the summer. Dr. Heflin continued to be on several boards including the First National Bank Board which was bought out by the Huntington National Bank of Columbus, Ohio.

Harry held a General Class of amateur radio license by the Federal Communications Commission and was issued the call letters of NO6JCE.

Data confirmation is from personal knowledge, birth certificate and numerous publications, diplomas and awards.

HUSBAND - Francis Marion MORGAN-513

His date of birth can be found in his obituary.

The birthplace was on Fishing Creek. It was located near New Martinsville, West Virginia. The family later moved to Hebron, Pleasant County, West Virginia.

He served in the Civil War and fought at Bull Run. His papers can be found in the Archives Building, Washington, D.C. He was a private in Company K, 3rd regiment, then changed to Gth. He enrolled July 4, 1861 and was discharged Aug. 6, 1864 in Wheeling, West Virginia. He received a pension until the time he died.

According to the information provided by Cy Morgan, Francis was home sick from late February, 1862 through June, 1862. His Company was located in Strasburg, Virginia in July of that year. On August 29, his Company went into action at Groveton, Virginia and on Bull Run on August 30, 1862. Family lore relates that Francis was captured at the Battle of Bull Run and was soon paroled. The roll call for November and December, 1862 list Francis as being AWOL, absent without leave. He again appeared on the roll calls from January, 1863 to January, 1864. His regiment was re-designated as Cavalry and he remained with them until he mustered out on August 16, 1864.

He lived with Edna Morgan and her family, even after his son Stokley died. Francis also died while living there.

After he became ill he was moved to a son's, Ora Morgan's, home where he died. Even though his sister-in-law Edna Morgan wanted to keep him at home, his son believed that she could not care for him at her house and the sons convinced her that he should be moved. He died wanting to return to Edna Morgan's home. The Doctor said he died of stomach cancer. This was told by Dora Heflin.

Dora Morgan Heflin said that Francis, her grandpa took care of the little ones at home. On Sunday mornings he would dress the children every Sunday and take them to church. Attending church services at the Pine Grove Church of Christ was a "must" every Sunday morning. They would walk across the hills for approximately three miles to attend the services.

Stokley was the youngest child of Francis when their mother died. Every fall during the Harvest Moon when the corn was to be husked, Francis would dress Stokley in warm clothes and sit him on a corn shock while Francis would work husking the corn by the light of the moon. A husking peg was used on the third finger of the right hand to husk the corn. This peg consisted of a metal piece, measuring approximately one half inch by four inches by one sixteenth inch thick, attached by a leather thong to his wrist. This was told to the author by Dora Morgan Heflin.

Dora Heflin could remember her grandpa taking her on his lap when she was a little girl and telling her stories about the Civil War. He didn't tell about the battles but other happenings she especially remembered him telling was about the battles fought above the clouds in the mountains in North Carolina. The clouds were fluffy and white. Dora said she pictured them looking like

War Department,

To:

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt from your Office of application for Pension No. 122285, and to return it herewith, with such information as is furnished by the files of this Office.

It appears from the files in this Office that

Mr. Morgan was enrolled on the 5th day of July, 1861, at Augusta, Georgia, Co. H, 1st Regiment of Infantry, Volunteers, to serve three years or during the war, and was mustered into service as a Private on the 10th day of July, 1861, at Augusta, Georgia, Co. H, 1st Regiment of Infantry, Volunteers, to serve three years or during the war. On the Master Roll of Co. H, of that Regiment, for the month of January, 1862, he was charged with having gone into the service of the Confederate States of America, [and] was ordered to be arrested. The record is as follows:

[Handwritten record follows]
"Cotton Candy". She said that he lived in her home on Rock Run after her daddy died and his room was the bed room over the living room. Dora's mother would never let Helen, Beulah or Dora go into his room. When he took one of them in, they considered the event to be a special treat. Dora said that he was good to all of us and we loved him. Edna was always so kind to grandpa and would prepare him special foods he liked. She was an excellent cook and would bake him salt rising bread all of the time. He loved those big buttermilk biscuits and the country style steak. Her gravy was excellent!

Francis had a long beard and the sisters loved sitting on his lap and combing his beard. He chewed tobacco which was in the form of a twist. He would cut off a piece with his pen knife which he always carried in his pocket. Sometimes instead of having a twist of tobacco, he would buy a thin square of tobacco with a silver star in the center. The three sisters always looked forward to their grandfather cutting a new package of chewing tobacco because he would give them the silver star off the top. He would take turns giving the star to each of the girls to prevent any arguments. Francis would sometimes go away to visit their Uncle Cy, Uncle Lew or Uncle Ora. Dora could remember him coming down the hill from the old road in front of the house. He would always have so many stories to tell.

Data confirmation is from personal knowledge from Dora Morgan leftin, family Bible, military records, pension papers, obituary, tombstone inscriptions and information provided by Cy Morgan.

WIFE - Frances R. McGregor-514

Frances McGregor died when her youngest child was two years old. Her husband raised all the children himself, with the help of the older ones.

Frances McGregor's mother was from the Martin family and it is from this family that Helen Louise Scott (Riggs) and her husband, James Riggs, have common ancestors.

Her family and friends called Frances "Panny". She was a small dainty lady and had one brown eye and one blue eye. Every Sunday, Francis would dress the children and would walk to the Pine Grove Church. The distance was about three miles. There were no paved roads in the area and in the winter months the roads and paths would become quite muddy.

Data confirmation is from personal knowledge of Edna (Wagner) Morgan, family Bible and tombstone inscriptions.

The notes from Dora (Morgan) leftin reveal that she died during childbirth.

CHILD 1 - Clara Morgan-515

Clara married Gilbert Hemsworth. No information available for him.

His photograph is included in this book.

She lived in Harrisville, Ritchie County, West Virginia. Her husband died first. Her brother, Len, helped settle the estate.

CHILD 2 - Nathan Spencer Morgan-515
It is known that Nathan moved west and died in Lincoln, Nebraska.

CHILD 3 - John Albert MORGAN-517

Albert's wife's name was Daisy. They had three children: Mildred, Erma, and Harold.

CHILD 4 - Henry Clifford MORGAN-518

The Morgan Bible states that Henry died on October 12, 1899.

CHILD 5 - Lewis V. MORGAN-519

Helen Louise Scott said in her notes that she called Lewis Uncle "Lew" and he often visited in her home when she was a little girl. She said that she could remember him playing dominos with her on the floor. He had one daughter, Opal. Opal had two daughters, Lanell and Ann.

Helen Lou said when she and Jim Batts drove to Florida with Harry and Dora Bellin in 1983, she visited Opal and Lanell.

His wife died quite young. Opal, the only living child lived with Edna and Stokely Morgan for a while. Maud, another child, died as an infant. Lew spent much time also with Edna and Stokely.

CHILD 6 - Rosa MORGAN-520

Her children were: Fanny, Venica, Bernice, Marie, and Harold.

CHILD 7 - Dora P. MORGAN-521

Dora Morgan is buried in the Hebron Cemetery, Pleasants County, West Virginia. At time of her death she was 7 years and 3 months old.

CHILD 8 - Orien E. "Ora" MORGAN-522

Helen Lou Scott said that she had happy memories of Uncle Ora and Aunt Grace. They would often come to Edna (Wagner) Morgan's house when she were visiting at her Rock Run home. They would always drive their old Ford V-8.

They were parents of Clarence, Mervyl, Glenn and Richard. Glen and Carl died as infants. She didn't have contact with Richard and his wife, Hazel, for many years but later visited them in Florida and several times in Charlotte, where they lived when they retired.

These notes are from the Helen Louise Scott collection.

His tombstone lists his dates of birth and death as 1878 and 1973.

CHILD 9 - James Cyns "Cy" MORGAN-523

Cy Morgan was a wealthy man. He started working in the oil fields of West Virginia and later moved to Ohio. It was there he met and married his wife, Cecil Spock. Children were: James, Alice, and Betty.

This story is told: Cy was boarding at a home where Cecil was helping cook for the boarders. Cy thought she was beautiful. After watching her as he stood on a chair to look through a glass transom over a door, he said "that's the girl I am going to marry." Edna Morgan and Cy were close friends.
before Edna fell in love with Stokely. They went many places together. Both couples remained close friends through the years.

Notes are from Edna Wagner and Helen Louise Biggs.

CHILD 10 - Ephriam Stokley Morgan-497

Ephriam Morgan was known to his family and friends as "Stokely".

Cave Run is located near Reborn, Pleasants County, West Virginia.

Ephriam was baptized at the Pine Grove Church of Christ.

Stokley attended high school at Harrisville located in Ritchie County. While attending school, he lived with an older sister Clara Morgan Remworth. Her home was near the high school. This accomplishment was very unusual for the time. It is said that Stokley was very ambitious and was a very hard worker. After Stokley and Edna Morgan were married, they moved into the home at Rock Run presently owned by Harry and Dora Heflin. Stokley and his wife lived there the rest of their lives. Stokley owned two farms, a two story home, two barns, a chicken house, a pig pen, and outhouse, a two story cellar house and a two car garage. He was considered to be a very prosperous farmer. He planted a large orchard on the hill behind the house.

Stokley Morgan suffered from pernicious anemia which could not be cured at that time. The illness caused his mind to weaken and he became confused at times. During the last portion of his illness, he used to think that his barn was on fire. Edna Morgan told the author that the cure prescribed for this illness was to eat a large quantity of liver each day. I believe she said two or three pounds a day. He finally took his own life by hanging himself in a barn which used to be located about three hundred feet north of the house. This present location would be under what is now a high tension electric line tower.

Silas McGregor officiated at the wedding of Ephriam and Edna Morgan. They, the minister, and their attendants were all in buggies pulled by horses. The couple was married in the middle of a dirt road after meeting the minister half way. Those present were Floyd Wagner, Lixier Correll, Ora Morgan, Maggie McGregor, Cy Morgan, Rose Conklin, and other relatives. Rev. McGregor was Stokley's uncle, (his Mother's brother). The marriage certificate states that "Stokely" was 21 years old and Edna was 17 years old when they got married.

Data confirmation came from personal knowledge, family Bible, marriage certificate and tombstone inscriptions.

The first edition of The Heflin Genealogical Collection, lists his middle name as Stokely. After a continuing review of the documentation, I find that his name was spelled in three ways - Stokley, Stokely and Stokley. His tombstone lists his name as Stokely and this is the spelling I chose to use. Many of his papers list his name as E.S. Morgan. I believe that Stokely may have been a misspelling of his name. The obituary notice for Edna, his wife, lists his name as Stokley. Mrs. Dora Naomi Morgan Heflin said that Stokely was the correct spelling.
The same is true for his first name. The first edition lists his first name as Ephraim. Again, after additional review of the documentation, I have decided to use the spelling as found in his marriage license, Ephraim.

FAMILY GROUP RECORD

HUSBAND - Nathan S. MORGAN-524
His birthdate from Dora Nefflin's records and the date of death is from the Death Certificate.

Pleasant County History says Nathan Morgan was sheriff of Pleasant County, West Virginia in 1858 (page 50 and page 120).

Basil Harvey was the officiating minister at the wedding.

Data confirmation is also from the family Bible, marriage certificate, death certificate, his will and tombstone inscription.

The marriage certificate is in the Marriage Bond Book number 3, page 80, "A" copy.

WIFE - Belinda ODELL-525
There is some confusion about both names of this ancestor. In some places, her given name is listed as Melinda and the surname was Odel. Her name, as inscribed on her tombstone, is Belinda, wife of N. Morgan.

Data confirmation is from the tombstone inscriptions.

The notes provided by Mrs. Walter Morgan state that the old spelling of her name was Malinda Odell. The 1850 Wetzel County census lists her name as Malinda, a thirty-two year old white female who was born in Virginia.

The Death Certificate for Jacob Ellison Morgan lists his mother as being Malinda Odell.

After reviewing data from various sources, it is apparent that Belinda's surname was spelled in various ways even within one family. The spellings included the following: O'Dell, Odel, Odell and Ode. The modern telephone listings of several large metropolitan areas reveal a similar variation of spellings.

CHILD 1 - John Wesley MORGAN-516
He served as a member of the County Court for a term.

He moved with his parents in 1840 to a point near Hebron, then located in Tyler County, now Pleasant County, West Virginia.

Data confirmation is from the family Bible, obituary and tombstone inscriptions.

CHILD 2 - Francis Marion MORGAN-513
His date of birth can be found in his obituary.

The birthplace was on Fishing Creek. It was located near New Martinsville, West Virginia. The family later moved to Hebron, Pleasant County, West Virginia.

He served in the Civil War and fought at Bull Run. His papers can be found in the Archives Building, Wash. D.C. He was a private in Company X, 3rd

Chery R. D. Jones of same Co.
According to the information provided by Cy Morgan, Francis was home sick from late February, 1862 through June, 1862. His company was located in Strasburg, Virginia in July of that year. On August 29, his company went into action at Groveton, Virginia and on Bull Run on August 30, 1862. Family lore relates that Francis was captured at the Battle of Bull Run and was soon paroled. The roll call for November and December, 1862 listed Francis as being AWOL, absent without leave. He again appeared on the roll calls from January, 1863 to January, 1864. His regiment was re-designated as Cavalry and he remained with them until he mustered out on August 16, 1864.

He lived with Edna Morgan and her family, even after his son Stokley died. Francis also died while living there.

After he became ill he was moved to a son's, Ora Morgan's, home where he died. Even though his sister-in-law Edna Morgan wanted to keep him at home, his sons believed that she could not care for him at her home and the sons convinced her that he should be moved. He died wanting to return to Edna Morgan's home. The Doctor said he died of stomach cancer. This was told by Dora Helflin.

Dora Morgan Helflin said that Francis, her grandpa took care of the little ones at home. On Sunday morning he would dress the children every Sunday and take them to church. Attending church services at the Pine Grove Church of Christ was a "must" every Sunday morning. They would walk across the hills for approximately three miles to attend the services.

Stokley was the youngest child of Francis when their mother died. Every fall during the Harvest Moon when the corn was to be husked, Francis would dress Stokley in warm clothes and sit him on a corn shock while Francis would work husking the corn by the light of the moon. A husking peg was used on the third finger of the right hand to husk the corn. This peg consisted of a metal piece, measuring approximately one half inch by four inches by one sixteenth inch thick, attached by a leather thong to his wrist. This was told to the author by Dora Morgan Helflin.

Dora Helflin could remember her grandpa taking her on his lap when she was a little girl and telling her stories about the Civil War. He didn't tell about the battles but other happenings she especially remembered him telling was about the battles fought above the clouds in the mountains in North Carolina. The clouds were fluffy and white. Dora said she pictured them looking like "Cotton Candy." She said that he lived in her home on Rock Run after her daddy died and his room was the bed room over the living room. Dora's mother would never let Helen, Reulah or Dora go into his room. When he took one of them in, they considered the event to be a special treat. Dora said that he was good to all of us and we loved him. Edna was always so kind to grandpa and would prepare him special foods he liked. She was an excellent cook and would make him salt raisin bread all of the time. He loved those big buttermilk biscuits and the country style steak. Her gravy was excellent!
Francis had a long beard and the sisters loved sitting on his lap and combing his beard. He chewed tobacco which was in the form of a twist. He would cut off a piece with his pen knife which he always carried in his pocket. Sometimes instead of having a twist of tobacco, he would buy a thin square of tobacco with a silver star in the center. The three sisters always looked forward to their grandfather cutting a new package of chewing tobacco because he would give them the silver star off the top. He would take turns giving the star to each of the girls to prevent any arguments. Francis would sometimes go away to visit their Uncle Cy, Uncle Lew or Uncle Ora. Dora could remember him coming down the hill from the old road in front of the house. He would always have so many stories to tell.

Data confirmation is from personal knowledge from Dora Morgan Heflin, family Bible, military records, pension papers, obituary, tombstone inscriptions and information provided by Cy Morgan.

CHILD 3 - Sansom Green MORGAN-527
San som was listed in the 1850 Tyler County Census.

The Morgan family Bible lists his date of birth, his middle name and the date of his marriage to Mary Carpenter.

Other marriages: Harriet MCBENZER-123

CHILD 4 - A n n e t h M O RG A N - 5 3 2
Dora (Morgan) Heflin said that she can remember visiting with Aunt Scene and Elizab e th with her mother. They lived in Hebron, West Virginia.

The date of her birth came from the Morgan Bible but was very difficult to read.

The date of her marriage came from the Morgan Bible.

The notes of Mrs. Walker Morgan state that his middle name was Isaiah.

The 1850 Wetzel County census lists his name as Anneth, a two year old white male who was born in Virginia.

CHILD 5 - Sarah Jue M O R G A N - 5 3 1
Dora (Morgan) Heflin said that she had not found any record of Sarah (UN 531). She believes Willie Martin's wife was Sarah Jane. The old Morgan Bible lists that Sara Jane was born April 27, 1843. The birth, marriage and death dates are from this Bible. At the time of this writing (1993), Jim Morgan of Wooster, Ohio has the old Morgan Bible.

CHILD 6 - Jacob Ellison M O R G A N - 5 2 6
Ellison visited his brother, Francis, when Francis lived with Edna (Wagner) Morgan after Stokley died. Francis couldn't hear and Ellison couldn't see. Both were quite old.

Ellison was a farmer.
He died of a "Gastine Carcinoma".

Data confirmation for his death is from the death certificate.

CHILD 7 - Elizabette MORGAN-523

Dora (Morgan) Heflin said that Elizabeth married late in life to Ana Fitzwater. He had been married before.

He owned a country store in Hebron, West Virginia. The clock that had slats on the sides, which the Heflin's presently have, came from that store. The clock is still running at the time of this writing (1993).

CHILD 8 - Eli R. MORGAN-524

Dora (Morgan) Heflin said that she remembers visiting with Uncle Eli and Aunt "Jack" in their home in St. Marys, Pleasant County, West Virginia. They had no children.

The notes of Mrs. Walter Morgan state that his middle initial was an H.

CHILD 9 - Mary Molly MORGAN-535

Dora (Morgan) Heflin said that she went by the name of Molly, not Mary.

CHILD 10 - Isaiah S. MORGAN-519

The date of his birth came from the Morgan Bible.

The birth and death dates are from the Roby Diary. Jacob Morgan, Jr. lived just 14 days short of his 100th birthday.

Pleasants County History, page 64, says he moved from North Carolina in about 1790 and then to Fishing Creek near New Martinsville, Wetzel County, West Virginia. This area was once a part of Tyler County. Wetzel County was formed from Tyler County in 1846.

According to Pleasants County History, page 64 and 229, Nancy Ann Smith was Jacob’s wife. However, Nathan’s Death Certificate said Elizabeth was his first wife and Nancy Ann Smith was the second wife. The Roby Diary said that he had a third wife and her last name was Price. John Hildreth says that Jacob was married to Nancy Mary Wilson who was widowed by the death of Isaac Copenhaver in 1831. He said that she was the daughter of Hugh Wilson. Martha Kaufman said that her mother told her that Jacob married two sisters, Elizabeth and Nancy, with the last name of Smith. Additional research is indicated to determine the names of Jacob Morgan’s wives. Is it possible that there were a total of four spouses?

The marriage certificate states that Jacob Morgan married Elizabeth Smith on October 22, 1800 in Rowan County, North Carolina. Note: the 1800 is very difficult to read on the first page but was very legible on the second.

He is buried in the old Morgan Cemetery in Wetzel County, West Virginia. This cemetery is located on the old Morgan Farm.

Data confirmation is from the Roby Diary, the death certificate, the marriage certificate and census records.

This Jacob Morgan and Nancy are shown in the 1846 Census for Tyler County, Virginia/West Virginia and also in the 1850 and 1860 Censuses. Pleasants County was formed from a portion of Tyler County in 1851.

The Wetzel Co. 1850 Census lists Jacob Morgan, a farmer, and states that he was born in North Carolina. His place of birth has been corrected since the publication of the first edition of The Heflin Genealogical Collection. This publication listed the place of birth as being Fishing Creek, Wetzel County, West Virginia. John Hildreth listed this Jacob as being Jacob Morgan Sr. and states that his son, Jacob Morgan Jr., was the husband of Jane Copenhaver. Family lore agrees with the information printed in the Pleasants County History. It states that Jacob’s, RIN 538, father was also named Jacob. The question remains unanswered why the eldest Jacob’s, RIN 2006, son is named Jacob Morgan Sr. by Mr. Hildreth. This is why I chose to label the Jacobs as I, II and III.

The date of death, listed on the tombstone, did not agree with the September 20, 1863 date as listed by Mr. Hildreth. I have seen the tombstone and the inscription reads “Jacob Morgan died Sept. 20, 1863”. The 1850 census confirms his date of birth when it lists him as a male, white, and being 75 years old.

HUSBAND  Jacob MORGAN Jr. (II)-538
WIFE     Elizabeth SMITH-539

Martha Kaufman wrote me in a letter, that her mother knew that Nancy's maiden name was Smith and that she was one of two sisters who married Jacob Morgan. Additional research is needed to confirm the names of Jacob's wives. Mrs. Kaufman also stated that Jacob Morgan was born in Salisbury, North Carolina and his second wife was Nancy Ann Smith. Her family also possibly came from North Carolina. She was born in 1794 and died October 10, 1875 when she was 81 years old. Nancy was born in Pennsylvania and died near Smithfield, Wetzel County, West Virginia. She also stated that Elizabeth appears to be the mother of all of Jacob's children as Jacob had no children with Nancy Ann Smith.

Other marriages:
Abt 1833 Nancy Mary WILSON-548

WIFE     Elizabeth SMITH-539

I have a copy of the marriage certificate confirming the marriage between Jacob Morgan and Elizabeth Smith which took place in Rowan County, North Carolina on October 22, 1800.

The birth of her birth is calculated. The tombstone said that she died on April 11, 1831 and was fifty years, seven months and 19 days old.

CHILD 1 - Hugh "Huie" MORGAN-540
This area became a part of Greene County in 1796.

He had a son, Jacob, who fought in the Civil War.

The 1850 Census of Tyler County listed Hugh Morgan with his wife Rachel. Also listed were Sarah, Anna, Elizabeth, Mary, Emily, Jacob, James, Eliza, Charles and Rachel.

Lori Morgan May's notes indicate that Hugh lived on a farm on Walnut Run, West Virginia and was a farmer. She indicated that this farm was in the Lafayette District in Pleasants County.

Pleasant County, West Virginia was formed from a portion of Tyler County in 1851.

The notes of Martha Kaufman and Lori Morgan May provided the date of birth and death as being August 16, 1885. Dora Morgan Heflin lists the date of death as August 16, 1885 and the date of burial as August 16, 1885.

CHILD 2 - Elizabeth MORGAN-541

CHILD 3 - Nathan S. MORGAN-524

His birthdate from Dora Heflin's records and the date of death is from the Death Certificate.

Pleasant County History says Nathan Morgan was sheriff of Pleasant County, West Virginia in 1858 (page 56 and page 230).

Gusel Harvey was the officiating minister at the wedding.
HUSBAND: Jacob Morgan Jr. (II)-538
WIFE: Elizabeth Smith-539

Data confirmation is also from the family Bible, marriage certificate, death certificate, his will and tombstone inscription.

The marriage certificate is in the Marriage Bond Book number 3, page 80, "A" copy.

CHILD 4 - Jane Morgan-542

CHILD 5 - Margaret Morgan-544

Her sister-in-law was Jane Copenhaver.

The information provided by Dora Morgan Heflin listed the names of the four children.

Other marriages:

Abraham Copenhaver-2392

CHILD 6 - Jacob III Morgan-545

Jane Copenhaver, his wife, was a sister to Abraham Copenhaver who married Margaret Morgan (RIN 544).

Jacob Morgan and Jane Copenhaver adopted a boy, name unknown.

The Tyler County Census for 1850 said that Jacob Morgan was a farmer. He was thirty-five years old and was born in Virginia. Jane was forty-one years old and was born in Virginia. Also listed under Jacob was Jane, 41 born in Virginia, Nancy, 12 born in Virginia, Dorinda, 10 born in Virginia, Catherine, 8 born in Virginia, Isaac, 3 born in Virginia, Jacob (a farmer), 84 born in North Carolina and Nancy, 64 born in Pennsylvania.

Pleasant County was formed from a portion of Tyler County in 1851.

Data confirmation is also from Dora Heflin's notes and tombstone inscriptions.

CHILD 7 - James Morgan-546

CHILD 8 - Richard Morgan-547

He was the oldest child, according to Dora Heflin's records. According to the French Morgan Book he was died in Kentucky but his burial stone, rock, was seen by the author in the Old Morgan Cemetery in 1991.

Data confirmation is from Dora Heflin's notes and tombstone inscriptions.

HUSBAND - Jacob MORGAN Jr. (I11-538)

The birth and death dates are from the Roby Diary. Jacob Morgan, Jr. lived just 14 days short of his 100th birthday.

Pleasant County History, page 64, says he moved from North Carolina in about 1790 and then to Fishing Creek near New Martinsville, Wetzel County, West Virginia. This area was once a part of Tyler County. Wetzel County was formed from Tyler County in 1846.

According to Pleasant County History, page 64 and 229, Nancy Ann Smith was Jacob's wife. However, Nathan's Death Certificate said Elizabeth was his first wife and Nancy Ann Smith was the second wife. Frances McGregor died when her youngest child was two years old. Her husband raised all the children himself, with the help of the older ones.

Frances McGregor's mother was from the Martin family and it is from this family that Helen Louise Scott (Riggs) and her husband, James Riggs, have common ancestors.

Her family and friends called Frances "Fanny". She was a small dainty lady and had one brown eye and one blue eye. Every Sunday, Francis would dress the children and would walk to the Pine Grove Church. The distance was about three miles. There were no paved roads in the area and in the winter months the roads and paths would become quite muddy.

Data confirmation is from personal knowledge of Edna (Wagner) Morgan, family Bible and tombstone inscriptions.
The notes from Dora (Morgan) Heflin reveal that she died during childbirth.

Information about this family was found in McGregor History (See Family History Book).

John McGregor Sr. and Susanna Blakeley sailed for America about 1812.

John McGregor Sr. came from Scotland.

John was a blacksaitb by trade. He set out for America in 1812 and lived in Philadelphia until 1819. He then moved to Bonds Creek, West Virginia.

The notes from Dora (Morgan) Heflin state that John McGregor, her great-great grandfather became ill while he was living in Ritchie County, West Virginia. He went to a special doctor in Uniontown, Pennsylvania to seek a cure. The treatment was unsuccessful and John died while he was there. As travel was difficult in those days, he was buried in Uniontown and his body was never brought back to Ritchie County to be near his wife.

HUSBAND - Elroy WAGNER-597

I have Grandma and Grandpa Wagner's framed wedding certificate. They were married by Rev. W.W. Ryzer, brother-in-law of Jim Rigg's Grandmother Sweeney.

Dora Heflin said, "Edna (Wagner) Morgan remembers the excitement of the first oil well being drilled on their Sugar Creek farm. It was in the Cave Run sand. She was 10 years of age at the time. This farm was sold to Fred Wagner and his family bought the Isaac Holland farm at Rock Run.

The largest oil well in the area was drilled by "Three Joe's Oil Company" just after the farm, along with the mineral rights were bought. The well is producing at this time.

The notes from the files of Dora Heflin reveal the cause of death was Bright's disease. For many years Bright's disease was considered synonymous with diffuse glomerulonephritis which is a disease of the kidneys.

WIFE - Virginia Florence HILL-598

Helen Louise Scott said that one of her first memories was attending her Grandma Wagner's funeral when she was 5 years old.

Dora Heflin said that Virginia had a sister, Rosa Hill, who died as a child. Dora has a large tin-type picture of her. Aunt "Liz", another sister of Virginia, lived with Edna Morgan after her husband passed away and later lived with Jessie McCulloigh and died while she was living there.

CHILD - Floyd WAGNER-599

Uncle Floyd and his family lived very close to Grandma Morgan. The house was located up the valley within eyesight of Edna Morgan's home. A telephone connected the two homes before telephones were common. His home was one of the first houses in the area to have electric lights. The author can remember seeing the gas generator with the bank of wet cell batteries located in the front of the cellar. The wiring was stapled to the outside of the walls as the walls were one board thick.

Floyd was a very hard worker and he watched out after Edna after her husband died. He continued to work in the fields at harvest time and enjoyed cutting and raking hay even after he had his first heart attack. I remember Jessie saying that the morning he died, he felt good. If fact, it was one of his better mornings. Floyd died of a heart attack in his home.

I knew him for many years and I called him "Uncle Floyd". He was very kind to me. Uncle Floyd knew how to handle a team of horses. He always had a pair and was very proud of them. He had a daughter, Jessie, who married Lawrence McCulloUGH. Jessie's children were Georgiana, Alice, Charles, Carolyn, and Jimmy (who died as a little boy from kidney problems) and a son Carl (married to Mary Meredith) whose children were Mary Virginia and a boy called "Brother". Dora Heflin said that Bernard was the given name of "Brother".

FAMILY GROUP RECORD-228

HUSBAND  Elroy WAGNER-597  Yr of Birth 1851
WIFE    Virginia Florence HILL-598  Yr of Birth 1862

Data confirmation is from personal knowledge, the family Bible, tombstone inscriptions and obituary.

CHILD 2 - Edna Ethel WAGNER-498

The information of her birth, death and burial came from the obituary notice.

The Wagners all settled on Sugar Creek. Uncle Friend lived in the old homestead for his entire life.

The Wagner family moved from Sugar Creek to Rock Run in 1900, according to the obituary.

She was baptized at the Sugar Creek Methodist Church.

After Edna got older, she lived on the farm in the summer and took turns living with each daughter's family in the winter. During the last few years of her life, due to the death of her daughter Helen and the illness of Beulah, she lived with Dora (Morgan) Heflin and Harry B. Heflin on the Rock Run farm in the summer and in Harry and Dora's home in Morgantown, West Virginia during the winter months.

Edna loved handicrafts and was still making quilts and beautiful things until her last illness.

She won a National Quilt Award for a five-pointed star quilt she pieced and quilted. Beulah Rolston has the certificate and medal. The last quilt she was working on, at the time of her death, was a blue and white one with an Ocean Wave pattern.

She died of intestinal complications after eating a small piece of chicken bone. She spent twenty-nine days in the Intensive Care unit at the West Virginia University Hospital.

All of her children were born at the Rock Run home in the upstairs room on the southeast corner of the house. It faced the road and down the creek. The bed in which they were born is still in the room as of this writing (1991). Dr. Boyers came to the home at the time of delivery. His office was located in Elkinsboro, West Virginia.

Minnie Watson, a neighbor girl, helped her at times. Dora has a "motto jug", very small, that "Minnie Miny" gave her. It was on a big rock that covered an old spring, at the Watson Farm home. The Watsons' got their drinking water from the spring.

She was used to cooking for the family and harvest bands and was considered to be an excellent cook. Edna seldom measured anything while she was cooking but knew exactly how much of anything the recipe required.

Edna was overweight when she was middle-aged and suffered a severe heart attack. She recovered completely from the heart problem and suffered no additional attacks for the remainder of her life. She did lose a lot of weight after the attack.

DEATHS

MRS. VIRGINIA WAGNER

Mrs. Virginia Wagner, daughter of Sarah and Benjamin Hill, was born August 4, 1862 near McKim. She departed this life Tuesday, March 17, 1936, aged 73 years, 7 months and 11 days. She was married to Elroy Wagner October 17, 1880, who preceded her in death about thirteen years. To this union were born two children, Floyd Wagner and Mrs. Edna Morgan both of Rock Run. She also leaves to mourn her loss five grandchildren: Carlto Wagner of Belmont; Mrs. Lawrence McCullough of Rock Run; Mrs. George Rolston of Huntington; Mrs. Louise Scott of Moundsville; and Mrs. Harry Heflin of Highland. There are four great-grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. Eliza Barker of McKinley.

She joined the Methodist Protestant Church of McKim at an early age. Several years later and after her moving to Rock Run, she transferred her membership to the Pleasant Valley M E Church, where she remained a faithful member until her death.

She has always been a kind and loving mother, grandmother, friend and neighbor, and will be greatly missed by all.

A telephone connected the two homes before telephones were common. His home was one of the first houses in the area to have electric lights. The author can remember seeing the gas generator with the bank of wet cell batteries located in the front of the cellar. The wiring was stapled to the outside of the walls as the walls were one board thick.

Floyd was a very hard worker and he watched out after Edna after her husband died. He continued to work in the fields at harvest time and enjoyed cutting and raking hay even after he had his first heart attack. I remember Jessie saying that the morning he died, he felt good. In fact, it was one of his better mornings. Floyd died of a heart attack in his home.

I knew him for many years and I called him 'Uncle Floyd'. He was very kind to me. Uncle Floyd knew how to handle a team of horses. He always had a pair and was very proud of them. He had a daughter, Jessie, who married Lawrence McCullough. Jessie's children were Georgianna, Alice, Charles, Carolyn, and Jimmy (who died as a little boy from kidney problem) and a son Carl (married to Mary Meredith) whose children were Mary Virginia and a boy called 'Brother'. Dora Heflin said that Bernard was the given name of 'Brother'.

Data confirmation is from personal knowledge, the family Bible, tombstone inscriptions and obituary.

The information about Georgie came from her obituary.

FLOYD WAGNER

Floyd Wagner, 70, a farmer of Hebron died Sunday at his residence. He was born July 23, 1884, in Pleasants County, a son of the late Elroy and Virginia Hill Wagner. His wife, Mrs. Georgia Clovis Wagner preceded him in death.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Lawrence McCullough of Hebron; a son, Carlton Wagner, of Belmont; and a sister, Mrs. Edna Morgan of Hebron; and several grandchildren.

Services were held Tuesday, Nov. 30 at 2:00 p.m. at the Hebron Methodist Church, of which he was a member, with the Rev. Raymond Wells officiating. Interment in the Hebron cemetery.
TO THE MEMORY

Of Georgia, wife of Floyd Wagner, of near Hebron, W. Va., who was born October 24, 1853, and passed away from this life on Monday, October 25, 1920, at the age of 37 years and 1 day.

She was united in marriage to Floyd Wagner on February 19, 1904, by the Rev. L. E. Leslie, pastor of the M. E. Church. Unto this happy union two children were born, Jessie, age 14, and Carlton 8, who survive her. Besides her husband and family she leaves her aged parents, two brothers and three sisters. Her parents, Theodore and Angelina Clovis, of Hebron; Arthur and Thomas of Pennsboro, Mrs. G. L. Wagner of Fairview, Mrs. O. J. Smith, of Hebron and Fannie, a home.

She united with the Hebron M. E. Church in the year 1903, and for 17 years remained a faithful Christian. Her suffering was intense. Her faith remarkable. She could not bear to tell her husband and family that she was going to die, although she knew it. For well did she know how hard it is to say good bye, but with patience and confidence she waited the call, and on Monday at 11 o'clock she answered, and quietly passed away to her reward and to her crown.

On Wednesday afternoon October 27, in the M. E. Church at the little village of Hebron funeral services appropriate to her memory were held. The scripture text for the occasion being "Death is swallowed up in victory" by her former pastor, the Rev. J. F. Hockenberry, of Ellenboro, W. Va., assisted by the Rev. Wm. Hunter.

OBITUARY

Joseph Wagner of Hebron departed this life March 17, 1928, at the ripe old age of 77 years and a few months. He was born in the year 1850 near Hebron and lived in that community all his life, having lived in the village of Hebron more than 50 years. The Wagner's were early settlers of that community, they were a fine class of citizens. Uncle Joe was known and loved by all. He will be missed in the councils of the community. It is a great loss, the passing on of men who have lived upright and useful lives.

He was united in marriage with Elizabeth R. Shingleton in 1876. To this union were born two daughters, Minerva Edwards at home and Edna Wagner of Marlinton, W. Va. He leaves also 4 grand children, Harry Wilford of Oil City, Pa.; Hazel Young of Buckeye, W. Va.; Opal Thomas of Buckeye, W. Va.; Wanena Palmer of Marlinton, W. Va. 9 great grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

His funeral was conducted March 19th by Josiah Payne of Pennsboro, assisted by Rev Mr. Lyons and Rev. Richmond.
Amos Wagner Dead!

Amos Wagner, a leading citizen of Hebron died very suddenly on last Monday morning near his home town. He had started out with his team and wagon, and had gotten little over a mile distant where he was found dying dead in the road where he had fallen off the wagon. It is presumed his death was the result of heart disease.

He was survived by his wife, three daughters, and three sons. The daughters are: Mrs. Lora Green, Mrs. Maggie Locke, and Mrs. Bessie Snyder. They sons are: Clinton residing at Elkins, and...
She was 10 years of age at the time. This farm was sold to Friend Wagner and his family bought the Isaac Holland farm at Rock Run.

The largest oil well in the area was drilled by "Three Joe's Oil Company" just after the farm, along with the mineral rights were bought. The well is producing at this time.

The notes from the files of Dora Reffin reveal the cause of death was Bright's disease. For many years Bright's disease was considered as synonymous with diffuse glomerulonephritis which is a disease of the kidneys.

Wagner—Isaac Wagner was born August 27th, 1841. Died April 1st, 1898. He was born on Sugar Creek, Pleasants Co., W. Va. and died at his home at Hebron, same county and State. He was the son of David and Margaret Wagner. He leaves seven brothers and two sisters to mourn his death.

He enlisted in Company F., 14th W. Va. Volunteers August 1862, and faithfully served his country until the close of the war. He took part in many of the great battles of the war. HUSBAND - Samuel WILLIAMSON Sr.-615
Samuel Williamson came to America in 1733. His wife died at sea leaving him with six children.

Bell and Miller say that Samuel Williamson Sr. left Pequea Valley and followed his friends and relatives to the Cumberland Valley. He settled on a tract near Big Spring, near Newville, and received a warrant for 200 acres in February, 1752. This land was then in Hopewell Township, Cumberland County. In 1767, the farm became a part of Newton Township and in 1777, it was in Mifflin Township. Due to Indian raids in Cumberland Valley, from the spring of 1756 to the fall of 1758, Samuel moved to Pequa Valley where he was an innkeeper.

Other marriages:

CHILD 1 - John WILLIAMSON-2555
Bell and Miller say the he was married about 1747. He lived near his father until about 1760. Then moved to Maryland where one or two of his brothers were living. John's son David was born at Big Spring, Baltimore; and John Jr. in Maryland. In 1769, John Sr. was back in Pennsylvania, at Little Cove, now Warren Township, Franklin County, with his brother, Moses.

CHILD 2 - Moses WILLIAMSON Sr.-632
Bell and Miller stated that on October 1, 1777 Moses Williamson Sr. and his sons appeared before Thomas Walker and took the Oath of Allegiance together. Their names are all together and in order: Moses Jr., Samuel, Jeremiah, John, James and Thomas. Moses was about ten years of age when the family sailed to America.

Bell and Miller also said the deed dated 1797 incorrectly named James as Moses' father. Moses was called "heir-at-law" of James.

CHILD 3 - Samuel WILLIAMSON Jr.-2556
Bell and Miller say that he was married about 1745. He lived near his father until 1762. He purchased a farm in East Pennsborough Township, Cumberland County, near Silver Spring.

HUSBAND - Christopher WAGNER-627

The IGI files of LDS church show children born to David Wagner and Susanna Unstead were born between the years 1759 and 1770. Our Wagner History shows Christopher being born in 1791, too late to be born to this family. David had a brother, Christopher, and the IGI records show a child born to a Christopher & Elizabeth in 1773. Perhaps our Christopher Wagner belonged to this family since his parentage is in doubt.

Wagner History says that Christopher Wagner came from Pennsylvania in 1820 and settled in Sugar Creek, Tyler County. Four of his children married four children of the James Williamson family.

Birth and marriage dates are from the Tyler County History, page 488.

Pleasant County History, page 12, says his name disappears from tax lists after 1861, so it is assumed he died at that time.

Dora Heflin said that our Christopher married Catherine Musser. We have thought Caspar (Casper) his father married Anna Christina Schnack. I find no record of Christopher who married Elizabeth in 1820 when he came to Union District, Pleasant County. He built the first saw mill in 1828.

He is buried in an unmarked grave between Arvilia and Sugar Valley in Pleasant County, West Virginia in a pasture.

Christopher Wagner moved from Pennsylvania in 1820, to Sugar Creek, West Virginia.

The family of Wagner came to America over 200 years ago. Anna Wagner, widow of Casper Wagner of Ober-Harpersdorf, Germany came to America in 1737 with two sons, Christopher and David and settled in Pennsylvania. - From Wagner Reunion News Letter -

WIFE - Catharine MUSSEI-616

The date of birth is from the Tyler County History, pages 151 and 488.

Death date from Pleasant County History, page 12. Musser History says she may have been buried on old John Wagner farm on road between Sugar Valley and Twigs, West Virginia.

Information regarding children is from the Wagner Family History.

Other marriages:

CHILD 1 - Clara WAGNER-629

Records of LDS Church gives this information as coming from Film number 340443.

8USBAND Casparus IAGNEI-630 Yr of Birth
WIFE Anna Christina SCHNACK-631 Yr of Birth

BUSAND - Casparus WAGNER-628
The Wagner Family History (See Fam. History Book) says that Anna, widow of Casper Wagner of Ober-Harpersdorf, Germany, came to America in 1737 with 2 sons, Christopher & David. The history states that we are descended from David, but I have found information which leads me to believe that Christopher was the family ancestor.

IGI records show marriage of Caspar Wagner and Anna Christina Schnack took place on December 1, 1730, in Reinland, Duesseldorf, Prussia, Germany. The church was the Sankt Lambertus Katholisch.

The surname Wagner is both a German and an English name having originated independently in both countries. It was derived from the occupation of its first bearer as a wheelwright, cartwright or carter. The English word Wagon or Wagoner is similar to the German Wagen and the Swedish Vagn or the Dutch Wag. In English, it is by no means an old word, having been first used in 1523-1535; the kindred word in Old English was Wagon. This information came from the Wagner Reunion news letter.

Data confirmation is from the notes of Helen Louise Scott, the Wagner Reunion news letter and IGI records.

I recently talked to Mr. Michael Greer of Bridgeport, West Virginia and he said that he has discovered information that shows the popular belief that the sons of Casparus and Anna were Christopher and David, is not correct. I am waiting to receive data on a missing generation that exists between Casparus and Christopher and David. Upon closer examination of family group sheet #240, the data reveals that Casparus would have had to have been at least sixty years old when he would have had Christopher. While this is possible, the existence of an additional generation is probable.

Mr. Greer also said that although the Wagner family lived in Germany, some family members were moved to Poland to populate the area.

WIFE - Anna Christiana SCHNACK-631
History from the Wagner Reunion news letter states that Anna Wagner, widow of Casper Wagner, of Ober-Harpersdorf, Germany, came to America in 1737 with two sons, Christopher and David. There were various spellings of the name: "Wagner, Wagoner, Wagonen, Waggner, Wogmair, Wagenauer, Wigoener".

Dora Hefflin said that Anna Wagner, widow of Casper Wagner, came to America with two sons, Christopher and David. Fifty-three years later Anna's grandson, Christopher, came to West Virginia.

Data confirmation is from the notes of Dora Hefflin and the Wagner Reunion news letter.

CHILD 1 - Christopher WAGNER-627
The IGI files of LDS church show children born to David Wagner and Susanna Unsted was born between the years 1759 and 1770. Our Wagner History shows Christopher being born in 1791, too late to be born to this family. David had a brother, Christopher, and the IGI records show a child born to a Christopher & Elizabeth in 1773. Perhaps our Christopher Wagner belonged to this family since his parentage is in doubt.

Wagner History says that Christopher Wagner came from Pennsylvania in 1820 and settled in Sugar Creek, Tyler County. Four of his children married four children of the James Williamson family.

Birth and Marriage dates are from the Tyler County History, page 488.

Pleasant County History, page 72, says his name disappears from tax lists after 1862, so it is assumed he died at that time.

Dora Heflin said that our Christopher married Catherine Musser. We have thought Casparus (Casper) his father married Anna Christina Schnack. I find no record of Christopher who married Elizabeth in 1820 when he came to Union District, Pleasant County. He built the first saw mill in 1828.

He is buried in an unmarked grave between Arvilla and Sugar Valley in Pleasant County, West Virginia in a pasture.

Christopher Wagner moved from Pennsylvania in 1820, to Sugar Creek, West Virginia.

The family of Wagner came to America over 200 years ago. Anna Wagner, widow of Casper Wagner of Ober-Burpersdorf, Germany came to America in 1737 with two sons, Christopher and David and settled in Pennsylvania. - From Wagner Reunion News Letter -

OBITUARIES.

Hill—Sarah Wells was born in Tyler county, July 30, 1828, was converted to Christ in her youth and received into the M. E. church. She was united in marriage to Benjamin Hill, September 16, 1847, and died at her home on McKim, Tyler county, June 28, 1900, aged 71 years and 11 months.

Mother Hill was one of the best known residents of the community, and her bereaved husband having established their first home there fifty-three years ago, where they lived in happiness until her death.

She was a loving, helpful companion, a kind Christian mother and good neighbor. The last three years of her life were marked by ill health, but she was sustained by divine grace.

She leaves two daughters: Mrs. Virginia F. Wagner and Mrs. Luliana Barker; and one son, Mr. Waitman Hill. There are three grandchildren, all active members of the church. There were many reunions of the family, there will be one more.

Mrs. Emaline Hill
Died On Saturday

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD MONDAY MORNING AT MIDDLEBOURNE; SON IS PROFESSOR AT W. VA. UNIVERSITY.

Mrs. Emaline Hill passed away at her home on Dodd Street Saturday of diseases incident to old age. She was the daughter of James and Mary Brown Fletcher and was born in Middlebourne, September 16, 1848. She was married to Waitman Hill, of McKim, W. Va., January 27, 1876, and to this union was born one son, L. B. Hill, Professor of Education in West Virginia University.

She had two brothers, Rev. Frank Fletcher, Queens Village, Long Island, N. Y., and Benjamin Fletcher, of Huntington, W. Va., the last named being present for the funeral.

For a number of years after their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Hill lived on McKim creek in Meade district where they with the rest of the Hills in that section made up one of the best communities in Tyler county. They continued to live at that place until their only child Lawrence B. Hill took the principalship of the Tyler County High School after which they moved to Middlebourne that they might be with him. She continued to live here among old friends and associations even after the death of Mr. Hill which took place some years ago.

In young womanhood she was converted and united with the Middlebourne Methodist Episcopal church and has lived a consistent Christian through all the years. She was a sympathetic mother, good neighbor and was universally liked by those with whom she came in contact.

Funeral services were held at the home Monday at 10:00 A. M. in charge of Rev. W. H. Gilmore, local pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church and burial was made in Greenwood cemetery in charge of T. J. Sellers, funeral director.

Aunt "Lise" lived with Edna Morgan several years before her death. One thing Helen Louise Scott could remember vividly, was that she would put bread in her dresser drawer and then eat it after it became moldy. She lived to be 92 years old, so it apparently did not harm her.

CHILD 5 - Virginia Florence HILL-598
Helen Louise Scott said that one of her first memories was attending her Grandma Wagner's funeral when she was 5 years old.

Dora Heflin's said that Virginia had a sister, Rosa Hill, who died as a child. Dora has a large tin-type picture of her. Aunt "Lise", another sister of Virginia, lived with Edna Morgan after her husband passed away and later lived with Jessie McCullough and died while she was living there.

MRS VIRGINIA WAGNER

Mrs Virginia Wagner, daughter of Sarah and Benjamin Hill, was born August 6, 1862, near McKim, and departed this life Tuesday, March 17, 1936, age 73 years, 7 months and 11 days. She was married to Elroy Wagner, October 17, 1880, who preceded her in death about thirteen years. To this union were born two children Floyd Wagner and Mrs Edna Morgan, both of Rock Run. She also leaves to mourn her loss five grandchildren: Carlton Wagner of Belmont; Mrs Lawrence McCullough of Rock Run; Mrs George Rolston of Huntington; Mrs Louis Scott of Moundsville; and Mrs Harry Heffin of Highland. There are four great-grandchildren and one sister, Mrs Eliza Barker of McKim.

She joined the Methodist Protestant Church of McKim at an early age. Several years later and after her moving to Rock Run, she transferred her membership to the Pleasant Valley Methodist Episcopal Church, where she remained a faithful member until her death.

She has always been a kind and loving mother, grandmother, friend and neighbor, and will be greatly missed by all.

Tyler County History, page 316, says Thomas and his brother, Samuel, ran away from home at an early age and arrived on the eastern shore of Maryland. They finally went to Marion County, West Virginia, near Fairmont, and then on to McKin Creek (near Fairmont), then on to McKin Creek. The Hill History (See Family History Book) states he was the original settler on McKin Creek.

Most of the early Hill settlers were buried in McKin cemetery.

Death date is listed in the Tyler County History, page 316.

The Hill family Bible provided confirmation about birth, marriage and death dates of his family and children.

Horace Hill had a son, Thomas, who married Abigail Pierpoint. They were parents of a child, Abigail, born 5/20/1873. Abigail died when the child was born and Thomas rode horseback taking his five day old daughter to her grandparents, Hattie & James Pierpoint at Hert in Tyler County. They lived in the house where JFR's grandfather Sweeney later lived as a little boy. Helen Louise Scott had a painting of the house in her family room.

Benjamin is listed in the 1850 census of Tyler County, West Virginia. Pleasant County was taken from Tyler County in 1851. He is listed as being a farmer. Along with him, Sarah, Waitman and Mary are listed as being in the same household.

Other marriages:
16 Sep 1824 Sarah WILLS-634

Flora Ann is listed.
Death Removes A Splendid Citizen

Israel N. Hill Died Friday Afternoon
At His Home At McKim. Father
Of Circuit Clerk Hill.

Death came Friday afternoon to Israel Nicklin Hill at his home at McKim, this county, and summoned to his eternal reward one splendid old man, father and citizen. He had been hopelessly sick for the past year with croupy, heart, kidney and liver trouble and his death for several months had been expected. Although a great sufferer and with his old body wasted by the disease, he hung on to life remarkably well; and he slipped out after a desperate struggle to remain with his loved ones.

Mr. Hill was born on McKim creek, near where he died, in 1840. He was the youngest son of Thomas Hill and it was only fitting that he was the last of a large family of children to leave this world. He married Miss Elizabeth McCullough and ten children, six sons and four daughters, were born to them. Nine of the children with their mother survive the old father. One son, George W. Hill, died October 3rd 1911. The living children are: Okey J. Hill, clerk of the circuit court of Tyler county; Mrs. Idala V. Shutt of Crawford, Ohio; James D. Hill of Clarksburg; Oliver S. Hill of Tulsa, Oklahoma; and Miss Etta L. Hill and Miss Florida Hill, both at home.

Israel Hill was one splendid old resident and citizen. The Hills are well known throughout the state, many of them having held positions of honor and trust. Israel Hill was a faithful member of the United Brethren church. He lived a life of usefulness, of service, of Christianity; and he leaves behind with his family and his neighbors memories of a highly cherished nature. He outlived the proverbial three score and ten and those long years were full of honest effort, noble resolve.

It was altogether fitting that six old neighbors, men who had known him, men who respected him, should tenderly carry his lifeless body to its final resting place. Jacob Smith, Cy-cilus Bradford, William Burch, Jackson Barker, Thomas Hill and Elroy Wagner were the pall bearers. The funeral services were held at the family home and at the cemetery and were in charge of Reverend Rhodes of the M. P. church. Mr. Hill was buried Sunday afternoon in the McKim cemetery. One of Tyler county's most highly respected old men has been called into the Big Stillness. And it is well with him.

HUSBAND - Thomas WILLIAMSON Sr.-655
John, his brother, and Thomas were 1st settlers in Union District, Tyler County.

They first called the settlement Grandview, but later named Friendly, in honor of Friend Cochran Williamson, a grandson of Thomas, Sr. Tyler County History says settlement took place in 1785. Tyler Co. Historical Society still preserves the first log cabin in which they lived.

Thomas Williamson was a weaver. He is supposed to have carried his loom across the mountains when he moved to Tyler County in about 1785.

According to the History of Tyler County, John and Thomas left Wheeling Creek, Ohio County, Virginia in the late 1700's, traveled down the Ohio River and settled on the Virginia side at a place they named Fairview Landing. Land records show that John and Thomas had been at Wheeling Creek as early as 1772. After a railroad was constructed and a post office was established in 1883, the name was changed from Fairview Landing to Friendly in honor of Friend Cochran Williamson. Friend was a grandson of Thomas Williamson Sr. Another account in the same book said that Thomas and John came down the Ohio from Wheeling in a canoe to the site of Friendly in 1785.

This historical account said that Thomas and John were one of the first settlers at Fort Henry where they defended the Fort and a large tract of land they owned against the Indians and Simon Girty.

His occupation was a Yeoman (Farmer). This is verified by LDS records.

The three eldest sons moved to Lancaster County and changed their name to Moser.

According to Moser Family History, Paul Moser arrived in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on the ship Adventure on September 23, 1732 from Germany. He settled first in New Hanover Township, then moved on to Forks Twp., Northampton County in about 1767. He had gone with other settlers from Palatine Swamp to settle on Blue Mountain lands. They were driven off by Indians. They then tried to settle on the Dry Lands near Easton, Pennsylvania, but were forbidden to remain there because it was proprietary land, not open. However, in 1768 Paul Moser was able to buy about 170 acres in the Dry Lands.

Paul or "Paul" was sympathetic to the Colonials during the Revolutionary War. His son, Paul, wrote an interesting account of the family's activities during the War.

Data confirmation is from the Moser Family History and the notes of Helen Louise Scott.

Evelyn Glenn stated in a letter dated August 31, 1992, that she found a Samuel Doak and his wife and six children coming into New Jersey in 1806. She also furnished information which said, "Doak, Samuel, 39, in US since 1804, with wife and six children".

Additional data confirmation was provided by Sandra Kirk of San Jose, California. She said that Samuel was a farmer.

Tyler County history says that Samuel Doak came from Ireland to Fayette County, Pennsylvania in about 1800. About 1824, he and his wife, Mary, settled on a farm at Central Station, Doddridge County, Virginia (West Virginia).

A deed of land-grant from Governor Wood to Samuel Doak for "The residue of five hundred acres of land" is recorded in the county clerk's office in Middlebourne. The date given for the land-grant was February 20, 1838.

The notes of Sandra Kirk state that Elizabeth Doak was born in Harrison County and died of old age in the Centerville District.

The date and location of his death came from the Certificate of Death.

His home consisted of two parts, a two story log cabin and a one story addition in the shape of an "L" connected by a long porch. He had a large barn, one storage house, a chicken coop, a wash house, a grain house, a two hole outhouse and a two story cellar. A cistern had been built at the top of the hill behind the house and furnished running water in his later years. The land borders of the farm were determined by the "Metes and Bounds" method. This method of defining land boundaries was very common at that time.

Next to the house was a good spring and beside the house there was a drilled well complete with a bailer connected to a rope and crank. Alpha was a farmer and even though he was not considered to be wealthy by any means. He was self sufficient. He raised his own meat, chickens, had a large garden and the only items he needed from town was sugar, spices, flour and certain items of clothing such as shoes.

The log cabin was used mainly as sleeping quarters and the newer addition was used as a living room and a kitchen. The log cabin had a fireplace with a chimney made of field stones. The upstairs had two rooms with three feather beds with no heat. It was not unusual for one to awaken in the morning with a glass of water frozen beside the bed.

Alpha always kept a loaded revolver in the drawer beside the bed until one night he had a nightmare. When he woke, he found he was pointing the loaded gun at his head with his finger in the trigger. Dr. Morgan Heflin had the pistol in his possession. Alpha never kept the gun by his side after that night.

The notes of Dora (Morgan) Heflin indicate that heart and kidney problems were the cause of death.

WIFE - Mabel LEWIS-1127

Mabel died in her sleep in the upstairs bedroom of her Gnat's Run home.

Data confirmation is from personal knowledge of the author, death certificate and tombstone inscriptions.

CHILD 1 - Aloha Brooks HEFLIN-924

Data confirmation is from his brother, Harry B. Heflin.

CHILD 2 - Harry Bruce HEFLIN-587

Harry Bruce Heflin first attended a one room school and walked about four miles to school each morning. He then left home to attend high school in Pennsboro, West Virginia, which was about two miles over the hill from his home on Gnat’s Run. He started his career as a teacher in a one room school located just below the blacksmith shop in Highland on Bond’s Creek about three miles over the hill from his wife’s mother’s farm on Rock Run. Each morning he would walk over the hill from his home to school. Harry started one of the first hot lunch programs in the country for his students.
He attended Glenville State College in Glenville, West Virginia. He told me he "thumbed" a ride in an automobile, went to Glenville with a suitcase and twenty five dollars. After climbing the bill at the college, he asked to see the President and asked him if he could attend school.
After graduating from Glenville, he attended Peabody College in Nashville, Tennessee. He then received his Ph.D. from the University of Pittsburgh. Dr.
Heflin then returned to the college he attended as a student as President.
After a number of years, he transferred to the West Virginia University in Morgantown, West Virginia as vice president in charge of administration and finance. He later became President of West Virginia University in 1981 and later retired as President Emeritus. After leaving the Presidency, he became the Vice Chancellor of Education for the state of West Virginia and moved to Charleston.

Harry and Dora both attended Glenville State College when they married. Dora's mother lived with them for a while when they were living in Glenville in a rented apartment.

Harry was baptized at the Pennsboro Church of Christ.

Harry and Dora were married at the minister's residence on Dewey Ave. in St. Marys, Pleasants County, West Virginia.

During their retirement years, they lived in Morgantown, West Virginia, in the winter and on the farm at Rock Run during the summer. Dr. Heflin continued to be on several boards including the First National Bank Board which was bought out by the Huntington National Bank of Columbus, Ohio.

Harry held a General Class of amateur radio license by the Federal Communications Commission and was issued the call letters of WD8JGR.

Data confirmation is from personal knowledge, birth certificate and numerous publications, diplomas and awards.

HUSBAND - James Cyrus "Cy" MORGAN-523

Cy Morgan was a wealthy man. He started working in the oil fields of West Virginia and later moved to Ohio. It was there he met and married his wife, Cecil Spohn. Children were: James, Alice, and Betty.

This story is told: Cy was boarding at a home where Cecil was helping cook for the boarders. Cy thought she was beautiful. After watching her as he stood on a chair to look through a glass transom over a door, he said "that's the girl I am going to marry." Edna Morgan and Cy were close friends before Edna fell in love with Stokely. They went many places together. Both couples remained close friends through the years.

Notes are from Edna Wagner and Helen Louise Biggs.

The last name was incorrectly spelled as Sponge in the first edition of The Neblin Genealogical Collection. The correct spelling of Spohn was confirmed by Judith Lee Hart and her father, Leland B. Hart.

HUSBAND - Lafayette HEFLIN-1145

His first wife was Mary Virginia Heaton (sister of Ann Dorcas Heflin's husband), the second was Martha Ellen Gabbert. Lafayette served in the Civil War. The pay records show that he was a Private in Company A, 46th Battalion, Virginia Cavalry. He was enlisted by Captain Jarvis in Ritchie County on July 11, 1863. The muster roll for September and October, 1864, show Lafayette to be absent without leave. Family lore says Lafayette was hunted and almost shot by the Union Home Guards in Ritchie County, West Virginia because of his Confederate sympathy.

Lafayette probably came to Ritchie County in about 1850-1851, walking from Fauquier Co., Virginia with the Heatons. Zephaniah and Elizabeth came with their two children, James A. and Mary Virginia. The family settled on the James Taylor farm which is located on the North Fork of the Hughes River between the Goat's Run Church and the point where the river meets and parallels Rt. 74.

Zephaniah was a blacksmith and continued to live on the Taylor farm with his wife Elizabeth until he died January 11, 1855. Elizabeth's tombstone lists that she died December 4, 1854. Both are buried in a small cemetery on west side of Rt. 74 near where the river parallels the road.

Lafayette married Mary Virginia Heaton when they lived on the Taylor farm in 1851. Their first two children (Martha and Charles) were born there. Lafayette purchased the farm on the head waters of Goat's Run in 1851 and lived there until his death in 1908. One of the main reasons they selected this land was that no money was available to dig a well and a good, all season, spring was present.

The exact time of Lafayette's departure from Fauquier County, Virginia is not known. A statement by Harry Earl Hefflin, a grandson of James M. Hefflin, Lafayette's brother, says that James M. Hefflin came to Lumberport, Harrison County, Virginia when he was 17-18 years old which would be 1844-1845.

The 1850 Federal census places the following Hefflins in Harrison County: (William Lafayette's father, Susan Mary, Benjamin Franklin, Ann Dorcas, James Madison, and Lafayette). Benjamin Franklin moved on to West Union and James Madison bought a farm in Lewis County. Susan Mary, Ann Dorcas, and Lafayette moved on to Ritchie County with the Heaton Family.

Ann Dorcas married James Heaton (Mary Virginia's Brother) and Susan Mary married James Cooper. Their daughter Mary married Thomas Taylor of Pennsboro, West Virginia.

Much of this information is from the files of Ernest F. Hefflin Jr. as of August 22, 1991, and from an interview with Bubba Hefflin in his home in July, 1992. Aunt Emma said that Lafayette came from Roanoke, Virginia and walked all the way. There were no roads, only Indian trails. This was told by Dora and Harry Hefflin and confirmed by Bubba Hefflin when he was 98 years of age.

Ernest F. Hefflin Jr. has the pay records for Lafayette Hefflin when he was a Private.

Data confirmation is from the notes of Benjamin F. Heflin.

Other marriages:
1851 Mary Virginia HEATON-1155

WIFE - Martha Ellen GABBERT-1146

Although the date of death is listed as 1929, the tombstone says she died in 1928.

CHILD 1 - Georgiana HEFLIN-683
She was married to Sherman P. Marsh on August 6, 1893.

CHILD 2 - Rosa Agnes HEFLIN-684

CHILD 3 - Alpha Lafayette HEFLIN-1126
Alpha lived on a farm near the head of the valley at Goat's Run near Peninsboro, West Virginia. His home consisted of two parts, a two story log cabin and a one story addition in the shape of an "L" connected by a long porch. He had a large barn, one storage house, a chicken coop, a wash house, a grain house, a two hole outhouse and a two story cellar. A cistern had been built at the top of the hill behind the house and furnished running water in his later years. The land borders of the farm were determined by the "Mates and Bounds" method. This method of defining land boundaries was very common at that time.

Next to the house was a good spring and beside the house there was a drilled well complete with a bailer connected to a rope and crank. Alpha was a farmer and even though he was not considered to be wealthy by any means. He was self sufficient. He raised his own meat, chickens, had a large garden and the only items he needed from town was sugar, spices, flour and certain items of clothing such as shoes.

The log cabin was used mainly as sleeping quarters and the newer addition was used as a living room and a kitchen. The log cabin had a fireplace with a chimney made of field stones. The upstairs had two rooms with three feather beds with no heat. It was not unusual for one to awaken in the morning with a glass of water frozen beside the bed.

Alpha always kept a loaded revolver in the drawer beside the bed until one night he had a nightmare. When he woke, he found he was pointing the loaded gun at his head with his finger in the trigger. Dr. Morgan Heflin has the pistol in his possession. Alpha never kept the gun by his side after that night.

The notes of Dora (Morgan) Heflin indicate that heart and kidney problems were the cause of death.

CHILD 4 - Alta Belle HEFLIN-679
She was married to W. W. Collins on August 22, 1905.

HUSBAND: Hugh Wilson-1607

WIFE: Nancy Wilson-1607

CHILD: Nancy M. Wilson-548

John E. Hildreth states in his "Copenhavers in Northern West Virginia" that Nancy (Mary) Wilson, daughter of Hugh Wilson, was born in 1794 and married first to Isaac Copenhaver. After Isaac died, sometime after 1833, she married Jacob Morgan II. Martha Kaufman also noted the same discrepancy with the last names.

Nancy's tombstone said that she died on October 10, 1875 when she was 81 years old. Therefore she was born in 1794. The 1850 census listed Nancy as being a white, female who was 56 years old and was born in Pennsylvania. This agrees with the date of her death as printed on her tombstone.

The 1850 Wetzel County, Virginia census also listed Isaac F. Copenhaver, an eighteen-year-old white male who was born in Virginia. Rebecca was also listed as a twenty-five-year-old white female who was also born in Virginia. A total of four people were listed under Jacob Morgan.

The 1840 Wetzel County, Virginia census lists Nancy as being 66 which would mean that she was born in 1786. A two-year discrepancy exists with the 1850 census. This date also does not agree with the inscriptions on her tombstone.

Unknown Grave Located on the Uphill Side of Jacob Morgan's, RIN# 538, Grave. This is Being Investigated as a Possible Final Resting Place of Jacob Morgan, RIN# 2006.
Donald E. Roby told me that the notes of his father E. E. Roby stated that the eldest Jacob Morgan (II) is said to have come across the waters between the years of 1732 and 1735. He was from Scotland or Wales and hired out as an indentured servant to a Captain of a ship for his transportation. The Captain, after his arrival in the Colonies, to one of the planters who was located in the Virginia, North Carolina area.

Mr. E. E. Roby said that this Jacob Morgan was the only Morgan Emigrant up to and including the date of 1661. He also stated that Jacob married a girl by the name of ______ McCoy and had three children. He also states that Jacob Morgan II is said to have come from England, Wales or from Scotland to the North Carolina's. Additional information is needed for confirmation and clarification.

The information provided by Lori Morgan May said that Jacob Morgan came from Great Britain to North Carolina in about 1732 from South Glamorgan City, Wales. Glamorgan is an area or County located in Southern Wales in the area of Cardiff. South Glamorgan is in the area of Caerleon and the Vale of Glamorgan District.

Lori Morgan May lists Jacob's wife as ______ McCoy.

The notes from Dora Morgan Heflin state that Jacob came from Great Britain in 1732 to Salisbury, Rowan County, North Carolina.

Additional research is needed to confirm that a McCoy married Jacob Morgan I. Her name is listed in the Roby Diary and Pleasant's County History, but the source of these two accounts may have the same source. Also, the first name of Nancy has not been confirmed by any documents.

Martha Kaufman said that when she was doing research in the Western Reserve Library, she found that Mary McCoy was the wife of Jacob Morgan. She told me that at first, only her last name was known. It had been passed down through the generations. Martha said that she was not sure where or when she found that her given name was Mary. Mrs. Kaufman's mother said that she remembers her parents saying that Jacob's wife was Mary McCoy.

Ernest E. Roby stated that Jacob's wife was ______ McCoy and she was of Irish descent.

The birth and death dates are from the Roby Diary. Jacob Morgan, Jr. lived just 14 days short of his 100th birthday.

According to Pleasant's County History, page 64 and 229, Nancy Ann Smith was Jacob's wife. However, Nathan's Death Certificate said Elizabeth was his first wife and Nancy Ann Smith was the second wife. The Roby Diary said that he had a third wife and her last name was Price. John Hildreth says that Jacob was married to Nancy Mary Wilson who was widowed by the death of Isaac Copenhaver in 1831. He said that she was the daughter of Hugh Wilson. Martha Kaufmam said that her mother told her that Jacob married two sisters, Elizabeth and Nancy, with the last name of Smith. Additional research is indicated to determine the names of Jacob Morgan's wives. Is it possible that there were a total of four spouses?

The marriage certificate states that Jacob Morgan married Elizabeth Smith on October 22, 1800 in Rowan County, North Carolina. Note: the 1800 is very difficult to read on the first page but was very legible on the second.

He is buried in the old Morgan Cemetery in Wetzel County, West Virginia. This cemetery is located on the old Morgan Farm.

Data confirmation is from the Roby Diary, the death certificate, the marriage certificate and census records.

This Jacob Morgan and Nancy are shown in the 1840 Census for Tyler County, Virginia/West Virginia and also in the 1850 and 1860 Censuses. Pleasants County was formed from a portion of Tyler County in 1851.

The Wetzel Co. 1850 Census lists Jacob Morgan, a farmer, and states that he was born in North Carolina. His place of birth has been corrected since the publication of the first edition of The Heflin Genealogical Collection. This publication listed the place of birth as being Fishing Creek, Wetzel County, West Virginia. John Hildreth listed this Jacob as being Jacob Morgan Jr., and states that his son, Jacob Morgan Jr., was the husband of Jane Copenhaver. Family lore agrees with the information printed in the Pleasants County History. It states that Jacob's, RINK 52D, father was also named Jacob. The question remains unanswered why the eldest Jacob's, RINK 2005, son is named Jacob Morgan Sr. by Mr. Hildreth. This is why I chose to label the Jacobs as I, II and III.

The date of death, listed on the tombstone, did not agree with the September 20, 1868 date as listed by Mr. Hildreth. I have seen the tombstone and after close inspection, the inscription reads "Jacob Morgan died Sept. 20, 1863". The 3 is difficult to read. The 1850 census confirms his date of birth as it lists him as a male, white, and being 75 years old.

Martha Kaufman wrote me in a letter, that her mother knew that Nancy's maiden name was Smith and that she was one of two sisters who married Jacob Morgan. Additional research is needed to confirm the names of Jacob's wives. Mrs. Kaufman also stated that Jacob Morgan was born in Salisbury, North Carolina and his second wife was Nancy Ann Smith. Her family also possibly came from North Carolina. She was born in 1794 and died October 10, 1875 when she was 81 years old. Nancy was born in Pennsylvania and died near Smithfield, Wetzel County, West Virginia. She also stated that Elizabeth appears to be the mother of all of Jacob's children as Jacob had no children with Nancy Ann Smith.

Cy told me that his grandfather, James Cyrus "Cy" Morgan started his own drilling company in 1914. His son, James Morgan Jr. followed into the company in 1936. James Cyrus "Cy" Morgan II entered the company in 1959 and his son, James Cyrus Morgan III, came into the business in 1988 bringing into the company his expertise as a geologist. James Cyrus Morgan II furnished the war records of Francis Marion Morgan and information from the old Morgan Bible.

He and I were unable to find any photographs of Francis Marion Morgan’s father Nathan S. Morgan.

CHILD 1 - Delores Elaine MORGAN-2222

Elaine told me that she was the only child and her mother died when she was seven months old. She was raised by her Grandmother and Elaine presently lives in Houston, Texas. DOCUMENTATION

5 May 1993

HUSBAND  John ODELL-2755
WIFE

HUSBAND - John ODELL-2755
The name of John came from the notes of Mrs. Walter Morgan. She lists the last name as O'Dell.

WIFE —

CHILD 1 - Belinda ODELL-525
There is some confusion about both names of this ancestor. In some places, hers given name is listed as Melinda and the surname was Odel. Her name, as inscribed on her tombstone, is Belinda, wife of W. Morgan.

Data confirmation is from the tombstone inscriptions.

The notes provided by Mrs. Walter Morgan state that the old spelling of her name was Malinda Odle.

The Death Certificate for Jacob Ellison Morgan list his mother as being Malinda Odell.

After reviewing data from various sources, it is apparent that Belinda's surname was spelled in various ways even within one family. The spellings included the following: O'Dell, Odell, O'Dell and Ode. The modern telephone listings of several large metropolitan areas reveal a similar variation of spellings.

The names of his three children was provided by Mrs. Merilee Morgan.

Conrad and Sarah were married by Rev. Westfall. The location may have been

C. B. Morgan Passed

Two years ago there came to live among us, C. B. Morgan, a quiet, unassuming man whose daily creed, or motto seemed to be, "Do all the good you can, in all the ways you can, to all the people you can," and as he quietly went about his work, putting his motto into daily practice, we learned to love him. Tonight, he lies cold in death, and all we have left are beautiful memories of a loving husband, kind father and a good neighbor.

He began complaining with a pain in his head; a day or so later suffered a cerebral hemorrhage, which terminated in apoplexy and death came about 10:30 Thursday night.

His attending physician, Dr. Rymer of Ripley, did all that medical science could do to stay the "Grim Reaper," but to no avail; the Master had spoken, "It is enough. Come up Higher."

Mr. Morgan was but forty eight years old and seemingly in the prime of manhood. He had delivered bread for the Storck Bakery of Parkersburg for several years and the high esteem in which he was held by the company was manifested by the beautiful floral offering they sent.

He leaves a companion, eight children, two of whom are in high school, and a babe in arms, two brothers and two sisters to mourn their loss, also a host of friends.

A short service was held at the home Sunday, after which the body was taken to the new Methodist church at Ravenswood and the funeral preached by Rev. Anguish of Shawnee, Ohio, a dear friend of the deceased. His lodge, the Masons, then took charge and he was laid to rest in Ravenswood cemetery, where the beautiful flowers, a huge wreath by the community, one by Gilmore High School, one from each of his lodges, and several others almost covered the simple mound.

He had recently been baptized, and told his family after he took sick that he had no cause to worry, "that all was well."
