This document would not have been possible without the combined efforts of many people, some I will never know personally. A word of thanks to everyone that contributed to this book in anyway.

A special thanks to Mrs. Lorenza (Duncan) Carby, a retired teacher from Grayson Co., Kentucky, who has spent a lifetime researching many families and compiling local historical data. She has been extremely generous with her research. Her data has been used with her permission.

I also have to thank my husband, Robert, who gave me the encouragement I needed to learn a new computer program that was necessary to improve the quality of this book, and to my entire family for their patience during the long hours it took putting this book together.
Preface

This book was primarily written to help preserve local history and to be an aid to anyone involved in the genealogical search. Sometimes current information can be as frustrating to obtain as early records.

Maps, documents, Bible records, census records, early family pictures all help in learning about these early families. Some of these have been included for such purpose.

The maps are of three levels: one covering a large area showing parts of Grayson, Hardin, and Hart Counties; one covering a more generalized area around Millerstown and Carbytown; then a drawing showing the enlarged area of Carbytown as it probably was between the late 1880's and early 1900's.

As more and more people are doing research, the county court houses are finding the need to put all old records on microfilm or microfiche in order to preserve them. In doing this some old records are no longer able to be seen as they looked originally. The enclosed documents were still in good enough quality to be copied and to be read.

The letter/number codes {B1; M3; V2} within the braces refer to the corresponding numbering for the sources of information.

A numbering system that is simple and easy to follow is as important as an orderly system for keeping records. I believe the system used will be easy to follow and also allows for any new names to be added at any point. The following is an explanation of how it works.

The children of Jesse and Susannah Carby are numbered 1, 2, 3, 4. Each generation will add a number, it depending on that person's order of birth. Any number that exceeds "9" is in parentheses to indicate one generation. Example: 1. Thomas Carby-

11. Jesse Carby-(son of Thomas)

111. George Washington Carby-(son of Jesse)

112. Thomas Carby-(son of Jesse)

1121. William K. Carby-(son of Thomas)

11211. Earl Carby-(son of William K.)

12. Hardin William Carby-(son of Thomas)
121. Cordelia Ann (Carby) Craddock-(dau. of Hardin William)

121(10). Carlos Buell Craddock-(son of Cordelia)

121(10)6 Virgil Lee Craddock-(son of Carlos Buell)

122. John Henry Carby-(son of Hardin Wm.)

123. Laura Jane Carby-(dau. of Hardin Wm.)

13. David Howard Carby-(son of Thomas)

14. Henry Carby-(son of Thomas)

Cemeteries

The following is a list of the Cemeteries in the immediate area where most of the Carby Family lived and that are mentioned in this document. The numbers by the name of the cemetery correspond to the numbers found on the map on the following page. The * indicates cemeteries I've personally visited.

1. Antioch Cemetery (Note-there are two Antioch Churches and I assume cemeteries. I have not personally visited these. The first is located on highway 1168 in eastern Grayson County between Big Clifty and Millerstown. The second is off highway 88 about 2 miles east of Peonia in Grayson County. The first one is at least the one referred to in some instances.

2. Board-Craddock Cemetery (Hart Co.) *

3. Broad Ford Cemetery (Grayson Co.) *

4. Camp Ground Church Cemetery (Hart Co.) *

5. Carbytown Cemetery, also called Carby-Joyce Cem. (Hardin Co.) *

6. Clarkson Cemetery (Grayson Co.)

7. Clemmons Cemetery (Grayson Co.) *

8. Copelin Cemetery (Hart Co.)

9. Dorsey Chapel Church Cemetery (Hart Co.) *

10. Horn Cemetery (Grayson Co.) I'm not sure if this is the same as Horntown or a private family cemetery. Horntown is located on highway 224 about halfway between Clarkson and Millerstown.

11. Little Clifty Cemetery (Grayson Co.)

12. Little Flock Church Cemetery (Grayson Co.) *

13. Lucas Grove, also called Old Brackett Cemetery (Hardin Co.) *

14. Millerstown Cemetery (Grayson Co.) *

15. Mt. Moriah Cemetery (Grayson Co.)

16. Mt. Zion Cemetery (Grayson Co.)

17. New Lone Oak Cemetery (Grayson Co.) *
18. Old Lone Oak Cemetery (Grayson Co.) *

19. Pleasant Hill Cemetery (Hart Co.)

20. Pleasant Valley Cemetery (Grayson Co.)

21. Rock Creek Cemetery (Grayson Co.)

22. Sonora Cemetery (Hardin Co.)

23. Upton Cemetery (Larue Co.) * Upton is located on the Hardin-Larue County line. The cemetery is located in the Larue County section of the town.

24. White Mills Cemetery (Hardin Co.)

25. Hardin William Carby Burial Place, located on a farm once owned by Hardin William's father-in-law, Jordan Smith. Located off the Royal-Lone Oak Road on a side road, near the edge of the woods.*

The History of Carbytown Hardin Co., Kentucky

(Taken from Millerstown and its People, by Paul McClure, grandson of Gideon McClure)

In 1853 Zachariah Carby had 500 acres divided into nine parts, suggesting that there were nine living children or heirs at that time. It was his hope that they would settle on this land, and form a community called Carbytown. Some did stay, others found their plots too small and moved away. Four of these sold their land to Gideon McClure in 1878.

It was however, mostly the children of Jesse Carby, son of Thomas, along with the McClures and a few other that almost made Zachariah's dream come true. They were scattered about over the 500 acres, instead of being concentrated into the Nosey Creek Bend as Zachariah had hoped.

Near the center of the community was the Carbytown Cemetery, and here Zachariah was buried. Some dating back to the 1700's no doubt were buried here in graves only marked with a plain fieldstone.

Across the road to the east was the school, a one-room log building. John L. McClure, father of Paul McClure taught the first school. South of the cemetery, on toward Millerstown was "Uncle General" George Washington Carby's home. On the banks of Nolin River, to his west was "Uncle Dock" David Carby just above a fine spring. Nearby was his sister, "Aunt Louiza Hatfield".

"Uncle Tom" Carby's home was up the hollow, east of "Uncle General's" home. Tom's home was a log cabin with only an earthen floor (still common in the Millerstown area in the early 1900's). Beyond his cabin was a sunken, walled-in spring with its big water-snake. A gourd dipper was always kept there. The log barn and stock pond was just before the spring. On further east was the home of C. Samuel Hackley. To the north of "Uncle Tom's Cabin", was Alexander Carby. On to the east from him were the homes of Lona Carby and black "Aunt Lucy Akers" with her sons "Jim and Andy".

Paul McClure was born in Carbytown in 1911.

The Carby Family

The Carby name was more commonly spelled Kerby or Kirby in earlier times. Apparently of English origin they were issued a Coat-of-Arms there. (see cover page) {B13}

Early Carbys (Curby, Kerby, Kirby)

In 1650 a Thomas Kirby and John Johnson were granted 227 acres of land in Northumberland Co., Virginia. {B4}

A Richard Kirby was granted 400 acres in Goochland Co., Virginia in 1730. {B3}

John Kirby was a drummer in the Continental Line from the 10th of December 1779 to 17th of March 1783. {B1}

John and Henry Kirby were on a 1787 Tax List of Albemarle Co., Virginia. {B2}

The following were on the 1790 Census for Virginia:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Kerby</th>
<th>Francis, Henry B., John, John and William.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Kirby</td>
<td>Thomas</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

| Kerby       | Francis, Francis, Francis, John, John, Joseph, Joseph, Thomas and William. |

A John Carby left a will in Berkley Co., Virginia in 1791. {B5}

In South Carolina records is a Francis Kerby (Curby), who died 10 March 1805 in Greenville County. His wife was Elizabeth, and mentions children: son, John dau., Elizabeth Hodges; son, Jesse Curby; dau., Mary Tucker; dau., Aleazbeth Curby. {B6; B7}

Francis' wife may have been the daughter of Leonard Tarrant, if not then Leonard had a daughter that was married to some other Kirby. (See Will of Francis Kerby, page a. {B6}

A Thomas Curby was granted forty-five acres of land on the Lost River, Hardy Co., West Virginia (previously Virginia) in 1793 and fifty-five acres on Rocky Ridge in 1796. {B18; B19}

Thomas Ignatius Carrico, born 1741 Charles Co., Maryland and died 1813 Nelson Co., Kentucky, was married in 1768 to an
Elizabeth Kirby. Thomas and Elizabeth came to Kentucky about 1805. Elizabeth also died in Kentucky. Their daughter, Mary married Benjamin Harrison Kerrick about 1787 in Maryland. [M1]

Thomas Carby bought land from Henry Crist in 1799 in Nelson Co., Kentucky, and appeared on the Nelson Co. Tax List for August 30, 1800. On the 1810 Census of Kentucky Thomas is not listed. I believe that this Thomas and Jesse, of whose descendants this book is concerned, were brothers. At present I have not found anything to prove or disapprove this. [M2; M3; C1]

While looking through sources of information, it was noted that the various spellings of the Kirby name was used regarding the same person in many cases. This was true for the early Kirbys mentioned above as well as the ones that settled throughout the state of Kentucky.

On the 1810 Kentucky Census schedules there were Carbys in Hardin Co.; Curbys in Garrard Co.; Kerbys in Bourbon, Jessamine, Madison, and Warren Counties.

By 1820 there was no spelling of Carby on the census schedules. There were Curbys in Mercer and Scott Counties; Kerbys in Bourbon, Garrard, Henderson, Jessamine, Madison, Pendleton, and Warren Counties; Kirbys in Hardin, Mulenburg, Rockcastle, Scott, and Woodford Counties.

In 1830 we added two more spellings—Carbee in Green Co.; Carbey in Mercer Co.; no Carbys at all; Curbys were all Hardin Co., with one in Jessamine Co.; Kerbys were in Madison, Scott, Union, and Warren Counties; Kirbys were in Bourbon, Hickman, Jefferson, Owen, Pendleton, and Union Counties.

This book is about the branch of the family that were in Nelson County in the late 1790's and early 1800's. By 1810 they were found in Hardin County and descendants eventually settled in other surrounding counties.

Paul McClure in his book, Millerstown and Its People, gives record of an Isaac Carby as a brother to Jesse, below. I have not at this time found any record of such person. Also, by further research Mrs. Lorenza Carby and myself have found evidence that the child/children Mr. McClure names as Isaac's, were children of Jesse. Research continues to settle this discrepancy.

It begins with Jesse Carby and Susannah (some records say Sirelina) Bell, daughter of John Bell. Jesse and Susannah were married the 6th of April 1800 in Nelson Co., Kentucky. [C2; M17; V5]
Hardin County, Kentucky Vital Records say that Jesse Carby was born about 1762 in Virginia (Census records indicate he was born about 1771), the son of Jesse, Sr. and Polly Carby. He died of the flux the 7th of July 1852 in Hardin Co., Kentucky. [V3]

Jesse Carby and Susannah Bell settled on Nolin River in southern Hardin Co. in an area to be known later as Carbytown. They are shown on the Hardin County Census from 1810 to 1850. On the 1810 Hardin Co. Census Jesse is shown as having three males under the age of ten, one between the age of 16 and 26, one male between 26 and 45; 1 female under 10 and one female between 26 and 45. In 1850 Jesse is listed at age 79 and Susannah at age 70 and owning 1,500 acres of land. Also named living in the same household that year was a Catherine Kerby, age 39 and a Louise Kerby, age 9. This suggests the possibility that Catherine was a daughter/daughter-in-law and Louise a grandchild. [M11]

Susannah died sometime after 1850. It is assumed that Jesse and Susannah were probably buried in the Carbytown area.

Questions:
* Is the male between 16 and 26 on the 1810 Hardin Co. census with Jesse a child by another marriage?

* Who is the Jacob Carby that is on the marriage bond with Thomas Carby?

* Jesse and Suzannah Carby give consent for their granddaughter Mary _____ to marry Sampson Henderson. Her name is given as Miss Mary (looks like Tyree) on the bond and license. Zachariah Carby proved the oath and posted bond. Who is she, a grandchild by an unknown daughter, or was Margaret possibly married before. She is shown on the 1870 Grayson Co. Census in Millerstown as Mary A. Henderson, age 41 and head of the household. She is shown with children: Hardin W., age 17; Mary E., age 13; and Miles T., age 3.

It is likely that there were other children, but according to records available, the following are their children and descendants.
1 Thomas Carby- b. ca. 1800 in Kentucky. He probably died between 1860 and 1870. It is said that he is buried in the Carbytown Cemetery, Hardin Co., Ky. He married Elizabeth Nichols the 30th of December 1819 in Hardin Co. Elizabeth was born about 1797-1801 in Kentucky and died after 1880. She was living with son David in Ohio Co., Kentucky in 1870 and with son Hardin William Carby in 1880. She too is said to be buried at Carbytown Cemetery. [C3-5; C7; C12; C13; M12]

11 Jesse Carby-b.ca. 1821 probably Hardin Co., Kentucky. Married first to Mary "Polly" Hatfield-b.ca. 1825, the daughter of Thomas Hatfield and Lucy ________(last name unknown). Died 1856 Hardin Co. Married second to Julia Ann Hatfield. *Note-It is believed that Jesse is a son of Thomas and Elizabeth. If his date of birth (1850 Hardin Co. Census) is close to being correct, then he would be too old to be a son of William, Zachariah, or even Margaret. In 1850 he is found living with Jesse and Susannah Carby on one side, and Thomas and Elizabeth Carby on the other. Children: (at least the first three children are by first marriage). [C11; V3]

1111 Martha Ann Carby-9 November 1890 Hardin Co., Kentucky. Died Grayson Co. Buried Antioch Cemetery. Married to Ellie A. Hatfield-Hardin Co., the son of James W. Hatfield and Susan Hart. He died Grayson Co. and was buried in Antioch Cemetery. Their children:

1218 Sarah Ann Craddock-b. 4 February 1880 Hart Co., Kentucky. Died after 1900 Hart Co. Buried Board-Craddock Cemetery. *There is a conflict on the dates for Sarah. Cemetery inscriptions show dates as: b. 1882 d. 1898. On her father's pension record he gives her date of birth as 4 February 1880 and is shown as still living in March 1898. She is also shown on the 1900 Hart Co. Census at age 20 and single.

In a taped conversation with my grandfather (her brother) he stated she was about age 16 when she died of typhoid fever. It is possible that my grandfather meant he was about age 16 when she died. If so, that would make her about age 20, and possibly died shortly afterward. It is also possible that the gravestone was put up a while after she died and the dates were estimated or just in error.

He also said she was always a fun loving person. She liked to imitate other people. When my grandfather was small she would draw a face on a bag, put it over her head and scare him. Usually jumping out from behind a tree when they would go to the spring.

121(10) Carlos Buell Craddock-b. 21 February 1884 Hart Co., Kentucky. Died 4 March 1980 Hart Co. Buried Dorsey Chapel Church Cemetery. Married Lizzie Frances Puckett-4 January 1914 Euclid (now Kessinger) Hart Co. She was born
12 September 1895 near Red Mills, Hardin Co., Kentucky, the daughter of Vernon L. Puckett and Martha Green Sego. She died 26 March 1960 at the T.J. Sampson Community Hospital, Glasgow, Kentucky. She was originally buried in the Board-Craddock Cemetery. Later the family decided to have her remains moved to Dorsey Chapel Church Cemetery.

Buell and Lizzie first lived on a farm owned by “Jeff” Craddock. The house burned and most of their personal things were lost. About 1928-30 Buell bought back the farm and house built by his grandfather on the bend of Nolin River between Broadford and Wheelers Mill. The house was a two story clapboard structure with a center hall, a single story ell (that later burned) and a large sandstone fireplace and chimney at one end. The floors were wide popular boards and the doors were hand made and put together with wooden pegs. There was no electricity or running water. Only a spring several hundred feet down a steep hill. I’ve heard my grandmother laugh about “the boys” tying kernels of corn on a string, dangling it thru the cracks in the floor to the chickens. Then when it was swallowed, pulling it back out so as to make the chickens feathers turn out. She also recalled “the boys” crawling under the house when they were in trouble. She would take a long pole and twist it in the straps of their overall straps and pull them out. Oh, for the patience of a mother!

This place was affectionally called the “Old Bend” by all the family. I can remember being there when I was very young, the kerosene lamps at night, a 25lb. turkey cooked on the wood stove, trips to the spring, riding in the wagon pulled by the mule team, “Kate and Beck” and the chill I felt when my grandfather yelled out at night for “the boys” to get the guns, when the fox got into the chicken house.

About 1949 Buell and Lizzie moved to a new house on the road between Dorsey Chapel Church and Broad Ford. It had all the conveniences. Lizzie I’m sure appreciated it, but didn’t get to enjoy it for failing health from the time they moved there until she died ten years later.

Buell pretty much took life as it came. He never learned to drive a car and walked to most nearby places. He always raised a large garden by hand, then peddled the vegetables in town up until the year before he died. I think the most prominent memory of my grandfather is seeing him with a hoe in his hand and wearing a red “tote” (toboggan). He loved red.

I asked him once, to what he accredited his long life. His reply, “A jolly disposition, treating everyone good and honoring his mother and father—I always loved my parents." From my own personal knowledge of my grandfather I would have to add the fact that he had unending faith in God and lived in close relationship with him.

They had the following children:

12412 Audrey Carby-b. 11 September 1899 Grayson Co., Kentucky. Died 9 February 1919 Upton, Larue Co.or
Audra was in bed with a new baby. Her father was visiting. Thomas, Audra’s husband, said that he was going to kill all of them. He shot Audra’s father, hit a buckle and didn’t kill him. Audra rolled over on the baby. He shot his wife and killed her. The baby wasn’t shot. Then Thomas killed himself. They had two children:

124122  Leroy Francis Routt-b. 16 December 1918. Died 2 January 1919. There is a conflict of information here, in that this was apparently the baby that Audrey just had prior to her murder. According to the story, the baby was not harmed. This date of death would reflect that the baby died before Audrey was murdered.

135 Sarah A. Carby-b. ca. 1853 prob. Grayson Co., Kentucky.

136 Martin H. Carby-b. ca. 17 July 1855 Grayson Co., Kentucky. \{V2\}

*Also found in the same household with David Carby and family was Margaret Ferguson-b. ca. 1787 Virginia. (1860 Grayson Co., Kentucky Census)
1870 Ohio Co., Kentucky Census—David's mother, Eliza age 69, is in the same household.

Listed in the Ohio Co., Kentucky Marriage Records were: Margaret E. Carby to Joseph H. Crowe—13 July 1891 (Bk. "6", p. 402.) This seems to be a second marriage of David's wife. A Joseph H. Crowe (b. ca. 1826) was married first to a Lucy J. Douglas the 18th of July 1845 in Daviess Co., Kentucky. This would make both Margaret and Joseph about age 68. Joseph H. Crowe is believed to be the son of Henry Crow(e) and Amy J. Carter. David Carby does not appear on the 1890 Tax List for Ohio County.

Also in Ohio Co., Kentucky Marriage records (Bk "38", p. 37) is a Lena Z. Carby to Reuben Jones—1 September 1923. As yet I do not know to what family she belongs. I would suspect a granddaughter of David's. [V6]

14 Henry Carby—b. May 1825 Hardin Co., Kentucky. Died after 1891. Buried in Old Lone Oak Cemetery without stones, according to grandson Dewey Carby. Married to first cousin Mary Margaret Carby—5 May 1849 Hardin Co. She was born August 1830 Hardin Co., the daughter of Zachariah Carby and Phebe Henderson. Mary M. had also died by 1891 and was buried in Old Lone Oak Cemetery, no stone. By 1878 Henry and Mary M. had left Carbytown and went to Grayson Co. There he bought 100 acres of land at fifty cents an acre in the Lone Oak area. In 1889 Henry gave ground for the Lone Oak School. Their children: [C7; C11; M12]

141 Zorada Carby—b. ca. 1850 (1850, 1870 Hardin Co. Census.)

142 Elmira Carby—b. ca. 1852 (1850, 1870 Hardin Co. Census)
