Benjamin Hutchins was born in Goochland County, Virginia, and belonged to the Cedar Creek Friends Meeting. The records of Cedar Creek are in two minute books; the first, 1739-1773, the second, 1774-1794. Unfortunately, there is a period of a year or more missing between the two books.

On p. 1 of the second book is found this item:
"Monthly Meeting, Caroline County, 13th day, 7th month, 1773, one of the Friends appointed to attend the marriage of Benjamin Hutchins and Judith McGehee, report that said marriage was accomplished in an orderly manner." As the previous Monthly Meeting records were missing, in which the declaration of intentions was recorded, we have never been able to learn the names of the parents of Judith. Benjamin was not active in the Meeting at Jedar Creek.

In the fall of 1765, Benjamin requested a certificate from Jedar Creek Meeting to Deep River Meeting, W. J. His request was granted and the certificate was approved and signed January 18, 1766. October 2, 1766, certificates, one for Benjamin and sons, and one for Judith and daughters, were received and accepted at Deep River Meeting.

The Hutchins settled in Sunny County, in the part now Yachin. Deep River Meeting about thirty-five miles away was the nearest. A Preparative Meeting was soon established at Deep Creek, and marriages were reported to Deep River as early as 1766 and 1767.

In 1793, Deep Creek became a Monthly Meeting. One of the first acts of the new meeting was to appoint Benjamin Hutchins and Daniel Huff, a committee to purchase two minute books, one for the men and another for the women. These two books are yet in existence.

The first settlements of the Hutchins in Sunny County, can be approximately located northeast of Yachinville on the branches of Purbush Creek. Deep Creek Friends Church is four and a half miles north of Yachinville. 7-7-1870, this meeting purchases recommending our friend, Benjamin Hutchins as an elder to the Quarterly Meeting. Off course the Hutchins were soon scattered throughout the region as they are today.

North Carolina was not entirely new to the Hutchins. In 1754, Katherine Stanley, sister of Strangeman Hutchins, moved to Guilford County, some of her family were there in 1754. John and Nicholas Hutchins had explored the country, and land entries in Sunny County, 1779. Benjamin Hutchins purchased, May 14, 1779, 50 acres on the south branch of Purbush Creek for $15 pounds. Land entries increased his holdings to about 270 acres.

August 1, 1807, Benjamin, his wife and young children, and grand children, Jesse and Elizabeth, were granted certificates to Miami Meeting, Adams County, Ohio. Benjamin chose to settle in section 29, Butler Township, Montgomery County, north of Dayton. October 3, 1807, a certificate for Judith Hutchins, her daughter, Dorothy and Lydia, and her granddaughters, Elizabeth, was accepted at West Branch Meeting. December 16, 1817, a certificate was accepted at West Branch Meeting for Benjamin Hutchins, his son, Isaac, and his grandson, Jesse.

Soon West Branch, as a Quarterly Meeting, established Randolph Meeting in the Hutchins neighborhood. Unfortunately the records of the Randolph Meeting have been lost and the meeting was laid down long ago. The Randolph brick church is standing—no roof, no door, no windows, no floor, but the walls are solid.
The land for the church and burial ground was donated by Sylvanus Swallow.

Judith Hutchins, who died July, 1747, is said to have been the first to be buried there. Today, the burial ground, like the church, is neglected. Probably, there has not been a burial there in fifty years.

Benjamin and wife Judith, are buried there with monuments at their graves.

Isaac and Rebecca, Benjamin, Jr. and Hannah are also buried there and have monuments. Also many of the younger generation. However, many of the stones are fallen and covered with grass and weeds.

In 1815, Benjamin, Jr. married Mary Jenkins, widow of William Jenkins. William and Mary Jenkins had a son, William, who married Lydia Hutchins (daughter of Benjamin), and a daughter, Tamer, who married Jesse Hutchins (grandson of Benjamin).

We have followed Benjamin and Judith, by certificates, from Cedar Creek, Virginia, to Deep River, and Deep Creek, North Carolina. And from North Carolina, by certificate, to West Branch, Ohio.

They found their bodily rest in Randolph Cemetery. We know their lives were a certificate to their Monthly Meeting in Heaven.

All we know about this family is from the Census Reports, and from the Court Records of Boone County, Indiana.

In the Boone County Court, Hannah Young was the first guardian of minor children, heirs to property descended from their grandfather, deceased, Anderson Hutchins of Miami County, Ohio. I think Hannah Young must have returned to Ohio, and May the first, 1867 Oliver Cravens, was appointed guardian of David A. Hutchins and Lula Bell Hutchins, heirs of Lewis Hutchins to one-fifth of the estate. Lewis deceased, soldier killed at Pulaski, Tenn., 9-27-1864.

Oliver Cravens was also Guardian of William Weaver, Mary E. Weaver, Sarah Weaver, and Susan Bell Weaver, minor heirs of Hannah Young, heirs to one-fifth of estate. The Hutchins lived in Boone County, Indiana. The Weavers, in Miami County, Ohio.

We are unable to find any trace of this family. Lucinda Bewly wrote a letter to Daniel Hutchins, of Wabash, Indiana, in 1865. In this she mentioned her two brothers, Bonaparte and Alexander, one in Michigan, the other in Indiana.

In 1872, another letter said, that Bonaparte and Alexander had moved to Iowa, (I think in the fall of 1869 or 1870) where Alexander soon died.

Keziah Huff, first wife of Anderson Hutchins, was daughter of Daniel and Elizabeth Huff. When the Deep Creek Meeting was established, 1793, in Surry (now Yadkin) County, one of the first acts of the meeting was to appoint Benjamin Hutchins and Daniel Huff, a committee to obtain two record books.

Thomas W. Barnett said of Anderson Hutchins, who was his uncle, "After the death of his first wife, Anderson wandered by sea and land over the world for the space of ten or twelve years."

The Bewly family lived in the vicinity of Troy, Ohio, as some do now. It is from them that we have the statement that Anderson is buried at Staunton Cemetery.

Members of the Huff Family who are buried in the Fairfield Meeting graveyard, near Leesburg, O.,

Tribute to Mrs. Emma Hutchins Sullivan, No. 9

Mrs. Sullivan resided in Wabash during the time we knew her and we were in her home frequently. She was always friendly and gave help willingly. She gave us a copy of the Diary of her grandfather, Jesse Hutchins, son of Anderson, of Benjamin, Sr. The records are chiefly of expenditures and receipts of money, beginning in January, 1831. Items of human interest are, for example, "Tramped out wheat ½ day and went squirrel hunting the rest." "March 20,- Sabbath- Went to meeting. Grandfather this evening quit using tobacco." (Grandfather referred to, is Benjamin Hutchins, Sr.) Usually the Sabbath day item was, "Went to meeting."

Mrs. Sullivan died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Earl Foote, in Huntington, Indiana.

m- 8-23-1844, N.C.  Sarah Rutledge

We were not very successful in finding data of this family. While the others of the Benjamin Hutchins family migrated to Ohio, Josiah remained in North Carolina where he had large holdings of land. After his death, his personal property sold for over $2,400, a large amount for that day.

In 1936, we visited that region. Josiah lived near Sugartown. A part of his home, which in his Will, he called his "Mansion House", is still standing. Josiah and his wife are buried about three squares from his home in a clump of shrubs in an open field. The owner of the land thought to remove the burial place, but desisted on account of a dream. According to the Will there were six children, order of birth not known.

The names of the children and dates of birth, are taken from the Census of Surry County, 1850. Josiah Hughes was not given in that Census. The family moved to Hardin County, Iowa. In 1870 Census, Judith, Meredith, Josiah (son) and Lovisa were in that County, Providence Township.

We have been unable to find the families of Edward Carter and Daniel Pilcher. (See 1 and 2 above) From some records it can be inferred that Edward Carter lived north of Sugartown, N.C., and Daniel Pilcher lived near Shacktown, or Forbush Baptist Church.

Columbus Russell No ch.

Bloom Carlton was wealthy and an important man in Yadkin County. His old home near Yadkinville is owned by Anna Carlton, a grand daughter. She has the Carlton Bible.
According to Lee Carlton, son of Americus, living near Yadkinville, N.C., Isaac moved to California where he had quite an estate.

Thomas W. Barnett, of Fulton County, Indiana, was a nephew of Josiah, and a first cousin of this John Hutchins. Thomas W. kept extensive diaries, and account books, in which were pages of history of the Barnett and Hutchins families.

Of Josiah Hutchins, he said, "I never saw any of this family except John. He was a large and likely man. He has been dead some years." This was written in 1858.

In 1828, in Montgomery County, Ohio, there was a marriage of a John W. Hutchins, born 1803 in North Carolina to Jane Reed. Their children were Josiah, Elizabeth, Rachel and Margaret. This is given only as a possible clue.

Mary Williams who married Josiah Hutchins, was of a large and important family in Surry County. She was the daughter of John and Elizabeth Williams, a sister of Thomas Williams who married Elizabeth Harding, daughter of Obedience Hutchins and William Harding, and grand daughter of Timothy Williams who came from England.

Josiah Hutchins was a birthright Quaker. His marriage in 1799 did not conform to the rule of the Church and he was disowned. In 1800 he repented of his failure to observe the discipline, and regained his membership. In 1805, he left the Church, or perhaps it should be said the Church left him.

Josiah was a successful merchant at Rockford, N.C. This town, now of about 400 population, was for perhaps fifty years, the County Seat of Surry County. The town is on the north side of the Yadkin River at a natural site for a ferry. In 1851, Surry County was divided and the part south of the Yadkin River was made into Yadkin County. New county seats were established, and Rockford lost its importance as a trading center.

This was the Thomas W. Barnett who left such an excellent record of the old part of the Barnett family and the Hutchins family. We are indebted to him for his records. We shall attempt to obtain a better record of his own family.
He was a large man. He was murdered one-half mile east of Attica, Ind. Shot while on his horse. Motive, robbery. The murderer not apprehended.

Isaac was married in Montgomery Co., Ohio, and moved at once to Fountain County, Indiana. In 1846, he moved to Knox County, Illinois, and in 1851, to Johnson County, Iowa.

In the Fountain County Circuit Court, John W. Campbell was appointed guardian of the three minor heirs.

John and Elizabeth Barnett, parents of Hutchins A. Barnett, moved from Montgomery County, Ohio, to Fountain County, Indiana, and lived near Attica. They moved to Fulton County, Indiana, 7-7-1849, and lived with or near their son, Thomas W. Barnett.

Daniel H. Hutchins was a Friends Minister.

His will was probated at Dayton, Ohio, 12-19-1866.

The will reads like a sermon and a prayer. Everything was left to his wife Dorcas, who was Executrix without bond. There was one exception as to her remarriage.

1-15-1874, John Miles, widower, of Wayne County, Indiana, Milford Meeting, and Dorcas Hutchins, widow of Daniel H. Hutchins, daughter of John and Sarah Jones, were married at the West Branch Friends Church.

Thomas J. Hutchins' early life and school days were spent on the farm where he was born. He joined the Friends Church at eighteen years of age and was a worker and teacher in the Sunday School as long as he was able to attend. He taught several terms of school in Wabash and Grant counties, Indiana.

After his marriage in 1877, they lived with his parents on the home farm in Grant County. He still taught school and after removing to Kansas in 1885, he taught other terms of school. In all, seventeen years of teaching in public schools. He loved children. He was a wonderfully gentle and intelligent man; proud of the successes of his grandchildren, sorrowful with them over their small sorrows, yet ever with a gospel of hope.

His whole life radiated faith, hope and peace. Never was this more plain than during the last fifteen years of his life, when his cross was blindness. He set an example of patience and faith that few can achieve.

Mrs. T. J. Hutchins (Nancy Weesner) was industrious, frugal and kind to her grandchildren.
We will always remember her cooky box. In her younger days she was faithful to her church and attended as long as the Center Meeting kept up. Her hobby was making quilts to use up the patches left over from sewing. They always raised garden and chickens.

Of the four children born to this couple, two died young: the son Herschel, never married and Dorsey J. is the only one who has descendants. His family is given on pages 63-66.

Children of Dorsey J. and Bertha Newby Hutchins. See Newby book where great-grand children are named in full.

Lieut. John Andrew George died Dec. 22, 1941. He was located at Ft. Stotsenburg, Phillipines. He fell the day that Gen. McArthur retreated from Bataan Peninsula. His regiment, the 26th Cavalry, gave cover for the retreat and acted as buffer between U.S. Infantry and Japanese tanks. He died in this action and a posthumous award of the Order of the Purple Heart, was made. He was a fine boy, a graduate by his own efforts of Illinois University. His widow continued her work in the drafting office of the Parsons, Kansas, Defense Plant until her second marriage.
The following interesting notes on the family of Thomas Jefferson Hutchins, were contributed by Nancy Esther Hutchins Hineman, (Mrs. George E.) the oldest grandchild:

"My father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey J. Hutchins, both attended Sterling College as under classmen (what we call now High School) a few months each. All of their children are High School graduates and three graduated from college.

My Dad loves feeding cattle—does it and wheat farming on a large scale, is very successful and a good business man. He reads a great deal. Mother loves everyone, I believe, also flowers, crocheting, reading and music, as well as her church. Until the past year, everyone always remarked, 'What a good looking woman!'

Mother delights in traveling, too, and I am a regular gad-a-bout. (Laid low by the War, but barely repressed.) Other hobbies of mine are genealogy, art, music and poetry. I have also taught school, as did my sisters.

George Hineman, my husband, and my Dad like to go to auction sales of live stock and watch for bargains. They and A.J. Selfridge do more manual labor and planning than any men I know and the three are the real money makers of this whole county.

My sons, Richard Elmer and Kalo Albert Hineman, were graduates in Veterinary Medicine and Surgery in August, 1943. They both rank as First Lieutenants and having had two years of military training; this with their Veterinary degrees, will probably get them into the Cavalry where they desire to be, so as to practice their profession.

Kalo was the president of the 1943 class of Veterinary Students and he was also president of the Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity for two years. He loves to hunt. Dick was the vice president of the Kappa Sigma Fraternity for one year. He loves to fish.

Rita Jean, my elder daughter, loves music—has never been told to practice, is playing violin solo in contest this year, has played piano in thirteen contests. She has several music and scholarship letters and has signed C.W.C. this next year, as they gave her a $250 scholarship.

Rachel, my second daughter, loves to sing and cook and is popular with her friends. Herby, my youngest son, would rather fish than eat. He was rigging fishing tackle when the temperature was five degrees below zero.
My brother, Clarence T. Hutchins, and family, removed to an irrigated farm in Scott County, Kansas, in the summer of 1941, and built a fine new residence. Address, Scott City. Calvin, son of Clarence, is of draft age now, and is a live stock boy, while his brother Eugene, likes irrigated crops best. Clarence and A.J. Selfridge like to go to base ball and foot ball games, as does Marion.

Marion and Grace Hutchins purchased an irrigated farm, have a fine big well, built a nice new home which they removed to in autumn of 1941. They live a mile or so south west of the Shallow-water refinery, but their address is Scott City, due to a Star Route between Scott City and Garden City. They live about forty miles from us and Clarence lives about thirty-three miles.

Marion and Clarence are both very successful wheat farmers and cattle raisers.

Don has been a very successful truck man, but has now turned to farming. In December, 1942, he and his family removed from Dad's old home farm at Sterling, to a farm they purchased in Wichita County, Kansas, and live about thirty-six miles away. Address, Marienthal, Kansas.

Virginia is a neighborhood leader in her Farm Bureau Club, has taught school two years, and also does china painting. She and her husband, A.J. Selfridge, previously mentioned as a successful farmer, are also successful in raising garden and poultry. They are now getting two hundred-fifty to three hundred eggs a day. Sue Ann, their baby girl, runs everywhere and expects, and is, the center of attraction. She is chubby and apple-cheeked.

Pauline does too many things well—church leadership, children's groups, plays piano well and has sung in church choir a lot. She was valedictorian of her High School class, attended Sterling College two years, after which she taught school one year. Now, she helps Ross in the store, which is the largest in Sterling, and no meat merchant in Kansas sells more meat than he does. Both Ross and Pauline take an active interest in civic and community affairs. He is a member of the Home Guards. Pauline taught school for years and graduated from college by means of night classes and adult schools.

Olive's bent is knitting and fine sewing, and plays violin. She is active in her church and so is her husband, Frank Ashlock. His work is milling chemistry. The mill he works for exports flour mainly. His hobby is photography and turning wood on his lathe, then finishing up furniture and gifts. He loves to hunt with his Dad.

Hazelbel attended college three years, after which she taught school one year and worked one year in a Wichita architect's office, then finished her college course. She has taken prizes at Kansas State Fair with her crayon and oil paintings. Her marriage to Lieut. John A. George is mentioned on a previous page.

Albert Fowler was first a Friends Minister. Later, a United Brethren Minister.

The Brandenburgs came from the House of Brandenburg, Germany. The Curtis family, had as an ancestor, a sister of Lord Broughton. The Kruger family trace to Rev. Hans Herr, who came to Pennsylvania with William Penn. Rhoda Hutchins was an unusual woman. She was an excellent house keeper and very religious.

Wabash County, Indiana, June Term of Court, 1869. Estate of Vestal Hutchins, Davis Hutchins, Adm. Bond, $6000. Vestal is the first son of Benjamin, Jr.

Hugh Allen Hutchins, # 1, page 82, is a designer and manufacturer of farm machinery. He was born in Wabash County, Indiana, but now resides in California. He is a very successful business man, making many trips to Washington, D.C., to have his designs patented. Personally, he is a very fine representative member of the Hutchins family, as are the two older sons who visited us one summer a few years ago. Hugh and son, Gene, stopped here over night in February, 1940.

<td># 3 above, Mrs. James W. Anderson, was a dear, good woman, who bore her afflictions bravely. She was extremely interested in family history and helped in many ways, - having in her possession old records which she lent. One of these was the account of the trip back to North Carolina by her great-grandfather, Benjamin Hutchins,Jr., made in 1836. Mrs. Anderson was the only child of Julia Ann Hutchins who lived to maturity. And as she left no descendants, there are no further records of this line. They lived in Murlin Heights, Ohio.</td>

William H. Hatton

This family of William and Gulielma Julian Hutchins should have special mention. William and seven of his sons served in the Union Army during the Civil War.

Horatio Stephens Hutchins, Private, enrolled at Hamilton, Ohio, 8-26-1861, mustered into service 9-9-1861, Company H, 35th Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry. Honorably discharged at Chattanooga, Tenn., by reason of disability, Jan. 3, 1864. Neither the Pension Bureau nor the War Department has further records of him.

William O. Hutchins, Private, enlisted 8-11-1862, for three years in Company D, 94th Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry. Discharged May 2, 1863 at Columbus, Ohio, on Surgeon's Certificate of Disability. Died at the National Military Home, Dayton, Ohio, Jan. 6, 1882. Buried, Section D, Row 1, grave 6.

Benjamin Franklin Hutchins, Private, enlisted Aug. 21, 1862, at Tippecanoe City, Ohio, was mustered into service Aug. 24, 1862, Company D, 94th Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry. Company D was commanded by Captain Rue Hutchins. Benjamin F. died at Murfreesboro, Tennessee, and was buried in grave 437. It appears that the marker to the grave has been destroyed, and the former soldier is now probably buried among the Unknown at the National Cemetery, Murfreesboro, Tennessee.

Allen J. Hutchins, Private, enlisted Aug. 26, 1861 for three years, in Company H, 35th Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry. Died 2-4-1862 of Typhoid Fever, at Somerset, Kentucky. No record found of the burial place.

m- 6-23-1847, Q. Ann Hanson Hutchins, dau. Bor. & Rachel.

3 ch.
b- 1-22-1822, d- 5-10-1874

Both of these marriages were at Flat Rock Friends Meeting, Henry County, Indiana.

Ann was the daughter of Borden and Rachel Cox Hanson and had been previously married to Enos Hutchins, a second cousin of John. John was of Mill Creek Meeting, Ohio, and it may be that Frances Malinda is buried at Mill Creek Cemetery.

John and Ann are buried at the site of old Pleasant Hill Quaker Church, now torn down, west of New London, Indiana. The burial ground is known as the Hanson Grave Yard, nine miles west and three miles south of Kokomo, Indiana.

Frederick Waymire
b. 3-15-1789; d. 11-25-1822, Ohio.
William Gaddis
b. 3-20-1770; d. 2-12-1854, Ind.

Dorothy, daughter of Benjamin and Judith (McGehee) Hutchins was born in North Carolina and came with her parents to Ohio in 1807. She was a birthright Quaker, but later became a member of the Methodist Church.

Frederick Waymire, son of Frederick and Rebecca Lowe Waymire, was married to Dorothy Hutchins in Ohio. Frederick was a young man of thirty-three at the time of his death and left a family of seven children, the youngest being only a year old. His sister Rebecca Waymire Gaddis died the same day and they were buried in the same grave at Eaton, Ohio.

Several years later, 1827, his widow, Dorothy Hutchins Waymire, married William Gaddis, his sister's surviving husband. They each had seven children by first marriage, thus, their family at the beginning of second marriage, was a total of sixteen souls - a full table to start with. They were married by David Hoover, J.P. - David performing this official proceeding for most all his relatives, near and distant.

Soon after marriage they came to Indiana and settled in Perry Township, Tippecanoe County, near the old "Half-way" house on the highway now known as State Road 26. After residing here many years, they were intending to move to Rossville, but she died at the home of one of her step-sons, a son of William Gaddis.

Dorothy and William Gaddis are buried in the Oxford Cemetery two miles south and four miles west of Rossville, Indiana, in Tippecanoe County. There are monuments at their graves. Their daughter Harriett Hewit, is also buried there.

The cemetery at Rossville is the burial place of many Hutchins descendants of various names. Many of the Smith, Gaddis, Short and Staley Families, are buried there.

Many descendants of these early families still reside in Perry Township and surrounding localities.
The names of the children by the two marriages, are as follows:

1- Huldah C. Waymire
2- Andrew Waymire
3- Elizabeth Waymire
4- Rebecca Waymire
5- John Waymire
6- Rev. William Enoch Waymire
7- Lydia Waymire
8- Harriett Gaddis
9- Marie Gaddis.

   b- 6- 6-1809, d- 1-11-1898  9 children.
   b- 8-24-1802, d-11-23-1865, Ohio.

Huldah C. Waymire, born 1809, Montgomery County, Ohio, married John Staley in Ohio. The parents of John were Martin from Germany and Mary Cousins of North Carolina. They came to Ohio in 1817. Martin died in 1845.

Huldah and John came to Indiana in 1829 and settled in Perry Township, Tippecanoe County, where they spent the rest of their lives. Here all their children were born. Huldah lived thirty years after the death of John. Both are buried in cemetery at Dayton, Indiana.

During the later years of her life, her birthday was observed by her children and grandchildren, also brothers and sisters. After her death, the Sunday nearest to her birth date, June 6th., was chosen for the annual Staley Reunion which has been held for many years. She was revered and loved by all who knew her.

Clifford Staley was a teacher in the Tippecanoe County schools for several years. During the first World War, he served with the rank of First Lieutenant. At the time of his death he was residing in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Cora Staley Davison and husband, John B., were both teachers of experience in Tippecanoe County. Elizabeth Staley Frey, sister of Cora, was also a teacher. They all have residence now in Rossville, Clinton County.

Earl Staley served as Sheriff of Tippecanoe County two terms. His wife Orpha is the daughter of a former Sheriff, Joseph Jackson (son of Andrew and Mary Jackson). Earl is the President of the Staley Reunion, a position he has held many years.

Annies Eliza Buck, wife of Andrew Waymire, # 7,- gave valuable help in the compilation of the records of the Andrew Waymire family. She was interested in the family and proud to be a member of it. As she expressed it, she was "gathering twigs for one branch of the family tree." She spent her winters at the Soldiers' Home at Milford, Nebraska, her husband having served in the Civil War, as had all his brothers. The last letter I received from her was written on her 78th birthday.

Andrew Waymire, born 1810. All his sons enlisted in the Union Army, also his step sons.

About 1866 or 1867, he left Indiana for Illinois. In 1878 his sons John and Harvey went overland to Nebraska, bought railroad land and built sod houses. He and his wife Mary and two step sons left Illinois, going to Beatrice, Nebraska. Farther west in Saline County, they located, and endured the hardships of pioneer life. Not long after they arrived in Nebraska, the state was visited by grasshoppers. Some of the relatives around Deedsville, Indiana, remembered that the Indiana folks sent a car load of provision to their assistance.

Andrew deeded two acres of land for church and cemetery. Here in this Waymire Cemetery, Andrew and his second and third wives are buried, as are many others of the family. After the death of the third wife, Andrew made his home with his son, Harvey.

Annie Eliza Buck Waymire, a daughter-in-law, said of him, "None knew him but to love him, and no one doubted his professed Christianity. Always jolly, and had a sunshine face."

Andrew and his first wife, Hannah Hutchins, were first cousins, she being the daughter of John and Rebecca Hutchins.

John R. and Nelson B. Waymire, sons of William Enoch, served in the Civil War, John R. having a deep scar on his face as a result of his war experience.

There was a noticeable resemblance among the Waymire brothers. At the time of the death of William Enoch Waymire, my father, John Waymire, his sister Rebecca and husband, Thomas Smith, went to the funeral, going to the church during the services. In the words of a relative who was present, "We were almost shocked when we saw John Waymire, for he was nearly the exact image of Uncle Enoch."
