The Early Descendants of Wm. Overton & Elizabeth Waters of Virginia, and Allied Families

PUBLISHED 1938 BY

W. P. ANDERSON.
I undertook the collection of data on the Overtons of Virginia to try and get in touch with someone who had records that would definitely show the parentage of Mary Overton, who is supposed to have married Robert Anderson, Jr. who died in Hanover Co., Va. in 1716. In 1936 I published "Anderson Family Records" (AFR), a book of 174 pages, giving the descendants of the above Robert, and some early data on the Crawford, Dabney, Longworth, Marshall, Overton, Rogers, Wiggins, Worthington and other families connected with the Andersons. It would be well to look this over to properly understand these notes and I will be glad to lend a copy of this book to those interested or a copy can be purchased for $5.00.

Family Bible Records go back to Robert Anderson b. Jan. 1, 1712 (see AFR66, 82, 96), and tradition gives him as the son of Robert Anderson, Jr., and Mary Overton, a Daughter of William Overton and Elizabeth Waters (see AFR5, 141, 165 R-22), and Gov. Charles Anderson, a grandson of Robert Anderson b. 1712, left records showing he was quite confident his great grandmother was Mary Overton and recollected a visit to his father of his cousin John Overton of Virginia (AFR166 R-78).

Barbara Overton b. 1690 left a record of the children of Wm. Overton. The original record is apparently lost, but at least a copy made by Judge W. J. Leake from a copy made by W. S. Pryor and an abstract in the Winston Manuscript Genealogy are preserved. (AFR140). These give Mary Waters as the wife of Wm. Overton, but her mother's will (AFR139) names her Elizabeth. One gives Barbara's husband as John Winston, the other as James Winston. The oldest child of Wm. Overton and Elizabeth Waters is given as Elizabeth b. June 28, 1673. It is my belief that it was she who married Robert Anderson, Jr. Possibly her name was miscopied or that both she and her mother were christened Elizabeth but called Mary. I will greatly appreciate hearing from anyone having a family record, either original or from other sources, which may throw light on this subject, or give definite information as to who Elizabeth Overton b. June 28, 1673 married, and also any information of the early Andersons of Hanover County, not covered herein or in "Anderson Family Records".

As I am not a professional genealogist, I can only work on genealogy in my spare time, but I have much information on the Overton family, obtained from research and correspondence with hundreds of Overton descendants, and others interested in genealogy. During 1938 I am having Ardlee Service Inc. of N. Y. photo-offset some of the information I have on the early generations of the Anderson, Barret, Boone, Cosby, Crawford, Dabney, Fontaine, Harris, Hart, Jacobs, Johnson, Lewis, Waupin, Meriwether, Minor, Moore, Overton, Pettus, Terrell, Thomson, Tompkins, Winston, Yancey and other Virginia families, so that it can be sent to more correspondents for additions and corrections.

I am only carrying down families, other than Overton descendants, and those of (Colu4) & (Colu6) Bartelot Anderson, (g) Garland Anderson, (j) John Anderson, Robert Anderson and Cecilia Wissle, (DX) Elizabeth Dabney & (DW) George Dabney II, whom I believe to be related to my Anderson family, through those branches which appear to have intermarried with descendants of these families.

I am deeply grateful to the numerous correspondents who have so graciously assisted me in collecting family data, and where they have furnished a list of children, their symbol and name, or initials appear in brackets after "Issue". This bracket may also contain an abbreviation of a book, indicating the source of my information. An abbreviation after an individual's name indicates where further information regarding him can be obtained, and an abbreviation after a statement in brackets, or a footnote, indicates my source of information.
In some cases this is omitted due to the fact that in the early stages of my work, I had not thought of always showing where the information came from, but after reading many books on genealogy, having information on our family and seeing their discrepancies and errors, I came to the conclusion to give all possible references as I went along, and used abbreviations for these references. This will enable the reader to judge the reliability of the data covered. "Anderson Family Records" gives a list of these abbreviations, to which the following changes and additions have been made:

A number preceding a reference refers to the volume, and a number after the reference refers to the page. When the reference gives its source of information, I include this in the brackets.

Where a letter in a symbol is underlined, thus x it indicates that I am uncertain of the ancestry back of the individual whose symbol is the characters to and including said letter. This does not mean all others are correct, as this work is not complete, and undoubtedly has many errors, which those who have family records not available to me, can point out. I will be very grateful to receive such family records, corrections and additions, which I hope I may later publish.

The following notes on the Cosby family are, unless otherwise noted, taken from "Cosby Genealogy" compiled by Frank Carvill Cosby. Revised and amended by Frank Clark Cosby and John S. Carpenter (CoG), which was lent to me by (05zl4271) Col. Spencer Cosby. They have been checked with OCA.

Co Charles Cosby (10W(2)237, 238), the founder of the family in Virginia, was born Sept. 12, 1584, the third child of Alexander Cosby of Stradbally, Ireland and Dorcas Sidney. Alexander Cosby, who was killed on May 19, 1596 at the battle of Stradbally Bridge, was the son of Gen. Francis Cosby (see English Dictionary of National Biography) who settled in Ireland in 1548 and was killed at the battle of Glenmalure, Aug. 25th, 1580.

One account gives Gen. Francis Cosby as having married first Mary Seymour, daughter of the Duke of Somerset, (Alexander being their second son) and second Elizabeth Palmer, but the English Dictionary of National Biography gives only Elizabeth Palmer as his wife. (Mrs. Sarah Canty Whittaker Allen has a photostat copy of a register on which Dorcas Sidney Cosby records in her own hand that her husband Alexander was the son of Francis Cosby & Mary Seymour-OCAG21.)

Co Charles Cosby m. Mary Loftus (OCAG32). He is said to have settled in York or Warwick in 1628. His son

r Sarah Cosby;

(1) His will dated Sept. 4, 1695 was proved in York Co. Mar. 24, 1696. A copy of his will can be seen in OCAG324. It mentions his beloved wife, daughters Margrett, Sarah, Mary Ayles and Eliz. Wooding, sons Charles, John & James; and grandson Henry Jackson. The will of his wife Sarah Cosby is dated 1740, proved in York Co., Va. July 21, 1740, and mentions sons, Charles, James and John and her son John's wife and her granddaughter Sarah Cosby.

John Cosby was probably married twice as on Nov. 30, 1657 his young daughter Mary accidentally set fire to her clothes and was burned to death.

Colv Charles Cosby b. about 1670-80, lived upon lands in King and Queen, and New Kent Cos., granted his father by purchase and entry in 1656. He is said to have married Jane, a daughter of David Meriwether, the emigrant. He left at least two sons:

(1) The parentage of this Bartelot I have been unable to trace. The first Bartelot Anderson of Va., of whom I have record was b. 1658. York Co., Va. Deed Book for years 1694-1697 p.12 Apr. 5, 1694, deposition of Bartelot Anderson in which he deposeth he is aged 36 years. In the same book p.11 John Anderson b. 1664 deposeth he is aged 30 years. Bartelot and Nathaniel Anderson witnessed a relinquishment in Hanover Co., Va. in 1733-(KK of Aug. 11) 1736). In 1735 Nathaniel Anderson received from his brother John of Hanover 1 acre given him by his mother Mary, relict of Robert Anderson, who also conveyed in 1734 land in Hanover to her son Charles, one of the witnesses being Bartelot Anderson-APR9.

1747-Mr. Jerdone in letter speaks of Mr. Bartelot Anderson of Hanover "as a downright honest man" and in another of Mr. Charles Anderson bro. of Mr. Bartelot-IIW(1)158-9.

It would seem from the above that there was a close relationship between a Bartelot Anderson, and Robert Anderson, II of New Kent (after 1720 Hanover Co.), and Bartelot of Hanover may perhaps have been a son of Robert, II.  Further proof, however, is needed to show that the Bartelot Anderson (who m. Mary Cosby) was a son of Robert, II.

They were: Burnley, Ann, Elizabeth, Mary, Patsey, Lucy, and Nancy. In his will the father of Cliveures Duke mentioned the son Cliveures as living on his (the father's) land, which he bought of Robert Dabney. (1) Wm. Winston Dabney of Enfield, King William Co., Va. had a copy of the will. Feb. 7, 1765--In the County Court at Hanover, the will of Cornelius Dabney was recorded. He names his wife Sarah. His children, whom he names in the will, were: William, John and Cornelius; the latter died before he did, as he mentions that his portion of the estate was to be sold, and the proceeds divided among the children of his deceased son, Cornelius. He names his son-in-law, C. Harris, his daughters Mary Elizabeth Maupin, Fanny Maupin and Anna Thompson, and appoints John Dabney and Henry Terrell his executors; will dated 26th of Oct. 1764.

Wm. Winston Dabney says: "My impression is that Cornelius Dabney married the widow Winston, as I have a copy of a deed from William Winston, in Welch, giving to Cornelius Dabney the land patented by Sarah Dabney, as son and heir of Sarah Dabney, dated in 1732.

"I read the license of Cornelius Dabney's marriage to Mary Lucy Winston, have no copy, and think that he might have been the son of the above named Cornelius. She was left a widow, and married again a Mr. Coles. I see in the will of his son, William, that she held a dower, which she disposed of at her death. A farm which adjoins mine, belonged to George Dabney. I noticed two stones, corner lines, marked G. D., 1744. I have seen a deed from James Dabney to William Dabney, stone marked 1744. This William built a brick house, and was called 'Brick House Billy', to distinguish him from the other William Dabneys as there were three William Dabneys just in this neighborhood. I knew two of his descendants--George, and his half

(1) Mrs. Eliz. C. Williston a descendant of O5y0 sent me the following Bible record which varies slightly from AFRIO7, which was taken from W9.
Copied by Mary L. Minor University, and from her copy by M. R. Hitchcock. Copied 25th July 1845.
from a Bible in possession of Dr. John Minor of Gale Hill printed in 1646 which belonged to Dabney Minor (his brother) who has inscribed on one of the blank pages that it was given to his father (James) by his is still on it, and bought by him, Dabney, in 1795 at his father's sale.

(1) 5V442 says (incorrectly-TW) in an article by (05y963) Garland Carr Broadhead, that Wm. Winston (son of Isaac Winston and Mary Dabney) m. Polly Overton, and gives their children: Dorothy m. 1784 Wm. Barret; Mary m. 1783 Garland Carr, "She was first cousin to Gov. Patrick Henry", Mrs. Dabney, Mrs. Schenck, Mrs. Price and Horatio Gates, and says Horatio Gates drilled one of the first companies of the Revolution. In an obituary of (05y963)James Overton Broadhead, 1st Pres. of the American Bar Association, in the Journal of the American Bar Association (which was furnished me by CO) it says "His mother's mother was first cousin of Patrick Henry". Possibly this is an error, and (05y9) Garland Carr m. (06ty) Polly Winston, as (06tw) Barbara Winston m. 1774 Capt. Thomas Price, and (06t) Dorothea Winston m. (Cswg) Wm. Barret. JBM also gives as a child of Wm. Winston & Polly Overton, Martha Winston m. Wm. Terrell, and 2 John Winston m. Nancy Overton.

Alp271 says Cornelius Schenk m. Rebecca Winston of Hanover, lists their children, and says that Dr. Frank Carr, whose mother was a Winston, became the guardian of the younger children.

(2) Alp271 states that John Syme (who m. (Cswg) Mildred Meriwether) was the half brother of Patrick Henry, and R2 says that John Syme who m. -25-
Sally Overton was half nephew of Patrick Henry.

John Anderson d. in or before 1735 of Hanover Co., m. Sarah Waddy. (1) (Mrs. Sarah Anderson and Nelson Anderson executors of John Anderson, suit in Chancery, Nov. 5, 1739-EPV1654) (Sarah Anderson, widow of John Anderson, late of Parish of St. Paul, Hanover Co., and John Anderson of same parish and Co., planter conveyed to John Thomson, 80 acres being land Samuel Waddy had conveyed 26 Jan. 1696 to John Anderson and Sarah, his wife, and the heir of her body, which heir the said John Anderson, party of these present 7 Aug. 1735-HCR287a)

LC88 gives their children as follows: (2)

630 Susan, m. Creigler or Creigshaw.
631 Sarah, m. Rhodes.
632 Judith m. Howlett.
633 Ann, b. about 1708; m. about 1728 David Crawford (see No. 13).
634 Nathan 635 William,

and probably (637) John, who deeded July 2, 1736, to his brother, Nathaniel (Nathan) a part of 670 acres of land in Hanover Co., Va. He was Capt. in the Continental Line, and married a great-aunt of Gen. Robert Anderson. LC does not show its authority for this list of children. The deed from HCR287a given above would indicate the oldest son and heir was John. He, having been old enough to give a deed in 1735, could hardly be the Capt. John Anderson who married (vO) Mary Anderson b. Aug. 18, 1759, who was the aunt, and not a great-aunt of Gen. Robert Anderson. (see AFR105,66,695). I have found no records to show that any of the children given below, other than John and possibly Nelson, were children of John and Sarah (Waddy) Anderson, but place them here tentatively.

(1) Mrs. W. B. Ardery, after the publication of Anderson Family Records, informed me she was mistaken in saying that in the Bourne Collection of Manuscripts, the record of John Anderson, son of Robert and Mary (Overton) Anderson is given as married to a dau. of Samuel Waddy—see AFR104, (vO), Gov. Charles Anderson states that there is a relationship between his family and the Crawfords of Va. (see AFR166-R76), and this may be so, so I am listing the descendants under jw. If anyone can give the author definitive information of the parentage of (1) John Anderson it will be greatly appreciated.

It would seem that John Anderson, son of Robert Anderson, II and Mary Overton, was born too late to be the John Anderson who m. Sarah Waddy, as on March 3, 1753 Mary Anderson relict & surviving executrix of Robert Anderson, decd., late of New Kent Co., now Hanover, gave unto her son John a tract of land purchased by said Mary of George Wilkinson in Jan. 1719 in consideration of 30 pounds currency which said Robert Anderson, decd., did by his will bequeath to his son John which to purchase a tract of land, and on July 2, 1735 John Anderson deeded one acre of this same land to his brother Nathaniel Anderson. Robert Anderson II d. in 1716 and his widow Mary would not have waited till 1733 to deed property to her son had he been married in 1696. Robert would have left the money directly to his son.

(2) The fact that the grandson of 635 William remembered the plantation of 635 William (see jw) would indicate some authority for this list of children.

(3) This John Anderson was not the John who, conveyed land to his brother Nathaniel, as the latter John was the son of Mary Anderson, relict of Robert Anderson.

lz Ann Anderson (AFR105) b. about 1708-1803 of Hanover Co., Va. m. about 1728 (Cwl) David Crawford (AFR105) b. about 1697, d. 1766. (1) (lived for many years on the South Anna River, near Beech Creek Ford,—moved about 1752 to Albemarle Co. afterwards Amherst Co., Va., in which year he bought 411 acres of land from Robert Barnett. The plantation upon which David and Ann Crawford settled in 1752 was then in the county of Albemarle, but it was afterwards included in Amherst, and now is within the limits of Nelson. It is located upon the north side of the Rockfish River, about three miles from the junction of the North and South Forks. (1) Will of David Crawford (LC127)

In the Name of God, Amen! I David Crawford of Amherst County, being in perfect sense and memory do hereby constitute this my last will and testament. First, I bequeath my soul to Almighty God and trusting to the merits of my Great Redeemer to receive free pardon for all my sins. Second, I commit my body to the earth, from whence it came, to be buried at the discretion of my Executors.

Item, I give to my well beloved wife, during her widowhood, five negroes, namely Sampson, Cupit, Onner, Dilsy and Phillis and after her death, to be disposed of as hereafter shall be mentioned.

Item, I give to my son John Crawford's son Peter one negro named Willy to him and his heirs forever.

Item, I give to my son David Crawford three negroes, Harry, Alice and Barbara, to him and his heirs forever.

Item, I give to my daughter Smith's children one negro girl named Abby, to be equally divided among them and their heirs forever.

Item, I give to my son Joel Crawford one negro man, Bacchus, to him and his heirs forever.

Item, I give to my son Nathan Crawford one negro named Jack and four hundred acres of land I bought of John Davies, and seventy-four acres I bought of Robert Dunwiddie, joining the aforesaid tract, also one feather bed and furnature to him and his heirs forever.

Item, I give to my son Charles Crawford two negro girls namely Phillis and Cate to him and his heirs forever.

Item, I give to my son William Crawford two negroes, namely, Dick and Anaky, also one feather bed and furnature, to him and his heirs forever.

Item, I give to my daughter Sarah, two negro girls Peg and Nut to her and her heirs forever.

It Item, I give to my daughter Susannah one negro boy named Mat; also one feather bed and furnature to her and her heirs forever.

Item, I give to my daughter Ann two negro girls Venus and Rachel, also one feather bed and furnature to her and her heirs forever.

My will and desire is, that after my mothers death, there is a negro named Robin, I have a right to, by my father's will, that my wife deliver to my daughter Mary, Cupit after my mother's death, and my wife to have Robin in room of Cupit, and all the remainder part of my estate, I leave to my wife, to make her three youngest children that are unmarried equal in stock to my elder children, and that my estate be kept together till my debts are paid, and after my wife's death, that part of my estate left to her to be equally divided among Susannah, Joel, Charles, Sarah, Mary, Nathan, William, and Ann Crawford, betwixt them and their heirs forever. Pompy and Tye, two negroes left to me by my father's will, after my mother's death, are to be sold, to pay part of my debts, if they cannot be paid without; but if they can, they are to be sold and the money divided between all my children.

If Nathan, William, Sarah or Ann Crawford should die without heir, their estates are to be divided between Nathan, William and Ann Crawford.
It is likewise my will, that all gifts I have already made to my children, shall not be revoked by this Testament.

Item, I appoint my sons John, David and Joel Crawford to be my Executors of this last will and Testament.

In witness whereof, I hereunto set my hand and seal this Twenty-first day of June 1766.

In the name of God Amen. First & principally I commit my soul into the hands of my Creator who gave it, humbly trusting when He shall think it fit to remove it from this tabernacle of clay to enjoy free pardon & remission of all my sins & everlasting happiness in His Heavenly Kingdom through the merits of Jesus Christ my Savior. As to my body it is my desire to be buried in my own garden by the side of my deceased companion without pomp or parade as the custom of some is, and as to my worldly goods with which it has pleased God to bless me, My will is first that all my just debts as shall be by me owing at my death and all charges touching the proving or otherwise concerning this my will shall in the first place out of my personal estate be fully satisfied & as to the residue of my estate both real & personal I will & dispose of it in the manner & form following. To Wit: I lend to my daughter Ann C. Thomson the tract of land I purchased of Obadiah Reynolds during her natural life & at her death the same to be sold on a credit of 12 months by my executors hereinafter named who are hereby empowered to convey a title in fee simple to the purchaser or purchasers and the money arising from such sale to be equally divided among all her children share and share alike, also I lend to my said daughter Ann C. I give to my son Alexander Anderson 500 pounds lawful money of Va. including a bond or receipt I have of his of 125 pounds principle. Item. I give to my grandson John N. Anderson my house clock & 200 a. of land whereon I now live including the dwelling house beginning at a small branch at my old hog pen & running a straight line just below my spring in the lane thence up the hill so as to strike the road as it now runs from the corner of the ground cleared by Thos. Floyd thence along said road to the dividing line between where his mother now lives so as to make the quantity of acres by running the other dividing line as far back as the house which Sylva Kenny now lives thence across to or near the head of the branch which was the beginning to him and his heirs & assigns forever.

Item. I give to my grandson Chas. Anderson 230 a. part of the tract of land whereon I now live & one negro boy the name of Wm. Kenny to him and his heirs and assigns forever.

Item. I give to my grandson commonly called Robert Spotswood Anderson the residue of my land whereon I now live including the dwelling house beginning at a small branch at my old hog pen & running a straight line just below my spring in the lane thence up the hill so as to strike the road as it now runs from the corner of the ground cleared by Thos. Floyd thence along said road to the dividing line between where his mother now lives so as to make the quantity of acres by running the other dividing line as far back as the house which Sylva Kenny now lives thence across to or near the head of the branch which was the beginning to him and his heirs & assigns forever. Item. I give to my grandson Nelson A. Thomson one negro woman by the name of Sylva Kenny, also her dau. Look, and Sara, Reuben provided he doth fully comply with this my will in all things hereinafter mentioned.

No. 318.

Testament.

State of Louisiana Parish East Baton Rouge on the 15th day of October in the year Eighteen hundred and thirty I, Charles Tessier, Parish Judge and Notary Public in and for said Parish went to the domicile of John Overton, resident of this town, where I found the said Overton sick in bed, but of sound mind and he expressed to me his intention of making his last will and testament, which he dictated to me as follows:

He declares that he has contracted a second marriage to his present wife Susannah Overton with whom he has a son, Thomas Jefferson Overton. He declares to have living three children the issue of his first marriage viz. Samuel (2) Jesse (1) and Cassandra Overton at present.

He gives and bequeaths to his wife Susannah Overton, in usufruct for term of four years his negro slave, Jack, negro man, and the negro woman Hannah, after which term it is his will that the said slaves be set free from service forever in consequence of which disposition, the said wife or representative shall take necessary steps before competent authority to obtain freedom of said slaves according to law.

He declares that John Anderson is in his debt fifteen dollars.

He names his Son Samuel Overton the executor of this his last will and testament giving his full power for same.

The foregoing will was thus dictated by the testator to the notary undersigned, who wrote it as described and afterward read it to the testator in an amiable voice in presence of William Brown, Vincent Kirkland and Malcom Patterson Witnesses, residing in this town, and he ratified same as containing his last will and testament, which was written without turning to another act. In witness whereof the testator here to set his hand with said witnesses and notary the same day and year after the whole being read. J. O., Charles Tessier P. J., William Brown, Vincent Kirkland, Malcom Patterson. At the time of signing the Testator declared he was unable through weakness to write more than his initials of his name, which he did as aforesaid in presence of said witnesses and notary. Charles Tessier P. J., William Brown, Vincent Kirkland, Malcom Patterson."

Recorded this 19th of October 1830 Charles Tessier.

The case of Jesse Overton and Thomas Jefferson Overton (my grandfather) vs. John Overton Patton, (Alias) John Patton Overton, No. 23 was filed April 1836. Thomas Jefferson Overton married Harriet Matilda Kent in 1826. Three children by this marriage.
1. Mary Overton married a Beauchamp.
3. Samuel Elliot Overton born in 1832 (my father) married in 1860

Elizabeth Agnes Knox.

This town of Providence, in Carroll Parish mentioned in law suit, is now known as Lake Providence, if I am not greatly mistaken.

The Media Research Bureau states that Timothy Overton was probably the first of the name in America, he emigrating to Virginia in 1643 but no definite records have been found concerning his family or descendants, if any; that Isaac Overton was born in 1658, son of Mrs. Hannah (nee Elton) Overton of Southold, N. Y., and that Robert Overton of Boston, Mass. died at sea in 1673 leaving a son John.

William Overton, "I have heard my father say repeatedly that his father always claimed direct descent from the Rebel General Overton, who served under Cromwell." Prof. Dickenson further states "Many years ago the Hon. William Chenault, an able and prominent attorney of Kentucky, prepared a genealogy of one branch of this family, in which he states that "William Overton was a son of that Colonel Overton, who commanded a brigade of Ironsides at Dunbar and rendered many other distinguished services to the cause of the "Commonwealth".

The following account of Gen. Overton is from the Dictionary of National Biography.

"Overton-Robert (fl.1640-1668), soldier, son of John Overton of Easington in Holderness, Yorkshire-born about 1609, was admitted to Gray's Inn on 1 Nov. 1631 (Poulson, Holderness, ii. 377; Foster, Gray's Inn Register, p. 194). At the beginning of the civil war he took up arms for the parliament, served under the Fairfaxes, and distinguished himself in the defence of Hull and at the battle of Marston Moor (Ludlow, Memoirs, ed. 1698, i. 78; Milton, Works, ed. Bohn, i. 280). In August 1645, when parliament made Sir Thomas Fairfax, third Lord Fairfax, Governor of Pontefract, he appointed Colonel Overton his deputy. In September Overton reduced Sandal Castle (Report on the Portland MSS. i. 279). Ferdinando Lord Fairfax (q.v.) urged his son to find a command for Overton in the regular army (23 March 1647), but Sir Thomas, while expressing his desire to bring so deserving a man into the army, was not able to do so till the summer of 1647. About July 1647 Overton succeeded to the command of the foot regiment late Colonel Herbert’s, and shortly afterwards became also Governor of Hull. In June 1648 the Mayor and corporation of Hull petitioned for his removal; but Fairfax strongly supported him, and he was also backed by a section of the townsmen (Portland MSS. i. 468, 478; Rushworth, VII. 1021). In the second civil war Overton’s regiment fought under Cromwell in Wales and in the North, while its colonel guarded Hull, and drove the Cavaliers out of the Isle of Axholme. Overton took no part in the king’s trial, but thoroughly approved of that measure. As early as Feb. 1648 he had expressed the view that ‘it would be a happy thing if God would please to dispossess the king of three transitory kingdoms to infeaff him in an eternal one’ (Fairfax Correspondence, iii. II). Both his regiments and the garrison of Hull sent addresses in support of the new government (A Declaration of the Garrison of Hull, 4 to, 1649). In 1650 Overton accompanied Cromwell to Scotland commanded a brigade of foot at the battle of Dunbar, and was made Governor of Edinburg after its occupation by Cromwell (Sept. 1650; Nicholls, Letters and Papers of State addressed to Cromwell, 1743, Vol. II, p. 24, Informe of Cromwell, letter exi). His regiment formed part of the force sent over to Fife in July 1651, and he commanded the reserve at the Victory of Inverkeithing (ib. Letter c. xxv.; Heath, Chronicle, pp. 505, 559). Remaining with Monck in Scotland when Cromwell followed Charles II into England, Overton helped to complete the subjugation of Scotland, and commanded an expedition which reduced and garrisoned the Orkneys (Tanner MSS. Bodleian Library IV. 170).

"On 14 May 1652 parliament voted him 400 L a year in Scottish lands as a reward for his services (Common’s Journals, VII. 132). When Deane, Monck’s successor, was recalled from Scotland, he appointed Overton to command all the English forces in the west of that Country (30 Dec. 1652, Clarke MSS. XXIV. 8). It was to Overton, as Governor of Aberdeen, that Sir Alexander Irvine appealed when he was excommunicated by the presbytery of Aberdeen (Spalding Club Miscellany, i. 29)."

"In 1653 Overton, who had now succeeded to the family estate at Easington, returned to England, and again became Governor of Hull. Deeply imbued with the views of reformation under the rule of the parliament, he hailed with enthusiasm Cromwell’s forcible dissolution of that body. He wrote at once to Cromwell approving the act, and promising his support and that of his garrison (More Hearts and Hands appearing for the work...being two Letters...from Colonel Robert Overton, Governor of Hull...and the officers of the said Garrison, 1653 4 to). But the dissolution of the Little Parliament and the assumption by Cromwell of the post of Protector filled him with doubts and suspicions. He declared his dissatisfaction to Cromwell, telling him that if he saw he did design to set up himself and not the good of the Nation, he would not set one foot before another to serve him. ‘Thou wert a knave if thou wouldst’, answered Cromwell; and in the end, Overton retained his commission on the promise to deliver it up when he could not conscientiously serve the Protector any longer (Thurloe, III. 110). In September 1654 he returned to his command in Scotland, but in December was arrested and sent prisoner to England on the charge of intending to head a military insurrection against the Government. Overton’s own indiscreet conduct in sanctioning meetings of the disaffected officers under his command certainly gave grounds for suspicion. The enemies of the government regarded him as a probable leader and used his name freely in their plots. Charles II wrote to him to promise forgiveness for past disloyalty, and rewards for service in effecting a restoration (Col. Clarendon Papers, II. 344). The levellers expected that he would seize Monck, take command of the army in Scotland, and march into England to restore the Commonwealth. An examination of the evidence leads to the conclusion that he was innocent, but it is not surprising that he was believed to be guilty. The Protector held him as deliberately faithless to his promise and treated him with great severity (Carlyle, Cromwell, Speech V.; Clarke Papers, Camden Soc. ii. 241). His supposed accomplices in Scotland were court-martialled and cashiered; but Overton himself was never formally tried. After about two years rigorous imprisonment in the Tower he was transported to Jersey and confined in Elizabeth Castle there till March 1658 (The Sad Suffering Case of Major-general Robert Overton, by J. R., 1659, 4 to; Thurloe, iii. 67, 147, 183, 217, 279; Cal. State Papers, Dom. 1658-9, p. 259). On 3 Feb. 1659 Grizell Williamson, Overton's sister, presented a petition to Richard Cromwell's parliament, on behalf of her brother, and that body ordered that he should be brought to London to have his case heard. In March, after hearing Overton, it voted his immediate release and pronounced his imprisonment at Jersey illegal (Burton, Parliamentary Diary, iii. 45; iv. 120, 150; Commons' Journals, vii. 614).

"The fall of Richard Cromwell and the restoration of the Long Parliament was followed by the redress of Overton's wrongs. On 16 June the committee for the nomination of officers voted that he should be restored to his regiment and his other commands, while parliament two days later appointed a committee to examine into his losses, and see how they could be compensated (Cal. State Papers, Dom. 1658-9, p. 375; Commons' Journals, vii. 699, 776). Overton was one of the seven commissioners in whom parliament on 12 Oct. 1659 vested the government of the army (ib. VII 796). His reputation with the republicans, the strength of Hull, and the importance of its magazine made his adherence of great value to either of the contending parties of the army. He and his officers refused to sign the address to parliament which Fleetwood and the English army circulated, nor would they return a definite answer to Monck's appeals to them to cooperate with the Scottish Army. Overton sought to mediate, and published an exhortation to both parties to unite in maintaining the Lord's Cause (A True Narrative of the Proceedings in Parliament, Council, etc., 1659, 4 to, p. 10; The Humble and Healing Advice of Robert Overton, 1659, 4 to). The ambiguity of his conduct, his preparations for a siege, and the incendiary letters which he circulated among the troops in Yorkshire, caused Monck great embarrassment. On 4 March 1660 the council of state peremptorily ordered him to observe whatever orders he received from Monck, and six days later to come to London at once (Cal. State Papers, Dom. 1659-60, pp. 361, 368). Overton had undoubtedly intended to make a last stand for the republic, and to frustrate Monck's design for bringing back the king; but the disaffection of the town and the divisions of the Garrison obliged him peaceably to give up his government to Colonel Fairfax, and obey the orders of the Council (Ludlow, Memoirs, ii. 859, ed. 1698).

"The rest of Overton's life was mostly spent in prison. Having neither taken part in the trial of the king, nor sat on the tribunals which condemned the royalist leaders, Overton was not excepted from the Act of Indemnity. But he was regarded as one of the heads of the fifth monarchy men, and on the first rumor of an insurrection among them was arrested and sent to the Tower (Dec. 1660; Heath, Chronicle, ed. 1663, p. 784). On 9 Nov. 1661 a warrant was signed for his conveyance to Chepstow Castle. Apparently he succeeded in obtaining a short interval of freedom, but on 26 May 1663 he was again arrested as 'suspected of seditious practices, and refusing to take the oaths or give security'. In January 1664 the government resolved to send him to Jersey, and he was still imprisoned there Feb. 1668. The date and place of his death are unknown (Hist. MSS. Comm. 11th Rep. pt. vii pp. 3, 6; Cal. State Papers, Dom. 1663-4 p. 461, 1667-8 p. 229).

"Overton married 1632 Anne, daughter of Jeremy Gardiner of Stratford, Bow, Middlesex (Chester, London marriage Licences p. 1002). His eldest son, John, was admitted to Gray's Inn on 11 Nov. 1661, and was probably the author of a work on 'English Military Discipline' published in 1672 (Foster, Gray's Inn Register, p. 292). His grandson Robert, who died in 1712, sold the family estate to Milners of Nun Appleton (Poulson, Holderness, ii. 377).

"Overton was a scholar as well as a soldier. Milton celebrated his exploits in the 'Defensio Secunda', and addresses him as 'bound to me these many years past in friendship of more than brotherly closeness and affection, both by the similarity of our tastes and the sweetness of your manners' (Mason, Life of Milton, IV. 602, 607, 621) 'Civil and discreet', 'a scholar, but little pedantic, is the character given of him by his prisoner, Sir James Turner (Memoirs, pp. 78-82). John Cane, who was Overton's chaplain at Hull, dedicated to him his 'Voice from the Temple', 4to, 1653, and probably exercised considerable influence upon his religious views (Yorkshire Diaries, Surtees Soc. 1875, pp. 143, 422). Overton's letters, many of which are in print among the 'Thurloe Papers', show his disinterested devotion to his cause, and his willingness to suffer for it.

'If I be called, he wrote in 1654, 'to seal the cause of God and my country with my blood, by suffering death, or by bearing testimony to the interest of my Nation and the despised truths of these times, he is able to support and save me, as the sun to shine upon me... If I can but keep faith and a good conscience, I shall assuredly finish my course with joy (Thurloe, iii. 47). (Authorities cited in the article.) C. H. F.'

CO sent the author an article on The Overtons of Easington-South Bailiwick, taken from Vol. II of History and Antiquities of The Seigniory of Holderness in the East-Riding of the County of York by George Poulson Esq. published 1841, from which the following is taken.

The Church (pp. 370) Funeral Monuments- There is one, an ancient flag stone, within the altar rails, and three of a similar description in the middle aisle, probably to the memory of a Palmer or Overton, both ancient families here. On the south-east corner of the church, under a canopy of wood, intended to preserve the monument, with a spiked iron railing in the front of it, designed for a similar purpose, with pillars and other architectural devices of the seventeenth century, is a tomb to the memory of John Overton, Esq., and Joan, his wife, with this inscription:

This monument speaks the memory of the deceased but never be divided John Overton, Esq., and Joan his wife, who lived beloved and died lamented; their sacred dust one grave contains, until the trump of glory shall unite their bodies to their souls.

"The tinctures of the arms are much faded, they appear to have been on the first shield, az. 3 Unicorn's heads, erased, betw. chevr. erm. impaling or 3 Eagle's heads, or. betw. a. chevr. erm. A mullet for difference. On the second shield, az. 3 Unicorn's heads, or. betw. a. chevr. erm. impaling on a chevr., 3 cross crosslet arg. betw. 3 Leopard's faces. The large shield surmounting the monument, charged with az. 3 Unicorn's heads, er. betw. a. chevr. erm. The crest, a dexter arm in plate armour, grasping a gauntlet." The Old Hall of the Overtons still remains in the principal street of the village, .... The arms on the hall differ from those in the church, being a bend, with three crosses, moline.

Notes On Chart

(1) He appears to have been a steady and consistent adherent of the king during the political convulsions of the 17th century. He was an aged man when the designs of Cromwell became developed, and not likely to fall in with the times. In the early part of the rebellion he acted as a magistrate, but appears to have been removed during the usurpation.

(2) He distinguished himself in the republican cause, and at an early age took up arms against the king. He was one of the few in Holderness who did so, and appears to have been influenced by Sir Wm. Constable, of Flamborough, Bart., who signed the warrant for the king's execution. In 1643 Captain Overton was stationed at Hull, and in favor with Sir John Hotham, but adhered to Cromwell when Hotham deserted him. In 1645 Colonel Overton was appointed governor of Pomfret, and his proceedings during the siege were impetuous, arbitrary, and altogether unjustifiable. His conduct to lady Cutler, the unfortunate widow of Sir Gervaise C. of Stainburn, is a blot in his character which cannot be effaced, but nothing high-minded or generous could be expected from a fifth monarchy man, and the bravery of the soldier who offered indignities to a defenceless woman, is more than questionable. Pomfret castle was demolished in 1649, in an old account of the materials sold and debts owing is the following: "Col. Overton, by an order from the Lord General, for the public service of Hull, for timber £8.6s.3d." It is probable that Overton was at this time governor of Hull. Having adhered to his party with unbroken constancy, he feared the consequences of the restoration of Chas. II. and justly suspected General Monk of paving the way for that event. He repeatedly warned the garrison of Hull in private, that, the Prelates, Cavaliers, and Stuarts, had a friend in the hitherto rebel Monk, and dreading the re-establishment of "Monarchical Bondage," at length addressed on the subject, Col. Fairfax, Col. Bethell, and Major Smithson, subscribed by all his officers in the garrison, designed to divide the army, and to confirm the soldiers in their disloyalty. Overton had however reckoned without his host, at that critical period Lord Fairfax was in secret correspondence with Sir Geo. Booth, to restore the exiled king; Bethell and Smithson had also adopted their views. The governor from that moment was a marked man. Monk demanded an explanation of Overton's proceedings in Hull, and gave private orders that he should be seized, if he offered any opposition. He was ultimately displaced by General Monk, and required to leave Hull in 24 hours. Osten sibly to give an account of his proceedings, and the posture of the garrison, he delivered up the town to Lord Fairfax, repaired to London, and was immediately committed a prisoner to the Tower, March, 1660. He is supposed to have died there shortly afterwards, as no notice is taken of his fate, either by Whitelock, Clarendon, or any of the authorities usually referred to for an account of the transactions of the period. His will is not registered either at Doctors Commons or at York. Robert Overton, Esq., justice of peace, ratified the civil contract of marriage for parties in Holderness.

(3) He bought lands at Elsternwick of Thos. Sampson, 24th November, 1659, on the 3rd. October, 1678, mess. and lands are conveyed to him as Thomas Overton, senr., gent.

(4) He appears to have inherited his father's military spirit; he published a work entitled "English Military Discipline," exactly described by copper cuts, in 48 postures of the musket, and 36 of the pyke, by John Overton, Esq. 4to. 1672. Dame Margaret Monkton was the sister of Elizabeth, grandmother of Thomas Wentworth, fifth and last Earl of Stafford; Sir Francis W., was g. grandfather of the first Visct. Galway.

(5) Living and unmarried at Easington in 1666, and declined registering his arms and pedigree before Sir Wm. Dugdale (ex. inf. T.W.King, Esq., Roude Dragon)

(6) He sold his estates to the Milners, of Nun-Appleton, and died in Hull. His w. d. 20th November, 1720, he gives the greater part of his property to his wife Dorothy, late the dau. of James and Susannah Dikes, of London, and to the son which he had by her, not mentioning his name; to his sister Constance Haynes, one shilling, "she having behaved disobediently," legacies to his friends, Mr. Holmes, of Skeffling, and Henry Waterland, of Meadon.
whom he appointed ex'ors, proved in Excheq. Court of York, 12th March, 1721, o.s.

The estates of the Overtons mentioned in the foregoing notes, were purchased about the end of the seventeenth century by Wm. Milner, Esq. Mayor of Leeds, father of the first Bart. of that family. In the year 1796 Easlington was sold by Sir Wm. Milner, the third Bart., to Taylor, of Ploughland, gent; and in the year 1800, was purchased of the trustees, under his will, by Robt. Linsdall, of Winstead, Gent., and is now enjoyed by his daughter Phoebe Linsdall, of Winstead, gentlewoman, as the sole heiress of her brothers John and Robert, sons of the aforesaid Robert, and who both died unmarried. Easlington is stated in 1782 to have been a mile from the sea and the same distance from the Humber.

CO says her great aunt (05W246) Mrs. Ella Overton Moore was given the following coat-of-arms (said to have been brought over by the immigrant William) by the Louisa Co. Overtons: Argent, on a bend sable, three crosses moline or.

There is an article on The Overtons of Easlington in "A History of Withernsea With Notices of Other Parishes in South Holderness In the East Riding of the County of York, By Geo. T. J. Miles, and William Richardson Hull & A. Brown & Sons. Ltd. Saville St. & George St. 1911." It does not mention William Overton.

Olwwo Ann Meriwether Anderson (AFR13) b. Aug. 2, 1792, m. 1st Richard P. Watson d. 1812, m. 2d (Czswxz) Dr. Charles Lewis Carr of "North Garden" Issue (LM295):

y Lucinda Watson m. Wilson Gregory, of Henrico Co.;
x Ann Watson m. Francis Staples, of Henrico Co.;

In the name of God Amen - I, Ann Ann Minor, of the County of Orange and State of Virginia, being of sound mind, revoking former wills by me made, do make, constitute & declare this to be my last Will & Testament. Firstly I give & bequeath to my daughters Sarah Elizabeth Anderson, & Sarah Gilmer, my carriage & horses, & James H. Ellis's bond to me, dated the 9th of June 1817, for the sum of six hundred dollars, both of which I desire may be equally divided between them. I also give to my daughter Sarah Elizabeth Anderson my Negro boy Nelson, & his Brother Moses to my daughter Sarah Gilmer to dispose of as they may think proper. The said negroes Moses & Nelson are the children of Betty bequeathed to me for life, and at my death to be divided with the others given to me for life among my children: and as I have purchased the interest of said Negroes of Charles W. Meriwether, who is the sole heir of my late daughter Ann Meriwether, I wish my said daughters Sarah E. Anderson & Sarah Gilmer to have Moses & Nelson. Secondly I give & bequeath to my Granddaughter Lucy Ann Gilmer my curtain bedstead and the bed & furniture thereunto belonging. Thirdly I give & bequeath to my Grand-daughter Ann W. Scales my mahogany tea table. Fourthly I give & bequeath to my daughter Sarah Gilmer my mahogany bureau, my gold watch & traveling trunk. Fifthly I give & bequeath to my Daughter Sarah Elizabeth Anderson my portrait painting likeness of my brother William, with the request that she will leave it to her son Overton C. Anderson. Sixthly,
I do not think proper, & therefore I have not given, & do not mean to give my Grandson Charles M. Meriwether any part or portion of my property or estate, not because of the want of natural affection for him or his deceased Mother, but because I think he has been suitably provided for by my husband, his late Grandfather. Lastly I do hereby constitute my son in law Dr. John Gilmer, and my Grandson Overton C. Anderson, Executors of this my last will & Testament, and I do request and direct that they may not be held to give security as such. In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and affix my seal this 15th day of October 1830.

Ann Minor (L. S.)

I have never charged anything for the free use of my Plantation or the utensils belonging thereto, carts waggons, horses, oxen &c, with all the stock of every description which has been enjoyed by my son during his life, and his family since, for which reason I have bequeathed more to my daughters of my own property than to them. I know I have a right to charge rent, but it has never been my intention to do so, but if there should be any Accounts brought forward, against my estate, it is my will & desire that they may be settled out of the rent so far as will satisfy them. I give & bequeathe all my other property and estate of every description not herein disposed of to be divided equally between my daughters Sarah Elizabeth Anderson, and Sarah Gilmer, and the children of my deceased son Dabney Minor, that is one third to each of my said daughters, & the remaining third to the children of my said son, to them & their heirs forever - and I do hereby declare it to be my intent & meaning that whatever estate & property I have heretofore given, or may hereafter give and deliver to my said children or Grandchildren not herein named is not to be taken into account in the division herein to be made of my property and estate.

Ann Minor - November 1st 1830

At a monthly court held for the County of Orange at the Court House Monday 25th of April 1831 this writing purporting to be the last Will & Testament of Ann Minor deceased with a codicil thereto annexed was offered for Probate by Overton C. Anderson, an Executor therein named, and there being no subscribing witnesses thereto, Fountain Meriwether & Benjamin Coleman were sworn & severally deposed that they are well acquainted with the handwriting of the said Ann Minor and verify believe that the said writing and Codicil and the name thereto subscribed were wholly written by the said Ann Minor. Whereupon the said writing and Codicil were established and ordered to be recorded as the last Will & Testament of the said Ann Minor deceased and on the motion of the said Overton C. Anderson who made Oath thereto according to Law and entered into & acknowledged a Bond without security, the Will directing that none should be required in the penalty of ten thousand dollars conditioned as the law directs. Certificate was granted him for obtaining a Probate thereof in due form. Tests: Reynolds Chapman C. C. And in testimony that the foregoing is a true copy of the Will with the Codicil thereto annexed of Ann Minor deceased of record of the Clerks office of the County Court of Orange Co. in the State of Virginia

(SEAL) I, P. H. Fry of the said Court have hereto put my name & affixed the seal of the Court aforesaid at Orange C.H. Va. this 14th day of January 1873 - P. H. Fry Clerk

On the back of the last page of the copy of the will was a notation which led the author to write the Public Record Office in London, England regarding the will of William Anderson (see AFR19). The Public Record Office replied in part as follows, "from a preliminary examination of various documents connected with the suit Haring-V Gist (C. 35/1873, A. Fol. 2752: J. 15/1881 A. 1472 Ptd: J. 15/1883, A. Fol. 1371: J. 5/1882 Jan.-March: J. 4/1882 H. 2255) it seems probable that a list could be prepared of the heirs of William Anderson". The author has written a professional Record Agent to obtain all possible genealogical information from these documents. The Record Agent found Wm. Thornton Anderson as a legatee of Mathew Anderson, Probated 18th Oct. 1873. Administration was granted on 3d July 1873 & Chas. James Partington as attorney for Wm. Anderson & his heirs when found, no heirs were mentioned, and the Law Court Record Department showed that C. J. Partington died in 1889 and his business taken by Edwd. Wm. Lewis who was struck off the Rolls 29th June 1903, so it is impossible to trace the documents relating to the case.

David Anderson of Richmond, Virginia, was the Exor. of Mathew Anderson, and Geo. Samuel Mc.King was his attorney and legal representative in America he was given admon. 18th Oct. 1873.

Miss Ewin also sent me an old chart on the back of which appears.

(1) Inadvertently (AFR19) Wm. Douglas Meriwether & Dr. James Hunter Meriwether were given as children of Ann Minor. They were by a later wife Mary Walton as shown in the pedigree of Ann (Minor) Anderson mentioned above. The dates of birth, death & marriage are from what is apparently the preliminary draft (in handwriting of (Olwu3) Joseph Watkins Scales) of a document to establish claim of descendants of Ann Anderson and Dabney Minor to a portion of the estate of (Olwz) William Anderson. This was also sent me by Miss Ewin.

(1) It is difficult to determine the early Harris connections without Bible Records. PR StP gives the following Harris's who had children before 1710: Edward, John, Thomas, Robert. MHH wrote me, "In the year 1704 the following Harris appear on the tithe lists for New Kent County (Wertenbaker, The Colonial Planter, appdx.) William, Edmond, John, Robert, Thomas, Benjamin. None of these land holders were the children of Capt. Wm. & Temperance Overton, but they help explain the several other Harris's whose names appear in the records at that time." See AFRI4I for children as given in R2.

(2) This is the only child given by JBM. He is given as son of Wm. Harris & Temperance Overton in all genealogies I have seen listing their children, and his son (03t) named a son Overton.

(3) On Feb. 1753 Benjamin Harris deeded Robert Harris lands called Walkers Nock left him by his father William Harris in his last will and testament and the deed is witnessed by James Harris and Richard Harris (Hanover Records 1732-35 p.15)-MHH. This Benjamin Harris is given in R2 as having d. in Louisa Co. 1765, but MHH believes that the Benjamin who d. in Louisa in 1765 was the son of (03t) William Harris, and that 03v is the Benjamin Harris who with wife Sarah deeded land to Richard Terrell June 11, 1745 on Little River, Louisa Co., D.B. (6) WMD tells me they had a daughter Jemima who m. (05t) Wm. Overton, from whom he descends. R2 also states that Wm. Overton, son of Capt. James Overton, married his cousin, Jemima Harris.

Maj. Robert Harris (HC48; G5p.60-63) (Will prov. Alb. Co. Aug. 8, 1765 is given in H&C267) b. Hanover Co., Va. about 1696, and lived there until 1742, when he was appointed by the King as surveyor of the new county of Louisa, which was cut off from Hanover Co. in 1742. He resigned his office as a member of the House of Burgesses from Hanover, and settled in Louisa Co. He afterwards moved to Albemarle Co., Va., where he owned a large estate (at Brown's Cove-H&C262&267) at his death in 1765. He was a vestryman of Fredricksville Parish for a number of years before his death. His will is dated June 18, 1765 and is of record in Albemarle Co., Va., and was recorded Aug. or Nov. 8, 1765. His will was witnessed by Daniel Maupin, John Maupin, John Maupin, Jr., William Maupin and Connerly Mullins. A copy is given in H&C267. Here he married, reared a family of four children, and saw them all married and settled in life. In 1842 he removed with his son, Hon. NOTES

Dabney, Pomfrett, Jun., and John were brothers of Carr Waller, Pomfrett, Sen., was his uncle. Dabney Waller died at the family seat, Cedar Point, on the North Anna River, June 6, 1849.

Martha Waller was the wife of Pomfrett Waller, Sen., on record in Spotsylvania County. She was also the sister of Gen. Joseph Martin, as appears from her will on record in Henry County, Va. Some of the genealogists have confounded Pomfrett Waller, Sen., with Pomfrett Waller Jun., and have placed the death of the former in 1814.

Sarah Matilda Waller married Henry Edwards June 12, 1814. She died in Saint Charles Co., Mo., about 1879. Of her 10 children, 6 daughters and 4 sons, three survive. The late Judge William Waller Edwards was her oldest son.

Dr. William Ira Waller, gained distinction as a physician, but afterwards became a prominent member of the Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. After 1844 he took orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and was for some years president of Shelby College, Kentucky. He died in Louisville, Ky., in 1878. He married Miss Mariah Norval, of Lynchburg. Rev. Granville Carr Waller, of Louisville, Ky., is one of their surviving children.

Joseph Granville Waller married Miss Virginia McDonald January 8, 1822. He moved to Missouri from Henry Co., Va., in 1842. For many years he was presiding judge of the county court of Warren County. He died about 1860. Three of his ten children now survive. His youngest daughter, Eliza, with her husband and five children, perished in the great disaster at Galveston last September.

Martha Myra Waller (written Patsy by her father) married Henry Pritchett, October 23, 1822. She died November 23, 1857. The writer is the eldest of her ten children, of whom five now survive.

(1) The author of BoF has given me the following information. In the cencus list of 1790, in Hanover Co. is found a list of 1782 containing Benjamin, William, Richard, Anderson, John, Charles, David Jr., and Higgason Grubbs. There is evidence that Higgason Grubbs was in Kentucky as early as 1780 hunting buffalo with Jesse Copher (BoF526;H&G713), and that he established Grubbs Station in Madison Co.,Ky. in 1731 (2Hlp521). It may be that Higgason Grubbs, who m. Lucy Harris was from Hanover Co.,Va. but did not move his family to Kentucky until 1782 or later.

(2) There is record of an old deed made by Higgason Grubbs dated July 1812, in which he gives the names of his eight children as Nancy Boone, Thomas Grubbs, Mourning Boone, James Grubbs, John Grubbs, William Grubbs, Jesse Grubbs and Lucy Grubbs. There is also record of a deed dated July 9, 1812, the opening sentence of which is, "I, Higginson Grubbs of Madison County and State of Kentucky, do hereby relinquish all my claim as husband of my wife Lucy Grubbs, daughter of James Harris, deceased, of Albemarle Co., Va." See H & G 712. This deed is recorded in D. B. "P. 250, and mentions the wife of James Harris as Mary.

034 John Harris b. 1703 of Caroline Co., Va., m. Ann--; 034z John Harris b. about 1730 (1). Issue (ACG): z John Harris b. Aug. 26, 1763, m. (O3ut) Lucy Day, X; y Thos. Harris; x Wm. Harris(2); w Austin Harris; v Eliz. Harris; u Sarah Harris; t Ann Harris; (1) ACG believes his will was proc. in Caroline Co. 1777, in litigation till 1803 - suit in chancery, that he m. Sarah --- (3) and was probably the son of Henry Harris d. about 174-, whose widow Anne later m. Wm. Bowler, who was her son John's guardian.

HH gives this John Harris 1730-94 as son of John Harris b. 1703 of Caroline Co., Va., and grandson of 03 Temperance Overton. Tomesia Overton Harris (mother of HH) said of her father (son of (O34x) John Harris) "Jno. O. Harris had an uncle, Austin Harris. He had an aunt who married a Nelson. They had a daughter whose name was Mary. Jno. O. was engaged to her". (HH4).

(2) He may have been the Wm. Harris who m. (At6) Nancy Anderson, as ACG informs me that an old letter written in 1812 by (At7y) Frances Overton Harris, addressed to her father, "Mr. Wm. Harris, Pleasant Hill, Hanover" from "Laurel Hill" in Hanover Co. has "P. S. Tell Cousin Wildred Nelson she must be sure to come here to school." This was evidently the daughter of (O3tyr) Mildred Day & William Nelson.

(3) ACG at one time thought her last name might have been Stanard, and wrote into her notes John Harris wife Sarah (Stanard?), which she does in order to encourage research, and to give a possible clue. Dr. Malcolm Harris borrowed her notes, and wrote this in la as a fact. Now she feels rather sure that the name was not Stanard.

03t William Harris, Jr. b. 1707, m. (1) (see 2KR169) possibly had issue (R2;La349) (2):
  1 John Harris m. Clough;
  2 Mary Harris b. 1727 (HH3) m. 1748 Edward Nelson, Jr. b. 1727, X; (3)
  3 Overton Harris 1730-39 (HH3) m. Anne Nelson b. 1731, X; (3)
  4 Temperance Harris m. Samuel Baker, X;
  5 Keziah Harris m. 1750 James Nelson b. 1723, X; (3)
  6 Ann Amelia Harris m. Wm. Day, X;
  7 Frederick Harris (4)(b. about 1742-JSA) m. about 1771 (05xv) Eliza
     Terrell, see 05xv for issue;
  8 Since I have examined the will (it is also published in the Ky. Hist.
     Register) and the wife was given as Henrietta, and since there is no other will of a William Harris filed in that county under early date I conclude this Anne and this Henrietta the same person.
  9 MHH places (03ts) William Harris as the one who m. Henrietta which seems more likely as (03t) Wm. Harris would have been a very old man to start to Ky. in 1792, and besides the will of William Harris filed in Mercer Co.
     mentions daughters not then of age. The following is from 2KR169: "William Harris, Mercer Co., Ky., Will Bk. 1, pg.145-Written May 8, 1792. To wife Henrietta two dau., Ann and Bradbourn, property when of age; property to be divided among "all my children" (not named), extrx; wife, Henrietta; extr.
     Geo. Thompson."
 10 MHH believes the wife of (03t) William Harris was named Burnett, as (03tx)
     Fred. Harris had dau. Elizabeth Burnett Harris (DR207), and (03ty) Robert Harris had dau. Martha Burnett Harris, and (03ty) Robert Harris had a son Benjamin Burnett Harris (DR203).
 11 Louisa Co. Deed Bk. "A", pg.484, 1752-John Harris and wife Patience of Amelia Co., Va., and William Harris, and wife, Elizabeth Hanover Co., deed tract to Cleavers Duke 2KHR69. Therefore it may be that (03t) Wm. Harris m.
     Elizabeth Burnett.
 12 These are given as possible children of Wm Harris, Jr. by W. E.
     Dickinson in an article in The Richmond Dispatch, Sunday, Sept. 5, 1915.
     HH3 gives a copy of a letter, dated Aug. 1, 1929 from Mrs. Chas. E. Dille, a descendant of O3t, in which she says, "My record is as follows, though it may contain mistakes", and gives this list of children for "William Harris, Jr. m. Henrietta." They are sometimes given as the children of Wm. Harris & Temperance Overton as in Hlpl2 and by E. Stuart Johnson HHp28. La 349 gives these and in addition 13 William Harris m. Henrietta Baker;
 14 Robert Harris m. Wcapina Walton; & Benjamin Harris (will 1765) m. Mary Jemina Harris (5) m. William Overton.
 15 JSA gives the following family group taken from old letter written at least 25 years ago, now in possession of Mrs. Wm. Forrest, University of Va.
     Charlottesville, Va.,"Old Mrs. Cosby, now 94 yrs. old living near me remembers our great grandfather, Frederick, and she thinks he had four brothers, William, Robert, Overton, and Benjamin." 16 Child of Edward Nelson b. 1690, m. 1719 Mary Garland (La323).
"Pedigrees of this family list the following as children of William and Temperance Harris—Frederick (who married Eliza, daughter of Richmond Terrell and Nancy Overton)."—R2, see AFR141. 6A486 gives Frederick Harris (b. about 1705) (son of Wm. Harris & Temperance Overton) of "Frederick's Hall", Va, m. Eliza or Elizabeth Terrell. This seems to be an error evidently due to the fact that Benjamin Harris (who died in Louisa in 1765, and mentions brothers Frederick & Robert in his will) was considered the son of Wm. Harris & Temperance Overton, see 03(4). As Frederick Harris and Eliza Terrell had a child b. Dec. 13, 1784 (DR207), it would seem that this Frederick was the grandson and not the son of Temperance Overton, and I have therefore omitted Frederick among the children of Temperance Overton.

I have listed her as 03t, and her issue under 05t.

03ty Mary Harris b. 1727, m. 1748 Edward Nelson, Jr. b/1727 of Hanover Co., Va. (brother of Thomas Nelson-MC138). Issue (MHH from Annie W. Fox, a descendant of 03ty):

(2) Dates of birth & death of Wingfield & Anna Cosby, and the dates of birth of their children, are taken from a copy of "Records from Wingfield Cosby Family Bible", sent me by JSA. These records give "Mary Cosby, first wife of Wingfield Cosby d. June 9, 1794". Probably 1794 should have been 1774. The record shows Wingfield Cosby b. Dec. 18, 1772, and the next birth as Barbara Cosby b. May 27, 1775. The record does not show the mother of the children, and the only marriage given is: Lancelot Phillips and Jammie B. his wife, married February 13, 1840. However DE1794180 gives Wingfield Cosby & Mary Morris, a son named Wingfield born Dec. 18, 1772, and Wingfield Cosby, and Ann Baker as parents of Molly b. Apr. 29, 1782, Ann Wingfield b. Aug. 10, 1783, Thos. Baker b. June 15, 1784, Overton Martin, b. Feb. 10, 1787. Note that both this Bible record & that of Thomas Baker Cosby, under 03tx13, give Thomas Baker Cosby b. (1) Generally given as Elizabeth Garland, but TW informs me that J. A. Caskie of "Gale Hill", Albemarle Co., sent him a number of notes in which she was referred to as Elizabeth Truhart, nee Garland.

(2) These children are frequently given as children of (02) William Overton (see AFR142). JBM & CC list them as those of (02) William, but a correction "Mrs. Robbins, Registrar, Va. Soc., N.S.C.D.A. says that children listed as born to William Overton and Peggy Garland were those born to his brother James and Elizabeth Garland". JBM gives Barbara Overton without dates or husband under the children of (02) William, and also lists under the children of (05) Capt. James Overton, "Barbara Overton b. Apr. 20, 1720, d. 1794 x Dec. 27, 1757 to John Carr of Bear Castle b. Dec. 25, 1705, d. Jan. 17, 1778". The letter of John S. Claybrooke (see OSM) gives his grandfather as James Overton, and his great-grandparents as William Overton (2d son Wm. Overton & Mary Waters) and Miss Garland.

The Carr Bible record shows Barbara Overton who m. John Carr was a dau. of 05 James Overton (see AFR143), but the Bentivar Bible Record (see 05y9(1)) gives Barbara Overton (who m. John Carr) as the daughter of Wm. Overton.

The Gale Hill Bible Record gives more specific data on the early generations than the Bentivar Bible Record, and as the copy of the latter, as given to the author, gives both Farrell and James as the eldest son of Wm. & Charlotte Carr, it would seem that more reliance can be placed in the Gale Hill Record.

Francis Buzley, George Barclay. Dated June 13, 1768. Recorded June 16, 1768 when received full payment.

The above deeds indicate that (05w) James Overton of Brookeville and (05v) John Overton who m. Ann Booker Clough, were children of (05) James Overton, and the following extract from a letter dated "Urbana 9th April 1802", a copy of which was sent the author by MHH, indicates that (05z) Mary Cosby was a sister of (05w) James Overton, as it was written by (05v3) Overton Cosby to his cousin (05w9) Samuel Overton Jun'r- "Give my love to my Uncle & Aunt in whose affliction for the loss of my cousin Betsy I sympathize very sincerely. I am my dear kinsman yrs truly Overton Cosby".

Cousin Betsy referred to above was (05w3) Elizabeth Overton. At that time Jun'r did not indicate that the father of the one so designated had the same name, but that there was an older relative by that name.

MHH also sent me extracts from letters from (05uz) Joseph Bickley to (05w9) Samuel Overton Jr. in which he pays his respects to "Aunt, Uncle and the girls, and poor William."

This evidently refers to William's mental state as the will of (05w) James Overton states "in case my son William should die without recovering his reason".

Mrs. Elizabeth C. Williston, a descendant of 05tt6z, sent the following copied from a paper sent her mother, by the latter's cousin (05tt8z) Wm. Overton of Prospect Hill.

"William Overton, the emigrant, born 3rd Dec. 1638 in England came to this colony about 1669, married Elizabeth Waters Nov. 24th 1670 at Yorktown on board the ship that brought her over. They had been engaged in England, but in consequence of the opposition of the families, the Overtons being protestants and the Waters catholics, they came to Va. I have seen a copy of the will of the mother of Elizabeth Waters dated in 1680 odd (29th Sept. 1697) in which she left her daughter Elizabeth, the wife of Wm. Overton of Va. a few shillings. This Mrs. Waters lived in St. Sepulchre's Parish London.

(1) Died. - At his residence, Soldier's Rest, nine miles from Nashville on the 25th of February, Gen. Thomas Overton in the 72d year of his age, one of the few remaining heroes of the revolutionary war.

In those times which "tired men's souls" he bravely nerved his arm in defence of his country's rights, and contributed to achieve that independence which is America's proudest boast.

While our American colonies were shrouded in darkness and gloom, arising from the despotiposition of England — while doubts and uncertainty hung over us, he obeyed the strong impulse of patriotic feeling and repaired to the first standard which was raised in opposition to British tyranny, in Louisa County, Virginia, in 1775. He was among the first who took up arms in defence of American liberty. — He was received as a cadet, but discharged all the duties of a private.

In 1776 or 77 he was appointed 2d lieutenant in one of the Virginia regiments — soon after he was appointed quarter master to that regiment; and in the character of 2d lieutenant and quarter master was raised to first lieutenant, and while in these offices, sustained with fidelity, he obtained a command of 1st lieutenant in Noylen's regiment of Dragoons. He was soon promoted to a captaincy, and at the siege of York it is understood was the oldest captain in that regiment.

In the whole course of the Revolutionary struggle he was considered among the most active officers of his rank, insomuch, that in the north, and particularly at the siege of York, he attracted the notice of Gen. Washington, who assigned to him and his troops the department of watching the enemy's motions in foraging previously to the establishment of the siege of York.

Gen. Overton's character as a military man commenced and ended with the revolutionary war. Never did he lay down the sword until the gloom of oppression was lost in the full blaze of American glory.

He then married and remained in the county of Moore in North Carolina, which he represented many years in the legislature.

When the revenue department was organized under the administration of

Gen. Washington, he, recollecting the meritorious services of Capt. Overton, and always desirous of rewarding his revolutionary partisans, appointed him inspector of the revenue with a moderate salary.

Such was the estimation in which he was held in the state of North Carolina, that he was appointed Brigadier General by the legislature.

In the year 1804 he removed to this state - like Cincinnatus, cultivating the soil and turning the sword into the pruning hook, he maintained a distinguished rank on the list of Agriculturists.

He ever cherished republican principles, and in every respect was characterised with the purest republican plainness and simplicity till his last hour.

At Soldier's Rest, the poor careworn soldier always found repose - the stranger a home - the poor and oppressed an asylum - the friend a cheerful welcome at the hospitable board.

He lived in the esteem and love of his compatriots, and was the bosom friend of the Hero of New Orleans. An honor to his country, a friend to humanity, a blessing to his family, and an ornament to society.

His hearth is now cheerless - there is a mournful blank at his table - his hall is silent and desolate - his bereaved wife looks for him in vain! His children hear no more the voice of a father! On his friends he smiles no more. His ashes rest with departed heroes; but with them he lives - lives in the hearts of his countrymen, his family and his friends.

(2) The last will and testament of Thomas Overton, of Davidson County and state of Tennessee;

Item 1. It is my will and desire that all my just debts be paid out of any funds or property as may seem most advantageous to my executors, hereinafter named.

Item 2. I give and bequeath to my son Walter H. Overton one thousand dollars to be paid to him out of such funds or property as my executors may think advisable.

Item 3. I give and bequeath to my daughter Jane Moore one thousand dollars, to be paid to her as aforesaid.

Item 4. I give and bequeath to my two grandsons, Thomas Butler and John Butler, five hundred dollars each, to be paid to them when they become of age, or before, if, for their education, or other useful purposes, it may be deemed advisable by my executors.

Item 5. I devise to my daughter Harriet B. Overton, and her heirs, the tract of land I purchased of John H. Camp. I also give and bequeath to my said daughter, and her heirs, the following negroes: Hyda, Caroline, Matilda, Letitia and Walker.

Item 6. It is my will that after the foregoing legacies are paid off to the aforesaid legatees, that all of my property, both real and personal, be left in trust to my wife, Penelope Overton, to be by her kept and possessed for the space of seven years from the date of this my last will, unless, in the opinion of my executors, it may become necessary to distribute it among my children by her begotten. In that event my executors are hereby authorized to distribute it, by loan or otherwise, in as full and ample a manner as I myself could do were I present; provided no one of them is to receive more than his other equal portion of the whole of my estate.

It is my will that, during the time my wife has in trust my property before mentioned, she shall appropriate the rents, profits, and proceeds to the education of my children, and for such other useful purposes, as in the discretion of my executors, may seem to them most beneficial to my children.

I do hereby appoint my brother, John Overton, and my friend General Andrew Jackson, and my nephew Archibald W. Overton, executors to my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal, at my own home, this 24th day of January, in the year of our Lord 1822.

These provisions of the will of Thomas Overton are set forth in the case of Gordon v. Overton Vol 16 Tenn Reports page 51 (or Yerger 120). The report states: "Gen. Overton had two sets of children. (1) He wrote the following letter to (05w246) Ella Overton Moore, the original of which is in the possession of CO. If anyone has a copy of the manuscript family tree referred to in the fourth paragraph, the author would greatly appreciate receiving a copy.
My dear Cousin,

Your esteemed and valued favor was received in due course of mail, and I was quite unwell at the time, is the reason that it was not promptly answered, as it affords me pleasure to know and to correspond with all of my kindred, either on the side of my mother or my father.

Their grandmothers were sisters. I knew my grandfather, James Overton personally. I was a small boy, he died in 1814.

John Overton, Jr., the son of Judge John Overton, who was the brother of Genl. Thomas Overton, your grandfather, and myself are the only two living grandchildren of James Overton, your great grandfather.

With much labor, I have made a manuscript family tree, having commenced it fifty years ago, when many of our relations were living, who are now dead. It has 700 names on it. In some instances, it comes down to the 8th generation. I have also made out an index in a pamphlet form, by which, any one of the family can trace back their history to their original ancestor.

I employed an expert to prepare the tree to be in readiness to be lithographed, which to have several hundred copies, for distribution among the kindred, with the index pamphlet, which would accompany it, would cost several hundred dollars, which expense when divided among them, would cost each but very little, and I, having lost my entire estate by the war, am too poor to encounter the whole expense myself and too proud to ask them to assist, and hence the tree has not been lithographed.

The root or base of the tree dates back to the year, 1640. William Overton, the 1st generation married Mary Waters of England, and from him as a root in 1620, descended all the names and generations which follow.

William Overton the 2nd son of the above-named, who was your great great grandfather, married a Miss Garland and his descendants constitute the 3rd generation.

John Overton, your great, great uncle married a Miss Clough. William Overton, his brother, married Jennia Harris.

James Overton, your father's grandfather and my grandfather, and your great grandfather, married Mary Waller in 1749. Nancy Overton, a sister of your great grandfather married Richard Terrell. Barbara Overton, her sister, married John Carr, of Bear Castle. Mary Overton, her sister, married Cosby. Peggy Overton, another sister, married John Beckley. The issue of James Overton, your great grandfather and my grandfather, in the order of their age, was as follows: viz; being 10 children: Waller Overton married Martha Ragland. Gen. Thomas Overton, his brother, your grandfather married first Sarah Woodson and second Penelope Holmes, who was your grandmother. Elizabeth Overton never married and James never married. Judge John Overton married Mrs. May who was Miss Mary White.

I would like for you to give me the names of your brothers and sisters in the order of their ages, and also whether you married a relation of Gov. Moore of Louisiana. The family is so constructed that after being lithographed additional branches of younger members of the family can be added at any time. It would be a small volume to give you a copy of it.

You will excuse and pardon me for any seeming neglect in replying promptly to your letter. Postponement is a natural fault with old people - and in point of time, I belong to that class, but my health and activity still adhere to me, as I ride (?) over my little farm nearly every day. I have five living daughters and one son, none of whom are married.

I never met with your father, but in 1829 I met with your uncle Henry and have frequently been to "Soldier's Rest", visiting your grandmother and her granddaughter Harriet Hinson. I have met with Gen. Walter Overton and his wife and children.
My daughter Eliza will be visiting her mother's relatives in Va., this summer, and I would be glad if she could meet with you while there I am as clan-ish as and loyal as any of my kindred, and should be delighted and pleased to meet with them and to correspond with them as often as it may suit their convenience. We tender you our kindest regards and hoping to hear from you soon.

I remain your cousin,

hundred and sixty-four.

P Henry, Jr.,Philip Bickerton, John Longan, Maria Kimbrough.

At a Court held for Hanover County on Thursday 1, day of January, 1767, this last will and Testament of Barbara Winston deceased was offered to proof by John Winston one of the executors therein named and was proved by oath of John Longan and Maria Kimbrough two of the witnesses thereto and also by the oath of the said executor and ordered to be recorded.

Test: William Pollard, C. B. C.

(2) Generally given as John or James, m. 1706-JSA, m. Dec. 1706 James Winston-OC. La43J gives him as William Winston. MHH informs me his reasons for selecting William Winston are the following:
Land Patent indicated in Index of Patents in Hanover Co., Va. in State Land Office at Richmond, Va.
William Winston, 17 August 1725, 1000 acres on south fork of Elk Creek next to Garland, Lewis and Mathew Sims.
John Winston, of Hanover Co. deed to James Winston of Louisa Co.,75 L.
Curr;
"All that part or dividend of land that was left him the said John Winston by his father William Winston in his last will & testament (as may more plainly appear by the said will) the said land lying and being on the north fork of Elk Creek and main of Sedgey Creek in Louisa Co. as by patent bearing date the 17 August 1725" Oct. 20, 1746.
WI gives James(2) (son of Isaac(1) b. in Essex Co., England) whose brothers William(2) m. Elizabeth Dabney and Isaac(2) m. 1st Sarah, 2d (L) Mary Dabney.-JBM gives James Winston bro. of Isaac Winston x Mary Dabney &
William Winston x Polly Overton.
TW thinks it probable Barbara Overton married, shortly after his arrival in Hanover and before Sept. 1723, Wm. Winston, who m. 1st in King William Co. in 1701 Sarah Jennings, widow of John Dabney(see AFR106), 2d in Essex
Co., about 1710 Martha Tolmin, widow of Edward Gouldman, and after her death moved to Hanover.
(3) In addition to the children given in her will JBM, OC, PF & WI give the following: Sarah (b. 1707-JBM;WI) m. John Geddis; Samuel, Alice, Barbara, William(William Overton-WI), Joseph and Elizabeth (m. Mr. Carr-WI) JBM & OC omitting Joseph & Elizabeth.
TW made the discovery that Maj. Joseph Winston of Stokes Co., N. C., was the son of Samuel of Louisa Co., Va., evidently the above listed Samuel. Mr. E. P.
Waller of Erie, Penn., a descendant of Capt. Wm. Carr (above "Mr. Carr" given by WI) and Elizabeth Winston, wrote TW that he would make a trip to N. C.
to dig up all possible data on the Winston branch there.
PF gives, as the children of Sarah Winston and John Geddis: Isaac Geddis, and Rebecca Geddis m. Wm. Essex Winston, and lists the children of the latter.
TW says that there was no such couple as Wm. Essex Winston and Rebecca Geddis, and that the children appearing as theirs in the Price chart were those of Geddes Winston and Mary Jordan, and that Geddes Winston was the son of Rebecca Bobby and Wm. Winston (4) b. about 1703, son of Wm. Winston and Sarah Jennings.

(4) TW states this Wm. Winston was brought up in Essex Co., Va. with his father Wm., and feels sure that when the Winstons moved to Hanover Co. he, the son, was dubbed Essex (not the father, as sometimes stated) to distinguish him from his younger cousin, Wm. Winston (later Col. and nicknamed Langaloo), of the sd. county of Hanover, son of Isaac Winston and Mary Debney.

Observations on the "Book called Josephus".

The Payne and Pryor Copies of the Josephus Record

The book styled Josephus (Flavius Josephus' History of the Jews) with an early register of the Overton family - listing William Overton, the immigrant, and wife, and their children - long descended in the Overton family, being destroyed by fire in 1888.

Fortunately two copies had been made of the said register, both in the year 1821, one by Mrs. L. Payne, and one by Dr. W. S. Pryor.

Both copies give Mary Waters as wife of the immigrant William Overton. This has been a puzzle to genealogists, for it is known from the will of her mother, Ann Waters, which has been found in London, England, that her name was Elizabeth.

A few differences in the copies may be noted. The Payne copy states that William Overton was born in 1638. The Pryor copy states he was b. 1628. This difference, however, is scarcely worth noticing, being merely a bit of carelessness on the part of one of the copyists. The Payne copy, as generally allowed, gives the correct date.

The Payne copy states that Barbara Overton, daughter of the immigrant William, married James Winston. The Pryor copy gives his name as John Winston.

The Payne copy covers more ground than the Pryor copy, in that it includes the children of John Winston, Mrs. Barbara Overton Winston's son. It sets down John as "married Feb. 3, 1746," but omits name of wife.

The Josephus Record

We depend on the two above said copies by Mrs. Payne and Dr. Pryor to reconstruct the destroyed Josephus record. We gather from these copies that in the destroyed record it was shown:

1st. That William Overton, the immigrant, married Mary Waters;
2d. That the name of the husband of their daughter, Barbara, was either James Winston or John Winston.

But while the above appears to be a correct interpretation, the fact is that the matter in the said copies gives us a deceptive idea of what really was in the Josephus record.

In despite of the two copies, the Josephus record did not give Mary Waters as the wife of William Overton.

In proof of this, let me cite a record of William Overton and his children, which is deposited at the Valentine Museum, Richmond, Va., and which gives the same data as does the Josephus record, and, cast in the same form, shows it must have been a copy thereof; in which record the following appears:

"William Overton, Sr. born Decr. 3, 1638, was married Novr 24, 1670."

In the above we have good evidence that the name of William Overton's wife did not appear in the Josephus record. Her name, as already noted, was Elizabeth Waters. As progenitrix of the American Overtons she had her due share of attention from her descendants. Various stories were related about her. Somehow her name got changed in tradition to Mary Waters.

This traditional name was added in their copies by Mrs. Payne and Dr. Pryor.

Again, in seeming contradiction of the two copies, let me say that the Josephus record did not give the name of Barbara Overton's husband either as James Winston or John Winston.

To explain: Among Barbara's descendants were two traditions, one that her husband was named James, the other that he was named John. Why these differing traditions sprang up is not hard to see. Barbara by very many years survived her husband. To youngsters who knew her in her old age her husband must have been a shadowy figure. Later on his Christian name was quite forgotten, and became a matter of dispute - some of his descendants being convinced it was James, others equally sure it was John (and none really knowing anything about it). Since Mrs. Payne in her copy set down one of the traditional names, James Winston, and Dr. Pryor, in his, the other traditional name, John Winston, it is apparent that they found the name missing in the Josephus record.

Torrence in his "Winstons of Virginia and Allied Families" takes a similar view of the matter.

To give more direct evidence, I quote the following from the Valentine Museum record:

"Barbara Overton, daughter to same, born Feb'y 5, 1690. John Winston born June 9, 1724, married Feb. 3, 1746 to Alice Bickerton, daughter of John Bickerton."

From Miss Barbara the record goes directly on to chronicle the birth of her son.

Here is proof enough that her husband did not figure in the Josephus book.

A third one-sided marriage has already been commented on. In Mrs. Payne's copy, John Winston appears as marrying "Feb. 3, 1746" - whom, not stated. As Dr. Pryor's copy did not include the Winston branch, we cannot compare her copy with his.

It is possible, of course, that the name of John Winston's wife was given in the Josephus record, and through oversight was omitted in Mrs. Payne's copy. But the probability - the almost certainty - is that this is another case of a missing matrimonial name; and that Mrs. Payne, finding the name absent from the Josephus book, left it out in her copy.

Trite as the following matter is, it may be observed that the marriage of John Winston with Alice Bickerton was widely known, and so it may be taken for granted that Mrs. Payne had knowledge of it. Why she did not add in Alice Bickerton's name is therefore hard to guess. As seen above, the name duly appears in the Valentine Museum copy.

A BIBLE RECORD

Mrs. Barbara (Overton) Winston, mentioned above, in her will, dated Oct. 6, 1764, bequeathed to her son John, among other articles, "my Bible and a book called Josephus." To her son James she bequeathed "all the rest of my books," and other effects.

At that time it was the almost invariable custom to keep a register of Marriages, Births and Deaths in the "family Bible", and, of course, we can feel sure that such a register was in the Bible bequeathed by Barbara.

In the course of time, as is most natural to suppose, the Bible and the Josephus book went into different hands. And then some one in the family copied the family register in the Bible into the Josephus book.

This is conjecture with the force of certainty to back it. For we cannot conceive of a record in Barbara's possession giving her mother's name as Mary, whereas it was Elizabeth, and giving Barbara's birth and her issue while omitting the name of Barbara's husband. Furthermore, the very structure of the record in the Josephus book, ignoring the division of Marriages, Births, and Deaths, shows that it was not an original family register, contemporaneously kept. In a word, the family record in the Josephus book was placed there after Barbara's time.

And now, at once, the name "Mary Waters" is explained. We know that in the Bible the correct name must have appeared as "Elizabeth Waters". The one conclusion to be drawn is that the name "Elizabeth Waters" had disappeared from the Bible before the Josephus copy was made.

This means that in the Bible record William Overton was honored with a marriage date, but not with a bride.

As already seen, the Josephus record gave Barbara's issue, but not her husband's name, and gave the date of John Winston's marriage, but failed to mention the lady he married.

These omissions were made in the Josephus copy because they had been found in the original record. In themselves they give proof that incomplete text was being copied.
I submit the following diagram as furnishing a rough idea of what the Josephus copyist had before him:

William Overton married
November 24, 1670

Barbara Overton married

John Winston married
February 3, 1746

Can it be doubted that the Bible record, at the time when it was copied into the Josephus book had become badly mutilated - perhaps part of it torn off?

The marriages in the Josephus copy are interspersed with other data - in a sort of sequent or narrative form. But doubtless in the old Bible the marriages (as was, and is, the style in family records in Bibles) were all grouped together under the heading "Marriages".

As no deaths appear in the Josephus record, we must conclude that the page devoted to "Deaths" in the Bible had altogether disappeared - or, at least, the entire fore part thereof. It is unthinkable that dates of death existed, and yet the Josephus copyist failed to give the date of death of William Overton the immigrant, and that of his wife. Furthermore, had the page of deaths not been missing, the Josephus copyist would have obtained the name of William Overton's wife from that source, and duly entered it in his copy.

Mrs. Robert Anderson

In the Josephus record the eldest child of William Overton, immigrant, is given as Elizabeth, b. June 28, 1673.

All children of the immigrant have been accounted for, in the way of marriages and issue, by descendants and family historians, except this Elizabeth.

There are evidences, public and private, to show that a Mary Overton, who lived in the same part of Virginia as the aforesaid Overtons, married Robert Anderson II, b. about 1663, and that they had int. al., Robert Anderson III, b. in Jan. 1712/13.

The above Elizabeth and Mary Overton have been further puzzles to the genealogists.

Mary Overton, Robert Anderson's wife, was in point of time eligible as a daughter of William Overton the immigrant. But the Josephus record gives no daughter named Mary. Furthermore, as there were other early Overtons in Virginia, doubt was cast on her being related to William Overton at all.

However, her relationship to him can be established in a devious, round-about way. And the circumstantial evidence to that effect may be regarded as having the same potency as direct.

In 1881 Gov. Charles Anderson, a descendant of Robert Anderson and Mary Overton, sent to "The Standard", Richmond, Va., sundry matter on the Anderson family, which appeared in the issue of that paper of May 28. A footnote contained the following:

"Governor Anderson is quite confident that the name of the wife (of Robert Anderson) was Mary Overton. He recollects the visit to his father of his 'cousin' John Overton, of Virginia. The Overtons of Nash­ville, Tennessee, were of the same family."

The father of Gov. Anderson was Col. Richard Clough Anderson, born in Va., Jan. 12, 1750, who after the Revolutionary War settled in Ken­tucky, where he died Oct. 16, 1826.

He was son of Robert Anderson III, and grandson of Robert Anderson II and Mary Overton.

"Cousin" John Overton is readily recognizable.
He was born in Va. Apr. 9, 1766, moved to Kentucky, and later to Nashville, Tenn., and died Jan. 12, 1833. He established the branch of Overtons of Nashville.

There is a wealth of information relating to his ancestry back to William Overton, the immigrant. In brief, he was son of James Overton, and grandson of James Overton, and great grandson of the immigrant.

As John Overton was grandson of a child of the immigrant William Overton, it stands to reason that his cousin and contemporary, Col. Richard Clough Anderson, was likewise the grandson of a child of the immigrant. And since Col. Anderson was grandson of Mary Overton, we have here circumstantial evidence, amounting (I submit) to proof, that Mary Overton was a daughter of the immigrant William Overton.

An objection might be advanced that while Col. Anderson and John Overton were cousins, they might have been related through some family other than the Overtons. In view of the fact that Gov. Anderson's chance remark (preserved in a footnote) is the only evidence yet found linking the Andersons with the family of William Overton the immigrant, it is worth while to give a complete table of the ancestry of Col. Anderson and his cousin John Overton.

The above will show at a glance that relationship between Col. Anderson and John Overton must have come through the Overton blood. (They were second cousins.)

With the foregoing information in hand, we revert to the Josephus record.

In that record we find, as above noted, that the immigrant Overton is given no daughter named Mary. Since Elizabeth, the eldest daughter, b. June 28, 1673, has never been accounted for, it may be asked whether she and Mary, whose husband Robert Anderson was b. about 1663, are identical.

If Elizabeth is a mistake for Mary, then perhaps the Josephus copyist found the date of birth of this daughter of Wm. Overton in the Bible, but her name missing, and believing, for some reason that it was Elizabeth, he so wrote the name. Or perhaps the name Mary was present in the Bible, but so marred and disfigured, that the Josephus copyist took it to be Elizabeth. At any rate, if the name Elizabeth is a mistake, the mistake was made by the Josephus copyist. It cannot be supposed that he left the name blank and that Mrs. Payne and Dr. Pryor both filled in the name as Elizabeth, for this would be to presuppose that in 1821 there were traditions current about Mary in which she figured erroneously as Elizabeth; and we know, of course, that Mary under her own name, or any other name, was not the subject of traditional lore.

Besides, the Valentine Museum record gives the name Elizabeth, and same date of birth. As the Valentine Museum record was doubtless copied from the Josephus record, here is sufficient evidence that the name Elizabeth was written by the Josephus copyist.

But it may be that the eldest daughter of the immigrant was, in fact, named Elizabeth, and that Mary (Mrs. Anderson) was born some years afterwards. There are gaps between the birth dates of the children where Mary could have fitted in. In this case, it is to be supposed that the entry in the Bible relating to Mary (the Bible be it remembered, must have been in a pretty delapidated condition) was so undecipherable that the Josephus copyist had to omit it entirely.

Still another theory suggests itself: - that an entry relating to Mary stood in the Bible, clearly written, but the Josephus copyist simply overlooked it.

Future investigation may throw light on details of this kind.

At present we are content with the knowledge (and this is the main point) that Mary Overton, wife of Robert Anderson, b. about 1665, was daughter of William Overton, immigrant, and Elizabeth Waters.

IN CONCLUSION

The Josephus record has been an enigma to genealogists. Notably, they have wondered why Elizabeth Waters, wife of William Overton, should appear as Mary Waters. The trouble is that the Josephus record has been looked on, and treated, as an original record. But I hope I have shown that, so far from this being the case, the Josephus record was a mere copy of a mutilated Bible record. The misnomer "Mary Waters" ceases to be a mystery. A traditional name was used to restore a name that was missing.
