Family Coat of Arms

Tegart - Giegarden - Thiergartner - Teagarden - Teagard - Teagardin - Tegarden or Tygarden. (This family name has been spelled in many different ways, but it is still the same family)

The coat of arms is found in Bands, Part 5- Vol. IX 35, P. 99, Depart.
of Genealogy, New York Public Library, 5th Ave., between 40th and 42nd St.

The coat of arms herein described is found under the name of Thiergartner in Prussia, Germany. Teagarden, being a contraction of the old names of Abraham Tegart, Teegarden, Thiergartner and his son Abraham Teagarden Jr., both born in Prussia, 1686 and 1718 respectively. They came to America, qualified as citizens Sept., 1, 1736.

Literal translation of the coat of arms from German into English is as follows: General Register concerning about 2000 coat of arms of the middle class families (or town people) Fifth series, Table 99.

Theigartner old family in Baden- Baden.

Description of Coat of Arms

A golden fence or railing, (hedge) upon a green (or grey) back ground.
Behind the fence a stag, then a fence (Helm) Helmet behind it a curved hoop trimmed (or bedecked) with 5 peacock feathers, red golden covers. The history of the stag in connection with this coat of arms is found in the Symbolism of The Stag, Hart, Beech and Deer according to Quillin and Upton, these animals are symbolical either of one killed in politic and will f his times
and opportunities again, of one who is unwilling to assail the enemy rashly, but rather desirous to stand on his own ground honestly.

A genealogy division reports that the description of the colors of the Thiergartner coat of arms from the German description in Siebmachen's Grosses and Allgemeines Wappenbuch Vol. 5, part 5, page 85 (Illustration on Pl. 99) is as follows:

The background of the shield is red.
The stag and the fence are old.
The ground below the fence is green.
The helmet is stell color.
The scrolls are golden inside and where the edges are turned over.
The "wreath" over the helmet is of alternate strands of gold and red.
In the crest, the fence is gold, the "curved hoop" red and the peacock feathers natural color.
War Record

Copied from the D. A. R. record of Stella Isabel Tegarden, Muncie, Indiana.

Abraham Tegarden was a soldier in a troop on Monongalia Co., Virginia Militia, under the command of Michael Cresap. Receipt for pay of this company dated Oct. 4, 1775. Service recorded as for fifty-seven days. Another pay roll gave him pay for 109 days. (See letter from Virginia State Library.) Also Captain, a letter from the Adjutant-General's office. War Department also gives him as an officer under the command of Col. Thomas Gaddis against the Indians under the British in 1778, in the defense of the forts on the upper Ohio.

Abraham Tegarden was a son of Abraham Tegarden (2) and his wife Mary Parker who came from Frederick Co., Maryland, and settled in what was then Monongalia Co., Virginia, which after the boundary line between the States of Virginia and Pennsylvania was settled, became Washington County, Penna. Abraham (3) is not to be confused with his cousin Abraham of Westmoreland County, who with his brothers Aaron, Moses, and William were so active in the Revolution from Westmoreland County.

The father of Abraham died before 1781, when his widow is recorded on the tax list of Washington County as "Widow Tegarden."

Captain Abraham died intestate in 1763. His estate was administered by his wife Elizabeth, Michael Clark and John Baker.

(Place of residence during the Revolution, of Abraham Tegarden Jr., was Virginia and Pennsylvania.) Was a Captain—See "Revolution on upper Ohio" by Thwaites—p. 235.

Abraham Tegarden I., was born in Prussia 1688, died before 1781 in Fayette County, Penna. He qualified with his son, Abraham II at Philadelphia, Sept. 1, 1836. Came over on ship Harle.

Abraham II, born 1718, died before 1761. Married Lady Mary Parker of England who had settled at Annapolis, Maryland. They lived at Philadelphia and Fayette County, Penna.

Abraham III, was born 1748, married Elizabeth Parker about 1774. Elizabeth died March 1814.

Their son Basil Tegarden, was born January 15, 1776, died July 11, 1843, married Ann Todd, who was born June 17, 1778, died May 7, 1863. They were married Oct. 21, 1797.
On Sept. 1, 1736, the good ship Earle, Ralph Harle, Master, docked at Philadelphia, Pa. after a voyage from Rotterdam, Holland, stopping for supplies at Cowes, Isle of Wight, enroute. Its passengers were listed as "Pfalzer", i.e., Palatines, (Christians), coming from a district bordering on the Rhine in what is now Germany, extending from Mainz southward some 75 miles up the river, including Worms and Speyer, and with ancient Heidelberg as its capital.

The male passengers over age 16 were debarked, marched straightway up to the town hall, and required to take oaths of allegiance to the British Crown and to the Penna, proprietary government. Their signatures are still on file, and among them we find:

"Abraham Tiegarden" age 43, and
"Abraham Tiegarden" age 18,

Family tradition, corroborated by Probate and land title records of Westmorland County Pa., indicates that there was a younger son William, and possibly two still younger, George and David.
The younger Abraham, (b 1713 in Europe) married Lady Mary Parker, of English parentage, in Annapolis, Md. about 1743; and their children were:

1. George Teegarden; b 6/29/1744; m Rachel Pibble (or Pibble), settled in Greene Co., Pa., 1763.

2. William Teegarden; b 1/17/1746; d 15/18; m Bethia Carr.; settled in Greene Co., Pa.

3. Mary T. born 4/12/1747; d 12/8/1816; m Johannes Shryock.

4. Abraham (III) Teegarden b 1748; d about 1776, m Mary Elizabeth Parker, whose only son sold settled in Shelby Co., Ky.

The younger brother William (b about 1721 in Europe) married Ann (?), settled in Westmoreland Co., Pa., he died about 1778, and their children were:

1. William, b. about 1746

2. Abraham, b. about 1748

3. Daniel, b. about 1750.

4. Aaron Teegarden, b 1754, d 3/21/1823; married Margaret Diebol; settled in Pickaway County, Ohio, 1810-11.

5. George, b about 1756

6. Susanna, b about 1758; m Col Shryock.

7. Ann b about 1760, m "old Shryock."

8. Moses Teegarden, b 1762; d 1824, m Mary Houston; settled near Cincinnati, Ohio about 1803, later at Barbour, Butler Co., Ohio.

TODD

Basil Tegarden married Ann Todd.

Taken from "A Genealogy of the Todd Family and Descendants and Celebrities Mary Todd wife of Abraham Lincoln 1957."

The name Todd is an altered form of the Scotch word tod, meaning "fox". (The first Tod or Todd was probably a sportsman). All except one branch of Todds come from Scotland.

John Todd who fled from Scotland (Covenanters) came to Astrin, Ireland in 1679. He had two sons Andrew and Robert, (1697 - 1775). They were born in Ireland and came to America in 1737 and settled in Pennsylvania. Robert was the great-great-grandfather of Mary Todd, wife of Abraham Lincoln.

Copied from a letter from Jane Tegarden, Waynesburg, Pa.

The original name of Irish Todd was O’Shanagh which is Irish for Fox. The name Todd is an altered form of the Scotch word Tod which means Fox. With a single exception the Todds have all come from the Highlands of Scotland. English Parliament compelled Irish to assume the English names. The Leenaster Branch took the name of Fox and the northern Todds of Wolf son Corrupted into Wilson.

John Todd in 1679 fled from persecution of Claverhouse in Scotland to find refuge in Ireland. Two of his sons and grandchildren Andrew and Robert came with their families to America in 1737, Robert was born in Ireland in 1697. His first wife was supposed to have been a Smith. His second wife Isabella, a sister of Maj. William Rodley, their mother was a Parker.

Note: Robert Todd was the great-grandfather of Ann Todd.
Ann Todd married Basil Tegarden, and they were the great-grandparents of Earl Tegarden Murray. (G. C. M)
