The first record so far uncovered is of one Jacob Goodpasture in an Augusta County, Virginia court record in 1753 (Ref. 2). Thereafter there are several references to Jacob. In 1766 he passed away leaving an orphan son, Abraham, who was bound to one Samuel Pierce to learn the carpenter's trade.

Abraham Goodpasture grew up in Augusta County, served in the militia (1782), and married Martha Hamilton, daughter of Arthur and Barbara Hamilton, in 1776. By 1778 Abraham was living in Washington County, Virginia, where he built the county jail (1778-9), and appears in the old court records several times up to 1789 (Jury duty, a law suit as a plaintiff, and charged with selling whiskey without a license.) He also raised a family. In 1799-1800 the family, except for the oldest son William, moved to Tennessee. Abraham passed away in Overton County around 1820.

Hamilton Goodpasture, third child and second son of Abraham Jr. and Hannah (Willard) Goodpasture, was born 3 Aug. 1811 in Overton County, Tennessee. The family moved to Morgan County, Illinois when Hamilton was 15 years old. He was no doubt named for the Hamilton family. Hamilton grew up in Morgan County where he married Eleanor Ellison (b. d. 27 Sept. 1879) on 24 Jan. 1836 and while farming reared a family of his own. Hoping to give his sons greater opportunity, the family moved to Linn County, Kansas in the late 1850's, settling near Paris. Elizabeth, his eldest daughter was married the second time in Linn County, on 3 March 1859 to Samuel M. Fansher; the marriage being witnessed by Andrew and William Goodpasture, his two eldest sons. These were troubled years along the Missouri-Kansas border, so much so that the family moved to Lucas County, Iowa in 1860; either forced out by the drouth of 1860 or run out. In any event, Hamilton either stayed or returned to Linn County apparently trying to save his farm property. He may have ridden with one of the Free-State bands of the era, though this is uncertain. In any event, he appeared at Fort Scott on 19 April 1863 and enlisted in Company "L" Sixth Kansas Cavalry. He furnished his own horse and horse equipment as many frontier soldiers did. Promoted to Corporal 29 Feb. 1864. Mustered out 8 June 1865 at DeVall's Bluff, Arkansas.

After the Civil War Hamilton joined his family in Indianola, Iowa. The family lived for awhile in Polk City and moved, except for Abraham, to Pacific County, Washington, around 1870. Hamilton's wife, Eleanor, passed away there 27 Sept. 1879 (at a hospital in Portland after a long illness). Sometime thereafter he returned to Iowa, where he visited Abraham at Anita in 1880-2 & possibly remarried. By 1885 he was in Oregon, living near Bola. He passed away 1888, at Bay Center, Wash., buried there.

"K" 34th Iowa, died in service. She moved to Pacific County, Washington with her father's family where she married George W Wilson on 22 Jan. 1873 and had three children. On 24 July 1862 Abraham enlisted in Co. "K" 34th Iowa Inf. at Chariton, Ia. Mustered 15 Oct. at Burlington, Iowa. This unit took part in the siege of Vicksburg and was first through the Rebel defences at Mobile Bay. Discharged 15 Aug. 1865 at Houston, Texas.

Abraham married Arozina Almira Bidlake (b. 10 June 1850 in Mantua, Ohio; d. 1 Feb. 1925 at Anita, Iowa), daughter of Charles and Elvira (Derthick) Bidlake, 24 March 1868 at Indianola, Iowa. The family lived at Indianola and later at Polk City where Abraham worked at the cooper and carpenter trades. Around 1878-80 the family tried homesteading in Nebraska but returned to Iowa in 1880 settling near Anita. A few years later they moved into Anita where Abraham worked as a carpenter and became a contractor and builder.

Abraham and Arozina were devoted to each other and their family, not only raising a large family of their own, but also a grandson when an early death took a mother away and a son of Arozina's sister when disaster struck their family. Abraham passed away 30 March 1917 and Arozina 1 Feb. 1925. They are buried in Evergreen Cemetery at Anita, Iowa.

HERITAGE

Of all the trades that men may choose,
I would rather work with wood;
It is the noblest of them all—
For thus the Saviour stood,
By precept, and example too,
He laid foundations ever true.

I'm glad my father chose this work.
Now memory brings to view
Many structures which he built
And houses, old and new
Wherein his hands have labored long.
God grant that I may be as strong.

Gentlemen:

My g.g. father, Hamilton Goodpasture and his family (sons and daughters) were in Linn Co. Kan. in 1859-60, for certain. His oldest dau. he married in Linn 3 Mar. 1859 to Samuel M. Fancher and lived in Paris Tps. Both families show in the 1860 Census the Goodpasture family in Brooklin, Scott Tps.

In late 1860 or early 61 both families moved to Iowa, all except Hamilton. I believe he was detained in Kansas, pardoned in 1863 on the condition he join the service, which he did at Ft. Scott on 19 Apr. 1863 (Co"L" 6th Kan. Cav.). Discharged in Ark. 8 June 1865 he joined his family in Iowa.
Inquiry to the Warden at Lansing revealed 'no record it being referred to the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, founded in 1895 - again no record.

If he was sentenced in Linn in 1860-61 where would the records be located? An inquiry to the County Attorney of Linn he stated he searched the County Court records and found nothing. (Letter attached).

Where would he have served the sentence?

Negative Reply

While it may have been a federal offense I have a feeling he killed one John Ford, Elizabeth's first husband - reported to have been a bigamist.

Thanking you in advance

Sincerely,

Dear Sir:

My g g father, Hamilton Goodpasture, son of Abraham Goodpasture Jr., was born in Overton Co., Tenn in 1811. The family moved to Morgan Co., Ill. in 1826. Hamilton m Eleanor Ellison in 1836 in Morgan Co. Ill. and had the children shown on the attached family sheet.

Elizabeth Goodpasture m John Ford in 1852; probably while Hamilton and family were moving across Missouri to Linn Co., Kansas. My cousin states that John was a bigamist ie already married and was killed in Kansas (Western Mo.?) in 1857

No information available from M. Ford.
By whom? I suspect by Hamilton or one of his sons, Andrew or William. Elizabeth remarried in Linn Co in 1859. The 1860 census shows both families in Linn in 1860, ~ Goodpastures and Fancher. In 1861 both families were in Iowa – except for Hamilton who remained (detained?) in Kansas. Enlisted in 6th Kan. Cav. Ft. Scott in 1863, discharged 1865 Arkansaw, and then joined his family in Iowa.

Can you furnish any data on John Ford, the place or marriage and how he passed on?

Sincerely,

Robert A. Goodpasture
MRS. E. M. Graft.
Dear Mrs. Graft:

Do you have a John Ford who in Elizabeth Goodpasture after 1852 in Ill. or Missouri. John may have been a bigamist died (accidently?) in Linn Co. Kansas or W. Mo. in 1857-8.

Sincerely,

Robert A. Goodpasture

Dear Mr. Goodpasture:

I must apologize for my delay in answering your letter of August 30 with reference to your ancestors in Linn County.

I have been rather busy and have tried to make some research on this matter in between times. Many of the old records are stored in the basement and it is quite a job to even find the books and then many of them are very difficult to decipher since they were all hand written and the ink is quite faded on most of them.

However, to date, I have searched for the information you asked for and to no avail. Marriage records here do not go back as far as the dates of interest to you. I wrote to you, I believe, that the Mitchell Linn County History did not mention any of these people. I have since located a copy of another history and have found no reference to any of them in it.

A search of the old court records reveals no reference to the death of John Ford nor to any prosecution arising out of such death.

This does not mean something of the sort did not happen. I have on many occasions found instances where the early records simply were not kept.

I have one or two other books to locate yet that I want to go through and will advise if I locate anything pertaining to any of these people.

Yours very truly,
