This book is dedicated to my mother on her 75th birthday.

I would like thank several people who made this book possible.
A special thanks to Richard Stanley for all of his help and the desire to leave our family heritage through LouElla Stanley for our descendants. Richard gave me pictures as well as his research to add to my collection. He took me to all the areas around Red Fork and showed me where they had lived. I only wish he were here today to enjoy this book with us.

Virginia Nigh has helped me with the James Roy Stanley line and given me many pictures.

Carole Dolisi Bean has provided the pictures of John Andrew Stanley's personal items as well as the family info for the Etta Estelle Stanley Dolisi line.

A very special thanks goes to the librarian, Nancy A. Massey, who spent her day off helping me find the missing link to our Stanley's. She found the Eli Stanley family in their library that a family member had donated, and that provided me with the info to connect our line to the Quaker Stanley family.

I would also like to thank the National Stanley Family Association for their help in adding to our line through their verified research and published books.

A very special thanks to my immediate family for their help and support in my years of research. I have drove them crazy with my many questions about the family. Aunt Helen gave me many pictures of the Dutcher family and family info she could remember. Uncle Carl donated many pictures via his son Ricky, and made sure I got my facts straight. He once told me, "Judy Carlene, you're a heinz 57 and that is all you need ot know."

A special thanks to all the people who attended the Dutcher Family Reunion years ago and filled out the family group sheets for me. That reunion gave us the only pictures of each family before we lost them.

This is for all of the Fowlers who have added their info over the years and to Bob for keeping the Fowler Reunion going.
Introduction

This book was started years ago when I was young and has finally come to an end for now. I started my research when I was 19 years old in search of my true identity. Then later it was to see how my husband and I maybe related, both having come from a Fowler family. Having loved research work all of my life this has become a life long project which has no end.

What I have learned is that there are many secrets in every family that has made them the people they are today. Not everyone has been as lucky as we were to have a large close knit family for many years. Some people will never know what it is to have what we grew up with. We took our family for granted and always assumed it would be there. But as we loose them year after year, you realize what you have lost.

The most important thing I have learned is that no matter who your parents are you inherit qualities from everyone you grow up with. You pick up certain qualities from parents, step parents, aunts, uncles, grand parents, brothers and sisters as well as your family genes. You are what God created, you are given a name and what you make of that name is your gift to your descendants.

I have tried to verify the information I have collected over the years and with the help of the National Stanley Family Association, I hope this will help our family find what they have been looking for and continue with their family lines. If it is not written down it will be lost forever.

This book contains the family of Lewis Fowler as far as I have been able to go for now and the Stanley line of Quakers from whom LouElla Stanley descends. Many records have been lost after her grandfather was disowned by the Quaker's for marrying without the permission of the elders. He continued to live his Quaker faith but was not allowed back in the church. I have included several allied lines that I have worked on too. I lost a lot of my info in a computer crash a couple of years ago, so there maybe errors that need to be corrected now. This is just a starting place for others to continue on with the research.

The background information on the Stanley line came from the National Stanley Family Associations books as well as many correspondents I have been associated with.

Vol VI DESCENDANTS OF STRANGEMAN STANLEY (7th child of James and Catherine Hutchins Stanley) and his TWO WIVES, JEMIMA MILLS & JEMIMA JONES MILLS, by RUTH STANLEY KUNTZ.

These books can be ordered from the National Stanley Family Association

Jerry Richmond also has a collection of CD's on the various Quaker families that can be purchased to add to your collection.

I have used many library resources: books, family researchers and others I have not mentioned that I owe thanks to.

This Thomas Stanley immigrated to Virginia Colony in the late 1600's. He was the father of James Stanley who married Catherine Hutchens of Henrico County Virginia. We know he was English but was born of the landed gentry who occupied Ireland. He came by sailing ship with his Brother r John. On each taxable person in colonial Virginia was levied a tax to maintain the established church (Church of England) and the Quakers which grandfather was associated, did not pay this tithe as they considered it paying "priest's wages." The High Sheriff of New Kent County in Virginia was ordered to collect from each tithable person (every male person and every female slave over sixteen years of age and every female servant that worked in the fields) in St. Peter's parish forty-two pounds of tobacco to defray the charge. Thus began a long fight between Quaker and Episcopalian over the payment of tithes. In 1704 St. Peter's vestry ordered that "the church wardens cause a good pair of stocks to be built and set up just without ye church yard." Those who did not pay the parish tax were punished.

In the Vestry Book of St. Peter's the following entry is made: (p 30)

"St. Peter's Parish att a vestry held at the Upper Church the 14 Ju ne 1698.....Alexander Mackeney producing an order of Court to this vestry for help to clear the Roades in his precincts is ordered the se families following viz Christopher Clarke Thomas Stanley Edw Clark e Thomas Wharton Nicholas Purde Wil Martin Will Beetes Thomas Harri s Edmond Harris Burnell Chapell Martin marten Thomas Delahay John Aldridge Michael Johnson John Jones Thomas moss Samll moss John Willmore e Jarrot Robert Ellison Francis amo."

In Colonial Virginia the vestrymen of the local parishes were charged with the duty of keeping up the roads so they would be passable. They were also charged with dividing the Parish into precincts and every four years all inhabitants were required to walk the boundaries of every man's Land "for the preservation of friendship among neighbors." (24 p 279)

The lineage before Thomas Stanley and Mary Holme has not been proven. There are a lot of speculations that the Edward Stanley line is his father, but that has been disproven by the Stanley Family Association. There is some connection to the Stanley line, but no one has proven how yet.

Children of Thomas Stanley and Mary Holme are:

2. James Stanley, b. April 15, 1688, St. Peters Parish, New Kent, Virginia; d. August 07, 1754, Hanover County, Virginia.
   i. Joseph Stanley, b. 1700; d. WFT Est. 1701-1790.

Virginia, daughter of Nicholas Hutchins and Mary Watkins. She was born 1703 in Henrico County, Virginia, and died December 20, 1766 in Guilford, North Carolina.

Notes for James Stanley:
The Stanley family were Quakers and the information is recorded in the Quaker Books by Hinshaw.

The info on our line is in Vol I, Chapter 3 of the Stanley Family Association book, "Descendants of Quaker Stanley Families of Colonial Virginia". Vol 3 deals with the descendants of James Stanley. Our line is through his 7th son Strangeman Stanley and his wife Jemima Mills.

The above writing is a direct quote of the minutes of a meeting of Friends to witness the marriage of my 8th generation grandfather to his wife, my grandmother. The Friends were what those of the Quaker religion were called among themselves. They had no desire to be married by a Church of England minister.

In 1755 James was granted 400 acres of land in what is now Louisiana County. It was situated on both sides of Clarks road and a branch of great creek, adjoining land of William Biggers, Mr. Saunders, William Woods, and Mr. Oliver's.

John Woolman, a Quaker preacher, who made frequent missionary journeys excersizing his ministry and "publishing truth" mentions James S Stanley in his journal. He notes in May of 1757 that "lodged at James Stanley's father of William Stanley, one of the young men who suffe red imprisonment at Winchester last summer on account of their testimony against fighting, and I had some satisfactory conversation with him concerning it".[Waisner.FTW]

She was born October 26, 1732 in Hanover County, Virginia, and died November 09, 1807 in Guilford County, North Carolina.

Notes for WILLIAM STANLEY:

[Stanley.ftw]

William was of a missionary nature as there are several mentions of him being on missionary visits. On 13 Oct 1753 the records show he and Ann Chiles were granted certificates to travel as companions of Jane Hoggatt on her missionary visits. Late in 1758 he was released as overseer of the Cedar Creek Monthly Meeting and in May the next year he presented to the Monthly Meeting an expense account "of travelling to Opeckon as a guide to John More & Samuel Emlen." He evidently returned to being overseer of the meeting as in October 1764 he resigned and at the same meeting he and his wife and three children were granted certificates to New Garden Monthly Meeting in North Carolina. William and Elizabeth were faithful to their Quaker calling.

They died within two days of each other; November 9 and 11, 1807 and are buried in the same grave at New Garden, North Carolina. They were killed in a Horse and buggy accident.

Notes for Adolphus Elias Stanley:
[Waisner.FTW]

Eli Stanley came from North Carolina Friends (Quaker) Indiana 1844. He had been condemned there for marrying out of unity. Hannah Baldwin had come from Friends in N.C. Eli and Hannah were married March 4, 1852 in a civil ceremony in Henry county, Indiana Bk. 1, pg. 44 Mar. Henry county. On November 24, 1852 Hannah was dismissed by Spiceland MM for marrying out of unity. On October 27, 1852 Spiceland MM Indiana notified New Garden MM in NC that Eli Stanley had married out of unity and in April 27, 1853 he was dismissed. That put both of them out of the Friends MM and Friends membership. Hannah had been married to a Baldwin when she came to Indiana.

Notes for HANNAH JOHNSON:
John and Hannah moved to Kansas near Emporia. Hannah lost two children while in Kansas. The water was so bad that she became sick, so they moved to Arkansas where there was clear, spring fed streams. They were in Kansas in 1880 and she died in 1885 in Arkansas. The graves of John and Hannah were in Hickory Creek Cemetery, but when they put in the lake, the graves were moved to the Stanley-Oak Grove Cemetery which is located off Hwy 71 near Rogers. You take the Pleasant Grove exit going east about 2 miles. You cross another Hwy, go over the railroad tracks and it sits in a nice housing addition. The graves were moved by their son-in-law Arthur Secore who also made the headstones. The Stanley family also had their own school on the land donated by Arthur Secore. A picture of the school is in the book "The Schools That Were" in Benton county, Arkansas by Billie Jines. It is Volume 4. [Waisner.FTW]

The graves of John and Hannah were in Hickory Creek Cemetery, but when they put in the lake, the graves were moved to the Stanley-Oak Grove Cemetery which is located off Hwy 71 near Rogers. You take the Pleasant Grove exit going east about 2 miles. You cross another Hwy, go over the railroad tracks and it sits in a nice housing addition. The graves were moved by their son-in-law Arthur Secore who also made the headstones. The Stanley family also had their own school on the land donated by Arthur Secore. A picture of the school is in the book "The Schools That Were" in Benton county, Arkansas by Billie Jines. It is Volume 4. [ollenburger, Judy FTM #24.FTW]

He married LENORA ONEAL LINDSEY December 24, 1894 in Bumsville, Tishomingo Co., Mississippi, USA, daughter of WILLIAM LINDSEY and ELIZABETH CARPENTER. She was born October 23, 1877 in Tippah Co, Mississippi, USA, and died June 05, 1966 in Gilmer, Upshur Co, Texas, USA.

Notes for WILLIAM FUSION STANLEY:

This was my paternal grandfather. As far as I can determine, he was the man behind the moving and relocation of some 40 people, relatives, wives and children, in a wagon train from far northeastern Mississippi, to East Texas in the early spring of 1901. They stopped just across the Sabine River from the present day town of Logansport, Louisiana which is in Desoto to Parrish. They settled in the small town of Joaquin, Texas, in Shelby County. It is my belief that they settled there because of correspondence with the Stanleys' living about twelve miles east of there, in the little town of Stanley, Louisiana. A large sawmill was there, owned and operated by a Walter Stanley and his family. The town was named after him. I feel that my grandfather worked there in the Stanley sawmill, where he built a desire to own his own sawmill. All of this area was and still is, heavily forested with the Loblolly Pine. My grandfather moved the family from there to the Stamps community in Upshur County, Texas, sometime around 1908. He had purchased property there, about ten miles west of Ore City, Texas. He immediately constructed his own sawmill. This is the birthplace of my father, Johnnie Stanley. This mill burned in 1915. Since Grandpa had been hauling finished lumber to the railroad connection in Ore City in wagons pulled by horses and mules, he started looking for property directly adjacent to the railroad. This railroad was the old Bolivar railroad that ran from Ore City to Longview about 20 miles south. He found a sixty-acre site about 2 1/2 miles north of the present Diana, Texas, and 3 miles south of Ore City. The property was adjacent to the railroad, about 1/2 mile east of U.S. Highway 259, and fronted directly on the present Farm Road 1726. Grandpa built his new sawmill there, with the steam engine as a power source in 1915. This way, his millhands could load the finished lumber directly on the railcar, which was a huge labor-saver. Grandpa had a contract with a large Chicago lumberyard for the finished lumber. Grandpa William Fuston Stanley died Friday, July 30, 1937.

I was born on this property, in a boxstyle house built by my grandfather, with lumber from his sawmill. The date of my birth was March 20, 1935.

Notes for LENORA ONEAL LINDSEY:
[Stanley.ftw]

This is my Paternal Grandmother, wife of William Fusion Stanley. She was born in Tippah Co. Mississippi, to William Thomas Lindsey and Elizabeth Carpenter-Lindsey. She came with my grandfather from Tishomingo Co. Mississippi to Juaquin, Shelby Co., Texas, sometime around 1901. That trip was made by wagon train with some 40 other people. She had an infant son, my Uncle Luther, to care for during that longardous journey. They had two more sons born in Shelby Co. My uncles William and Virgil. They stayed in Juaquin until about 1908, then moved near the Stamps community in northeastern Upshur Co. Texas. There my Grandfather Wm F. started up a sawmill. The loblolly pines were plentiful around there then. Three other children were born at Stamps. My aunt Lillie Belle, who also died there in 1916, my uncle Audi e Ray, and the last son, my father, Johnnie.

My gramma did all the normal things that housewives did during those years. She washed clothes for herself, husband, and those six children in a big, black cast iron washpot heated by a wood fire underneath, built outside. She used the most modern convenience of her time, the automatic washing machine called a scrubboard. She used lye soap made from hogfat and firewood ashes. She starched and ironed those clothes, including grandpa's overalls and her bed linens on an ironing board with a wood iron, heated on her kitchen's wood burning stove. She also cooked all their meals, including dinner (called lunch by city folk) for millhands. After moving with her husband and children over to the place I was born, called Juaquin, she had a sandy loam garden spot atop a little hill about 100 yards from the house. Grandpa, or the boys, when they were old enough, broke up the garden spot for her. She planted, weeded, picked and whatever was needed to harvest that little crop. She would join with my aunts and my mom in shelling, cutting and canning the vegetables from that garden to feed her family. Grandpa had built the house upon a clay bank, with a cellar carved out of the clay and covered by the floor of the house. Thata's where the canned jars of food were stored. There was always plenty to eat at grandmas. She baked biscuits for breakfast every morning. There was cornbread for supper every evening. Fresh eggs from the nest, and ham or bacon from the hogs they kept, along with ribbon cane and sorghum syrup could make a mighty tasty breakfast. Fresh shelled blackeye, creme, purple hull, and crowder peas, with hot cornbread and sweetmilk and butter from her Jersey cow would make a delicious dinner or supper. She would use that sorghum syrup to make some of the best tasting molasses cookies you could ever eat. The only items in her pantry that were not from their own land were sugar, salt, and flour. They did not grow wheat. The flour, sugar, and salt my grandfather purchased, with proceeds from the sawmill. The plowing was done with one or two mules that were fed mostly from pasture or corn that they grew on the land. The hogs, chickens, and the cow also ate from their land and table scraps. The hogs were always fat, not lean. The hogfat was rendered to make a number of things. There was fried chicken, catfish from the creeks nearby, occasional rabbits or squirrels, and pork.

I never heard my grandma complain about the hard life she had chosen to live. She never disparaged my grandpa about anything. She loved him deeply, and mourned his passing in July of 1937. She wrote on her calendar the date of his death, and kept that page until she died.

Children of WILLIAM STANLEY and LENORA LINDSEY are:

i. DAUGHTER STANLEY, b. October 07, 1896, Burnsville, Tishomingo Co, Mississippi, USA; d. October 07, 1896, Burnsville, Tishomingo Co, Mississippi, USA.

ii. MAUDIE MAE ETTER STANLEY, b. August 14, 1898, Tennessee, USA; d. September 07, 1901, Joaquin, Shelby Co, Texas, USA.

Notes for MAUDIE MAE ETTER STANLEY:
[Stanley.ftw]

There was a feeling on the part of Lurline Stanley that this child died before the family left Mississippi to come to Texas. Further research by nephew Lloyd Stanley, shows that the family had to have moved to Texas from Mississippi sometime during the spring of 1901 instead of 1904 as Lurline had thought. This would mean that Maudie died in Texas and not in Tennessee. If so she would be buried in Shelby County, Texas, possibly in an unmarked grave.

iii. LUTHER ROBERT STANLEY, b. January 26, 1901, Burnsville, Tishomingo Co, Mississippi, USA.

Notes for LILLIE BELLE STANLEY:
[Stanley.ftw]

Lillie Belle would have been my aunt had she lived. She was just seven when she died. My father, Johnnie Stanley, told how he was told that when he was a newborn, he was carried in the arms of Lillie Belle all the time. Dad was 1 1/2 years old when she passed. Dad related how his mother and father told all of the boys that the Doctor that was treating her would not let her eat, and therefore starved her till she died of malnutrition. Grandmother Lenora, dad and Lillie's mom, as she began to lose her memory as she approached her eighties, went around calling for her daughter, Lillie Belle all the time. Grandmother traveled all the way up to Cade, Oklahoma, from Gilmer, Texas by train to let her dad "Doc Lindsey" deliver Lillie Belle, which is why she was the only child of that family to be born in Oklahoma.

OBITUARY IN ARKANSAS TIMES

SECORE, LUTHERA GRACE 88 of Springdale, born Nov. 29, 1892 at Hickory Creek was the daughter of Andrew and Virginia Lee Ingram Stanley. Belonged to the Baptist Church. Survivors: Kenneth Secore of Tulsa, Leona (Mrs. Gilbert Graham) of Springdale, 4 grandchildren and 2 gt grandchildren. Services at 1:30pm Sisco Chapel and burial in Hickory Creek Cemetery.

Notes for ARTHUR SECORE:
When Beaver Lake was built the graves at Hickory Creek were moved to a new site along with the graves from Oak Grove Cemetery. The name of the cemetery was changed to Stanley-Oak Grove. Moving the graves for the government were Roy Stanley and his brother in law Arthur Secor. Both men had long association with the Stanley School, Church, and Cemetery, which were located on Hickory Creek.
Arthur's daughter, Leona Secor Graham of Springdale, relates the story this way:
The land for the school, church and cemetery had been donated by her grandparents, John Andrew Stanley and Virginia Lee Ingram (his 2nd marr). One of the children Grace Stanley married Arthur Secor. They were Leona's parents.

When Grace was about 4 yrs. old, her father John Stanley died and her mother Virginia Lee remarried to Robert Edmund Smith. They lived near the Stanley School, but in 1901 their home burned, so for a time they lived in the school while they built another house.

Grace Stanley, Etta Estella and her brother Roy Stanley all attended school at Stanley, as had their older half brother and sisters, Earl, Zeno, Aria, Ella (Luella) and Clara. In time, Grace inherited the land leaving it to her children who sold it to a Beasley. It was know as the Arthur Secore Place.

The old school is found by heading from highway 71B on Ark 264 toward Hickory Creek Recreation area of the lake. The road there forks just before it reaches the recreation area. Taking the other fork, the road leads to the Stanley School site, but ends just short of that at a point where Beaver Lake begins.

Children of LUTHERA STANLEY and ARTHUR SECORE are:

Notes for VIRGIL ELTON STANLEY:
[Stanley.ftw]

During our annual Stanley-Lindsey Family Reunion on father's day of 1991 at Lake-O-The-Pines in Upshur County, Texas a daughter of Virgil and his deceased wife Gladys Gilmore, told Lloyd Stanley that she (Patricia Ann Stanley) and her Husband had received special permission from the General Authorities to do Temple work for Virgil even though a year had not passed since his death.
This was granted because of Patricia Ann's being so crippled that she would die not long thereafter.

Notes for GLADYS GILMORE:
[Stanley.ftw]

This is my Aunt Gladys. She was a true country woman. She always wore her bonnet when she was outside the house. I was about 12 years old in 1947 when we moved back to the country deep in the east Texas Piney Woods, and onto the old home place that had the house my Grandpa built and that I was born in. The property was about 12 acres. My dad got a teaching job near Gilmer. That left me to do the farming. Daddy bought us an old grey mule. That mule was as stubborn a animal as I have ever had the BAD fortune to meet. That ole mule claimed to be deaf. But truth be known, that was his ploy. You had to leave the bridle on him, cause he was so touchy round his ears. If you were plowin, he would always go faster when you headed toward the barn. He was deaf, but he could be out a sight over-the-hill in the pasture and hear the feed bucket rattle against the feed trough. When you did, he would come a runnin. He knew exactly what time it was. When the clock read 12 noon, and you were headed in the direction of the barn, you might as well go there, cause he would take you there whether you wanted to or not.

Any how, Aunt Gladys came to me one mornin askin to bony my mule. I tol her she sur ely could, but, there was somethin I needed to tell her bout that ole mule. Aunt Gladys got her dander up and said "there aint nuthin in o city boy like you can tell me bout no mule". So, I shut my mouf. After awhile, I heard the awfullest cussin and a carryin on I had ever heard from my aunties mouf. Aunt Gladys was acussin anda hollerin " Whoa you S.O.B, whoa". I looked at the clock, an surenuff it was 12:05. I looked out the winder, an surenuff, that ole mule was a standin at the feed trough, just as nonchalant as he could get, an eatin out of that trough. I looked out the winder, an surenuff, that ole mule was a standin at the feed trough, just as nonchalant as he could get, an eatin out of that trough, an ignorin Auntie, who was a standin behind him with that ole bonnet of her's a hangin off the side of her haid, a holdin th e reins, beatin him on the rump. The plow was layin all askew, and he was ignorin her like she warn't even there. Now, my aunt Gladys was a verrrry religous woman. I never heard her cuss before, but she da ng sure new how.

All glory to her, she could cook country fare as good as any cook in the world. She and my mom and grandma would join forces to pick peas, beans, corn, tomatoes and any other crop you had planted. Then ye would join forces and shell, husk, and can the stuff.

Notes for JOHNNIE STANLEY:
[Stanley.ftw]

This is my father, Johnnie Stanley. He was born on the day listed near the Stamps Community in southeast Upshur Co. He went only to the sixth grade in school, then dropped out to work with his father (my grandfather) in his sawmill. He was a sawmill hand up until around 1935. He also hauled logs, cut timber, and delivered finished lumber to customers throughout Northeast Texas. Dad's mom, Lenora Lindsey-Stanley, was baptized by Mormon Elders coming from the Kelsey settlement in western Upshur Co., sometime in 1922. Then four years later, 2 Nov 1924, at the age of nine, Johnnie was baptized. This was to be members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Dad has spoken often about the sawmill that my paternal Grandfather, William F. owned and operated. It was powered by a large steam engine, using waste wood pieces from the sawmilling operation to fire the boiler.

We moved from the East Texas Piney Woods to Ft. Worth, Texas sometime in 1939. My dad started going to auto mechanics school at Ft. Worth Technical High School at night and working during the day. He started working for Bischof Engine Works learning how to rebuild auto engines and the related machine work that trade requires. The wages were very low, the country was still recovering from the depression. Jobs were scarce. In about June, 1941, my uncle William, who lived in San Diego, California, wrote Dad a letter telling him that Consolidated Aircraft Company in San Diego was hiring men with any kind of mechanical experience. They had just received a large government contract to build a large number of their new B-24 Bombers for France, but due to the BEF being pushed to Dunkirk, and France being occupied by the Nazis, the aircraft would be sold to England, on the FDR Lend Lease plan. Dad applied, was accepted and caught a ride to San Diego in a Travel Bureau car. Mom was expecting my brother James in Aug. of that year, so we stayed in Ft. Worth till he was born. Then mom, myself, brother J.R. and new brother James, caught a ride via Travel Bureau to San Diego to be with Dad. On Dec 7, 1941, of course, the world turned upside down. That Sunday morning, Dad sent me to the corner store to buy some milk. Everyone there was listening to the radio. There was great concern there that San Diego could be attacked because of the big Navy and Marine bases there. I hurried home to tell dad to turn the radio on. I was only six years old and did not fully understand what had happened. What happened was that the next day, President Roosevelt and the U.S. Congress declared war on the Japanese Empire. Then shortly thereafter, Germany, who had allied themselves with Japan, declared war on the United States. Dad, who was already working in a war industry, did not join any of the military services because he was needed to assemble B-24 bombers. Somewhere about Feb 1942, Convair, who was building a new manufacturing plant in Ft. Worth, Texas, asked Dad if he would like to return to Ft. Worth and help set up assembly lines in the new plant. He remained with Convair in Ft. Worth until sometime in early 1944. In October of 1943, Dad finished a 48-hour training course taught by The University of Texas Engineering, Science and Management War Training Department, in Aircraft Fight Inspection-Controls. He became a crew-chief on the B-24 Liberator aircraft for the company. His duty was to go with the bomber when it was turned over to the USAAF on their checkflight and fill out the SQUAWK sheet that was a complaint list of corrections needed before the USAAF would accept the aircraft. Dad would then accompany the aircraft back to Convair and move the aircraft to whatever area was needed to make the aircraft ready for final delivery. Some time in early 1944, the company sent Dad back to the San Diego Plant to establish those procedures there. We remained there until July 1945 when the company decided to move Dad to the New Orleans plant to work on the PBY seaplane. We were there only a few weeks when, after the Atomic Bombs were dropped on Hiroshima, and Nagasaki, Japan, she surrendered. The company immediately shut down production and laid everyone off. The company paid all moving expenses for us to return to Ft. Worth.

Notes for ANNIE LORRAINE GOODSON:
[Stanley.fw]

This was my Mom. I was her first born of four sons, no daughters. She was midwifed at my birth by my father's mother in the house that my dad's father built near Diana, Texas. Momma worked hard most of her life. We moved around a lot. She was a sharecroppers' daughter so she had very little while growing up. She could pick cotton with any man. She would pick 500 lbs a day, sometimes dragging me along on the end of the cotton sack. Other times she would dig a small pit under a shade tree and put me in it while she picked. During WWII, my father worked for Consolidated Aircraft Company building B-24 bombers. We lived in San Diego, California; Ft. Worth, Texas; and New Orleans, Louisiana. At each of these places momma would work, sometimes at chicken plants, candy plants etc.

Notes for AUTO MACHINIST HOMER LLOYD STANLEY:
[Stanley.ftw]

Lloyd Stanley was born at the James Community in the home built by his grandfather, William F. Stanley. His grandmother, Lenora, acted as midwife to his mother in the birth. The house is no longer standing, but was built near grandpa's sawmill on the sixty acre property about 1/4 mile east of the mill site on FM 1726. This mill site was located in eastern Upshur County about 2 1/2 miles north of the present day town of Diana, Texas and about 1/2 mile east of U.S. Highway 259 and on the north side, directly fronting on FM Road 1726, adjacent to the old Bolivar railroad, purpose to load the finished lumber directly on the rail car, which was a re al labor saver during the 1920's. The mill had contracts then with Ch Chicago lumberyards for the pine lumber from the East Texas pine forest s.
LUELLA STANLEY & EDWARD LEWIS FOWLER

Lloyd's grandfather built the house from the lumber that was milled in this sawmill. The house was built with a porch that ran 2/3 of the way around its perimeter, with the well dug so that it was under the cover of the porch, and just outside of the door of the kitchen. The house was built on a red clay bank with the kitchen part of the house on the lower side of the bank, which created a niche for the food cellar to be adjacent to that area of the house. The food cellar was dug into the clay bank, which kept it cool during the hot Texas summers and warm during the winter. Canning jars of foods canned by grandma filled that food cellar. Even during the Great Depression, there was always food to eat at grandmas' table.

Earliest memories were after the death of my grandfather, William F. Stanley, July 30 1937. According to my father, Johnnie Stanley, Grandpa used to take me on his knee, and when he did, I would always ask him for a penny. He would call me his "monelhy boy". I cannot remember these things being only two years old when he died.

I do remember living in a small box house about 200 yards from the main house I described above. That is where we lived when my brother J.R. was born. He cried a lot when he was little. I remember picking up a stick and bopping him on the head to shut him up. That didn't work, just made it worse.

Momma tells the story of how we moved out to a little shack deep in the woods near Ashland. That must have been about 1938. We had no plumbing or electricity. Dad was driving the log truck for Grandpa and usually did not get home till after dark every day. Momma would take us two boys and go down to the spring near the house with two water buckets to get water for the evening. She would always wait just before dark to get the water. Soon, we would hear the growling and screaming noise that a cougar makes. We would hurry back to the shack and lock the door, but the windows were only holes, with no guard over them. Momma had hung old quilts over them, but that would not keep a determined animal like a cougar out. Momma tried to convince dad to move from there, but he did not believe us. Finally, after about a week of this, he decided to move us. He came a little early on a particular afternoon. By the time we were finishing the loading of our belongings, it was dark. Dad had set the kerosine lamp on the fender of the truck to give us light. Then the big cat started howling and screaming. Nearer and nearer he came. This was the first time dad had heard him. Dad beat on the fender of the truck trying to drive the beast off, but that did nothing to scare him away. Dad finally decided to leave the last of our belongings there and skedaddle from that place. That cat was still howling as we drove away. We never lived out in the woods like that again.

In 1939, we moved to the big city, Fort Worth, Texas. We lived there until mid 1941. We first lived on the southeast side of the city on East Elknap.

I remember us driving back to East Texas to see Grandma during Christmas of 1939. I was four then. I remember all the Christmas lights in town and none at Grandmas' house, because there was no electricity out in the country till about seven years later. We kept warm by the old fireplace in the main room where we slept under Grandmas' quilts. We would heat a large rock by the fireplace, wrap it in a towel and place it at the foot of the bed to place our feet on. That rock would help warm our feet all night. There was an outside toilet called the "outhouse". We used old Sears catalogs for toilet paper. Gosh, it sure was cold in that privy during the winter, especially if you had to do "no. 2".

Notes for LOUELLA MAE DUTCHER:
Louella and Raymond were married by a Justice of the Peace in Marion county, Kansas. Raymond left Jan. 23, 1947 for the service. He never returned. When Louella went to file for a divorce there were no records. According to the Kansas Historical Society there was a Justice of the Peace who had married people who later found out he had performed the marriages illegally. My name was never changed and I was raised as a Lee. My step-father was Bennie Pinkin Lee. My mother remarried about nine years after his death to James Edward Moore. [Waisner.FTW]

She married
WAYNE HOGUE May 10, 1986 in Greggton, Gregg Co, Texas, USA.

Notes for CINDY RENEE STANLEY:
[Stanley.ftw]

Cindy was born and immediately dubbed "Lil Miss Roadrunner 1969". His nickname was given her by her fathers' co-workers at the Kraft Foods Plant in Garland, Texas. The name was chosen because her fathers' nickname was "roadrunner". The nickname was placed on Lloyd, her father, because of the horn on his little electric shop scooter that must be sounded as you rounded any corner in the plant. It went "Beep-Beep" like the same sound made by the roadrunner cartoon character in movies, hence the nickname.

Cindy was Lloyd's firstborn child, and she loved for her Daddy to rock her to sleep in his rocking chair. Of course, her Daddy loved to rock her, too.

Children of CINDY STANLEY and WAYNE HOGUE are:
i. ASHLEY HOGUE, b. February 11, 1986, Gilmer, Upshur Co, Texas, USA.

Endnotes

2. Information submitted by Geraldine Hertzler, Email from Eileen Hertzler on 7-17-2000, Gerry said her baby brother was born dead and she thinks he was not given a name, or if he was given a name she never knew what it was. Also, she does not know where he was buried but assumes it would have been in Arkansas where they lived at the time.

MARK 50 YEARS—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stanley will serve their golden wedding anniversary with an open house at their home on Route one, Bentonville, Saturday afternoon, from 2 to 4 o'clock. Mr. Stanley, a farmer, is a stepson of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Smith of Lowell. Mrs. Stanley is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ingersoll of Monte Ne. The celebrants are the parents of two children, Achel Stanley and Mrs. Charles Nigh, both of Borger, Tex. They also have two grandsons and two great grandchildren, all of whom are expected for the celebration.

Dear Ms. Waisner:

I have done more than two hours work on your Stanley problem. The 1880 census of Lyon Co., KS. listed John A. Stanely 29, Hannah 26, Luella 8, Zeno 6, Ara/Arc b. Feb. 1860.

1860 Census, Henry Co. IN. was the following: Eli Stanley 42, b. NC, Hannah #0, Mary 16, Sarah 14, JOHN 11, Embree 3 and MARTHA 1. Note 8 years between John and Embree and 10 years between John and Martha. May have been a 2nd marriage between John and Embree.

An Eli Stanley came from NC Friends (Quaker). IN 1844 he had been condemned there for marrying 'out of unity'. Hannah Baldwin had come from Friends (Quaker) in NC. Eli Stanley and Hannah Baldwin were married 4 March 1852 in a civil ceremony in Henry Co. IN., Bk. 1, p.44 Mar. Henry Co.) On 11-24-1852 Hannah was dismissed by Spiceland MM for marrying 'out of unity'. On 10-27 1852 Spiceland MM IN. notified New Gardin MM in NC that Eli Stanley had married 'out of unity' and in 4-27 1853 he was dismissed. That put both of them out of the Friends MM and Friends membership. Hannah had been married to a Baldwin when she came to IN.

I have not had an opportunity to look for an obit or death record on Eli Stanley but will do so next week. Could not get a copy of the census because the film printer was down for repair.

Sincerely,

Vera Mae Moudy, Mrs.
Genealogist

According to Hinshaw's _Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy_, Vol. I, which contains abstracts of the New Garden MM, NC records Eli STANLEY married out of unity to a non-Quaker. He condemned his wrong doing 25d 5th month 1844 at New Garden. Since his wife was apparently not a Quaker, her records do not appear in this work.

There are no children recorded in the New Garden records probably because his wife remained a non-Quaker. Had she joined, children born after she became a member would be listed.

1852,10,27 Eli was again reported to have married out of unity by Spiceland MM and was disowned by New Garden MM.

This seems to coincide with the death date you report for Anna Williams.

If this is the same Eli, he apparently had a second marriage after being reinstated but again to a non-Quaker.

There are many entries for WILLIAMS in New Garden, but I find no family with a daughter Anna with the birth date you give. There is an Anna b. 1797, dtr of Jesse and Sarah Williams. Also an Ann born 1789, dtr of Richard and Sarah Williams. My guess is your Ann is probably related in some manner to these families but probably a dtr of a Williams who married out.

You might look into probate records in Guilford Co. and see if by any chance a Williams died there and named Ann Stanley as a dtr.

Sorry, I can't be of more help.

HAMILTON COUNTY INDIANA DEED RECORDS 1825-1863
Deed

This Indenture Made the 20 day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four between Nathan Hooper and Eliza Jane Hooper of the County and State of Indiana, and Thomas Stanely of the County and State of Indiana for the sum of Three Hundred and Forty Dollars in lawful money of the United States of America to-wit, the sum of One Hundred and Twenty Dollars to be paid in seven years in equal parts and the residue of the said sum to be paid in three years after the seventh year, and the said Thomas Stanely for the sum aforesaid doth hereby sell, transfer, assign and convey to Nathan Hooper and Eliza Jane Hooper all that piece or parcel of land situate in the Township of Hamilton, in the County of Hamilton, in the State of Indiana to-wit, a part of the South West Quarter of the North West quarter of Section Sixty Four, Township Twenty, North of the Range Four East, containing forty acres and one-tenth of a rod, and running thence North forty-west half of a mile to a pole, thence South forty-east half of a mile to a pole, thence West forty-east half of a mile to a pole, thence North forty-west half of a mile to the place of beginning, containing forty acres, more or less,

In witness whereof Nathan Hooper and Eliza Jane Hooper have hereunto set their hands and seals the 20th day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

State of Indiana

Before me, Nathan Proctor, a Notary Public in and for said County, in and for the State aforesaid, personally appeared the said Nathan Hooper and Eliza Jane Hooper and acknowledged the said instrument to be their free act and deed, for the purpese aforesaid, and it is my duty to certify the same.

Nathan Proctor, Notary Public

Ms. Judy Waisner
Rt. 3, Box 309D
Crane, MO 65633

Dear Ms. Waisner,

Enclosed are copies of my research on the STANLEY surname. Your mission, should you choose to accept it, is to sort through it all and make sense of it. I wish you the best of luck! Enjoy!

Thank you for the STANLEY information and pictures that you sent. I will place them in the STANLEY family history file in the Indiana Room. I know that it will benefit other STANLEY researchers.

The total copy cost came to $14.95 (102 photocopies @ 10¢ and 19 reader/printer copies @ 25¢). I received your money order for $10.00, so the balance on the copies is $4.95. Please send that amount plus the postage from the envelope. Now, I think you may have received duplicate information. So I will trust your judgement. Please feel free to deduct the copy cost of duplicates. You may send either a check or a money order payable to the Noblesville Southeastern Public Library to my attention at your convenience.

I sincerely hope the enclosed will help in your family research. If I may be of further assistance, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Nancy A. Massey

I am putting the $10.00 in the mail right now for the Stanley Family info you have found. If you need more, let me know. I will be happy to pay for anything you might find. I am also including a copy of the files I have on the Stanley Family with some pictures for your library. I really appreciate your help. On the back of Eli Stanley's picture was died in Westfield, Indiana. That was all I had to go on, and it really helped. If there is anyway I can help your library, let me know. I am trying to put together a book right now with lots of old pictures of our family, and will donate one to the library when I am finished. I hope it will be this summer. All of my grandparents, gt grandparents were gone by the time I was 12yrs. old, but I was close to all of my gt aunts/uncles, so I have a good collection of pictures thanks to them. I lived with my grandparents, Benjamin Franklin Dutcher and Hannah Estelle Fowler in Wichita, Kansas until I started to school and spent every summer visiting the Fowler-Stanley families in Tulsa, Oklahoma every summer. We were always a very close family and still have a big family reunion every September in Tulsa, Ok. I also have the Edward Lewis Fowler and Louella Stanley Family in the Oklahoma book, "FIRST FAMILIES OF THE TWIN TERRITORIES" by the Oklahoma Historical Society. You had to documented proof verified by the historical society that your family was in Oklahoma before it became a state. All of the Fowler children were born in Oklahoma, except for the first 2, before 1906, except for the last 3. The Fowler family also came from Indiana. Edward Lewis Fowler was the son of Lewis Fowler born 1847 Indiana. He was the son of Lewis Fowler who is on the 1850 Indiana census and the 1860 Sangamon county, Illinois census. I have tried to verify all of my work for the last 25yrs. I started this research when I was 26, so I still had people to talk to. I hope this will help others connect their families. Thanks again for your help.
Judy,

I found Eli and Hannah Stanley on the Hamilton County 1870 census in Jackson township. Then I found Eli and Hannah Stanley on the 1880 census, still living in Jackson township. Also nearby on the 1880 census, Eli's sister Ruth and her husband Howland Wilson and I did not find John Andrew on either census, but I did find a marriage listing in the WPA Records. I did not find Adolphus Stanley on either census. I did find mentions of him in some Quaker records. West Grove cemetery listings say he died in 1879. I find E. Stanley's piece of land on a plat map of Jackson township. It is next to the land of his sister Ruth. I think I will send all that I have found. Some of it may be duplicate material. I am sending some family information not in Eli's direct line but in his siblings' line. All this will be mailed tomorrow. I have yet to get a fix on the total copy cost yet. I wish you good luck in sorting everything out! When you do, please send us a copy.

Sincerely,

Nancy

I could not find just an Eli Stanley in Hinshaws records, but did find Adolphus Elias Stanley and Eli Stanley the same person. You are right on the marriage records, but that is all I have on Adolphus. His being disowned for marrying out of unit to Hannah Baldwin. I did not know if...

INDIANA. TUESDAY, MARCH 18, 1902.

THE DEATH ROLL.

RUTH H. WILSON.

Ruth H. Wilson died at the home of her daughter, Mary E. Baker, near Baker's Corner, Thursday evening, at 9 o'clock. Her husband, Rowland D. Wilson, died in 1889. The deceased was born in North Carolina in 1826; moved to Indiana in 1852, and has resided in Hamilton county since 1865. She leaves four living children—Elwood, of this city; Thos. C. and Mary E. Baker, of Baker's Corner, and Dr. W. L. Wilson, of Selpho. Several months ago she sustained an injury by a fall, from which she never recovered, and the cause of her death was a complication of troubles. She was a highly respected citizen of that part of the county and will be universally mourned. The funeral will take place at 10 o'clock a.m. Sunday at Liberty church, Baker's Corner, and the remains interred in Cicero cemetery.

ISAIAH APPLEGATE.

Isaiah Applegate died at his home in Allisonville at 7 o'clock Friday morning of lung trouble. The deceased was well known in Hamilton county, having moved here from Ohio many years since. He has several children and other relatives and friends here, who will sincerely mourn their loss. By request, a post mortem will be held over the remains to-mor-

INTEREST INCREASING.

Meetings are still in progress at the Presbyterian church. Rev. M. L. Tressler, of Shelbyville, an evangelist of much power, will conduct meetings at this church this week. As a result of the meetings thus far, there is an increased attendance at Sunday-school and church services, and up to this time sixteen have joined the church.

Sunday morning, Rev. Overstreet preached from Isaiah v, 7: "Let the wicked man forsake his ways and the unrighteous man his thoughts and return unto God." He illustrated his text by the painting entitled, "The lost chord." In part, he said:

"The heart at the beginning of your Christian experience is touched by the Divine chord, but now you grope in darkness. Strife, sin, wickedness and unhappiness fill your life. Return unto God and let the grand chord resound again in your life and find peace and perfect harmony in your returning. This is surely the back-slider's text.

"How the earthly father affectionately and anxiously awaits the return of his wandering boy. How much greater the love and pleading of the Heavenly Father, who awaits the back-slider's return. Peter, who de

THE DEATH ROLL.

RUTH H. WILSON.

Ruth H. Wilson died at the home of her daughter, Mary E. Baker, near Baker's Corner, Thursday evening, at 9 o'clock. Her husband, Rowland D. Wilson died in 1889. The deceased was born in North Carolina in 1826; moved to Indiana in 1852, and has resided in Hamilton county since 1865. She leaves four living children—Eldred, of this city; Thos. C. and Mary E. Baker of Baker's Corner, and Dr. W. L. Wilson, of Scipio. Several months ago she sustained an injury by a fall, from which she never recovered, and the cause of her death was a complication of troubles. She was a highly respected citizen of that part of the county and will be universally mourned. The funeral will take place at 10 o'clock a.m. Sunday at Liberty church, Baker's Corner, and the remains interred in Cicero cemetery.

ISAIAH APPLIGATE.

Isaiah Applegate died at his home in Allisonville at 7 o'clock on Friday morning of lung trouble. The deceased was well known in Hamilton county, having moved here from Ohio many years since. He has several children and other relatives and friends here, who will sincerely mourn their loss. By request, a post mortem

INTEREST INCREASING.

Manifestations of Spiritual Awakening at Presbyterian Church.

Meetings are still in progress at the Presbyterian church. Rev. M. L. Tressler, of Shelbyville, an evangelist of much power, will conduct meetings at this church this week. As a result of the meetings thus far, there is an increased attendance at Sunday-school and church services, and up to this time sixteen have joined the church.

Sunday morning, Rev. Overstreet preached from Isaiah v, 7: "Let the wicked man forsake his ways and the unrighteous man his thoughts and return unto God." He illustrated his text by the painting entitled, "The lost chord." In part, he said: "The heart at the beginning of your Christian experience is touched by the Divine chord, but now you grope in darkness. Strife, sin, wickedness, unhappiness fill your life. Return unto God and let the grand chord be struck again in your life and find peace and perfect harmony in your returning. This is surely the back-slider's text.

"How the earthly father affectionately and anxiously awaits the return of his wandering boy. How much greater the love and pleading of the Heavenly Father, who awaits the back-slider's return. Peter, who de

Gurnsey Sale

Twenty-Seven Had Averaged Over $50.

Be twenty-seven head of Gurnsey cattle sold at auction, Tuesday on the E. E. Cornwath farm, in the vicinity of Nobleville, averaged over $50, which considered an extra good. However, all of the animals were thoroughbred and in good condition.

The first ten cows that were sold averaged $78.50. Heifers ranged from $40 to $57. The sale totaled $27,785. There was a large crowd at the sale, some of them coming from adjoining counties. The sale was cried by Col. Bob Cornwath, who is president of the Citizens National Bank and one of the wealthiest men of the northern part of the city. He does not intend to go out of the farming business. He had a large crowd of neighbors from the adjoining counties.

The farm was sold because he did not desire to go out of the farming business. He had a large crowd of neighbors from the adjoining counties. The sale was cried by Col. Bob Cornwath, who is president of the Citizens National Bank and one of the wealthiest men of the northern part of the city. He does not intend to go out of the farming business. Lewis Baldwin

Seventy-Nine Years Old—Funeral Friday Afternoon

Lewis C. Baldwin, aged seventy-nine, who has been in poor health for some time, died at 5 o'clock, Wednesday evening, at the family residence, 540 S. 11th street. Services will be held at the funeral home of Evans & Godby at 2 o'clock, Friday afternoon, with Rev. William Cleaver, pastor of the Friends church in charge. Burial will take place either in the Riverside graveyard, this city, or at West Grove, the deceased having formerly lived in that community.

Mr. Baldwin was a member of the Friends church. He is survived by his widow and the following children: Martha Strayer, of Indianapolis; Christena Lloyd, of Anderson; and Elen White and Elise Baldwin of Helena, Montana.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,

GUILFORD COUNTY.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That we, Eli Stanley
Canoe Matthews and Doverus Williams are held and firmly bound unto the State of North Carolina in the sum of One Thousand Dollars, current money, to be paid to the said State of North Carolina; for the payment of which, well and truly to be made and done we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated the 7th day of

den

hath made application for a license for Marriage, to be celebrated between him and of the County aforesaid; now in case it shall not hereafter appear that there is any lawful cause or impediment to obstruct said Marriage, then the above obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

West Grove Cemetery is located in Jackson Township of Hamilton County, about \(\frac{1}{4}\) mile west of the intersection of 226th Street and Anthony Road (County Road #E33) on the south side of 226th Street. The cemetery is Approximately 200 yards south of the road but is easily accessible via a gravel drive back to the burial area.

The Jackson Township map of 1880 shows this to also be the site of the West Grove Friends Church and of Public School #20 as well as the cemetery. The church and school buildings are no longer there but the cemetery is still in active use for burials and is kept neat and well maintained.

In preparing this record we have numbered the rows from west to east and the gravestones from north to south.

ROLLED TO DEATH
BY A LOG

Hortonville Man Dies From Injuries Received While Unloading a Log Wagon

While assisting some other men in unloading a log wagon at the mill at Hortonville, Saturday afternoon, Eli George was caught by the heavy timber as it rolled off the wagon and sustained injuries which resulted in death Sunday.

The log was a heavy one and George was pulling it off with a cant hook along with other workmen and in some way he caught it as it left the wagon and thrown to the ground and the log passed over his body in such a manner as to cause internal injuries which resulted in his death.

No bones were broken as it passed over his body and his friends did not think his injuries were as severe as to cause his death. He suffered terribly with internal pains and finally passed away. The funeral occurred Tuesday.

Deceased was survived by his wife and several children and his daily work was their only means of support. He was a son of Cyrus George of Baker's Corner, and a cousin of Edward George of this city.

BANK CASHIERS MAKE REPORT

Give a True Account of their Business for Tuesday for Uncle Sam's Information

The cashiers of the Noblesville banks were engaged Tuesday in making a report, the like of which they have not been called upon to do before for many years. In response to a call from the Government Department controlling the banks they do business with, they were required to make a detailed statement of the volume of business they do on this date, by listing their checks, drafts, gold coin, silver coin, pennies, etc., into separate accounts. They also estimated the pay rolls of their customers for the week.
KILLED BY ACCIDENT

Eli George dies from injuries of Log Rolling on Him

Last Saturday Eli George was unloading a log at the little saw mill on Irvin Cox's farm near Horton and by accident fell and a log rolled on him and hurt him so badly that he died Sunday evening. He leaves a wife and two children. His wife is a daughter of Ira Denny and he is a son of Cyrus George living near Bakers Corner. He was a poor hard working man and leaves his family in very limited circumstances. The funeral will be at 9 a.m. Tuesday at Horton.

PRISONERS LEAVE THE REFORMATORY

Local Police Notified—An Automobile Is Destroyed By Fire

Robert Norris, aged 19, and Geo. Dowden, aged 39, both of Lebanon were arrested late Monday night by Policeman David Laughlin on State Road 32, east of Noblesville, and placed in jail to answer the charge of intoxication and obtaining property under false pretenses. They were taken into custody by the officer after he had received a phone message that the defendants were making an effort to escape from a filling station at Fishersville without paying for gas.

According to Laughlin, the men stopped at the station and ordered five gallons of gasoline. After the fuel had been placed in the tank they told the attendant that they did not have enough money to pay the bill. The station agent then sought to empty the gasoline from the tank with a rubber hose and while he was engaged in this process the boys drove away and headed for Noblesville—route—having enough money to pay the bill. The station agent afterwards alerted the police.

They will be arraigned in the court of Squire Wise.

Chief of Police Kirby was notified Tuesday of the escape of two prisoners Monday from the reformatory at Pendleton, one is from Bartholomew county serving a term for forgery and the other from Putnam county, doing time for stealing a car.

They were employed on the prison farm at the time of their escape and Kirby said no trace of the men had been found in this locality.

A Ford car belonging to a man by the name of Stacker, whose given name was not learned by the officers and who is said to be a resident of the Ewing community, was destroyed by fire on a side road southeast of Westfield Monday night according to an investigation made by Sheriff Newby.

The car, first caught fire, probably by some flammable substance,

STRICKEN WITH HEART ATTACK

Oliver George, 76, Found Dead In Bed at Daughter's Home

Oliver George, aged 76, a lifelong resident of the Ekin community, was found dead in bed at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Esther Small, west of Ekin. It is presumed that his death was the result of a heart attack. No arrangements will be made for the funeral until word is received from a daughter living in Illinois. He has been making his home with Mrs. Small for several months and had not been in good health.

The deceased was a farmer in that community all of his life. He was born in 1844 and was married to Jennie Wood, who passed away 20 years ago.

He is survived by two sons and three daughters. They are Marl and Walter George, Hamilton county; Mrs. Small; Mrs. May Poole, of Illinois, and Mrs. Lulu Mason of southern Indiana. A sister, Mrs. Chas. Geiser, resides near Sheridan.

MRS. CHANCE LEAVES HOSPITAL

Mrs. Robert Chance of Cicero, who has been in the local hospital, was removed to her home Saturday in the Coaltrin ambulance. She is getting along very well.

William Brobst Succumbs at 76; Rites Monday

William E. Brobst, 76, Westfield, formerly of Noblesville, passed away in Riverview Hospital Friday evening following an illness of eight months.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 10 a.m. at the Coaltrin Funeral Home with Rev. Robert E. Pebley of the Noblesville Christian Church officiating. Burial will occur in Crown Hill Cemetery in Indianapolis after 7 o'clock this evening.

Mr. Brobst was born in Howard County, Ind., Sept. 13, 1884, son of William E. and Leota Duke Brobst. At the age of 12 he came with his parents to Hamilton County and later for a number of years he owned and operated a chain of restaurants in Indianapolis and Louisville. He had been a resident of Hamilton County for the past 47 years.

He and Lenna E. Stewart of Noblesville were married in 1905 and she survives him.

He was a member of the Noblesville Christian church and a former member of the Masonic and Elks Lodges and Murat Shrine of Indianapolis.

Survivors include, besides his wife one son, Wm. Ervin Brobst and one daughter, Mrs. Martha L. Hecht, both of Noblesville, two grandchildren and one great-grandchild. The family suggests donations may be made to the Cancer Society.

BUNKER HILL AIR FORCE BASE, Ind. (UPI) — A supersonic B-58 Hustler bomber crashed and burned on takeoff here Thursday, killing all three crew members. The Air Force launched an investigation to determine the cause.

Victims of the accident were identified as Maj. Donald E. Close, 35, the commander; Maj. Eugene R. Harrington, 36, the navigator, and Capt. Johnny D. Eubanks, 37, the defensive systems operator.

Close was from Horseshoe, N.Y., Harrington from Claredon, Tex., and Eubanks from Lyman, S.C. Close was the father of five children, Harrington three and Eubanks two.

Air Force officials said the $8 million needle-nosed craft had just lifted off the ground and was moving about 230 mph when it unexpectedly crashed, scattering fiery wreckage east of the main runway near the control tower.

Military personnel said the noon-time flight was "routine" and the plane was "not carrying weapons of any kind."

The crash occurred during a visit to the base of Lt. Gen. A. J. Russell, commander of the Second Air Force. He remained on the base to aid in the investigation.

Two days before the crash, the North Central Indiana base was visited by Dennis Grissom, Mitchell, Ind., whose son, Virgil I. (Gus) Grissom was a famous astronaut at the time of his death 15 months ago in a flash fire at Cape Kennedy.

Rolled to Death
By a Log

Hortonville Man Dies from Injuries Received While Unloading a Log Wagon

While assisting some other men in unloading a log wagon at the mill, at Hortonville, Saturday afternoon, Eli George was caught by the heavy timber as it rolled off the wagon and sustained injuries which resulted in death Sunday.

The log was a heavy one and George was pulling it off with a cant hook along with some other workmen and in some way he was caught as it left the wagon and thrown to the ground and the log passed over his body in such a manner as to cause internal injuries which resulted in his death.

No bones were broken as it passed over his body and his friends did not think his injuries were as severe as to cause his death. He suffered terribly with internal pains and finally passed away. The funeral occurred Tuesday.

Deceased was survived by his wife and several children and his daily work was their only means of support. He was a son of Cyrus George, of Baker's Corner, and a cousin of Edward George of this city.

A Good Sentiment.

Something To Make a Fellow Come to His Senses These Bright Spring Days.

BANK CASHIERS MAKE REPORT
Give a True Account of their Business for Tuesday for Uncle Sam's Information

The cashiers of the Noblesville banks were engaged Tuesday in making a report, the like of which they have not been called upon to do before for many years. In response to a call from the Government Department controlling the banks they do on this date, by listing their checks, drafts, gold coin, silver coin, pennies, etc., into separate accounts. They also estimated the pay roils of their customers for the week.
After the war comes peace
After the storm comes sunshine
After the Winter comes Spring.
After 200 miles of sin in film,
comes "Kathleen Mavourneen."

Theda Bara, who has vampired her way through two hundred miles of motion pictures, has suffered a change of heart and will be seen at the Opera House tonight and U.S. Theatre tomorrow as the heroine of the sweetest Irish love story ever told. This is "Kathleen Mavourneen.," a big William Fox special written and directed by Charles J.
Brabin, who was inspired by the old poem of the same name by Mrs.
Julia Crawford, the Irish poetess.

Miss Bara's new role is one of sweet simplicity. It is said to be the most effective thing she has ever done—and her past performances include a long list of courtesans such as "Cleopatra," "DuBarry,"
"Carmen," "Camille," "The Darling of Paris," "The She-Devil" and "Salome."

MARGUERITE CLARK IS GAY
DECEIVER IN "WIDOW BY PROXY"

Marguerite Clark introduces a novel addition to her long list of charming screen heroines in her latest Paramount-Arclraft picture, "Widow by Proxy," which will be the attractive feature of the week at the Al-cent Theatre and will enter the General Exchange next week.

Creekmore, deceased, to appear in the Hamilton Circuit Court, held at Noblesville, Indiana, on the 31st day of July, 1920.
Cyrus George, seventy-nine years of age, died at 5 o'clock Wednesday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Anna Jessup, in Cicero, of a complication of troubles following an illness of two years. The funeral will be held in the Wesleyan church at Baker's Corner at 2:30 p.m. Friday afternoon and the internment will take place in the West Grove cemetery.

The deceased, practically all of his life in the northern and northwestern parts of Hamilton county and was well and most favorably known in those sections. His wife, died some years ago. The following children survive: Oliver George, of Tipton county; Mrs. Anna Jessup, of Cicero; Mrs. Alice Gelser, of Tipton county; Charles M. George, of Boxleytown, and William George, of Sheridan. Two Young Men Arrested While Making an Effort to Escape

Local Police Notified—An Automobile Is Destroyed By Fire

Robert Norris, aged 19, and Geo. Dowden, aged 39, both of Lebanon were arrested late Monday night by Policeman David Laughlin on State Road 32, east of Noblesville, and placed in jail to answer the charge of intoxication and obtaining property under false pretenses. They were taken into custody by the officer after he had received a phone message that the defendants were making an effort to escape from a filling station at Fishersburg without paying for gas.

According to Laughlin the men stopped at the station and ordered five gallons of gasoline. After the fuel had been placed in the tank they told the attendant that they did not have enough money to pay the bill. The station agent then sought to empty the gasoline from the tank with a rubber hose and while he was engaged in this process the boys drove away and headed for Noblesville—enroute.

They will be arraigned in the court of Squire Wise.

Chief of Police Kirby was notified Tuesday of the escape of two prisoners Monday from the Reformatory at Pendleton, one is from Bartholomew county serving a term for forgery and the other from Putnam county, doing time for stealing a car.

They were employed on the prison farm at the time of their escape Kirby said no trace of the men had been found in this locality.

A Ford car belonging to a man by the name of Stacker, whose given name was not learned by the officers and who is said to be a resident of the Noblesville community, was destroyed by fire of a side road southeast of Westfield Monday night according to an investigation by Deputy Henry.

The car, first caught fire, probably.
Woolley Deserts the Prohibitionists

Former Candidate for President Says the Party Ought to Die

Chicago, Feb. 19.—"I shall continue working for prohibition, but not through the party of that name."

In these words John C. Woolley, Prohibition nominee for president in 1900 and for many years the active leader of that party, announces that he has deserted its ranks.

"I believe the party has accomplished all the good it can," he said. "From now on, the most effective work can be carried on outside of its ranks. The party reaches its purpose in bringing the liquor question to a national issue and its usefulness ended there. Having passed its usefulness, there is no further necessity for it being kept alive."—Ex.

A clear demonstration can be seen of what the temperance people of Indiana can do when all are united on the question, but so long as it is in politics there will have to be political leaders who will keep this question before the people.

Killed by Accident

Eli George dies from injuries of Log Rolling on Him

Last Saturday Eli George was unloading a log at the little saw mill on Irvin Cox's farm near Horton and by accident fell and a log rolled on him and hurt him so badly that he died Sunday evening. County Line

Another example are County Commissioners. In this county, part time Commissioners receive $3,780 annually, over twice as much as the county's representatives and senators.

If Indiana's legislators had more time to prepare and study and debate legislation, they would more than compensate taxpayers for the additional $500,000 a year the Branigan vetoed bill provides. Indiana's legislature passes today's laws in haste and the taxpayers pay for the waste in the years which follow.

For no other reason than to bring an end to this biennial harangue over legislative pay, the 1969 legislature should approve a new schedule which is realistic in compensating them for the time and effort they provide the citizens of Indiana.

Judy,

My name is Leslie Wilder, I am 33 years old and I live in Independence, California.

I have been doing extensive research on my family and I am running into a block wall with Sylvia Chloe Fowler, b. 1904 Oklahoma, died 1991; m. John Edward Fowler, b. February 08, 1900, Pryor Creek, Indian Territory died 1977. Her parents were Joseph Chessley Fowler and Thursey Melinda Kerr.

My reasons for concern is that Sylvia Chloe Fowler is my great grandmother, and I am running into a block wall with her. Can you help me, I would appreciate it greatly.

Sincerely,
Leslie Wilder
Thank you for emailing me back. It made my whole day. I would love to have pictures of Sylvia and the rest of the family, do you know anything about her? I can't find any information on her at all. My grandmother, Jacqueline was her daughter, and she had Barbara, and then she had me. But my mom and grandmom never told me anything about my great grandmother, and I don't know why, but I would like to know the family. I always thought I had this really small family, and come to find out, I have a huge family, with a history also.
I am also curious about something, is the family Native American, and if so, with what tribe? I am curious about that also.
Can't wait to hear from you again, I am traveling to San Francisco Monday and won't be back until Saturday, but my address is:
Leslie Wilder
PO Box 274
Independence, CA 93526
If you would like to send me some pictures or additional information, I would love it.
Thank you again, Leslie

Subject: Thanx

Judy,

I knew that Sylvia and John were cousins, and I think that is why my grandmother was upset, but my mom knew Thursey. She and my sister Tracy visited her in Oklahoma when she was a little girl, I was not born yet, but my grandmother was not there.

I am having trouble finding any documentation on Sylvias' children. I know she had Jacqueline and Jimmy, but that is all I know. Jacqueline, my grandmother, lived in Nevada, so somewhere along the line Sylvia was in Nevada, but who is Jacqueline's (we called her Jackie) father?

I am going to ask my mom today, I am traveling to san fran today for a business trip and won't be back until saturday, so I won't be checking my email until then, but I would love to have some pictures, and I will start gathering information on this side.

I read all your information regarding the Fowler family, and I have searched numerous databanks and can not find information on Sylvia, I am really curious about her, maybe because she was my grandmoms mother, I do not know. Like I said earlier, thank you very much, I have wondered for many years where was my family and where did I come from, and thanx to your hard work, now I know. I would love to attend the reunion, that would just be wonderful. Looking forward to the pictures and information.

Take Care, Leslie Wilder

ROGERS CEMETERY

Located on Highway 71 South in Rogers City limits.
Copied by Gail Scott and Verba Jo Pearce in April, 1976.

The cemetery is divided into numbered SECTIONS with arrows indicating the direction each SECTION was read. On SECTIONS 1 and 2 only, dotted lines (indicating grass aisles) separate SECTIONS lettered A through Z-4. Squares marked M are small tombs or mausoleums. Tombstones may be located by using the INDEX for the name and page number; noting the SECTION, then referring to the SECTION number on the map. More than one of the same surnames may appear on the same page. There are a number of rocks, sandstones, and broken illegible stones to indicate graves. Some graves are unmarked.

The U.S. Army Engineer District, Little Rock, Arkansas was in charge of the relocation of cemeteries from their original locations to prevent inundation by water impounded by Beaver Dam. Personnel of the Little Rock District, in anticipation of the historical interest these relocations might develop, placed copies of the official records of all seven relocations in care of the County Clerk of Benton County at the courthouse in Bentonville, Arkansas. We wish to thank the Corps of Engineers, the County Clerk, and the Trustees of the relocated cemeteries for their cooperation, as well as the volunteers who copied the inscriptions from the stones.

A list showing the old cemeteries and the site of the relocations follows. The names of the deceased who had private removals is included. We were unable to find the burial places of all of these, but some were in Ruddick, Rambo, and Benton County Memorial Park. Many graves were unknown, but were moved and are marked "UNKNOWN" by flat markers in the relocated cemeteries. Others, whose names were known, but not the dates, are also marked with flat stones. A map made by the Corps of Engineers shows the area of the cemeteries and written in are other relocations. These graves were moved in 1961 - 1963.

Indications prevail that School District No. 62, long known either as Sigmon or Hickory Creek School, was one of those originally numbered in the late 1860s, when tax-supported schools were being set up in this county.

Officials began numbering what they originally called "congressional districts" in the extreme northeast corner of Benton County. District No. 1 was followed toward the west by No. 2, No. 3, etc. These numbers went back and forth in rows. When the row at the southern border of the county was being numbered, these districts started with No. 60 (Cottage Grove), No. 61 (War Eagle), No. 62 (Hickory Creek), No. 63 (Accident), etc. At times, parts of these were taken out to help form new districts, and these were numbered out of chronological order. A study of the 1936 map of school districts, however, allows one to see a pattern and to realize which districts carried original numbers. Hickory Creek No. 62 was one of these.

Unfortunately, county/school records do not contain some of the needed information on just what type of building was used first in such a district nor its exact location. Often, these were built on land offered for such use but never formally given so deed records sometimes leave gaps in the story.

In an article from the "Springdale News" in 1937, a former Hickory Creek schoolteacher, Fred E. Reed, stated that the first building there was a box house and served for only a few years. He thought it was erected about 1873 on land donated for a cemetery and church by Alex Sigmon. A definite date for the first building work could not be fixed, Reed added, but the house was above the Walter Berry home near Mulkey Spring, and, while properly named Silver Springs, was known by many as "Hush Puppy." This house was used until 1873 when the one was erected near the present two-room structure, he said.

On Feb. 7, 1881, Alexander and Cynthia Sigmon donated 3/4 of an acre to J. P. Adams and W. M. Jones as trustees and their successors "for a certain piece of land layed off for Graveyard purposes."

Thirteen years later, on July 21, 1894, Alexander and Cynthia Sigmon donated two and a half acres to School District No. 62 "to be used (for) School and Church and burial purposes." Both this land and the other were in Section 14 of T 18, R 29, almost in the exact center of the six sections and parts of three others making up the land area assigned to District 62. In all likelihood, the cemetery, church and school had been erected there, with the Sigmons' permission, before the deeds were formalized. The unknown factor is whether an original building preceded the one still standing at that site near the cemetery.

In her 1982 book, ALEX SIGMON OF HICKORY CREEK, Doris C. Leak of Jacket, Mo. included a chapter on Hickory Creek School and Cemetery.

"Mrs. Ora Clardy tells that the first building used as a church and school on the land donated by Alex Sigmon was built by Rev. Harve Duffer and was called Duffer's Chapel for sometime," Mrs. Leak wrote. "She thinks this is the same building standing today - with revisions and remodeling from time to time. She does not know exactly when the school got the name of Hickory Creek School."
County records list both the name Sigmon and Hickory Creek for District No. 62.

During the October, 1882 term of County Court, the northern part of the Hickory Creek District was taken from it to create a new school district called Stanley School No. 98. Stanley's old log building stood for many years after it closed out earlier this century. At that time, the land it had taken from Hickory Creek was returned to the Hickory Creek District. The next story in this volume will deal with the history of Stanley.

The Hickory Creek District was bordered on both the south and the east by Washington County. Today, it is reached most easily by taking Arkansas Highway 264 from U. S. Highway 71B between Springdale and Lowell and heading toward the Hickory Creek Recreation Area of Beaver Lake. At the big curve, leave the main highway by staying straight ahead. Soon a sign will direct you to the Hickory Creek Schoolhouse and Cemetery. Not far beyond lie the waters of Beaver Lake. The spot where stood the Stanley School now lies beneath the Beaver Lake water.

When Alexander and Cynthia Sigmon donated that land for the "school and church and burying purposes," the land description mentioned that the "Vanwinkle and Elm Springs Road" was the south line. The addition of Beaver Lake and opening of new and closing of old roads can be seen in such changes in geography of the area.

School Board members at Hickory Creek from 1889 through 1905 gave their mailing addresses as Creech, Ark. The Creech Post Office was located within the area forming that school district. It existed for 20 years, from 1885 to 1905, with Thomas J. Creech as postmaster. Following its closure, Hickory Creek board members gave Lowell as their post offices.

Three old county books give us a peep at Hickory Creek for three years in the time around World War I. In the 1917-18 term, J. J. Reed was the teacher. He drew $50 a month for the seven-months term. For the previous term, he reported that there were 84 school-aged children enumerated, but only 56 enrolled with an average daily attendance of 33. Expenses of the board that year included $10 for wood from John Williams, $15 for playground equipment from the teacher, $3.25 for a water cooler from Famous Hardware and $1.10 for chalk from D. L. Lewis. Dr. Martin was paid $10.75 for vaccinations.

Nora Sigmon taught the 1919-20 eight-months term, drawing $65 a month, and few blanks were filled out in the report. The 1920-21 term was taught by Lucille Burkett, and she was paid $90 a month for the four months term. Often, the number of months taught per school year depended on how much the board paid the teacher per month.

Others known to have taught there at some point were Mrs. Gordie Penny, Amanda Irwin, Ione Williams, Lila Greenway, Sam Foust, Virginia Oxford Shockley, Thelma Norman and Lena Belle Bequette.

John Leak, the husband of the author of the book on Alex Sigmon, was a great-grandson of Sigmon. John Leak attended Hickory Creek School through his first eight grades. He remembered that the students in those days carried water from a spring on the property of John Nels Graham. Later, a well was dug for the school, and today, the rural water system supplies the schoolhouse now used for other purposes.
He has many memories of school there in the 1930s. The fact, for instance, that the girls' outhouse was near the building, while the boys' was "away out there," and how the boys loved to hurl rocks at the girls' outhouse. Lots of whippings for the boys resulted from that habit. He remembered the big hill nearby that was great for sledding on in winter. When John was a younger student, there were the good basketball teams made up of the older students, especially the girls' team. He spoke of some, such as Viva Lewis Sigmon, Leona Secor Graham and others who were especially good players. Yet their basketball court was a sloping dirt one. And there was the water mill and store operated by the Lewis family on Big Hickory Creek. It was a delight to get to stop there to buy a penny's worth of candy. Even after the mill washed out in the 1940s, the store still was operated for awhile.

On Sept. 15, 1931, a part of a section of Washington County land lying east of Hickory Creek School District was added to Hickory Creek's district. The Benton County Board and the Washington County School Board both approved the move which resulted from a petition of qualified voters both in Benton County School District 62 and in Washington County School District No. 17.

But on Feb. 26, 1949, all of the Hickory Creek District, including that on both sides of the county line, was dissolved and annexed to Washington County School District No. 50, which is the Springdale district. This followed the passing of an Arkansas law requiring all schools with less than 350 enrollment to be annexed to some other district no later than June 1, 1949. The majority of qualified voters in Hickory Creek District requested dissolution and annexation to the Springdale district. Springdale school officials had passed a resolution accepting the territory if approved by the Benton County Board.

Today, all school taxes for what once was Hickory Creek in Benton County go to the Springdale School District in Washington County. For awhile, the lower grades continued to attend the Hickory Creek School, but now all are bussed into Springdale.

In her book, Mrs. Leak points out what happened to the Hickory Creek Schoolhouse:

"The schoolhouse," she wrote, "was offered for sale to the highest bidder a few years after consolidation of the county schools. Alex's great-grandson - Dale Sigmon - was the successful bidder. He immediately deeded the building to Hickory Creek Cemetery, and the Sigmon family restored it in 1968. It is the site of the annual Sigmon reunion each year on the fourth Sunday in June. This year (1982) will be the 16th annual observance."

When this story was being researched in 1991, the Sigmon Reunions still were being held each year at the historic Hickory Creek Schoolhouse. The year before, there had been 125 in attendance.

EIGHTH GRADERS KNOWN TO HAVE GRADUATED from Hickory Creek were:
1923-24: Gretta Long and Mildred Mulkey
1925-26: John Long
1926-27: Earl and Grant Dorsey and Thelma Foust
1927-28: Mallie Lewis, Mary B. Wemerk, Eula Mae Braddy, Kenneth Ellis, Eva Foust, Raymond Hutton and Kindle (Kendle) Sigmon
1929-30: Vera Braddy and Winnie Mae Foust
1930-31: Ruth Long
1931-32: Leona Secor, Viva Lewis, Cecil Sigmon, Marine Eden, Eva
Graham, Cecil Lewis and Herbert and Maxine Shockley
1932-33: Lola Fawn Leak
1938-39: Agnes Sigmon, Darlene Haney, John Leak, Dale Sigmon, James Yarbrough and Cecil Short
1939-40: Mary Louise Eden, Zane J. Graham, Anne Imogene Leslie, Calvin C. Mulkey, Allen Luther Penny and Eunice Wolfe
1940-41: Herbert and Hubert Leak, Dale Short and Anna Jean and Junior Eden
1943-44: Dwain Lee Haney and Emma Jean Oxford

STANLEY SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 98

Even as late as the 1930s Great Depression era, folks passing an area north of Hickory Creek Schoolhouse could see an old log schoolhouse left over from another era of Benton County history. It was known as the Stanley Schoolhouse.

Records show that during the October term of county court in 1882, the northern part of the Hickory Creek School District was taken out to create a new district. It was Stanley District No. 98. Its territory included three full sections of land and parts of three adjoining ones.

When a list of Benton County School Districts was made out around the turn of the century, Stanley was included. It apparently was an active school district from the time of its inception until about 1908 or 1909. At least, school board members were being elected during that 22-year period.

When it was dissolved, part of its territory was returned to Hickory Creek from which it had come, and part, the western portion, was annexed to Frisco Springs School District No. 134. Tradition says that the Stanley School at one time was referred to as Cherry Sprout. In the 1930s, its location would have been described as having been on the Arthur Secor farm.

Those known to have served as school directors at Stanley were J. F. Leak, E. B. Jessup, S. S. King, R. C. Danford, F. C. Danford, R. E. Smith, J. W. Martin, W. M. Goodson, W. A. Crisman, and W. H. Howard. Some of these gave their mailing addresses as Creech, Ark., the same address used by directors at Hickory Creek at that time. Two named Lowell as their post office, while one used Larue and another got his mail at Vinda, Ark. Vinda Post Office was known at various times between 1884 and 1967 as Pettigrew Mills, Silver Springs, Vinda and Monte Ne.

John Leak of Jacket, Mo. recalled that his father, Marion Columbus Leak, attended school at Stanley. Following his eighth grade graduation, his mother suggested that he attend the eighth grade a second year, that time at Hickory Creek. He was the youngest of the children, and his mother thought he would be better off in school another year than with too much time on his hands. Sometimes in that era when an eighth grade graduate opted to repeat the eighth grade when he or she had no high school to attend, the teacher would allow him to take some extra course such as algebra. Sure enough, John said, his father did know algebra and apparently had studied geometry, too. Also, he said, his father had been drilled to learn to add in his head. He often could add a column of figures in his head faster than someone else could do so with pencil and paper.

Marion Columbus Leak's brothers and sisters also went to school at Stanley in the log schoolhouse. They were Henry, Sam, Bill, Virgil, Garland, Sarah and Lula Leak.

The old Stanley Schoolhouse stood for, maybe, 30 years or more after it ceased to be used for school. It was a typical looking old log structure, just one large room. There was no porch, but rock steps were in place at the front door. The little cemetery was nearby. When Beaver Lake was being built, the graves were moved to a new site along with the graves from Oak Grove (Benton County) and others. The new cemetery was named Stanley-Oak.

Moving the graves for the government were Roy Stanley and his brother-in-law, Arthur Secor. Both men had long association with the Stanley School, Church and Cemetery.

Arthur's daughter, Leona Secor Graham of near Springdale, relates the story this way: The land for the school, church, and cemetery had been donated by her grandparents, Andrew and Virginia Lee Ingram Stanley. One of their children, Grace Stanley, married Arthur Secor. They were Leona's parents.

When Grace was about four, her father, Andrew Stanley, died, and her mother, Virginia Lee, married Edmund Smith. They lived near the Stanley Schoolhouse, but in 1901, their home burned. For a time while they built another house, the family lived in the schoolhouse.

Grace, her sister, Etta Estella, and brother, Roy Stanley, all attended school at Stanley, as had their older half brothers and sisters, Earl, Zeno, Aria, Ella and Clara Stanley.

In time, Grace inherited the land there, and it came to be known as the Arthur Secor place after her family. Still later, the property went to their children, who later sold that which did not become government-owned in the building of Beaver Lake, to a party named Beasley.

As it happens, the portion on which lay the Stanley Cemetery is above the waters of Beaver Lake but within the perimeter of the government land. Not so, the site of the old Stanley Schoolhouse. Should you head from Highway 71B on Arkansas 264 toward the Hickory Creek Recreation Area of the lake, the road there forks just before it reaches the recreation area. Taking the other fork, the road leads toward the Stanley Schoolhouse site, but ends just short of that at a point where Beaver Lake begins.

Reaching its prime in the 19th century, the Stanley School found decay in the 20th century before being inundated by Beaver Lake. It lives today only in the memory of stories handed down and in musty old courthouse records.

INGERSOLL, EDWIN, JR.

Edwin Ingersoll Jr. (Boage) was born in St. Clair County Missouri near St. Louis on a farm near the Merrimac River. On October 18, 1862 he came to Arkansas at an early age where he met Alice Dean Busick and married around 1883. They lived on a farm in Horseshoe Bend near Standing Rock. While in the Monte Ne area they had five children; Virgie Ingersoll Gorsuch, William Franklin Ingersoll, Cora Ingersoll McGarrah, Vernon Ingersoll, Daisy Ingersoll Stanley.

After leaving the farm they moved into Monte Ne where they operated the bath houses and Mrs. Ingersoll worked for Mr. and Mrs. W.H. (Coin) Harvey as a seamstress, she also worked in Rogers for Colonel O.L. Gregory. Before retiring William Franklin moved to Siloam Springs where he and his wife were in the grocery business until retirement.

Virgie Ingersoll Gorsuch and her husband were in the photography business in Fayetteville AR and Stillwell OK.

Vernon Ingersoll as a young man worked for W.H. (Coin) Harvey on the building of his (Coin's) pyramid and also was the first gondolier to pole the gondolas across the lake from the railroad station to the clubhouse landings. In later years he owned grocery stores in Rogers AR, Salem OR, and Payette, Weiser, and Fruitland ID before retiring and returning to Rogers.

Cora Ingersoll McGarrah worked several years for the public school system.

Daisy Ingersoll Stanley was head cook for several years at the Club House Hotel at Monte Ne, then she went to the Harris Hotel in Rogers, and the last ten years before retirement were spent as a cook at Rogers Memorial Hospital in Rogers. Daisy married Roy Stanley December 27, 1914. They had two children; Achel Stanley, born December 9, 1915, and Virginia Stanley Nigh, born March 23, 1923.

To a lot of people living in Benton County today, White River is a name they've only read or heard about. To others it was a very familiar name. The river bottoms were good fertile ground for raising crops and the water supply was good for both man and beast. It was also a means of travel for some.

Long before the white man would come, the Indians would make their home along this river, which the Indians called Ni-u-skan (White River). The Edens Bluff area is a good example of pre-historic existence. Artifacts found nearby prove early man lived there. According to Michael Hoffman, curator of Anthropology at the University of Arkansas Museum, two arrowheads I have found there date 3000-4000 years old — B.C.

White River was and has been to many kinds of people. It flowed past a farm near where Beaver Shores is today. One hundred and sixty acres of good soil is now under the waters of Beaver Lake. Everything is gone except the memories of a few relatives and six years of research I spent trying to learn more about the folks this story is about...

Mrs. Ingersoll, you have a fine healthy son! It was early spring, April 18, 1833, when Edwin J. Ingersoll born 1834 in Ohio had come West, possibly with his family, maybe alone. He settled in Berrien County MI where he would become acquainted with a family named Atkins who had also come from Ohio in 1835 and made their home in the Village of New Troy.

This family had a 19 year old daughter, Minerva Jane, born in 1843. Edwin and Minerva eventually were married in 1861. They would find their way to Meremac Twp., Franklin County MO. With the Civil War in its third year, Missouri was hardly the place to be or start a family, however, they now had a son named Edwin, Jr. Minerva would bear three more sons while living in Missouri. Their names were Norm, Charles and Walter. The years of madness were over and the war as we know was foolish and costly, but life was a little better now. The year 1864 would find this family settled in Benton County AR on a 160 acre farm, homesteading and starting a new life in the wilderness.

Edwin and Minerva were blessed with three daughters on this farm. They named them Idora, Nora and Myrtle. I am sure times were hard for these people, but they surely had good times as well. Their Saturday night dances, the music and games and good corn liquor lifted up their spirits. Many a promise was made and broken at such events as these good crops in the fall, births of children and weddings took some of the bitter reality away from hard times.

At 48 years of age Minerva, the youngest child of Timothy and Milla (Atkins) Ingersoll passed away. She was buried next to her son Walter who had died several years before, the year was 1890.

Edwin Sr. would prosper and own land not only on White River but in Pope County AR and also at Monte Ne. He passed away September 28th 1904 and was buried next to his wife and son on the farm he loved so well.

Edwin, Jr. married Alice Busick from Lawrence County, TN and they had five children...

...a daughter Cora who married Bruce McGarrah, Edwin Jr.'s brother Charles wed Roy Webster's father's sister, Della.

Some people may remember these nice folks. I have nice memories of Mr. McGarah and Mr. Webster is my employer and close friend.

Edwin died September 15th, 1936 and Alice died two years later on April 8th, 1938. Both are buried in the old Rogers Cemetery.

Before Beaver Lake covered White River many old cemeteries were moved from the river area. The Ingersoll Cemetery was one of them. The graves were located to Pace Cemetery near Garfield.

I've tried to imagine what this area looked like 3,000 or even 100 years ago. One might hear the scream of a big cat upon Panther Bluff, the whip-poor-will in the stillness of the night or you might see dark figures crossing at Slick Rock Ford. Perhaps a hunting party or the laughter of children at the Ozark School where Beaver Shores Fire Station is today. Early man left no written record of his time in the river valley, only the stone artifacts left behind proved he was here. Edwin and Minerva enjoyed the valley too, yet little remains of their presence on the land, but they too were here.

The struggles of these pioneers and Ancient ones seems far distant to us today, but in their times it was a survival of the fittest. It's hard to imagine or believe what hardships they must have endured, but the fruits of their labors are instilled in some of us, their descendants. A few like myself who is getting the chance to return something to them in memory by writing a little bit about them in this book for still more interested generations to come.

Notes for Absalom Renfro:
Information on this family is from the Renfro Family Bible records published in the Dade county, Missouri Books. The Bible is in the possession of Donald R. Smith given to him by F.M. Renfro upon his death.

The Dade County History Book has articles on Absalom Renfro, Capt. T. F. Renfro, Dr. J.C.B. Renfro, Louis A. Renfro, Lewis Renfro, Joseph H. Renfro that includes a lot of family history and genealogical information. Absalom Renfro was born near Crab Orchard, Ky, Jan 15, 1806 where he grew to manhood. He was raised on a farm but never received much education. Before he reached his majority he went to Madison co., Tenn, and engaged in hauling goods from Nashville to inland towns. On the 16th day of June, 1825 he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Penn, a grandniece of noted Quaker William Penn. Mr. Renfro continued to follow teaming until the fall of 1829, when in company with several other families, they came to southwest Missouri and stopped for the winter where the city of Springfield in now located. In the spring of 1830 they scattered out, except Billie Fulbright, who was one of the parties coming from Tenn. He remained in Greene co, and Fulbright Springs derived its name from hi. Absalom Renfro located where Little Orleans now stands on the Sac River. From there he came to what is known as the Manis place in Dade county. He sold his claim there and located where the Speer mill now stands, and just a short time before the first land sales at Springfield he sold that claim and located 320 acres, being the first land sale in southwest Missouri. This was in the spring of 1840, and this 320 acres remained his home till the date of his death, May 15, 1875. He professed religion at the age of 40yrs and united with the Southern Methodist church, and remained a faithful member until his death. He was a farmer and stock raiser and accumulated quite a fortune, and was one of the wealthy farmers of Dade co. at the breaking of the Civil War. Being a southern man and a slave owner, he cast his lot with the Southern Confederacy. Five of his sons were soldiers in the Confederate Army, four of them enlisting early, and one soon as he was old enough. John F. was mustered out a lieutenant, Thomas F. was mustered out a major and Lewis, a third lieutenant, was mustered out as adjudant of the Third Missouri Cavalary, with the rank of Captain, while Shelby and Joseph were mustered out as privates. In the summer of 1863 it became so dangerous for a man to live in Dade co who had sons in the Confederate army, and having one Negro boy who was eligible for service in the Union Army, he went south, taking this Negro boy with him. That fall the commanding general gave orders to burn the homes of all southern sympathizers and banish their families. It fell the lot of Major Morgan to carry out these orders in Dade co, which he did to a certain extent. The buildings on the Renfro farm were burned, except a few Negro cabins, and the women folks ordered to go south. Major Morgan, acted the gentleman in this matter, preserving the original order till after the war, and offered to assist Mr. Renfro in getting damages for the property destroyed, but on account of the stron prejudice existing at that time no claim for damage was ever presented. Mr. Renfro never harbored any ill felling toward Mr. Morgan on this account. Friends of the family who posed as Union men assisted the family in the purchase of a yoke of oxen and a wagon, and they make their way to Lamar co, Texas, where they were joined by Mr. Renfro and where he made his home till the close of the war. The Negro women and children lived on the farm during the war and cared for it the best they could. Mr. and Mrs Absalom Renfro were the parents of 15 children, ten boys and five girls. They were, however, not all living at one time, a girl dying in infancy, one boy died at the age of 6yrs and another at the age of 16yrs. There were two doctors of note and two southern Methodist preachers in the family, to-wit; Thomas F. was a doctor, James a preacher and a doctor also, Shelby H. is a preacher. There are but three children of this family now living; Lewis and Joseph both of Greenfield, and Shelby H. of Texas. Mary Penn died 1896 in her 88th yr. Absalom Renfro belonged to Washington Lodge No. 87, A. F. & A. M. when the lodge very first organized and was buried with Masonic honors. [Waisner file 1999.FTW]

33. JAMES SHELBURNE RENFRO (WILLIAM, WILLIAM, WILLIAM, JAMES OR WILLIAM, BARON JAMES RENFRO) was born February 14, 1818, and died June 01, 1883. He married DELIA REBECCA CALVERT, daughter of JOSEPH CALVERT and KATHERINE LOWRANCE. She was born August 28, 1821, and died October 28, 1872.

Notes for JAMES SHELBURNE RENFRO:
Marriage recorded in Maury co. marriage records, Ch, Columbia, Tenn. Also the record is found in his and his wife's bible. The bible notes her maiden name as Calvert. This couple appears on the 1850 Census of Marshall co., Tenn, the 1860 Maury co., Tenn., and the 1880 Maury co., Tenn. On the 1880 he appears with his brother Wm. James Shelburne marr 2nd Sept. 1883 to Martha Davis a widow. The marr of Sarah Jane and W.W. Toombs is recorded in the Maury co. records. Her grave stone states that she is his wife and dau of Wm and Eliza Renfro. There are several discrepancies about his age. He was the third child, the 1850 census of Marshall co. says he is 28yrs. old, the 1870 census of Maury co. gives his age as 52, and his obituary as published from a newspaper account says he was 75 at his death in 1891. The 1850 census seems more accurate with the family records. These records came from the family Bible now in the possession of J. Thomas Cotton of Knoxville, Tenn. [Waisner.FTW]

He was born February 13, 1830 in Marion county, Kentucky, and died WFT Est. 1884-1922.

Notes for CHLOE Ann Renfro:
A story about this Catholic family is that it was storming violently and they were all afraid, so Chloe grabbed the Holy water and sprinkled them all. The next morning all was well except the children had obviously been sprinkled with ink. So Francis Marion Renfro pointed out that this proved that there was no value to the Holy water. Chloe defended herself by pointing out that they had all been protected from harm. This is in the 1882 Nodaway county, Missouri history about A. L. Bickett family. Chloe was the daughter of Skelton and Mary Jane Renfro.[Waisner.FTW]

   DADE COUNTY SCHOOL DAYS BACK BEFORE THE WAR An interesting story of Old Time teachers and pupils of Honey Creek District, southern Dade co., Missouri

   DADE COUNTY SCHOOL OF YE OLDEN TIME Lewis Renfro tells of how the three "R's" were taught at Honey Creek before the war. These three articles are in the Dade county books. He enlisted in the summer of 1861 for six mo. service in Capt John M. Stemmons company, Coffey's Regiment, Raines Brigade, in the southern army. He participated in the battle of Wilson's Creek, Lexington, Lone Jack, Carthage, Cow Skin Prairie and several other small engagements. After this he moved to Texas an in March 1862 enlisted in the Conderate service for 3yrs in Company C 29th Tex Cav at Paris, Tex. This regiment was assigned to the Indian service and acted as a guard between the Indian nations and the state of Texas. During the first part of his service he was in the command of General Cooper, but later on General Gano. He participated at Greenleaf, Poison Springs and Cabin Creek. In the fall of 1863 he was transferred to Co A., 3rd Missouri Cav with Colonel Coffey's old regiment, Shelby's Brigade and which took part in all the battles of the trans-Mississippi dept, including the battles of Cow Skin Prairie, Marks Mill, Jenkins Ferry and the Price Raid in 1864 when there was fighting practically every day. Two of the largest battles in which he engaged were Westport and Mine Creek, both near KC, Mo. where the Confederates had two generals John S. Marmaduke and Gen. Cabble, captured with part of their commands. Another hard battle was fought in Newtonia, where Colonel Smith was killed. When the war closed he was a third Lieut and was made a Capt. He then went back to Texas until 1868 when he again came to Dade co., Mo. He lived on a farm near MT. Zion, in the Preston area until 1876 when he bought a farm one mi so of Greenfield. He lived til 1880 then moved to Greenfield and opened a Mercantile business until 1893 due to health. He then went into the stock cattle business. At one time he owned 1000 acres of land in Dade and Lawrence co. [Waisner file 1999.FTW]

Notes for LOUELLA MAE DUTCHEr:
Louella and Raymond were married by a Justice of the Peace in Marion county, Kansas. Raymond left Jan. 23, 1947 for the service. He never returned. When Louella went to file for a divorce there were no records. According to the Kansas Historical Society there was a Justice of the Peace who had married people who later found out he had performed the marriages illegally. My name was never changed and I was raised as a Lee. My step-father was Bennie Pinkin Lee. My mother remarried about nine years after his death to James Edward Moore. [Waisner.FTW]

[Waisner file 1999.FTW]

Notes for RAYMOND JULius OLENnUBuRGuER:
According to Louise Wolter in our telephone visit years ago, two of the Ollenburger girls were in the service. One was in the Marine band and the other in the Navy band. The last child was just graduating from high school. [Waisner.FTW]

Notes for BENNIE PINKIN LEE:
[Waisner file 1999.FTW]

Bennie and Louella were married twice. The first time was in 1949, but they had to have the marriage annulled when they found out he was not divorced from his second marriage. Then they remarried in Ft. Smith, Ark. That is why the date of Bennie Jr.'s birth is later.

The name of every person whose usual place of abode on the first day of June, 1850, was in this county. The place or town, state, county, and city of the person's birth are also noted.
Ms. Judy Waisner
Rt 2 Box 309 D
Crane, Mo. 65633

Dear Ms Waisner:

Your letter requesting a copy of the marriage license for Chloe Renfrou and Lewis Fowler, has been given to me for a reply.

In the Marriage Records for Fremont County, Iowa, as kept by the Clerk of the District Court, I did find the listing you requested. However, there is no Marriage License available.

I trust that this will be of some value to you.

Sincerely,

Robert Birkby

Soundex Coding Guide

1. The soundex code begins with the first letter of the name followed by a three digit code for the remaining letters.
2. Disregard the letters A, E, I, O, U, W, Y, and H in a name unless it is the first letter of the name.
3. For surnames that have double letters ("rr", "ss", etc.) always disregard the second letter.
4. For surnames having adjoining letters of the same soundex number, disregard all but the first adjoining letter.
5. Names with prefixes such as "Van", "Von", "De", "Di", or "Le" should be coded both with and without the prefix.
   Surnames beginning with "Mc" and "Mac" are not considered to be prefixes.
6. For short surnames that do not have three letters to code, add zeros for the remaining digits.
7. For long names, disregard coding of all remaining letters past the first three coded.

SOUNDEX CODING GUIDE

1. The soundex code begins with the first letter of the name followed by a three digit code for the remaining letters.
2. Disregard the letters A, E, I, O, U, W, Y, and H in a name unless it is the first letter of the name.
3. For surnames that have double letters ('tt', 'ss', etc.) always disregard the second letter.
4. For surnames having adjoining letters of the same soundex number, disregard all but the first adjoining letter.
5. Names with prefixes such as "Van", "Von", "De", "Di", or "Le" should be coded both with and without the prefix.
   Surnames beginning with "Mc" and "Mac" are not considered to be prefixes.
6. For short surnames that do not have three letters to code, add zeros for the remaining digits.
7. For long names, disregard coding of all remaining letters past the first three coded.

SOUNDEX CODING GUIDE

Basic Rules:

1. The soundex code begins with the first letter of the name followed by a three digit code for the remaining letters.
2. Disregard the letters A, E, I, O, U, W, Y, and H in a name unless it is the first letter of the name.
3. For surnames that have double letters ("ss", "ee", etc.) always disregard the second letter.
4. For surnames having adjoining letters of the same soundex number, disregard all but the first adjoining letter.
5. Names with prefixes such as "Van", "Von", "De", "Di", or "Le" should be coded both with and without the prefix. Surnames beginning with "Mc" and "Mac" are not considered to be prefixes.
6. For short surnames that do not have three letters to code, add zeros for the remaining digits.
7. For long names, disregard coding of all remaining letters past the first three coded.

Ms. Waisner,

I was not able to find much information concerning this family, in part due to the different surname spellings. The 1850 Gasconade census has this family under the spelling of Kar: Benjamin, 48, KY; Nancy, 38, KY; Mary, 14, IL; Albert, 12, IL; James, 8, IL; Thomas, 6, IL; William, 4, IL; Minerva, 2, MO; Tebetha, 2, MO; and Melissa, 6/12, MO. Your email letter did not list Mary and Albert as children of Benjamin and Nancy Kerr, are these children from a previous marriage? I would assume that Benjamin and Nancy appear in the 1860 census, and that James and William will appear in the 1870 census. You did not make it clear in your letter if the census is a resource you have already used to find information on this family. We do have a Gasconade Marriage Record Index and the marriage dates of James and William are listed, but under the name Carr. A check of the Gasconade Cemetery Transcription book showed only a single listing for the Kerr surname. This was for a Kerr Cemetery listed as being located in the Boulware Township (Sec. 35, Township 44N, Range 9W). The cemetery had no listing of burials and the remarks section indicated that there were no markers and no fence for the cemetery. The Missouri Surname Index did not have any citations for a Benjamin or William H. Kerr.

Descendants of Benjamin Kerr

Generation No. 1

1. BENJAMIN KERR was born 1802 in Kentucky, and died 1867 in Gasconade, Missouri. He married (1) ZERALDA ANN BARR October 27, 1835 in Winchester, Kentucky Marriage book pg 84. He married (2) NANCY ANN PALMER 1840 in Wayne, Illinois. She was born 1812 in Halifax, Virginia or Ky (1850 census), and died in Missouri.

Notes for BENJAMIN KERR:
[Kerr.ftw]

Private in the Confederate Army in Captain Garland's Company, South Arkansas Regiment at a camp near Mt. Vernon, Missouri in Lawrence County Missouri on 17 Aug 1861 for 12 months. Enlisted by Cpt. Garland (probably 17 Aug 1861). Signed with an "X". Private Erastus W. Kerr also signed up with Capt. Garland's Company on 17 August 1861 and was also in Company "B", So. Arkansas Regiment. There was a B.C. Kerr (probably Benjamin) who enlisted 10 March 1863 at Camp Wilson by Capt. Reaves for 3 years and was put into Co. "C" 8th Ark Cavalry.

In June 1863 he was assigned to Company "I", Newtons Regt., Ark Cav. 31 Dec 1863 to 29 Feb 1864 he was stationed at Camp Kirby Smith. Died 5 Apr 1865.

WASHINGTON COUNTY, ARKANSAS HISTORY BOOK, pg 1156

Benjamin Kerr's three sons were all born in Wayne County, Illinois and raised in Gasconade County, Missouri. When the Civil War came along Benjamin and his two older sons, James and Thomas joined the Confederate Army. Later his youngest son, William joined the Union Army. Benjamin died in Gasconade County in 1867 of a disease he contracted while in the army.

James, my grandfather, participated in at least one of the battles at Wilson's Creek, Mo. and it is believed that he spent some time around Fayetteville and in the western part of Madison county during the war. In March 1868 James married Mary Ellen Neely in Gasconade county, Mo. Their children: Sarah, Mary, Henry, Martha, Malissa, Ida, John Albert (my father), Arminia. Mary Ellen died of childbirth complications with a tenth child on July 10, 1889.

James remarried in 1891 in Mo. to Elizabeth. Sometime about 1895-1896 William's wife died, and he and his children and James and his family moved to Fayetteville. James, Elizabetha and their family settled in a house that was located in the vicinity of the old Bear Brand Holsey Plant, now the University of Arkansas "Engineering South" building. Albert Jefferson attended school and worked at a store on the west side of the square, until he was 13 years old, at which time, he ran away from home and went to his eldest brother, Henry, in the Indian Territory, Oklahoma, south of Tulsa.

Albert worked as a cowboy until he met, courted, and married the local school teacher, Lenore Algerine Lawrence, my mother, on Feb. 5, 1910 at Okmulgee, Oklahoma.

When Albert got married, he quit working as a cowboy and started farming. Albert and Lenore moved to Green Forest, Ark. in 1912 and lived in a small house on Lenore's parents farm. Her parents were getting old, and they had a big farm so Albert farmed their place. In 1924 they moved to Coin, Ark. about 6 miles southeast of Green Forest, to an 80 acre farm they bought. Albert farmed and raised sheep and cattle there for a number of years.
In 1926 the family moved to a 120 acre farm about 2 miles southwest of Gentry, Arkansas. The family in 1928 moved to the Vaughn community, about 8 miles west of Bentonville and remained there for 16 years. 12 children were born, 7 sons and 5 daughters. However 4 of the sons were either stillborn or died soon after birth. The 8 who lived were: Mary, Grayce, Alberta, Paul, Betty, Albert B., Jessie and Karl. Six of the 8 children that graduated from the Vaughn High School. During WWII all three of Albert's sons served in the army.

In August 1944 Albert sold his farm and he and Lenore moved back to Fayetteville. They bought a small home at 213 E. 13th street (corner of Washington Ave. and 13th St. In addition to being a farmer Albert was also a carpenter. He worked at this trade until he retired in 1960. Albert died January 28, 1967, and Lenore died February 27, 1974. Both are buried in Fairview Memorial Gardens.

KENTUCKY MARRIAGES-Springfield Library Book
BENJAMIN KERR marr to MISS ZERALDA ANN BARR in Winchester, October 27, 1835. This was the only Benjamin Kerr I found in all the Kentucky records. Maybe this was his first marriage.[Kerr.fw]

Private in the Confederate Army in Captain Garland's Company, South Arkansas Regiment at a camp near Mt. Vernon, Missouri in Lawrence County Missouri on 17 Aug 1861 for 12 months. Enlisted by Capt. Garland (probably 17 Aug 1861). Signed with an "X". Private Erastus W. Kerr also signed up with Capt. Garland's Company on 17 August 1861 and was also in Company "B", So. Arkansas Regiment. There was a B.C. Kerr (probably Benjamin) who enlisted 10 March 1863 at Camp Wilson by Capt. Reaves for 3 years and was put into Co. "C" 8th Ark Cavalry.

In June 1863 he was assigned to Company "I", Newtons Regt., Ark Cav. 31 Dec 1863 to 29 Feb 1864 he was stationed at Camp Kirby Smith. Died 5 Apr 1865.

Notes for MARTHA ADALINE KERR:
[Kerr.ftw]

Martha married Nathania (Danniel) Haupt in 1892 and had 3 daughters by him. She later married Charles Warren Welsh and they had 3 children. When she was 98 years old I wrote and asked her for some information on her family since she was the oldest living person on my grandfather's line. In response she sent me several pages of information that she dictated to her daughter Edith Haupt Vercio which has proven to be amazingly accurate considering she was so old and did it all from memory. She died a couple of years later and I was so thankful that I had written her when I did as I am sure alot of the information and stories she shared with me would have been lost if I had not asked her when I did. I have copies of these pages on file and have sent this information to many of my family members.(Sac)

Children of MARTHA KERR and CHARLES WELSH are:

She was born March 10, 1884 in Green Forest, Carroll, Arkansas, and died February 27, 1974 in Fayetteville, Washington, Arkansas.

Notes for ALBERT JEFFERSON KERR:
[Kerr.ftw]
The endowment work for Grandpa was possibly done with the town of birth being Lame's Prairie instead of Lane's Prairie, Maries County, Missouri. This needs to be checked on and corrected if it is wrong.

Baptismal information on Grandpa is in the possession of Mary Montgomery (Granny's Bible):

This certifies that in obedience to the command and in invitation of the example of our Lord Jesus Christ Mr. Albert Kerr was "buried with Him in baptism" on the 22nd day of May 1955 at Baptist Ford by Fred Huckelbery, Pastor Christ's Church of Fayetteville, Arkansas.

Grandpa died 28 Jan 1967 at the City Hospital in Fayetteville. Services were held at Moore's Chapel on 30 Jan 1967, with the Reverand Terrell G. Gordon (who later officiated at Granny's funeral) officiating. He was buried 30 Jan 1967 in Fairview Memorial Gardens in Fayetteville.

Notes for LENORE ALGERENE LAWRENCE:

Burial place of Lenore Algerene Kerr was Fairview Memorial Gardens, Fayetteville, Arkansas. Services were held at Immanuel Baptist Church, Fayetteville, 1 Mar 1974.

WASHINGTON COUNTY HISTORY BOOK family history section pg 1121

Captain Ingram, a citizen of this country was most foully murdered on Sunday last, at a meeting house near his home. He had taken his family to church and while going towards the door, a little in advance of his wife and children, a friend in human shape by the name Stone, shot him in the back, inflicting a mortal wound, but not satisfied, he fired another shot after his victim fell and then mounted his horse ad rode off.

During the late war, Captain Ingram commanded a company of Confederate Partisans, and Stone charged that Ingram killed his father at sometime during the war. Whether this is true or not, Stone is not justifiable in committing the act that he did and we trust he may be caught and pay the penalty for the terrible crime he has committed. Captain Ingram, since the close of the war had been living as a quiet and peaceable citizen, endeavoring to make support for his helpless family, and to be thus brutally murdered while entering a church with his wife and little children we think an outrage in humanity and one that should be condemned by all loves of law and justice. The meeting house was Robert's School near Sonora Community.

Rev. James Ingram now rests in a small area in the fork of two roads. Several others including a Negroe slave share his resting place. It is located north of Hickory Creek Road in Benton County.

OBITUARY IN ARKANSAS TIMES

SECORE, LUTHERA GRACE 88 of Springdale, born Nov. 29, 1892 at Hickory Creek was the daughter of Andrew and Virginia Lee Ingram Stanley. Belonged to the Baptist Church. Survivors: Kenneth Secore of Tulsa, Leona (Mrs. Gilbert Graham) of Springdale, 4 grandchildren and 2 gt grandchildren. Services at 1:30pm Sisco Chapel and burial in Hickory Creek Cemetery.

Notes for ARTHUR SECORE:
When Beaver Lake was built the graves at Hickory Creek were moved to a new site along with the graves from Oak Grove Cemetery. The name of the cemetery was changed to Stanley-Oak Grove. Moving the graves for the government were Roy Stanley and his brother in law Arthur Secor. Both men had long association with the Stanley School, Church, and Cemetery, which were located on Hickory Creek.

Arthur's daughter, Leona Secor Graham of Springdale, relates the story this way:
The land for the school, church and cemetery had been donated by her grandparents, John Andrew Stanley and Virginia Lee Ingram (his 2nd marr). One of the children Grace Stanley married Arthur Secor. They were Leona's parents.

When Grace was about 4 yrs. old, her father John Stanley died and her mother Virginia Lee remarried to Robert Edmund Smith. They lived near the Stanley School, but in 1901 their home burned, so for a time they lived in the school while they built another house.

Grace Stanley, Etta Estella and her brother Roy Stanley all attended school at Stanley, as had their older half brother and sisters, Earl, Zeno, Aria, Ella (Luella) and Clara. In time, Grace inherited the land leaving it to her children who sold it to a Beasley. It was known as the Arthur Secore Place.

The old school is found by heading from highway 71B on Ark 264 toward Hickory Creek Recreation area of the lake. The road there forks just before it reaches the recreation area. Taking the other fork, the road leads to the Stanley School site, but ends just short of that at a point where Beaver Lake begins.

Children of LUTHERA STANLEY and ARTHUR SECORE are:
17. i. ANNA LEONA5 SECORE, b. August 01, 1917.
    ii. JAMES SECORE, b. 1919.

Lupton, Arapahoe county, Colorado, death certificate #1146. He married MARTHA ANN HAMMER July 04, 1865 in St. Paul, Hennepin county, Minnesota, daughter of EZRA HAMMER and ELIZABETH DOANE. She was born August 06, 1844 in Doane, Greene county, Indiana, and died June 10, 1911 in Elkader, Logan county, Kansas.

Notes for MARTHA ANN HAMMER:
Obituary June 23, 1911:
Mrs. W. P. Dutcher dies
Mrs. W. P. Dutcher who lives near Elkader, died very suddenly from heart failure Thursday. Mrs Dutcher was sitting at the table and had been apparently in good health and without warning to those about her toppled over and was dead.
The news came as a shock to the friends of the family who were pained to learn of her sudden taking away.
The Dutcher's are well known in Logan County and have lived in the Elkader community for several years. Funeral services were held from the home this afternoon after which interment was made in the Pool Cemetery near Elkader.

He was born July 16, 1881 in McFall, Gentry county, Missouri, and died May 13, 1961 in McFall, Gentry county, Missouri.

Notes for ZORA MAMIE DUTCHER:

Marriage found December 23, 1908 to Emmett Smith, a granddaughter of W. P. Dutcher by Lillian Martin, 211 Edgerton Ave, Oakley, Kansas 67748

Obituary: Patonsburg, Missouri
Mamie Z. Dutcher Smith, 95, died Wednesday July 27, 1988 at a health care center in Kansas City, Kansas. She was born in Lincoln, Neb and was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ Latter Day Saints in Cameron, Missouri.
Surviving: several cousins
Services: 10:30 am Saturday Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Cameron, where the body will be taken at 9am. Saturday. Burial Heath Cemetery, north of Patonsburg.
Arrangements: Roberson-Polley Funeral Home, Patonsburg, where friends may call after 4 this afternoon.

I visited the cemetery and the town where Zora and her husband lived. Everyone spoke highly of them. I have also been given some sheet music she wrote by a neighbors granddaughter who knew her very well. Jeannie also has her organ, jewelry, and some of her dishes. Jeannie said Zora had become blind after her husband died and had to have a lady stay with her. The church found a lady that needed money in the church and hired her to take care of Zora. Everything was going okay until the lady met a man and wanted to move to Kansas City, Kansas. The people in Cameron said the lady and man sold everything that Zora had, telling her that they could not move the furniture, took the money and Zora to Kansas where they put her in a nursing home and left her. She died there and the church paid for the funeral and to be able to bring her back to Missouri to be buried by her husband. Jeannie's grandparents lived next door to Zora and her husband and bought the items she has at her auction.

The story Jeannie and Joan told me is that Zora searched for her family all of her life. She returned to all the places she knew her family had lived when she was young. Zora disappeared when she was 2 yrs. old from the wagon train and was never seen again by her parents. Several family stories have been told about this disappearance. Zora was told by her grandparents that her parents were killed by the Indians in Oklahoma, which was not true. The parents were living in Nebraska 100 miles from the grandparents at one time. Grandpa Dutcher (Benjamin F.) looked for her his whole life. One story told to me is that just before he died, he called him in the hospital according to him. I doubt this, but no one knows for sure.

Jeannie said Zora always said she was the only person who did not have a family. Part of the Mormon belief is that you do the family history so when you die you will have your family all together in heaven. She left enough information to get us started on the research, but still a lot of dead ends. [Waisner file 1999. FTW]

According to her close friends in Cameron and McFall, Zora was told her father was sick and told by the doctor in St. Joe, Mo. to move to a different climate. Zora was also sick and was given to her grandparents to take care of her. She was told her parents moved to Oklahoma and were killed by the Indians. She never heard from them again.

According to the Dutcher family, Zora was kidnapped one night on the wagon train at St. Joe, Mo. by her grandparents who had an argument with Wm F. Dutcher and told the night guard they were returning to the "old country". According to grandma Hannah, granny Dutcher (Bertha) told her that grandpa Dutcher had sold her to the gypsies, because she was born with a veil over her face and could foresee the future. According to Ozark folklore, the veil is to be dried and kept by the person it belongs to or they will have bad luck. Louella Dutcher says she can remember granny telling her that they took it away from Zora several times and buried it and she would always find it again. Zora searched for her family, but never found them. In 1900, I found Zora with her grandparents in Kearney, Neb. only 100 miles from her parents who were in Hastings, Neb. Benjamin F. Dutcher, her brother searched for her too, but never found her. Zora was very talented and wrote songs that were published according to her friends. She played the organ, and was a member of the Methodist church and later joined the LDS church. Zora was blind in her later years and was taken care of by a woman who later moved her to KC, Kansas where she died. She was brought back to McFall, Mo. and buried in the Heath Cemetery beside her husband Asa Smith. This info was given to me by her good friend and neighbor Jeannie Severe.
LUELLA STANLEY & EDWARD LEWIS FOWLER

(Mrs. Jack) in Cameron, Mo. Her parents and grandparents were good friends and neighbors of Zora’s. I also received a lot of help from Donna in McFall, who went all over town trying to find out information on Zora and Asa for me. The name Lavera Lowrey maybe related somehow too.

Mamie had a hard life with no parents, losing her two children, two husbands dying and being taken away from all of her friends before she died, and not being able to find her two brothers and parents must have left a real gap in her life. Now she will be with her family she never knew, in Heaven.

He was born September 25, 1928 in Mountainburg, Crawford county, Arkansas.

Notes for LOUELLA MAE DUTCHER:
Louella and Raymond were married by a Justice of the Peace in Marion county, Kansas. Raymond left Jan. 23, 1947 for the service. He never returned. When Louella went to file for a divorce there were no records. According to the Kansas Historical Society there was a Justice of the Peace who had married people who later found out he had performed the marriages illegally. My name was never changed and I was raised as a Lee. My step-father was Bennie Pinkin Lee. My mother remarried about nine years after his death to James Edward Moore. [Waisner.FTW]

[Waisner file 1999.FTW]

Notes for RAYMOND JULIUS OLLENBURGER:
According to Louise Wolter in our telephone visit years ago, two of the Ollenburger girls were in the service. One was in the Marine band and the other in the Navy band. The last child was just graduating from high school. [Waisner.FTW]

Notes for BENNIE PINKIN LEE:
[Waisner file 1999.FTW]

Bennie and Louella were married twice. The first time was in 1949, but they had to have the marriage annulled when they found out he was not divorced from his second marriage. Then they remarried in Ft. Smith, Ark. That is why the date of Bennie Jr.'s birth is later.
