This Registry is a project of the GANN FAMILY HISTORICAL SOCIETY to computerize data received regarding Gann family relationships. The purpose of this project is to enable GANN researchers to make family connections and to correct previously submitted information.

The information in the Gann Family Registry is received in many forms: Letters, family group sheets, computer disks, etc. As some sources for compilation of this Registry were not cited or verified, the information should be considered speculative until proven otherwise. This Registry also contains any notes submitted along with the family statistics. The number preceding the individual's name in the book is the computer assigned record identification number. If you have corrections or additions to this Registry, please use this assigned number, if possible, when submitting your corrections or additions to material already published.

This book is not prepared in a final edition. Since its inception, four editions have been presented. It is only a rough draft for use as an aid in your research and for reference. There are many abbreviations to conserve space. Also, time does not permit thorough proofreading.

This Registry is divided into two Sections in two Volumes. The individuals listed in Section I are descendants by family lines from the common ancestor, Samuel Gann. Individuals are listed in Section II by descendants from the earliest known ancestor of each family.

The descendants are listed from the eldest child followed to the most recent before the second oldest is begun. Preceding each name is the "Record Identification Number" assigned by the computer program in the order entered into the data file. The numbers used in this book is a means to easily search for individuals and make corrections to the file. The June 1991 edition contained 5,788 individuals; by June 1992 11,360 individuals (5,572 increase); by June 1993, 17,474 individuals (6,114 increase); by June 30, 1994, 21,219 individuals (3,745 increase) and as of May 1, 1995, 26,136 have been entered (4,917 increase) into the Gann Family Registry. It is interesting to note the numbers assigned to individuals in a family group. It reflects that, as each issued is updated, researchers have added the names of children to a family. For instance, on page 1 in the family of Samuel and Elizabeth Gann, John was not added until the 1993 third issue. Also on page 55 in the family of Thomas Jefferson Gann only one child, Rebecca, was listed in the 1991 first issue, and seven more children were added in the 1993 third issue. There are also many other corrections to individuals and families added.

The individual information and notes are entered into the Personal Ancestral File\(^1\) (PAF) software program. The program Forest\(^2\) was used to check the Family Record files and identify which families are descendants from a common ancestor. The program \textsc{KInPublish}\(^3\) was used to prepare the report from data in the PAF files into \textsc{WordPerfect}\(^4\) format for editing, generating the index and printing.

Registrar, The Gann Family Historical Society
If the love of genealogy were a disease, it might be determined that the Gann family nation-wide is highly susceptible. There have been Gann descendants nosing into musty old files in courthouses and libraries for almost half a century now. In 1988 a group of Gann descendants began to explore the possibility of forming a national family organization with the purpose of furthering research into family history and to exchange and preserve the results of that research. An organizing committee was formed that included Rick Gann of New Castle, Indiana, Wilma and Rex Finley of Wichita, Kansas, and Betty Gann Ainsworth, Gary Toms and William R. (Bill) Gann of Independence, Missouri. Coincidentally, at about the same time, Dick Fox of Sour Lake, Texas began to publish a Gann Newsletter. On June 23-24, 1989, the first meeting of what came to be the Gann Family Historical Society was held in Johnson City, Tennessee, which was chosen because of its proximity to the spot where Adam Gann and his son, Nathan Gann, and their families had settled in Washington County, Tennessee. In Johnson City it was decided that there was, indeed, enough interest to sustain a national organization. A Gann Family Gathering has been held on the fourth weekend of June in each of the years since 1989. The second gathering was held in 1990 in Kansas City, Missouri, the third, 1991, in Knoxville, Tennessee, the fourth, 1992, in Dallas-Ft. Worth, Texas, the fifth, 1993, in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, the sixth, 1994, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and the 1995 seventh gathering to be held in Murfreesboro, Tennessee.

While the Gann Family Historical Society was still in the process of organizing, while a constitution and by-laws were being written and adopted, and while the base membership was being established, Joy Gann Brown assumed the responsibility of Society leadership. In 1991 when the first election was held, Jerry Gann, Maryland, was elected President, Carolyn Huston, Missouri, Vice President, Laura Gann, Oklahoma, Secretary, and William Mantooth, Missouri, Treasurer. After that election, Carolyn Huston resigned her position and Raymond Gann, Oklahoma, became Vice President. New officers were elected at the 1993 Gathering: Paul Butler of Missouri, President; Robert B. Gann of Georgia, Vice President; Laura Gann of Oklahoma, Secretary, and William Mantooth of Missouri, Treasurer. These officers, plus a dedicated Board of Directors, have made it their mission to see that the Gann Family Historical Society has a firm foundation and is steered in the right direction.

Members of the Gann Family Historical Society are proud of what they have already been able to accomplish and look forward to continued success and growth. An informative newsletter, called the Gann Gazette, is published quarterly under the editorship of William R. (Bill) Gann and Gary Toms. Marie Gann Dryden gathers data, maintains a computer file and publishes a Gann Family Registry which now includes over 26,000 individuals. Nina Graham is Archives Director and as such collects and stores artifacts connected with the Ganns. Carolyn Gann Dufrene, 106 Tudor Street, Pineville, Louisiana 71360, is the Membership Chairman and keeps track of the steadily increasing membership. Errol Gann, Virginia, has assumed the duty of Director of Historical Sites and his goal is to discover and evaluate sites of interest and significance to the Gann Family and to help determine what can be done to restore and maintain these sites. Jerry D. Gann, Maryland, has assumed the office of Director of Publications.

As you can see, we have done a lot, but much remains to be done. If you are not already a member of The Gann Family Historical Society, we invite you to join with us in our quest for information about the family and our effort to record, restore, maintain and disseminate our findings.

GANNS ACROSS THE SEAS

The name Gann is a medieval one which probably originated in France, where it was spelled Ganne but pronounced Gahn. At present we are investigating the possibility that the family originated in the area of a small village called Gannes that is located about forty miles north of Paris.

If, indeed, the family did originate in Gannes, France, some members must have left the area at an early date, for by 1276 AD we know that there was a Lammekin Ganne living in Calais, a city on the northwestern coast of France. Also, by the 1500s there were Gannes living in Flanders along the present-day border of France and Belgium, in the towns of Poperinge and Armentieres. The Gannes of that area were Flemish speaking and followed the trades of weaving, farming and fishing.

The Protestant movement took root in Flanders at an early date. Ganne family members were among the early converts with some members of the family leaving the Catholic Church by the 1550s. When the Spanish monarchs, who at that time ruled over the Lowlands, sought to stamp out the Protestant movement (which they viewed as heresy), there was a large outmigration from the area to several different countries. Most of those leaving their homes went to the countries of Germany and England. We know that there were some Flemish Gannes who sought refuge in England during this period, and we think that some may have also gone to Germany.

Joos Ganne appears to have been the first of that name to leave Flanders to settle in England. He was a member of the Dutch Church in London in the year 1560. Sometime between July 1561 and September 1563, Joos moved to the little port town of Sandwich located in Kent in southeastern England. Joos was a silk weaver. In 1567 two more Ganne men, Frans Ganne and Pieter Ganne, are listed among the refugees living in Sandwich. We do not know if these men were of the same family, nor do we know what happened to Joos. Both Pieter and Frans Ganne were still living in Sandwich in 1573. Pieter may have moved to Norwich, England and one of his descendants may later have moved to Holland.

On April 3, 1625 in the town of Leiden, there is a record of a betrothal between a Pieter Ganne from Norwich, widower of Susanna Verhulst, and a lane worker (a particular kind of weaver), and Hester Enter, widow of Samuel Provoost. Francis Ganne, probably the same man who was called Frans Ganne in Sandwich, must have moved to Colchester, England (located just northeast of London) by 1590 for his name begins to show up among that city's records during that year. In fact, there were two heads of families of that name listed in the Colchester Parish of All Saints Church, Colchester. A knowledgeable English historian asserts that there can be no doubt that the names Ganne and Gonner were recorded interchangeably at this time due to the way the name was then pronounced. While a few Gannes continued to live in Colchester for the next 125 years, many family members appear to have left the area around 1660, possibly migrating to America or perhaps returning to their homeland. Interestingly, during the late 1600s and early 1700s, there were at least three Ganne couples living in Colchester whose given names were Samuel and Elizabeth.

In 1622 a John Ganne shows up in the Sandwich records, and it is thought that this man may have been the very first Ganne to migrate to the new American colonies. Well into the 20th century, there was a Gann family living on Long Island, New York, in the East Hampton area, whose family tradition said that their original ancestor was a John Gann who had come to New England around 1635 with Lord Lion Gardiner. Available records do not show a John Gann on the ship that brought Gardiner and his family to the New World. Perhaps, John arrived just before or just after Gardiner, for it does appear that there was a long-time association between the two. There are no Ganns living in the East Hampton area now and recent attempts to secure more information about the family have proved unsuccessful.

Moving south, we find evidence that there was another John Gann in St. Mary's County, Maryland in the year 1710. In that year he witnessed the last Will and Testament of a Solomon Jones. This John appears to have died by the year 1717, and we have been unable to discover anything further about him or any family that may have been his.
GANNS IN THE AMERICAN COLONIES

In the Valley of Virginia, we find Ganns in Frederick County by the year 1747. Their names, listed chronologically as they appear in that county's court records, were Nathan, Saml, John, Samuel, Clement, Isaac, Elizabeth and Adam Gann, or as it is sometimes recorded, Gan. The exact relationship of these individuals is unknown, but the currently accepted hypothesis is that that they were all one family with Samuel and Elizabeth being the parents and Nathan, John and Adam being their sons. Samuel, the father, appears to have died between 1755 and 1760. Years later in 1836 when he filed an application for a pension for service in the Revolutionary War, another Samuel Gann, probably the youngest son of the Virginia family we are looking at here (but one for whom no Virginia records exist), states that he was born in Frederick County, Virginia around the year 1748 and about 15 miles from the town of Winchester.

Sometime in the decade of the 1760s, the Virginia Gann family migrated south, settling near the North Carolina/Virginia border at various points along the Dan River. There is evidence to indicate that at one time they all lived relatively close together within the boundaries of then Guilford County, North Carolina. In September 1776, Adam Gann and his family bought land in Halifax County, Virginia. After living there for two years, Adam sold a part of his Virginia land, and he and some members of his family moved west, over the mountains, to Washington County, Tennessee. It is thought that about the same time, brother Nathan Gann and his family moved south to the State of Georgia.

Remaining in North Carolina were two of the Gann brothers (believed), John and Samuel. John Gann died in Stokes County, North Carolina about 1817 leaving no known descendants. Samuel Gann, recorded as brother on the Inventory of John's Estate, was sole recipient of the proceeds from the sale of the Estate which amounted to $27.17. The Ganns who can trace their roots back to Rockingham and Stokes Counties, North Carolina, descend from this particular Samuel Gann who married "Polly" Sharp in 1772.

In Tennessee, Adam's family prospered and multiplied so that today his descendants live not only in Tennessee, but can be found in most of the other 49 states as well. The Georgia Gann family, whose patriarch is believed to have been Nathan, has also thrived, and while Nathan's descendants are not so numerous as Adam's, they are many and are spread far and wide. North Carolina Samuel Gann's descendants are not so abundant, and interestingly, they have tended to stay put more than the descendants of either Adam or Nathan Gann. There are many, many Gann descendants living today in western Rockingham County within a ten-mile radius of where old Samuel lived. Very few of Samuel's descendants have chosen to make their home outside the piedmont area of North Carolina.

We should mention records of two additional sets of Ganns that do not appear to be related, at least in America, to any of those already mentioned. Though there are few, if any, Ganns living in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania today, for well over a century there were Ganns in that area. Their forebearer is thought to have been a John Gann whose name appears on a listing of Naturalization of Foreign Protestants in the American and West Indian Colonies in the year 1765. Under the heading "Quakers and Other Protestants Who Scruple to Take an Oath," this listing appears: "Affirmer, John Gann; Township Upper Saucon; County Northampton." A 20th century history of Lycoming County, Pennsylvania, indicates that this family moved from Northampton to Lycoming County. In the 19th century, members of this family moved into Ohio and Missouri. This John Gann's origin is unknown.

In the 1750s there were other Gann immigrants to Pennsylvania, immigrants from Germany as follows: Fridrick, Thomas, and Johannes Gan(s) who arrived in Philadelphia in 1750, and Christopher and Casper Gann who arrived at the same port in 1754. Hans Jerg Gann was also a German immigrant to Pennsylvania. It is known that Hans Jerg's family came from Ostelsheim in the Alsace-Lorraine; and it is thought, but not proved, that the other German Ganns originated in that area also. While a few Pennsylvania records exist for the late 18th century for individuals thought to have descended from these men, the number is very small, and those that we do find seem to have come from Christopher's line. What surname of some of those individuals was really Gans, Ganz or Gantz, while appearing as Gann on the notoriously incorrect passenger lists. Variations of this surname are much more frequently found in Germany than is Gann.

SECTION I

DESCENDANTS OF SAMUEL GANN #3230

These Gann families have been determined to be or presumed to be descendants of Samuel Gann #3230 and his wife Elizabeth. More information is needed of this family in Virginia and earlier.
CHAPTER ONE - SAMUEL #3230 AND ELIZABETH GANN

(3230) Samuel Gann married Elizabeth. Samuel died before 1762 in Frederick Co, VA and was buried in VA. Elizabeth died after 1762 in Rockingham Co, NC.

Children:
+ 2445 i Adam Gann was born 1727/1735. See Chapter Two for descendants
+ 3232 ii Nathan Gann was born about 1729. See Chapter Ten for descendants
+ 3234 iii Clement Gann was born about 1733, probably in Frederick Co, VA. Clement went to North Carolina and then to Tennessee, but little is known of him.
13174 iv John Gann was born about 1736/1738. John died 1817 in Stokes Co, NC. John probably remained in North Carolina. He is assumed to be the same John who missed a militia call in Virginia in 1758, signed a petition in North Carolina in 1771, bought and sold land in Guilford Co., NC, and finally died without descendants according to his estate in 1817. It is recorded that all of his estate were to go to his brother, Samuel #3236.

The following from Aaron F. Gann, Hixson, TN; Daniel McGee Gann was born about 1797 in North Carolina. His parents whose name was McGee were passengers on a ship bound for the United States. His father became ill and died, and Daniel McGee was born after his mother arrived in the States. Daniel's mother died when he was young, and he was adopted and raised by a Gann. Daniel Gann married Charlotte ? about 1810. They had eight children listed in the 1850 and 1860 Federal census. There were three females and one male listed in the 1840 census that weren't in the later census. It is possible they might have had twelve children. After the 1860 census, the family left Marion County and I do not know where they went, except for one of his sons, John Gann was married and living in Fackler, AL in the 1870 census. I do not know when Daniel Gann died or where he is buried. I have no information on his children except John.

Paraboom, who was born 22 Jun 1926 in Contact, NV. They were later divorced. Norman James was also married to Barbara Arlene Addison.

Freda Faye was born in 1933 at Mosca, CO and attended school in Colorado. In Colorado, I worked as a waitress at different cafes. I used to go to rodeos a lot and liked to dance. My oldest daughter, Lois Ann, was born at Alamosa, CO. We moved to California in 1954 because of my father's heart condition. I helped in the hay, which my sister and brother-in-law ran a business, cutting, baling and hauling hay. I met my husband, Weybern Nunnelley when he was working for them also. We were married Nov. 7 1960 at Virginia City, NV. We didn't find out until 1960 that Weybern's first wife had never picked up their final divorce papers and she had also remarried. So that is why the wedding date of 1960. Gary was born in 1952 at Redding, CA. Later we lived in Oklahoma and our daughter Beverly was born at Holdenville, OK. While in Oklahoma Cotton worked for different oil companies as a roughneck on drilling rigs. We moved back to California, and Marvin Dale and Barbara Arlene were both born at Susanville, CA. Cotton, as he is nicknamed, worked in the sawmill there. Later we moved to Anderson and he worked in a sawmill there. Then we had a chance to move to Reno, NV, so we did and Cotton helped my cousin Orville Doll haul new Volkswagons right off the ship at the docks at San Francisco, CA to Reno, NV to the dealership there. They also delivered cars to Salt Lake City, UT and Denver, CO. We moved back to Anderson and have lived in the same house since moving here. We have a 5-acre place, so have a few head of cows on it. Cotton worked at different jobs after we moved back here. I baby sit for different people and worked for the county in their in-home service program taking care of people in their home. I took care of my mother for 6 years until my health got so bad in 1989 that the doctor had me stop work. Cotton had his back hurt, and had it operated on 3 times so he is also retired. I have attended the Assembly of God Church in Anderson since 1963 when I was saved. Our church, along with 6 other churches, has a food bank at Anderson to help people with food for whatever reason they run out. We have it at least once a month. The food bank is open Tuesday and Fridays each week, and at Thanksgiving and Christmas they give out food to the ones who sign up ahead of time. They also give toys at Christmas so the children in the family will have something. I feel like it is worthwhile cause to help people and most who work there are blessed. Even though Cotton doesn't go to church very often he helps our church at the food bank.

She attended kindergarten at Susanville, CA and the rest of her school years, who sent to Anderson and graduated from Anderson High School. Right after she got out of school at mid-term, she went to work for K-Mart and worked there for several years. That is where she met Ron Jones. Then she left K-Mart and went to work for Payless Drug Store. Then they decided to go on a job to Carlsbad, NM, were gone a few months, and decided to move back to Redding, where they owned a house. Beverly went back to work for Payless and is still there. Ron works for Larson's Furniture. Beverly was named employee of the year along with one other lady. She was very proud of the award. She works hard on her job, and at home also. She is always busy at something, even takes the time to be with her nieces and nephews, as they have no children of their own. When they bought the property that they live on, it was just bare ground, so they bought a new 3-bedroom mobile home, and put it there. This last summer they built a deck on the mobile, and the summer before they built a 2-story garage. They want to build a barn and some corrals yet, and then will be pretty well done by then.

Lois worked in a couple beauty shops and then worked as a clerk at an art gallery. She also worked at Round Table Pizza Parlor. The boys keep her busy now so she doesn't work any where. Kevin works for Lumberjack and works on Volkswagons and other cars in his free time, also goes to swap meets. Kevin likes to play basketball, and Robert, who is almost 4, likes to play it and watch it on TV like his Dad. And when Thomas gets old enough he will probably like it also. From the Gann Gazette, Issue #27, Fall 1994. Frankie Belle Gann was born on a farm southwest of Odessa, Missouri, the daughter of Robert Benton and Effie Elizabeth (Bogar) Gann, both of whom were life-long residents of Lafayette County, Missouri. Frankie a young school teacher in Missouri, took a summer job as one of the famous "Harvey girls." Working in one of the Fred Harvey restaurants at the Grand Canyon, she met her future husband, G. C. McKinnie, an engineer for Santa Fe Railroad. After his death, Frankie married James Brock. Now retired, Frankie and Jim Brock live in Albuquerque, New Mexico. During her high school days, Frankie Belle began a close and life-long friendship with Elsie Starke (now Mrs. Ralph Porter). Both Frankie and Elsie played basketball; Frankie played center because she was tall, and Elsie played running center. Frankie lived "in town" and Elsie lived in the country, so when the weather was really bad, Elsie would stay overnight with Frankie's family. In those days, the Monday night movie cost ten cents and it was dish night, too—but didn't break their prize dishes! Elsie tells the Gann Gazette in a telephone interview from her home in Higginsville, Missouri that she and Frankie shared their thoughts and hopes and agreed on just about everything...except politics! Frankie was a "dyed-in-the-wood" Democrat and Elsie a "staunch Republican." Elsie remembers when she and Frankie were on the school bus to a basketball game, completely absorbed in the upcoming 1928 presidential election: Al Smith vs. Herbert Hoover...it was a very serious conversation! In high school, both girls took homemaking classes together and both took the two-year teacher training course which made them eligible to begin teaching in country schools upon graduation from high school. Frankie graduated from Higginsville (Mo) High School in 1929 and then attended Central Missouri State College, Warrensburg, Missouri from which she earned a Teacher's Certificate for life. Her first teaching position in 1929 was in Johnson County, Mo. at a salary of $70 for eight months. In 1933 "Miss Frankie" began teaching at Walnut Row School, a rural one-room school house in the Odessa area. Her salary was raised to a whopping $150 per year! Aunt Frankie Remembers...by Frankie Belle Brock of Albuquerque, New Mexico. Over the years I have stored away a rich lode of inner resources to enable me to enjoy my own company! As I sit and think, I seem to go back to my very early age—even though later years were very happy, too. As she was to tell me later, my mother cried when I was born on August 4, 1910, because I was a girl; she wanted all boys. My father said, "Now listen here, we need a little girl. We'll give her a boy's name and add 'Belle,' for her grandmother Belle Bogar." Many years later my mother said to my father, "Wasn't that silly of me—when Frankie has brought so much pleasure to us." When I was around two years of age—just could walk or hobble—I was out in our yard and looked across a plowed field. There was a tiny pup that could just barely walk, coming across the field. I met him and carried him into our house, and mother said my first words were "Baby Child." So that was my little dog's name. It turned out that some neighbors had moved and left him behind. From that day on, "Baby Child" was at my heels; we shared everything. He lived to be 13 years of age; he died when I was visiting my grandparents during Thanksgiving. My two younger brothers, Lloyd and Louis, buried him and when I returned home, I ran to his grave and there was a little foot sticks up out of the frozen ground! So of course, I was very upset. I was the only girl with two older and two younger brothers. "Ted," being five years older, had been the baby of the family. So when I was born, he was not very happy. That's why, as kids, we were always in a fuss about everything! But in our older days, he was the best friend a sister could ever have. Our family's Christmas time was always a very happy time—me getting dolls until I had fourteen—the boys getting ice skates, sleds, balls, new clothing, everything boys would like. I remember how I'd dress and undress my dolls—and change their diapers. Then one day I changed this one doll and Ted had put yellow egg yolk in the diaper. Of course, I screamed and cried! My mother said, "Ted, why in the world would you do such a thing?" He replied, "Oh, I get so tired seeing Sis changing diapers, I thought I'd give her something to really do!" Still today, I have my doll buggy that Santa brought me when I was four years old. It had a beautiful doll in it with a red satin dress and hat.

The following from a newspaper clipping: Revenge Plot Ends 3 Lives. Estranged Husband Kills Wife and Father-in-Law. Takes Own Life. Odessa, Mo., Sept. 5 --(UP) A revenge plot which festered in the brain of the plotter for 7 months bore fruit Saturday in two murders and a suicide. The murder victims were Police Judge Thomas L. Gann, 65, politically prominent and well-to-do, and his 36-year-old daughter, Mrs. Annette Gann McElfish. The plotter, dead of his own hand, was the judge's one-armed son-in-law, Arthur W. McElfish, 40. Mrs. McElfish's 10-year-old daughter by a former marriage, Vivian, and Leonard Alkire, a truck driver, witnessed the killing which occurred at a farmhouse owned by the judge, where Mrs. McElfish and Vivian lived. 1880 Fed census, Center, Buchanan Co., MO, 4-74-8-40: Samuel A. 60 b TN, Martha A. 47, Frances A. 19, Julia M. 18, Robert L. 11, Josifren 8, Anthony 6, Florence H. 6/12, all b MO. From History of Buchanan and Clinton Counties, Mo. 1893, Pg 144: Samuel A. Gann, a retired agriculturist and real estate owner of St. Joseph, is a veteran of the Mexican War, in which he did valiant service, and is one of the very oldest settlers of the Platte Purchase. Our subject was born in eastern Tennessee, in Washington County, twelve miles from Jonesboro, January 12, 1819. His father, Isaac, was also born in that locality, where his father, Nathan, a native of Scotland, was an early settler and a large plantation owner. The latter was captain in the Revolutionary War and died in Tennessee. Our subject's father, who took part in the war of 1812, was a farmer by occupation and in 1832 removed with his family from Tennessee to Missouri. In the spring of 1833 he made the distance on horseback of over one thousand miles, locating in the southern part of Lafayette County on a good farm of one hundred and sixty acres. After raising one crop there he settled on a larger farm in Johnson County, and in 1838 bought a claim of one hundred and sixty acres in Buchanan County, where his death occurred some eight years later, he then having reached his sixty-second year. Politically he was a Democrat, and in his native state was united in marriage with Ann Clark, whose father was a silversmith and a Lieutenant in the Revolutionary War. Mrs. Gann did not long survive her husband, passing away some seven weeks after his death. In a family of thirteen children, twelve grew to mature years and only three are living, our subject being the ninth in order of birth. He was reared on the old Tennessee homestead until his fourth year, when his father located in Newport, Tenn. He had no school advantages, and in 1833 made the journey to Missouri on horseback. Five years later he became a resident of Buchanan County, where wild game and Indians were still numerous. He had frequent visits from the Sioux, Fox and Kickapoo Indians, and learned to speak some of their languages. In 1839 he went on a prospecting tour to Texas, going through Arkansas on horseback. He was made overseer on a large plantation near Jefferson, where he was for eight months. In 1846 Mr. Gann, after his return home, volunteered and enlisted in the Mexican War, under Capt. Jesse Moran, of Platte County. He was mustered in and drilled at Leavenworth, and on August 9 started on a six weeks' march to Santa Fe, joining Price. He took part in many important battles of the campaign, often fighting with the bayonet hand to hand. In the battle of July 6, 1847, they lost about one-eighth of their men, as the United States troops fought under great disadvantages. Our subject was made Corporal, and was mustered out in the fall of 1847. Previous to the war Mr. Gann had owned an eighty-acre farm, which he sold before his return and then purchased one of about the same size in Crawford Township, where he built a log house and engaged in farming until 1849, when he started for California, with oxen and wagons, going by way of Fort Kearney and the North Platte. Later he traded his outfit for mules. When crossing the Humboldt Range he nearly starved to death, and on the South Platte was obliged to fight the Indians. On his arrival at his destination he obtained employment at teaming for $10 per day, which business he left after a while, engaging in trading stock. Going to the southern part of the state he bought and rove stock and engaged in freighting. In 1850 Mr. Gann opened a store on Deer Creek, at Nevada City, which, after running it nine days, he sold for more than he had invested, and had moreover sold $900 worth of goods. He then opened a store on Yuba river, where he continued successfully, and next invested in cattle, selling them to good advantage. He returned to Missouri in steamers by way of the Isthmus and New Orleans to St. Louis. In 1853 he went to Texas in a wagon, locating within twenty-one miles of Astin, where he purchased three hundred acres of land, and for the following three years engaged in raising cotton. In 1856 he returned to this county, buying land in Crawford Township, where he has since been engaged in agricultural pursuits. He was an extensive dealer in land during all these years, owning at one time eight hundred acres, three hundred of which was within five miles of the city and well improved. In 1888 he retired from business cares, and has since made his home at No. 2019 Edmond street. In Texas, on May 20, 1854, Mr. Gann and Miss Martha Brooks were married. The lady was born in Johnson County, Mo., where she was reared, and removed to Texas with her father, John Brooks, who was a farmer. Of the eleven children born to our worthy subject and wife, only six survived to reach mature years, and only three are now living. Breckenridge, Robert E. Lee and Frances (the wife of J. W. Mitchell) are all deceased. Victoria, the wife of Samuel Crumpley, lives in St. Joseph; Julia is the wife of John A. Flournoy, a lawyer of this city, who was born in Ray County, where he studied law under Col. John Coniphan, being admitted to the bar in 1890. Josephine, who lives at home, completes the family. In 1887 our subject was waylaid on the night of August 18 when he had gone some sixty yards from his door to get a bucket of water. When under the shadow of the trees he was accosted by two men armed with revolvers. Though he was shot twice through the lungs he belabored them with the bucket and succeeded in gaining the mastery. Mr. Gann formerly raised blooded horses, and for some time was engaged in packing and shipping pork. For nine years he was School Trustee and was at one time Supervisor of Roads. In politics he is a Democrat, having been a delegate to several conventions, and fraternally is a Royal Arch Mason.

From History of Buchanan & Clinton Co's Mo., 1893, Pg 497: Elbert S. Gann. The life of this gentleman, of which we give a brief outline, affords an illustration of the power of courage and industry in enabling a man to overcome difficulties of no ordinary kind. He was ten years of age when he came to this county and as his father was in limited circumstances he was not allowed to attend school (there being no schools or churches), but thus early in life began making his own way in the world. He labored untiringly, undaunted by the many obstacles that beset his path, and as the years went by, invested his earnings, and now, as a reward of his efforts, has gained prosperity. He owns considerable real estate and is numbered among the most successful farmers of Washington Township, Buchanan County, his home being located on Section 28. The parents of our subject, Isaac and Annie (Clark) Gann, were natives of Tennessee, the father's birth occurring in 1782. Isaac Gann, during the Seminole War, enlisted as a soldier and with his company was engaged in service in the swamps of Florida. In his native state he met and married Miss Clark and made his home there until 1834, when they removed to this state and for a short time resided in La Fayette County, a short distance from Green Town. Later they made their way to Davis Creek, in the same county, and in 1838 became identified with the residents of Buchanan County, their home being situated within one mile of Pottawatomie village. His new claim consisted of raw prairie land upon which he erected a log cabin and began the work of improvement and cultivation, being enabled before his death to place thirty-five acres under the plow. The parents died within two months of each other, the father passing away in August 1846, and the mother in October of that year. Of the twelve children born to Isaac and Annie Gann, three are now living, the brother and sister of our subject being Samuel A. and Susan, the latter of whom makes her home in Bolen, Kans. Elbert S. Gann was the youngest of the large family, his birth occurring May 3, 1828, in Cooke County, Tenn. As before stated, he was unable to attend school, but remained at home assisting his father in clearing their new land until reaching his seventeenth year when he offered his services to the Government as a teamster in the Mexican War, starting from Fort Leavenworth June 7, 1846, his destination being Fort Bentz, N. Mex. Later, returning to Fort Leavenworth, he was discharged the following year, and entering the Oregon Battalion as a teamster, went to Table Creek, Neb., where the train went into winter quarters. The following spring, the soldiery being ordered against the Indians in North Dakota, young Gann accompanied them as far as Fort Vermillion, where they were engaged in conflict until December. Again taking up their quarters at Table Creek, our subject was discharged, together with his fellows, and returned home. The two succeeding years following his return to civil life our subject was engaged in farming, but in 1850 made his way across the plains with an ox team to Sacramento City, the trip consuming four and one-half months. After working in the mines a short time he found that business was not a paying one in that locality, and opening up a small farm in the valley sought to try his fortunes in cultivating the soil. Finding that venture unsuccessful, he engaged to work in the extreme northern mines on the Trinity and Shasta rivers, where he remained for eight months. Returning home at the expiration of that time, the vessel on which he embarked was wrecked between Sacramento and Acapulco. Mr. Gann and twenty-eight others left the ship and made their way from the latter place to the City of Mexico and thence through the mountains on horseback to Vera Cruz, where they engaged passage to New Orleans and were again wrecked, lying out thirteen days and nights. Finally reaching the Crescent city, Mr. Gann came home by way of St. Louis. The following year, however, he went to Texas, Mississippi and Louisiana with a drove of horses, which trip ended his desire for travel, and since that time he has been engaged in farming. Purchasing the property adjoining the estate of his father, Mr. Gann there made his home until 1863, when he took up his abode in Center Township. After a residence there of twelve years he located on Section 28. He has five hundred acres of splendidly unproved land in Center and Washington Townships. The lady who in 1849 became the wife of Mr. Gann was Miss Polly, the daughter of Samuel D. Ferrill, who had the honor of being Colonel of the first regiment ever mustered in Buchanan County. Mrs. Gann was born in Clay County, this state, in 1832, and after having become the mother of five children, departed this life August 1, 1864. The family included the following named: Samuel D., who married Emma McCauley, is the father of seven children; S. Ellen, who is the wife of W. P. Samson, has six children; Bettie J. (she is now deceased), who married George B. McCauley, was the mother of two children; George I. married Emma Montgomery; William T., who is the husband of Alice Roberts, has four children. Mr. Gann is prominent in Masonic circles, having been a member of that order for the past twenty-eight years. He is one of the best known members of the farming community in this section and enjoys the respect and esteem of all who know him. He takes little interest in politics, but during the Civil War was a member of the Paw Paw Militia.

Nancy J. died 15 Nov 1920 in Akins, OK.

Nancy received a Dawes commission allotment of approximately 90 acres located north of Salisaw near Akins. How Nancy's allotment land was lost is a sad story. In 1918, Charlie and Nancy took out a mortgage on her land and borrowed 4900. It is believed that they needed the money to open a dry goods store in Salisaw. One of the two photos of Charlie was taken in the store. After Nancy died, Charlie was apparently unable to not only repay the mortgage, but also unable to pay the taxes on the land for a period of several years. In 1931 the District Court for Sequoyah County ordered that the land be sold in order to satisfy a judgment against Charlie and Nancy's heirs, since by then she was deceased. Nancy's allotment land, her inheritance so to speak, was sold on the courthouse steps for $300.

George served in the War of 1812. In the 3rd Tennessee Militia, he was in combat situations in Mobile Bay and New Orleans. In 1820 George and Polly were living in Hardin Co., TN; in 1830 in Henderson Co. Years later, in answer to the call of Sam Houston for settlers to come to the Territory of Texas where land was free for those who desired to become permanent homesteaders, Polly, George, and their ten children joined a wagon train of 101 people, all of whom were reportedly related by blood or marriage, and arrived in Nacogdoches Territory in 1837. The records of the Nacogdoches County Board of Land Commissioners list George Washington Massengill and three of his sons, Isaac, Henry, and John, each being granted 1,280 acres of land by "Headright Certificates." The dates of issue extend from December 1837 to July 1845. In 1841, George and Polly moved to the Walker community (new Redland) where he and his son, John, built a combined sawmill-gristmill on the creek four miles north of Lufkin, Texas. Billie Payne 1994: To his grandchildren, he was Pa Will. A very quiet man and reserved. As I remember he was not a grandfather that you would crawl up in his lap for attention. He and Nannie (Zora) owned a large ranch with mostly grazing land and some farm land. The Gann's came to Oklahoma from Montague Co, TX. The Ganns were always very interested in education. Before statehood when there were not many public schools, the children went to a Presbyterian boarding school, called a college (sure it was no more than a high school of today). When they built their ranch house, it was one of the finest in that part of the country. They had a piano (very few in the area had one). There were many people going through the country that would stop for a night or two. People in those days didn't travel so fast, so had to find places to stay on their way to local towns to do their trading. Local word was out that the Ganns was a good place to stay. I don't know how Nannie did all that cooking for so many people. She was a wonderful cook. Some of the things she cooked that were delicious included: chicken and dumplings, chess pie, ham baked in a wood stove, biscuits and fried chicken. I can remember when the school district had a one-room school. The teacher often stayed (boarded was the term they used) with them. I thought it fun to go to that school. I seldom had the opportunity. Pa Will was on the School Board and I imagine the one that ran the school. I know he gave the teachers their checks (warrants they were called then). The little one-room school was located on a green hill. The school was "Gann's Green School." Nannie didn't like the conotation of Green.

Fannie Boles Gann 1980: William A. and Zora lived on a ranch at Old Royal, Oklahoma (20 minutes south of Lindsey, OK). They raised Hereford cattle, built a new house on the ranch in 1906 and it's still in fair condition as of 1980. He was average height with steel blue eyes. A person of hard drive and accomplished many dreams. Nanny (Zora) was a beautiful person with dark hair and eyes, weighed about 100 pounds, who "worshipped" Will. Every word he spoke was gospel to her. She went about doing good for everyone. Fannie was a real joy to have for a mother-in-law. Whole family was fun to be around. In a letter to her granddaughter, Beulah Gann Jackson (daughter of Nathan and Ella Gann) she stated that William was born after the wagon train arrived in Dye Mound, Texas. All census reports dispute this, stating that William was born in Tennessee. Savannah was the first child born in Texas according to the census. The Gann family came across to Texas from Tennessee with the same wagon train, settling in Dye Mound, Texas.

Children:

(12026) William Austin Gann, (Berry^3 Nathan^2, Ignatious Nathan^1) was born Nov 1865 in TN, and married 14 Sep 1890 in Montague Co, TX, Zora Bell Alice Trimmer, daughter of Jesse F. Trimmer and Mary E., who was born Aug 1870 in TN. William died Nov 1942 in Purcell, OK. Zora Bell Alice died Jan 1936 in Foster, OK.

A person of hard drive and accomplished many dreams. Nanny (Zora) was a beautiful person with dark hair and eyes, weighed about 100 pounds, who "worshipped" Will. Every word he spoke was gospel to her. She went about doing good for everyone. Fannie was a real joy to have for a mother-in-law. Whole family was fun to be around. In a letter to her granddaughter, Beulah Gann Jackson (daughter of Nathan and Ella Gann) she stated that William was born after the wagon train arrived in Dye Mound, Texas. All census reports dispute this, stating that William was born in Tennessee. Savannah was the first child born in Texas according to the census. The Gann family came across to Texas from Tennessee with the same wagon train, settling in Dye Mound, Texas.
I always remember her as a very brilliant lady. She was a Democrat and very interested in politics.

Children:

William Jesse Gann, (William Berry Nathan, Ignatious Nathan) was born Aug 1894 in TX, and married Maudie Coffey. William Jesse died 1959 in Marlow, OK.

From Mrs. Ruth Schreiner, Duncan, OK 1994: Jessie ranched East of Marlow in the Foster area. He was a roper and rodeoed a lot. He had a horse named Silver that rode in an open pickup, no side boards. Silver was a stud and sired many good roping horses. Jessie Ray's husband was also a roper. From Billie Payne 1994: Uncle Jesse, as was all the Gann men, was an athletic type. He played football and was an avid calf roper. As I remember him, a very robust athletic type of a man, liked to rodeo and dance, liked the women, (he never remarried after Aunt Maudie died), but never drank or smoked. I never saw liquor in the Gann home in any form. One time he owned a drug store in Foster, OK and also was postmaster there. From Wayne Gann 1994: Once at Uncle Jesse's roping arena, Wayne's dad (Chauncey) set him on Silver who was standing in the corner of the arena. A calf was released for another roper and Silver went charging after the calf, dumping Wayne on the ground. He says he remembers that long fall and all those cowboys running out to him to see if he was alive.

Chauncey Ray Gann, (William Berry Nathan, Ignatious Nathan) was born 25 Sep 1900 in OK, and married 4 Jan 1943 in Sulphur, OK, Violet Irene Ferguson, daughter of Lewis Henry Ferguson and Annie RidgeU, who was born 2 Jun 1920. Chauncey Ray died 15 May 1970 in Marlow, OK. Violet Irene was also married to Bill Unsell and Leonard Alphus Wheeler.

Billie Payne 1994: Chauncey was a tall, handsome brunette. Really, the only handsome one in the Gann family. He went to Chickasha High School all four years. As all other Ganns, he was an athlete. He played football and basketball there. He attended several colleges (as you know about this time all ranchers were having money problems). His college career was over several years. He first attended Phillip University, then Oklahoma State University (OK A&M). When he started teaching he attended East Central at Ada, OK in the summer and received his degree there. He taught and coached basketball in Borrows High and Lindsay High School and was a very successful coach and excellent history teacher. He was a member of the First Christian Church in Lindsay. When he taught there he attended that church regularly. He never changed his theology. I remember him as a slow moving (actions) person and a very good conversationalist. He was well liked and as all the Ganns had a desire for education. When I was growing up I thought he was handsome and so did the older girls his age. He was someone to be proud of.

He enlisted 20 June 1813 "to serve during the War." He was described as "5 feet 8 inches tall with a light complexion, blue eyes and brown hair. He received his first wound in his right thigh in 1813 somewhere in the Territory of upper Ohio or Michigan while engaged in one of the many battles with the British. He participated in the Battle of Lundy's Lane, often called the "charge at Bridgewater" in Col. Miller's regiment against the troops of Britian's Lord Wellington on 25 July 1814. The five-hour battle of Lundy's Lane was described at the time by Col. James Miller as "one of the most desperately fought actions ever experienced in America." The Americans lost 850 men either killed, wounded or missing, the British 875. Even though the battle was a "draw," it halted American advances into Upper Canada. On 4 Sept 1814 in the Battle of Erie (Fort Erie was located south of Niagara Falls), William received a severe wound, a shot in his right arm, which resulted in the amputation of his arm on 10 Sept. 1814 by hospital surgeon, Dr. Trowbridge of Rochester, New York. As a result of this war wound, he was honorably discharged on 24 Jan 1815 by Brig. General Henry Burback, Greenbush Cantonment. William received a pension with a "three-fourths disability" status. This new physical condition did not deter him in his quest for a life of adventure as a risk-taking pioneer and patriotic citizen. At the time of his discharge, his age was recorded as 18, hence a birth year of 1797. He returned home to Jonesborough, Washington Co., TN. On 13 Sept. 1815 he gave a power of attorney to Samuel Powell, Esq. to "procure and receive from such office, person or persons as should be legally authorized to grant the same, a warrant for the quantity of land to which I am entitled for the services rendered as a private in the Army of the U.S." He received 160 acres, bounty land warrant #2514. Sometime in 1835, William, Ruth Ann and their small children left Tennessee in a wagon train commanded by David Crockett. At Clarksville, TX, Davey Crockett, wanting to go directly to San Antonio, gave command of the wagon train to William, who was then about 29 years old. The wagon train arrived in Nacogdoches Co on 1 Mar 1836 on the eve of Texas independence. Texas soon became a Republic under Sam Houston as the first president.

Little Granny's first love (and husband) was LEH Guinn with whom she had a son, Robert. Mr. Guinn was murdered by robbers who thought that since he was the county treasurer he would have the money at his house. With a small son and a step daughter to raise, she later married Mr. Glass and had three more children. After Mr. Glass died, she married a Mr. Chambers, a Mr. Hornsby, and possibly more, and had at least one child, Aggie, who married a Mr. Brown Kerr. Little Granny was rumored to shop for husbands who had land and Confederate pensions, but only two applications for such pensions have been obtained. She, with her husbands, amassed quite a bit of land, which she farmed and rented out. When she died she was just a month short of 102, living at the Confederate Widow's Home in Austin. Her daughter, Mrs. M. F. Arrington, was the person who maintained contact with the home, and eventually brought her to Harlingen to live with her in the Arrington home. Little Granny later went back to the home, where she died of old age.

In Court records Sept. 1816 of First Judicial Circuit Court in Washington County, Tennessee, Susannah along with Anne Clark, Henry Glaze and William Miller were summoned as witnesses. In the case of The State of Tennessee vs Hiram Clark, Hiram was accused of burglary. Hiram Clark is the brother of Anne Clark who became the wife of Isaac Gann, Susannah's brother. Susannah appeared in court again in session of July 1823 as was found guilty as charged and fined five dollars. Also in this session Susannah is charged with breaking the peace against Rosannah Harrison and fined one dollar, but a peace bond is acknowledge in the sum of $200 "to be levied off their goods and chattels respectively to be void on condition that the said Susannah Clark shall well and truly observe and keep the peace of the State towards all the good citizens of the State of Tennessee and especially toward Rosannah Harrison for the term of one year from this date." In the 1830 U.S. Census, Hiram and Susannah with two young males are No entries for Susannah or Hiram could be found in cemeteries in Jackson Twp where they land was located.

(1452) Solomon Gann, (Ignatious Nathan) was born about 1798 in Washington Co, TN, and married about 1831 in TN, Malinda Miller who was born about 1812 in TN. Solomon died 26 Aug 1884 in Hamilton Co, TX and was buried in Kuykendall farm, Hamilton Co, TX. Malinda died about 1865 in Hamilton Co, TX and was buried in Kuykendall farm, Hamilton Co, TX.

From Jefferson Co, TN Court Record Book, Page 378, Monday March Sessions 1816: "Solomon Gann over the age of twelve years old by order bound by Indenture to Michael Branner, Junr untill he arrives at the age of twenty one."

His brother-in-law, George Washington Massingill, was getting together a wagon train to go to Texas to help Sam Houston with his fight against Mexico. Soloman and his family joined up with George and sister, Mary Polly, and 100 other folks. Because of harsh winters in their part of the country, the group did not get started until the spring of 1837. They arrived in Texas in the fall of 1837. The fight for independence from Mexico had been won by the courageous people of Texas, and they were ready to settle their state.

The Republic of Texas was generous with its most available natural resource, its public land. "Headright" grants evolved to encourage immigration and also to reward native citizens. Heads of families who were living in Texas on Mar. 2, 1836 were eligible for grants of 4,605 acres. Those who immigrated from Mar. 1, 1836 to Oct. 1, 1837 could receive 1,280 acres, while those who immigrated from Oct. 1, 1837 to Jan. 1, 1842 could be granted 640 acres, with sons 17 years of age receiving 320 acres. In Dec, 1837 Soloman Gann was granted 640 acres of land in what was then Nacogdoches County. As head of family, George Massingill received 640 acres, also his married son, Henry, 640 acres. So the Tennesseans settled in the Shawnee Prairie areas which later became a part of Angelina County. A son, Isaac, was born that December. It is said he was born in an Indian bark hut because there had not been time for the new settlers to build homes. The land was fertile and produced fruit, nuts, and wild game. In the 1850 census of Angelina County, Soloman is listed: age 52, a stackkeeper, Malinda age 38 and children Mary 17, Nathan 13, Isaac 12, Matilda 10, John 8 and Samuel 6 months. Soloman came to Hamilton County to live along the Leon River.
Solomon worked for James Kuykendall. In Aug. of 1884 at the age of 86 Soloman's long journey was over and he was buried beside his wife Malinda...but those of us...of Soloman's family, know his strong legacy lives on.

From "The History of Hamilton County, Texas," page 188. E. M. Hoover Family--Elmer and I have always lived in Texas. His father, Albert Randolph Hoover, came to Texas on horseback from Kentucky at the age of fourteen. Elmer's mother, Susan M. (Gann) Hoover, was a native Texan. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Gann, owned over 3,000 acres of land in Hamilton County. My parents, Wiley Thomas and Annie Leona (May) Newman, moved from Bell County in the late 1800's and lived at San Angelo for a few years. Later they bought a farm at Daffau (Era County) and lived there several years. We moved from Daffau to Fairy in 1904, as my father liked the black farming land and purchased a farm here. This farm is still in our possession. Elmer was born in 1896, and I was born in 1900. We grew up on adjoining farms and attended school together.

Oliver was a farmer and per 1910 census owned 178 acres in Concho Co. In 1916 he had a blacksmith shop on 14th St, San Angelo. He built a home there and married a very odd lady. She was known to all as "mother." She would not allow anyone in the house except Callie Kola. Grandfather was visited in his blacksmith shop. He was a very kind man and for the most part was the doctor for all of Aubrey's children. He died of Bright's disease.

Cleo married at age 16. She was a farm girl but did not want to spend her life working on a farm. She divorced Oliver and went to school at Tyler Junior College. She later married George Donham, a builder. They lived in Dallas, TX. Cleo was a "lady" in every respect. She was tall, with auburn hair kept perfect at all times. She never left her house without being dressed for the occasion, whatever it might be. She worked as an office manager in Dallas after her husband died. She became ill and was brought to Deer Park, where she was until her death.

Aubrey was raised by his father and his aunts and uncle in West Texas. He was a carpenter and belonged to the carpenter's union. He was never at home for a very long periods of time, as he went where work was available. Zada met Aubrey while they were both picking cotton. She worked in fields of West Texas with Aubrey. They moved from one farm to another where work was available. Zada had very little education and she never knew any other work than to do field work and to have her seven children. Her first house was built in San Angelo, Texas by Aubrey and his father, Oliver Solomon Gann. When Oliver died a new house was built by Aubrey. Zada lived there with her children until 1937. She was on her way to Dallas on a Trailway's bus when the bus had an accident in Stephenville, Texas. Her back was broken in three places, and she was in a cast for 18 months. She bought a farm in Millersville, Texas next to the farm of John Gann and lived there with her children and Aubrey for three years. Aubrey wanted to move to the city, so the farm was sold to John Gann. She moved to a house on Sixteenth Street in Grand Prairie, Texas. She and Aubrey were divorced in 1943. She sold her home in Grand Prairie and moved to a farm in Colfax, Van Zandt County, Texas. She lived there and took care of her son, Oliver Aubrey, and his children until Oliver died, and she was put in a nursing home in Grand Saline until her death.

At age 14 he found his way to this grandmother's, Cleo Gann Donham, in Dallas, Texas. He worked as a bell boy at Neiman Marcus store in Dallas. At age 18 he joined the U.S. Merchant Marines and went to sea as a mess man and the next trip as a wiper in the engine room. In 1939 he joined the U.S. Marines. After training he served on the U.S. Indianapolis until it was sunk by the Japanese. He survived the sinking and was next assigned to the U.S. Enterprise. His next duty was the landing of the Marines on the Japanese islands. He was awarded the Purple Heart and many other medals. He was discharged from the Marines as a Sargeant. Delbert had two bad marriages, however the second woman he lived with was never married to him, as he was never divorced from Edith. He worked as a carpenter along side his father and brothers until the alcohol took control of him and he was killed.

The following by Christine Stidham Echels, Beaumont, Texas. Nathan Gann Whisler, born 8 Sept 1841 was my great-grandfather. He was the son of Anna Jane Gann and Elias Whisler. Nathan Gann Whisler and Lucinda Frances Holt had eight children. The second oldest child was Lucinda Josephine who was my grandmother, and she married Joe Mantooth. Their second oldest child was Allie Mae Mantooth, who was my mother. The third oldest child was William Harvey, father of William Mantooth, treasurer of GFHS. My mother married James Alexander Stidham. They had three children: Christine, Odessa and Betty. I am the oldest. Nathan Whisler and his family lived in Delta County, about three miles east of Commerce, Texas, which is in Hunt County. Grandpa Whisler and his family raised cotton and feed for the farm animals. He was the only person I ever knew in Texas who raised tobacco. He had only a few plants for his own use in his corn-cob pipe. The Whisler farm was only about a mile from the Mantooth farm, and the families visited back and forth often and assisted each other in crop gathering, hog killing and syrup making. The ladies had quilting bees, and they all did beautiful needlework, knitting, crochet and embroidery. Grandma Whisler had a spinning wheel and carded her own cotton, spun thread and used it for knitting and crocheting. The Whisler home and Mantooth home were modest farm houses with large rooms and fireplaces. The houses were similar, but the Whisler home was a bit more elegant. They had a parlor with a carpet, overstuffed furniture and an organ. They had a prettier yard, too. I remember the lilac bushes and a large rose bush by the front gate. There was a wagon wheel in the backyard planted with Portulaca, and Grandma called it "moss." I spent summers with them and Grandma would let me take an envelope and shake the tiny seeds into it so she could save them. I think this plant seeds itself, so now I wonder if she really wanted the seeds or was just giving me "busy work" to do. At the Mantooth home near the back steps, there was a well for drinking water. It was over 100 feet deep and it took a lot of "drawing" to get the bucket up. I found out the hard way that letting it down too rapidly would cause rope burns in the palms of my hands. The bucket was a slender one, about three feet long and not more than six or eight inches in diameter to fit the small casing of the well. The water had a strong mineral taste and no one seemed to like it until they got used to it. I "got used to it" the summer I spent with my grandparents when I was 11 years old, and I always liked it after that. The Whislers had a shallower well and used a cedar bucket and a gourd dipper which was used by every member of the family and all the visitors, too. There was a cistern at the back porch of the Mantooth place. The cistern was boarded up but had a wooden ledge all around the top. There were several holes drilled in the ledge, each with a rope hanging down with a pan or a bucket on it. The containers just reached the water and they were forerunners of their refrigeration. Grandma put milk, butter, fruit, anything she wanted to keep cool in these containers and dropped them down into the well until they just reached the water. I remember good watermelons, cantaloupes, and peaches being kept there in the summer. There were smokehouses with ham, bacon and sausage, enough to last the year round. Occasionally, they killed a calf for beef. they had their own chickens, eggs, cows for milk, and they grew vegetables, berries, fruits and peanuts. There were apples, pears and peaches galore. They dried some for winter use and Grandma canned lots of fruits in glass jars which she stored in the cellar. The cellar was a dug-out with mounded dirt on top and was an important structure in country homes. They usually had a bed, quilts, and benches around the walls where the family could take refuge from the cyclones, twisters, and storms. Shelves built around the upper walls kept the fruit dry and cooler than in the house in summer. Cellars always had a sort of musty smell and my recollection of the cellar included the odor, just like I remember the salty, smoky smell of the smokehouse. There were pecans and walnut trees on both the Whisler and Mantooth places. They enjoyed the nuts and used the beautiful wood to make their furniture. There were always extra people at the Whisler home. Besides Grandpa and Grandma Whisler, there was Aunt Ida who was widowed and brought her two daughters back home to live and Aunt Martha who was a spinster. Also, Aunt Bessie who had an unhappy marriage and brought three daughters back to live with her parents. Their home and their hearts always seemed large enough to hold them all, and they all shared in the work. Most country people in those days were morally upright, honorable and honest, and a man's word was as good as his bond. Before the turn of the century, and even until the day of the automobile, religion was more a way of life than a ritualistic practice. Church services were held late in the summer when the crops were laid by. There were singing schools where music was taught by "shaped notes" in the hymn books. All of the members of the family participated in these services, and this strong tradition is evidenced still in the lives of Whisler, Mantooth and Stidham descendants who are active in various denominations today. Nathan Gann Whisler was a young man of only 20 years when the Civil War came. He served in Company B, 19 Texas Infantry, Confederate States of America as is noted on his tombstone. We do not remember that he ever talked much about the war. Grandpa Whisler died at the family residence in Delta County, Texas, on 20 February 1926, and he is buried in Lebanon Cemetery about two miles east of Commerce, Texas.

Sometime during 1904, William Allen made a trip from his home in Dallas County, Mo., to the small settlement, Claremore, Indian territory. Claremore was located on the San Francisco and St. Louis Railroad which ran from St. Louis, Missouri southwesterly to northeastern Oklahoma, through the Cherokee Nation and on to San Francisco. A post office had been established there on June 25, 1874. This settlement would later become the county seat of Rogers County when Oklahoma became a state in 1907. William Allen was the first to arrive in 1904. He was back and forth several times before the family finally came to stay. Oral family history records that sometime after 1904, William Allen became obsessed with the notion that he would not allow Eliza Jane, his wife, to become a registered Cherokee. He threatened to take them all back to Missouri before he would allow it. No one one in the family has been able to explain why William Allen felt as he did. It may have been because he had not been successful in obtaining Indian lands simply by walking in, without proof, and declaring himself to be married to a half-blood Cherokee. The proving process included such things as affidavits, sworn statements, witnesses, etc., something a simple farmer might have seen as "too much trouble." A man's "word" in the old West was a strong element in any "deal" and all this "proving-up" process was an indicator that his word was not good enough. The sixteenth bloods and lower would in most cases get no land at all. A forty-acre allotment of thin, rocky soil might have been too small for all the trouble. In the reasoning of William Allen, he simply denied the Cherokee Nation one of its own by not allowing Eliza Jane, his wife, to become registered. There may have been other reasons. Arrogance, meanness, and confidence have never been recessive traits in the Gann men. Whatever the circumstances, William Allen was described by all who knew him as a man of quick and violent temper. His memory was long when perceived injustice were thrust upon him by others. He was creative in his methods of "getting even." By 1908/09 William Allen and Eliza Jane would settle with their eight children one and one-half miles west of Coweta, Oklahoma. A farmer and obviously a man interested in land, he never acquired a square inch of Oklahoma soil. He became a "tenant farmer." There were two ways an individual could rent land for farming. One way was to give over one-third of the corn crop and one-fourth of the cotton at the end of the season. Another was to "cash rent." Both methods carried risk. Those who gave over crops at harvest time were the less fortunate and therefore had less status when farms became available for rent. The farmer who paid in crop yield at the end of the harvest was a "sharecropper." The protocol was to never refer to a "cash renter" as a "sharecropper" but as a tenant farmer. This pattern of farming was very prevalent in Oklahoma from 1910 up to the middle 1950's. William Allen would "cash rent" a farm and with the help of his sons, who were unmarried, make a living for his family. William Allen would "rent" a farm and his two youngest sons, George Washington and Louis, would plant and harvest the crops. The story is related of how William Allen treated his two youngest boys. When the crops were ready to harvest he would go to town early and wait for the boys to bring the corn to mill or the cotton to gin. He would collect the money for the crops and tell the boys to "get on back home and hire yourselves out to other farmers and earn your winter money." William Allen lived the balance of his life as a widower in the home of his youngest son, George Washington Gann. He died near the small Oklahoma town of Porter, located in southwestern Wagoner County. He is buried in the Shahan Cemetery just west of Coweta. His grave is unmarked and the cemetery records showing his burial place have been lost. The sandstone that marked his burial place has long since disappeared.

Marriage recorded in Family Bible. According to Edith Grace Gann Jarman, a granddaughter, Eliza Jane was half-Cherokee, the child of a white father, James Friend, and a full-blood Cherokee mother. This fact would tend to indicate that Eliza Jane was proud of her heritage and had the courage to admit it. It was not "fashionable" in the West for those Indians who could pass as "white" to admit their ancestry. Her death certificate indicated she was white. Eliza Jane had two sons, Will and Robert Miles, by a previous marriage. Both sons evidently remained behind with relatives.

From Frank Stever: One of her sons, Alfred, married my father's sister, Lola Stever. I once heard Uncle Alfred tell this story. He was 17 years old and wanted to go to a dance. His mother, Rebecca, told him he could not go. He disobeyed and went anyway. When he came home that night, he put the horse in the stable and quietly slipped into the house and went to bed, thinking all was well. Suddenly the covers were jerked down and his mother began lashing him with a buggy whip. When she was through, she tucked the covers over him and went downstairs, never saying a word. Uncle Alfred said, "That's the last time I disobeyed my mother."

They had no children.

Schneitman Cemetery is about 2 miles south of Dallas.

From Preston Gann and Some of His Descendants by Christine E. Holcomb 1986: Preston and his son-in-law owned what is now Valley Brook and the Creeks Bend Golf Course. He also owned most of the land in the Big Ridge-Hidden Harbor Subdivisions. Preston Gann began buying this land in the early 1830's as the Indians and other early settlers began moving to the West. Among the early settlers in the Dallas area were Asahel Rawlings, George Sawyer, Elisha Kirlen and Preston Gann. The town of Dallas served as the county seat of Hamilton County until about 1840 when it was moved to Harrison and then to Chattanooga. This growing town had several buildings but today all that remains is the Jackson Chapel Cemetery. Most signs of this once thriving town are now covered by the waters of the Tennessee River. For a number of years Preston Gann added to his holdings, but around 1856-57 he began dividing the land among his daughters. They were Cassandra Smith, Rebecca Jackson, Louisa Thomas, Martha Smith Clarke, Mary Ann Schneitman and Sarah Jones Gann. Each daughter received about two hundred and fifty acres, all having land along the Tennessee River and up the side of and to the base of Big Ridge. Today this would be along Hixson Pike and Cassandra Smith Road. Christian Schneitman added to his wife's property several hundred acres in what is now Valley Brook. He built his home at the base of Big Ridge on Big Ridge Road where it is still occupied. Preston Gann lived near Chickamauga Creek in the Creeks Bend Golf Course area. He later moved to the Falling Water area where he lived until his death in 1884. He had remarried after the death of his wife and had two more children. Today we find some of his descendants still living on the property that he gave his children. Among these are the Swingles, Ashleys, Harveys, Browns, Marshalls and Pendergrasses. All these and many more of his descendants have always taken an active part in the Hixson community.
