Willa Gann was born 17 Dec 1909. Willa died 29 Oct 1916 in Utica, Livingston Co, MO and was buried in Edgewood Cem, Chillicothe, Livingston Co, MO.

Chillicothe Constitution, Monday, Oct. 30, 1916: One Killed; Another Injured in a Grade Crossing Accident. Willa Gann Instantly Killed and His Father Injured in Disastrous Accident Sunday Morning. Two Other Occupants of the Gann Automobile Escaped Injury When Burlington Passenger Train Hit the Car on the Utica Grade Crossing Shortly Before Noon. Willa, the six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Gann of North Locust St., this city, was instantly killed. Mr. Gann, foreman of the makeup department of The Constitution sustained a broken right limb and several bruises, and Ross Bryan and James Richardson were badly scared and shaken up when Burlington east bound passenger train No. 14, due at Chillicothe station at 11:50 o'clock, struck the Gann automobile at the cutoff crossing west of Chillicothe Sunday morning. The car—a studebaker—was completely demolished the bulk of it being dumped into the right-of-way directly south of track and east of the approach. Parts of the machine, however, were dragged several yards down the track. The cow-catcher was torn from the engine and deposited possibly a block east of the crossing and a larger part of the crossing timbers were torn up, one plank being dumped near the wreckage of the car and another dragged to within a few feet of the discarded cow-catcher, nearly a block down the track. Mr. Gann, who was driving the car, and Mr. Bryan were in the front seat of the machine and Mr. Richardson and Mr. Gann's little son were in the rear seat. They had been in Utica and were returning home when the accident occurred. The road leading from Utica to the crossing runs parallel with the track for possibly a quarter of a mile before it crosses the track. Mr. Gann, in giving an account of the accident Sunday afternoon stated that he looked east and west along the track just a short time before he reached the crossing and that there was no train in sight. He started over the crossing, and as he was driving up the steep grade to the track one of the party caught sight of the train and called a warning. He attempted to throw his gear into reverse to back down, but saw that it would be impossible to move the car quick enough. The three men jumped from the car and Mr. Gann made an effort to reach his son. Just as he reached the little fellow the train struck the front of the car jerking it into the wheels of the engine. Mr. Gann was thrown to the ground, rolled over and over for a short distance before rolling down the embankment to the south and considerably east of the crossing. His first thought was of the child. He attempted to get on his feet and found that his right limb was broken at the ankle. Mr. Gann stated that he did not think his car was on the track, but was near enough that the cylinder heads of the passenger engine caught the front of his machine. The train stopped as soon as possible following the accident and Mr. Gann and his son and the other occupants of the car were taken aboard and brought to Chillicothe. The little fellow's skull was torn completely from his head and he was otherwise bruised about the body. His body was taken to the Norman & Jarvis Funeral Home. Mr. Gann was removed to his home. L. B. Hardy, engineer, and M. M. Roberts, fireman, both of Brookfield, were in the engine of the train. The engine number was 2032. Little Willa Gann would have been seven years of age December 11th. Throughout the past week he had been making great preparations for attending the Halloween party which was to have been given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rockhold on Tuesday evening by the J. D. club, of which Mrs. Gann is president. He attended school in Miss Adeline McHolland's room in the First ward school and was one of the brightest and most studious little fellow of his room. Of a kindly, happy disposition, he was a welcome visitor in every home of his neighborhood. To his schoolmates and playmates he was a lovable chum and to a loving mother and proud father he was the brimming cup of cheer and a constant companion. The only child, his passing on has crushed two hearts and saddened the entire community. Funeral services will be held at the family home on North Locust St. Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock conducted by Rev. Warren P. Clark of the Baptist church where Willa was a regular attendant at Sunday school. Interment will be made in Edgewood. A Dangerous Crossing. The Utica crossing is one of the steepest grade crossings in the county. Coming up on either side, it is impossible to see an automobile or rig of any character approaching from the other side. Many times cars have met at the crest of the grade, each without knowing the other was coming. The track, according to many who visited the scene of the accident Sunday, is probably six or seven feet above the wagon road grade. A tunnel could be easily be constructed beneath the track without lowering the present wagon roadbed to any great extent, thus averting at least one grade crossing, and one of the most dangerous in the county.

Freda Faye was born in 1933 at Mosca, CO and attended school in Colorado. In Colorado, I worked as a waitress at different cafes. I used to go to rodeos a lot and liked to dance. My oldest daughter, Lois Ann, was born at Alamosa, CO. We moved to California in 1954 because of my father's heart condition. I helped in the hay, which my sister and brother-in-law ran a business, cutting, baling and hauling hay. I met my husband, Weybern Nunneley when he was working for them also. We were married Nov. 7 1960 at Virginia City, NV. We didn't find out until 1960 that Weybern's first wife had never picked up their final divorce papers and she had also remarried. So that is why the wedding date of 1960. Gary was born in 1952 at Redding, CA. Later we lived in Oklahoma and our daughter Beverly was born at Holdenville, OK. While in Oklahoma Cotton worked for different oil companies as a roughneck on drilling rigs. We moved back to California, and Marvin Dale and Barbara Arlene were both born at Susanville, CA. Cotton, as he is nicknamed, worked in the sawmill there. Later we moved to Anderson and he worked in a sawmill there. Then we had a chance to move to Reno, NV, so we did and Cotton helped my cousin Orville Doll haul new Volkswagens right off the ship at the docks at San Francisco, CA to Reno, NV to the dealership there. They also delivered cars to Salt Lake City, UT and Denver, CO. We moved back to Anderson and have lived in the same house since moving here. We have a 5-acre place, so have a few head of cows on it. Cotton worked at different jobs after we moved back here. I baby sit for different people and worked for the county in their in-home service program taking care of people in their home. I took care of my mother for 6 years until my health got so bad in 1989 that the doctor had me stop work. Cotton had his back hurt, and had it operated on 3 times so he is also retired. I have attended the Assembly of God Church in Anderson since 1963 when I was saved. Our church, along with 6 other churches, has a food bank at Anderson to help people with food for whatever reason they run out. We have it at least once a month. The food bank is open Tuesday and Fridays each week, and at Thanksgiving and Christmas they give out food to the ones who sign up ahead of time. They also give toys at Christmas so the children in the family will have something. I feel like it is worthwhile cause to help people and most who work there are blessed. Even though Cotton doesn't go to church very often he helps our church at the food bank.

From the Gann Gazette, Issue #27, Fall 1994. Frankie Belle Gann was born on a farm southwest of Odessa, Missouri, the daughter of Robert Benton and Effie Elizabeth (Bogar) Gann, both of whom were life-long residents of Lafayette County, Missouri. Frankie a young school teacher in Missouri, took a summer job as one of the famous "Harvey girls." Working in one of the Fred Harvey restaurants at the Grand Canyon, she met her future husband, G. C. McKinnie, an engineer for Santa Fe Railroad. After his heath, Frankie married James Brock. Now retired, Frankie and Jim Brock live in Albuquerque, New Mexico. During her high school days, Frankie Belle began a close and life-long friendship with Elsie Starke (now Mrs. Ralph Porter). Both Frankie and Elsie played basketball; Frankie played center because she was tall, and Elsie played running center. Frankie lived "in town" and Elsie lived in the country, so when the weather was really bad, Elsie would stay overnight with Frankie's family. In those days, the Monday night movie cost ten cents and it was dish night, to boot...that meant that in addition to the enjoyment of the movie, you received a dish or plate as a gift. On the way home they were talking and laughing and suddenly slid on the ice and fell...but didn't break their prize dishes! Elsie tells the Gann Gazette in a telephone interview from her home in Higginsville, Missouri that she and Frankie shared their thoughts and hopes and agreed on just about everything...except politics! Frankie was a "dyed-in-the-wood" Democrat and Elsie a "staunch Republican." Elsie remembers when she and Frankie were on the school bus to a basketball game, completely absorbed in the upcoming 1928 presidential election: Al Smith vs. Herbert Hoover...it was a very serious conversation! In high school, both girls took homemaking classes together and both took the two-year teacher training course which made them eligible to begin teaching in country schools upon graduation from high school. Frankie graduated from Higginsville (Mo) High School in 1929 and then attended Central Missouri State College, Warrensburg, Missouri from which she earned a Teacher's Certificate for life. Her first teaching position in 1929 was in Johnson County, Mo. at a salary of $70 for eight months. In 1933 "Miss Frankie" began teaching at Walnut Row School, a rural one-room school house in the Odessa area. Her salary was raised to a whopping $150 per year! Aunt Frankie Remembers...by Frankie Belle Brock of Albuquerque, New Mexico. Over the years I have stored away a rich lode of inner resources to enable me to enjoy my own company! As I sit and think, I seem to go back to my very early age—even though later years were very happy, too. As she was to tell me later, my mother cried when I was bom on August 4, 1910, because I was a girl; she wanted all boys. My father said, "Now listen here, we need a little girl. We'll give her a boy's name and add 'Belle,' for her grandmother Belle Bogar." Many years later my mother said to my father, "Wasn't that silly of me—when Frankie has brought so much pleasure to us." When I was around two years of age—just could walk or hobble—I was out in our yard and looked across a plowed field. There was a tiny pup that could just barely walk, coming across the field. I met him and carried him into our house, and mother said my first words were "Baby Child." So that was my little dog's name. It turned out that some neighbors had moved and left him behind. From that day on, "Baby Child" was at my heels; we shared everything. He lived to be 13 years of age; he died when I was visiting my grandparents during Thanksgiving. My two younger brothers, Lloyd and Louis, buried him and when I returned home, I ran to his grave and there was a little foot sticking up out of the frozen ground! So of course, I was very upset. I was the only girl with two older and two younger brothers. "Ted," being five years older, had been the baby of the family. So when I was bom, he was not very happy. That's why, as kids, we were always in a fuss about everything! But in our older days, he was the best friend a sister could every have. Our family's Christmas time was always a very happy time—me getting dolls until I had fourteen—the boys getting ice skates, sleds, balls, new clothing, everything boys would like. I remember how I'd dress and undress my dolls—and change their diapers. Then one day I changed this one doll and Ted had put yellow egg yolk in the diaper. Of course, I screamed and cried! My mother said, "Ted, why in the world would you do such a thing?" He replied, "Oh, I get so tired seeing Sis changing diapers, I thought I'd give her something to really do!" Still today, I have my doll buggy that Santa brought me when I was four years old. It had a beautiful doll in it with a red satin dress and hat.

The following from a newspaper clipping: Revenge Plot Ends 3 Lives. Estranged Husband Kills Wife and Father-in-Law. Takes Own Life. Odessa, Mo., Sept 5 -(UP) A revenge plot which festered in the brain of the plotter for 7 months bore fruit Saturday in two murders and a suicide. The murder victims were Police Judge Thomas L. Gann, 65, politically prominent and well-to-do, and his 36-year-old daughter, Mrs. Annette Gann McElfish. The plotter, dead of his own hand, was the judge's one-armed son-in-law, Arthur W. McElfish, 40. Mrs. McElfish's 10-year-old daughter by a former marriage, Vivian, and Leonard Alkire, a truck driver, witnessed the killing which occurred at a farmhouse owned by the judge, where Mrs. McElfish and Vivian lived. McElfish, officers concluded, conceived the desire for revenge against the judge six months ago when Gann virtually banished him from Odessa.

The following from a newspaper clipping: Revenge Plot Ends 3 Lives. Estranged Husband Kills Wife and Father-in-Law. Takes Own Life. Odessa, Mo., Sept. 5 —(UP) A revenge plot which festered in the brain of the plotter for 3 months bore fruit Saturday in two murders and a suicide. The murder victims were Police Judge Thomas L. 10-year-old daughter by a former marriage, Vivian, and Leonard Alkire, a truck driver, witnessed the killing which occurred at a farmhouse owned by the judge, where Mrs. McElfish and Vivian lived. Fletcher loved Delaware Co, OK and Poynor District. He said if you couldn’t make a living in Delaware Co, you couldn’t make a living anywhere. He helped build Highway 10 from Jay to the state line. He loved his home and people and felt he was put on this earth to be of help to his neighbors. Everyone knew they were welcome at his home, and his feelings were hurt if one didn’t stay and eat a meal. He farmed and helped out with the sick. He helped dig graves for everyone who passed away. I don’t believe there was a death in Poynor District that he didn’t help dig the grave. He gave food to every beggar who came through. He loved sharing and I believe God helped us to provide to share with others.

Vena May lived in Sampsel township when married to Charles F. Mutter and living at Moberly, MO Jan. 6, 1960. From letter written by Vena Gann Mar 14 1968: Our sister Janie died real young. Of course, that was before my time but heard my mother speak of her a lot. I don't know where Frank, Ida or Dave were born. All of that information was in the Bible and my mother requested me to give that Bible to Uncle Tom Breeze after her death, which I did, and I don't know what they ever did with it. It also contained Grandfather Gann and Grandfather's Breeze's births and genealogy in it. I'm sorry I didn't keep it. Now Grandmother Gann died around 1869 or 70. Grandpa Gann never remarried. They had twelve children. I think (not sure) that Grandma and Grandpa Gann were buried at Humansville, Mo. (May not be correct.) Grandpa Breeze died at the age of 56 years. Grandma Breeze lived to be 84 and passed away at our home in Sampsel in the Mace Keith property. I was 10 years old then. Grandma Breeze's maiden name was Spalding (Elizabeth), she was a Virginian. Her first husband was John Nave. They had two children, John, Jr., and Mary Nave. John and John, Jr., drowned when Junior was about 3 or 4 years old. After that Grandma Breeze and Aunt Mary Nave (she never married) lived with Grandma's son (Uncle Jim Breeze) until Aunt Mary died—then Grandma Breeze came to our home to live. She lived with us about 9 years. The last 7 years of her life she was blind and she always called me her little pilot. I led her around the house and in the yard. Oh! How I loved her. To me she has always been the dearest person in the world.

Nicholas Broyles died 27 May 1899 in Protem, Taney Co, MO. Lucinda died in Protem, Taney Co, MO.

Story of the Nicholas Gann family as written by their daughter, Eva Jennet (Gann) Cole, Jan. 1, 1940: My name was Eva Jennet Gann. I was born at Wagemego Kansas in Pottawattoma County May the 7 1870. My father was Nicholas Gann. His father was Abram Gann his mothers maiden name was McKinley. My mother was Lucinda Moore her mother was Jemima Meadows. I had four brothers and two sisters. The eldest was Sarah Jamima, born March 5, 1861 and died that August of the same year. William Samuel Gann born June 20, 1862. George Thomas, born December 28, 1863. John Wesley born January 27, 1865. Nora Alice married name Brown, born June 4, 1868. Eva Jennet, married name Cole, born May 7, 1870. Charles Alfa, born November 11, 1872. About 1874 we left Kansas and moved to Benton County, Ark. near Bentonville. Some of the family names of neighbors were, Cash, Strouds, Scags, McMinamy. I remember brother George going to Bentonville to see a man hanged. I think we lived in Ark. about two years then sold and went back to Kans. This time we went to Chattanooga Co. Kans. We went thru Baxter Springs, we saw a little girl playing with a doll. We begged for us a doll and Pap went in store and ask for doll babies, bought 3 china dolls about 1 ft. long. We settled down on a place on Caney river bottom. I went to my first school in Chautauqua Co. at St Paul. My teacher name was Hamelton. He was old, wore chin whiskers. The family names I remember, Susie, Lila, and Jesse Kahili; Henry Summers and Maude Pick. The Kahills came from Pottawatomie Co. too. They went back on a visit. Ma, Al (Alice) and me went with them. Charl. staid home with Pap and the boys. We went to Topeka Kans. One time on the road we stopped for water and the woman called me Nellie, she thought that she knew me. I guess she thought we were gypsies and they had stolen me. We got to Aunt Becka Fentons first. She was granddaughter Gann's widowed daughter, they lived together. We went on and saw grandma Moore, she was sick. We went to Louisville and Wamengo, we crossed a creek, I think Adams Creek. We went and stayed with Aunt Becka and grandpa Gann, we never saw him again. He died after we moved to Mo. He lived to be near 90.
The morning we left he rode off to keep from telling us good by. I remember his long white hair as he rode away.
There was government land in Montgomery Co. Pap and a man name Geo. Brssel went and took up places. Pap put up a 2 store house. Our nearest neighbor was name Reader. When our new house was finished, the boys and girls back at Kaneyville came and we had a dance. It was the first dance I ever saw. I think so many times how nice they all looked dressed in white, some names I remember, Minnie Layton; Rillie Amos. There were may nice full blooded Indians around. They visited with us and wanted Pap to move down and tend their land. George had a bad spell of typhoid fever and we sold to a man named Gartney and moved in the territory on Caney River, on the big road (The Chisolm or Western Trail). It was lonesome and a wilderness. Panthers were heard at nite and Indians passed in droves. We were not afraid of the Indian or panther, but we were afraid of the droves of long horn cattle. The Indians had nice homes but would rent them out or use for a barn and live in bark wigwams. We all got sick that summer. Bill had a bad foot, the flesh came out of the top of it. He couldn't wear shoes before cold weather. The Dr. said a sanitae had crawled over it. There was no school down there so Pap went back to Chautauqua Co. Kans and bought another place. While Pap was moving Geo. got bad sick. We were again on the Big Road, our old Dr. Canady passed and Ma had us stop him. He said that Theo. had Spinal meningitis. We finally got moved but we were all still having chills.
There were 2 houses on the place. D. H. McFain and family moved in the other house. He was blind, they came from Taney Co., Mo. He was an Herb and Root Dr. living with his wife's father Abner McIntosh over on the prairie about 3 miles from us. Pap sold the piece, I don't think we made a crop. We went to getting ready to go to Taney Co. Mo.
We had lots of molasses. Pap and the boys took the molasses down in the territory to trade to the Indians. They could get a shirt and pair of shoes for a quart of molasses. They came back with a supply of red flannel shirts and shoes and I can't remember what else. We were soon off to Mo. We just brought 1 wagon and a lead horse. Our clothes were in a big chest that was big as wagon bed high and across. There was a 7 day Set Thomas clock. I can't remember when we started but it must have been in Mar. It turned cold and snowed a little. We put a pipe on the stove and run it up thru the wagon shet, we had fire in stove and cooked as we traveled. I know we landed at Jake Longdons April 18, 1880. We went to Church Meeting that night, big storm there too. The little Church was crowded, young men there without shoes, pants rolled to their knees. On Sunday after we arrived as many as 50 people came to see the people from Kans. I guess we did look like Indians. Pap and the boys in the red flannel shirts and Charl and I both had dogs. Mine a New Foundland and Charl had a blood hound.

Monroe was born and raised in Paradise, Wise Co, TX. He attended school through the 8th grade because, like many kids then, he had to drop out of school to work and help support his family. However, he was known to his children and all who knew him as a "scholar." His children remember that he always read books anytime he wasn't out in the fields working, and was a self-taught very educated man. He and his wife, Willie Dee Power Stovall, moved from Bridgeport, Texas to Minco, OK in 1938, where he farmed with his brothers. They moved to Ninnekah, OK in 1945 where they farmed and raised and raised their five children. There are so many wonderful stories that their children could write about them and their brother, Boyce, but there is not enough time nor space. Their children and grandchildren love and miss them so very much and appreciate their gentle love and care, and all the abundance of happy and wonderful memories they left them.

Monroe was born and raised in Paradise, Wise Co, TX. He attended school through the 8th grade because, like many boys then, he had to drop out of school to work and help support his family. However, he was known to his children and all who knew him as a "scholar." His children remember that he always read books anytime he wasn't out in the fields working, and was a self-taught very educated man. He and his wife, Willie Dee Power Stovall, moved from Bridgeport, Texas to Minco, OK in 1938, where he farmed with his brothers. They moved to Ninnekah, OK in 1945 where they farmed and ranched and raised their five children. There are so many wonderful stories that their children could write about them and their brother, Boyce, but there is not enough time nor space. Their children and grandchildren love and miss them so very much and appreciate their gentle love and care, and all the abundance of happy and wonderful memories they left them.

3988 iv Edward Everett Gann was born 12 Oct 1880 in Monticello, NY, and married 12 Jun 1915, Dolly Curtis who was born in KS. Edward Everett died 2 Oct 1936.

Excerpt from Who's Who: "GANN, Edward Everett, b. Monticello, Ky., October 12, 1880, son of William Kenrick (M.D.) and Mary Jane Daughterty. Married Dolly Curtis, June 12, 1915. He was a prominent attorney, an Examiner for Interstate Commerce Commission, and during 1914-21 was Special Assistant to Attorney General of U.S. He later became attorney for several large railroads. He was a Democrat and a Presbyterian."

(By the Associated Press.) From The Kansas City Star: Washington, Oct. 2. (1936)—Edward Everett Gann died today leaving only Dolly Gann, grief-sticken in the midst of a Republican campaign tour, out of the three who starred a few years ago in the capital's most famous social controversy. Gann, the Kentucky Democrat, who shared with his wife and her brother, Charles Curtis, the lime-light of the vice-presidency, was found dead in his home here at the age of 55. He had been slightly ill two days before but was at his law office yesterday. Curtis, vice-president in the Hoover administration, died eight months ago. Reached at Evansville, Ind., the widow planned to return home immediately. While Curtis was vice-president in the Hoover administration, a much-publicized controversy over precedence at social functions swirled about the trio. Those were the days when the vice-president dined out, and appeared in the honor box at the capital's balls as part of his official duties. Whether Mrs. Gann should have precedence over Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, wife of the speaker of the house and daughter of Theodore Roosevelt, aroused much discussion. Statuesque Mrs. Gann, her status as her brother's "official hostess" upheld by the state department, always made the grand entrance with a short and smiling man on either side—her brother and her husband. Gann, who was an attorney and examiner for the interstate commerce commission and special assistant to the attorney general in the Wilson Administration, shared his wife's pleasure in Curtis's political successes. When the ailing wife of Dolly's brother decided her husband should be President, out to Cleveland in 1924 went Mrs. Gann and her husband, and put on an effective, if not winning, campaign. Four years later in Kansas City, Curtis headed his own cohorts, but the Ganns were next in command, and together they won the vice-presidential place. Mrs. Curtis was dead then, and Curtis was a member of the Gann household. Then came Chicago, and the Ganns' biggest battle. Curtis was kept in Washington by the senate session. Dolly Gann found in Chicago an attempt to write him off the slate as Hoover's running mate. She and her democratic husband neither ate nor slept, just fought. They triumphed.

Tyler Gann was born with a partial club foot and his father fearing that with this handicap he would be unable to become a successful farmer sent him to school in Madison. It is unknown just how much formal education he received. One of his letters to his brother, Robert R. "Bob" Gann, written in 1890s has survived. It is written in a beautiful script or "hand" as it was called in those days. He is said to have "clerked" in a store in Madison; later working for the county at the courthouse in Wentworth. Still later, he worked in one of the government departments in Washington, D.C. The letter mentioned above was written from Washington describing his work, the city of Washington and some of the social activities. He contracted TB while working in Washington, D.C. Although he was engaged to be married, after learning that he had the fatal disease, he would not marry, and so died single. Lois Gann Perdue (his niece) says that he did not have a club foot but that he was accidently hit on the knee with a rock while sitting on his mother's lap. His leg never grew after that.

It is unknown just how much formal education he received. One of his letters to his brother, Robert R. "Bob" Gann, written in 1890s has survived. It is written in a beautiful script or "hand" as it was called in those days. He is said to have "clerked" in a store in Madison; later working for the county at the courthouse in Wentworth. Still later, he worked in one of the government departments in Washington, D.C. The letter mentioned above was written from Washington describing his work, the city of Washington and some of the social activities. He contracted TB while working in Washington, D.C. Although he was engaged to be married, after learning that he had the fatal disease, he would not marry, and so died single. Lois Gann Perdue (his niece) says that he did not have a club foot but that he was accidently hit on the knee with a rock while sitting on his mother's lap. His leg never grew after that.

The jury according to the verdict read by Raymond David, Foreman, found that Ghan met death because of his own careless parking of his car on the wrong side of the road and in the line of opposing traffic. A total of 16 witnesses testified during hearing. At the time Hershel Ghan's son Clyde Ghan and Miss Gray, age 21, telephone operatorof Monett, Mo, was in the back seat of the Ghan car and Miss Gray decided she wanted to get out of the car, which was parked in the center of the road. James Hershel Ghan got out of the car on the left side and was standing on the road against the running board inside the door of the car reaching to hold back a seat so that Miss Gray might dismount from the two door vehicle. At that moment, Young Worthington drove over a hill from the north, headed southward and struck the door of the Ghan car and also hitting Ghan. the testimony indicated that Ghan was carried some 50 feet on the front of the Worthington car. Miss Gray lost her left leg when the door was slammed shut by the collision.

News Item in Princeton Telegraph, Wednesday, October 19, 1910: Lived Here 75 Years - Samuel B. Gann, seventy-six years of age and a pioneer resident of Marion township, died Tuesday, October 11, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. D. L. Alley, of Mercer, after a two weeks illness with Nephritis. Funeral services were held Wednesday, conducted by Rev. A. S. Olson, after which the remains were borne to the Girdner cemetery and tenderly laid to rest by the side of his beloved companion who preceded him in death over two years ago. Mr. Gann was a native of Tennessee and was born December 9, 1833. Two years later he emigrated with his parents to Missouri where he has since made his home. On March 1, 1885 [should be 1855], he was united in marriage to Mary R. Newlin and to this union were born eight children—five sons and three daughters. Of these the following four survive the parents: Mrs. D. L. Alley, Mercer; J. W. Gann, Niles, Okla.; S. P. Gann, Springfield, Mo.; J. F. Gann, McCloud, Okla. The wife and mother died Dec. 26, 1907. Thirty-eight years ago the deceased was converted at a revival meeting at the Girdner school house and united with the U. B. Church with which organization he since affiliated and lived a true Christian life. Mr. Gann was universally respected and loved by a large circle of friends and was everywhere recognized as an honest, conscientious christian gentleman. No greater tribute than this could be paid to any one man. He lived a long life of great usefulness and has passing will be regretted and is a loss to the entire community. The hearts of all go out to the bereft children in their affliction.

In 1840, the family left Hamilton Co., Tennessee in a wagon train with Garrett Vandegrippe, Joel Hall (married to Margaret Vandegrippe, sister of Sarah), Harvey Burkhart, William Roberts, Sr., and Caswell Roberts families. Some of them drove a yoke of oxen with a saddle horse hitched in front of the oxen and a milk cow tied behind the wagon, bringing with few personal items with them that room would permit. They followed the Indian Trail of Tears through the Cumberland Gap, across Kentucky to St. Louis, and then south by the way of Springfield. After six weeks the group reached their destination. The Uriah Gann family arrived at Swansville, a settlement consisting of a school and church, located north of Garrison, Missouri on Swan Creek. Jack and Nancy Weaver were already there. They were the first of the family to move to this area to make their home. Nancy was the daughter of Garrett Vandegrippe.
and the sister of Margaret (Peggy) Hall and Sarah (Sally) Gann, the wife of Uriah. Soon after their arrival the families began to move to different areas to make their home. Joel and Peggy Hall stayed in the area of Swan Creek. Joel was the judge for many years of Christian County, until he resigned. Uriah and Sally Gann moved to the Shady Grove community, located southwest of Sparta, Missouri. Garrett Vandegrippe, Sally's father, lived near them for a while but later moved with his youngest daughter, Jane (Jincy) Miller and her family to the Bolivar, Missouri area. This is where he was at the time of his death. Uriah and Sally continued on in this area. Christian County was not yet formed, so when they first settled here they were living in Marion Township, Taney County, Missouri.

Robert was a fanner and he and Lunda lived all their married life in the Shady Grove community in Christian Co., Missouri, except for a short time in 1899. Robert and Lunda and her parents went to Oklahoma to try and find work. They had just been there a short time when their baby, Beulah, got sick. Lunda, her mother, and the baby came back by train to Christian County, and the men followed with the wagons and their belongings. Beulah never recovered, she had contacted spinal meningitis and died from it. In 1944 Robert began suffering from strokes leaving him unable to talk. He got a blood clot in his leg and it turned black to his hip. It was while he was so bad and the family was sitting up with him, not expecting him to live, that all four of his daughters ate some mashed potatoes at his home and got food poisoning. They were all real sick and Dr. Wilson came from Sparta and stayed all night caring for them. Robert died shortly after this. After Robert's death Lunda stayed on the farm until poor health caused her to move in with her children. She was beginning to have heart problems and could no longer live alone. She died at the home of her daughter, Dema Kissee. She had been staying with Clell and Pauline Farwell. On their way to church at Ozark, they had left her at Dema's home. Shortly after arriving at church the Christian County Sheriff, Clay Hodges, came and notified them of her death. She died of a heart attack as she was getting ready to leave for church. Robert and Lunda were members of the Shady Grove Baptist Church.

(1605) Samuel Russell Gann, (William 3) was born 28 Aug 1866 in Jefferson Co, TN, and married 31 Oct 1886, Cynthia Catherine Crews, daughter of Obediah Crews and Rebecca, who was born 24 Apr 1861. Samuel Russell died 27 Apr 1932 in Mutton Hollow, Jefferson Co, TN and was buried in Wesley's Chapel, Jefferson Co, TN. Cynthia Catherine died 19 May 1898 in Jefferson Co, TN and was buried in Wesley's Chapel, Jefferson Co, TN.

Statement given by John and Tracy Gann - Transcribed by Lois Ruth Gann Stalans: Samuel Russell Gann was commonly called S.R. Gann. He worked on Beaver Dam for Alfred Swann. He rafted logs from the French Broad River to Knoxville. When he was 18, he left home and went to Kansas and worked about two years. When he returned to Tennessee, he married Cynthia Cruise, and they had three children - Nora, Parmer, and Charlie. He moved with his wife and children to Texas, remaining there about four years until his wife became ill and he had to return to Tennessee. He then bought 56 acres of land for $400 in Mutton Hollow in Jefferson County. Cynthia died in childbirth. He later married Rhoda Victoria Miller. They had 11 children. He liked people a lot, and always had a crowd of friends in on Sundays. He liked to hunt, fish and swim. He could swim the French Broad River. He liked to sneak into someone else's watermelon patch and float them across the river. He worked for Jefferson County Road Department for about 10 years. He crushed the first rocks used on Jefferson County Roads about 74 years ago.

He was very close to his brother, Anderson Gann.

Statement Taken From Charles Buford Gann on August 19, 1982: I helped dig Grandpa Gann's grave along with Charlie Allen and Jim Romines who were neighbors. Grandpa paid us 10 cents a day to work on his farm, and before bed, he would give us a hot toddy. He took a big tablespoon of whiskey, added two teaspoon's of sugar and hot water. It was always served in a teacup. Grandpa's cave was well known. It is in Mutton Hollow about half-way through. It sits on the northwest corner of a mountain. Inside, he kept one-gallon and two-gallon jugs. He hosted fox hunts in the hollow and the jugs were kept for refreshments. I have seen as many as 100 foxhounds at grandpa's hunts. Sometimes the hunt would continue for three days. When his own boys were small, he would have them sit on the holes leading to the fox's dens during a hunt. Sometimes, he built fires over the holes. He was a big man with a big red mustache. He fed his hounds cornbread made with buttermilk every night. His main dog was Steamboat and was so named because when he bayed, he sounded like a steamboat. When grandpa died, his body was kept in the room to the right as you enter the front door. It is the room with the fireplace. The grandchildren slept in the room to the left across the hall from grandpa's room...

Statement From Mrs. Bonnie Moore and Mrs. Avo Satterfield on June 25, 1981: Samuel Russell Gann's house in Mutton Hollow was built in 1916. There was an old house on the spot where the present house is standing. It was built high off the ground on posts. There was a red plum tree standing in the yard. S. R. Gann was a hard worker. He owned two mules: Meg and Lou. There was a peach orchard on the plateau of the wooded mountain in back of the house. He grew Indian Peaches which were the color of beets. S. R. Gann also grew corn, wheat, peas, and later, tobacco. The children went to school only until frost. While the house was being built, the family lived in a tent, the smoke house, and the granery. Charlie and Jo lived on what was called the Brooks lot of the farm immediately after their marriage. They had prayer every night and Avo's first ideas about God were planted by Jo while she taught Avo simple prayers. Charlie Gann and his family lived at the Latham Place when Samuel R. Gann died. Bonnie can remember Charlie sitting by his father's bed just before his death and listening to his father sing, "Who will come and go with me, I am bound for the Promised Land." Palmer visited about one month before S.R.G. died. S.R. Gann always told Avo that she was like his mother, Rebecca Thomas. Before living at the Latham Place, Charlie and Joel loaded their children on a bus and for four years picked fruit. They migrated with the seasons and with the work available. There is a house standing today on the spot where their house was. When one travels from Wesley's Chapel toward the High School, it is the third house on the left. Bonnie went to Oakland school. Avo attended school at both Oakland and Flat Gap. Part of the Oakland school is still standing. It has been changed into a community center.

Georgia and Burt Cox were frequent visitors to the Gann homeplace in Mutton Hollow. Aunt Sarah also visited. She lived in Dandridge for a while. Samuel Russell Gann almost always wore a mustache and hesmoked a pipe. He was a Republican. Two songs he often sang were "O Them Golden Slippers" and "O Sinner where will you stand." There was a long home made table in the dining room which doubled as an operating table whenever a doctor came to operate on a member of the family. The house also contained two old three-cornered cabinets - one of which was walnut. The family slept on high beds with straw tics and also feather beds. Light during the night was provided by kerosene lamps. One was on the wall with a reflector in the back. S. R. Gann was a fox hunter. He hunted after the evening meal. To call his dogs while hunting, he blew a big horn made from the horns of Texas cattle belonging to his nephew, Porter Gann. The small end of the horn was covered with a metal mouth piece. Usually, the horns hung on a nail on the front porch. He hunted with his best friend who was a physician, Dr. McCowan. Another hunting companion was Sanford Burnett (known to the family as Uncle San). Sanford Burnett brought the family gifts on Christmas and the family would give Burnett canned goods. Bonnie remembers the names of two of the foxhounds owned by her father - Steamboat and Bonnie. S.R.G.'s Bible was worn from regular reading. The farm also produced cane which was made into sorgum molasses. Both Bonnie and Avo remember a shelf in the house where lard, salt, and soda was placed. There was also a long bin for flour. Bonnie remembers a large bread tray in which her mother made biscuits (it looked like a wooden salad bowl). There was also an old roung-topped trunk in which was stored old clothing belonging to Samuel Russell Gann's first wife, Cynthia Catherine Cruse. The clothes were black, and there was a black slat-bonnet. S. R. Gann worked his last day on November 10. he died in April. He suffered terribly. The funeral was at Wesley's Chapel. The only debt he left was $100 for a new tobacco barn.

Transcribed from the journal of Rick Gann - Dated June 6, 1981: ...Today, I visited with my great-aunt, Bonnie Moore...Aunt Bonnie talked about my Grandfather and Grandmother Gann...She said that the Bible tells us that all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God, and therefore, my grandparents must not have been perfect—but they were the closest to perfect she had ever seen. Brother Marion (of Calvary Baptist), the pastor of the church my grandparents attended in New Castle still mentions them in his sermons. Bonnie told me that on one occasion, he told the congregation that ministers got "the blues" just like everyone else. Many times, he had been depressed about some problem, and he would visit my grandparents and always received comfort. She also talked about my Grandfather Gann getting into his Studebaker and driving to church. Because he walked with such difficulty (Charlie C. Gann was a victim of Multiple Sclerosis), he stayed in the car and Brother Marion would leave the back door open so Grandpa could listen to the sermon while seated in his car in the parking lot. She also told me today that money from their estate was used to buy a piano for Wesley's Chapel in Jefferson County where they attended church before moving to Indiana and where they are also buried. There is a small gold plate on the piano dedicating it to their memory. Alonzo Moore, Bonnie's husband, talked about Grandpa's smile. He remembered how he fell when trying to plow his garden, but he always got up to go on with a smile on his face... My grandfather and grandmother lived in a small two-story home at 2424 South Main Street when they were in New Castle. I visited on weekends, usually arriving after school. If my grandfather was not at work in his garden or reading his New Testament (which is now in my possession), he usually sat on a small porch in front of the house or under a box elder tree which shaded a goldfish pond south of the house. The pond was later made into a flower bed. ...Ordinarily, my grandparents listened to Gospel music. The only secular song by Grandfather Gann liked was Floyd Cramer's recording of "Last Date." I often read to them from their family Bible.
Statement Taken From Charles Buford Gann on August 19, 1982

Before we moved to Oregon, Dad owned 111 acres on a mountain. The old house we lived in was close to a peach orchard which was on his land. It also had a log house on it and a rather new barn. We traveled to Oregon by train. We had to change trains at Salt Lake City, Utah. Dad carried an old trunk. Mother had two suitcases and Mildred. I took care of one suitcase and Lee. Wayne took care of himself, and Ernestine was loaded down too. When we were living in Oregon, Dad hired a fellow to take the family across a river on a ferryboat in his truck. The children were put in the back of the truck and told to be quiet so they would not be charged extra for being ferried to Washington. Dad rented a house in back of the cheese factory. He made cheese for two or three companies with his brother, Palmer. The house we lived in was two stories, and there was a woodshed hooked to the house. Light was provided by gaslights and Coleman lamps. All of the family had gone to the beach one Sunday. We came in just at dark. Ernestine opened a door leading to the stairs. We were going upstairs to get ready for bed. At that moment, a woman knocked at the door and asked to borrow gasoline. Dad struck a match to light a lamp, the match ignited gasoline fumes, and the woodshed exploded. The house caught on fire and everything was destroyed. No one in the family was hurt. We moved to a store across from the cheese factory. Then we collected furniture and moved above the cheese factory. All of this took place in Menlo, Tennessee. Dad bought a car without a body. He drove it home sitting on the fuel tank. He built a schoolbus body and hauled kids to school in it. In the winter, he hauled coal in it. The family later used the bus as transportation up and down the west coast following the fruit harvest. We picked fruit, saved money, and bought the rest of the farm in Tennessee. It was an additional 90 acres. The new tract formed a "T" with the original acreage. We returned to Tennessee. It was hard times during the 1930's, but we were never hungry. Each of us received one pair of shoes each year. The shoes were purchased at the Underwood store which ws at the corner on the left as you turn toward Jefferson City. Dad worked for the store in exchange for the shoes. He also hauled coal for all of the county schools.

On the farm, we grew millet hay, bean hay, oats, and we also had a truck patch - melons, potatoes, etc. Dad rented a lot more acreage too from Mrs. Wagner. He rented more land then he owned. The farmhouse had a large frontporch and a big living room which also doubled on occasion as a bedroom. Mom hosted quilting parties all the time. Every week, the quilters went to a different house. Our first radio was an RCA. It had a big horn on it. Mom listeded to the Grand Ole Opy. The Horner boys (Jodie, John, Paul, and Ben) organized Gospel singing events. Mom sang in one of the quartets. It was called the Oak Grove Quartet, and she sang alto. There was a Gospel sing every Sunday. The other woman in the group was Ruth Lyons. The Quartet was organized at Oak Grove near Dandridge. We went to hear Roy Acuff sing when he was about 19 years old. He was performing somewhere in the Smoky Mountains. We parked on the side of the road and looked into the park because we couldn't get in. When we were driving back from Washington State, we drove up a large mountain. About half-way up, the brakes failed, and mother jumped out to hold the car. Dad jammed the gear into reverse and drove into a ditch. We camped in schoolyards while driving back to Tennessee. It took us 30 or 32 days to drive back. We were often visited by Aunt Nora Riley, Uncle George Swann, and Uncle Tobe Swann. Dad traded the schoolbus for a seven passenger Buick. Dad would break a team of mules in exchange for their use for one year. He bought wild horses in Knoxville. He never owned a tractor. I think Mom and Dad met at Dandridge when Dad was visiting his first cousin, Jim Gann. Jim later lived in Sevierville. The Swanns had a family reunion at Jim Gann's house. We went in a horse-drawn wagon that had a hay rack on it. We also went to Uncle Charlie Riley's sometimes on Saturday night. Dad had a team of horses. The white mare was named Mary, and the red horse was named Frank. He also had a team of Mules - Bill and Joe. On Christmas Day, Dad and the boys including me usually went rabbit hunting. We were expected to be in church every Sunday. We went to Sunday school, the singing, and the preaching. Dad would not permit us to fish. He thought it was a sign of laziness. So we sank an old barrel in one of the ponds. We placed our fishing poles in the cattails and when we went to water the horses (which we did three times a day), we checked the fishing lines. We placed the fish in the barrel, waited until we had enough for a fish fry, and when Mom and Dad were at Wesley's Chapel, we fried the fish. Mom and Dad would allow us to go to Oak Grove rather than Wesley's Chapel if we wanted. So, all we had to do was say we were going to Oak Grove. We would get some salt, meal, and fry our fish. After we finished, we washed Mom's pans and put it all back just like we found it. They had to know.

Statement taken from Samuel Rhoten Gann on Aug. 16, 1982: ...I was four or five years old when my father came to New Castle to work at Chrysler Corporation. We lived on the southwest corner of Cherrywood and "Q" Avenue. He worked for six months, and then we returned to the old home place. Dad had made me a blackgum wagon, and while we were in New Castle, Aunt Bernice gave it away. We left Tennessee and went to Colorado for one year. We lived in Marino, Colorado. From Marino, we returned to New Castle. My first job was at Keene's Motors washing cars in 1946. I along with Bob Elkins, Bob Brine and one other fellow put in an application for employment at Chrysler. We were all hired. The company discovered that the other three were minors. I was not discovered until after I had reached my 18th birthday. The personnel manager came out onto the plant floor about one year after I was hired asking to see my birth certificate. By then, I was 18. I also held the record for working the longest period of time without missing a day at work - 18 months. At Chrysler in New Castle, I drove a truck for eight years. I operated a crane for eight years, and I worked six months in heat treatment. On occasion, I worked as a janitor for a few months at a time. The remaining time, I worked as a furnace repairman. I was sixteen years old when we lived in Colorado. I liked the state. My older brother, Charles Buford, rented 80 or 90 acres of farmland, and I worked for him. We raised sugar beets, corn, and alfalfa. My salary was $40 per month. The crops were irrigated... When I was 10 or 11 years old, my father fell from a scaffold while hanging wall paper and tore ligaments in his leg. For that reason, he sold his farm in Jefferson County and moved with the family to Anderson County where he bought a grist mill and a seven room house in the Scarborough Community. The schoolhouse is still standing. The Oakridge Atomic Energy Project took the land, but Dad was never paid anywher near the price that he had given for the property. From there, we went to Byington. We had a house and a few acres. I attended school at Carnes High. We raised hogs. In Jefferson County, we raised lespedesa hay, tobacco, corn and wheat. The Ganns and Swanns had family reunions together - perhaps at Flat Gap. I was born in Jefferson City. There was a big tree in the front yard of the old home place. Dad owned land on both sides of the road. The house sat between two ponds, and there was a mountain in back which was used for grazing cattle. I was a teenager the last time I was in my Grandfather Gann's house. I went to the smokehouse and found a pile of broken pipes which belonged to Grandpa. I remember taking one. My dad used horses and mules to farm. He bought their horses in Knoxville. One time, a guy asked dad to break his mules for him and promised in payment that Dad could use them in the summer for work on his own farm. As soon as they were broken, however, he came and took the mules away. Dad was forced go to Knoxville and buy wild western horses. He never used a tractor. Threshing machines came in to thresh the wheat. Every Sunday morning, we walked to Wesley's Chapel. Sometimes we went to Oakland for revival services.

Dad owned a 1929 or 1930 Model "A" Ford. Later, he had a 1939 Buick convertible. We went to Colorado in this.
Lee had bought it, could not pay for it, so Dad took over the payments. Next Dad had a 1940 or '41 Willis (jeep); then, a Crosley which was built in Richmond. It was a station wagon and Melba learned to drive on this. The last car he owned was a Studebaker. The first car I ever owned was a 1941 Plymouth. I bought it from Isaac Sorentell for $200 and 800 bushels of corn. Then I had: a 1947 Pontiac, 1951 Ford Crown Victoria which was two-tone brown.
I traded it for seven acres beside J.D. Smith in southern Henry County. I had a 1939 Ford two-door coup; a 1955 Ford convertible which was pink and white and had a "continental kit." I bought a 959 black Ford, and then a 1973 Chevy
