THE HISTORY OF THE GRAVES FAMILY IN VIRGINIA

by

John Card Graves.

Captain Thomas Graves (1) born in England, came to Virginia with the second band of settlers on the ship "Mary and Margaret" in 1608, accompanied by his wife Katherine, sons John and Thomas and eight others, including Henry Singleton and Thomas Edge. He remained with the Colonists on the James River for some time, was taken prisoner by the Indians and ransomed; represented Smythes Hundred in the House of burgesses which convened at Jamestown Va. July 30, 1619, the first of American legislative bodies. He was living on the Eastern Shore in 1624 in what was then known as Accomac now a part of Northampton Co. where he had a large plantation. On the 24th of March 1628 he was granted by Dr. Thomas Pott Governor of Va. 200 acres of land on the Eastern side of the Bay of Chesapeak westerly of the lands of Captain Henry Fluta, an explorer of the Bay "by virtue of the adventure of five and twenty pounds paid by the said Captain Thomas Graves to Sir Thomas Smyth treasurer of the Virginia Company". He paid a "quit rent" of one shilling for fifty acres payable at the feast of St. Michael the Arch Angel (September 29th) each year on a part of his land. He was appointed a Commissioner to build a Fort at Old Point Comfort where Fortress Monroe now stands and was also Commissioner of Courts in 1630-1632.

Note: Capt. Thomas was burgess for Accomac in 1629, 1632 and 1637.
He was Justice of "Accawmacke" in 1631 and at a Court held there Sept. 14, 1635 he was appointed Vestryman of "Hungars Church" which was situated in what is now Northampton Co., Va., on the north side of "Hungars Creek" about seven miles north of Eastville. The church edifice of which a picture is given herewith was erected in 1690 to 1695 and is still standing and is one of the oldest church edifices in the country. The first minister was Rev. Francis Bolton. Rev. William Cotton who married Ann Graves was minister until his death in 1640. There is a tradition in the family that he was the son of Widow Joan Cotton of Dunbury Cheshire Co., Eng., and was granted 350 acres of land on the main branches of Hungars Creek adjoining the lands of his brother-in-law Captain Wm. Stone, 100 acres for personal adventure of himself and wife and 250 acres for the transportation of five persons to Va. viz. Eleanor Hill, Richard Hill, Edward Eason and Domingo and Semson negroes. Mr. Cotton was succeeded by Rev. John Nocker who had for a time as ass't the notorious Nathaniel Eaton, first head of Harvard College who went to Va. after his dismissal from Harvard and by a singular coincidence married another Ann Graves. The other persons named by the Court as Vestrymen of Hungars Church were William Cotton, Minister, Obedience Robins, John Howe, William Stone (First Protestant Governor of Maryland), Wm. Burdett, William Andrews, John Wilkins, Alexander Mountray, Edward Drew, William Beniman and Stephen Charlton.

Captain Thomas Graves died before August 9, 1637 when patent for 600 acres was granted his son John Graves on account of his father who brought to Va. his wife, two sons and eight other persons, eleven beside himself.

Graves of Lebanon Ky who had studied and become perfectly familiar with his character.

"In early life there was about Absalom Graves a manliness and fascination which won the respect of all classes and fore-shadowed the patriarchal position he was to occupy in the world. He was studious, devoting his leisure hours to self improvement and became the best educated man in his community. His fitness for civil responsibilities was soon recognized and he was made Clerk of the Ducerter Sessions in 1799 the year after Boone Co. Ky was formed and held that position until 1805 when the Circuit Court was formed and he was made clerk which office he held until just before his death in 1826. He was ordained to the Christian Ministry in 1812 and was pastor of Bullittsburgh Ky Baptist Church for many years and the author of the hymn book..."
entitled "Graves Hymns". He was known as an exemplary man and his life was a blessing to the world. Speaking of him Rev. John Taylor says "Perhaps the Gospel of the Saviour never came better recommended by human character". It was said of him by one who knew him well "He was a model for any man. He was the most upright perfect man I have ever known in my life." He was a prosperous man and accumulated a comfortable property. He erected the first two story brick house built in Boone Co. and which somewhat remodelled still stands back from the bluffs which overlook the Ohio River opposite the mouth of the Miami River which divides Ohio and Indiana.
