The Lord is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup:
Thou maintainest my lot.
The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places;
Yea, I have a goodly heritage.

PREFACE

In 1947 after I had completed The Herndon Family of Virginia: Volume One—The First Three Generations, I decided that Volume Two should appear under the title, The Herndons of the American Revolution. The manuscript was prepared, and a part of it was actually set in type. Its content, however, was strictly limited to an identification of the various Herndons for whom I had found a record of service during the Revolution and to a recitation of what that service was. Friends whom I consulted urged me to change the style of its presentation so as to follow the arrangement, by families, usually observed in genealogical writings, and to include whatever significant data I had found applicable to each person of the fourth and fifth generation, whether it pertained to his or her part in the American Revolution or not.

Their advice was good, and so in 1948 I reprepared my manuscript, and added the names of the children of the members of the fifth generation. In other words, I extended the scope to include the names of the sixth generation and their spouses. When my friendly critics saw the result, they wisely recommended that an expansion be made to include a statement of the places and dates of birth, death, marriage, and occasionally of burial of all known members of the sixth generation and a note as to whether they left issue. Hundreds of pages of manuscript were then rewritten to include that information.

Some of these loyal friends, on reading individual sketches which I sent them, stressed their desire then to see a record of another whole generation added, by my listing corresponding information about the seventh generation. They explained that it would make the published work much more valuable, and that it would enable hundreds of persons to determine their own Herndon descent with far greater ease.

So once more I began the writing of the additional records from data I had previously assembled. (Of course, during this period of time correspondents were adding information and correcting details in previously supplied material.) It was then 1949. I was still expecting to include all this wealth of material in a single volume. But, as the year advanced, I realized better than ever before the size of the task I had set for myself. I decided that I must break up the work into Parts and complete the various Parts successively.

By the spring of 1950 I found that I then had ready for printing all that was to be included in Parts I and II. Part III was nearly ready.
THE PLAN  It is my plan to have a Part deal with all the known de-scentants in the fourth and through the seventh generation of a person mentioned in The Herndon Family of Virginia as a grandchild of William Herndon, founder of the Virginia family. Thus Part One treats of the family of John Herndon, of Charlotte County; Part Two concerns the family of Edward Herndon, of Spotsylvania County; Part Three deals with the family of William Herndon, of Orange County, Va., and so on.
Some errors in The Herndon Family of Virginia have, of course, been discovered. In the various Parts of The Herndons of the American Revolution corrections of those errors will be made in appropriate places.

FEMALE LINES  I have made no serious attempt to include herein a detailed record of Herndon descendants in the female line. Yet when appropriate information concerning them has been furnished me or when my own researches have revealed data pertinent to them, I have included a statement of that material, with citation to the source from which it was obtained.

MARRIAGE RECORDS  In Virginia the use of marriage bonds rather than marriage licenses was general from about 1783 until past the middle of the Nineteenth Century. Great numbers of these have been lost.
They were originally in the custody of county officials.

Some have been transferred to the State Library at Richmond.
Others were sent there temporarily for transcription or photostating.
Still others of the extant bonds remain in the county courthouses, some not even indexed. With the passing years these records which were for so long a time inaccessible to the general public are commencing to be more readily available, either in printed lists in genealogical publications or in the Archives Division of the State Library.

In this book I have regularly given the marriage bond date as the date of marriage, except in those cases in which I have a record of the latter as being different from the former. Since such bonds and, somewhat later, marriage licenses are nearly always arranged chronologically in the county records, I have omitted page references. When, however, information about the date of a marriage has come to me from other than an official source, I have tried, in each case, to give credit to the person who contributed it to me.

PROBATES  The first step in probating a Will is, of course, the presentation of it to the appropriate court. In some States the Will is then said to be probated; in others, proved; in others, presented for probate; in others, placed on register, and so forth. The actual probate is subsequent to this action. To a genealogist, however, the date when a Will is first presented to the court is of importance, for if that date is coupled with the date when the Will was signed or the last codicil thereto was added, there is definitely established the limited period within which the testator must have died. It has been my usual practice to use the term proved to signify that a Will was offered for probate. If the actual date of death is known, the genealogical significance of the date of probate disappears.

CENSUS RECORDS When I have lacked the exact dates of birth of the children in a family, I have frequently found their ages given in the Federal Census of 1850, 1860, 1870, or 1880. I have utilized such information without specifying the source of my statement as to the year of birth shown. Similarly, when a man is shown to be living in 1860 but his name is not shown in the next enumeration but instead his formerly listed wife is shown as then the head of what had been his family, I have ordinarily assumed that she is his widow. In such a case I would give the date of his death as “probably 1860-1870.” When successive censuses have shown wide disparities in the age of an individual, I have had to rely on other data even to estimate an approximate date of birth.

AMERICAN REVOLUTIONARY WAR SERVICE RECORDS The original source material which I examined for the preparation of The Herndons of the American Revolution is located either in The National Archives at Washington or in the Archives of the various States mentioned. In the various Parts of this book I have quoted in detail the priceless information extracted from all types of service records and pension papers. I have used secondary material only when I have tested its reliability for complete accuracy in many particulars, and also when it was impossible for me to seek out the original documents themselves. Nearly every item quoted is one which I personally examined in its present official abiding place.

LATER MILITARY SERVICE RECORDS Although the purpose of this book is to honor those brave men and women who patriotically contributed to the winning of The American Revolution, I have included herein a brief mention of the services rendered by Herndons of later generations in the War of 1812, the Indian Wars, and the Mexican War. I have made no attempt to give a full record of such service. I have, I am glad to note, what is supposed to be a complete list of the Herndons who were enrolled in the Armed Forces of our Nation in all our wars from the Revolution through the Spanish-American and an official abstract of their participation.

RECORDS of 1861-1865: UNION AND CONFEDERATE The fact that I have mentioned in the text that a person served in the Union or Confederate Army must not be taken to imply that others in that family did not also serve. My Civil War records are too voluminous to be presented herein in any detail. I have, moreover, not hesitated to use the term “Civil War.” When I was a student at Washington and Lee University, the expression “War between the States” had not gained currency. The passage of forty years has not caused me to see what is gained by the longer title. Once while I was examining some records at Spotsylvania Courthouse I saw in an old book that that titanic conflict was called “Virginia’s Second War for Independence.” My records are of brave men who lived and fought, and many of whom died for what they held most dear. Some were Union soldiers; more were Confederate soldiers. My own Herndons were all on the Confederate side of the struggle, which I call the Civil War, as they did also.

NICKNAMES Among the problems confronting an indexer one of the most troublesome concerns nicknames. I commend to your consideration, in looking for any individual’s name in the index, a thought as to the other names by which he or she may well have been called. Then see whether a person by such a name is listed.

ABBREVIATIONS The only abbreviations used herein are those regularly used in standard genealogical works. The well known volume of Spotsylvania County Records, compiled by William A. Crozier, is, however, cited merely as Crozier.

APPEAL FOR CORRECTION OF ERRORS I shall be most pleased to receive information concerning members of the Herndon family which is either additional to that contained herein or in correction of it. If the reader has any dates to supply, either of birth, marriage, or death, I hope he or she will send them to me. If any old family letters give pertinent and interesting facts not likely to be otherwise generally known, I shall be pleased to receive copies of them. If any family Bibles give data not already in my possession, I shall be delighted to receive copies, photostatic, handwritten, or typewritten. It is my plan to have a special Part of addenda et errata. If you prefer corrigenda to the uglier intimations and insinuations of errata, you may call your corrections of my errors by this milder term. I sincerely trust that the number of errors is slight and that the number of contributions of new material will be substantial. This planned Part dealing with such items will be scheduled to appear on completion of the last of the regular Parts. Whether its number will be 13 or 16 is now unimportant.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS In footnotes to various sketches in all the Parts of The Herndons of the American Revolution I have attempted to record the names of those who have furnished me information about individual members of the Herndon family. But I realize full well how inadequate such an expression of my appreciation is—as if I could crowd into a line at the bottom of a page the real sense of indebtedness I feel to each of my 800 correspondents who, by his or her generosity of time and suggestions and contributions of family records, has enriched this study.

In my earlier work, The Herndon Family of Virginia: The First Three Generations, I singled out for special recognition certain persons who had been of unusual assistance to me in its preparation. Now it becomes my privilege to name others who in various ways have been very helpful in the completion and presentation of this more ambitious opus, The Herndons of the American Revolution. The Reverend Clayton Torrence, FASG, and Meredith B. Colket, Jr., M.A., FASG, have never ceased to encourage me from the very start of my effort. The former, more than any other person, taught me the standards of genealogical excellence toward which I should strive. I have not achieved his felicity of expression whereby the dramatis personae of his genealogical sketches all become flesh and blood characters whom you would recognize if, by turning backward the wheel of time, you might meet them on the street or in the marketplace, on their plantation, at church, or at a county courthouse somewhere in Virginia or North Carolina; but I have recognized the importance of giving information additional to dates of birth, marriage, and death. Meredith Colket, though full of honors, is still in his thirties. When he was a student at Haverford College, he majored in Government under me. With the passing years our friendship has grown even closer. He has never let up in his enthusiasm to see my Herndon data arranged and printed. In the past few years I have all but majored in Genealogy under him! Only in small measure can I acknowledge my unpayable debt to my beloved wife, Grace Middleton Herndon, for her cheeriness of spirit, for her extraordinary patience with me while I sought out knowledge of Herndons who had long since passed from earth, and for her travels with me to courthouses at which she hoped I would not stop.
We have had wonderful times together on genealogical quests in England and all over the United States, and our lives have been enriched by the friendships that have blossomed from the contacts then made. Of these I here take note of two. "Top priority" ratings are given to Martha Gilmore (Mrs. R. G.) Robinson, of New Orleans, La., and Ruth Herndon (Mrs. C. W.) Shields, of Chapel Hill, N. C., both of whom have an intense love for solving baffling puzzles of family relationship. Each of these has given untold hours toward making my Herndon records more nearly complete. Mrs. Shields' compilations are, in fact, so thorough that I hope that she may be persuaded to publish them as a sort of source book on the history of Orange County, North Carolina.

Mr. George H. S. King, FASG, of Fredericksburg, Va., Miss Ann Waller Reddy, of Richmond, Va., Dr. Joseph Dupuy Eggleston, of Hampden-Sydney, Va., Miss Grace Yager, of Indianapolis, Ind., Mrs. William Day Dickinson, of Glasgow, Ky., Mrs. Luke Hodges, of Wichita Falls, Texas, and Miss Frances Powell Otken, of Macomb, Mississippi, have been wonderfully helpful in connection with specialized fields of investigation. But as I said in my earlier book, these compilations would have been impossible but for the data gathered by my uncle, Thomas Hall Herndon, now deceased, and Mr. John Waterhouse Herndon, now of Charlottesville, Va.

I wish to record here my sincere thanks for the especially helpful suggestions on several genealogical research matters given me by Mrs. James Claiborne Pollard, of the staff of the Archives Division of the Virginia State Library at Richmond, and by her assistants, Miss Bass, Mrs. Nugent, and Mrs. Russell. Mrs. W. S. West, of the staff of the North Carolina Department of History and Archives, at Raleigh, Mr. E. M. Lynch, Clerk of the Superior Court of Orange County, at Hillsboro, North Carolina, and Mrs. Margaret M. H. Finch, who retired in 1949 from her position in the Veterans Administration, Washington, D. C., where for many years she was in charge of Revolutionary War pension claims, are three other public servants who have generously rendered me aid "beyond the call of duty." They deserve special recognition for their part in the Herndon record.

I contributed to the Daughters of the American Revolution Magazine for January 1950 an article entitled "The Militia of Spotsylvania County, Virginia, as evidenced by Petitions of 14 November 1776." In response to my request for permission to reprint that article in this book, Mrs. James B. Patton, President General, National Society Daughters of the American Revolution, wrote me under date of 29 November 1950 in part as follows: "I am happy to give this permission, and wish you all

And last, for an entirely different field of his cooperation, I mention Mr. Arthur J. Frank, executive vice-president of The Wickersham Printing Company, Incorporated, of Lancaster, Pennsylvania. In season and out of season he and his co-workers have aided me with suggestions for the improvement of the appearance of what I have written. They know, as all true booklovers know, that fine printing is an art.

#6 Edward Herndon (second son of Edward Herndon and his wife Mary Waller) died, testate, in Spotsylvania County, Va., 1759. By his first wife, Elizabeth, believed to be Elizabeth Stubblefield, he left the four children named below. By his second wife, Mary Brock, he had no issue. For details about him see HFV 19-25. The record of each of his children is included in the following pages:

28 Edward Herndon m Mary Duerson.
29 John Herndon m Mary Lewis.
30 Elizabeth Herndon m John Battaley.
31 Joseph Herndon m 1st Philadelphia Foster; m 2nd Mary Minor.
FOURTH GENERATION

#28 Edward Herndon [6 Edward] was born about 1729 in Spotsylvania County, Va. About 1755 he married Mary Duerson, a daughter of Thomas Duerson and his wife Hannah Brock. Thomas Duerson in his Will, dated 5 December 1768, mentions his son-in-law Edward Herndon.¹

Called Edward Herndon, Jr., he was first appointed collector of the Parish levy by the Vestry of St. George’s Parish 5 November 1750. He was subsequently reappointed every year ² through 1766. Others who served as collectors with him during certain of those years were John Battaley, Joseph Brock, and his brother Joseph Herndon. Beginning in December 1758 he was regularly designated Edward Herndon, the “Jr” being omitted. He was first elected a vestryman 17 February 1767. When the Vestry met 26 January 1768 at the home of Robert Farish, he was one of the six vestrymen who voted against sending a petition for division of the Parish to the next meeting of the Virginia General Assembly; the motion being lost, 6 to 6. Edward Herndon was then appointed church warden for the year. Later that year when the vestry met at the Long Ordinary in Fredericksburg, he was one of the five vestrymen appointed to agree with workmen for the building of a new church, 50 feet long by 26 feet wide, convenient to some spring and not more than a mile and a half from Burbridge’s Bridge, and was also appointed to a committee which should award to the lowest bidder a contract for building an addition to the Pamunkey Chapel. It was decided that, after the splitting of the Parish, the name “St. George’s” should be retained by the Mattanopy Church, it being the oldest or mother church. Edward Herndon, Gent., was mentioned as present as a vestryman at the meeting on 18 December 1769 at the home of Mr. Wm. Wood in Spotsylvania County. It seems likely that the changes in the Parish boundaries made it inconvenient or improper for Edward Herndon to continue to serve as a vestryman after 1769 for, by 1770, Berkeley Parish had been established and Edward Herndon’s home was within its limits. At any rate his name no longer appeared as present at vestry meetings. If the Berkeley Parish register or vestry book were extant, it

¹ This Will is abstracted in Crozier, 25. The statement in IX VMHB 32 that Edward Herndon married Mary Colson is erroneous.

² These appointments were regularly made at the last meeting of the year, but for 1761 and 1765 they were deferred until the succeeding April.
MONITORING SYSTEM

This section discusses the importance of monitoring systems in various fields such as healthcare, finance, and environmental control. It highlights the role of sensors and data collection technologies in real-time monitoring, which is crucial for early detection and response to critical events. The text elaborates on the integration of monitoring systems with software and cloud technologies to enhance data analysis and decision-making processes. Examples of successful implementations are provided to illustrate the benefits of adopting monitoring systems.

The section also addresses the challenges faced in maintaining and ensuring the reliability of monitoring systems, including issues related to data security, privacy, and interoperability. Strategies for overcoming these challenges are discussed, along with the need for continuous improvement in monitoring technologies.

In conclusion, the importance of monitoring systems in modern society cannot be overstressed. They play a pivotal role in ensuring safety, efficiency, and sustainability in various domains. As technology advances, there is a continuous need for innovation in monitoring systems to meet the evolving needs of society.
would show whether Edward Herndon continued to serve as a vestryman of the new Parish. Reference will be made to the reappearance of his name as a vestryman in 1790.

He was commissioned Second Lieutenant of Foot 4 May 1756. The details of his service in the Colonial Forces are not known.

He served on the Spotsylvania Committee of Safety, 1775 and 1776, as did also his brothers John and Joseph. One reference thereto reads:

He was commissioned Sheriff of Spotsylvania County 13 October 1778.

He was enrolled as a member of the Spotsylvania County Militia in Captain Robert Chew's Company and in that capacity signed the petition of 14 November 1776 cited in Appendix A. His firm even penmanship on that document is the same as that found in certain books from his library now in the hands of his descendants. But he did not serve as a private. He had long since achieved his captaincy, though the date is not now of record. This soldier was designated Captain Edward Herndon both in the Will of Daniel Branham, dated 7 January 1784, and in the Minutes of the Vestry of St. George's Parish 4 April 1790 when he was elected a vestryman and again 29 April 1791 when he resigned.

He entered claims to three tracts in Jefferson County, Ky., in the years 1780 and 1782, as follows:

1,500 acres on Little Kentucky: 9 May 1780
1,000 acres on 12-Mile Creek: 22 May 1780
7,023 acres on Brashears Creek: 23 December 1782

The first of these was granted to Edward Herndon by the State of Kentucky 6 November 1792, when the land was in Shelby County, and the second also by the State of Kentucky 1 August 1796, when the land was in Mason County. The last of these three was recorded as a Virginia Land Grant, surveyed for Edward Herndon 4 November 1783. Grants, such as this last one, were reserved for those who had served either in the French and Indian War or the Revolution. [It looks as if this enormous grant was made for French and Indian War Service. JGH]

Edward Herndon, describing himself as "of Spotsylvania County", conveyed 9 September 1796 to Lewis Craig of Mason County the original grant of 7,023 acres. Again calling himself "Edward Herndon, of Spotsylvania County", he entered into an agreement of sale for the other lands in what had been Shelby County, but the transaction had not been completed at the time of his death. Then these lands were in Henry County. He mentions these tracts in his Will. Significant aspects of the Henry County transactions are that he entered into a contract in September 1796 to convey to John White and that John White, in order to perfect his title thereto, signed a power of attorney 27 January 1802, which is important as showing that Edward Herndon, of Spotsylvania, was then dead, thus positively identifying this particular Edward Herndon. It reads:

"1,500 acres of land on the waters of the Little Kentucky and granted to said Herndon. . . ."

Whereas I became a purchaser of 1,500 acres of land of Edward Herndon lying on the waters of Drennin Lick Creek and Little Kentucky, deeded to me by Thomas Herndon, his attorney [also his son], on 10 September 1796 . . . I, John White, of Henry County, Kentucky, do nominate my trusty friend John Bartlett my lawful attorney to demand and receive of the executors of the said Edward Herndon the bond executed by me aforesaid and paid by me. [Italics not in the original.]

Edward Herndon, of Berkeley Parish, Spotsylvania County, made his Will 5 August 1793 and added a codicil 4 March 1799. In the completed document he made provision for his wife Mary and "all my children" of whom John, Edward, William, and Joseph Herndon were named, as well as his sons-in-law, James Lewis and Anthony Frazer. His lands especially mentioned were (1) an estate called Dewed Heads which he had bought of James Frazer, (2) his plantation on Perry's Run, and (3)

a grant to two tracts of land in Kentucky, to which reference has been made above.\(^1\)

The amount realized from the sale of his personal property in a two-day auction held 12-13 December 1799 totaled £1,171 4s. 11d. Among the purchasers were his sons John, Edward, and Joseph Herndon, his sons-in-law Anthony and William Frazer, his brother Joseph Herndon, his cousin Booker Waller, and a nephew Thomas Duerson.

181 Edward Herndon m Mary Elizabeth Sharpe.
182 Sarah Herndon m James Frazer.
183 Thomas Herndon m Susannah Beverley Stubblefield.
184 William Herndon m Isabella Whiteler.
185 Philadelphia Herndon m William Frazer.
186 Joseph Herndon m Lucy Duerson.
187 Lucy Garnett Herndon m John Churchill Gordon.

\(^{#29}\) John Herndon [6 Edward] was born about 1732 in Spotsylvania County, Va., where he died in 1783. He married late in 1758 Mary Lewis,\(^1\) who died late in 1797. She was a daughter of William and Sarah Lewis.\(^2\)

He is first mentioned in the records of Spotsylvania 2 August 1755 when he was commissioned ensign in Captain William Miller's Company of Foot. Three days later he took the necessary oath. On 11 March 1757 he was commissioned ensign in Captain Thomas Estes' Company of Foot. He was sworn in 5 April 1757.\(^3\)

On 30 April 1757 he and his brother Edward witnessed a deed from Thomas and Mary Duerson to Stapleton. Thereafter he witnessed deeds, mortgages, leases, etc., to which relatives, friends, and neighbors were parties, the last such being dated 5 June 1780.\(^4\)

This public-minded citizen had his first civil assignment 16 May 1757 when he was authorized by the Spotsylvania Court to build a bridge over the Po River at the place where the road crossed some planks that were commonly called Corbin's Bridge and to maintain and keep the bridge in repair for seven years after he had finished it. It was certified to the Court 1 November 1757 that the bridge had been completed 19 July 1757.

Succeeding his brother Joseph as a Collector of the Parish Levy 6 April 1762, John Herndon continued to serve in that capacity almost uninterruptedly until 1780, his last such appointment being 1 December 1779. His compensation was fixed at 6 percent of the collections made in currency and at 12 percent of those made in tobacco. In addition to the items relating to his collections in the Vestry Book of St. George's Parish, Volume II, the following from Spotsylvania County Auditors Account Book is mentioned:

John Herndon and John Holloday, Collectors of Taxes for Spotsylvania County March 1779 to Ball, Collector of Taxes, 1778...£643:17:7.

He was appointed Clerk of the Vestry 26 June 1770 with salary fixed at 800 pounds of tobacco per annum which was increased to 1,000 pounds per annum beginning 11 November 1771. He served until 19 February 1779 when William Wood resigned as Vestryman and [was] chosen Clerk of the Vestry, Capt. John Herndon, former clerk having resigned.

This is the first of many references herein noted to the subject of this sketch as Captain John Herndon.

In point of time the first such reference is contained in the following quotation from the “Proceedings of the Convention of Delegates held in the town of Richmond in the Colony of Virginia”:

Monday Dec. 18, 1775

A petition of John Chew, John Hews, and Ambrose Rains, was presented to the Convention, and read, setting forth that they had served under Captain John Herndon as Volunteers to Williamsburg in August last, and were on their return home taken ill and obliged to employ a Doctor, at an expence too heavy for them to bear, that as this expense was incurred while they were employed in the service of their country, they hope this Convention will order the same to be repaid them.

Whether this service was Colonial or was Revolutionary has not been settled by the authorities at the Archives Division, State Library, Richmond. Note the citation to Richmond in the Colony of Virginia. The date when John Herndon received his commission as Captain is not of record. All that can be stated with certainty is, therefore, that it was prior to August 1775.

He served as a member of the Committee of Safety for Spotsylvania, as did also his brothers Edward and Joseph Herndon in 1775 and 1776, as shown in the preceding sketch. Chronologically, he is next mentioned as Captain John Herndon in the interesting petition dated 14 November 1776 copied below which was apparently penned by him who was its first signer. It was originally addressed "To the Honourable the President and Gentlemen of the Convention" and asked that "an ordinance my pass", but events were then moving so swiftly that the form of address and the reference to an ordinance were changed in the corrected draft which reads as follows:

To the Honourable the Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Delegates
The Petition of sundry Freeholders and others Inhabitants of Spotsylvania County, Humbly Sheweth that your Petitioners Labour under a very great hardship in being obliged to travel, some Twenty odd and others thirty Miles to attend General Musters, which are constantly appointed at the Courthouse in Fredericksburg, Situate in one Side of the County. We therefore pray that an Act of Assembly may pass, Directing that General Musters for the future be appointed at, or near the Center of the County and your Petitioners shall pray, etc.

This petition was similar to but not identical with six others from the officers and men of six other Spotsylvania Militia Companies, all bearing the same date and endorsed "Capt. Herndon", Capt. Chew", Capt. Tutt", etc.

For the details of one of Captain John Herndon's military assignments we are indebted to Edward Elley, a cousin of his and a member of his company who signed the petition above quoted. From him we learn the names of the officers in his company and certain of the men serving under him.

There are numerous references to John Herndon as jailer, sub-sheriff, and deputy sheriff between 1769 and 1778. The following extract from the Virginia Gazette of 16 May 1777 is illustrative of some of his duties:

/s/ JOHN HERNDON, Jailer

A similar item appeared in the next issue of the Gazette, 23 May 1777, while the issues of 4 and 18 July 1777 contained announcements about runaway slaves signed by John Herndon as sub-sheriff. Because of his position as deputy sheriff he was ordered 21 May 1778 “to collect money for public exigencies” and 16 July 1778 to collect dues and taxes.

He was on the bond of several persons who served as executors or administrators of estates at various dates between 2 April 1764 and 16 April 1772 and served as appraiser of the estates of his friends, Wm. Ellis, George Frazer, Anthony Foster, and Abraham Simpson.

In the belief that the story of his own real estate transactions may prove interesting it is presented here. Before his marriage he took a “flier” whereby he made a £5 profit on buying 416 acres on Beaverdam Run from Gawin and Hannah Corbin and selling them to Abraham Simons. That was in 1758. His second land holding was 264 acres purchased 4 February 1760 for £30 from his brother Edward, which he sold 5 May 1765 to John Foster for £65. John Herndon’s wife Mary joined with him in that conveyance. After some eight years the Fosters resold this tract to John Herndon. Two years later John and Mary Herndon resold it to Thomas May. Later on Thomas May reconveyed it to John Herndon by a deed which is unrecorded, but the fact of its reconveyance is known because in 1782 these acres were taxed to John Herndon and in 1783 to his estate.

After 1770 John and Mary’s home plantation consisted of 635 acres bought from William and Ann Fitzhugh, of Stafford County. After nearly 10 years, 3 January 1780, “John Herndon, of Spotsylvania, Gent., and Mary his wife” deeded 292 of these acres to John Wiglesworth. This property was on the Massaponax and adjoined Galloway’s, James Cunningham’s, and John Wiglesworth’s other lands by the Mountain Road. Witnesses to this deed were John Chew, Samuel Todd, and James Jarvis; but the deed itself was not then presented for recordation, and the relinquishment by Mary Herndon of her dower rights was not made until 30 May 1788 (nearly five years after her husband’s death), and proved in court 3 June 1788.

But long before the sale just mentioned was made, John Herndon had leased 16 May 1771 to Joseph and Mary Scrogham 100 acres at an annual rental of £4 payable each succeeding Christmas Day during their natural lives. On 11 January 1781 John and Mary Herndon sold this tract and the adjoining 35 acres to Thomas Jennings for £1000.

The final sale was of 108 acres 29 November 1782 to Samuel Roddy, of Fredericksburg. The record says that John Herndon sold this property to John Wiglesworth, but that no deed passed; and that Wiglesworth sold it to James Jarvis who, in turn, sold it to Samuel Roddy.

Having sold first 292 acres, then 135, then 108, there remained to John Herndon only 100 acres out of the original tract of 635. On these 100 he was taxed in 1782 and his estate included them the next year.

In addition to ownership of the lands above mentioned, John Herndon was the lessee of two other properties. The first lease, signed 4 September 1764, was to run five years at an annual rental of £5. Phebe Julian, of Fredericksburg, leased to John Herndon 30 acres on the north side of the main road from Fredericksburg to Germanna, with the house lately built by Charles Julian, decd., and land on the south side of the road which was next to the properties of Charles Colson and John Roan. She agreed to cause to be dug a main cellar and to be built a smokehouse, stable and garden, to cover and repair the kitchen and cellar shed, and to sink a well on the south side of the road convenient to the dwelling house. John Herndon agreed to keep the house in "tenable repair, fire and tempest excepted."

The second lease was from John and Mary Campbell and Alexander Spotswood, dated 22 April 1774, to John Herndon "for and during the natural lives of said John and Mary his wife and Mary Herndon their daughter, and the longest liver of them." 11 The property leased was 150 acres beginning on Mountain or Motts Run on the old Mine Road and abutting on Lick Branch. This lease is of particular interest because of the mention of Mary Herndon daughter of the lessees. It was the custom, as observed in this case, to name as a third lessee the youngest child of a couple to whom a property was being leased. So Mary's birth is thus established as prior to 22 April 1774 and she is accordingly assumed to be their youngest child then living. [A similar lease dated 15 September 1772 had been entered into between the same Alexander Spotswood and Thomas Ficklin "during the natural lives of the sd. Ficklin, his wife Mary, and his son Jno. Herndon [Ficklin]" etc. The above-mentioned Mary Ficklin was a daughter of John Herndon [#16], who died testate in King George County, Va.]

Captain John Herndon was listed in the enumeration of slaveholders of Spotsylvania County in 1783 as owning 11, his brother Edward as owning 36, and his brother Joseph as owning 29 slaves. His death occurred between 29 November 1782, when he was last a grantor of real estate, and 20 November 1783 when the executors of his Will qualified. His Will reads as follows:

In the name of God, Amen. I JOHN HERNDON of the parish of Saint George's in the county of Spotsylvania, being of sound and perfect memory, do make this my last will and testament in manner following.

First. I direct and order that all my Just Debts and funerall expences be fully paid and satisfied, and the better to enable my Executors (hereafter named) to Comply with the same, I do hereby Impower them to sell and Dispose of any part of my Estate, Real or personal, that they in their discretion shall Judge most proper and Least distressing to my family.

Item. I lend to my beloved wife MARY HERNDON during her natural life all the remainder of my estate of every Kind whatsoever for her support and Maintenance and Education of my Children at her Discretion and at her death the whole of my estate then remaining both real and personal to be sold and the money arising by such sale to be equally divided amongst all my children the Living and the Legatees or representatives of any of those who Marry or die before such division, and Leaving Lawful Issue. Provided nevertheless that if my said wife should Marry I order that the sale and Division of my Estate (as above directed) shall then take place and that she, my said wife, shall have an equal share with my said children in the said division, and the part so allotted to her by the said Division to be at her own disposal.

And lastly. I do appoint my brothers EDWARD and JOSEPH HERNDON, my friend JAMES LEWIS, and my sons JOSEPH and JOHN HERNDON Executors of this my Last will and testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this eleventh day of May 1782.

Sealed and published and acknowledged in the presence of THOMAS ALLEN /s/ JOHN HERNDON

JOSEPH FOX
ROBT CUNNINGHAM

On 20 November 1783 his brother Edward Herndon and James Lewis qualified as executors, and Joseph Brock became their security on their bond for £2,000. The estate inventory was filed 5 January 1784 and listed 23 negroes valued at £1,225 0s. 6d., and personalty of £821 7s 9d.

The chief concern of the executors was, however, to look out for the best interests of the children referred to in the Will. This they did by careful consideration of opportunities not only to sell real estate belonging to the estate but to buy real estate for it. As already mentioned, the lands owned by Captain John Herndon at his death consisted of 364 acres. These were appraised at 12/4d per acre for a total valuation of £224 9s. 4d., the tax on which in 1783 was £3 7s. 4d. His executors were assessed taxes on those acres through 1788.

On 10 October 1787 they purchased from Wharton and Margaret Schooler a tract of 120½ acres "in trust for the widow and orphans of the said John Herndon as by articles in his will," and on June 3, 1788 from John and Philadelphia Wiglesworth 20 more acres. In 1784 the executors sold the former Schooler tract to Jonathan Carpenter and the entire remaining real property of the estate to Reverend James Stevenson, Mary Herndon, the widow, joining in the conveyance. To effect these and certain other sales the following advertisement had been placed in the Virginia Herald of 12 May 1791:

JAMES LEWIS offers for sale tract of land, 319 acres, eight miles from Fredericksburg, belonging to the estate of CAPTAIN JOHN HERNDON, dec'd. Land easily tilled, produces good grain.
20 acres of flat land for good grain, fine timbered and well watered.
Also tract of land 600 acres, 16 miles from Fredericksburg, known as Catlan March, well watered, well situated. Some valuable pine on it. Good grain land.
Marsh contains about 30 acres of rich mud easily reclaimed land. Also tract of 300 acres adjoining land of Mrs. Herndon in the neighborhood of Mr. Gatewood's tavern "Hartzland" good for tobacco, large well and good for stock.
Also "Halfway Bottom" with 200 acres land annexed. This is well known and is between Gatewood's tavern and "The Wilderness". Excellent spring on land and very convenient to reach which would render it a good public house; lays well, good timber, good grain land, also few valuable slaves for sale.
James Gillis offers 269½ acres of land adjacent to that of Mr. JOHN HERNDON, dec'd. Apply to JAMES LEWIS.

On 2 January 1798 the Spotsylvania Court adopted the following minutes:

JOHN HERNDON, JR. son of MARY HERNDON dec'd came into court and relinquished administration of the said decedents estate. Whereupon on the motion of EDWARD HERNDON, son of Joseph [31], who made oath, and together with JOHN M. HERNDON, his security, entered into and acknowledged their bond in the penalty of $2,500 conditioned as the law directs, certificate is granted him for obtaining letters of administration of the estate of the decedent in due form.

Ordered, that John Herndon, James Lewis, John McWhirt and Benjamin Edge, or any three of them being first sworn before a magistrate of this County do appraise in current money the slaves, if any, and personal property of Mary Herndon dec'd and return the appraisement to the next Court.

14 Spotsylvania County Order Book, 1795-1799: 391.
The exact date of the death of Mary (Lewis) Herndon is not known, but it probably occurred in December 1797. James Lewis did not serve as appraiser under the order above quoted, but the other three persons there named did so and brought in their inventory eight days later, showing a valuation of £300 9s. for the four slaves and personalty.

It is unfortunate that no record of the distribution of this estate among the children of Captain John and Mary (Lewis) Herndon has been found in the records at Spotsylvania Courthouse. Their names are, however, known from other sources. The father mentioned John and Joseph, his sons, in his Will. Elizabeth (Herndon) Battaley, in her will, left a bequest to her niece "Sarah Herndon, daughter of my brother John." In the lease from John and Mary Campbell and Alexander Spotswood previously cited, Mary Herndon, daughter of John and Mary Herndon was named. Anne, called Nancy, born in 1775, was identified by Miss Lucy Herndon, of Fredericksburg, long an authority on Spotsylvania County Herndons, who wrote to Mrs. R. W. Shultice, in part as follows:

I know [that] my grandfather Dabney [Herndon] had a first cousin, a Miss Ann Herndon, who married a Stringfellow, whose daughter married a Hall.

As Dabney was a son of Joseph Herndon, brother to John and Edward, and since names of all of Edward Herndon’s children are known, and Anne or Nancy who married a Stringfellow was not one of them, it follows that she was a daughter of the other brother, John. The identification of Anne or Nancy as a sister of Mary who married Benjamin A. Pritchett is made in other papers in the Stringfellow-Pritchett records which will appear under their separate names in the subsequent generations.

Children of Captain John Herndon and Mary Lewis:

188 John Herndon m Mary ———.
189 Joseph Herndon, mentioned in the Will of his father, but no record of him when his father’s estate was settled.
190 Sarah Herndon, unmarried 1788, when mentioned in the Will of her aunt, Elizabeth Battaley.
191 Mary Herndon m Benjamin A. Pritchett.
192 Anne Herndon m Robert Stringfellow.

15 Undated letter from Mrs. Shultice to Mrs. Alexander Phillips, then of 1420 Hopkins Place, Washington, D. C., quotes this.

Elizabeth Herndon [6 Edward] was born about 1735 in Spotsylvania County, Va. She married John Battaley, one of the sons of Moseley Battaley (died testate 1758).

John Battaley was appointed 7 December 1751 a collector of the Parish levy along with Edward Herndon, Jr., “they having entered into bond with Moseley Battaley and Edward Herndon, Gent., their securities.” In 1755 when he was of Culpeper County he sold for £5 a negro woman to Mary Herndon, wife of his brother-in-law Edward Herndon. Ten years later when he purchased a lot in Fredericksburg the deed named him “John Battaley of Spotsylvania County, Gent.” He died testate in 1770. In his Will he made provision for his wife Elizabeth; left bequests to his sister Elizabeth Battaley and his brother Samuel Battaley; and named his three brothers-in-law, Edward, John, and Joseph Herndon executors.

Elizabeth (Herndon) Battaley died testate also. Her Will, dated 1 November 1788, left bequests to three of her nephews and one niece: Edward, son of Edward Herndon; her godson Peter, son of Joseph Herndon; Edward, son of Joseph Herndon; and Sarah, daughter of John Herndon. Witnesses included, among others, her nephews John Minor Herndon [son of Joseph] and John Herndon, Jr., [son of John]. Her brother Edward was named executor.

John Battaley and his wife Elizabeth Herndon had no issue.

Joseph Herndon [6 Edward] was born 1 May 1737 and died 28 October 1810. His estate “Mattapony” was located six miles southeast of Fredericksburg. He married first 15 September 1757 Philadelphia Foster (b 12 July 1736; d 23 November 1764). He married secondly 15 August 1765 Mary Minor (b 7 March 1741; d 26 October 1822), daughter of John Minor and his wife Sarah Carr.

The following is quoted from the sketch of Joseph Herndon written by his great-great-grandson, Mr. John Waterhouse Herndon, which appeared in 11 VMHB 99:

He also took much interest in national affairs, as evidenced by the fact that he attended the meeting of citizens of Spots. on June 1, 1774 to take action in regard to the Boston Port Bill. An adjourned meeting was held on June 24th, when resolutions were adopted declaring: that "acts of the British Parliament are unconstitutional, arbitrary and unjust," and "calculated for the destruction of the rights of America; that the levies of Parliament are the free gift of the people, granted by their representatives: " that the British Parliament can have no power of making laws for the government of the colonies, as they have one of their own; " [that they acknowledged ?] their allegiance to the Crown but [declared that] they owed no obedience to any act of the British Parliament respecting the internal policies of the colonies; that the acts of the British Parliament in regard to the Province of Massachusetts and the Poert of Boston are unconstitutional, and that the duty on tea is against the rights and liberties of America and ought to be opposed by the people; and, that the best method of opposing the said acts will be to break off all commercial [italics mine] connection with Great Britain until they are repealed.

Less than a year later another meeting of citizens was held, on April 28, 1775, when the famous Fredericksburg Resolutions were adopted, Joseph Herndon being one of the signers. These resolutions, drafted by Peyton Randolph and Edmund Pendleton, were adopted more than a year before the Declaration of Independence was conceived, and embodied the principles which were later incorporated in that historic document. The signers bound themselves " to resist to the death all attempts against their rights from whatsoever quarter they might be assailed," and pledged themselves " to be in readiness at a moment's warning to re-assemble, and, by force of arms, to defend the laws, the liberties, and the rights of this or any sister colony from unjust and wicked invasion," and concluded with the inspiring appeal: " God save the liberties of America."

Before adjourning these patriotic citizens subscribed money to arm, equip and maintain twelve companies of horse, which marched, under the command of Patrick Henry, against Lord Dunmore at his capital . . .

On Nov. 17, 1775, he, and his brothers John and Edward, were elected members of the Committee of Safety for Spots. Co. . . .

Just as the record of the commissioning of his brothers Edward and John to be captains is lost, but ample proof of their service as such is available and has ben cited in the two preceding sketches, so it seems equally certain that Joseph Herndon held the rank of first lieutenant in the Company of Spotsylvania Militia commanded by Captain Craig. There is, however, no proof of his having served in any military campaign. The record of his active services during the Revolution is substantial. The following items, additional to his membership on the Committee of Safety, vital as that was, are cited:

Among The Spotsylvania County Public Claims we read:

On 21 February 1782 the bond of Joseph Herndon (with Henry Bartlet as his security) on his appointment as “Commissioner . . . for laying Taxes in certain enumerated Commodities” was executed.

In the 1782 Book of Claims for Tobacco, Hemp, Flour, Cash, Cash for Land, Spotsylvania County, (arranged alphabetically) is the following entry:

Joseph Herndon 1267 lbs. tob. £1: 12: 0

The Will of Joseph Herndon was dated 24 June 1803 and recorded 7 January 1811.\(^4\) Therein he mentions his six living children and his wife; names his sons Edward Herndon and John Minor Herndon executors of his Will.

FIFTH GENERATION

While residing there he was appointed 26 September 1777 assistant commissary to William Green Munford, then deputy commissary general. He served as quartermaster for a while thereafter and later for two years as assistant deputy commissary general and assistant quartermaster general of the Southern Department of the Virginia Line. As his official duties took him to many counties, it is not surprising that we find references to him as quartermaster in Public Claims of Hanover County.

The following item is typical of many others of a similar nature concerning him in the Adjutant General’s Office, The National Archives, Washington, D.C.:

- Commissioners Office Q M Dept Sept 11 1786
- Wm. Finnie Dr. to Sundries in Old Emissions
- To Certificates issued by the Quartermasters:
  - The amount of certificates issued by himself and assistants as per Returns rendered:
    - By John Herndon £103,363 3s. 7d.

He also furnished supplies for the use of the Army. Payments of the claims in connection therewith were approved 22 April 1783 as shown in Spotsylvania County Public Claims, 16, 32:

- 8 November 1781 ½ cord of wood 6 shillings allowed [Entry #168]
- 10 April 1781 one Sorrell purchased for Continental use, £30 [Entry #331]

John Herndon married in Frederick County, Va., 11 December 1783 Judith Hampton (b July 1767: d 18 July 1853), daughter of Philip and Hannah (Hammond) Hampton.

In 1845 his widow Judith Herndon applied for a pension on account of her husband’s Revolutionary War services. It was granted, first at the rate of $480 per annum and later increased to $600 per annum. From that Pension File the following additional family items are abstracted:

HEX ANALYSIS

In this chapter, we will explore various methods and tools used in analyzing the hexadecimal representation of binary data. By understanding the significance of each digit (0-9 and A-F) in hexadecimal notation, we can efficiently interpret and manipulate raw data. This is particularly useful for reverse engineering, debugging, and security analysis. The hexadecimal system offers a compact way to represent binary data, making it easier to identify patterns and anomalies.

In the following sections, we will cover:

1. Understanding the Hexadecimal System
2. Tools and Techniques for Hexadecimal Analysis
3. Case Studies and Practical Applications

Let's begin with an introduction to the hexadecimal system and its applications in digital forensics and cybersecurity.
Edward H. Herndon made affidavit 17 November 1845 that he was a son of John Herndon and Judith Hampton who were married 11 December 1783 in Frederick County, Va.; that they migrated in 1811 from Virginia to Scott County, Kentucky, where his father John Herndon died 13 February 1811; and that his mother's present place of residence was in Lexington, Ky., while his own was in Mason County, Ky.

Jane Kercheval, of Mason County, Ky., swore that she was present at the marriage of John Herndon and Judith Hampton.

William Frazer subscribed his name 19 June 1846 to the following affidavit:

That he was born in Spotsylvania County, Va., in 1796 or 1797; that John Herndon and his wife Judith Herndon resided in the same state and county and neighborhood; that the above John Herndon and the mother of this affiant being brother and sister an intimacy and friendly appreciation [sic] was kept up between the families from the earliest recollection of this affiant. That John Herndon with his said wife Judith and Family in company with the father and family of this affiant moved from the State of Virginia to this county in the year 1810 and this affiant states that John Herndon and his wife Judith lived together as man and wife from his earliest recollection and had three or four children . . . that his eldest son Charles C. Herndon from his size and habits and other personal evidences of manhood must have been at least ten years older than this affiant, the successive births being Sally, E. H. and Mary Herndon, all older than this affiant. That John Herndon died in Scott County, Ky., in 1812 or 1813 and that Judith Herndon, his widow, had never [since] married, is now old, and lives in Lexington, Ky.

On the same day he wrote a letter, reading:

There is an old gentleman in Lexington [who] can prove all you may desire in relation to the service in the Revolutionary War and marriage of John Herndon. He knows all about him, is a relative and came from the same place, he is William Duerson—enquire of friend Clark the carriage maker as to his whereabouts.

Respectfully yours,

/s/ Wm. Frazer.

William Duerson, in his affidavit dated 1 July 1846, swore that he was aged about 77 years last October; that he was born 30 October 1768; that he was not present at the marriage of John Herndon and Judith but that he was present at the home of Edward Herndon (who was his [William Duerson's] uncle) when the said John Herndon returned to his father's home with his wife, the said Judith; and that he understood that the marriage took place in the County of Frederick in Virginia in December 1783.

A letter written by Beverly A. Hicks, dated 5 October 1853, Lexington, Ky., reads in parts as follows:

The arrears of pension due Judith Herndon (my wife's mother) at her death are payable to her surviving children and cannot pass "under the Will. . . . They . . . were Edward H. Herndon of Mason County, my wife Mary C. Hicks, and Hannah B. Biggs, wife of Joseph Biggs of Lexington. . . . Judith Herndon died 18 July 1853.

He was in error here; 1810 was correct.
Papers in this file show that John Herndon served under William Green Munford, Deputy Commissary General, and that John Herndon was correctly called Assistant Deputy Quartermaster General.

A letter of 6 November 1792 is of interest, for it contains the following sentences: 7

Your old friend Captain John Herndon has a fine son just a month old today. They call him Edward Hampton.

Before John and Judith Herndon left Virginia they disposed of all their property there. As she had inherited certain acres from her uncle Thomas Colson under his Will as life tenant with her children sharing as remaindermen, they being all under 21 years of age, and as she and her husband entered in an exchange of this property with their friend John Long for land he possessed, they had to petition the Legislature for the passage of an act to perfect their right to enter into such an arrangement. 8 Eleven years earlier Thomas Colson had begun the transfer of much of his property to John and Judith Herndon. 9

They left Virginia late in 1810, but arrived in Clark County, Ky., early enough for him to be enumerated in the Census of that year and to be noted as a Revolutionary soldier, having 6 persons in his family. That same census shows also William Frazer his brother-in-law as Revolutionary soldier. These two men and their families soon moved on to Scott and Fayette Counties, respectively, where they spent the rest of their days.

The following notice of the death of Mrs. Herndon appeared in the Lexington Observer-Reporter: 10

Her body was buried in the Old 3d Street Cemetery, Lexington. There the inscription on her tombstone reads: 11

Nancy McDowell Gillespie (b 18 September 1799; d 10 July 1872).
He is mentioned in certain realty transactions in Fayette Co., 1821-1825; he was on the bond for the marriage of his sister Hannah Brock Herndon and Joseph Biggs. On 11 February 1840 he purchased from the heirs of Simeon West 2 lots in Mays Lick and the tavern thereon. A newspaper item appearing shortly after his death reads thus:
"Edward H. Herndon, the veteran landlord and lifelong village postmaster, died near the town of Mayslick on July 30, 1870, aged 77 years. He was an old Virginian by birth and was one of the few men who knew how to keep a hotel. He lived respected by all who knew him, and died without an enemy."

The Herndons of the American Revolution

#179 Mary Herndon [28 Edward] was born 1758. She married James Lewis, who was born in Lunenburg County, Va., 28 August 1755. They had issue:

770 James Lewis, b Lunenburg County, 1778, m Pamela Heath.

#180 Hannah Herndon [28 Edward] was born 22 November 1760 and died 3 February 1824. She married 13 April 1780 Anthony Frazer (b 22 March 1754; d 4 March 1804), eldest son of James Frazer and his wife Elizabeth Foster, daughter of Anthony Foster, of Spotsylvania County, and his wife Martha, probably Martha Taliaferro. James Frazer was a son of William Frazer, of Scotland, who was in Spotsylvania by 1724, and his wife Frances ———.

Anthony Frazer was commissioned Ensign in the First Virginia State Regiment 1 March 1777, and promoted to a Second Lieutenancy 29 May 1777. He served in the Battles of Germantown and Monmouth, and resigned 12 February 1778.¹

Anthony Frazer died testate. His Will was dated 16 February 1804 and probated 1 May 1804.² Therein he provided for his wife Hannah and his children but did not name them. He designated his brother William Frazer and his brother-in-law Joseph Herndon, Jr. [son of Edward] to be executors. Their bond was fixed at $15,000. Reuben Frazer and Stapleton Crutchfield were their sureties.³

774 Elizabeth Frazer, (b 13 February 1787, d 3 December 1803) unm.

775 George Frazer, (b 3 March 1790).

776 Herndon Frazer (b 20 August 1792; d 20 July 1877), educated at Washington College (now Washington and Lee University), prominent Baptist clergyman; m first his first cousin Huldah Herndon (1798-1845), daughter of Joseph Herndon and his wife Lucy Duerson. They had no issue. He married secondly, in 1848, another cousin, Martha Lucetta Rawlings (b 1812), daughter of Richard Rawlings and his wife Lucy Scott Herndon, daughter of Captain Zachariah Herndon and his wife Mary Scott. Reverend Herndon and Martha Frazer had issue:

1. Herndon Frazer, called “Don”, d unm.

2. Huldah Frazer m Nicholas Penn Coleman; issue, 2 daughters.

777 Margaret Frazer, b 4 April 1795, d 9 June 1828, unm.

778 Joseph Addison Frazer (b 22 March 1798) m Fannie Renick, and had issue:

1. Sarah Frazer m Richard Summerson; issue, 2 sons.

2. Robert Frazer.

3. Herndon Frazer, killed during War, 1861-65.

779 Anthony Frazer, b 25 April 1801, d unm.

The record of James Frazer and his children was furnished 6 December 1948 by Mr. Geo. H. S. King, Fredericksburg, Va., to the compiler. In another record Beirne is spelt Bierne.
Edward Herndon [28 Edward] was born 19 November 1762 in Spotsylvania County, Va., and died there 19 May 1808. He married Mary Elizabeth Sharpe (b 11 April 1762; d December 1832), daughter of John Sharpe (d June 1763) and his first wife, whom he married in 1761, Susannah Hord (b 27 April 1742), daughter of Thomas Hord (b 7 September 1701; Will dated 28 January 1766) and his wife Jane Miller whom he married 24 June 1726. Susannah married, secondly, John Shelton (his Will dated 28 April 1805). 1

The claim that this Edward Herndon served in the Revolution is correct. He went to the Bryant Station neighborhood as a young man and participated in the famous defense of that station. He was possibly the Edward Herndon to whom a grant of 500 acres in Jefferson County, Ky., was made 14 December 1782. When in 1804 he offered his farm "Pine Grove" in Spotsylvania for sale he announced that he "intends to go to Ky. in the fall." 2

His Will was dated 1 October 1807 and recorded 4 July 1808. 3 His brothers John and William Herndon were his executors. They furnished bond in the sum of $15,000, with Joseph Herndon, Jr. (his brother) and Reuben Frazer as securities. Witnesses were Beverley Stubblefield, Richard Todd, and Jeremiah Chandler. The inventory valued his slaves at £1,722 and his other personalty at £350 5s. 7d. The date was 5 September 1808. 4 These transactions reflect the curious admixture of the vanishing British and the emergent American currency.

Children of Edward Herndon, Jr., and Mary Elizabeth Sharpe:

780 George Herndon (b 1785, d 23 February 1812) m Martha Jones, and had issue:
   (1) Martha George Herndon, d unm., aged 21.
781 Mary M. Herndon (b 3 May 1788, "Pine Grove", Spotsylvania County, Va.; d 1841, Alabama) m in Spotsylvania County 20 June 1814 George Robinson, and had issue: Edwin, Francis, Herndon, Mary, William, Janette, Helen, Susan, and Elizabeth Robinson.

1 This detail is given to correct the error made by Robert Hord in his History of the Hord Family, 42, saying that this Edward Herndon married Elizabeth Shelton, daughter of John Shelton and Suskey [Susannah] Hord. It is appropriate to mention also that Thomas Hord Herndon married first Elizabeth, daughter of Joseph Brock and Agnes Shelton, the latter a daughter of John Shelton and Susannah Hord.

Edward Herndon went to Alabama as early as 1818; owned lands in Greene County 1818-1838; removed to Gainesville, Sumter County in 1839 where he was a very successful merchant. He was said to have been commissioned to receive and entertain General Lafayette on his last visit to the United States. He was an Episcopalian until 1824, thereafter a Presbyterian. In 1839-41 he was Grand Master of Masons in Alabama; from 1844-1846 was Masonic Grand Treasurer; from 1840 to 1842 was Deputy Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter; and Grand Treasurer of the Grand Chapter 1845. In politics he was a Whig until 1860; from 1860 to 1865 as strong a Unionist as his brother was a supporter of the Confederacy; after 1865, a Republican. In 1867 he was appointed treasurer of Sumter County; from 1868 to 1872 was register in chancery of Sumter County.

He and his wife had the following children:

(1) Elizabeth Chew Herndon (b 1825).

(10) Helen Herndon (1842- ) m ———— Underhill, of N. C.

Sarah Herndon [28 Edward] was born in 1764 and died about 1785. She married about 1783 James Frazer as his first wife.

Because of the close family ties between the Herndons and Frazers there is furnished below a detailed statement concerning this James Frazer and his family, although he and his first wife, Sarah Herndon, had no issue. He was brother to Anthony Frazer who married Hannah Herndon; to William Frazer who married Philadelphia Herndon; and to Reuben Frazer who married Fannie Herndon. Hannah and Philadelphia were sisters of his first wife, while Fannie was a niece of theirs. It may be additionally stated that the parents of these Frazers were James Frazer and Elizabeth Foster and that the Will of Anthony Foster (father of Elizabeth) was dated 4 February 1763, proved 4 July 1763, and recorded in Spotsylvania County Will Book D: 44, and that Anthony was a son of Robert Foster, who died testate in Essex County, 1718.

James Frazer was a sergeant of the Virginia Line whose horse "Rainbow" was killed under him at the Battle of Cowpens. He was also at the Surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown. For his services he received 10 June 1784 a grant of 400 acres in Kentucky. Moreover, Certificate #100 was granted by Benjamin Winslow, County Lieutenant, for a gun belonging to James Frazer, of the Spotsylvania Militia, 17 May 1781.

He was appointed ensign of the County Militia 6 June 1787.

His Will, dated 15 December 1798 and proved 2 April 1799, is abstracted in Crozier, 54. His death was announced thus in the issue of 11 January 1799 of the Virginia Herald of Fredericksburg:

"Died—in this County, Mr. James Frazer."

An aspect of the settlement of his estate is to be noted in the same newspaper, issue of 11 August 1810:

By virtue of authority to us given by the legatees of the Estate of James Frazer, deceased, to be sold—420 acres of land lying within one mile of Spotsylvania Court

James Frazer had married secondly about 1786 Sarah Kenyon Thomas (d 1792/3) and by her had issue:

a. Elizabeth Frazer m her first cousin James Frazer, son of Anthony Frazer and Hannah Herndon. For their issue see pages 80-81.

b. Martha Frazer (b May 1789) m first — Bayes; m secondly Sampson Matthews, by whom she had a son who became Governor of West Virginia.

c. Sarah Kenyon Frazer (b 10 February 1792) m in Greenbrier County 18 July 1821 Felix G. Hansford, and had issue, 6 children.

James Frazer had married about 1793 Lucy Smith, as his third wife. Soon after the death of her husband, she removed with her two children to Orange County, Va., where she lived in the home of her relative General Stevens until her death. The appraisement of her estate was dated 29 December 1804 and was recorded in Orange County Will Book #4: 148, 241, and 354. Their two children were:

d. James Frazer (b ca 1894) m 3 June 1818 Sarah Long, daughter of Richard Long, of Spotsylvania, and had one son and one daughter.

e. William Smith Frazer (b 10 November 1795 at "Red House," Spotsylvania; d at his residence "Waverly", Orange County, 29 January 1860) m 19 June 1818 Ann Burrus, daughter of Capt. Wm. Tandy Burrus; had issue:
   (1) John Frazer m Susie Morton.
   (2) William Tandy Burrus Frazer m Lucinda D. Mills.
   (3) James Frazer m Jessie or Fredonia Johnson.
   (4) Robert Frazer m Florence Spillman.
   (5) Lucy Frazer m Ollie T. Terrell.

#183 Thomas Herndon [28 Edward] was born in 1765 in Spotsylvania County. When he was 16 years of age he was a witness with his father to the power of attorney which Matthew Gale of Orange County gave 4 September to Stapleton Crutchfield, of Spotsylvania.¹ Two years later with his father and two others he was witness to the deed from Joel Parish to James Lewis dated 3 January 1783 for the sale of 175 acres in

St. George's Parish, Spotsylvania. On 25 November 1786 he, with Benjamin Stubblefield and others, was a witness to the sale of land which belonged to the estate of William Howard, decd., and Henry Foster which was sold for non-payment of taxes by George Stubblefield, Gent., High Sheriff of Spotsylvania, to Robert Smith, Gent., of the same county. Again on 1 January 1788 he, with Benjamin and Harry Stubblefield, was a witness to the deed from George Stubblefield and Sally, his wife, to Edward Herndon, Jr., for the conveyance of 336 acres in St. George's Parish.

Thomas Herndon was by occupation a house carpenter and in that capacity there were apprenticed to him the following young men on the dates mentioned:

7 Feb 1786 Owen Thomas Holloday, orphan of John Holloday
6 Feb 1787 John Frazer, orphan of Andrew Frazer
6 May 1788 Daniel and William, free mulatto boys, sons of Milly Mann a free mulatto woman
2 Mar 1790 Charles Brown, orphan of Thomas Brown

Shortly after this last mentioned date he moved to Culpeper County with his wife, Susannah Beverley Stubblefield, daughter of George and Sally Stubblefield, whom he had married in Spotsylvania in 1788, and their two oldest children. They continued to live in Culpeper until 1797. There Thomas Herndon was taxed until 1797 on 233½ acres, which were in two tracts, one containing 220 acres and the other, according to the deed of reconveyance, not 12½ but 21½ acres. The larger of these tracts had been conveyed by Dabney Minor 10 Jan 1772 to Peter Van Dyke who on 2 Oct 1793 conveyed the property to Thomas Herndon. The other had been sold by William Strother to Peter Van Dyke 30 May 1791 who conveyed it to Thomas Herndon. On 15 Dec 1797 Thomas Herndon and his wife Susannah Beverley (Stubblefield) Herndon conveyed these two properties to Sam Slaughter. That deed referred to the contracting parties as all being of Culpeper. Almost immediately thereafter the family moved to Fayette County, Ky., where, 27 September 1798 Thomas Herndon was granted 170 acres on the Elkhorn.

Mention has already been made of Thomas Herndon’s part as his father’s attorney in connection with the sale of the latter’s Kentucky land. Thomas Herndon died in Fayette County, Ky., in 1808. The inventory of his estate was filed 7 Jan 1809. His personalty was appraised at $770.00. The names of his widow and children are recorded in connection with the transfer of property by the heirs of Thomas Woolfolk to the heirs of Thomas Herndon, being land which Thomas Woolfolk in his lifetime had sold to Thomas Herndon, but the deed for which had not been recorded. The date when the deed by his heirs was recorded was 20 February 1821.

Thomas Herndon’s widow, Susan B., made a marriage settlement 19 January 1818 “because of her contemplated marriage with James Wood, and both having previously been married and having children,” she established Roger Quarles as trustee of her property, and James Wood relinquished dower therein. Their marriage bond was dated the same day.

11 The spelling Frazier rather than Frazer seems to have been regularly used by Frazier Duerson Herndon and his son Edward Frazier Herndon.
#184 William Herndon [28 Edward], was born 1767, Spotsylvania County, Va., and died 18 January 1823. He m in Fredericksburg in 1788 Isabella Whiteler (b 1768; d 27 May 1827). He and his wife lived at "Belvoir", on the Massaponax, 6 miles from Fredericksburg and there they both died. Concerning him, Mr. John Waterhouse Herndon has written:

He was a progressive citizen of Fredericksburg and very active in promoting its advancement. He was a member of the Common Council, secretary and treasurer of the Rappahannock Jockey Club and a subscriber to the Charity School, and one of the vice presidents of the Colonization Society; owner of that noted tavern "Indian Queen" which was the stopping place for the mail coaches which ran between Richmond and Alexandria; owner of some noted blood horses; in 1820 was postmaster of Spotsylvania C. H.; in 1810 he owned "The White or Bowyer's Sulphur Springs," Greenbrier Co.; took much interest in the Presbyterian Church of which he was a conscientious member.

In his Will, dated 16 January 1823 and proved 3 February 1823, he mentioned his sons William A., Joseph S., and Edwin Herndon, his sons-in-law, Charles Green and Carter L. Stevenson and their wives, his daughters Margaret Ann and Jane W. Herndon, and his tavern "Indian Queen." His executors placed the following advertisement in the issue of the Virginia Herald dated Fredericksburg, 1 August 1827:

FOR SALE
THE VALUABLE ESTATE CALLED BELVOIR

In the County of Spotsylvania, the residence of the late William Herndon. It is advantageously watered by the Massaponax—containing about 700 acres, and is distant six miles from the Town of Fredericksburg. The land is all flat and well adapted to the culture of corn, tobacco, and wheat, and a portion of it is woodland, well-timbered, and as rich as any in the county. There are good orchards, containing a choice collection of Fruits. The Improvements are a large and spacious brick Dwelling House, conveniently arranged, with all necessary Out-Houses, good water, and an Ice-House, inferior to none in the County. It is a healthy situation, in a very genteel neighbourhood, and has always been considered as a highly desirable residence.

806 Joseph Strachan Herndon (1805-1829), unm.

807 Edwin Herndon, said to have settled in Texas.
Philadelphia Herndon [28 Edward] was born in Spotsylvania County, Va., 26 October 1770 and was married there 17 April 1788 to William Frazer, born in Spotsylvania 1 March 1761, brother of Anthony, James, and Reuben Frazer, already mentioned. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Reverend Thomas Ryan, at that time rector of Berkeley Parish and prior to that time and up to 1791 Master of Fredericksburg Academy.

In addition to his being a soldier of the Revolution we have the following record of one aspect of his service:

Certificate No. 174 granted by Richard Young CQM to William Frazer ye 20 Jan. 1781 for 43 days service in collecting foreage (sic).

In 1784, 1785, 1786, and 1789 William Frazer was "Collector of Tax" for Spotsylvania County. On 7 January 1789 John Herndon (his brother-in-law) was security on his tax bond.

It is known that William and Philadelphia Frazer were living in Berkeley Parish in 1792. His name first appeared on the real estate tax lists of Spotsylvania County in 1788 and continued each year until 1810. In October of that year he and wife Philadelphia, with their children and slaves, in company with her brother John Herndon and his wife (née Judith Hampton), with their children and slaves, left Spotsylvania in a caravan to migrate to Clark County, Ky. William and Philadelphia had just sold certain lands and slaves of theirs in Spotsylvania.

1 Documentary proof that Philadelphia was a daughter of Edward Herndon and his wife Mary Duerson has already been furnished in the affidavits subscribed to by William Frazer, Jr., and William Duerson, cited in connection with the pension application filed by Judith (Hampton) Herndon on account of the Revolutionary War service of her husband John Herndon. The aforesaid Mary Duerson was a daughter of Thomas Duerson and his wife Hannah Brock (daughter of Joseph Brock, Sr.) who were married in Spotsylvania County, Va., 5 May 1735 [Crozier, 85].

2 The dates for these births and marriages are from the Bibles of Warren Frazer, of Lexington, Ky., still in possession of his descendants living in that city, and from the Bible of William Frazer, Jr., which until November 1932 was in the possession of his great-granddaughter, Anna Hoy Sheppard, but was destroyed when the old Frazer home at Slater, Mo., was burned.

3 The information concerning Reverend Thomas Ryan was verified in February 1941 by Rev. Dr. G. MacLaren Brydon, of Richmond, Va., from records of the Episcopal Church in Virginia.

4 Previously referred to in the sketch of John Herndon #178 on page 77.

6 By virtue of his office, William Frazer was designated as "gentleman", as in deed from himself and wife, Philadelphia, of Berkeley Parish, Spotsylvania County, conveying to Robert Scott, of the same parish and county, 57 acres for £57. (Crozier, 455).

7 Crozier, 85.

8 Perrin's History of Fayette County, Kentucky, 603, says that William Frazer brought 50 slaves with him from Virginia.

9 Spotsylvania County Deed Book S: 171 and 214.
Both William Frazer and his brother-in-law John Herndon are listed as Revolutionary soldiers residing in Clark County, Ky., in 1810.\(^{10}\) William Frazer and his family lived only a few years in Winchester, though his son Dr. Warren Frazer, who married Laura Brooking, of Winchester, continued to live there for several years. At a date before 1819 William Frazer and his family removed to Lexington, Ky. His residence was on the Winchester Pike and was named “Forkland.” In 1940 this home was still standing. William Frazer founded a hemp business.

He died 19 March 1819 and is buried in the old Episcopal Cemetery on Third Street in Lexington. In his Will, dated 11 August 1818 and probated at the April 1819 Court,\(^{11}\) he named his wife Philadelphia executrix and mentioned his daughters Rebecca, Mary, and Martha and his sons, Robert and William, as being his children then of lawful age.

His widow, Philadelphia, lived until 23 September 1830. She and her husband were buried in the same tomb. A contemporary notice of her death, preserved in one of the old Frazer Family Bibles, reads:

\text{Died at her residence near this place on Monday the 23rd instant Mrs. Philadelphia Frazer, relict of the late William Frazer, Esq. after a lingering illness of several months, of a consumptive character which she bore with great Christian patience, fortitude and resignation, and died in the sanguine expectation of a glorious immortality. Those who knew her best can alone appreciate her worth. She has left a numerous circle of friends and relatives in this and her native state Virginia, to lament their irreparable loss—‘Blessed are they that have not seen and yet have believed. John 20. 29’...BY A FRIEND.}

The family were devout Episcopalians and the Register of Christ Church, Lexington, records the baptisms, marriages, and deaths of many of their large family.

In the settlement of Philadelphia (Herndon) Frazer’s estate certain deeds were recorded to which reference is now made. She had acquired, for a consideration of $1,000, from Thomas Shipley and John W. Kelly, of Philadelphia, Pa., 39 acres on Georgetown and Newton Road, Fayette County, Ky.\(^{12}\) This deed was dated 1822. On 5 July 1827 there was a deed from McConnell’s heirs to Philadelphia Frazer for the same property. Then on 10 June 1839 an indenture was entered into between John T. Nolan and Jane Garnett Nolan, his wife, Rebecca Frazer, Mary D. Frazer, Martha D. Frazer, Lucy M. Bartlett, and Virginia K. Frazer, all of Lexington, to William Frazer, also of Lexington, for the conveyance of part of Alexander McConnell's survey. William Frazer paid his sisters thus named $5,000 for their share of the above-mentioned property which was the chief asset of the estate of their mother.

Among the prized possessions of Philadelphia Frazer were two books which had been owned by her father Edward Herndon and in which he had inscribed his name. The signature was almost exactly a duplicate of that which appeared on the original Will of her father and on a deed which he signed.

Of the reputed 13 children born to William and Philadelphia Frazer 11 have been identified by Bible, court, and graveyard records. A twelfth who died in infancy is vouched for by family tradition.

Baton Rouge Parish, La.) m in Christ Church, Lexington, Ky., by the Right Reverend B. B. Smith to Dr. John Tilghman Nolan, graduate of Transylvania University, 1831. He was a son of George Nolan and his wife Mary Harnsberger who lived in Conecuh County, Alabama. Dr. John T.
Nolan and his second wife, who variously used Jane Garnett or Elizabeth Jane Garnett or just Garnett as her name, moved to Yazoo City, Miss., lived near Benton, Miss., close to the plantation of his brother James Harnesberger Nolan, where their first two children were born. She must have been a person of more than usual ability, for she was named executrix of the Will of her oldest brother Robert Frazier when he fell a victim to the cholera epidemic early in 1833, after he had given tirelessly of his time and strength to those who had been stricken. In 1844-45 the family acquired “Westover” Plantation in West Baton Rouge Parish, La., adjacent to Allendale Plantation, owned since early in the 1800’s by Dr. John T. Nolan’s uncle, #186 Joseph Herndon [28 Edward] was born 1773, lived at "Locust Grove", Spotsylvania County, and died 8 February 1832. His wife was Lucy Duerson. He was paymaster of the 16th Regiment of Virginia Militia commanded by Lt. Col. Aylett, War of 1812-5; but no land bounty warrant was applied for by any of his family because of that service of his. He was a member of the Mt. Hermon Baptist Church. In his Will dated 29 October 1831 and probated 7 May 1832, he described himself as in very feeble health, and provided that his sons who were to be his executors should sell either his personal estate or his slaves, if necessary, that his "much beloved wife Lucy" should have a life interest in his plantation on the south side of Bushes Road, and all slaves and stock of every description; that at her death the proceeds should be divided among his four children whom he named, and that his son Alexander should additionally receive all the testator's land on the north side of Bushes Road. Bond of the executors was fixed at $9,500.

#188 JOHN HERNDON [29 John] was born about 1761 in Spotsylvania County, Va. He qualified as an executor under the Will of his father in 1783,1 but 2 January 1797 he renounced appointment as administrator of the estate of his mother but did serve as an appraiser thereof.2 No identifiable reference to him in the records of Spotsylvania County has been found subsequent to 1797. He married about 1791 Mary ———. She seems to have been Mary Fleetwood and was probably a daughter of Hardy Fleetwood who lived in Edenton District, Bertie County, North Carolina in 1790.3

Children of John Herndon and Mary ———:

Long Prairie, Lafayette County, Arkansas, where he bought land. After a time, in order to escape river floods, many of the settlers there built homes in the hills and began a little community which they called Walnut Hills. When in 1842 the first postoffice was established there, Fleetwood Herndon was appointed postmaster. Shortly before 1842 he was one of the three commissioners appointed to select a new location for the seat of Lafayette County, and was one of the building commissioners for the new courthouse. Politically he was a Whig. In 1850 his real estate in La Grange township (his residence) was appraised at $16,740. His business was that of a cotton planter and in it he achieved more than average prosperity. His slave holdings were large. In 1851 he and his wife and certain members of his family located on a large farm in Boone County, Mo., near Columbia. Because he attached much importance to education, he had sent several of his sons to the University of Missouri (which had been established in 1839) even before he and his family moved to Missouri. In the autumn of 1870 he was one of 27 soldiers of the War of 1812 who assembled at Moberly, Mo., for their last encampment, agreeing to "meet again only when the reveille is heard 'on fame's eternal camping ground'." In 1915 an official marker was placed on his grave because of his service in the War of 1812. His grave and his wife's are in Columbia Cemetery, West Broadway, Columbia, Mo.® Issue:

William Thornton Stringfellow (b 2 April 1811; d 3 November 1817).

Angelina Stringfellow (b 5 November 1812; d 31 March 1814).

Robert Stringfellow married secondly Mary Plunkett (b 12 February 1779; d 1 January 1844), and had by her four children, listed below for reference purposes, who were not Herndon descendants:

(a) Frances Woolfolk Stringfellow (b 5 February 1815; d 2 August 1816);
(b) Benjamin P. Stringfellow (b 3 September 1816) who was for some years reporter of the Court of Appeals of Missouri and later attorney-general of that State;
(c) John Henry Stringfellow (b 4 November 1819) who later became first speaker of the House of Representatives of Kansas;
(d) Charles Addison Stringfellow (b 22 June 1821; d 4 August 1823).

Elizabeth Herndon [31 Joseph] was born 22 February 1759 and died 25 December 1777. In 1776 she married William Crutchfield who was a corporal of infantry in Taylor’s Virginia Regiment and later sergeant in the Third Regiment of Light Dragoons. He "died in the service of the States", leaving Philadelphia Crutchfield as only daughter and heir.

Child of William Crutchfield and Elizabeth Herndon:

849 Philadelphia Crutchfield, b 18 February 1777; d 13 October 1784.

#194 Edward Herndon [31 Joseph] was born 16 January 1761. He married first 16 November 1780 Margaret Whiteler (b 12 December 1763; d 1 July 1808) and secondly 13 July 1809 Mrs. Elizabeth (Maury) Lewis.

On 26 June 1831 Edward Herndon executed the following affidavit:

Edward Herndon, aged seventy years, being first duly sworn saith, That in the latter part of the year 1779 he was appointed to act as Commissary of issues at Fredericksburg when Dr. John Julien acted as Hospital Surgeon and gave orders for rations for the soldiers in the Hospital. That after the surrender of Cornwallis, a part of the soldiers were marched to Fredericksburg . . . He believes that Dr. Julien attended upon the sick in the Hospital as long as this affiant remained in the issuing department which was to the end of the war or as long as rations were called for and until all the stores both of the Commissary and Quarter Master in Fredericksburg [sic] were ordered to be sold.

The statement that he "declined a Revolutionary pension" is inaccurate, for a pension was granted him at the rate of $540 per annum under the Act of 1832 which was paid him until his death 17 October 1837. In November 1851 [slightly more than 14 years after the death of the pensioner] Reuben Herndon in his capacity as administrator of the estate of his deceased grandfather, this Edward Herndon, attempted to secure an increase in the pension previously allowed on the ground that the services of his grandfather had not been correctly evaluated. In support of this claim he filed the following Order of the Jefferson County, Kentucky, Court:

State of Kentucky

At a county court held for Jefferson County at the Court House in the City of Louisville on the 24th day of November 1851, which is a court of probate, the following order was passed.

It satisfactorily appearing to the Court, it is ordered to be certified and recorded that Edward Herndon, deceased, late of Spotsylvania County, Virginia, was a Lieutenant, Captain and Assistant Commissary General in the Virginia Line during the War of the Revolution and departed this life between the 10th and 12th day of November in the year 1837, leaving no widow and only two living children, viz., Jacob, five living children as follows: Reuben Herndon, of Louisville, Joseph E. Herndon, of Warren County, Ky., John P. Herndon, Margaret W. Fife, and Mary E. Fife, and the said Elizabeth leaving the following who are her only living children John Hull, Dabney Hull, William Hull, Isaac Hull, Margaret Anne Thomas, and Jane Minor. It is also ordered to be certified that the said Reuben Herndon is the administrator of the said Edward Herndon.

On presenting the foregoing Order he also made the following declaration.

The declaration of Reuben Herndon, a resident of the City of Louisville and State of Kentucky and administrator upon the estate of Edward Herndon, deceased, who was an officer in the Army of the Revolutionary War and belonged to the Virginia or Continental Line as will appear from files in Pension Office. It will further appear from said files that an allowance was made of forty-five dollars per month (or five hundred and forty dollars per annum) in consideration of the Revolutionary Services of Edward Herndon (deceased) under the Act of June 7, 1832—Declarant states that he is in possession of all the papers belonging to the Quartermaster’s Department, at the Post of Fredericksburg, Va., Commanded by Richard Young, assistant Deputy Quartermaster, under Major Richard Claiborne, D.Q.M. St. Virg., during the Revolutionary War, that the said papers and contents were left in the possession of Edward Herndon (deceased) by Qr. M. Richard Young upon his migration to Kentucky, as will appear from letter dated 4 May 1784 and marked No. 1.

That the said Edward Herndon (deceased) served in different ranks and capacities during the War as lieutenant, captain, and assistant commissary of issues but that his chief service was in the Quartermaster Department, that the pay that was allowed under the Act of 1832 was too small, and that this declaration is made for the purpose of obtaining increased pay, etc., etc.

Reuben Herndon sent to the Pension Office the original records of the Quartermaster’s Department that had been in the possession of his grandfather Edward Herndon. In 1913 the War Department received them from the Commissioner of Pensions. A note in the file in this case states that they included 14 orders, nine receipts, one certificate relative to the use of a horse, one return of supplies received in January 1781 from the State of Virginia by Richard Young, Asst. Q.M. General at Fredericksburg, two bundles of stubs relative to payments, and two letters concerning stores.
Edward Herndon’s own signatures are on the original papers showing sums due him for his services as storekeeper from 1 October 1781 to 16 November 1781, signed at Fredericksburg 28 February 1782 for £27 12. 0. The signature was “Edw’d. Herndon junr.”; also for one month from 16 November 1781 at the rate of 60 dollars or £18. 0., which he receipted for 20 May 1782 as “Edw’d. Herndon S. Kp. [Store Keeper].”

Here is the record as found in The Spotsylvania County Public Claims, page 40, in the Archives, Virginia State Library, Richmond:

Aug. 21, 1783
Entry #421 An account certified by Richard Young, C.Q.M. [Continental Quartermaster] due EDWARD HERndon A.Q.M. [Assistant Quartermaster] for wages as storekeeper at Port Royal [Caroline County] by which appears a balance of £18. 16. 0. due said Herndon.

EDWARD HERndon was also designated “Issue Comr.” in the same volume (page 8), when on 18 January 1781 he issued to Richard Kenny a certificate.

In The Caroline County Public Claims this Edward Herndon was designated both A.Q.M. [Assistant Quartermaster] and A.D.M. [Assistant Deputy (Quarter) Master] on numerous certificates which he issued and signed with the foregoing initials after his name.

In Lives of Virginia Baptist Ministers there is the following item relative to this Edward Herndon written by one of his granddaughters in an article concerning the Reverend Jacob Whiteler Herndon:

. . . Mr. Edward Herndon was a native of Spotsylvania County, a man of clear discriminating judgment, and strict probity and justice. During the revolution he resided in Fredericksburg and received the office of commissary in the army which he retained til the surrender of Yorktown. After the war he served on the magistrate’s bench forty years dispensing justice with an even hand, and enjoying in a high degree the confidence and esteem of the community in which he lived.

What happened is perfectly apparent. This Edward Herndon, who was only 18 years old in 1779, was given an appointment in the commissary’s department that fall, and there he served until the war ended. It is wholly unreasonable to assume that he was commissioned a lieutenant at 17, promoted to the captaincy of a company of infantry at 18, and that he resigned that commission to accept the type of assignment which we know he held until the end of the war, variously designated as storekeeper, assistant deputy quartermaster, assistant quartermaster, issue commissary, and commissary of issues. One cannot say with certainty what was its exact military equivalent in recognized grades such as corporal, sergeant, ensign, lieutenant, and captain; but that he advanced in designation and responsibility cannot be doubted. Of course, we now know that the papers on which Reuben Herndon relied to prove that his grandfather Edward Herndon had been a lieutenant and later a captain pertained to Edward Herndon of Goochland and Campbell Counties. Moreover, nothing in the file justifies the belief that Reuben Herndon was not acting in perfectly good faith in asserting that his grandfather had served in the various capacities which Reuben had ascribed to him. Although the Jefferson County Court adopted an order that was erroneous, so far as it asserted that Edward Herndon, Reuben's grandfather, had served as Lieutenant, Captain, and Assistant Commissary General in the Virginia Line during the War of the Revolution, it did so upon evidence that seemed reasonable to it. We are, in fact, indebted to that Court for spreading on its minutes so detailed a statement about many of the descendants of Edward Herndon.

Edward Herndon died at his home "Locust Grove" 17 October 1837. He had made his Will 26 November 1834. In it he mentioned his wife Elizabeth and his then living children. It was probated 4 December 1837.

#203 Dabney Herndon [31 Joseph] was born 14 April 1783 and died 20 December 1824. He married 17 November 1806 Elizabeth Hull (b 12 January 1789; d 20 April 1825). Some interesting family items which have been gleaned from the Pension File of Capt. Edwin Hull’s widow Ann (Eustace) Hull W-#14, 316 follow:

Northumberland County Court 8 January 1810
Ordered, That it be certified that it appears to the satisfaction of the Court, that ¹ Miss Lucy Herndon Ewin, of “Sunnyside”, Biloxi, Miss., a great granddaughter of Peter and Ann Meriwether (Minor) Scales, has these and furnished a copy of them to the compiler 21 February 1939.

John Hull, Thomas G. Hull, Brodie S. Hull, and Elizabeth who intermarried with Dabney Herndon are the only heirs of the late Colonel John Hull, deceased, and that the said Col. John Hull was the heir at law of Edwin Hull, late of Northumberland County, deceased.

The rank of Edwin Hull was Captain. He was killed on the battlefield and his non-cupative Will is in this File.

His widow was Ann (Eustace) Hull. She married secondly Capt. Joseph Blackwell, according to affidavit by Elizabeth Digges, 81 years of age, of Fauquier County, in March 1837. Witnesses to this affidavit were Porcia Digges and Sarah D. Digges. A certificate was filed by Wheeling Digges, Justice of the Peace of Fauquier County.

Paul Hull, John Minor Herndon, Brodie Strachan Herndon, Ann Herndon Maury, Matthew Maury, Mary Strachan Herndon, and Charles Herndon signed a power of attorney in this matter 26 July 1845, and were listed in a Minute of the Henrico Court, dated 4 August 1845, as all being heirs to Captain Edwin Hull.

The following sketch of Dabney Herndon was written by his grandson Mr. John Waterhouse Herndon in 1903:

In 1805 he was a magistrate for the corporation of Fredericksburg; in April, 1809, was employed at the Farmer's Bank; in August, 1812, was made cashier, which position he held until his death; was elected vestryman of St. George's in 1809 and in 1812 attended the Convention of the Church as its representative; in 1823 was treasurer of the Fredericksburg Classical Academy. He and his noble young wife, who soon followed him, left a large family of young children, yet not before they had firmly planted in their young minds so strong a belief in God that they could not but honor man and to serve their State and country when they came to years of discretion.... His wife's parents were Col. John Hull and Ann Strachan.

HERNDON

On September 12, 1857, the "Central America" was lost at sea in a great storm off Cape Hatteras. Captain William Lewis Herndon of the Navy was in command. His tranquil courage preserved discipline up to the last, and until his passengers, officers and crew were all in the boats. Seeing that the last boat was already overloaded, Captain Herndon refused to add to its danger, and ordering it off went down with his ship.

O dreary night! Oh grave of hope!
Oh sea, and dark unpitying sky!
Full many a wreck these waves shall claim,
Ere such another heart shall die.

Ay, shout and rave, thou cruel sea,
In triumph o'er that fated deck,
Grown holy by another grave,
Thou hast the captain of the wreck.

No prayer was said, no lesson read,
O'er him, the soldier of the sea;
And yet for him, through all the land,
A thousand thoughts tonight shall be.

And many an eye shall dim with tears,
And many a cheek be flushed with pride;
And men shall say, There died a man;
And boys shall learn how well he died.

Ay, weep for him whose noble soul
Is with the God who made it great;
But weep not for so proud a death,
We could not spare so grand a fate.

It HAS begun, true gentleman!
No better life we ask for thee;
Thy Viking soul and woman heart
Forever shall a beacon be.

Nor could humanity resign
That hour which bade her heart beat high,
And blazoned duty's stainless shield,
And set a star in honor's sky.

A starry thought to veering souls,
To teach it is not best to live;
To show that life has naught to match
Such knighthood as the grave can give.

THEME

The theme of this section is to explore the dynamics of resource allocation in complex systems. It delves into the intricacies of how resources are distributed, the factors influencing such distribution, and the consequences of these distributions. The section aims to provide insights into the mechanisms that govern resource allocation and their implications for various domains such as economics, ecology, and social sciences.

The section begins by introducing the fundamental concepts related to resource allocation, including definitions, key terms, and foundational theories. It then progresses to discuss the empirical evidence and case studies that illustrate the application of these concepts in real-world scenarios.

It further examines the challenges and limitations in resource allocation, such as fairness, efficiency, and sustainability. The section also explores the role of policy and regulation in shaping resource allocation decisions and discusses the potential impacts of these interventions.

Finally, the section concludes with a discussion on the future directions in resource allocation research, highlighting areas of emerging interest and potential avenues for further exploration.
APPENDIX A

(For index to persons here named see pages 136-138)

THE MILITIA OF SPOTSYLVANIA COUNTY, VIRGINIA, AS EVIDENCED BY PETITIONS OF 14 NOVEMBER 1776

On 14 November 1776 there were signed seven nearly identical petitions the standard form of which was as follows:

To the Honourable the President and Gentlemen of the Convention

The Petition of Sundry Freeholders &c others, Inhabitants of Spotsylvania County, Humbly Sheweth That your Petitioners Labour under a very Great Hardship in being Obliged to travel, some Twenty odd, and others Thirty miles to attend General Musters, which are Constantly appointed at the Courthouse in Fredericksburg, situate on one side of the County

We therefore pray that an ordinance may pass, Directing that General Musters for the future, be appointed at, or Near the Center of, the County, and your Petitioners shall pray &

Each was then signed by the officers and men of a particular company. In each case the name of the Captain was inscribed on the back of the petition. For convenience in referring to them, each petition was given a number, but whether by direction of the State Archivist or someone else does not appear.

Petition #1 is that of Captain Craig's Company. It employs the wording above given except that "Chairman" is used instead of "President." The signatures were as follows:

Petition #2 is like Petition #1 except that the names appearing thereon were all written by one person who was apparently authorized to sign on behalf of all those who approved. On the reverse side of the petition the company is designated as that of “Capt. Stubblefield.” The “signatures” read thus:

Petition #3 is like its predecessors except that it is easy to identify its penman as Thomas Minor who was the first to sign. On the reverse side is the notation “Capt. Minor.” Its other signers were:

On the reverse side there were four signatures after the last one named below, that of Z. Lewis, but it seems that the paper became water-soaked and they are now undecipherable. The others were those of Benjamin Childes, Robert Coleman, Robert Hutcherson, Garret Minor, Wllm. Fortson, Chas. Hutcherson, Edward Thomas, and Z. Lewis.

Petition #5, quoted in full at the beginning of this article, is that of Capt. Robert Chew's Company. It differs from all the others in that the rank of each signer is stated. The officers, both commissioned and non-commissioned, wrote their rank after their names. The privates signed in three columns with the word “Soldiers” above their signatures.

On the reverse side of Petition #6 are the words "Capt. Bartlet" and the endorsement "Spotsylvania to Prop". (Reasonable). Its signers cramped their signatures into three of the four columns provided with the result that many are much more difficult to read than would otherwise have been the case. The signers were:

<table>

The swift moving events of 1776 caused certain changes to be made in Petition #7 but whether they were inserted by Capt. John Herndon or after receipt of the Petition by the House of Delegates does not appear. The words "President" and "Convention" in the address were stricken out and "Speaker" and "House of Delegates" substituted. In the body of the Petition a line was drawn through the word "Ordinance" and in its place "Act of Assembly" written. The names of signers were as follows:

<table>

<tr>
<th>John Herndon</th>
<th>Lodowick Oneal</th>

The Petition is endorsed as follows: "Inhabitants of Spotsylvania Nov. 14, 1776 Rtd. to Prop". The endorsement "Capt. Herndon" appears also.
