WITHDRAWN
From the Family History Library
After working diligently for the past twenty years gathering the genealogy of Jonathan Householder of Butler, Pennsylvania, and realizing that it is practically impossible to find all the lacking information, it seems proper at this time to compile what information has been found. It is hoped that as a result of this work, others may become interested to the extent that they may continue the endless search for this genealogy, and will find this booklet of some value to them in their efforts. Free use of the material contained herein is granted to all who desire to compile a more complete work of this genealogy.

Great care has been used while compiling this work in an effort to be as accurate as possible as well as to present as complete a record as possible from information on hand. Any corrections or additions, either for early or late generations will be gratefully received.

This booklet has been made possible by the cooperation of many individuals; the value of their efforts cannot be fully and adequately expressed.

Grateful acknowledgement is especially made of definite contributions in the form of content material from the following: Mr & Mrs Harold Householder; Mrs Olive R. Cleverly; Mrs Louisa C. Day; Mrs Grace R. Mann; Mr & Mrs W. E. Householder; Mr & Mrs Lawrence Davidson; and Mrs Maud H. Deakin.

Appreciation is respectively due to Mr Avard Rogers for giving freely of his time and talents in typing and mimeographing this work.

The author does not consider this work at an end and will continue unceasingly to gather this genealogy until all the Householders of America of this line are connected up into their proper family groups.
