McKee Record

This book contains the record of the descendants of Samuel McKee and Betsey Lowry, his wife. Each name is preceded by a numeral denoting the generation to which each belongs, thus if a name has the number 1 before it he is a descendant of the first generation; if by a 2 he belongs to the second generation. If any one into whose hands this book may fall can supply any of the missing names or dates they will be greatfully received by the compiler of this book.

Samuel McKee, the son of James and Lydia Todd McKee, was born July 3, 1764, in Augusta Co., Virginia. He was a hero of the Revolutionary War, fighting under Washington, and being present at the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown. On he married Betsey Lowry and had the following children:

1. John, born Sept. 29, 1794; died Aug. 29, 1877.
1. James, born Sept. 4, 1796; died Dec. 23, 1860.

His grandparents were William and Elizabeth McKee, his great-grandparents William and Mary McKee. Samuel McKee died June 3, 1842.

The McKees, Lowrys and Todds are said to have come across the pond about the year 1736, and settled in Pennsylvania and Virginia. Afterwards they and their descendants drifted to Kentucky, thence South and West till, doubtless, they now inhabit all parts of the United States and her late possessions. They came from Ireland and north of Ireland. There is said to have been twelve brothers and three sisters of the McKees, and about as many of the Todds and Lowrys. The McKees are of good fighting stock. They have been well represented in every struggle in which their country has been engaged from the time of the Revolution up to and including the Spanish-American War.

Of the twelve children of Samuel McKee and Betsey Lowry, his wife, three, Samuel, Jane, and Eliza, died while young. The others married as follows:
