Coat of Arms

Zink
ZINK COAT OF ARMS

The Zink Coat of Arms was drawn by an heraldic artist from the information officially recorded in ancient heraldic archives. Documentation for the Zink Coat of Arms design can be found in "Reistap Armorial General."

Heraldic artists of old developed their own unique language to describe an individual Coat of Arms. It is as follows for this one:

"Coupe-denche d’azur sur or."

Above the shield and helmet is the Crest which is described as:

"Un homme iss., hab. d’un coupe d’azur sur or, donnant dans une trompe de sa."

When translated the blazon also describes the original colors of the Zink Arms and Crest as it appeared centuries ago.

Family mottos are believed to have originated as battle cries in medieval times. A motto was not recorded with the Zink Coat of Arms.

Individual surnames originated for the purpose of more specific identification. The four primary sources for second names were: occupation, location, father’s name or personal characteristics. The surname Zink appears to be both characteristic and occupational in origin, and is believed to be associated with the German’s meaning, “one with a large or prominent nose,” and “one who played the medieval cornet; a zinke.”
SONS OF NATHANIEL MCCLURE ZINK (3-14)

Fred, Ernest, Will, and Dale.
Fred Zink is author's father — Now age 92.
The Zink families that immigrated to the United States came from Germany, Austria and Holland. The family in Germany is of ancient and distinguished lineage: It is noted for the number and prominence of physicians and surgeons. Both Dr. Phillip Zink and Dr. Charles Edwin Zink were physicians to King Maximilian II of Bavaria.

There were some variations in spelling and also in translating into English: Zink, Zinck and Sink were the common spellings. Many of the Zink's immigrated before and during the American Revolution. Church records of the St. Michols and Zion Church of Philidelphia contain many Zink records of the pre-revolutionary period and Shenandoah and Hampshire County, Va., contain many of them during and immediately afterwards. One of the earliest church records was that of Margreth Zink, wife of Andreas Zink, who died there Jan. 24, 1769. She was born in Germany in 1697, was married in 1728 and came to this country in 1754.

There has been inquiry about Heraldic rights. The Zink Coat-of-Arms contained herein was furnished by a reputable Heraldic Artist, but there is no information that indicates our family is entitled to such decoration — but Heraldic devices are not the only marks of family worth: The Zink’s may be proud of at least three of their family characteristics which entitle it to distinction — courage, patriotism and freedom from crime. In each generation there were courageous and stalwart Zink pioneers who helped settle the frontiers and there has never been a war in our country in which the Zink’s have not borne an honorable part.

Dora Zink Kellogg published in 1933 a book entitled “THE ZINK FAMILIES IN AMERICA” This was a large book consisting of 316 pages of records and 69 pages of index. Copies of this book may be found in the Genealogy Section of the State Historical Building on the campus of the University of Nebraska at Lincoln, Nebr. and in the Omaha Public Library.

There are 33 chapters in this book; each dealing with a separate “Zink Family” whose lineage was traced to immigrants from Europe. No effort was made to connect these families in Europe, so undoubtedly many are of the same lineage. She spared no effort to make this genealogy complete. County, town and church records were searched, and references to them are listed as proof of lineage.

Chapter V is one of the most complete; as this is the family of Dora Zink Kellogg, and also of mine. She was my first cousin, once removed. My desire to see the records of this family kept up-to-date has influenced me to undertake the task. I have no qualifications for it, only a great interest in our pioneering forefathers: I have searched no records. I have used the information contained in Dora Zink Kellogg’s book for the first four generations; and have relied entirely on family members to furnish the records and data for the rest of it. Their support and enthusiasm has made the task much easier and I wish to thank each and everyone who helped. There were many.

EXPLANATORY

Each name presented is printed in capitols preceded by two numbers. The number before the dash is the generation number and the number after the dash is the identifying number. The name and number enclosed with the ( ) is the Zink parent which makes it possible to trace your lineage back to the original Philip Zink.

The historical data of each person is followed by a list of his children (if any) in which each child is given a number. Where the number is preceded by — it indicates that that number is dropped. The other numbers will be found farther on, continuing the family record.

All who are listed in this book are related: either by lineal blood relationship, i.e. grandchildren, children, parents and grandparents; or by collateral blood relationship, i.e. uncles, and great-uncles, cousins, second cousins etc. A common error is in the use of the term second cousin, third cousin, etc., which should be used only between persons of the same generation, and not with preceding or succeeding generations. Thus, rather than call the child of a first cousin, a second cousin (as many do incorrectly), the proper term is “first cousin, once removed.” The grandchild of a first cousin is a “first cousin, twice removed” (not a third cousin). The children of two first cousins are second cousins to each other; and the grandchildren of two first cousins are third cousins to each other.

Nearly all of those listed under the Fourth Generation are brothers and sisters or first cousins. As this record is being prepared, there are three members of this generation still living. They are: 4-8 Vollie Virgil Zink: 4-24 Fred Owen Zink (my father) and 4-36 Mary V. Zink.
THE PHILIP ZINK FAMILY IN AMERICA

FIRST GENERATION

1-1 PHILIP ZINK

This Philip Zink (No. 2920 in the Kellogg genealogy) resided in Shenandoah County, Va., and was probably a cousin of Philip Zink (2698) of Steeles Tavern in Augusta County, Va. Our bible records begin with him and there is not positive proof of his parentage. It is quite probable, however that his parents were Jacob Zink and his wife Catherine.

Jacob Zink settled in the locality of Shenandoah and Hampshire counties and owned land there before the government grant of land in 1789 on the North branch of the Potamac, cornering with it. (See Kellogg gene. p. 172) Jacob Zink is listed as an immigrant on the Ship Richard and Mary from Rotterdam and took the oath of allegiance Sept. 30, 1754. (See Kellogg gene. p. 170) He is listed in the 1782 census of Shenandoah County as Jacob Sink Sr., 7 whites in family: He was listed in Hampshire County in the 1783 census.

Before the revolution, he was a Scout and furnished provisions to the Scouts of the Hampshire Militia. (See Kellogg gene. p. 193)

It is quite probable that Gottlieb Zink (1) and Hiram Zink (2697) were brothers of Jacob. (See Kellogg gene. p. 177) Church records of St. Michols and Zion Church at Philidelphia show Lorentz Zink, son of Jacob Zink and Catherine born Dec.
9, Bapt. Dec. 16, 1770. (See Kellogg gene. p. 310) Birth records of Shenandoah County show another son, Gotlieb, born to Jacob and Catherine Zink on Nov. 12, 1773 and baptized Apr. 12, 1774 (See p. 172) — but the records of Philip’s birth to Jacob and Catherine cannot be found.

Philip Zink was born Dec. 17, 1769 and died Febr. 15, 1817. This is the inscription on his tombstone in an old grave yard on the west side of Crooked Creek on the hillside south of the Birch Arnold farm in Adams County, Ohio. In 1932 it was the only stone entirely legible.

He married Catherine Roads May 22, 1791. Simon Harr, a Lutheran minister officiating. (Shenandoah Co., Va. Records) Our family bible gives her name as Mary Catherine, but in all legal papers found, she used only the name Catherine.

They left Virginia in 1810 going to southern Ohio. The deed of land Aug. 1, 1810 probably closed their holdings in Va. In Adams County, Ohio Records, Vol. 6. p. 624, Nathaniel Massie and Susan, his wife, deeded to Philip Zink, Aug. 12, 1811 one hundred and fifty acres on Crooked Creek, which was probably his home when he died, although there were other holdings settled by the estate.

As related to Dora Zink Kellogg by her grandmother, Eliza Leatherwood Zink, Philip Zink lost his life when his farm buildings burned. His son Daniel died in the same tragedy, and his son Philip Jacob was also severely burned but recovered. They were trying to get their horses out of the blazing barn.

In the records of settlement of the estate of Philip Zink, the first file is in Vol. 10 p. 13, Adams Co., Ohio dated June 10, 1817. It is a deed from Philip and Mary Madelene Rhoads to the heirs of Philip Zink deceased.

The widow, Catherine is allotted her one-third interest during lifetime and the children are named. Marriage dates are added for some of them, as found in old Marriage Records, Vol. 2 and 3, Adams Co., Ohio. The marriage records of Samuel and Philip Jacob Zink are in Highland County, Ohio.

They moved to Mo. and homesteaded land 1 mile north and a half mile west of the present town of Isadora in Worth Co. They and all their children are buried in the Isadora cemetery. The approximate date of the migration of the Hibbs family to Mo. is found in the article of the Allison family in the History of Adams Co., O. by Evans & Stiver. It tells that Evaline, the eldest daughter of John Bratton Allison and Elizabeth Bratton married Jeremiah M. Hibbs in 1852 and moved to his home in Mo.

2-6 PHILIP JACOB ZINK, (Philip 1-1), b. Shenandoah Co., Va. July 25, 1800 m. in Highland Co., O. Dec. 19, 1833 Eliza Leatherwood, b. 1803 or 5, daughter of *Zachariah Leatherwood and Catherine Teener. Deed records of Adams Co., O. Vol. 22 p. 64 gives a deed made Dec. 4, 1840 by Philip and Eliza Zink to Jacob Zile, conveying land on the main branch of Crooked Creek containing 115 acres. They farmed in Adams Co., until 1854 when they started to Missouri in a covered wagon.

They stopped to visit the Knisely relatives near Keithburg and Galesburg, Ill. Philip was stricken with typhoid fever and died near Galesburg, Ill. Oct. 19, 1854.

* See Addendum
The family remained near Galesburg for a year or two, then went to Mo. where Eliza owned a farm in Harrison Co. She married William Neese who d. during the Civil War and she sold her farm, going to Union Star, Mo. the home of her son Nathaniel, where she remained until her death, Mar. 14, 1889.

These births are all recorded in the old family bible of Nathaniel McClure Zink.

He farmed in Fountain, Warren and Tippecanoe counties, Ind. He volunteered in the Mexican War and in the Civil War but was released from service in the later on account of age. On page 376 Record Book, Vol. 12 Adams Co., O. is found a contract made Sept. 17, 1825 in which Samuel, son of Catherine Zink, aged 15 years, 6 mo. 17 days is bound as an apprentice to Thomas Newton to learn the "trade, art, mistery or occupation of machinery," of all kinds of wool and cotton which the said Thomas Newton now useth, to dwell with and serve him for 5 yr. 5 mo. 13 days." The contract continues with about five hundred words so severely binding that about the only privilege he had was an opportunity to live.

Unfortunately the Adams Co., O. court house was burned and only a few early records saved from the fire and it is not known if that contract was abrogated before expiration.

Nathaniel Zink Ranch Home on the Big Sandy, 8 miles Northeast of Stuart, Nebraska. Built in 1891. Photo taken in 1901 with his family. It was Author's childhood home and is still owned by his father Fred O. Zink who is now 91 years old. My oldest Sister and husband live here now — George and Margaret Keidel.
ADDENDUM

THE LEATHERWOOD FAMILY IN AMERICA

The genealogy data for this family was furnished by Leta Grace Kellogg. She is the daughter of Dora L. Kellogg who published the "Zink Families in America" in 1932. Since Eliza Leatherwood Zink is the common great grandmother of all of those who are listed in this genealogy, it seems appropriate to include her ancestry as an addendum to this Genealogy book.

FIRST GENERATION

Records from St. Ann’s Protestant Episcopal Church, Annapolis, Maryland give the birthdates of the children of John Leatherwood and his wife Martha. They are as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Birth Date</th>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Joannah</td>
<td>6-8-1689</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Jane</td>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

These same church records show Martha Leatherwood, wife of John Leatherwood, buried Jan. 22, 1705.

SECOND GENERATION

Samuel, son of John Leatherwood, born Feb. 13, 1681 married Johannah __________. Their Children’s records of birth are in St. Margaret’s Westminster Parish Protestant Episcopal Church, Anne Arundel Co. birth records, now in Maryland Historical Society at Baltimore. Their children were:
