Moved: In 1858, Noah moved his family to Busseron in northern Knox County, Indiana. He became ill with malaria around January 1859, soon after arriving in Indiana, and was under Dr. Miller's care until he died the following year in August 1859. (Court records). 38 different doctor treatments, visits or medications were prescribed from July 1858 until Noah's death in August 1859. It appears that the whole family was quite ill after settling in Indiana. Noah and James were treated with quinine for malaria. From the Estate of Noah Racy - a list of treatments and medications were submitted by Dr. Miller against the estate that totaled $34.00. A separate page was submitted by Dr. Miller for the month of August 1859, the month Noah died. He visited Noah 16 times in August, with the last visit on August 23rd - possibly the day Noah died. That bill was for $33. The doctor stated that he was unpaid except for a small amount of corn.

Death: Was wounded in battle. Died 22 March 1863, in a hospital at Carthage, Tennessee,(per Thomas Olland Racey in A Short History of the Racey Family). Clifford Racey said he died of measles while serving in the Union Army. Wayne
Smith's research found that he died of pneumonia. Perhaps this was a complication of Measles.

Cemetery: In 1867, thousands of Civil War remains from Carthage, Tennessee were re-interred to the National Cemetery in Nashville. Many soldiers had wooden markers immediately after burial in Carthage, but these hastily placed boards, complete with painted names of the deceased on them, had weathered and became unreadable at the time of re-interment, thus thousands became "unknowns" at Nashville National Cemetery. Nicholas is one of the "unknowns." (This information was obtained in 2003 by Wayne Smith on his visit to the Nashville National Cemetery. He spoke with the cemetery director, who checked his available records).

Landon married (1) Rachel TEWALT daughter of Mr. TEWALT on 23 Mar 1843 in Frederick Co., Virginia. Rachel was born about 1825 possibly in Maryland. She died before 1850.

Her sister Elizabeth Tewalt Rasey, wife of William Rasey, states on the 1850 census that she was born in Maryland. It is possible that Rachel also was born in Maryland. William Rasey is not the William Isaac Racey, brother of Landon, because he states that he was born in New York. on the 1850 census. [I have noticed that many of the New York/Canada Raceys spell their name with an "S" instead of a "C", that is, Rasey as opposed to Racey. Most of the time there is no connection to our Racey family].

Landon and Rachel had the following children:

+ 158 M i. Armstead John William RACEY was born about 1844. He died on 27 Nov 1894.
Landon married (2) Malinda "Linda" STROSNIDER daughter of Elijah STROSNIDER and Elizabeth FRACKLEY on 31 Aug 1854 in Frederick Co., Virginia. Malinda was born about 1831 in Frederick Co., Virginia. She died in Virginia.

Westfall Racey remains a mystery with his wives and children. Is this one person with at least two wives and several live-ins? Or is he several different people???

SOURCES:

Note: There is a conflict on his date of birth. Marriage records deductions are from 1832-1836. His father John Racey died in 1831?? IGI (International Genealogical Index) of the LDS Family Library records list it as 1818. Census records deductions are from 1819 to 1828.

Joanna Hardy, age 26, also lives in the home with her 10 month-old son, Thomas Hardy. (Joseph's parents apparently have separated. His mother Alcinda is living in Winchester, Frederick County, Virginia, and is a domestic servant for Henry Baker or Baber).

162 F iv. Dorcas RACEY was born about 1859/1860.

164 F vii. Louisa RACEY was born about 1869/1870 in Virginia.

Note: Hannah is part Indian - most likely Shawnee, per Clifford Racey..

Note: She never had a house of her own; always lived in a rented house.

Note: The birth record for her youngest daughter, Lydia, born in Somerset County, Pennsylvania, lists parents as L. and Annie Racey. If this is Hannah, then it is the only time that she is called "Annie."
Note: Children: Had 12 children; only 9 survived. (1910 census) The names of the three children that did not survive childhood are not known at this time. "Herman" may be one of those children that didn't survive. That name was given as a son of Hannah and Landon Racey by the Virginia Department of Health, Richmond, Virginia. Hermon was born in 1893; month and day were not given. Edgar was born in September 1893, so, if Hermon was their child, then he would've had to be born around January or February.

Religion: Member of Baptist Church, Romney, West Virginia (per Obituary).

Note: Obituary said she was age 66 when she died. That would make her birth year 1855. But death record said she was 64 years, 1 month and 18 days at death. That would make her birth year 1857. Death record gives her death date as 3 April 1921, while obituary says 4 April 1921.

I have copy of marriage record and obituary.

Note: Her daughter-in-law, Binnie Racey (1st wife of Will), gave Hannah "highest praise, and called her "kind." (Letter written to Lydia Racey McKee after Hannah's death).

Born: near St. James Church Lutheran Church on Cedar Creek, Shenandoah County, Virginia.

Civil War: No record exists of him being in the Civil War. However, an interesting story is told of him that occurred in May 1862. Benjamin Franklin was working for a man near Kernstown, when a skirmish broke out nearby between the Union and Confederate soldiers. He watched the battle from the window of his employer's house, until a cannonball struck the house. He then joined the others in the safety of the cellar. After the battle, Benjamin went out on the field and found two guns which had been left behind, a large one and a small one. On his way back to the house, he was chased by some Yankee soldiers. In his excitement, he dropped the smaller gun, a gun which he particularly wanted to keep. However, he was able to make his way to the house with the larger gun. A few hours after this experience, some Yankee soldiers came to the spring where Benjamin was getting a bucket of water. One of the soldiers asked him for a chew of tobacco, and, after the soldier cut off a chew, he put the plug in his pocket. When Benjamin asked the soldier to return the tobacco, he replied, "You are lucky that we don't take you with us."

In February 2000, Gloria Racey, wife of Jim Racey, Jr., went to the Frederick County Courthouse to look at the original marriage record. Hannah is definitely listed on the marriage record as being Armstead's mother. It could be possible that Landon and Hannah raised him; or that the clerk got Rachel's name mixed up and by mistake wrote Hannah, instead of Rachel, or that Armistead is not from the line of John Luke Racey.]
