FROM THE EDITOR'S UNEASY CHAIR

This is the largest issue which THE ROOD-RUDE RECORD has, to date, put into your hands all at one time. It is a combination of Vol. III No. 1 (Winter-Spring 1956) and No. 2 (Summer-Fall 1956). You will receive No. 3 (Winter 1956/7) late in the fall. The reason for this extra-big (twice as large as normal) edition is that in this issue we wanted to feature and his many, many descendants. Of course, we have not prepared a COMPLETE record of his descendants—that is not yet possible—but we have made a beginning. At least we know, now, what lines are not yet worked out, and what lines still need some further work. That in itself is important. We urge you to contribute any material you may have which will help us to complete these lineages. Then, too, we did not get all the "copy" we have hoped to get; on page 7, #106, I promised to show a line from Sally Stanton Rude, but this wasn't ready at publication time, so it will have to wait over. Then, too, I had accumulated a great many land and other records about John-2 Rude himself and his wife, Mary Eddy; but these were not yet ready to present to you, so you will have to wait for an early issue for them.

JOHN-2 RUDE OF PRESTON

Certain features were "forced out" of this issue, e.g., continuations of the series on David and Lucretia (Stowe) Rood and on Azariah Rood of Vermont, but we hope to pick these up again in Vol. III No. 3.

Several subscribers have written the editor to the effect that "all this is interesting, but I get so confused because I do not know my own line. Can you chart my own Rood descent for me?" Of course. That is one of our services to family members. If you do not have a chart of your own, showing your Rood descent, drop the editor a line and it will come back "pronto". In that way you can tell when a given family group is presented just HOW CLOSELY you are related. I believe you are all now familiar with the fact that Azariah-4 Rood means "fourth generation from Thomas, the emigrant Rood".

Another service we offer "gratis" is making out papers for the national patriotic societies: DAR, SAR, Colonial Dames, Colonial Wars, etc. If you are interested in these societies and wish to join, just have the regent (or president) and/or genealogist write me with the proper forms (or get them and send them yourself to me) and I will fill them out properly for membership. A copy of this magazine from Vol. I No. 1 has been purchased by National Daughters of American Revolution Library in Washington, D.C. and many other libraries are also subscribers. Since Volume I is now almost out of print (and Vol. I No. 1 is "scarce") you may have to use a library copy if you do not own one.

With summer coming again, we suppose there will be FAMILY REUNIONS of the various branches of the family, and we hope you will send a notice to THE RECORD of such meetings and a list of those in attendance.

What is coming in Vol. III No. 3? Well, I hope to publish another article on which Miss Clara McCabe, Miss Alice M. Carr and several others have collaborated, concerning ASA ROOD. Another article will be on Simeon Rood sr. of Litchfield Co., Conn. and his descendants, as well as further records from that county of other families who lived there (it was a sort of "live nest" of Rooods and Rudes 1750-1850). Also I am hoping to reproduce a whole page of signatures of Rood and Rude ancestors who died before 1850. Those are just a few of the things from our bulging files which I thought you might like in the next issue. Until then, happy reading in this gigantic issue.
A PARTIAL LIST OF DESCENDANTS OF JOHN-2 RUDE

Editor’s Note: From time to time your editor receives queries on the line of John-2 Rude, and usually the hope expressed in such letters, is that a "check-list" of descendants may some day be published. What follows is a "first attempt" at such a listing. It will be buttressed with land record and probate citations later, but in its first approximation, we will present the following. R. R. B.

John-2 Rude b. _ _ Sept 1658 (Norwich rec.; we do not know where he was born), d. 14 Apr 1705 Preston; m. 24 June 1687 Mary b. 14 Mch 1666 Taunton, Mass., dau of John & Susannah (Paddock) Eddy who survived him; her d. not found. 6. Mehitable (above) m. James Brayman; res. in Windsor; more data not found. See Page 40 this issue.

7. Noah; on back of his father's inventory in 1706, his uncle Thomas Rose wrote that Noah was 7 months old when his father died, evidently still living 1706; we may presume the widow moved to New Jersey (where her son Joseph\(^3\) fled after divorce) and perhaps later to Penn. where we find in 1790 census, Menallen twp., Fayette Co., Noah Rude 1 male over 21, 1 female; nearby was a probable son Zelah 1 male over 21, 3 males under 21, 7 females. Also we should probably place as a son of Noah that Caleb whose descendents are treated in this issue, called herein Caleb\(^5\), but probably, if he belongs here, actually Caleb\(^4\). Without further proof, we cannot so assign him, but since Caleb's first child was named Noah, an uncommon Rood name, it seems likely.

76a) Possibly another dau of Caleb would be Mary d. after 1807; m. Luthan Hammond, who was in Saratoga Co. by 1797 and sold to Ephraim Rudes; he moved to Cayuga Co. with Caleb Jr., Nathan and Jonah, his putative brothers-in-law; he names "Geo. West" brother-in-law in his will, but this may refer to his sister's husband; compare with Renssalaer West above; because of his close connection with the Rude(s) family, it is a guess that his wife Mary was a dau of Caleb; Luthan's will dated 21 Oct 1806, says he is of Aurelius, Cayuga Co., N.Y, (where rec. and probated 12 Oct 1807 Bk A-I p. 151). He remembers:

wife: Mary Hammond sons: John, Ephraim, Luthan, Isaac (note Rude names) daughters: Hannah, Maý, Anna, Elizabeth, Theresa executors: wife; son John; bro-in-law George West witnesses: Phebe Rude; David Riley; John Haring

We have not identified this Phoebe Rude, but presumably she was a wife of some Cayuga Co. Rude or an unmarried sister of his wife putative Mary Rude.

RUDE OF HAMILTON COUNTY, NEW YORK

Because they are probably descendants of John-2 Rude, it seems wise here to give records, though unconnected, of those Rude or Rood families who settled in Hamilton Co., N.Y. Mrs. John G. Gonseth has kindly pointed out that Miss Anna Rude of Piseco, Hamilton Co., N.Y. (dau of a Dan Rude who d. about 1910 and was b. ca. 1827, by his wife Charlotte) was a granddaughter of Eli Rude who d. ca. 1876. Mrs. John R. Lynch has also contributed information on this Eli Rude or Rood (Footnote 1) which shows that "Eli Rood settled on the beech flats southeast of Piseco Lake, township of Piseco, Hamilton Co., N.Y."

Through the kindness of Leona G. Ameden, clerk, Hamilton County Surrogate's Court, Indian lake, New York, we have been provided with the following abstracts of estates and administrations of Rude-Rudes families in that area which will prove of interest and value to descendants of John-2 Rude; additions to the above, or connection with the descent from the above ancestor are sought from descendants.

Estate of George T. Rudes

The petition of Lewis Rudes, son, verified 25 Feb 1915, recites that George T. Rudes died intestate 15 July 1914, and that the personal property was valued at $400, real property at $800. Location of said real property is not mentioned. The following persons were recited as next of kin, heirs-at-law and distributees of the decedant:

Martha Rudes, widow, Spy Lake, N.Y.
Lewis Rudes, son, Spy Lake, N.Y.
Lyman Rudes, son, Spy Lake, N.Y.

Upon giving a bond in the amount of $2400, Letters of Administration were issued to Lewis Rudes on 20 March 1915. No further proceedings in this estate.

Estate of Lewis F. Rudes

The petition of Lyman H. Rudes, brother, verified 2 Aug 1921, recites that Lewis F. Rudes died on 2 June 1919 and that the personal property was valued at $100 and the real property at $200., not mentioning where the property was located. The following persons are named:

Lyman H. Rudes, brother, Spy Lake, N.Y.

Martha J. Rudes, mother (now deceased)

Evidently Martha J. Rudes was living at the time of Lewis' death, but died sometime between 2 June 1919 (Lewis' death) and 2 Aug 1921 (appointment of Lyman). Upon filing bond of $1000, Letters of Administration were issued to Lyman H. Rudes in the estate on 18 Aug 1921. No further proceedings in the estate.

Estate of Daniel Rudes

The petition of Anna Rudes Veghte, daughter, verified 18 Aug 1928, recites that Daniel Rudes died intestate on or about 14 Oct 1910 and that the personal property was valued at $251.20 and the real property at $500. The following named persons were recited:

Anna R. Veghte, daughter, 304 Main St., Johnstown, N.Y.

John R. Rudes, son, Billingham, Wash.

Thomas Stacey, grandson, 1222 State St., Schenectady, N.Y.

Lillian S. Morris, grandchild, 810-W. 96th St., New York, N.Y.

Anna S. Larkin, grandchild, Gettysburg College, Gettysburg, Pa.

Beatrice Stacey, grandchild, Madison St., Rome, N.Y.

Martha S. Lever, grandchild, 4 Harding St., Malone, N.Y.

Alton Stacey, grandchild, Lancaster St., Albany, N.Y.

Edward (Clinton) Stacey, grandchild, Chiciotoume, Que.

These children of Harriet Rudes Stacey, prior-deceased daughter Nora Rudes Hammond, grandchild, 3 Spoffard Ave., Dolgeville, N.Y.

Dee W. Rudes, grandchild, S. Main St., Dolgeville, N.Y.

Lila Rudes Conley, grandchild, New Hartford, N.Y.

These children of Frank Rudes, a son of sd. decedent who has died since decedent leaving surviving Augusta Knapp Rudes, his widow, residing at 1 Spoffard Ave., Dolgeville.

Upon giving bond of $260, Letters of Administration were issued 20 Aug 1928 to Anna Rudes Veghte. Upon filing petition 30 March 1929 by Anna R. Veghte, together with receipts and releases from all the heirs above, a decress was made on 1 Apr 1929 releasing and discharging the administratrix. The only mention of real property in contained in this: "Upon information and belief that at the time of his death sd Daniel Rudes was the owner of real estate situate nr. Piseco Lake in sd Town of Arietta, title to which has been inherited by the parties above named, and disposition of such real estate is in no way involved in the proceeding, value of which is about $500."

Mrs. Gonseth, in a letter 16 Aug 1954, amplifies the information on Anna Veghte. Her husband was Nicholas' son of Lewis-6 (Nicholas-5, John-4, Gerret-3, Gerrit-2 Claussen, Claes-1 Arantse) Veghte b. 10 Dec 1846; m. 22 Dec 1880 Anna M., dau of Daniel and Charlotte (Bice) Rudes. Child John n. 26 Jan 1882, m. Bertha Wiles" (Cuyler Reynolds, GENEALOGICAL & FAMILY MEMOIRS v. 2 p. 812) Before 1910, Mrs. Gonseth and her first husband, Frank Argersinger (related to the Veghtes) knew Frank and Bertha Veghte, when Frank Veghte worked for American Express; later the Veghtes transferred to Buffalo, N.Y. John later had a second wife, and was living in midstate New York. Probably John Veghte had no children. By letter of 16 Oct 1954, Mrs. Gonseth sends a clipping concerning Anna S. Larkin (above) dated Johnstown, N.Y. 8 Sept 1921: FORMER LOCAL GIRL LEAVES FOR CHINA. Mrs. George R. Larkin and Husband Leave For Orient Where Latter Will Teach In China University. Mrs. George R. Larkin of Pittsfield, Mass., formerly Miss Anna Stacy of this city, left Pittsfield yesterday with her husband for Vancouver, B.C., en route to Chengtu, China. Mr. and Mrs. Larkin, who were married in July, will sail Sept. 15 on the "Empress of Russia". After a short stop at Shanghai, the couple will proceed up the Yangtzi River 2500 miles and thence by sedan chair on a 10-day trip of 200 miles to Chengtu, China, a city of 500,000 inhabitants. Mr. Larkin is to join the staff of West China University as an instructor of Economics. He received the degree of M.A. from Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., in June and is to be the salaried representative of that institution in the Chinese College. Mrs. Larkin after her graduation from the Johnstown high school, was graduated from Potsdam Normal, class of 1919, and was engaged in teaching in Hudson, N.Y. until her marriage." Under Methodist Board of Foreign Missions; ltr of 26 Nov 1921 from Anna Larkin in friend in Johnstown says, "We all dressed in Army clothes, even Master Larkin" (possible son).

Clipping dtd 4 June 1927 FORMER RESIDENT BACK FROM CHINA. Mr. and Mrs. George R. Larkin who returned to this country after spending six years in China arrived here yesterday and are guests at the home of Mr. & Mrs. Henry Veghte, 308 W. State St. Two children were born in that country: Bertram, who is now 3 years old, and Shirley Ann, 6 mos." "They started from Chengtu on Nov. 1 and shortly after Shirley Ann was born. After waiting 5 weeks until mother and child were able to travel, they continued on to Shanghai." "Mr. Larkin plans to take up graduate work at Cornell University."

The estates of George T. Rudes, Lewis F. Rudes, and Daniel Rudes are the only probate data in Hamilton Co., New York for Rudes-Roods-Ruids, according to Miss Ameden.

AN INVENTORY AND DEED OF JOHN-2 RUDE

On the following 3 pages we present to our readers transcripts of two important documents in the history of John-2 Rude and his descendants. One of these is the inventory of his estate, taken by Thomas Rose and Steven Gates, to which Thomas Rose (John's brother-in-law) appends data on the ages of John's surviving children's ages at the time of his death. The original of this document is in the Connecticut Historical Library (State Library) and is reproduced here as deciphered from a photostat of the original kindly obtained for the editor by J. Walter Bassett.

The inventory accentuates one fact: no matter how rude an article of household furniture might be, it was valuable in the new country. That John-2 Roode (or Rude as his descendants spell it) had a Bible is self-evident from the inventory. We do not know the whereabouts of this Bible, but it would be of immense interest to his descendants if it were to be found.

The deed from Oenecho, sachem (chief) of the Mohigans, to John-2 Rude also emphasizes that John Rude was the one who "did make ye first pitch" in this portion of the country (his land was laid out "next to his uncle Leffingwell's") and this is acknowledged by the chief in his deed. John was living in Preston in 1690, and continued to live there until his death. The land remained in his family for several generations. This particular copy of the deed was given to his grandson Nathan, son of John-Rufe jr. and thence was acquired by Noah Rufe's descendants, now being the property of Mrs. Warren Coon, who graciously lend the document for copying so that the whole family might share. The signatures of the parties to the deed have been traced by the editor for reproduction in this magazine.

Because the editor thinks you might like tracings of signatures of early members of the family (where no photographs exist) this practice will be continued in later issues.

Caleb^5 Rude of Sussex Co., N.J. and Monongalia Co., W.Va. (John^2)

Rev. Warren Patten Coon, John Wesley Rude, Ethel Rude Coon

Editor's Note: The following records were collected by the late Rev. Warren Patten Coon, late trustee of the N.J. Genealogical Soc'y; by the late John Wesley Rude, late member of that society; and by Mrs. Warren P. Coon (nee Ethel M. Rude), member of Chinkchawunka Chapter, National Society D.A.R. of Sussex Co., N.J. and subscriber to ROOD-RUDE RECORD. R. R. Buell

Caleb^5 Rude came to Mendham, Morris Co., N.J. from Conn, prior to 1775, marrying (Morristown, N.J. Presb. Ch. rec.) Ann dau of Joseph and Sarah (Searing) Wade 23 Feb 1758, his res. being given as Rockaway, N.J. adjacent to Morristown. By Ann he had at least 10 children, and it is possible that there were 3 more.

Upon the outbreak of the American Revolution, Caleb with sons Noah and Abner left Mendham to join the Patriot Army, and their records are to be found with the Adjutant General's office. Caleb sold his land and the milling business he conducted in Mendham, receiving his pay in Continental currency, and moved his family to Morristown for safety. At the close of the war he found these "shin plasters" valueless, and that he had little means with which to carry on. (See "Hardyston Memorial") His wife's brothers, the Wades, were living "over the mountain" on the Franklin-Sparta road in Sussex Co., and evidently Caleb and his family had visited them there. The house was always known as the Wade homestead, so presumably Ann's parents had also lived there. In 1776 "Caleb Rude removed from Morris Co. and located "over the mountain" coming to Stockholm, Passaic Co., N.J. where he built a forge known as "the Methodist Forge". His wife died and this caused the family, now mostly grown up, to separate. Caleb left New Jersey and went to Monongalia Co. (W.) Va. where he made a new home, married Mary Roberts and had three more children.

At the separation of the family Caleb jr.-6 was about 9 years of age; he went to live with his uncle, Capt. Simon Wade (Rev. soldier) where he remained until he was 21. Here he learned carpenter's work which he followed until he was 35. "He purchased land in the north part of the township known as Rudeville ever since" and became prominent as one of the most esteemed citizens in Hardyston twp. (See Hardyston Memorial). He, too, had 10 children, like his father.

Caleb^5 Rude mar(1) 23 Feb 1758 Ann Wade; mar(2) in Monongalia Co., W.Va. (say 1793) Mary Roberts. His children were:

7. Caleb Rude jr. (above) b. 24 Feb 1778 Stockholm, Passaic Co., N.J.; d. there 6 Aug 1871; mar. 25 Nov 1801 (Bible rec.) Elizabeth Simpson dau of Henry and Marcy (Pettit), b. 1 Aug 1782; d. 21 Jan 1854; both memb. Hamburg, N.J. Bapt. Ch. (Obit. of Caleb in Sussex Co. paper 6 Aug 1871) Caleb-6 built the house of Gov. Haines in Hamburg. At his death he counted 10 children, 54 grandchildren, 36 greatgrandchildren. "Aside from his sterling good sense, he was a man-pre-eminently noted for his frankness, honesty and integrity. It is doubtful if he was ever accused of a dishonest act, even by an enemy. Till a few years ago it was the custom of all the farmers to carry their agricultural productions to Paterson, Newark or New York to market, sometimes selling off the wagon by the way. In this way he became known by very many people; and, to show what strangers thought of him, thus made acquainted, the following incident is told:

"A young man, acting as agent for a publishing company, called at a house in an adjoining county, exhibited a work, talked it up pretty well, was taken to be a 'slick-tongued Yankee' and quite plainly told that they were afraid to deal with 'that kind of people'. He informed them he was from Hamburg and that his name was Rude. "What", said they, "do you belong to old Caleb Rude's family?" "Yes," said he. "Well, then, we aren't afraid but what you're all right," said they, "We know him long, long ago". Thus, those simple hearted people thought, because he was so good and true, it could not be that one of his family would take advantage of them..."

"As a parent he was ready, too ready, to assist those who had a natural right to claim his aid. Each of his 8 sons he aided more or less when starting in life for themselves, only retaining for himself about 200 acres of land in the homestead...He always suspected he was one year older than the (Bible) record indicated...Though for more than 20 years confined to his home from a fall upon the ice, and having outlived most of his former associates, especially those of early life, nevertheless a large gathering attended his funeral...conducted by the Rev. David Silver, the subject of the discourse being the verification of the promise given to Abraham (Hebrews VI, 15) "And so after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise..." We have noted a few facts but said nothing in falso praise of the dead, or to relate to the pride of the living, merely aiming to pay an unworthy tribute to the memory of the worthy dead. We have never known many, we never expect to know but few, his like again." (End of obituary) Caleb and Elizabeth (Simpson) Rude had: (The * indicates that the line is carried further.)

The editor cannot refrain from paying the late Rev. Mr. Coon a high tribute for his contributions to the Rood-Rude family history. After the death of Dr. Dwight D. Smith of Port Chester, N.Y., W. P. Coon indexed all Dr. Smith's records. He and his fine wife (co-author and RRR subscriber) have made many automobile trips through the years collecting genealogical material. His wife indicates that his files will be given to the Genealogical and Historical Society of Pennsylvania. They are valuable and should, in the future, provide keys to unlock now-closed doors. Descendants who desire to use his materials now (1956) should write to Mrs. W. P. Coon, Sussex Ave., Hamburg, N.J.
CALEB RUDY AND HIS WEST VIRGINIA FAMILY

(Editing's Note: This article is based on the researches of Rev. and Mrs. Warren F. Coon, supplemented by letters and other data collected by the editor from Maude McVicker Wharton, Goldie Rude Jenkins, Hughina Ballentine Rude, Ruth Hayner Rude, John Randolph Rude, Alice Kauffman Polk, and many others. REV)

What called Caleb from New Jersey to Monongalia Co., W.Va. after the death of his first wife, we do not know. In an article earlier in this issue, his New Jersey family have been enumerated. In this study we are concerned with the three children of his second wife, Mary Roberts, all born in West Virginia, or Virginia, as it was then called.

Though a Rude family was in Virginia as early as 1646 as shown by Virginia Land Grant Records, there is no doubt but what Caleb Rude of Monongalia Co. was the same man as he of Morris Co., N.J. Of the three children of this second marriage, we have been unable to trace the lineage of the eldest son, Henry, b. 1794, about a year after Caleb's marriage, and of the only daughter and youngest child, Nancy (Rude) Taylor, b. ca. 1800, mar. ca. 1818.

John Caleb Rude was b. 14 Sept 1796, when his father was 42, and died 16 Jan 1868 a.e 71-4-2, bur. in Zion Church Cem., Cheat Lake, Monongalia Co., W. Va. (hereafter ZionCC). He was thrice married, all children being by his first wife Matilda Collins, dau of Francis and Anna (Maple) Collins and granddaughter of Will Maple. This was ca. 1812, Matilda being ca. 14 (b. 1798; d. 16 Dec 1838 a.e 40) as shown by her gravestone (ZionCC). He m(2) 2 Jan 1839 Monongalia Co., Maria, dau John Shisler with (bro?) Michael Shisler as surety. (DAR Mag., 1930) Maria d. 24 Mch 1865 a.e 65-6-9 (ZionCC) and he m(3) Mary Bayles who survived long after his death (ltr Maude Wharton). He resided in Georgetown, Monongalia Co., later at Cheat and Cheat Neck, same county, and at Lake Lynn, same county; he was a farmer and miller. His children were (order of birth not assured): (An * indicates line is carried forward)

Of these children, two (Mary Ann and Perry C.) went to Iowa early, and were followed by a third (Amanda). The others stayed in the W.Va.-Penn. area where descendants are to be found today.

This concludes the present knowledge of the descendants of Caleb Bude through one son in West Virginia, viz., John Caleb Rude. It is of interest that in the West Virginia branches the name "Caleb" has always been thought to be "Cabel" or "Cabell", the significance of which had been lost.
TWO TRACY-RUDE MARRIAGES & OFFSPRING

That neighboring families frequently intermarried has been a common observation in American life. The Tracy family and the Rood family were neighbors in Norwich, and again in Preston, and it is not surprising that they have intermarried. Since two of John-2 Rude’s descendants married Tracy men, this short article has been compiled by the editor to include these data for descendants.

Esther Rude (#11, p. 3 this issue) was married in Preston, Conn. 31 July 1740 to Francis^ Tracy, second son of Francis^ Tracy and Elizabeth Pains (Jonathan-2 Tracy and Mary Griswold, Lt. Thomas-1 Tracy and Mary Mason). Francis’ Tracy was born in Preston 23 Feb 1717, and in 1757 was administrator to (his putative brother-in-law) Cyprian Rude’s estate. Their children are recorded in the Preston Vital Records:

(TRACY)
1. Sarah b. 16 Apr 1741
2. John b. 11 July 1743
3. Seth b. 13 March 1747; d. 15 Nov 1748
4. Elisha b. 24 August 1749
5. Huldah b. 18 March 1752
6. Lucy b. 7 Aug 1754
7. Kesiah b. 26 July 1757; d. 17 March 1761
8. Elias b. 17 July 1759

Descendants of some of these Rood descendants are to be found in "The Tracy Genealogy".

Mehitable Rude (#13, p. 5 this issue) "Mehitable Rude of Preston" married there 13 July 1742 Isaac Tracy of Preston. He was the eldest son of Francis^ Tracy and Elizabeth Pains, and was b. 9 Nov 1716 Preston. His next eldest brother was mentioned in the preceding paragraph. This Tracy family had children as follows:

(TRACY)
1. Isaac b. 10 Apr 1743
2. Mary b. 17 Feb 1745
3. Zip(p)orah b. 30 Jan 1748
4. Zeman, b. 1 Apr 1750
5. Bathsheba b. 27 Apr 1752
6. Mehitable b. 13 May 1754
7. Solomon b. 1 June 1756
8. Louise b. 4 June 1758
9. Zemrah b. 16 Oct 1760
10. Keturbah b. 28 Feb 1763
11. Thankful b. 25 Apr 1765
12. Betsy b. 26 Jan 1768

This family of 12 children, spreading over a 25-year period, represents a further addition to the numerous descendants of John-2 Rude.

The will of John Rude (1809) is shown above. Miss O'Connell has abstracted certain of the above documents for the RECORD and her transcripts may be of interest in charting later the descendants of John R. Rude in full.

- Edward A. Rood jr., son, of full age
- Hiram A. Rood, son, minor
Milton W. Rood, Greenfield, N.Y. Son, minor
Clarence H. Rood " Son, minor
Amanda Louise Rood " Daughter, minor

The guardianship papers cited above belong to this family.

Smith Malon Roods (Box 714 No. 17) probate, letters of administration issued 5 April 1929. The petition recites the following as survivors, etc.:

Frank D. Roods, 439 Central Ave., St. Petersburg, Fla. Brother
Helen Roods Messick, Saratoga Springs, N.Y. Sister
Polly Roods Ellsworth, RD 3, Gansevoort, N.Y. Sister

Marie Roods Bunker, 1149 Ardsley Rd., Schenectady, N.Y. Niece
Ira Dan Roods, Tulsa, Okla. Nephew

Some notes on this family by our subscriber Natalie R. Sanders, appear on this page, below.

Charles E. Roods (Box 459 No. 3) Administration; letter issued 3 Feb 1917. The petition recites the survivors, etc. as follow:

Emma L. Roods, Wilton, N.Y. Widow life use
Nellie M. Hannon, " Daughter
Alberta Hannon, " Granddaughter $500
Leola " Nellie "

Apparently only one daughter survived in this family.

Hiram A. Rood (Box 771 No. 1) Administration; letters issued 28 Aug 1931. The survivors, etc. recited are:

Mae E. Rood, Saratoga Springs, N.Y. Widow
M. Webster Rood, Ballston Spa, N.Y. Brother
Clarence Rood, Saratoga Springs, N.Y. Brother

This son of Edward A. Rood apparently had no issue.

Nettie M. Roods (Box 1024 No. 18) Probate; letters issued 9 Oct 1942. The survivors are listed as:

Martha Abel, RD 1, Saratoga Springs, N.Y. Sister
Helen M. Jewell, Gansevoort, N.Y. Sister
Margaret Miller, Gansevoort, N.Y. Sister
Harry L. Perkins, Greenwich, N.Y. Brother
Barbara Stone Robbins (Mrs. Lewis) 230 2nd Cousin
N. San Marino St., San Gabriel, Calif.
Florence Jewell Jeffords, Broadalbin, N.Y. Niece

Her husband's name has not been found; she was probably born Kettie Perkins, d.s.p. Notes of Mrs. Sanders indicate she was widow of Dr. Smith Malon Roods, whose probate is shown above.

Ira Roods of Saratoga Co., N.Y., according to Mrs. Sanders, was possibly a son, b. posthumously, or a grandson of John Smith Rudes. He d. 1910, was m. 1345 to Maria Melissa Deyo. "I never heard my father mention an uncle or aunt" of his "nor do I recall seeing them when I visited my paternal grandparents". It is the editor's guess that Ira was an only son of Smith son of John Rudes. The family Bible, at one time in Mrs. Sanders possession, was loaned to her sister, and is now with her nephew Frank C. Bunker, 1502 1st Ave. N., Texas City, Tex., but the editor was unable to obtain a transcript. "My grandfather died before he was 100; I recall much talk about Rood herb doctors in Vt. because when at my grandparents Roods our medicines were herbs and roots." "Uncle Smith (Roods) said he was named for someone in his mother’s family"—(which makes it appear that Ira might have been a posthumous son).

Their children (Ira and Maria Melissa (Deyo) Roods) were:

1. Ira Daniel, eldest, b. 1850, d. 1898, m. 1876 Ada M. Hill b. 1855, d. 1918; they had:
   a. Chester H. d. bef. 1955; m. Marie McMahon, by whom
      i. Harold Roods

   c. Marie d. bef. 1955; b. 1886(?); m. Frank C. Bunker d. by 1955
      i. Frank of Texas City (see above) (1956) American Oil
      ii. son /Co., P.O. Box 627, Warkwick, Va.; promises help after move from Texas.
   d. Ira Daniel b. 1900; of Tulsa; m(1) Jasmine ___; by whom 1 dau; m(2) Eunice ___
      i. Mary Jane Roods

2. Charles m. Emma L. _____ by whom only 1 daughter
   a. Nellie M.; m. 1885; m. Albert Hannan, he dec’d by 1955
      i. Alberta Hannah, Wilton N.Y.
   b. Leola Hannah, Wilton, N.Y.
   c. Nellie Hannan, Wilton N.Y.

3. Dr. Smith Malon m. Nettie Perkins; see probates above; no issue

Mrs. Sanders says, "I gave my sister (now dead) 15 years ago all of the considerable family genealogy I had gathered. She lived in Houston, Texas and had two sons and wanted the material since she had our family Bible".

A NOTE ON MEHITABLE³ (RUDE) BRA(Y)MAN OF WINDSOR

Mehitable³ dau of John² Rude (see p. 3, No. 6, this issue) was wife of James, son of Nathaniel Braman (see Windsor Land Records 9:176) On 24 June 1761 (rec. 7 Oct 1809) Mehitable Braman of Summers in the County of Hartford and Colony of Connecticut for £30 sold to Joseph Rude (her brother) of Plainfield "all my rights" etc. to any lands or tenement within the Town of Preston (Preston L.R. 15:222) On 18 May 1757 James Braman of Somers (Conn.) sold land in Stafford (Stafford L. R. 3:328) These records may help some Braman descendant.
PROBABLE DESCENDANTS OF JOHN ² RUDE IN CAYUGA CO., N.Y.

Gertrude Barbour, prominent worker in the field of genealogy and family history, has abstracted the early wills of Cayuga Co., N.Y. and has deposited at the New York Public Library a typescript in 13 vols. of her work. The editor has consulted this and presents her data on possible descendants of Nathan, Caleb Jr., and other descendants of John ² Rude who were early settlers in that county:

NATHAN RUDE, will dated 11 Jan 1837, probated 1839; Bk D p. 286, prob. 28 Sept 1839; Nathan Rude of Brutus d. 23 July 1839. His will names wife Polly; sons Clinton, Nathan, William, Alexander, Jason and Daniel; daughters Mary Jane Rude and Sally Ann Bryant; executors: wife and Elisha Weed; witnesses D. E. Havens, Henry R. Filley, both of Brutus.

ORANGE RUDE, MARTHA RUDE. Will of Geo. Nye of Brutus dated 6 Apr 1813; probated 1 June 1813; Bk B-1; mentions wife Abigail Nye; son Ezekial Nye; daus Mercy & Amy; sons Stephen, Samuel, George Nye; executors: wife & ORANGE RUDE & James Hamilton; witnesses: John St. John, Benj. Whitmore, MARTHA RUDE.

CALEB RUDE. (from Hist. of Cayuga Co., Auburn:1908, ) Brutus, Cayuga Co., was settled "1806 by Wm. Stevens who came 1800 from Mass." Early settlers were Caleb, Nathan and Jonah Rood and Mr. Powers from Saratoga Co. who settled near Weedsport. John Hamilton of Washington Co., N.Y. who settled Lot 64 came in March 1802.

Editor's Note: Two queries have appeared earlier in this RECORD (Vol. II p. 79, Queries #1 by Abigail B. Rood of California and Query #2 by Harriet Lansinger of Ohio) which appear to bear on this group of Cayuga Co. families. Miss Abigail Rood descends from Jawob b. ca. 1610 probably in Cayuga Co., hence probably son of Caleb, Nathan or Jonah. Mrs. Lansinger descends from Anna Rudes b. 1787 m. Lewis B. Smith whose daughter Harriet Smith was b. at Scipio, Cayuga Co., N.Y. The Gershom Rude in Query 4 (same page) may also be a cousin from the Saratoga Co., N.Y. descendants of John-2 who did not emigrate to Cayuga Co.

FROM THE PUBLIC RECORD OFFICE
London, England

Final Concord made in three weeks from Easter 11 James I (1613 AD) by which William Pynchon, Gent., and Frances Pynchon, widow, quitclaimed to Matthew Rude, Gent., messuages and lands in Writtle (Co. Essex) for which said Matthew gave them £100. (Feet of Fines, Co. Essex, Easter term, 11 James I C.P. 25/2P)
NOTE BY RHB: At one time western Massachusetts claimed that part of New York now known as Columbia Co. (see article Vol. II on Eli Rood) and since some of the descendants of John-2 Rude may have dwelt there (and certainly other descendants of Thomas-1 did so), we have been pleased to receive from Mrs. Townsend a listing of the entries in the GRANTOR INDEX at Springfield, Mass. which may add to our understanding of the family.

For readers, the editor is able to identify MOSES and ANNA (Carpenter) ROOD of Wilbraham, Mass.; Micah possibly Micah3 son of Micah2; Ezra Rood of Sturbridge; Simeon Rood jr. of Kent, Conn.; and Jonathan3 son of Thomas2 Rood. We presume Amos (since he deed with Moses) to be brother or son of Moses (and perhaps the Amos for whom Miss Alice M. Carr is looking; see Query section, this issue), and Daniel may be identical with the later Dr. Daniel Rood of Barre, Vt.

SOME DESCENDANTS OF RACHEL-2 ROOD: PART II

Descendants of Jeremiah Blake of Derby

Donald Lines Jacobus, A.M.

(Editor's Note: Mr. Jacobus, editor-in-chief of THE AMERICAN GENEALOGIST, has contributed these notes on his lines possibly descending from Rachel-2 Rood; but it must be emphasized—both he and I agree—that this Jeremiah Blake of Derby is not yet proven to be a descendant. See note bottom p. 6, Vol. II.)

Many, many years ago (perhaps in the 1890's) there was a family association (one of those "lost fortune" frauds) with descendants of Joseph Blake of Saybrook supposed to be the heirs. The man handling this had a chart in his office, compiled from data given by members of the family, and that is where the dates of the children of David Blake came from. Baptisms and records where I state the town are added from my own researches. The first Jeremiah of Derby was given a wife Elizabeth Burton, but her name is Mary in records; the other items seem to be correct. This Jeremiah was made son of Jeremiah of Milford, but he was carried back into the Joseph of Saybrook family, which is wrong. Who Jeremiah of Derby was, I don't really know.

Jeremiah and Mary (Burton?) Blake of Derby had at Derby the following children (BLAKE):

1. David b. 1759; bp. 15 Apr 1759; m. at Milford 1779 Lucy Marchant, dau of Jacob and Margaret (Morris) Marchant; served in the Revolution; has a stone at New Preston, Conn., d. 23 Oct 1837 ae 80. Lived in old age with son Joseph. Children:
   i. Sarah b. 29 Nov 1780; lived to be about 90; m. at Oxford, Conn., 27 Jan 1802 Leverett Lines; great-great-grandparents of the contributor.
   iii. Polly b. 27 Dec 1784
   iv. Jeremiah b. 25 Apr 1787; d. 24 Dec 1829; m. 1811 Polly Robbins
   v. Lucy b. 20 Sept 1790; d. 8 July 1794
   vi. David b. 20 Feb 1793; d. 4 Aug 1794
   vii. Lucy b. 15 Dec 1794; d. 26 Sept 1812

2. Betsey bp. 22 Mar 1761; m. Jerome Hazleton; had 2 daus.

3. Reuben bp 19 Aug 1764; m. Eunice Baldwin bp Derby, Conn. 12 Nov 1768, dau of Silas and Mary (Plumb) Baldwin. Children:

ix. Reuben b. ca. 1807; d. New Haven, Conn. 31 Aug 1858 ae 51; wife Elizabeth d. New Haven, 3 June 1854 ae 43.

x. Eliza

4. Isaac Blake bapt 11 Sept 1768; bur. 6 Feb 1838 ae 70 (St. James, Derby); m(1) Rachel Bryan, "wife of Isaac" bapt 17 Mar 1794; m(2) Sarah widow of Ephraim Clinton of West Haven, "wife of Isaac" d. Derby 23 Oct 1825; m(3) by a family statement, Lucy Foster. But I think she was born Lucy Smith, dau of Hezekiah and Esther (Beecher) Smith, who is known to have been a wife of a John Buckingham in 1796. From a Buckingham family statement (not in "Buckingham Genealogy") I learned that a John and Lucy Buckingham had an only son b. 1799; she m(2) a Blake who d. ca. 1839 and she d. ca. 1850.

Child by first wife:

i. Isaac b. ca. 1793; d. Derby 22 Jan 1867 ae 74; m(1) Lucy Hotchkiss b. ca. 1792, d. 18 Jan 1842 ae 50 (St. James, Derby) dau of David & Mercy (Bradley) Hotchkiss; David Hotchkiss gave deed to dau Lucy Blake 19 Sept 1836; m(2) Derby 3 Feb 1843 Marmora (Clinton) widow of David Clark.

I think there were 7 children; I have only a partial account.

Children by second wife:

ii. Harriet S. b. ca. 1810; d. New Haven 1 June 1874; m. Derby 5 Dec 1830 Isaac H. Tyrrel; had issue.

iii. Esther b. ca. 1812; m. Derby 25 Dec 1832 Henry Tuttle of New Haven; 4 sons, 1 dau

iv. John b. ca. 1814; m. E. L. Stedham; 4 sons 3 daus

v. Juliana b. 2 Dec 1816; d. New Haven 1893; m. Stephen L. Ford of New Haven; 2 sons, 4 daus

vi. Juliana b. 2 Dec 1816; d. 27 Dec 1816

Possible child by third wife:

vii. Charles m. New Haven 14 June 1846 Phebe Ann Scranton

My grandfather, Asa Manchester, was born in 1809 at Little Compton, R.I. I remember my mother speaking of an aunt Lucinda, and there was another aunt with a name that sounded very strange to me as a child, but which I cannot now recall. Grandfather moved to the State of New York and married a Julia Burnham, and it was there that he became a convert to the teachings of Joseph Smith, founder of the sect known as The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. I believe they were driven out of the State of New York; anyway my grandfather came with others of that faith to Ohio and there made a settlement, clearing the land of trees, building their log cabins and plating crops.

Three children were born to Asa and Julia, two boys (one of whom was named Martin, and both of whom died of "spotted fever" in their infancy) and the oldest child (I think) was Julia Augusta, always known to us as Aunt Augusta, and she lived to be 103 years old. In her last 20 or 30 years she made her home in Hinsdale, Ill., with her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Weddell. There I went to visit her occasionally on Saturday afternoons, and I had hoped to get from her a recounting of her early days. I am sure she could have made a story as interesting as that related by Grandmother Brown's Hundred Years. However, I never got the story, for I was always treated as "company" when I went, and was expected to visit not alone with Aunt Augusta.

However, one afternoon she did tell me the following: She remembered their going to Kirkland, Ohio—she was a very small child, but still old enough to feel the sense of insecurity there was in their surroundings and way of living. She said that her father always kept what money he had in a wooden cigar box hidden among the rafters, for they never knew at what time of day or night their home was going to be raided by other settlers, who regarded Latter Day Saints as outcasts and heathen, and legitimate prey. Aunt Augusta told how they were permitted to clear the land and do all the work attendant upon establishing a homestead, including planting of crops, and when they had secured a toe-hold, and the crops were coming along nicely, they were finally obliged to flee for their lives, while the more righteous settlers of those not-far-from-wilderness days took over their land and possessions. From Ohio they went to Missouri where they formed a similar settlement with a similar ending; they then went to Nauvoo, Illinois, where another was established. Though still a very young child, Aunt Augusta remembered the tumultuous time when Joseph Smith was slain. It was this outbreak, I believe, which made the Latter Day Saints resolve to make the trek across the Great Plains and settle in the Desert of Utah; polygamy was urged upon all males because of the preponderance of women who needed protection. From Nauvoo the Saints moved to Missouri where they assembled in large number and made preparations for the great trek.

It was with the departure from Nauvoo that my grandfather broke with them, for what reasons I do not know. Either he did not wish to subject his family to the hardships of the journey across the Plains, or did not choose to adopt polygamy, or both... He came eventually to Newark, Ill., a very small settlement in the midst of a rich agricultural community and there he became a man of property, owning two farms, a drug store and one of the better homes of the community. For that day, his children were well educated. Before his death in 1901 at the age of 92, he had divided his property among his children and was living with his third wife in a small home in Sandwich, Ill.

(1) Miss Rood, who contributed this tale, resides in Chicago. She is the daughter of James Pease Rood (see ante Vol. II p. 66) and his wife who was a daughter of the above Asa Manchester. If any reader can amplify this story as regards the Miller relatives who went to Salt Lake City and Cottonwood, the editor will be pleased to send any such communications to Miss Rood, Room 1922, Westcott Engineering Co., 205 W. Wacker Dr., Chicago 6, Illinois.

Asa Manchester's first wife, Julia, died while still a very young woman, and he married her sister Adelaide Burnham. To them were born 4 children: Eugene, Helen, Cora and William. My mother was Helen Gertrude and she told me how she grew up to the age of 12 years before she learned that Aunt Augusta, some years her senior, was not her very own sister, and how she wept broken heartedly about it, until Aunt Augusta assured her it would never make the slightest difference, and it didn’t, for they were always very close in their affections for each other.

Adelaide died while Cora and Will were still young children, by a fall backwards down cellar stairs. She had been visiting a cousin, Mrs. Edgerton, that day, and was wiping the dinner dishes for her. With her arms full of dishes to be put away she opened backwards a door she thought opened to the pantry, but which actually was a door opening onto the stairs to the cellar. This was a tragedy from which neither Grandfather Manchester, nor his children, seemed ever to recover completely. Characteristically, Aunt Cora always regarded it with bitterness that she should have thus early been deprived of her mother. Some years later Grandfather married again, a widow with grown children, and characteristically, again, Aunt Cora never forgave either of them for marrying each other. She did not wish to keep the home for Grandfather herself, but she did not wish anyone else to do it either. There seemed to be always a difference of opinion between Grandfather and Aunt Cora, whereas he showed great affection towards his other daughters, both of whom had very different dispositions.

There were three Burnham sisters that I know about: Julia and Adelaide, who became the first and second wives of Asa Manchester respectively, and Orice, a school teacher whom the family regarded as very intellectual. Aunt Orice, as my Mother always designated her, married a Mr. Miller, a Latter Day Saint, became a plural wife, and went with the Mormons to Utah. I think her becoming a plural wife was not approved of by my grandfather and grandmother, and there was an estrangement, heightened and kept alive, no doubt, by the great distance that separated them, the near impossibility of transportation, and the difficulty of getting letters to and fro. I have in my possession a letter dated March 25, 1866, which I found among Mother's things after her death and about which she told me the following:

It was written by Aunt Orice's son, Charles Eugene Miller, to Asa and Adelaide, entreating them to write a letter of consolation to his mother because of the death of his two sisters during an epidemic of diphtheria:

Cottonwood March 25, 1866

My Dear Uncle and Aunt:

Little Sister Julia Ann returned from the funeral apparently well that very night about Midnight. She was taken with a sore throat and not withstanding all that could be done died the next Saturday morning.

Ellen was 15 yrs. 3½ mon. old, half a head taller than Mother and growing very fast. Sister Julia Ann was 10½ yrs old. Their deaths have broken my Mother's heart.

Do write to her and try to comfort her. Forgive her for not writing to you. She has had her reasons. She wants me to tell you that she has never been sorry that she came here. We live 6 miles from Salt Lake City and are comfortable for everything. We raise a great many peaches, plums, currants, strawberries, few apples and apricots. My brothers go to the States almost every year and are now expecting to start the first of April.

If you will answer this letter I will write again and send you my likenesses. My Mother sends her love to you all and is very anxious to hear from you all.

From your affectionate nephew

Charles Eugene Miller

Mother remembered well when the letter was received and how painstakingly both grandfather and grandmother prepared their letters in reply, first writing them one on a slate and the other on brown wrapping paper, and then transferring them to more correct stationery. She was impressed, too, by the fact that the postage cost over $2.00. I assume that these letters were deeply sympathetic since grandfather and grandmother were that kind of people. After Adelaide's death, when my mother was married and living away, and Aunt Augusta had her family of young children, grandfather very much wanted Aunt Orice and her family, but Aunt Augusta felt she could not, as she related it to me afterwards on one of my Saturday visits. "Why," she said, "I couldn't leave my husband and little children to make a trip out there!" Years afterwards, however, Aunt Augusta and her husband on a tour of the West, did spend some time in Utah trying to pick up traces of the Miller family, but they learned nothing. Later, as a widow, Aunt Augusta spent considerable time and money working on the Manchester genealogy.

Grandfather Manchester never forsook his Mormon faith. He never united with any other church, and I can remember him getting out his funny looking spectacles and his calf-bound Book of Mormon and reading it with great concentration. The book was always kept at our home, and after Mother's death when the home was being dismantled, that book was consigned to the bonfire with other things. I hadn't the remotest idea that it was worth saving, but felt guilty enough when Aunt Augusta spoke of it to me one day, saying that she often wondered what became of that book and how much she would like to have it. I did not sadden her by telling her that I had burned it. I fervently wished again that I had not done so when I visited Salt Lake City and spent an afternoon in the Mormon museum where I saw a Book of Mormon identical to my Grandfather's and read the notice posted, stating how much they would appreciate receiving any relics of the early days that one might be willing to send them.

I would like to have my Grandfather Manchester's Book of Mormon in that museum! I respected my grandfather highly, regarding him in my later years as typical "Johnny Bull", for he was purely English—kind and affectionate, yet stern and forbidding at times, and I always felt, he was passionately just.

Query 2. (Ibid.) by Mrs. Harriet Lansinger, Ohio. Please see, this issue, page 41, a suggestion to an answer. RRB

Query 9 (1) BUGBEE-HARVEY-HODGE. Abigail Hodge (see Vol. II p. 5) b. 25 May 1713; bp. 1713; mar(1) Joseph Durkee, m(2) 1745 Benjamin Bugbee of Woodstock, Conn. Mrs. A. H. Chase, Norwich, Conn. (3) CROSS. The ancestry of Peter Cross is a problem which was not solved by the genealogist who worked on the line of Gov. Wilbur L. Cross. There he was called a possible son of grandson of William Cross of Wethersfield and Fairfield, but he has also been called a son of Robert Cross of Ipswich. A previous HARTFORD TIMES answer (by W.A.C.) mentioned that Martha dau of Robert Cross who mar. William Durkee, settled i|g Windham, Conn. The wife of Peter Cross was Mary Wade, dau of Robert Wade by his second wife Susannah (is her family known?). Children of Peter and Mary (Wade) Cross from Windham, Conn., V.R. are:

- Mary 20 Apr 1679; d. 9 Dec 1695
- Stephen 15 May 1681
- Elizabeth 14 June 1683
- Peter 6 Nov 1685
- David 8 Nov 1686/7
- Experience 1 Dec 1691
- Abigail 23 June 1694
- Mary 18 Feb 1697
- Wade 15 Dec 1699

Wade Cross was the ancestor of Gov. Cross. No relationship to Thomas-1 Rodd is known.

Query 10. JAMES RUDGE of KY. We believe the James Rude of Fleming Co., Ky. tax-list 1790 was d.b. 1810 and his widow Elizabeth (age over 45) was living in Hardin Co., Ky. with 6 children (3 dau, 1 son 16-26, 1 dau & 1 son 10-16) (Census 1810 page 101 line 11) while nearby (ibid., p. 94 line 20) was the eldest of the 7 children, presumably recently married (1 male and 1 female 16-25). The family would then have been:
