Introduction

Working on my paternal grandmother's family has been a project of mine for almost 10 years. While my work can never be done, I had to finally stop gathering information at some point. Because of this span of time, some addresses and phone numbers are no doubt no longer correct and I am sure there are more marriages and births that have taken place since I made contact with many family members. I hope this book will encourage an interest in your family history and you will take time to fill in the missing information and pass it on to your family.

To gather information I have used various court documents, such as marriage records, wills, deeds, divorce proceedings, county court records, tax lists, school census, etc. I have made extensive use of the annual minutes from the Old Regular Baptist Church, especially the Union Association of Old Regular Baptists of Jesus Christ. I have looked at the census records from 1810 through 1920 for many counties in several states. I have also interviewed many, many family members across the United States. Numerous people have helped me gather information for this family history and I greatly appreciate their time and effort.

Some dates in this genealogy will be listed c1818 which indicates the date to be accurate within a year or two. When a date is listed c1785 this means that the date is correct with five years. If a date is listed 1909/10 this means that the date is correct with five years. If a date is listed as 1909/10 this means that I have two conflicting dates from more than one source. A date listed as 1808 is from a source such as a cemetery marker and is assumed correct in the absence of conflicting data. A date listed with the month and year, such as Jan 1888, is from the 1900 census. If a date or name starts with a ? then I was not certain this information was correct because proof had not been found such as a birth record or marriage certificate.

A common source for date errors is cemetery markers and marriage records. If a tombstone reads born Jan 1870, but the person is not listed on the 1870 census and is listed as age 9 on the 1880 census, then this date is probably not correct. Also there are early vital statistics available for Kentucky, that often do not match the tombstones. When there is a difference in dates between the vital statistics and the tombstone, then both dates will be given. Dates are listed by day, month and year: 24 Nov 1868. Marriage records often contain the wrong year of birth, because in some states the person had to be 21 years of age to get married without their parents' permission. In these states, most people applying for a marriage license said they were 21 or older, even when this was not true.

Many names and dates were gathered from the Kentucky Vital Statistics (KYVS) which are birth and death records since 1911. KYVS also has more recent marriage and divorce records. Many names were spelled incorrectly on these records or contain names that were later changed. Names have been spelled as found in public documents. Many times a first name has been found spelled various ways. Also variations in surnames such as Green/Greene and Kelly/Kelley are common.

A very careful effort has been made toward absolute accuracy in dates and names, but no doubt there will be some unintentional errors, and it is hoped these will be brought to the author's attention so corrections can be made in my computer records. Many names and dates have been copied as they appeared in court records and from vital statistics and names were often spelled as they sounded. Also since much of the information gathered from family members was based on their memory (which is not always perfect), there will be errors in dates, names and other such information.
NUMBERING

This book is numbered by the Henry system so lineages can be easily followed. The person numbered 2-2-1-18 (Tennessee Sanders) is the eighteenth child of 2-2-1 (Isaac Sanders), who is the first child of 2-2 (Wade Sanders), and Wade is the second child of 2 (Thomas Jefferson Sanders).

Jacob Sanders

Jacob Sanders is the father of most of the Sanders' in eastern Kentucky. He is the first Sanders mentioned in Floyd County, Kentucky records. Jacob is involved a land transaction in 1809 and is the only Sanders on the 1810 Floyd Co. census. One descendant believes he died about 1834 because he did not show up for court.

A Charlotte Sanders married Anderson Quillin, son of William Quillin, on April 4, 1837 in Pike County. Oral consent was given by Thomas Sanders, guardian of said Charlotte Sanders. Bond by Anderson Quillin and Thomas J. Sanders; signed by Anderson Quillin and Thos J. Sanders. Letter of consent, dated March 20, 1837, for "my sun Anderson Quillin to have Charlott Sanders". At the June term (1825) of the Floyd Co. court (County Court Book 4) Jacob Sanders was given custody of "Charlotte Sanders, age 2 years the 14th of last April", a base born child. This may be the same person. In 1837 Thomas Sanders was appointed guardian for a Charlott Sanders (Court order book B, page 268).

At the March 1823 term of Floyd County Court, Jacob was appointed Justice of the Peace along with Ichabod McBrayer (Annals of Floyd County, p. 206). At the May 1823 term of court, Jacob resigned as Surveyor and was appointed Constable in District #8. District #8 comprised of all the waters of the Left Hand Fork of Beaver above District #7 and all the Right Hand fork above the mouth of Caney (Annals of Floyd County, p. 208-209).

John was married three times. He married his first wife, Nancy P. Price, about 1819 in VA. His second marriage was to Mary "Polly" Sanders; after her death he married Sarah Ann Lee Ramsey 17 Sept 1858. Lois Evelyn Johnson Halstead of Virgie, PCo, a descendant of Hiriam Casebolt, contends that Polly had four children with John before they married. John J. was still married to his 1st wife, Nancy P. Price, when he met Mary Sanders. Richard A. Kraus, author of Casebolt -- An American Family, Volume 1, believed that "Nancy left the household about 1835 when she discovered following the birth of her son James that John J. was the father of another child, Charlotta, at roughly the same time."    , Mary 25 IL housekeeper
   , Joseph 30 KY farming
   , Greenberry 16 Ark farm laborer
   , Albert 14 " " "
   , Lucinda 12 "

Joseph, Greenberry, Albert, and Lucinda listed on the 1860 census are probably the children of Jacob, but uncertain who Jacob & Mary are, unless Jacob's age was recorded wrong and Mary is his second wife. I checked the microfilm copy of the census, after viewing his age in a census book, to be sure of the age recorded for Jacob and it was listed as 20.
1860 Arkansas Co, Ark; Prairie Township

    , Rebecca P. 21 Miss housewife
    , Martha 1 Ark
    , William 19

Synco, Henry 1 Ark

This William, age 26, might be Jacob’s son. William, age 19, might be his brother, Willis.

1880 soundex: Fulton Co, Ark, Big Creek Township shows a G. L. Sanders, age 38, born in KY, wife wife, M. J., age 37 born in TN, and 8 children. This might be Greenberry.
Thomas Jefferson Sanders  b. c1800 VA  d. c1865 Pike Co, KY
m. *13 Apr 1820 Floyd Co., KY  Elizabeth C. McBrayer  b. 1801
Buncombe Co, NC  d. after 1870 census;  d/o Ichabod (b. c1780 NC)
& Mary (b. cal782) McBrayer;  grand-daughter of Samuel (b. cal736 d. 2 May 1814 Buncombe Co., NC) & Elizabeth McBrayer

Both Thomas & Elizabeth are buried in the Flatwoods of PCo. A new stone marks their graves.

When Thomas' daughter, Hannah M., was married the second time, her marriage record stated that her father was born in Patrick Co, Va and her mother was born in South Carolina.

Floyd Co., KY marriage bonds: "Bond dated 8, April 1820 by Thomas Sanders and Jacob Sanders for a marriage shortly to be had between Thomas Sanders and Elizabeth C. McBrayer."

* m. 13 April 1820 by William Saulsberry;  sources: The East Kentuckian, Kozee, William C.  Families of Eastern and Southeastern Kentucky, and Annals of Floyd County, Kentucky by Charles C. Wells.  Some sources have the marriage date incorrectly listed as 8 March 1820.

Thomas is listed on the 1830 Floyd Co census and is in Pike Co for the 1840 census.  Thomas is not listed on the 1835 Pike Co Tax List according to Pike County, Kentucky 1821 - 1987 Historical Papers Number Six.  He is probably living in Pike Co. by 1837 because the marriage record of Charlotte Sanders shows that oral consent was given by Thomas Sanders, guardian of said Charlotte Sanders.  Bond was made by Anderson Quillen and Thomas J. Sanders; signed by Anderson Quillen and Thos J. Sanders.

Thomas J. Sanders was appointed constable in Pike County at the March 1844 term of county court.

In a deed recorded 7 Dec 1845, Thomas J. Sanders paid Cornealus Roberts of the county of Logan and state of Virginia $150.00 for 100 acres in Pike Co. in the flat woods at the head of Marrowbone and the head of Trace Fork and Caney Fork of Shelby.

In a deed recorded 22 July 1846, Thomas J. Sanders sold 40 acres on Shelby Creek to Elisha Johnson for $250.00

An administrator, I. B. Sanders, was appointed for his estate in 1865 (Order Book D, page 94) and a report on his estate was filed at the Nov. 25, 1872 term of court.

s/o  Winnie Emma/Emily Mullins (d. 1930) & Joshua Clarence Counts; Wilson was raised by a William McPeek family and took their surname, from Linda’s church obit, which was written by her daughter, Winnie:
"Her sweet Christian Spirit and cheerful disposition endeared her to all who knew her. To know her was to love her. She was loved by both small and great, young and old. The weather never got too bad to keep her from visiting the sick and needy when she was in permitted health. She joined the Primitive Baptist Church in July, 1923, and she lived a good life all the 37 years."

Rhoda/Rhodica Potter b. 7/1824 d. may have died before 1880 census d/o Ben & Susannah Potter m. 2nd 10 Mar 1877 at Green's house Margaret McClannah/McClanhan Adkins b. cl1829-35 d/o William McClannah according to the marriage record she was b. in "Buckhannon Co., VA" and was 48 years old. Name was listed as Greenville Sanders on marriage record and his age was 52. He stated he was born in Floyd Co. as was his father. His mother was born in Wilks Co., NC; Margret/Margaret's maiden name was McClannah/McClanhan based on the fact that when a Willie Sanders got married in 1945 he listed his parents as Greenville Sanders and Margaret McClanhan.

Pike Co. births list an Isaac Sanders born in 1878; father listed as Greenville Sanders and his mother's maiden name was Maclaihan, and she was born in Buchannon, VA. Also Joseph T. Daniels' book, Adkins of Eastern Kentucky and Surrounding Areas, (p. 69) states that Margaret McClannah first married Eli Adkins on 13 Mar 1850.

*Registration of Veterans' Graves, Kentucky Counties, Nicholas - Whitney and Out of State, Volume 4, Mexican War - World War II has 2 listing for a Greenville Sanders: b. 1-4-1829 d. 9-30-1898, bur Sol Rowe Cem at Rockhouse and b. 11-1-1829 d. 9-15-1900, bur Sol Rowe Cem at Rockhouse
Listed on 1850 Pike Co. census:

Saunders, Granville  22
  , Rhodica  26
  , Levi  7
  , Onica  5
  , James H.  3

Greenville Sanders was appointed deputy sheriff in Pike Co. in 1857.

Listed on 1860 Estilleville, Scott Co., VA census
Saunders, Greenville  38  KY
  , Rodicey  36
  , Levi  17
  , James H.  12
  , Anny  9
  , Ichabod  5
  , Booker  2

Listed on 1870 Pike Co. census with Rhody, age 44, as head of household and Greenville listed in Pikeville in the house of Hibbard Williamson, clerk of county court.

Granville & Rhoda may have divorced because a Rhoda Sanders married Ezekiel Prater in Pike Co. 29 May 1871.

The 1880 census (3rd precinct, Marrowbone, completed 16 June 1880):

#36 Prater, Ezekiel  55  farmer
  , Rhoda  45  wife
  , William F.  18  son
  , Marion  17  son
  , Andrew  13  son
  , Ezekiel  9  son
Roberds, Mary  15  servant

(William F., Marion, and Andrew last names should probably be Sanders; the ages are not exact, but close.)

Listed on 1880 Pike Co. census:

#83 Saunders, Green  56
  , Margret  45  wife
Roe, Sarah  19  daughter (should be stepdaughter)
Adkins, Matilda  17  stepdaughter
Adkins, Melvina  14  stepdaughter
Saunders, Isom  9  son

William Floyd Sanders is probably also listed with his uncle, Isaac (Icabod) and well as with his mother and step-father (same precinct, but 80 houses away).
Green is not listed on 1900 PCo census.

According to Robert W. Bartley, son of Sadie P. Sanders Bartley, Rhoda is buried in the Martha Johnson Cem and Green was buried on Greasy Creek. One story passed down through the family says that when Green came back from the war, he found out that his wife had not been true to him. The 1870 PCo census has Rhody as head of the household and Lucinda Sloan, age 18, and Ezekial Prater, age 42, are listed at Rhody's house. Family tradition states that Green and Rhoda did not get along very well.

There is a tombstone by itself in the Martha Johnson Cem with this information: Rhoda Sanders born 1835 died Sept 15, 1878, Gone but not forgotten

It remains a mystery as to whether Rhoda married a second time; if the Rhoda Sanders who married the Prater was Green's wife; and if the tombstone in the family cemetery is Green's wife.

obit. from THE PIKE COUNTY NEWS, Thursday, May 5, 1938, page 7:

HARVE SANDERS
AGE 91, IS DEAD

Widely Known, Served
   Twice As Hellier
   Police Judge

Harve Sanders, ninety-one years old, a life-long resident of Pike County, and twice police judge at Hellier, died at his home on Scott Avenue here at 10 o'clock Sunday night following a two-year period of ill health. Mr. Sanders was widely known throughout this section.

Born in Pike County, he was the son of Green and Rhoda Potter Sanders and spent many years in the Marrowbone Creek section, where he engaged in farming. His wife, Lucinda Castle Sanders, preceded him in death several years ago.

Surviving Mr. Sanders are two sons, Matt Sanders, of Pikeville, and Nelse Sanders of Hellier, and two daughters, Mrs. Sam Moore, of Pikeville and Mrs. Love Childers of Ashcamp.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon with Rev. Jake Gibson officiating. Burial was in the family cemetery there.
Stories about Harve Sanders, written down by great-grandson, Denis Racine Ratliff, 27 May 1996:

This is a story as told to me by Richard (Dick) Johnson. He sold insurance for many years for New York Life. I would pick him up and take him to the Lodge.

One night I said to him, "Uncle Dick, (that is what we always called him at the Lodge), did you ever know old man Harve Sanders?" I said he was my great grandfather. He laughed and said yeah and I can tell you a story or two about him.

One time he was postmaster at Little Pond. He didn't like the job and wanted to quit. He asked the postal department in Washington, D.C. to get a replacement for him. They just ignored him. A postal inspector came one day to check him out and he told him he was going to quit and to get a replacement. Time went on and nothing was said about a replacement. He decided he would just close the Post Office. He boxed up everything that belonged to the Post Office and took it to the Praise Post Office (now Elkhorn City) and mailed it to the Postal Department in Washington, D.C. and told them the Little Pond Post Office was closed because he had quit.

He said the passenger train would come in about one o'clock during the day. Back then the train carried many passengers because this was about the only way to travel other than horseback. Usually there would be a large crowd gathered to see who was arriving because this was the most excitement during the day. Three people got off the train dressed in black representing some religious order. They walked up to Harve and asked him if he knew where the "Saints" (this is what they called their religious order) lived. Harve being quick at wit and mean at thought, said, yeah, yeah, come right out here and I will show you. They followed him and he pointed up to the other hill and said the only Saints we have are right up there on that pint (point) and all 6 feet under. He had pointed to the cemetery.

This is a story as told to me (Racine Ratliff) by Charlie Moore, Shelby Gap, KY, when I met him early one morning in the street in Pikeville:

He said, let's see, your mother was a Sanders, her father was Nelse, this would make Harve Sanders your great grandfather. I want to tell you a story about Harve. He would come and stay all night with us as he was passing through. He claimed to be a very strong democrat. He said he was by himself walking through the woods one day when a big storm came up. The rain was a down pour, thunder and lightning was terrible. For protection he found a large hollow tree in which he could stand up. He said the thunder and lightning go worse, trees were swaying form the heavy winds and rain continued as a down pour and it was also turning dark. All of a sudden the old tree he was in began to squeak and move and before he knew what was happening the tree had drawn completely closed and he could not get out. He was very scared and began to pray to the good Lord to let him escape this time. He began to think of the bad things he had done in his lifetime. The only thing he could think of was that he had voted one republican vote in the past. He prayed and prayed to the good Lord to let him out of the tree. He finally promised the Lord if he would let him escape he would never vote another republican vote. The thunder and lightning quit and the rain slowed down and all of the sudden the tree began to squeak and moan and twist and opened up so he could get out and the sky had cleared to almost bright day. He said if you want to live a long life to always vote straight as all good democrats should.

Note: Charlie Moore was related to the Sanders.

J. & Rhoda Bentley Mullins; grand-daughter of Andrew Jackson "Brandy Jack" & Lucy "Polly" Mullins and John Vent and Annie Potter Bentley.

Nelse was a city policeman at Hellier. Later, he owned a wagon and a team of horses and hauled coal for people and also delivered groceries for the Alleghany Company Store and Greenough Company Store.

"Our mother had an inspiring relationship with God, having been a member of the Regular Baptist Church for 52 years. She dearly loved her Church and her brothers and sisters in Christ. Her membership was Pine Grove Church at Lookout, Kentucky. She was an inspistion (sic) to her children, her community, and to her Church. She was lovingly known as "Mema" to her grandchildren and to the people of her community. By the life she lived, she clearly showed to the brotherhood and sisterhood that she was a flower in the Master's bouquet. She sowed flowers abundantly along the path she so beautifully walked--in love, friendship, and unity of great and useful life." from Eliza's church obit that was written by one of her daughters

All of Mary's brothers and sisters had a childhood nickname. Her's was Dick, which unlike some of her siblings, was not used as an adult.
Mary went to Bowling Green, KY and took a business course at the Bowling Green Business University before she married. She worked in the Drug Store, Bank of Hellier and for the dentist, Dr. W. D. Sanders before her marriage.
In her later years she operated a grocery store in Hellier. This store was co-owned by her son, Racine.

Pankie attended the Pikeville Collegiate Institute for one year which earned him a teaching certificate. He taught school for one year at Pond Creek which is below Elkhorn City. Later, he worked for the W. J. Fells Stave old. He was in a field artillery unit serving in France. His discharge paper states "He had blue eyes, dark hair, medium complexion and was 5 feet 10 inches in height."

In 1923, Pankie and his brother, Willie, had a grocery and general merchandise store at Coaldale or Edgewater. They built the store building.
In 1928 Pankie bought a lot and built a building at Edgewater and opened a clothing store. He next went into the barber business without going to barber school. Around 1934-35 he got a job with the Semet-Solvay Co. working in the coal mines. He also worked at the U.S. Steel mine in Gary, WV. In 1943 Pankie went into the coal mine business with Johnnie Childers. Later he sold his interest to Johnnie and put in a mine in the Flatwood seam at Hardwood.

Hellier. He was in and out of the truck mine business several times until he retired. For more information see My Ratliff Family 1730's - 1990 by Ralph

Imal worked at Dan River Mills for many years. She loved to collect antiques and go to flea markets. Besides having a watch repair store, Pete liked to played the guitar. He also played the ukulele.

This newspaper clipping (c1959) from a Pike County paper was found in Mary Sanders Ratliff's papers after her death:

Injured Hellier Man Makes Comeback; Runs Nurse Service Bureau

   Danville, Va.--Not many gentlemen have 37 ladies at their beck and call, but Pete Sanders of 239 Piney Forest Rd., does.
   He's very modest about it however--and well he might be. He is the registrar for the Danville Nursing Service Bureau--and takes calls from 5:30 a.m. to 11 p.m. daily--which explains the 37 ladies.
   It's a job he enjoys--and it gives him the opportunity to break the routine of running a small watch and jewely (sic) repair shop connected with his home.
   The bureau is a community service whereby people can secure professional nurses when needed. To assure this service Sanders has a cardex file of the 37 nurses with pertinent information to which he can refer readily. He also keeps a daily record of nurses off and on duty.
   He has not met all of the nurses--but he knows each by voice.
   When they call, he seldom asks their name. For this service he receives a monthly salary.
   This and the watch repairing keep him busy. He prefers it that way. "When you spend about 15 years sitting around," "that's something."
   A native of Hellier, Kentucky, he came to Danville in 1936 after working as a coal miner. Here he worked in the mills until 1941 when he went to Newport News to work as a welder in the shipyards.
   It was in the shipyards in 1944 that a load of steel fell on him--injuring him to such an extent that he spend 19 months in the hospital and is paralyzed from the waist down.
   In 1949 he returned to Kentucky and ran a grocery store there for about two years. He took up the watch repairing business about seven years ago--the registry about two years ago.
He learned the watch repairing at Woodrow Wilson Rehabilitation Center between Staunton and Waynesboro. "It’s a wonderful school, too" he says.

This is the job he likes best--working with his hands is something he enjoys, but the ringing of the phone breaks the monotony for him.

His wife, Imal, a Kentuckian, works at Dan River Mills. They have one son, Donald Jack, 23, and just recently out of the service.

   m. 10 Feb 1842 Pike Co. Isam/Isom Potter/Mullins b. 4 May 1822
   Russell Co, VA d. 3 July 1895 Dickenson Co, VA bur Farmer Cem, Rt. 3, Clintwood, DCo, VA s/o Sarah Potter and Marshall Mullins. According to family tradition Marshall was a nephew of Revolutionary John Mullins. According to Loyd T. Fleming, a descendant, Marshall & Sarah were formally married after their children were grown. The children went by the name of Potter until their parents were married and then changed their names to Mullins. Isom used the surname Potter when he married, later he changed it to Mullins. On the 1870 census he is listed as a Mullins. He was a very strong Republican and got into a lot of fights with his Democrat neighbors, thus earning him the nickname, Wildcat Isom.

Pike County court clerk certified that "the oral consent of Thomas J. Saunders parent of the said Mary Saunders was given". Bond signed by Isham Potter and Thos J. Sanders. "I did join together in marriage the within named Isham Potter and Maryan Saunders" on February 10, 1842, by Wm Tackitt M.G.

According to a descendant, Clyde E. Peak, Isham's 2nd marriage was to Mary Philps, but another descendant, Loyd T. Fleming has Mary Caroline Phipps as his 2nd wife. Philps is probably a typographic error.

   considerable help on this book with the Fleming, Cook, and Isom Mullins families.

   Navy, with his parent's permission, at age 17. After over 21 years of active service, he retired to the Fleet Reserve in 1977, then retired from the Navy

*first name from marriage record Elizabeth’s first name was probably Nancy. According to research of a descendant, Sheila Davis Hensley, “Liz was very close to her mother-in-law, Polly Phipps, who was a mid-wife and herb or "yarb" doctor. Liz learned many things from Polly and aided her in caring for the sick. Liz was a small woman with long black hair, which she wore in a big thick braid, wrapped into a bun at the nape of her neck. She had blue, blue eyes. Liz was superstitious.”

Mahlon was involved in many different businesses throughout his life: he once owned a sawmill, a grist mill, and a saloon. He made and sold candy, taught school and sold silverware.

They are listed on 1900 & 1910 Dickenson Co, VA census. Mahlon & Liz lived in Osborne’s Gap until about 1913 when they moved to Jenkins. In 1928 they returned to Osborne's Gap and remained there until their deaths.

According to son, Perry Cline, Jacob served in the Confederate Army; he was an officer over the 39th Kentucky Volunteers. After the war he entered a training school for teachers at Wise, Va and became a teacher. He also worked as Deputy Clerk for Pike County.
There were two men named Jacob Sanders from Pike and Floyd County that served in the Civil War. Some descendants have gotten these two men’s military records mixed up. I based my information on the records that mentioned he was from Pike County and records that had Mahulda as the wife of Jacob. I have a copy of the "Soldier’s Application for Pension" that Jacob Sanders a "resident of Dorton in the County of Pike" filled out. On this pension application it stated that "I was borned in Pike Co., Kentucky on the 27th day of October 1842 as the record shows." His tombstone has 1841. The other Jacob Sanders is buried in Floyd Co. I also have a copy of the Pulaski County Court decision to give Mahulda Sanders a Confederate Pension.

From military records at KY Historical Society, Frankfort, KY:

"Jacob Sanders enlisted in 1862 in Company C, Prentiss’ Bat. commonly called the 7th Battalion Cavalry, and he was Lieut. in the company and served till the close of the war. Enlistment and service proven by comrades."

July 6, 1912: "There are no rolls, on file in this office, of Company C, 7th Battalion Confederate Cavalry, and no record has been found of the service, capture or parole of a man named Jacob Sanders as a member of such an organization."

In 1923 Mahulda Sanders applied and received a Confederate War Pension as the widow of Jacob. Her son, J. M. Sanders, the administrator of her estate, wrote the Confederate Pension Commission in Frankfort, KY. on Sept. 30, 1929 to notify them that "Mahulda Sanders who holds a Confederate Pension Certificate died on Sept. 12th...at 6:20 P.M and I have been appointed Administrator of her estate by the County Court of Lincoln Co. Ky."

The following is from a paper signed Sept. 4, 1955 by P. C. Sanders. It was written for the Sanders family reunion that was held at Levi Jackson State Park near London, KY.

We greet each other here today
As friends and brothers all;
With earnest hearts the Kinsmen say,
"This Clan shall never fall."
Old Jacob’s stock is strong and sound
And while the waters run
This vine shall spread its roots around
And bud and blossom on and on.

Jacob Sanders the father of eight children, three of them are still living and present here today, was born October 27, 1841 in the Flatwoods Plateau of Pike County Kentucky.

His father Thomas Sanders migrated from Virginia to Kentucky about the year 1816 and settled in Pike County where all his eleven children were born.
Our mother, Mahulda Ison Sanders whose father, Edward Ison also came from Virginia about the same time and settled on Marshall's branch, Pike County Kentucky. She was born July 2, 1843.

Thomas Sanders (sic) eleven children were named, Boys; Green, Wade, Riley, Bud, and Jacob, our father. Girls; Ona, Elizabeth, Artie, Suckie, Hanna and Sarah. All of them lived to have large families and a ripe old age.

Our grandfather on our mother's side was Edward Ison and he married Cassie Huff and they had 10 children, 7 girls and 3 boys whose names were Sallie, who lived to be 94 years old, Mrs. Joe Wright whose given name I do not know and who died during the birth of her first baby, then Polly, Margaret, Oma, Hulda, Alex, David, William and Beckie Ann the youngest, all of them lived to be very old people and had large families.

So you can see this Sanders Clan came from a very hardy stock.

Our father, Jacob Sanders received his early education by attending school of which his father was teacher, both walking about 4 miles to a school on Caney Creek going from this Flatwoods Plateau which is about 2,000 feet above sea level down to 1,200 feet to school.

The eight children born to Jacob and Mahulda Sanders were all born in Pike County Kentucky. Minerva the oldest was born in this flatwoods section just before the outbreak of the Civil War.

Early in 1862 Jacob Sanders organized his own company of Volunteers among his friends and neighbors and all volunteered in the Confederate Army.

He was never a private but went in as an officer over this company, of the 39th Kentucky Volunteers and was mustered out when Lee surrendered as a First Lieutenant under Colonel Breckinridge. During the four years in the war only one man of his company lost his life and one severely wounded.

Clerinda, the second child was born in July 1864 while he was in the Army. L. D. Sanders the next in line was born January 19, 1867, who is now in his 89th year. So far as I can learn he has lived longer in this life than any of Thomas Sanders descendants.

Icha Bod next in line was born November 22, 1869. Edward Ison Sanders, August 19, 1872. Jeremiah (J.M.), August 25, 1875. Cassie Elizabeth, 1878 and Perry Cline (Myself), December 7, 1881.

When Jacob Sanders was discharged from the Army he was permitted to keep his pistol, sword, and canteen to bring home with him. J. M. has the canteen in his possession now.

Soon after returning from the war, he entered a training school for teachers at Wise, Virginia and soon entered upon the teaching profession.

I attended several days while he was teaching his last school at Dorton, Kentucky when I was only five years old and I very well remember.
For his day and time he and his father were both considered very well educated.

For many years as Deputy Clerk for Pike County he took acknowledgment for deeds for most property as well as mineral rights for the whole community that changed owners. And used his talent for many years in securing pensions for Civil War Veterans and he especially delighted in securing a pension for some one when others had failed.

The direct descendants of Jacob Sanders now living number, as of August 20, 1955, 291 but in a prolific clan like this there may be more by today, I hear there are a few more on the way.

They are numbered in this fashion and only includes direct descendants;

There are some Sanders' listed in Virginia history as early as 1700 A.D. as Scotch-Irish stock.

The University of Virginia, at Charlottsville, Virginia perhaps has the most complete family history of any library in this country.
