CHAPTER VII.

STOCKTON FAMILY.

In his History of the Stockton Family, Mr. J. W. Stockton states that Richard Stockton, the founder of the Stockton family of New Jersey, was the son of John Stockton, of Keddington, in the Parish of Malpas, County Chester, England, eldest son of Owen, of the same place, and that he was baptized in the parish church June 20, 1606. His reasons for supposing such to be the case were that the Hon. Richard Stockton, one of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence, states in his Bible that "Richard Stockton emigrated from England previous to "the year 1660, and resided for a few years on Long Island, "near the City of New York, and belonged to an ancient and "highly respectable family, and possessed an opulent fortune," and that the same gentleman used the arms of the Cheshire Stocktons, which were engraved on his watch.

Mr. Stockton has kindly allowed the compiler of this account of a branch of the family to have access to his notes used in the preparation of the genealogy, but after a careful examination of those papers and a thorough and exhaustive search of the records at Flushing and Jamaica, Long Island, and at Albany, the compiler failed to find satisfactory authority for Mr. Stockton's statement.

Richard Stockton died in 1707. His eldest son, Richard, was married in 1691, and died in 1709, when his children were all under age. His second son, John, was born in 1674; his youngest daughter, Elizabeth, was not born until the year 1680. His widow, Abigail, who is by the will of his eldest son proved to have been the mother of all his children, was living in 1714, when she divided some land between her sons, John and Job.

The compiler has arrived at the conclusion that Richard Stockton, of Flushing, and Springfield Township, New Jersey, was not identical with the Richard Stockton, son of John and grandson of Owen, who is mentioned by Mr. J. W. Stockton, a conclusion led to by investigations which he made in England during his visits to that country. The Richard Stockton (son of John) previously referred to as being baptized in 1606 was not the son of John Stockton, of Keddington, it being clearly proved, by two separate visitations of the county, that in 1613 his "eldest sonne et heir'e" was Thomas, then aged 4 years. It appears, however, by the registers of the parish that a John Stockton (son of John) previously referred to as being baptized in 1606 was not the son of John Stockton, of Keddington, it being clearly proved, by two separate visitations of the county, that in 1613 his "eldest sonne et heir'e" was Thomas, then aged 4 years. It appears, however, by the registers of the parish that a John Stockton of "higherwich in ye psh of Malpas" had a son Richard, baptized June 20, 1606, but the compiler cannot identify him with the immigrant.

The Stocktons of Cheshire were undoubtedly a very ancient family, and are proved to have been established in the Parish of Malpas, where they were at one time lords of the manor, for at least 400 years prior to the seventeenth century, when the most important branch of the family still owned lands at Stockton and Keddington, in that parish, other branches being settled in the parishes of Acton and Barrow. The compiler has made what he believes to have been a very thorough investigation of all the sources of information in London, including the wills, etc., of the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, besides examining the parish registers, local wills, and records of marriage licenses in Cheshire, and finally, as a last resource, advertising in the newspapers for the record of marriage of Richard and Abigail Stockton, but unfortunately without success, as the marriage probably took place some time between the years 1640 and 1656, during the troublesome times of the Civil War, when the parish registers and records of marriage licenses were very much neglected.

The names of Richard and John were great favorites with the Cheshire Stocktons long before Richard Stockton immigrated to this country and perpetuated them among his distinguished descendants. Considering this, and the fact that the arms of the Stocktons of Keddington were used by their American cousins at an early stage of their history, the compiler is able to say that he fully agrees with Mr. J. W. Stockton in claiming a connection between the English and American families. He even feels justified in assuming that Richard Stockton, of Flushing, etc., was descended from John Stockton, Esquire, of Keddington (eldest son of Thomas, of the same place), who about the year 1550 married Eleanor, daughter of Vivian, grand-daughter of Owen, and sister and heiress of Daniel Clayton, of Chorleton. They had issue several daughters and five sons, viz., Owen, Thomas, Randall, William, and John. Their third son, Randall, became a merchant, and removed to London, where he died some time prior to 1657, having married his cousin, Elizabeth Clayton, of that city, who survived him, and by whom he had issue Richard, of whom hereafter, Francis, and Cecilia. Richard proved his mother's will, of which he was executor, February 16, 1658, but died a few days afterwards, when his widow, Dorothy, continued the executorship. The compiler has never been able to trace the descendants of this gentleman, which is a source of great regret to him, as the evidence, though only circumstantial, seems to point to the conclusion that he was the father of Richard Stockton, of Flushing, Long Island, and afterwards of Springfield Township, Burlington County, New Jersey.

[The pedigree on the two succeeding pages will serve to illustrate the compiler's remarks about the English Stocktons, and is inserted with the hope that it may prove of interest to the American family.]

1. Richard Stockton, of Flushing, Long Island, Esquire, and afterwards of Oneanickon, Springfield Township, Burlington County, West Jersey (who is presumed to have been a descendant of John Stockton, Esquire, of Keddington, in the Parish of Malpas and County of Chester, who about the year 1550 married Eleanor Clayton), arrived at Flushing, from England, some time prior to November 8, 1656, when his name appears in a petition of some of the inhabitants of that town requesting the release of William Wickendom, who had been fined and imprisoned for preaching without a license. In 1685 he was one of the freeholders of Flushing, as appears by a deed of that date* confirming the old Dutch patent of 1645.†

In 1675 his estate at Flushing consisted of 12 acres of land, one negro slave, five horses, five eows, and five swine, and in

STOCKTON OF KEDDINGTON.

Thomas Stockton, of the parish of Malpas, County Chester, was no doubt descended from the same family as David de Stockton, who, in the year 1230, inherited the Manor of Stockton in that parish from his father, and whose direct line terminated in an heir female who m. Robert de Eaton, ancestor of the present Duke of Westminster. William Stockton, of Ipswich, a descendant of Thomas, used the same arms as this David de Stockton.

John Stockton, of Ked—Eleanor, dau. of Vivian, Alice, dau. of Owen, and sister and heir to Daniel, of Chorleston, parish of Malpas.

Owen Stockton, of Ked—Mary, dau. of John Wright, of Bickley, parish of Malpas.

Randall Stockton, of London, Merchant, d. prior to 1657, when his widow resided at Battersea, Co. Surrey; 3d son.

John Stockton.

Mary Stockton, d. without issue.

Alice Stockton, m. Hugh Bickerton.

Richard Stockton proved his mother’s will February 16, 1658, but died a few days later, when his widow, Dorothy, administered both estates. Though no trace can be found of his descendants, it seems highly probable that he was the father of Richard, the immigrant.

Francis Stockton, mentioned in 1613, and again in 1657. Cecilia Stockton, mentioned in 1613, but not in 1657.

Elizabeth Stockton, m. Barthow.

Owen Stockton was 2 years of age in 1613, and left issue a son and heir, John Stockton, who, in the visitation of Cheshire made in 1664, was styled “of Stockton and Keddington in the parish of Malpas, Esquire.” Until the restoration of Malpas Church, in 1884, the old family pew was in a good state of preservation, having this gentleman’s name and the date “1664” carved on one of the panels.

This proposal is entered in an account book kept by John Bowne, of Flushing, who acted as his agent in this matter.† Mr. Stockton must have been in easy circumstances at that time, as on the 30th of the next month, January, 1690, O. S., he purchased of George Hutchinson his house and plantation called Oneanickon, which consisted of about 2000 acres,‡ though he did not succeed in disposing of his property at Flushing until March 12, 1694, when, "in consideration of three hundred pounds good and lawful money of the Province of New York, Richard Stockton, formerly of Flushing, with the consent of his wife Abigail," conveys to John Rodman "his messuages or tenaments Situate lying and being by coast on the Bay commonly called Mattagareson bay, within the bounds of Flushing, being about eighty acres of land more or less, with all the Privileges and appurtenances thereunto belonging, as also a piece of Salt medow commonly called y* Lumkill, which was belonging to Richard Stockton by virtue of his interest in the s’d towne of Flushing."§ April 22, 1665, he was commissioned, by Governor Nicolls, lieutenant of the Horse Company of Flushing, and in 1669 elected lieutenant of the Foot Company of the same place, which office the Governor allowed him to decline, as he had previously been engaged in the horse service.[[ This shows that he was not originally a member of the Society of Friends, as military employment was directly

He divided his property equally between his three sons, Richard, John, and Job; bequeathing his house to his son Job, who was to have possession on the decease of his mother. and Abigail,) was born at Flushing, L. I., in 1674. About that time his parents became members of the Society of Friends, whose religious meetings he attended, both at Flushing and Springfield, having, in 1690, accompanied his father to the latter place. During the celebrated controversy between the Society and George Keith he became a disciple of the latter's party, and with many others went over to the Church of England, being baptized at St. Ann's (now St. Mary's) Church, Burlington, September 24, 1703. He was evidently a man who had the good opinion and confidence of those who knew him, as, August 27, 1705, Margaret Waus, of Philadelphia, appointed "her friend John Stockton, of Oneanickon," attorney for the sale of considerable property in West Jersey. The homestead in which he lived and died was on a farm of 400 acres belonging to the Oneanickon estate, which had been given him by his father about the time of his first marriage. He also possessed a two-and-thirtyeth part of a propriety of land in West Jersey, which was conveyed to him in December, 1713, by his father-in-law, Daniel Leeds, Esq., as part of his wife's dowry. He died March 29, 1747, aet. 73 years, and in his will, which was dated August 31, 1745, and proved April 4, 1747, directs that his proprietary rights and his plantation be equally divided between his sons, Daniel and David, who were to pay certain legacies to their sisters. See Appendix X.

John Stockton married, first, in 1704, Mary, daughter of Daniel and Dorothy Leeds. See that family, Chapter VIII. She died about 1715, when he married, secondly, Ann, who died at Burlington, July 25, 1745, aet. 68 years.

DESCENDANTS OF RICHARD AND ABIGAIL STOCKTON.*

I. Richard Stockton, of Flushing, Long Island, and afterwards of Oneanickon, Springfield Township, Burlington County, New Jersey, who is presumed to have been a descendant of John Stockton, Esquire, of Keddington, previously referred to, arrived at Flushing from England some time prior to November 8, 1656, when his name appears in a petition of some of the inhabitants of that town requesting the release of William Wickendum, who had been fined and imprisoned for preaching without license.

Richard Stockton was a freeholder of the town; in 1665 appointed lieutenant of the Horse Company of Flushing, and in 1669 elected lieutenant of the Foot Company of the same place, which latter appointment the Governor allowed him to decline on account of his previous employment in the Horse service. About this time, or shortly afterwards, he became a member of the Society of Friends, and in 1690 removed to New Jersey, purchasing the Oneanickon estate, which consisted of about 2000 acres in Springfield Township, Burlington County. In 1694 he disposed of his property at Flushing for the consider-Richard Stockton married, in England, Abigail ———, who survived him at least seven years, and by whom he had issue:

2. i. Richard, m. Susanna Robinson.
3. ii. John, b. 1674; m., first, Mary Leeds; m., secondly, Ann ———.
4. iii. Joe, m. Anna Petty.

8. viii. Elizabeth, b. 1680; m. William Budd.

II. Richard Stockton, 2 (Richard, 1) of Stony Brook, (now Princeton), Somerset County, New Jersey, accompanied his father to New Jersey, and settled at Piscataway, in Middlesex County. In August, 1696, he acquired from the Proprietors of East New Jersey a tract of 400 acres of land on the north side of Stony Brook, the consideration being a yearly quit rent of £4 sterling, and in 1701 purchased of William Penn, for the sum of £900 lawful money of Pennsylvania, an estate of 5500 acres on Stony Brook, of which the present town of Princeton is the center. * In June, 1709, he was one of the trustees of the Friends’ Meeting-house at Stony Brook, but died the next month.

Richard Stockton married, 9th mo. (November) 8, 1691, at the Chesterfield Meeting, Susanna Robinson, who after his decease married Thomas Leonard, Esquire, of Princeton, by whom she had no issue. They had issue:

11. iv. Robert, b. 1698-99; m., secondly, Rebecca Phillips.
12. v. John, b. 1701; m. Abigail Phillips.

* Mr. J. W. Stockton, in his History of the Stockton Family, quotes Hagemann's History of Princeton as his authority for the statement that when Richard Stockton settled at Princeton the place had no name, and that he afterwards named it Stony Brook, in remembrance of a little stony brook that coursed through his land on Long Island, but the deeds for Richard Stockton's property show it to have been so called before his settlement.
vi. Thomas, b. 1703. Inherited considerable property from his father, all of which was sold during his minority. He was last mentioned January 25, 1724-25, when he acknowledged his signature to a deed to his uncle, Job Stockton. See Virginia Stocktons, Appendix VIII.

III. John Stockton, (Richard, of Oneanickon, Springfield Township, Burlington County, N. J., born 1674; died March 29, 1747; married, first, in 1704, Mary, daughter of Daniel Leeds, some time Surveyor-General of the Province of West New Jersey. They had issue:

John Stockton married, secondly, Ann ———, who died July 25, 1745, aged 68 years. They had issue:

ii. Abigail, m., 1717, Henry Clothier.
iii. John.

v. Jane, m., 1721, Isaac Antrim.
vi. Sarah.

APPENDIX VIII.

THE VIRGINIA STOCKTONS.*

A family of Stocktons not in any way connected with the New Jersey family of the same name resided in Virginia during the early part of the last century, when three of its members, Richard, Robert, and Thomas Stockton, were living in the provinces. These gentlemen were no doubt very nearly related; indeed it seems almost certain that Robert and Thomas, who at one time lived in the same county, were brothers.

I. Richard Stockton, of the Parish of St. Amies, Albemarle County, Virginia, obtained a grant of 400 acres in the County of Goochland, in 1745, and subsequently other grants in Albemarle County, where he died in 1775, his will being proved in October of that year. He had issue:†

i. Thomas, d. in 1783; m. Rachel ———, by whom he had issue.
ii. John.
iii. Robert.
iv. David.
v. Richard.

II. Robert Stockton was one of the original settlers at Shepherdstown, on the Potomac, in 1734, but removed to what is now Berkeley County, West Virginia, where he died in 1778, having married Mrs. Fleming, née Keith. They had issue, among others:†

i. George, b. 1742, who, with his sister Isabella, was carried away from his father's house by the Indians on their return from the massacre of the settlers at Meeley's Fort, about 9 miles from

†An account of the estate of David Stockton, deceased, was filed in 1762. (Albemarle County Records.)
‡The Hon. Robert J. Faulkner, in a historical address read before the University of West Virginia, in June, 1879, states that the father of George and Isabella was William Stockton. But that is evidently incorrect. It should be Robert Stockton.

Shepherdstown. This occurred on the morning of September 17, 1740, and he remained in captivity for about three years, when he succeeded in making his escape and returning to his parents. He afterwards m. a Miss Dorsey, of Maryland, and in 1776 removed, with his half-brother, Colonel John Fleming, to Fleming County, Kentucky, where he d. April 9, 1810.

ii. Isabella, b. 1746, was captured at the same time as her brother, and after a captivity of one month sold to a Canadian trader, who took her to his home in Montreal, where she was carefully educated. She was eventually restored to her parents, and afterwards m. Colonel Wm. McCleery.

III. Thomas Stockton, of Berkeley County, West Virginia, born about 1709, was supposed to have been identical with Thomas son of Richard and Susanna Stockton, of Stony Brook (now Princeton), New Jersey, until investigation led to the discovery that that gentleman was born in the year 1703, and that he (Thomas of Berkeley County) was related to the other Stocktons living in that locality, who were not in any way connected with the New Jersey family. About the year 1770 Thomas Stockton removed to Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, where his son Robert was already settled, and took up his residence with his daughter, Elizabeth Waddell, removing with her to Mercersburg, Pennsylvania, where he died, May 31, 1795, "a very old man, aged over 86 years." He was an elder of the Presbyterian Church, and had issue:

He was an elder of the Presbyterian Church; served in the Revolutionary War; was at the battles of Princeton and Monmouth, and in 1784 removed to Washington, Washington County, Pennsylvania, where he died in 1821, having married, December 22, 1761, Mary McKenie, who died in 1818. VIII. Rev. He became a licentiate in 1799; was ordained in 1801, and appointed first pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Meadville, where he resided for nine years, during which time he had charge of the Academy, which still continues a thriving institution. In 1809 he was appointed principal of the Pittsburg Academy, which afterwards became the Western University, and held the position for eleven years. His ministerial services were devoted from his first establishment at Pittsburg to the soldiers at the garrison, to the building of a church at Alleghany, and supplying the infant congregation at Pine Creek, until 1820, when he for the next nine years devoted himself to the Alleghany and Pine Creek congregations. October 29, 1832, while visiting at Baltimore, Maryland, he died, and was buried in the burial-yard of the First Church at that place.
