Virginia, Augusta County, towit:

On this 30th day of August 1832 personally appeared in open court before the justice of the Augusta County Court now setting (Maj.) Jos. Bell a resident of the County and State aforesaid, aged about seventy seven years who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath make the following declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed the 7th day of June 1832.

That he was born in Augusta County and State of Virginia in the month of February 1755 as he has always understood and believes; that there is no record of his age known to him, that he has always resided and still resides on the farm where he was born in the said County of Augusta.

That as one of the militia of Augusta County he was drafted for the protection of the western frontier from the Indians; that he rendezvoused at Lexington in the County of Rockingham about the 15th July, 1776 and was attached to the Company under the command of Captain John Lyle and marched to Holston River under Colonel Russell; from thence he marched to the Great Island of Holston River and was there placed under the command of Col. William Christian; from thence he marched to the Cherokee Towns south west of the Tennessee River and was stationed there for some time and returned home about the middle of December 1776, being absent in the service about five months—that he received no written discharge that he knows of no one living at this time, except Major William Willson of said County of Augusta by whom he can prove the service above set forth, that the said Willson was with him on the said tour of duty.

He was drafted as one of the Militia of Augusta County for a second tour of duty and rendezvoused at Staunton in Augusta County & State of Virginia on the 22d day of September 1777 and was placed under the command of Captain Thomas Smith of the Augusta Militia, and he was elected as first sergeant of the Company, in which capacity he served during the said tour of duty—from Staunton he marched to the Little Levels in the County of Greenbrier in the State of Virginia at which point they were joined by other troops under the commands of Col's Dickenson, Samuel McDowell and Geo. Skeleron. From the little levels, they marched to the mouth of the Great Kanawha river (Point Pleasant) to join the army under the command of Gen'l Hand, after having remained for some time there the Army was drawn up, and Col. Sam'l McDowell rode along the lines and proclaimed that Gen'l Burgoin the commander of the British Army had surrendered the Army under his command as prisoners of war, and the troops were discharged, and the said applicant reached home with other men from Augusta County about the second week in December 1777 after an absence in the service of about two months and three weeks—that he received no written discharge—that he has no knowledge at this time of any person living by whom he could prove this tour of duty.

That he was ordered out on a third tour of duty by Col. Sampson Mathews, the commandant of the Augusta Militia for the protection of the Western Frontier from the murders of the Indians, that he rendezvoused at Staunton in the County of Augusta & State of Virginia on the 16th day of April 1779 and was placed under the command of Capt. James Trimble of the Augusta Militia, that applicant was appointed orderly sergeant of the company and in that capacity served during that tour of duty, that they marched from Staunton to Tigers Valley in the State of Virginia and from thence to the head waters of Jackson's River in the State of Virginia, that after his tour of duty which was for three months expired, he returned home having received no written discharge nor is there any person now living that he knows of whose testimony he is able to procure to prove his service on this his third tour of duty.

That he was ordered out as one of the militia of Augusta County and rendezvoused at Rockfish Gap in the County of Augusta for the purpose of guarding the prisoners taken at the battle of the Cowpens by Gen'l Morgan, from Rockfish Gap he marched as one of the guard of said prisoners to the County of Shenandoah, and from thence returned home being absent in the service about 15 days.

His fifth and last service in the war of the Revolution was as an Ensign in the Militia of Augusta County. He rendezvoused with the troops called into service from Augusta County at Col. Easoms (now Waynesboro in the County of Augusta) on the 6th day of June 1781—and marched from thence as an Ensign in Cap. Francis Long's Company and joined the troops under the command of Gen'l Lafayette at Col. Dandridge's in the County of ———, that he acted with the Army under the command of Gen'l Lafayette, was in the battles of Hot Water, under the command of Col. Willis, was at the battle of James Town under the command of Gen'l Wayne in July 1781, that he continued with the army and marched to Yorktown where he continued in his command as an Ensign until the surrender of Lord Cornwallis, shortly after which the troops were discharged and he returned to his residence in Augusta County having been absent in the service about five months—that his commission of Ensign was signed by Thomas Jefferson while Governor of Virginia, that he remembers when looking over his papers some few years since to have seen it, but that on looking for it lately he has not been able to find it and supposes that it has been destroyed lost or mislaid.

He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present, and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of State.

William Davis one of the justices of the peace for Augusta County deposed in open Court that he had known Joseph Bell from about the period of the Revolutionary War to the present time, having resided in the same neighborhood during that time, the fact of his having served several tours of duty as one of the militia of Augusta County was one of general notoriety, that he has often heard it spoken of by men in the neighborhood who was in the service with the said Bell, he remembers particularly to have heard his brother James Davis (now deceased) speak of having served three several tours of duty with the said Bell and being one of his mess, that he knows the fact that his brother James was absent from home in the service—the said Davis father stated that he had always understood and had no doubt but that the said Bell did hold a commission of Ensign in the war of the Revolution and served in that capacity as stated by him, that he was at the house of the said Bell some few years since and the said Bell showed him his commission of Ensign which was signed by Thomas Jefferson as Governor of Virginia. That he believes the said Bell to be about 77 years of age. That the said Bell is a man in whose statements every reliance may be placed.

Maj. William Willson of said County of Augusta also appeared in open Court and deposed that he was well acquainted with the said Joseph Bell in the war of the Revolution, that he knows the fact that the said Joseph Bell did serve the tour of duty under Capt. John Lyle as set forth in the said Bell’s declaration this day presented to the court and read in his presence, that he said William was on the said tour of duty with the said Bell which commenced in July 1776 and terminated in December 1776, that he heard of the said Bell's being out on other tours of duty during the war of the Revolution and entertains no doubt but that he was, that the said Bell is reputed and believed in his neighborhood to have been a soldier and officer, that the said Bell has always been regarded as a man of strict veracity and from his knowledge of him and the character he has always sustained he would rely upon any statement made by him, that he believes the said Bell to be about 77 years of age.

And the said Court do hereby declare their opinion after the investigation of the matter and after putting the interrogatories prescribed by the War Department that the above named applicant was a Revolutionary Soldier and officer and served as he states, and the Court further certifies that they are personally acquainted with the said Joseph Bell the applicant and William Davis and William Willson whose testimony is above set forth; that they are all residents of the County of Augusta and State of Virginia and highly respectable and credible and that their statements are entitled to full credit.

State of Virginia,

Augusta County, towit,

On this 26th day of June 1820, personally appeared in open court, being a court of record for the said county, John Ballard, aged about sixty years, resident in the said County, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath declare that he served in the revolutionary war as follows: He enlisted with Lieuten't Howard, in Loudoun County, State of Virginia and was marched to Fredericksburg in said State where he was attached to Captain Adam Wallace's Company, & Col. Bluford's regiment. From Fredericksburg he marched with said regiment to Petersburg, in said State and was encamped near that place during the winter. The spring following he marched with said Bluford to the neighborhood of Charleston in South Carolina, & was afterward taken prisoner at said Bluford's defeat at the hanging rock, where he was badly wounded. He received three cuts on the head, a wound in the side with a bayonet and one of his fingers was nearly cut off. He suffered very severely from exposure to the inclemencies of the weather whilst encamped near Petersburg. He is now entirely unable to do any kind of work, in consequence of the injuries which he sustained while in the service of his country aforesaid; and is so perfectly helpless that he cannot put on or take off his own clothes without assistance. He has already made a declaration under the Act of Congress passed on the 18th March 1818, the date of which declaration he does not recollect; his pension certificate is dated the 8th January, 1819. He has been some years in such indigent circumstances that before he obtained his pension from the United States he was a charge on the County. And I do solemnly swear that I was a resident citizen of the United States on the 18th day of March 1818, & that I have not since that time by gift, sale, or in any other manner disposed of my property or any part thereof with intent thereby so to diminish it as to bring myself within the provisions of an act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide for certain persons engaged in the land and naval service of the United States in the revolutionary war, passed on the 18th day of March, 1818, & that I have not nor has any person in trust for me, any property or securities, contracts or debts due to me; nor have I any income other than is contained in the schedule hereto annexed, & by me subscribed. The said declarant further deposes that the only members of his family are himself and his wife; that before he became a cripple, his occupation was that of a farmer, but he is now unable to pursue and does not pursue any occupation whatever. His wife is aged about forty-six years. Her time is occupied in attending to the household duties & to this declarant, who, from his helpless sitation, & the state of his wounds requires much attention. She is able to contribute very little if anything to the support of this deponent. She expects to obtain some small compensation for attending to cleaning the Episcopal Church in the town of Staunton, but that will depend entirely upon the liberality of the members of the Church who may choose to contribute.

My Lord

Your most obliging Letter of the 23d of februrary I Receaved not till the 11th of July instant wherein two things yo' Lords'hp perticular recommended to my Care the fortefieing the Country and the promoteing of the usefull Commodities of silke hempp and Flax with the assureance of his Mat'ies most gracious assistance in the later. Now my Lord for the first concerning the fortefieing the Country wee resolved on it long before to our utmost possibiley and had designed A Fort at James Towne in the Center and Hart of the Countrey which would have been defended easily and alternatively by all the Inhabitants But my Lord when our monies and worke-men were ready for this most excellent worke the few great gunns which are but fourteene brought up at great Charges to the place wee know not by what misinformaton wee were Commanded to build this Fort in the Extreameties of the Province in A place useless as to any Certaintie of defence and insupportable in the Charges of it But the Command was soe possetive wee durst not disobey it especially hopeing and beleevying that his Mat'ies just Armes had beeene soe successfull against his unjust Enemies that wee should have and now my Lord wee finde that all the Forts that wee can build though never soe strong will not absolutely answer what they are designed for the Entrance into the Province is soe large that any Enemy's Shipp may ride out of all possible danger of the greatest Cannon in the world and shipps may be taken going out or coming in without all possible assistance from us of this my Lord wee had a sad instance not two daies before I receaved your Lords' Letter. For a small shipp of Po'y that could not get out with the first Fleet which went out thirty fower together I stayed till I had intelligence of two Friggets in New England and then takeing his bond of a thousand pounds to goe home under their Protection I gave him leave to reipare to them But within the Bay, lay A Caper with English Colours who unsuspected tooke the shipp though the men which were ten all escaped.

This makes me on my knees humbly to implore his Majesty that when the next Fleet comes a Frigget may come along with them to guard those that the windes and stormes seperate when they approach the harbour and wee doubt not but the Marchants will joyne with us in this Petition and Contribute something to the Charge of it It being soe necessary for King and People.

For the second my Lord wee were also so intent upon silke Flax and hemp that into the two first wee have made considerable Progresses and as in duty wee thought wee were bound to offer the first fruites of A new Rich commodity to his Majesty on the Publique Charges though wee were never more unable (from divers causes) then now wee have prepared A present of three hundred Pounds of silke to be sent to his Majesty which is now ready but wee dare not send it till wee heare farther what the Capers are and their number [and that wee might be more intent on these commodities see Honble and usefull for King and subject wee have made and Decreed A yeare of Cessation from planting Tobacco But my Lord that wee may not arrogate untruely to much to ourselves in this particular Wee will Confesse this truth that an absolute necessitie puts us upon this Provident wisdome and the quantities of our tobaccoes se great and the price of it se small that wee were not able to live by it For the Merchants knowing both our necessities and the unconsumeable quantities of tobacco wee had by us gave us not the twentieth part of what they sold it For in England, and we can truly avow that wee have now made and groweing more then in humane probability will be carried home in three yeares ensuing This I say with our desires to make ourselves esteemed for being the Authors of richer and more warrantable Comodities, endured and enforced us to make a Cessation for the Preservation of the People which otherwise are in great Dainger and wee Doe most humbly beseech your Lords'h p that wee on the Place sworne to promote the service of his Ma* I may be beleved before any private interest who understand us not and that this is the sence of the Countrey these Gent that now assist me in the greatest affaires of his Ma* I have desired to attest this and to subscribe themselves as I Doe

Right Honorable

Being in obedience to your Lordships Comands to give you a description of the Governm't of this place & humbly supposing your Lordship expects a relacion of ye present & not a full discourse of ye whole Governm't from ye first planting of this Colony, which would bee very hard to doe by reason of ye negligence of former times in transmitting anything of that nature to their successor. I have thought it necessary for ye better performance of your Honorable Comands & Complyance with that truth on which my following discourse must bee grounded to give your Lordship a short Character of ye Governor of this Colony before I entd upon ye description of his Governm't. I know it to bee superflous to say anything of his person great parts, or quallitie because your Lord's knowes & can better judge of them then myselfe, I shall therefore w't your Lordships favor only speake of him as Governo'r of Virginia, & very harteily beg his pardon for ye Injury I doe his reputation & merrits, Whilst my inability to present them in their full Lusture may encline those who know neither him nor mee to believe their defects to bee really in themselves, & not in him who reports them & under ye securitie of this Apology to your Lordship & him I shall bee bold to say that hee is a Person pious & exemplarily sober in his Conversation, prudent & Just in peace diligent & valiant in Warr I shall strengthen three assertions only with three argum. & for y. first shall only say that mine owne long experience, & y. suffrages of the whole Country can sufficiently prove y. excellency of his Conversation, nor doe I think there can be a more convincing evidence of his Prudence, and Justice Then that in six years after hee was forced to resigne this Country to y. Genner-all unhappy fate of our Nation (a Time when y. Enemies of his Loyalty & Virtue would have loaden him with reproaches especially had they had Justice on their side) there was not one man that either publiquely or privately charged him with Injustice, or any other fault comitted in eight years Governm. & for his diligence and Valour y. frequent and greate hazards hee exposed his person to in y. conquest of Opechankevough, & all his Indians (whereby hee first secured this Country from those fears that had possessed them from their first seating & rendred the Indians soe subjected to this Governm. that I may confidently affirm y. Like Conquest hath bin made by noe other English Governm. in y. West Indies would have pro-claimed his Millitary virtues, & have given him a very greate reputation for that Service had it not hapned in an Unfortunatune time when the whole English Nation was involved in a Civill War, and consequently had all their Reflections divirted from what hee did here to what most and more nerely concerned them there—And now my most honored Lord haveing given you this short Character of our Governo. I shall proceed to as short a discription of his Government (which I see tearme because heeis y. sole author of the most substantial parts of it either for Lawes, or other Inferiour institutions) Which as subordinate to that of England is devided into Ecclesiasticall Civill & Millitary, for y. Ecclesiasticall parte of it (being yett unfitt for a Bishop to reside here by reason of the fewness of our Numbers & other Inconveniences) Wee are subjected to the Sea of London, & have noe superiour Clergie amongst-But when it pleaseth God to send us any Ministers some par, rish or other p'sents them, & the Governo. Inducts them But with this Pious as well as prudent care that none bee admitted to the exercise of their functions who are not in Ord™ and very Orthodox in their profession of which excellent sorte of men wee have at p™ sent very few amongst us, & I could harteily wish that my Lord of London, and other greate Cleargymen would take us a little more into their care for our Better supply since y™ utmost of our Encourag™ will invite none to us though wee have very few parishes give less then One hundred pounds p Annum and many give more Which is Levied by y™ respective Vestries, out of which they yearly choose churchwardens as in England. And now my most Honored Lord having said thus much of our church government, I beseech you give mee Leave to p™sent you w™th as true a narrative of y™ Civill parte of this Govern™ without any animadversions upon it which to doe in the better Ord™ I must informe your Hono™ that this Colony is divided at p™sent into nineteen Counties, & those subdivided into parrishes only & not into hundreds, or tythings which is only necessary in more populous Countryes Every of which Counties is left to the Care and Charge of Eight, or Tenn Justices of the peace Whereof three or foure are of y™ Quorum out of which Number of Justices there is yearly chosen a Sheriff who is Confirmed by y™ Governo™ & upon sufficient Securitie given to y™ rest of the said Justices is entrusted with y™ Collection & payment of all Publiqu™ Leavies, Quit-rents, secretaries & Clerkes fees, and hath Tenn p cent allowed him for Sallery for y™ rest of his Authority it is as in England only hee keeps noe Court, and y™ severall parrishes of Each County are armed with the authoritie of a Cunstable chosen from amongst y™ honestest household™ & the said Whole number of Justices, or any foure of them whereof one to bee of the Quorum are by Commission from the Governo™ made and Constituted a Court of Judicature for the Tryall of all Causes within their respective Counties, except such as question Life, or Member, & every particular Justice hath power to try and determine any Cause to the value of Twenty shillings, or Two hundred Pounds of Tobacco which Power was se granted to prevent frivolous & unnecessary suits in y™ County Courts which are held every second month; & once at least in Every year there is a Court of Enquiry which we call an Orphans Court held before ye said Justices of the respective Countyes where all Guardians are required to appeare, and bring their Orphans to be examined whether they are well used and to give an account to the said Justices of ye well, or ill Management of such Orphans Estates as are committed to their trust, & these several Courts are so appointed in the respective Counties as any person who may have business in many of them may easily attend ye same because they are held neither on ye same day, nor in ye same month at several places from ye Judgm of ye Courts ye parties agreed may appeale to the General Court held at James Citty on September, November, and March every yeare before ye Gov and Councell which Court is of a mixed constitution for all Causes of what nature or value soever they bee above Ten Pounds sterling, or fifteen hundred Pounds of Tobacco are tried there either in Common Law, Chancery, or Criminal as Treasons, Murthers Felonyes, etc. if any Quakers, or other secteries, or Nonconformists act anything in poyn of Religion contrary to the Statutes of England, or the Lawes of this Country they are tried in that Court, ye Power of Peace & Warr is seated in the same. The Governo' and any three of the sixteen Councello's now residing here make a Court, Wherein as greate Care is taken to make the Lawes and pleadings upon them Easy & obvious to every mans understanding as in other parts, they doe to keep them a mystery to the People for noe advantage is allowed to either party from little Errors in Declarations or Pleas etc-but both are kept within the just Lymmits of ye merritts of their Cause and Judgm's pass secundum alegata et probata & References are rarely obteyned but upon very just grounds as either sickness of the party desiring it, or of ye Witnesses, or papers in England etc. from which wee draw these two greate advantages, ye avoiding trouble to ye Court, and the speedy dispensation of Justice to those who seeke it from ye Judgm's of which Court any person (upon securitie given to prosecute it) may appeale to the Assembly which consists of the Governor, Councell & Two Burgesses chosen upon (y° Governors Writt) by y° freeholders of every County, and one for James Citty which assembly is convened once in Every year (and upon Emergent occasions oftener) a matter (though Chargeable) yet most necessary for the spedier prevention of such Inconveniences, or Confirmation of such good Institutions as may be most likely to obstruct, or advance y° prosperity of New settled Government there our Lawes are enacted (all or most of which I hope your Lordship hath seen) there are Leavies laid upon the People & proportioned to the publiq° necessity, and since all fines imposed upon offend'rs are here (if not upon submission released) leavied to the use of the Publiq° (though to the use of the Respective Governo°s till S° Wm Berkeley's time, who first released them that hee might keep his Reputation cleere from all hazards of Calumny) It is by y° Assembly ordered what they shall bee imploied on, in fine it is by this Excellent temper that a Right understanding is keept between Governo° and people and that y° strings of Government are always kept in tune. And now my ever hon'd Lord haveing said this much of y° two first parts of this Governm° I shall proceed to the last which is y° millitary parte of it, and informe your Lordship that as y° Country is devided into nineteene Counties, soe it is into foure Provinces; The first whereof which contains y° next adjacent Counties to the Gov° is under his owne immediate Conduct, y° other three being more remote are committed to y° Care of three Major Genneralls (one of whom Maj° Genn'll Richard Bennett I beleeeve to bee of your Lordships family both by his Name & armes) Every Maj° Genn'll hath two Adjutants, and every county within y° said Provinces hath a Regim° of froot under y° Command of a Collonell (who for y° most parte is one of y° Councell) & other inferiour Officers & in many of them a Troop of Horse under y° comand of a Captaine, & other inferiour Officers which horse when drawne together have an officer appoynted over them—Besides there is a Captaine of y° fort by Commission from y° King, and a Captaine of y* Guard by Commission from y* Governo'r as all y* other Officers are as from their Genn'll y* Millitia of the Country being thus disposed of greate care is taken that y* respective officers doe traine them. and see their armes well fixed. And truly my Lord I beleive all to bee in soe good Ord' as an Enimy would gaine little advantage by attempting anything upon them. I haveing now done w* h y* last parte of this Governm't, I shall beg your Lordships patience whilst I write a Word or two of y* articles betweene us and the Indians who now-hold noe land but what wee grant them, and if they committ any Offence against an Englishman, or hee against them It is tryable in our Courts, or before some of our Magistrates but for any Difference amongst themselves it is still left to the Discision of their owne Customes. I shall conclude with a list of the principall Officers of State in this Governm't w* h are the Governor of whose revenue (being one Thousand Pounds p Annu) I shall with your Lordships pardon say that though in the Infancy of this Colony it might justily bee thought enough yett now it is not onely Less then any other Governo'r in the West Indies receives but is foo little for y* Necessary Supporte of that State y* Gov'r of this his Mat'i* antientest Colony must keep, nor could our Governo'r comporte with y* Grandeur of his authority nor comply w* h his greate expences in setting up Manufactures, and other excellent designes for y* good and Example of this Country, did not his necessities make him admirably Industrious on his farme for ye improvement of his Revenue, which unavoidably diverts much of that Care hee otherwise would wholly impoy for y* Publiq* utilitty of this Colony. The next Officers are y* Councell Treasu'r Secretary, Cap't of y* ffort Auditor Gennerall, and Surveyor Genn'll before y* first of the Two Last all y* Collecto'rs of y* Two Shillings p hogshead of Tobacco, & all Sherriffs, or other receivers of Publiq* Leavies appeare at James Citty twice in every yeare, and perfect their accounts with him & take out their discharge from him as out of the Exchequer in England and before y* Surveyor Genn'll once a year appeare all Inferiour Surveyo'rs (who are commissionated by him) with a booke of all you Surveyors of Land by them made to bee examined wether they have done right between you King & his subjects of this Colony who by an antient Indulgence of you crown have a Right to fifty acres of Land for every p'son they transport into this country wth transportacon being proved in any Court of Record you Clerke gives you p ty claiming a certificate upon wth you surveyor measures him you Land, and gives him a survey under his hand which with you certificate being entred in your Secretarys Office a pattent issues out for you same signed by your Govr & Sealed wth your Seale of your Colony, The Land to be held of the King in Common Soccage at your yearly rent of one shilling for every fifty acres, & to be seated in three years after your date of the pattent, or your Land to bee Lost. My most Hon'd Lord I have now noe more to say but to beseech your hon'r that if you shall judge mee to have said too much to Consider that the Nature of the subject would have admitted much more, & if your Lordship shall blame mee for being too short that you may forgive mee too, since I am afraid your other greate Imployments will not permitt you to peruse what I have already said, & shall therefore add noe more but my Peticon for your Lordships pardon for my imperfections, and may God for Ever bless you with all the blessings of Heaven and Earth, & bless mee also wth a Continuacon of your favors upon

My most honored Lord

You Lordships most humble and faithfull serv't.

My Lord

I have given your Lordship frequent accounts of the publique businesse of this Countrye But now must beg leave to write to my Lord Arlington not as Secretary of State but as to a noble person who I know as* seen in me an infinite respect of his parts and Vertues this inclination of mine my lord has been mightily increass'd by the frequent letters I have had from my deare brother Acknowledging the favors and kindnesses our family has receaved from you and did comand me that I should address myselfe to your lordship when I dard to hope for a marque of the Kings favour What shal I say my Lord age and misfortunes has wilted my desires as wel as hopes and the truth is I cannot in this time of my very old age so wish myselfe happy but that I presently repent of my desires to be so the way I proposd: when the time was that I could have taken any.... gust in the favours of princes I wanted the helpe of a friendly Angel to put me into the Poole when the waters were made seasonable for hopes and powerful to heale dispayre.

I have donne the King and his blessed father all faithful service in my station but am as farr from pretending merit to my King as the most pretending strict presbiterian is from [G]odt†

Yet though Ambition comonly leaves sober old age co[v]etuousness does not I shal therefore desire of your Lordship[t]o procure of his Matie the customes of two hundred Hogshead [o]f tobb. I have now sent home. I have expended [m]ore on the extraordinary charges of this warr I shal desire my brother to sollicite your lordship for this grant who is the cause of this bold request my lord the great cause of mistakse in this World, is that we thinke every one knowes our inclinations and affections as wel as we doe our selves and that often puts us on unmannerly petitions and if this be of that nature

I shal humbly beg a pardon but never cease to be a thankeful acknowledger of the favors you have been pleased to shew
my dearest Brother

My lord I am from my hart Your Lordships most humble

3Captain Jabez Whitaker owned land and resided on Southampton River, now Hampton Creek. The census of February 1623 shows Captain "Isaac" and Mary Whitaker then living at Elizabeth City.
"Isaac" is evidently a misreading or misprint of "Jabez." Captain Jabez Whitaker was a member of the House of Burgesses in 1623 and of the Council 1626. He was probably the same person as Rev. Alexander Whitaker's brother of the same name. He married Mary, daughter of Sir John Bourchier, an uncle of the Regicide (see this Magazine 1, 295).

16Justinian Cooper who, from this entry is shown to have married Ann widow of James Harrison, was long resident in Virginia though his name does not appear in the Census of 1624-5. He was probably out of the country at the time. He settled at Warrosquoiacke (the present Isle of Wight). On Sept. 1, 1636, he patented 1050 acres in the County of Warrosquoiacke adjoining the head of Lawne's Creek, Back Bay and his own dwelling house. In 1645 he patented tracts of 112 and 1350 acres in Isle of Wight County near the head of Seaward's Creek, part of which had been granted to him in 1637. He had other grants of land.
There are various papers in the records of Isle of Wight County which refer to him. Among these are; (1) deed dated Oct. 19, 1625, from Gyles Jones to Justinian Cooper and Ann his wife, conveying 100 acres, part of a patent dated December 14, 1619; (2) deed Sept 29, 1629, from Justinian Cooper and Ann his wife, "late relic of James Harrison," to Wassell Neblin and George Fawdon, conveying the above named 100 acres; (3) deed, April 25, 1646, from Justinian Cooper and Ann his wife to John George, conveying the Robert Bennett Tract and the Quarter Tract (200 acres) part of a patent for 2,000 acres, dated March 16, 1642;
(4) will of Justinian Cooper, dated March 26, 1650, (printed in this Magazine VI, 122). His wife Ann was then living; (5) deed, 1671, from William Woolard, late of Harwich, Essex, England, mariner, but now resident in Isle of Wight County, Va., heir of Justinian Cooper, long since deceased, to Nathaniel Bacon, Esq.

16John Cheesman, or Chisman, of Kicoughtan, gent., patented 200 acres on the river over against that place, Sept. 2, 1624. He was born in 1597, came to Virginia in 1621, was a Justice of York County 1635, member of the House of Burgesses 1642-3, and was appointed to the Council 1652. He married Margaret——, and returned to England before 1661, being then a resident of the parish of St. Mary Magdalene, Bermond Sea, Surrey. He died in 1665. His brothers Thomas and Edward Chisman
(the latter born in 1602) were living with him in Virginia in 1623. From the latter the Virginia family of Cheesman or Chisman descends. See

Honorable Sir

I received Yours to me of the 16th of March last, In answer to an Order of myselfe in Councill, Dated at James City the 24th day of February last, transmitted unto You by Coll. Quary pursuant also to what You advise in that Letter, upon the 28th of the last moneth arrived at this Place Mr. Akehurst and Cap’t Walker the Gentlemen appointed by You and the Councill of Your Province to agree upon and Settle the bounds between this His Maj’ts Colony and Dominion of Virginia and Your said Province of Carolina. I shall at all times be very ready to do anything that is requisite on my Parte for the perfecting of a Worke which I take to be so very Necessary and so much contributing to the Peace and Quiet of both these Colonyes; But at present it is the Opinion of myself and his Maj’ts Honorable Councill of state for this his Colony and Dominion of Virginia that I cannot safely Comiconate any persons to treat with the Gent’n from your Province about this affair. Wee have not any Design of Delaying so good a Worke but we are Desirous that when it is done it may be Effectual and Valid in all time coming and that wee think the Gent. appointed by you are not sufficiently Qualified to do. Our Reason for this Opinion is grounded upon an act of Parliament of the seventh and Eighth Years of his present Maj'ly Intituled an act for Preventing frauds and regulating abuses in the plantacon trade which I have given to the Gent. for Your More particular Satisfacon herein in this act it is Enacted that all the then present Governours or Comanders in Cheif of any English Colonyes or Plantacons shall before the 25 day of March 1697 take a solemn Oath &c. as in the said act is More at large Directed; and by another Clause in the said act it is Enacted that all Governours Nominated and Appointed by any persons or proprietors who shall be Intituled to make such Nominacon shall be allowed and approved of by his Maj'ly his Heires and successours Signified by his or their order in Councill who shall take the Oaths Enjoyned by this Or any other Act to be taken by the Governours or Commanders in Cheif in other his Maj'ly's Colonyes and plantacons; By this act you may please to observe it is required that you be approved by his Maj'ly to be signified as is aforemenconed and that you likewise take the said Oaths before you can be sufficiently Qualified to Execute the Office of Governour or Com- ander in Cheif of any Propriety, and for as much as it doth not appear that you have Complyed therewith Wee are of Opinion that it is not convenient for us to treat with any Person or Persons by you appointed to agree upon and settle this affair between these two Colonyes; Therefore all further pro- ceedings therein Must for the present be suspended untill you can give an Account thereof to those persons for whom You are Concerned and shall Obtain such Approbacon and Quali- fyacon as by the act of Parliament aforemenconed is directed and required I on my parte shall take care that our proceed- ings Herein may be layd before his Majesty for his further comands thereupon and I hope by the next fall to receive such Direccons as shall be thought necessary; I desire likewise that you on your parte will take Care to obtain such Qualificacons and Instrucccons as are requisite for you by the Consent of Mr.

PORTRAITS OF F. S. KEY.

My mother, who was the eldest child of Francis Scott Key, author of "The Star-Spangled Banner," and who died September 9th, 1897, at the age of nearly 94 years, told me that John Randolph of Roanoke and her father had their portraits painted for exchange, but that Randolph did not like Key's portrait and gave it to her. It is of small size.
Now I notice in Garland's Life of John Randolph of Roanoke, in a letter from Randolph to Key on page 86 of Volume 2, May 7th, 1816, he writes of the intention of giving the artist—Wood, of Washington, D. C.—a last sitting for his portrait and his expectation of having Key's portrait in return, and in a letter dated Richmond, April 29, 1818, on page 96, he says: "On my arrival here the day before yesterday I found the picture and the picture frame which poor L. left for me. Wood has again failed, but not so entirely as at first. It is you in some of your humors, but neither your serious nor more cheerful face. It shall hang, however, near my bed, and I hope will prove a benefit as well as a pleasure to me."

Now it seems likely that the picture which Randolph gave to my mother was Wood's first and less successful attempt, and if so, that there may be in Virginia his second and better portrait of Key, which Randolph so actually received, framed, at Richmond, and was about to take to his home. Can any of your readers tell where such a portrait may be looked for? It would probably be a small one.

What has become of John Randolph's effects?

Randolph's portrait was in possession of one of Francis Scott Key's grandchildren a few years ago.

My mother told me anecdotes about Randolph, who was often at her father's house in Georgetown and was warmly attached to her father and his family. On one occasion he was jostled on the street in Washington by some elaborately dressed member of a foreign diplomatic corps. He turned to his servant Juba and asked in his high voice, "Who's that Juba?" "Dunno, Massa." "Puppy, Juba, hey Juba?" "Speck so, Massa." But I think these anecdotes have appeared in print.

I have some fine engravings which Randolph brought back from Europe and gave to my mother. I have also a number of letters which passed between Randolph and Key—from each to the other.

NOTES FROM THE RECORD OF CHARLES CITY COUNTY.

[The records of Charles City County suffered greatly at the hands of the soldiers of M'Clellan's army. Books and papers of all kinds up to about 1735 were destroyed or carried away. The same fate befell all the will books prior to 1770, and so far as the compiler could discover, there are no deed books prior to 1767 left. The order books (court proceedings) beginning about 1735 are fairly continuous to the end of the colonial period. Of dates later than the Revolution a number of books remain as do many marriage bonds].

NOTES AND QUERIES.

Richard C. Anderson.

In the Virginia Magazine Vol. XX, No. 2, April 1912, p. 191, it is made to appear that Richard C. Anderson was Major in the 6th Virginia Feb. 10, 1778.

He never was in the sixth.

"Department of State, Washington, D. C.

Richard C. Anderson, Captain Commanding 5th Regiment 2d, June, 1778," W. Hunter, 2d Assist. Sec'y. Commission (which Heitman says he saw) Richard C. Anderson, Major 1st Va. to date from Feb. 10, 1778, issued at Philadelphia 20th March 1779, by His Ex'cy John Jay. He went into the 1st Virginia and remained as a Major of the 1st until after the war (having for a few weeks obtained permission to be Adjutant-General for General Nelson) —Edward L. Anderson.

It is again a subject of regret that pressure of other work compels Messrs Flagg and Waters to postpone their next instalment to the April Number.

Poindexter—Jones.

In vol. XX No. 2. April 1912, this Mag. p. 222, last paragraph is found "Thomas Poindexter, justice of Louisa county, 1766, married Lucy, daughter of Gabriel Jones, 'the Valley Lawyer,' and had issue:— 1. John, —— 2. Thomas, born 1760, —— 3. Gabriel, born 1758."

I have seen a number of publications giving a brief sketch of this Gabriel Jones, and naming his children, but I have never before read that he had a daughter named Lucy. It would have been impossible for a daughter of his to have been a mother in 1758 or in 1760, for the reason that he did not marry until 1749. (see Publications Southern History Association vol. II No. 2. April 1898, pp. 157-158; Buckners of Virginia and allied families of Strother and Ashby, by Crozier, pp. 222-223.

Margaret Strother, daughter of William Strother ³ (Wm. ², Wm. ¹), and Margaret Watts, married first, George Mason, April 6, 1744, (see Overwharton Parish Register, Stafford County), married second, Gabriel Jones, "The Valley Lawyer," Oct. 6, 1749. (see Annals of Augusta County, Va., by James A. Waddell, Supplement 1888. pp. 392-3.)

There were several different Gabriel Joneses in Virginia during the lifetime of "The Valley Lawyer." Capt. Gabriel Jones lived in Culpeper county where he died in 1777, testate, and I have just received from the records at Culpeper C. H., a brief abstract of his will as follows ——
Will Book 'B' pp. 229-230, will of Gabriel Jones, date, 3rd. Sept. 1776, Mentions Ann Waller as grandmother of Ann Jones, his daughter. If said Ann dies without issue her part to be divided between my living wife and four children,"—Robert, Gabriel, Francis Slaughter, Mary. "In case all die without issue I desire the same may goe Descend & be Divided amongst my four sisters, Lucy Poindexter, Betty Green, Jane Gray, and Dorothy Johnston." (signed) "Gabriel Jones (L. S.)"

For history of this Jones Family, by Judge John W. Jones, see same book, Part II. pp. 89-94.

An honorable descendant of this Jones family was the late Judge Wm. C. Jones of St. Louis, Mo., who for many years was my warm personal friend.

PRINCE EDWARD COUNTY IN THE FRENCH WAR.

John Morton, Gentleman, who was in the late war between Great Britain and France a Lieutenant in the company of volunteers, By order from Governor Dinwiddie joined Major Andrew Lewis' detachment from the first Virginia Regiment of Regulars raised in the then Colony now Commonwealth, came into Court and made oath that he was an inhabitant of Virginia, and that he served in the office aforesaid, and that this is the first time of his making claim to lands under the King of Great Britain's Proclamation of October 1763, or obtaining a certificate therefor, and that during his continuance in the service he was governed by the Articles of War which governed regular soldiers and received pay as of Lieutenant of Regulars. Ordered that the same be certified.

Thomas Morton, 2nd Lieutenant in same service, made oath to the same as above. Ordered that the same be certified.

Richard Foster and John Morton were Charter trustees of Hampden Sidney College in 1783. In 1780 Richard Foster was chosen a vestryman of St. Patrick’s parish, Prince Edward County. John Gaulding, or one of his name, is still remembered in Prince Edward County—there is a jungle on Little Buffalo Creek that the old inhabitants call Galdentown.]

BAYLOR LETTERS.

[After the treaty between the United States and Great Britian which authorized them, many suits were brought in the U. S. Courts by citizens of Great Britain against citizens of the United States to recover pre-Revolutionary debts. Many of these appear in the old records of the United States Courts at Richmond and the papers recorded in the various cases contain much matter of interest. The letters which follow, down to the letter of Edmund Pendleton are copied from the record of a suit against the estate of Col. John Baylor, of “Newmarket”, Caroline Co. It is evident that, when copied into the record, portions of the letters had become illegible. The Pendleton and Frere letters were furnished by the late A. G. Baylor.

Col. John Baylor was born May 12, 1705, and died April 16, 1772. He was educated at Putney Grammar School and Caius College, Cambridge; married Frances, daughter of Jacob Walker, and had (with other issue) a son, John, born Sept. 4, 1750, and died Feb. 5, 1808. He married Nov. 8, 1778, 1t St. Olave, Hart Street, London, Frances, daughter of John Norton, of Gould Square, London. Like his father he was educated at Putney and Caius. The relationship to the Freres was through John Norton's mother.

Col. Baylor, the elder, lived in a manner which, followed by the troubled times of Revolution, hopelessly involved his estate. His son on his return to Virginia had to sell much property. The famous Fearnought was only one of many horses imported by John Baylor, Sr.

It is with infinite pleasure I acquaint you that I am in hopes to succeed in my present intentions, it being the advice of my Friends when I am settled & which I hope will be in a short Time will give you [illegible] information on that Head.

Mr. Morse has been kind enough to promise that he would deliver this letter safe to you as it wou’d be a kind of introduction to him in our Fami.y which he seems to be fond of, and doubt not but he will comply with his promise.

By Capt. Fox I have wrote you a long Letter which I hope will be agreeable in every respect, it chiefly concerned the future Plan of my Education and doubt not but you will take it into proper consideration.

The taxes will be repealed except that of the Tea.

From Edmund Pendleton to Col. Baylor

Feb. 4, 1772.

Dr. Sir,

As I thought you had a good stock of wine, I supposed that article had slip't into yr letter by mistake & exam’ the messenger he s’d you had bottled wine & desired if I could not send any wine both juggs might be filled with Rum—From hence I concluded you wanted some common wine for ordinary use to save yr good & as I have none but a little in bottles, I send both juggs in Rum of a little that is left of my old Rum. I have spared you the small jugg for your own use, the other is not bad, but not quite so mellow.

If the boy is mistaken about the wine and you are out I will share my small parcel with you rather than you shall suffer. I should have set off for the Assembly to day if the weather had been tolerable and shall go as soon as I think I can travel with a degree of safety.

The General business of the country and not any particular occasion calls us together & I suppose the General Court will terminate our sitting, but I propose if well to visit my family about the 1st of March.

I wish you sincerely a better state of health & am Dr. yr affectionate Servt Edm'd Pendleton.

(Below see copy of an old letter which I got some years ago from Aunt Jane Clayton's in Chesterfield Co, near Richmond Va. and it is from this source I have succeeded in renewing the acquaintance of some of our English relatives by letter after a lapse of nearly eighty or a hundred years. I have heard that there was a letter from Miss Susan Frere written from Gibraltar to some one of the New-Market family about 1830 but that so far as was remembered no one answered it.

Baltimore in partnership with his brother Hon. Robert James Brent. In 1870 he married Rosella, youngest daughter of Hon. Duncan Farrar Kenner, and his wife Nanie Bringier, dau. of Michael Douradon Bringier, and shortly afterwards removed to Louisiana and assumed the management of large estates in which his wife was interested—Served two terms in the Louisiana legislature and was President of the State Agricultural Society.

After his return to Maryland, about 1887, he was made deputy governor general from Maryland of the Society of Colonial wars and President of the Maryland Sons of the American Revolution—Died at Baltimore Nov. 27, 1905 leaving his widow and two children, Duncan Kenner Brent, a lawyer in Baltimore and Miss Nanine Brent.

He was noted for his modesty, his gentleness, his purity of character and his devotion to duty.

VIVIAN BRENT.

Vivian Brent youngest son of William Leigh and Maria Fenwick Brent was born at Pamomkey the old Fenwick estate in Charles County, Maryland on the 22d of March 1831. When young he went to Louisiana with his parents, and later was sent to Georgetown College for his education. In 1849 he entered the law office of his distinguished brother Robert James Brent in Baltimore. He practised law in Baltimore and in Charles County, Maryland. Was editor of the Southern Maryland Independent and took a prominent part in politics, being a member of the Constitutional Convention called soon after the war. In 1882 Mr. Brent was appointed by President Cleveland as Assistant Attorney in the Interior Department and thereafter made his home in Washington. In 1888 he was offered but declined an appointment as Territorial Judge of Utah, on which occasion he received a flattering testimonial from Mr. Justice Lamar.

Mr. Brent married in 1857 Josephine, daughter of Col. William D. Merrick, U. S. Senator from Maryland. Their children died in infancy. Perhaps to this fact can be traced the devotion that existed between Judge Brent and his niece Josephine Brent Merrick, the constant companion of his later years.

He died at Hammond Court, his home in Georgetown, D. C., June 28, 1906.

THE BEVERLEY FAMILY

Since the publication of the account of Robert Beverley, of "Blandfield" (XX, 332) several copies of old letters sent to the Historical So ciety a number of years ago have been examined. These Copies were sent by Mr. R. M. Fowler, of London, England, who had inherited them from R. McKenzie Beverley, of Yorkshire, the last male descendant of William Beverley (son of Robert, of "Blandfield") who settled in England. These letters show that Robert Beverley of "Blandfield," was educated at Wakefield School, Yorkshire and, probably, at Trinity College, Cambridge. The following letter is addressed to Beilby Porteus, Bishop of Chester & London, whose parents were Virginians. The Nelson referred to was Thomas Nelson, signer of the Declaration of Independence. McKenzie was probably Robert McKenzie, former of Virginia, and a Captain in Washington's regiment in the French and Indian War, who became an officer in the English army and was wounded at Bunker Hill. A Virginian writing shortly after battle seems to be pleased by the fact that "Bob McKenzie" had been hit—no doubt because he thought he was on the wrong side.

Robt Beverley named two sons after his friends McKenzie and Bradshaw.

My lord

Through the channel of our common friend Mackenzie I have frequently had the pleasure of hearing of your welfare, & of the civilities you have shewn my son. I have at the request of my friend Mr. Bradshaw of Daug in Lancashire, formerly of Trinity sent my second son to his care & patronage—He is situated by the recommendation of Dr. Carr under a Mr. Andrews at Highgate much to his satisfaction—Both my sons will, I hope, make more of the opportunities thrown in their way, than their father did—As we grow old, we discover our youthful follies, but not being able to remedy them, nothing is left us but to lament we did not think otherwise, & to beg our chilren to observe greater circumspection in the days of their youth—

Yr former pupil Nelson is well; he continues to be the same generous, benevolent man as when you knew him, & is as well as myself, the father of a very large family.

Having proceeded thus far, I must take the liberty of introducing a subject of another nature, in w'h I wish to interest you in behalf of a gentleman, whose honor, probity, politeness & understanding hath rendered him for a length of years one of my most valuable friends—this gentlemen's name is Power, a native of this Country, but educated with me for some years at Wakefield in Yorkshire—After his return to Virginia, he applied himself to the law, & before the war practised at the bar with very considerable applause & success—The stoppage of the courts of justice & the continuance of the war at once cut off his resources, & he was thereby induced to accept of an agency in the purchase & adjustment of two estates in London & Devonshire—Since the peace took place our legislature hath thought proper to make a discrimination between those citizens who left us during the progress of the war,
& those, who remained here—This is necessarily an impediment to Mr. Power's return, & deprives him at once of those opportunities, w'h his abilities & connexions here induced him to calculate upon. I must therefore request you, if it lies in your way, to assist in procuring some civil appointment for him—He will himself explain the particulars, & in so doing, you will serve a worthy man, & confer a lasting obligation on, My dear Lord,

Your Lordships most obed't

Robert Beverley
Blandfield Virginia 25 Nov. 1784.

Right rev'd Beilby Porteus Bishop of Chester—

There is a memorandum on the back in Mr R. M. Beverley's writing.

N. B. This letter proves that R. Beverley father of W. Beverley was educated at Wakefield, Yorkshire.

The other letters are to his son William.

A copy of a letter from Robert Beverley to William Beverley—The first sheet is, lost.

in no degree, be compared to the base servility which history records in the days of the worst Roman Emperors, but are perfectly consonant to the primitive spirit of Belgic republicanism & equality. As to the general bent of our politics, I flatter myself they will continue to tend to peace, arts, manufactures & commerce, from the cultivation of which only we can expect to flourish—

Reports say that G. B. is again entering on war—surely they are a strange people who must eternally under the idea of a balance of power & the protection of commerce, be interfering in the politics of every nation on earth—I profess not to be an adept in politics, but if the British nation should spend as much money in making peace between Russia & Turkey, as she did on the Nootka Sound business, Mr Pitts name will not stand very high in the page of futurity—

In my last I informed you that my boot legs are not yet come to hand—The encyclopedia has at length gotten Mr Mitchell's trunk as far as Rosegill; in a month, I may expect to get them—I must request you will procure the saddles mentioned in my last as soon as you can, & least my former order should miscarry, I now repeat it, viz.

a saddle of the best & plainest sort for myself—the top skirt short, & the lower one long, sufficiently so, to obviate every inconvenience arising from the sweat of the horse in the hot weather—the padding to be thick & within one inch of the lowest part of the skirt—polished steel stirrups & neat plain bridle with steel bits—a good portmanteau saddle & pliion for Harry, with skirts & padding similar to mine—spare paddings & girths to each saddle—with swollen saddle cloths—Let them be sent by the first opportunity to this river, or Norfolk, with duplicate bills of lading—if by the way of Norfolk, to the care of Mr John Granberry, Mr Andersons correspondent there. These saddles to be made precisely as yours were only that the underskirt & paddings must be somewhat longer—

In one of my former letters I requested you would take in a paper, w'h contains the most foreign & domestic news—the parliamentary debates engross so much of some of them, as not to suit my purpose, as I do not find myself much interested in them—

Present my most affectionate wishes to Mackenzie & Robinson, to the last of whom I will write by Flynn, & assure yourself that I am, dear William,

Very sincerely yours

Robert Beverley

Copy of a letter from Robert Beverley to William Beverley
There is no envelope or endorsement.

My dear William

My last letter of June was written in answer to yours of Jan. 1st relative to the provision I have promised you, & I flatter myself, upon the receipt of it, both you & your wife will be more at ease, for I can with truth assure you, that it is my wish you should be so—Our friend Bradshaw, in mentioning the frequent miscarriages, laments you not having a child live born, as all your wife's fortune would go from you—this was a circumstance, wh' I was not apprized of before, nor indeed have I ever been able to guess at the size or situation of that fortune—sometimes I have been led to believe, from reports, that it was such as would enable you to enjoy every convenience & comfort. Be that as it may, I should hope your wife will make every provision for you, which she can have in her power.

We have had indefinitely the wettest summer ever known, & all the wheat, below the falls of every river, is so much injured both in quantity & quality, as to curtail more than half our hopes—In Culpeper, where it was put into the ground in proper time, it will be better than usual, but unfortunately my best overseer, from the circumstance of his having a good crop of tob’o, was too late, consequently his wheat yields nothing—the wet weather too is unfavourable to tob’o, but has given us the best crops of corn ever known. I am just returned from Culpeper, where I am pleased to find your brother Robert is devoted to the improvement of his property, is become quite economical, & seems quite as much pleased with retirement as I am—his establishment is small, but, with frugality, will give him all the decencies of life; & when a young man has determined to create a family, they are as much as anybody here has a title to expect—

I have sent a cask containing eight very fine hams, w’h are as many as the captain would undertake to deliver, because both M’r Wormley & M’r Grymes have some on board, & therefore it would not be practicable to land a greater quantity: & I have often heard you say they were not worth the duty—if you be of another opinion at this time, you will say so, & you shall be better supplied—Your mother sends you some sweetmeats, & I could make you a present of peach brandy, would the captains undertake to land it, or you should think it worth the duty—our excises have run the price here up to two dollars p’r gallon in the stores—

Sometime ago I sent an old shoe to the care of M’r Backhouse, which, he said, he should forward to M’r Anderson, & I then requested you would send me a few pairs according to the instructions contained in the shoe—those you sent last were too wide—I also requested a coat & four summer waistcoats, which, as they are not yet made I beg may be lined with linen—you know I wish for everything cheap & plain—I now send to the care of Messrs Anderson & Co. an old boot; it is an inch too long in the leg, & greatly too large in the ankle—the calf & foot are right—I shall thank you for one very thin pair of calfskin boots for the summer, & another, not thick, for the winter—they are both to be double vamped, with turn down tops, not sewed, a loop behind for a garter—the leather to be perfectly soft & neatly made—two sets of spur leathers, which are not to be stuffed. M’r Anderson will pay you—

Our politics have undergone no revolution since my last, unless, perhaps, the violent or factious party may not have increased. Should M’r Jay’s embassy be successful I shall hope that our government may acquire a little stability—The government of G. B. seems to have or, possibly, to take more energy, than I once thought it possessed—Riot & insurrection seem to bow their heads; Priestley’s excursion hither, & the frequent remittances to Botany Bay may compose the minds of the people, although I am of opinion that the absurdity of M’r Pitts politics in continual armaments, & his interference in the politics of the continent must give great & just cause for national complaint—So stupid am I, that I have never yet been able to penetrate into the greatness of his father, or himself—there have been more of vanity ostentation & a thirst of power than national benefits—
As to any occurences, w'h may have fallen in the circle of your acquaintance, I leave them to your sisters, & other correspondents, who will detail them more exactly than I can.

Present my love to your wife, & assure yourself that I am most sincerely yours

(signed) Robert Beverley

Blandfield 22' Aug. 1794.

Will you enquire of M'r John Page why his brother has not sent my annual pipe of red port—it is a disappointment for madeira is now so dutied as to suit very few purses in this country—

That my may fit me as well as possible, I have taken a measure according to taylors directions, w'h will be found in the leg of the old boot, by comparing them both with orders, perhaps they may be made to fit me. I likewise beg that you will send me a saddle of the best materials; the underskirt to be longer than usual & the padding to extend with half an inch of the lowest part of the skirt— & this padding to be very thick—I am thus particular, because you must remember how very much we are incommoded with sweat in the summer. Plain steel stirrups & buckles, no crupper—a bridle with two bitts; no heavy or unnecessary work, & the reins not broad.

I wish to have everything made of the best & plainest materials—two flannel saddle cloths. You will recollect that our horses, generally, are not so wide upon the withers as in England—six yards of spare girting.

I should be glad of my boots by the first opportunity, as I am much in need of them—

POINDEXETER FAMILY.

SKETCHES OF LOUISA IN OLDEN TIMES.

As already stated Thomas Poindexter left seven Sons viz., John, James, Robert, Thomas, Richard, Gabriel and George Poindexter. His oldest son, John, was born in this county and brought up in the clerk's office under the instruction of John Nelson who was appointed clerk of the court in 1766, succeeding James Littlepage and held the office during the remainder of his life.

I shall have something more to say of Nelson hereafter. John Poindexter entered the clerk's office in 1773 and served under Nelson until 1790, when the latter dying, Poindexter was elected in his place by the Justices composing the County Court.

During his service in the clerk's office other young men were with him learning the business of clerks, among them (though much older) was Mr. John Timberlake, the first clerk of Fluvanna (1777,) who held the office between thirty and forty years, and was then succeeded by one of his sons. I shall say nothing as to the Timberlakes as their connection with the county so far as the subject of these sketches is concerned terminated with Mr. John Timberlake's connection in the clerk's office under John Nelson. John Poindexter held the office of clerk of the County Court of Louisa down to the 28th day of September 1820 on which day he died. He also held the office of clerk of the Circuit Court of Law from the formation of that court till his death. For this period of thirty years no man acted a more prominent and conspicuous part in all matters relating to the county than John Poindexter.

The idea prevailed then as it does now that the clerks of the courts knew everything in relation to legal proceedings, and hence he seems to have prepared wills, deeds etc., to a very great extent, showing the confidence the people had in him, and as far as the records show (and I have no doubt truely) that confidence was never abused by him.

In 1790 he attached himself to the Baptist church being baptised on the 29th of June and was ordained to the ministry in that denomination on the 3rd. of February 1792, and was chosen pastor of the Baptist Church at "The Roundabout" in April of that year, and continued that relation down to at least the 30 of May 1814, and how much longer I am unable to say with accuracy.

The Roundabout church was situated about eight miles south of Louisa C. H. It was burned down during the lifetime of John Poindexter or soon after his death and has never been rebuilt. Only a few persons of this generation recollect where the church stood.

He served other churches for over a period of twenty-five years, but about this I do not purpose to say any thing as his services as a Baptist Minister are stated in the "Virginia Baptist Ministers."

He was married three times. His first wife was a Miss Green by whom he had only one child, William G. Poindexter, who died many years ago leaving descendants; among them the present wife of the Hon. A. R. Holladay of Henrico County, Va., and the late Henry Poindexter whom every one in this County well remembers as one of the best informed, social, genial, and good natured men. He deserves to have a better tribute paid him than can be done in these sketches. The writer is only saying something in reference to the "Old Time Men."

John Poindexter's second wife was a Miss Johnson by whom he had the following children, viz: Nicholas, John, Thomas. Andrew, Waller, Lucy Jones (who died unmarried) and Mary, who married Garrett M. Quareles. The descendants of this marriage now reside in Kentucky and Tennessee. Two of them have been greatly distinguished and have been honored by their respective States filling most important offices. Nicholas removed to the State of Kentucky and died there many years ago, leaving children. Among the sons he left was George Gilmer Poindexter one of the most promising and rising young men in all that Country at the time of his death. Thomas died in Virginia leaving children, two sons and a daughter.

He married a Miss Schooler, near Fredericksburg, Va. Andrew died in this County unmarried. Waller was married to a Miss Talley of Goochland County, and removed to Kentucky where he died years ago, leaving children; their names are not known to me. John is still living in Kentucky, now an old man, and if these sketches should fall under his eye, he might supply much in reference to the Poindexters that the writer has left out for want of accurate information.

John Poindexter’s third wife was Margaret Maer of N. C. to whom he was married in 1813, leaving by this marriage one daughter, Mrs. Frances E. Thompson who now resides at Louisa Court House. His last wife survived him some thirty years and died at the place now owned by Mrs. A. W. Talley, in 1850. The writer of these sketches was at the funeral discourse which was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Mylne and pronounced by an old college friend who was with him at the time to be one of the best discourses he had ever listened to. Mr. Mylne and his college friend have both passed away to that “Undiscovered Country” (This by the way.)

Elder John Poindexter, (I will thus call him to distinguish him) was a gentleman of the most decided character with a strong and vigorous intellect tinctured to a great extent with the prevailing ideas of the day as is fully shown by all his writings now extant.

As a clerk he was a faithful and efficient officer as the records fully testify; not however drawn with the same accuracy of expression and preciseness as those under Littlepage’s administration many years before.

I take it that his ministerial duties engrossed a good deal of his time and that in making up his records he was more impressed with the substance than the forms of his entries in the records.

This can however be said that the “Records of the Court” under this administration would compare very favorably with many of the present day in this State.

During John Poindexter’s clerkship the clerk’s office for a portion of the time was kept at his house which is now the residence of Capt Wm. Meade a grandson of Bishop Meade, and known as “Winston Hall”. Afterwards it was kept at the present residence of A. H. Talley where Poindexter lived and died. He removed from “Winston Hall” to this place. For several years before the present Courthouse was built (1817) the clerk’s office was kept in a room of the old jail which I mentioned in a former number as having been burned in (1866) I shall say something of the brothers of Elder John Poindexter hereafter.

THE ANCESTORS AND DESCENDANTS OF JOHN ROLFE WITH NOTICES OF SOME CONNECTED FAMILIES.

[This is part of an unpublished and unfinished section of a projected book which was to treat of "The Colonial Councillors of Virginia and Their Descendants." The biographical portion was nearly completed; but the account of the descendants of John Rolfe, the earliest councillor whose descendants can be traced, showed, even though this is not complete, that the preparation of the genealogies would be a work which would require more time than the compilers could possibly spare. It was not proposed to reprint the later generations treated of in well-known and reliable works, such, for instance, as those in Robertson's Descendants of Pocahontas; but to give references to them. The plan also was that where one branch of a family was descended, through female lines, from one councillor, while another branch could trace, also through females, to another, to give the whole family under the earliest councillor who appeared. This explains some of the Flemings and their descendants, the Webbs, appearing here. Some of the Flemings descended from John Rolfe, while others traced through the Randolphs to the Pages, who were councillors. In addition there were to be notes and addenda in regard to connected families not directly descended from any member of the Council]

ROLFE OF HEACHAM.

The family of Rolfe was resident from an early date in the County of Norfolk, England. The immediate ancestors of John Rolfe lived at Heacham near King’s Lynn in that County, and the earliest record of the direct line is of two brothers, Robert and Eustace Rolfe, who were born at Heacham about 1539. Robert married Margaret Crowe and was ancestor of a prominent family at Lynn, and Eustace Rolfe married at Heacham, May 27, 1560, Joanna Jenner. Eustace and Joanna had a son John Rolfe, of Heacham, who was born October 17, 1562, married Dorothea Mason, Sept. 24, 1582, died in 1594, and was buried at Heacham Church, December 1st of that year.

In the Church is a brass with a Latin inscription to this John Rolfe. The following is a translation which has been furnished us:

"John Rolfe, gentleman, of Hitcham, died on the twenty-ninth day of November, in the year of our Lord, 1594, in the thirty-second year of his age. While he lived he was of much service to his fellows; his wish to enrich all his neighbors and kinsfolk by assisting the poor with his wealth; nothing could be kinder than he was; he bore the insults of many men quietly without offence; by exporting and importing such things as England abounded in or needed, he was of the greatest service, inasmuch as he spent both pains and labor upon it. Thus he seemed to die as the force of fire is quenched by excess of water. For his strength was unimpaired, nor had he completed many years when he died. His death brought grief to many, but he had done nobly upon the consciousness of a well spent life, and the record of many benefits not allowed to die utterly:"

John Rolfe had, no doubt, been a successful merchant at Lynn. The Heacham register shows that John and Dorothea (Mason) Rolfe had, with other issue, 1. Eustace, and 2. John (twins) baptized May 6, 1585; 3. Edward, baptized Feb. 22, 1591. There was another son, Henry, afterwards a merchant in London and a member of the Virginia Company, who is included in a manuscript pedigree mentioned by Mrs. Jones in her Old Sandringham.

The Rolles of Heacham Hall long remained among the gentry of Norfolk. One of them was sheriff of the county about 1760. In 1837 S. C. E. Neville Rolfe, Esq., who assumed the name and arms, succeeded to the property. The well-known portrait of Pocahontas descended to the present time through the Rolles and their relations in Norfolk.

Heacham Hall has been in part rebuilt and enlarged, but a considerable portion of the old house remains and is shown in the accompanying illustration.

Two English books Old Sandringham, by Mrs. Herbert Jones, and The King's Homeland contain interesting notices of Heacham and the Rolles.

When the first instalment of this genealogy appeared an examination of the records of Richmond and King George Counties appeared to show that Thomas Turner had only one wife, Martha Taliaferro. But since this publication of the last instalment Vol. V of the Acts of the (English) Privy Council, Colonial Series has been received and gives the record of a suit which shows that Thomas Turner married twice and also explains his unusually large gifts to a daughter's children. On pages 128, 129, under date 1769, is entry of an appeal to the Privy Council from Virginia in the suit of Dixon vs. Turner. It is stated that Col. Thomas Turner had by his first marriage, two sons Harry and Thomas, and by his second, a daughter Sarah who married Edward Dixon. Harry married Elizabeth Smith and died in 1751 leaving an only child Thomas. His (Harry's) brother, Thomas Turner the younger, died intestate in 1747, leaving a son Harry and a daughter Sally who married Walker Taliaferro. The record also states that Mrs. Elizabeth Turner, wife of Harry (son of Col. Thomas) had father and brother each named Nicholas Smith.

The name of Thomas Turner's other wife is not certainly known; but as Sarah, wife of Thomas Turner, of King George, gent., released her dower in a tract of land (formerly bought by him in 1725), which he sold by deed, Spotsylvania County, Aug. 1, 1732, the second wife was, no doubt named Sarah.

Col. Thomas^1 Turner married first, in 1714, Martha, daughter of Richard Taliaferro, and secondly, Sarah—

Issue (1st m.). 2. Harry^2 (of whom later); 3. Thomas^3, of Spotsylvania Co. He was appointed a Justice of that County in 1742, married Mary Taliaferro, and died intestate, according to the English record, in 1747. This probably should be 1757, as in 1753 Thos. Turner of King George, gent, and Thomas Turner, the younger of Spotsylvania Co., gent, and Mary his wife, made a deed in Spotsylvania. On Nov. 7, 1749, by deed in Spotsylvania it was recited that Charles Taliaferro the elder, late of Caroline Co., by his will March 2, 1734, left 570 acres, called Motts, to his granddaughters Mary and Sarah Taliaferro, and that Mary married Thomas Turner Jr, and Sarah married Francis Conway. Thomas^2 and Mary (Taliaferro) Turner had issue (a.) Thomas^3, alive 1769, no further information; (b.) Sally^4 married Walker Taliaferro. Col. Thomas^1 Turner had issue (by 2d m.) 4. Sarah^2, married Edward Dixon; 5. Mary^2, unmarried 1757.

2. Major Harry^2 Turner (Thomas^1), of King George County, born —, died 1751; was vestryman of Hanover parish, clerk of King George County 1742-1751, and member of the House of Burgesses for King George County at the sessions beginning May 1742, Sept. 1744' Feb. 1745, July 1746, March 1747, October 1748, and April 1749. H* married Elizabeth, daughter and co-heiress of Col. Nicholas Smithe of King George County (whose residence "Smith's Mount" is now in Westmoreland County) and acquired with her a large estate. The will of Major Harry Turner, if he made one, is in the missing King George County will book; but the inventory of his personal estate is still on record. It includes "a parcel of books" valued at £11.5; 5 maps in gilt frames £3; 69 pictures in gilt frames £6; silver plate £104; 2 sets tea spoons £4; a case with one dozen silver hafted knives and one dozen table-spoons £20; 66 negroes &c; total values of personal estate £8,402.12.5, Dated Sept. 6, 1753.

At "Smith's Mount" was formerly the tomb of Mayor Harry Turner, bearing the arms (as given on the book-plate) and the following inscription:
"Beneath this Marble
Are deposited the remains of
MAJOR HARRY TURNER
1751
And ELIZABETH his wife
1752
Who with Credit and Esteem
Possessed and enjoyed
An Ample Fortune
From which Unerring Wisdom
Thought fit to snatch them
In their Bloom
Together with three Sons
Who all dyed
In their infancy"

This tomb has been now removed to the Episcopal Chapel at Port Conway, King George.

Harry and Elizabeth (Smith) Turner had issue, to survive, an only son: 6. Thomas* ((of whom later)

Col. THOMAS* TURNER, of "Walsingham" and "Smith's Mount," born —, died 1787. He was a member of the King George County Committee of Safety 1774-76, and after the change of county boundaries lived in Westmoreland where he died. He married Jane, daughter of William Fauntleroy, of "Naylor's Hole," Richmond Co. His will was dated June 2, 1787 and proved in Westmoreland County October 30, 1787. Legatees: wife Jane, daughter Elizabeth Cocke, daughter Jean, youngest daughter Mary Turner, to eldest son Henry Smith Turner, the plantation called Smith's Mount, to sons Thomas and George the plantation called Nanzatico, to be equally divided, to son Richard the plantation opposite Port Royal adjoining the town of Port Conway; back lands to be equally divided between sons.

*Nicholas Smith, of "Smith's Mount", Richmond and King George (now Westmoreland) County, was long a wealthy planter. It appears in the Records of Richmond County that on March 6, 1704-5, Captain Nicholas Smith filed a claim for pay for the troop under his Command tor services against the Indians. From 1705 he was for many years a Justice of Richmond County. He died in 1734. In King George County on May 3, 1734 administration on the estate of Nicholas Smith, gent., was granted to his widow Elizabeth, who gave bond in the sum of £10,000 current money, with William Thornton, John Champe and Anthony Haynie, securities. They had two children, Elizabeth, eventually sole heiress, who married Harry Turner, and Nicholas, who died unmarried. In King George, Oct. 1, 1742, Nicholas and Elizabeth Smith chose Thomas Turner their guardian. Dennis McCarty had been the guardian of Elizabeth.

Nicholas Smith Sr. was buried at "Smith's Mount", with the following epitaph:

"Here lies the body of Colo. Nicholas Smith, Son of Nicholas and Efsob'ah Smith, born at London the 4th day of Sepbr. 1666. Married his wife in the 23d year of his age by whom he had no child. Married his second wife in the year 1722, by whom he had three children one son and two daughters. Departed this life 18th day of March 1734 in the 68th year of his age."
BOOK REVIEWS.

A HISTORY OF HIGHLAND COUNTY VIRGINIA, BY OREN F. MORTON, B. L. Author of "Under the Cottonwoods," A History of Pendleton County, W. Va. (&c.-&c.) Monterey, Va., Published by the Author, pp. 419, with maps and nine illustrations.

A county in the heart of the Alleghenies must naturally be somewhat apart from great historic events; but its very remoteness and unlikeness to the more accessible regions to the east add an interest to its history.

It is a remote section even now and its distance, from the centres of government and trade along the Atlantic in early days, is hard even now to conceive.

Highland is now a flourishing county, but for a long period its people were almost the most advanced pioneers, so that its history and the life of its people are different, from those of most of our counties of which histories have been written.

Mr. Morton has done his work with great care, and from the opening chapter on the topography and geology of the County down to the compact genealogies and useful appendices at the end has made a model county history.

FRONTIER DEFENSE ON THE UPPER OHIO, 1777-1778. Compiled from the Draper Manuscripts in the Library of the Wisconsin Historical Society and published at the charge of the Wisconsin Society of the Sons of the American Revolution. Edited by Reuben Gold Thwaites, Superintendent of the Society; and Louise Phelps Kellogg, Ph. D., Editorial Assistant on the Society's Staff (Seal) Madison, Wisconsin Historical Society, 1912, pp. xviii, 329, with index, a map of the frontier of North Western Virginia in the Revolution, and nine portraits, fac similies, &c.

The Wisconsin Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, and the Historical Society of that State have again drawn from that matchless storehouse of Western history, the Draper Collection, material for another valuable book on the history of the country bordering on the Ohio during 1777-78. Readers who are acquainted with the Documentary History of Dunmore's War 1774 and the Revolution on the Upper Ohio, 1775-1777, will know what to expect among the very varied and valuable papers published in this book. It is especially of interest to Virginians as nearly all of the actors in the events described were Virginians, and as the country from Pittsburg to the Kanawha was then within the jurisdiction of this State.

The notes as usual are of great value; but as was the case with the preceding volume, show sometimes a curious dislike to credit Virginia when credit is properly due. For instance on p. 2, it is stated that Fort Pitt was garrisoned by British troops until 1772, then held by Virginians until the end of Dunmore's War and afterwards was occupied by American troops under Col. John Neville. Virginians are Americans; but the word American as used in this Note in contrast with British and Virginian can only have one meaning—troops directly under control of the American Congress. This will no doubt be the idea conveyed to any reader who is not informed.

One must feel that the Editors have been somewhat loose in the use of words when it is known that John Neville was sent to Pittsburg (Fort Duquesne or Pitt) by the Virginian Convention on August 7, 1775 with a company of Virginia troops "the said company to be in the pay, of this Colony from the time of their marching."

Again on p. 5, it is stated that Fort Randolph at the mouth of Great Kanawha was occupied by a company of Virginia Militia under Captain Matthew Arbuckle and one from Pennsylvania under Captain John Robinson, when the very reference the editors give (p 230 of the preceding volume) is an order of the Executive Council of Virginia (Feb. 12, 1777) that a company be raised to garrison Fort Randolph under Captain John Robinson. His company was raised by Virginia's order and he had his commission from the same state.

One or two other Notes may be referred to. On p. 176 it is stated that the origin of the name Staunton is unknown. There can be little doubt that the town was named after Rebecca Staunton wife of Governor Gooch. General Weedon (p.214) died according to Heitman in November 1793.

With genealogical notes of many of the allied families by Joseph Lyon Miller, M. D., member of the Virginia Historical Society, the West Virginia Historical Society, The Filson Club (Ky.) &c., Whittett and Shepperson Printers, Richmond, Virginia. For Sale by Dr. J. L. Miller, Thomas, West Virginia, pp. 388 with 164 illustrations, portraits, views, fac-similis, Seals, Coats of Arms &c., with full index.

No Compiler of a Virginia genealogy has begun work under conditions apparently more discouraging than did Dr. Miller when he undertook an account of the descendants of Captain Thomas Carter of Lancaster Co., Va.
The surname is very numerously represented in entirely unconnected families, and even those who had some experience in tracing Virginia family history only knew that Captain Thomas Carter was a man of prominence in Lancaster County, and that there was a vast number of people of his name probably descended from him.

Captain Carter was a man of local prominence, and his descendants had respectable positions and were generally in comfortable circumstances. The very large number of children in each generation naturally caused much subdivision of property, and prevented the accumulation of any great estates. As Dr. Miller says they were good citizens, leading honourable lives but with few exceptions they were prior to the Revolution not people of prominence. Not only were there numerous representatives of the family in Lancaster and adjacent counties; but the family continued to increase and multiply in a remarkable way and branches spread rapidly to more distant Counties; and later to other States. Since the Revolution many of the descendants of Thomas Carter in his own and other names, have been men of note in the civil and military affairs of the country.

Nothing that industry, minute care and careful consideration of evidence could do, in the examination of public and private records, has been spared and the result is a really remarkable genealogy.

Industry and intelligence have in Dr. Miller’s case (as does not always happen) been rewarded by remarkable good fortune in the discovery of old family records in Bibles, prayer-books, manuscript accounts prepared years ago, old portraits and similar aids to genealogy.

The book is thoroughly well done, and will be of great interest to hundreds of families. It is impossible in our space to give even a list of families treated, in varying degrees of fullness.

There is a good index and many illustrations.

KENTON W. JENKINS

PRESIDENT OF THE

PROCEEDINGS
The Annual Meeting was held at the Society's House, 707 East Franklin Street, on Saturday, February 15th, at 4.30, P. M. The meeting was called to order with President McCabe in the chair.

The first business was the reading of the President's report, (which is printed below). Mr. Robert A. Lancaster, Jr., Treasurer of the Society, read his Annual Report, which is, as usual, here printed with that of the President.

Annual Report of the President of the Virginia Historical Society.

I have the honor to submit the following Report, giving in detail the work of the Society and presenting a precise statement of its condition as to finances, membership, and property for the year ending Nov. 30, 1912.

While no events or enterprises specifically noteworthy have marked the history of the Society during this time, the antiquarian has only to compare the meagre "Proceedings" of eighty years ago when John Marshall (our first President) and Rives and Cushing and other illustrious men essayed with such original material as was known to them, to perpetuate the glories of the "Old Dominion"—one has only to compare what was then done, with the rich and varied contents of our Magazine of to-day (and indeed for a score of years past), to recognize instantly how great has been the advance not only in wealth of original matter, but in the precise methods of its scientific presentation.

Membership

But in one respect these illustrious pioneers and their followers who made the Society possible, were guided by a virtue that we have only partially attained—they paid their debts.

It is, indeed, with a deep-seated repugnance that we have again to dwell on the failure of so many of our members to pay their annual dues and are driven once more to remonstrate with so many delinquents, who are abundantly able to pay, yet, who, through culpable negligence or through an indifference almost cynical, are deaf to the courteous "reminders" of our collector.

If these members could only be brought to realize how their failure to pay their just debts often embarrasses the Society (which scrupulously pays its own), perhaps, they would, for very shame's sake, cease their inexcusable negligence (to use the most charitable phrase), and by prompt payment enable our accomplished Editor and the Executive Committee to broaden the scope of the Magazine in certain directions already mapped out.

In accordance with the warning contained in our last Annual Report, we dropped a considerable number of the most persistent of these delinquents, but the warning was not universally heeded, and it looks as if we shall have within a few weeks to protect ourselves by making use of the same drastic procedure. Let us repeat here that notwithstanding a majority of these delinquents are abundantly able to pay their dues, there was still due the Society at the end of the fiscal year just ended the considerable sum of four hundred dollars.

It is, however, only just to add that some of these have paid, while this report was in preparation.
The Executive Committee is determined to purge our rolls completely of these conscienceless men and women who (to alter Shakespere a trifle) apparently consider it a sign of base slavery ever to pay, and who, regardless of the largely increased cost of bringing out the Magazine, accept our publications as a sort of inherent right.

Nay, more, in the statement given above, there is not included a considerable amount of money due the Society by members, who explicitly pledged themselves to pay dues so long as their names remained on our rolls (be the time long or short), but who finding the Magazine interesting, have not held to their pledges, putting us off with the shabbiest of evasions. Of course, most of this money will never be collected, and "a last appeal" in this case is absolutely useless.

Yet despite all this, the year has been on the whole a materially prosperous one, and it is gratifying to state that, after making all deductions due to our unusually large and mournful necrology, to a few resignations, and to the delinquents dropped (as mentioned above), our membership has increased from 758 to 768, a net gain of ten over last year.

And it is pertinent to draw special attention just here to the fact, that though the payment of dues has not been what we confidently expected after our former purging of the roll, the subjoined Treasurer's Report evidences conclusively that the financial condition of the Society is stronger than ever before.

Treasurer's Report

To The Virginia Historical Society.

I have the honor to submit the following annual report for the fiscal year ending Nov. 30, 1912.

Society’s Fund ....................................... 6750.00

It is very gratifying to note that since the last report the Permanent Fund has increased $1300.00. Of this amount $550.00 was derived from gifts, $300.00 from an increased value of bank stock and $450.00 added by the Committee from the earnings of the Society. This last addition was made in part from the receipts of two years.

Mrs. Byam K. Stevens of New York City has added $50.00 to the gift of her late husband. This amount was duly acknowledged when received but the Executive Committee desires again to thank Mrs. Stevens. The first addition our Permanent Fund received from an individual was from Mr. Stevens and we are not only grateful to Mrs. Stevens for her kindness but glad to have her name on our roll of members.

The gift from the President of the Society to the Permanent Fund, at a time of deep personal sorrow, has caused the Committee to direct me to include in my report and to read to this meeting an expression of our gratitude, affection and sympathy and to assure him that this memorial to one, who in birth and character represented the best traditions of Virginia womanhood, shall be forever preserved.

R. A. LANCASTER, JR.,
Treasurer.

Additions to the Library.

The additions to the Library in books and pamphlets number 569 for the year

In addition (and quite apart from our great number of historical and genealogical "Exchanges"), we have to note, with grateful acknowledgments, the reception of publications from the following institutions and organizations: the Virginia State Library; the St. Andrew's Society of New York; the New York Bible and Prayer-Book Society; the Order of Founders and Patriots of America; the Pennsylvania Society of Colonial Dames; the American Antiquarian Society; the United Daughters of the Confederacy; the Mt. Vernon Ladies' Association; the Commission on Archives of the General Convention of the P. E. Church; the New Hampshire Bible Society; the Royal Society of Canada; the Proceedings of the Society of the Cincinnati in the States of Virginia, of New York, and of Delaware; the Library of Congress; the U. S. National Museum; the Philadelphia Museums; the University of Alabama; the University of North Carolina; Randolph Macon College; the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution; the Southern Society of New York; the American Clan Gregor Society; the Carnegie Institute; and the Department of Archives of the State of New York.

As always in preceding years, our library has been freely open to the public and made constant use of, while it is no exaggeration to say that the great majority of scholarly compilers or authors who have essayed to deal with American Colonial history of the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries or with American genealogies of those periods, have made extensive investigations in our unique manuscript collections.

All accessions to the Library that have come to us unbound, have been carefully catalogued and placed in stout cases (or "binders"), which now number 250. Such pamphlets as are too large for ordinary "binders" have been substantially bound in cloth.

During the year, a large map-case has been placed in our rooms and a portion of "the Gilmer Collection" (an invaluable set of contemporaneous war-maps (1861-64) made under the immediate eye of the distinguished Confederate Chief of Engineers, Major-Gen. J. F. Gilmer, and presented to the Society by his daughter, Mrs. Louise Gilmer Minis, of Savannah, Georgia) has been arranged therein, so as to be easy of access to military students. On close inspection it was decided that the remaining maps needed some minute repairs, and as soon as these repairs are all finished, the maps will be at once placed in their respective cases.

As stated in our last report, this collection of maps is of the first importance to scientific students of the war between the States.

Gifts.

Among other gifts, one of the most notable is a large and handsome book-case which has attached to it a certain historic interest, and which was presented to the society by Miss Woodbridge, Mrs. Goodnow and Mrs Bell, daughters of the Rev Dr. George Woodbridge, Rector for many years of the Monumental church in this city, whom some of us remember to have seen busily drilling the raw levies that every day poured into Richmond from the South, for he was a graduate of West Point, class-mate of Albert Sidney Johnston and a staunch supporter of the Confederate cause from start to finish. This book-case was made to order for President Jefferson Davis, but he for some reason failing to take it, Dr. Woodbridge bought it. It is not only in itself a very handsome piece of furniture, but it has proved of great practical service to us in providing additional shelf-room, of which we still stand in grievous need.

We may note also (1) photographs of the Lee and Davis monuments, given by William G. Stanard, (2) an old Seal ring bearing the arms of Capt. John Smith (not the great John Smith, the virtual founder of Virginia, whose arms are still fraudulently borne by Major-General Sir Baden-Powell, but of Capt. John Smith, a stout Gloucester county farmer), presented to the Society by his direct lineal descendant Mrs. Mary G. Anderson, of Jacksonville, Fla.; (3) the MS. Account Book (1794–1822) of Dr. John Walker, of “Kingston,” Dinwiddie County, Va., presented by Dr. John Walker Broadnax; (4) thirty-one engravings and photographs of the Presidents and Trustees of Hampden-Sidney College, given by Prof. Alfred J. Morrison, the accomplished historian of that famous old seat of learning; (5) a large collection of Confederate currency of all denominations, from the United States Treasury Department; (6) Land Grants signed by the Royal Governors, Farquhar and Dinwiddie, and other MSS. of value, presented by Miss Lucie P. Stone, of Hollins, Va.

All gifts of single manuscripts, photographs, etc., were acknowledged by our Secretary at the time received, but we wish to return our thanks again.

In view of the fact that "dealers" in the rich cities of the North and West are keener than ever before in their quest of MSS. of historic value, offering in a great many instances exorbitant sums for them, and that owners of like MSS. in the South are men of moderate means, who do not feel justified in giving away letters and documents, the price of which would purchase many substantial comforts for those nearest and dearest to them—it is not likely that the Society's Collections will, in the future, be increased by such liberal donations and bequests as in the past.

Publication Committee.

Vol. XX of our Quarterly Magazine was published during 1912 and was conducted on the same high plane that its readers look for in it, both at home and abroad.

The Randolph Manuscript (a compilation of Seventeenth Century Records, the originals of which were long years ago destroyed by fire), which has proved a priceless mine of first-hand information to all recent writers, who have undertaken to tell the story of our earliest Colonial history, ran through the year (covering in the latest instalments the years 1688–90–92), as did also various "Commissions" of Governor Nicholson and Lord Orkney.

The second series of Miscellaneous Colonial Documents, copied from unpublished records in the Virginia State Library, was brought to completion.

Mr. Lathrop Withington, owing to great pressure of professional business, was able to complete but two instalments of his transcripts of the "Minutes of the Council and General Court of Virginia" (1622–24), but this keen antiquarian and indefatigable scholar has recently sent us the remaining transcripts of the first volume, and these will be published promptly and without further interruption.

It may be said, without fear of successful contradiction, that no printed document whatever dealing with early Colonial Virginia history is of more solid and illuminating value than these "Minutes," of which we shall have a word to say further on, when we touch upon our prospective plans.

Mr. Withington's, Virginia Gleanings in England, consisting of extracts from wills relating to early settlers in Virginia, have been published during the year, and, as heretofore, have attracted keen interest and elicited much lauditory comment, shedding as they do, in most delightful fashion, varied and most valuable side-lights on the social and economic life of our early Colonial era. We have not seldom before had occasion to make special mention of Mr. Withington's most generous services to this Society, but we cannot refrain from expressing once more our cordial gratitude to this skilled antiquarian (who stands "at the very top" of his craft) for the munificent gift of his time, his money, and trained learning, that he has made for so many years (and still continues to make) to the single-minded end of supporting our efforts to make better known to the world the true history of this ancient Commonwealth.

Notable among these "Gleanings" published during this year of 1912, have been the wills of Samuel Each, who came to Virginia as early as 1622 (the year of "the Great Massacre") "to build a fort," and of Col. Daniel Parke, who served on the Duke of Marlborough's staff, and who, for splendid services on the field, was chosen by that illustrious soldier to be the bearer of despatches to her Majesty, Queen Anne, announcing the brilliant victory of Blenheim.

The Orderly Books (1778-9) of the Continental Army have been published in three instalments and continue to throw important light on the conduct of affairs in the army serving immediately under Washington.

Owing to pressure of official business, precisely as was the case with Mr. Withington, Messrs Flagg and Waters were able to furnish us with but three instalments of their very important "Virginia Revolutionary Bibliography and Lists of Regimental Officers", but these steadfast friends of the Society are once more busy at their task and the series will begin again during 1913.

The notable series of Abstracts by W. N. Sainsbury, as well as the Complete Transcripts from the original papers in the British Public Records Office (now in the State Library and commonly known as the "De Jarnette," "Winder," and "McDonald" Papers) have run through each number of the Magazine. The year 1676 was reached in our collection of these "Abstracts," while another collection of the Complete Transcripts, from 1665 on, was begun in our pages. These papers, which consist mainly of letters, though they also include communications of a more formal character from the English Government to Virginia Colonial officials (and vice-versa), are of high historical import.

Among other important documents that we have printed during the year, are (1) copies of two very striking "Tobacco Acts", one of 1725, the other of 1729, neither of which can be found in Hening's Statutes; (2) a number of Revolutionary "Pension Declarations," from Pittsylvania County, Va., very helpful in giving details of Militia Revolutionary service in the Commonwealth; (3) a list of obituary notices contained in the Richmond newspapers, ranging from 1786 to 1821, the value of which is obvious to all engaged in biographical and genealogical research; (4) a collection of letters from George Washington Parke Custis to his guardian and adoptive father, George Washington, and (5) another collection of letters (notable for completeness and countless graphic touches) exchanged between George Hume or Home (for the same pronunciation of the name obtains in Scotland, whether spelled with an o or u), and his "ain folk" over-seas—he being a cadet of the famous Wedderburn family, who, having settled as a young man in Virginia, kept up this spirited correspondence with kinsmen in Scotland.

The other departments of our Magazine have been replete with matter of historical value, sometimes amusing, sometimes prosaic, but always throwing unconsciously valuable side-lights on the daily life of the time.
In "Notes and Queries" have appeared (1) many transcripts from historical documents in England; (2) from the records of Prince Edward County, Va., in regard to the "Virginia Yazoo Company" (3) a number of Confederate Copyrights of signal value to Confederate Bibliographists; (4) a series of most interesting extracts from what has been left (after the shameful pillage by the Federal armies during '62 and '63) of the Colonial records of Prince George and Caroline Counties, Va.; and (5) numerous other "Notes" on historical and antiquarian subjects, which it seemed best to us to classify under this title.

The department of Book-Reviews has maintained its usual high standard, the reviews in most cases, so far from being of a perfunctory kind almost invariably supplementing the knowledge of the author by additional information from the reviewer, germane to the subject discussed. The same is true of the Genealogical section, which has kept up its long-established reputation for rigid accuracy, while offering suggestive clues in cases where absolute proof is lacking.

And now a word concerning the prospective plans of the Editor and our "Executive Committee"

As has been said above, it is now reasonably certain that the Randolph Manuscript will be finished during 1913, and it is worth considering whether the whole of it (as presented in the pages of the Magazine) shall not be offered to the public in book-form at a moderate price. As regards the "Abstracts" and Transcripts in full from the British Public Records Office, already alluded to, it may be noted that our objective point in this series (the year 1700) will probably not be reached until the close of the coming year.

The first volume of the "Minutes of the Council and General Court of Virginia (1622-24) will most probably be finished in 1913, and the presentation of the second volume in like consecutive form demands careful consideration. It is to be borne in mind that, in the earlier volumes of the Magazine, we have already printed every extract made years ago from this second volume of Minutes by the late Conway Robinson, a profound jurist, keen antiquarian and a most devoted member of this Society, but it is known to close historical students that his omissions were not infrequent. As to how much he did omit, can only be determined by the most minute collation. On this hinges the whole question of reproducing this second volume in its consecutive entirety.

It may also be noted here that there are now in the Congressional Library many unpublished documents relating to this period, transcribed of recent years (by the trained staff of the Library's copyists) from the originals in the British Public Records Office. All of these we propose to publish with the generous consent of the officials of that great Library. When we shall have done this and finished the Randolph Manuscript and the Minutes of the Council and General Court, together with some few other documents, the Committee will have accomplished its ambition to make accessible in print to historical students the whole body of Seventeenth Century documents, that bear an intimate and essential relation to Virginia history of that time.

We expect to finish during the coming year the Revolutionary Orderly Books, and to begin again in our April number the series dealing with Virginia Soldiers of the Revolution. For a continuation of Revolutionary Pension Claims space will also be found. As our readers must have observed, the history of the services of Virginia troops during the Revolution has become a special feature of the Magazine, and it is our purpose to extend more and more its scope in this direction. For instance, the series of Legislative Petitions and other documents dealing with the earlier periods of the Revolution, as well as those bearing on events immediately subsequent to that momentous struggle which were necessarily suspended some few years ago, will soon be recommenced.

Of course, Notes and Queries, Genealogies, Book-Reviews, Gleanings, and other established departments will be continued.

The Magazine it may be said without immodesty, has long since won, and still holds, its place among the foremost historical quarterlies and journals published whether at home or abroad, and your Committee ventures again to make grateful acknowledgment of the learning, industry, and consumate skill of its editor, Mr. Wm. G. Stanard, whose name, despite his innate modesty, is a "household word" to scholars and antiquarians the world over.

Sister Societies.

The chief work of the "Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities," during the year 1912, has been the exquisite restoration and appropriate refurnishing of the old "John Marshall House." No doubt, before this report is read, it will be open to the public, who will wander with delight through the simple, yet spacious mansion of "the great Chief Justice," whose refined home it was for so many happy years.

The "Colonial Dames of America in the State of Virginia" have arranged to mark with appropriate tablets the birth-places of Presidents of the United States, who were born and reared in our "Old Dominion."

W. Gordon McCabe,
President.

On motion Vice-President Valentine was requested to take the Chair and the thanks of the Society were returned to President McCabe for his report and his services to the Society.

Mr. W. G. Stanard stated that he desired to call the attention of the Society to the valuable collection of unpublished papers relating to the early history of Virginia, which are in the Library of Congress, especially the copies made by Miss Kingsbury from the Ferrar papers. On motion the Corresponding Secretary was directed, if the consent of the Librarian of Congress be obtained, to have photostat copies made of a certain number of these papers.

The attention of the meeting was called to a report that the very valuable supplementary list of Virginia Revolutionary Soldiers (containing about 18,000 names) which has been prepared by the State Library might not be printed.

On motion it was unanimously resolved that Messrs McCabe and Stanard be requested to call on the State Librarian or the Governor of Virginia, and urge the publication at once of this very important list, and the following resolutions, offered by Mr. Morgan P. Robinson were also adopted, the measures prescribed in them to be taken if necessary.

WHEREAS, the Virginia State Library Report for 1911 contained, as the report of the Department of Archives and History, a List of Revolutionary Soldiers of Virginia, containing the names of some thirty-six thousand (36,000) Virginians who participated in the Revolution; and
WHEREAS, the Report not only made no claim to even an approximate completeness, but also anticipated a continuation of this work through the publication of supplemental reports from time to time, as additional data should become available; and

WHEREAS, at the time of the preparation of this initial Report, no access was permitted to the large mass of records on file in the Adjutant General's Office in Washington; and

WHEREAS, by War Department Orders of March 26th, 1912, access is now permitted to these records, and in accordance therewith the State Library has at much expense had photostat copies made of several hundred muster-rolls of Virginia troops, from which copies, the Department of Archives and History prepared a supplemental Report, containing some eighteen thousand (18,000) additional names, which Report was duly forwarded to the Superintendent of Public Printing as a portion of the Annual Report of the Virginia State Library; and

WHEREAS, the Library Board has been at much expense in compiling and preparing the said supplemental Report; and

WHEREAS, the status of Virginia's contribution to the Revolution cannot be properly rated or evaluated until we have complete information upon the subject,—and that in an easily available form;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED,—

FIRST—That the said Society,—appreciating the great value of this new and heretofore unavailable data and its absolute necessity in any just interpretation of the State's participation in the American Revolution,—does hereby respectfully request His Excellency the Governor of Virginia, to take such steps as may be necessary to have this supplemental Report printed in full, and thus preserve this important and not otherwise available link in the history of the State of Virginia;

SECOND—That copies of these resolutions be sent to the members of the Library Board and to the members of the General Assembly from the City of Richmond, and that copies be given to the press,—all of whom are requested to co-operate with the Virginia Historical Society to the end that the said Report be printed in full; and THIRD—That a copy of these resolutions be sent to his Excellency, the Governor, with the request that he do give them his earnest consideration, and that he do take such steps as may be necessary in the premises.

The next business was the election of officers and members of the Board.

On motion a nominating committee was appointed. The President appointed Messrs. J. H. Eckenrode and M. P. Robinson members of a Nominating Committee. They retired and on returning recommended the re-election of all the officers and members of the Board as follows;

President—W. Gordon McCabe.

Vice-Presidents,—Archer Anderson, Edward V. Valentine and Lyon G. Tyler.

Recording Secretary,—David C. Richardson.

Treasurer,—Robert A. Lancaster, Jr.

There being no further business, on motion, the meeting adjourned.

36. You shall reduce the Salary of the Members of the Assembly to such a Moderate Proportion as may be no grievance to the Country wherein Nevertheless you are to use your discretion, so as no inconvenience may arise thereby.

41. You are likewise to send a list of all Officers Employ'd under your Government together with all Publick Charges, and an Account of the Present Revenue with the Probability of the Increase or Diminution of it under every head or Article thereof.

45. Whereas We are above all things desirous that, all Our Subjects may enjoy their Legal Rights and Properties You are to take Especial Care that if any Person be Committed for any Criminal Matters unless for Treason & Felony, plainly and Especially expressed in the Warrant of Commitment to have free Liberty to Petition by himself or otherwise the Chief Barron or any one of the Judges of the Common Pleas for a Writ of Habeas Corpus, which upon such Application shall be granted and Served on the Provost Marshall Goaler or other Officer having the Custody of such Prisoner, or shall be left at the Goal or Place where the Prisoner is confin’d and the said Provost Marshall or other Officer shall within three days after such service on the Petitioners Paying the Fees & Charges, and giving Security that he will not escape by the way make return of the Writ and Prisoner before the Judge who granted out the said Writ and there Certify the true Cause of the Imprisonment, and the said Baron or Judge shall Discharge such Prisoner taking his Recognizance and Sureties for his Appearance at the Court where the Offence is Cognizable, and Certifie the said Writ and Recognizance into the Court unless Such Offences appear to the said Baron or Judge not Bailable by the Law of England.

46. And in Case the Said Baron or Judge shall refuse to grant a Writ of Habeas Corpus on View of the Copy of Commitment or upon Oath made of such Copy having been deny'd the Prisoner or any Person requiring the Same in his behalf or shall delay to discharge the Prisoner after the granting such Writ the said Baron or Judge shall incur the forfeiture of his Place.

47. You are likewise to declare our Pleasure that in Case the Provost Marshal or other Officer shall Imprison any Person above Twelve Hours except by a Mittimus setting forth the Cause thereof he be removed from his said Office.

48. And upon the Application of any Person wrongfully Committeed the Baron or Judge shall issue his Warrant to the Provost Marshall or other Officer to bring the Prisoner before him who shall be discharged without Bail or Paying Fees, & the Provost Marshall or other Officer refusing Obedience to such Warrant shall be thereupon removed, and if the said Baron or Judge denies the Warrant he shall likewise Incur the forfeiture of his Place.

49. Mr. John Bland Merch having settled two of his Brothers in Virginia under certaine Articles, Agreements, and Covenants, supplied the Plantation in wth they were settled to the vallee of above ten thousand pounds, Expecting proportionalle Returns from them. But the two Brothers dying one of them left a Widdowe, who writ to Mr. John Bland acquainting him, that there was a considerable Estate left and desired him to send one over to take care thereof, and to settle matters betweene them. And here the sayd John Bland after some tyme did send his only sone Giles Bland whom he had bredd a merchant to take posession and settle things on his behalfe. Giles Bland upon

(Abstract)

Whitehall, June 8, 1676

Minutes of a Committee of Trade and Plantations. Mr. Ludwell, Secretary of Virginia, shows letter from that Colony concerning the present disturbances there, occasioned both by the insurrections of the neighbouring Indians and by a mutiny of several Englishmen (Mem. he sent in this letter on the 19th current) He is ordered to attend on Thursday with the other persons concerned in the petition of Mrs Sara Bland in behalf of her son now in Virginia.
(Col. Entry Bk. No. 104. p. 133.)

Answer of Mr Ludwell to Bland’s Petition.

To the Right Ho’ble the Lords of the Committee for Plantations.

Tho. Ludwell Sec’s of Virginia

Most humbly doth present,

That having seen a copie of a Petition presented by Mrs Bland to the Kings most Excellent Mat’ & a reference thereupon to your Lo’s & upon that reference Your Lo’s Order for a hearing on the 6th of this instant June & finding himself more particularly concerned as being bespattered with a part of that dirt which is thrown upon the whole government of Virginia by the said Mrs Bland, he doth most humbly beg your honours leave & patience in receiving this his answer to the said Petition.
To the first part he answereth, that he believeth that Mr. John Bland did adventure great sums of money into that Country but is confident that if his brothers Edward and Theodores Books could be produced it would appear that not a fifth part of the sum mentioned in the Petition was laid out in Plantations or other estate there and consequently not to be possest by his son Giles.

In the next place where it is alleged that the said Giles applyed himself to the respondent, it is utterly untrue for his application was to the Governor & Council by a Petition, for a Confirmation of a Deed, passed by Edward Bland Junior, to the above said Mr John Bland for all those lands taken up or purchased by his father Edward brother of the said John and consequently vested in him as heir to his father. Upon the reading of which Petition the respondent as a member of the court told the said Giles Bland that there was a Law in the Country intitled, An Act for prevention of fraudulent conveyances which did provide that no conveyance should be valid in Law that was not acknowledged in Court by the Conveyor & therefore he must bring the young man into the Court to acknowledge his deed according to the said law. And this was that wth gives the color to what is said of the respondents telling the said Giles that his father had sent in forged writings to cheat the widow with whom he had no difference whilst the respondt was in the Country. Nor could it be possible that the respondent (who hath ever had a very good opinion of Mr John Bland) could affirm any such ill thing of him. Since at that time, nor even to this day, he never saw one paper that concerned the said widow or the young Edward. For what is said of Giles Bland coming to the Respondt's house and being heated with Wine & brandy It is confest that the respondent coming home found Sr Henry Chicheley & the said Bland there who unknown to him came there to shelter themselves from the approaching night. But for the drink mentioned though they had of each yet he doth affirm that it was not in any quantity which might heat either party nor had the said Bland the least occasion given him of offence but fell upon the respondt in most rude & unsufferable language for no other cause but reproving him when he spoke ill of the Council. And this the respondent can with truth affirm & if it should be inquired into, he doubts not but it would appear that (with all who know him he hath ever passed under a better character than that of being a Drunkard or forcing others to be so. But the Petitioner takes the old but ill course of helping a bad cause with ill language.

As to the pretended Challenge as the Respondent knew better what was becoming the place he exercised than to give or accept a challenge from any man so he doth in the presence of God affirm that there was nothing like it on his part passed between them. But the said Bland going the next morning from the respondents house before he was risen took away one of his Gloves carrys it to the Govr where he stayed all that day being Sunday and time enough to allay the heat of the wine (if he had any such) and that night carrys it to the town & there fixes it up at the Assembly door with the words under it mentioned in the order. And whereas it is affirmed in the Petition that the Burgesses by the Contrivance of the respondent complained of the same, he doth affirm that he came not into the town before the Monday following nor knew anything of his Glove being so unworthily fixed till many of the Burgesses told him of it and express their resentment of the affront done them. And he doth likewise affirm in the presence of God that he never applied himself either to the Burgesses or to the Governor and Council in the case till it was so public that the said Bland was ordered to answer & the respondent to complain at the next General Court where Sr Henry Chicheley (who was present at the respondents house when he received the affront) was one of the Judges that condemned him in what the Order says And the said Bland, asking the respondent forgiveness in Court (though so proudly as the whole Court took notice of it) the respondent had no further difference with him. But for his affront to the Assembly he was fined five hundred pounds, which the respondent hopes will not appear so extraordinary when the nature of his offence is duly considered by your Honors.

As to the affirmation that the respondent drew the Order himself he denies it but withal confesseth that as his Vindication from so great an affront was therein to be left upon record, he did look that it was drawn according to the judgement of the court & so did the Governor since it was an extraord" case. And this the respondent doth confidently affirm that there is nothing in the order which is penal but what was so adjudged by the Court.

And whereas, it is affirmed that the s" Bland was denied a trial by a Jury, it is a great scandal to the Justice of that Court who never denied it to any man that demanded it nor would to him & therefore it is a mighty injury to the Court to affirm that they proceeded arbitrarily violently and injuriously. To which charge the Respondent doth most humbly pray that the Court may have time to answer. And if it shall appear that they are wronged that they may have reparation according to the nature of the offence. But the affront done the respondent by Mr Bland is no extraordinary matter since he finds Mr Bland hath not been contented with so small a matter as abusing the Secretary in his own house but hath since affronted the Governor upon the Seat of Justice in open Court to that degree as he was forced to descend and ask Justice from the Council and being punished for it is the ground of all the complaint in the latter part of the prayer of his Mothers Petition.

Thus may it please your honors the Respondent hath very truly stated the case to which he will be deposed for as much as concerns himself & leaves it with all humility to your Lo's consideration what security will be left to any Government if the Officers shall be left to such outrages and to determine therein as shall seem most agreeable to Your Justice and Judgement Which is all that can at present be answered to the said petition by

Right Hon'ble

Your Honours most humble servant

Tho: Ludwell

teste W. Davis.
Several other Papers presented by Mr. Ludwell are read viz.

Act of the grand Assembly against James City the 21st day of September 1674.

The Affront offered to this grand Assembly in the person of M'r Secretary by Giles Bland during this session is highly resented by the House of Burgesses.

And forasmuch as the said Bland is not in Town & the Session near upon closing before he can be sent for This House therefore do request the right Honou'ble the Governor to issue forth his mandate for the appearance of the said Giles Bland before his Honour and the Council of State at the next General Court in order to a Vindication of the grand Assembly.

Cop. vera Test. James Minge. Cl. Assem.

Present

Order of the Gov'r & Gn'l Court for fining Bland.

Whereas Thomas Ludwell Secretary of State of this Colony of Virginia did at the last Session of the Grand Assembly complain that going from the Assembly to his own house on Saturday 3rd of Octr and finding there Sr. Hen; Chicheley knight & Mr. Giles Bland was by the said Bland most barbourously & contrary to the Laws of Hospitality and human Society abused and called pitiful fellow, puppy, & son of a whore, without any other provocation than giving his opinion as one of the Council upon a Petition preferred by the said Bland two or three days before to the Gov'r and Council & reproving him for speaking scandalously of the Council. And Whereas the said Secretary did further complain that the said
Bland taking one of his Gloves without his Knowledge or consent did ignominiously and presumptuously and unworthily nail the same up at the State House door with a most false and scandalous libel which contained these words that the owner of that Glove was a son of a whore mechanic fellow, puppy and a coward. Which barbarous behavior the whole Assembly resenting as a public affront as well because the said Sec'y was a public Minister as for that the said Bland had dared to fix his glove & the aforesaid libel at their gates on a Sunday and during their Session did by an address from the Burgesses to the Governor & Council desire that the said Bland might be compelled to appear at the next General Court there to answer the complaint of the said Sec'y on the behalf of himself & the said Assembly And he being accordingly ordered to appear before this Court on the fifth day being the 20th of this instant November where all the aforementioned barbarous & insolent behavior being by full & clear evidence proved And the Said Bland having nothing material to say in his defence but rather adding to his former crimes by braving the Court itself. It is therefore Ordered that the said Bland do immediately acknowledge the horrid Injuries he hath done the Said Secretary & ask him Public forgiveness in Court for the same which he did but in so slight and scornful a manner as rather shewed a further contempt of the said Secretary and the whole Court than a submission to their order, that he gave present and sufficient security for his good behavior for the future, And that he pay to the public as a Fine for his contempt of its Authority Five Hundred Pounds, Sterling and forthwith give good security for the payment of the same within two years after the date of this Order.

Which is to be paid accordingly unless within that time he can get the said Fine remitted by an Order from His Ma'ty & the Lords of his most Hono'ble Privy Council.

Report Touching Bland

Whereupon, their Lo'ps after long debate agree to report unto His Mae that a copy of Mrs Blands Petition be transmitted to the Governor & Council in Virginia that they may return their defence in writing or impower somebody to answer for them for which they may be allowed six months time but that no advantage be in the interim taken as to the forfeiture imposed on Mr. Bland.

Mem'dum On the 27th July following the Report was presented unto the Committee but their Lo'ps being informed that Mrs Bland had prepared a Petition unto his Majesty whereby she desired leave to retract those unadvised & offensive expressions contained in her former Petition they think fit to expect His Maies Ord'. thereupon before the said report be presented in Council.

Minutes of a Committee of Trade and Plantations in reference to Sarah Bland's petition and Ludwell's answer. It was urged by Mrs. Bland's Counsel that the Council [of Virginia] could not impose fines for an affront done to another Court but that his trial ought to have been by a jury, but their Lordships conceived that the Council table was invested with many authorities that had in all times been exercised and allowed of: and that it will be hard, in so remote a place as Virginia, to support the Governm't if there were not an extraordinary power in the Board for emergent occasions. Mr. Ludwell being called in, stated that he had no authority from the Governor or Council in writing to manage this cause whereupon a Report was ordered to be drawn up to his Majesty—see next entry.

asmuch as said petition reflects upon the honor of the Council of Virginia and the legality of their proceedings they should have opportunity to make their just defence, their lordships propose that copy of said petition be sent to Virginia with allowance of six months for their answer.

Mrs. Jordan was the heroine of a noted case of pre-contract or breach of promise. Captain Samuel Jordan, of Jordan’s Journey, died late in March 1623, leaving a young widow, Cicely, and two children. Three or four days afterwards Rev. Greville Pooley, the minister of the parish, consulted Captain Isaac Madison, a prominent man who was a neighbor, in regard to a match with Mrs. Jordan. At first Madison was unwilling to move in the matter; but finally consented. Mrs. Jordan told the Captain that she would as soon marry Mr. Pooley as any one else; but would not marry so soon. As Mr. Brown (First Republic, 563) says, "This was all that a man in his mind ought to have asked;" but Pooley was impatient and went to see her himself. He reported to Captain Madison that Mrs. Jordan had contracted herself to him and desired Madison to go with him and be a witness to it. Madison did go and when Mr. Pooley desired a dram, Mrs. Jordan desired her servant to fetch it; but Pooley said he would have it of her fetching or not at all. Then she went into a room, Madison and Pooley followed her; and when Mr. Pooley was come to her he told her he should contract himself unto her—and spoke these words—"I Grivell Pooley take thee Sysley, to my wedded wife, to have & to hold till death us do part, and thereto I plight thee my troth." Then (holding her by the hand) he spoke these words, "I, Sysley take thee Grivell to my wedded husband, to have and to hold 'till death do us part." But Madison says he did not hear her say these words nor Pooley ask her if she would consent to them. Then Mr. Pooley and Mrs. Jordan drank to each other and he kissed her and said "I am thine and thou art mine 'till death us separate." Mrs. Jordan desired that it might not be known that she had bestowed her love so soon after her husband's death; but, though Pooley promised, he was too elated to keep the secret. Mrs. Jordan resented this, saying "He would have fared better if he had talked less," and immediately engaged herself to marry William Ferrar, another suitor. Mr. Pooley then brought the matter before the Governor and council and on June 14, sued her for breach of promise. The case was contined to Nov. 27, when, an account of the difficulty of deciding the question of contract the matter was referred to the Company in England with a request that the opinion of civil lawyers be obtained. The Governor and Council also issued a proclamation against women engaging themselves to "two several men at one time." The text of this proclamation is given in Brown's First Republic pp. 564, 565. The context would imply that it was issued in November; but an entry printed in this Magazine, XIX, 231, shows that it was on June 22d.

Before any opinoin could be obtained from England Mr. Pooley lost his case, not being able to prove his charges against William Ferrar, and soon made a formal renunciation of any claim he might have to Cicely Jordan. It is presumed that she married William Ferrar, or Farrar (who was long a member of the Council) as he had a grand-daughter named Cicely.

Sir

His Majesty having taken into Consideration how much it concerns the good of his Subjects, and y'e security of Trade, that all Pyrates and Sea Rovers should be suppress, who are observed to have very much Encreased of late in their numbers and to have done great damages as well to his Majesty's Subjects as to y'e Subjects of other princes and States in amity with his Majesty, and there being ground to beleive, that they have been encouraged to this boldness by the easy admittance they have found into his Majestyes Colonymes and Plantations in America where some of them have been protected, or were not Enquired after as ought to have been done in order to bringing them to punishment His Majesty has commanded me to signify his express pleasure to the respective Governours of the Colonymes aforesaid, that they use their utmost Diligence and strictly enjoyne the same to all officers under their Command, that due care be taken within the limits of their severall Jurisdictions, To Arrest, seize, and secure the Ships, Persons and Effects of all such Pyrates and Sea Rovers as also that a true and Exact Inventory be made of all Money Plate Jewells Goods or other Effects whatsoever brought in by, or any way belonging to the said Pyrates the same to be signed and attested.

INSTRUCTIONS IN REGARD TO MARTIAL LAW.

Additional Instructions for our Trusty and wellbeloved Francis Nicholson Esq'r. Our Lieutenant and Governour General of Our Colony and Dominion of Virginia in America. Given at our Court at Kensington the 31st Day of May 1699. In the Eleaventh Year of our Reign.

Whereas by a Clause in your Commision for the Government of our Colony & Dominion of Virginia, there is a power vested in you to execute Martiall Law in time of Invasion Insurrection or Warr, as also upon Soldiers in Pay, which implies a Power of Executing such Martiall Law upon Soldiers in Pay even in time of Peace, and whereas upon consideracon of y'e present time of Peace, We have thought fit that the foremenconed Words, as also upon Soldiers in Pay, be omitted in the like Commissions; Yet nevertheless it being necessary that care be taken for the keeping of good discipline amongst the soldiers in Pay that are now in any of our Plantacons or that we may at any time hereafter send thither which may be provided for by y'e Legislative power in each of our said Plantacons respectively OUR WILL AND PLEASURE THEREFORE IS, that you FORBEAR in time of Peace to put the power conferred upon you by the foremenconed Words also upon Soldiers in Pay, in Execution: And that you recomend unto the Generall Assembly of our said Colony at such time as you shall find necessary The passing of such Act for the punishing of Mutiny Desertion and false Musters, and for the better preserving of good dicipline amongst Soldiers in pay as may best answer those ends.

ing any assistance to any of y’e said p’sns, while they are engaged in y’e fores’d enterprize; & that no provisions, armes, amunicon or other necessarys whatsoever be carried to them from thence, or be pmitted to be carried either in their own Vessells or other Ships or Vessells for their use; his Maj’ty requires that you do not fail herein, but take particular care that ye above menconed directing be duly observed, and that you send hither an account of your proceedings in ye execution of these his Commands. I am

Sir

I signified to You his Maj' ts Pleasure in January last concerning y' e scots who had undertaken an Expedition to the West Indies, the place not being then known in which they designed to settle and his Maj' ty being since informed that they have taken possession of y' e Bay of Caerat near y' e Bay of Darien between Cartagena & Porto Bello and are fortifying themselves there, seeming resolved to maintain it by force against the Spaniards: His Maj' ty Considering this attempt as a violation of the Treaty's subsisting between his Maj' ty and the Crown of Spain, Comands me to acquaint you that he expects his former orders should be strictly observed, a Duplicate whereof is therefore inclosed I suppose upon the receipt of the first Letter You have given all necessary Directions that no Correspondence should be kept with ye said Scotch Colony and that no provisions, Ammunition or other assistance should be furnished them, or be suffered to be conveyed to them from any part of your Government, His Maj' ty would have y' e same care continued, so as y' e said orders may in all particulars be fully obeyed and put in execution.

To America.

Privy Council to the Governor of Virginia.

Whitehall June the 26th 1699.

Sir

His Majesty having been pleased by some late orders in Council to regulate certain matters relating to his Plantations in America, and to require us to signify his pleasure therein to the respective Governours of his said plantations and do what may be thereupon further necessary.

You are to take notice, that his Majesty upon taking into Consideration the Inconveniencies arising from the Execution of Patent places by Deputies either unqualifyed or too much inclined by the high Rents they pay unto Patentees, to make indirect advantages of their respective Places, has thought fit to order that all the Patent Officers within the plantations be obliged by their patents or otherwise to actual Residence upon the place, and to execute their respective offices in their own persons unless in case of sickness or other Incapacity. And therefore in order to the better observance of his Majesty's pleasure in this particular, we think it necessary that you transmit unto Us by the first opportunity a full and perfect account of all the patent offices within your Government with the particular tenour and Condition of each respective Grant and how those conditions are complied with in the Execution of the same: Which we shall accordingly expect.

You are also to take notice that his Majesty has been pleas'd to Direct concerning the Ships of War which are or may be appointed to attend any of his Plantations that especiall care be taken that they be good Sailors; That they be annually relieved by others; That the Commanders thereof be strictly required to observe the Laws of the Plantations relating to the Departure or Transportacon of the Inhabitants, and not to carry off any Inhabitants from the said Plantations contrary to the Laws provided in each Plantacon respectively: And that they do not leave their stations in any of the Plantations without the previous knowledge of the respective Governours of the said Plantations and a due regard to his Maj'ts Service in those parts. Concerning all which matters in your Governm't, together with whatever else has been formerly signified unto you relating to his Maj'ts Ships of War there, We think it likewise necessary that you give us from time to time an exact account.

We have this to add in Particular relating to the Colony of Virginia that the Ship ordered by his Maj'ty for the Service there is to be of the sixth Rate.

And whereas great complaints are frequently made of the Mischeifs committed by Pyrates in remote parts, and of the support and encouragem't which they still find in his Maj'ts Plantacons in America notwithstanding the repeated directions that have been given to the respective Govern'rs thereof to take all possible care for the preventing of such ill practices we cannot but thereupon mind you to use & continue your utmost diligence in discovering, suppressing and punishing all offenders & offences of that kind whatsoever within your Govern'mt; And to that intent we more particularly recomend to your care that strict inquiry be made after the ship & men described in the enclosed paper, and that such of them as can be found, be punished with the utmost severity of Law and the ship and cargo secured for those to whom they do belong. So we bid you heartily farewell.

BOARD OF TRADE TO THE GOVERNOR OF VIRGINIA.

Whitehall June the 28th 1699.

Sir
We have received your Letters of the 4th and 27th of February last with the severall Papers therein menconed, And as we have been alway's satisfied with the exact method of your advices, and are so with the account you have now given us of your proceedings as well In leaving the Government of Maryland, as since your Entrance upon the Government of Virginia, we desire you to continue the same punctual advice upon all occasions, with Assurance that we will not be wanting in anything that lyes in us to second your Endeavours in promoting his Majesty's Service and the Interest of the Colony Comitted to your Charge.

There is a Clause in your Instructions relating to the repealing of an Act past in the Generall Assembly there in 1680 about Attorneys, which having been given in the same manner to former Governours, we desire you to inform us particularly how that matter at present stands.

You will observe by a Clause in your Instructions relating to the building of a house for your self and other successive Governour of that Colony to live in that it is thought necessary such a house be built, and that his Maj^r does not think fitt to continue the former allowance of a Hundred and fifty pounds P An. to Governours for hous rent. Therefore we expect to hear of your Endeavours to promote that work, and your report thereupon according to the tenour of that Clause.

The Revisall of the laws of that Colony is also a thing esteemed to be highly necessary towards the affecting which Sr Edmund Andros advised us some while since of the Endeavours he had used and of the Difficulties that occurred therein, chiefly through a disagreement between the Councill and Assembly. Wherefore the same thing being again recomended to your care by your Instructions as we doubt not of your Endeavours therein we shall be glad to hear that the prove effectuall for the accomplishment of so usefull a Work.

There are many other things in your Instructions somewhat different from those which have been given to former Governours which have bin thought for his Maj^s service & y^e wellfare of that Colony And therefore tho'we doubt not of your Care in all, yet we desire more particularly an account of your proceedings in those of that kind and how you find them suited to the present state of that Colony. So we bid you heartily Farewell.

Your loving Friends.

PENSION DECLARATION OF MAJOR THOMAS MASSIE.

[Thomas Massie, son of William Massie of New Kent County, born August 22, 1747, is stated by Heitman to have been Captain 6th Virginia, March 11, 1776, Major 11th Virginia, February 20th, 1778, transferred to 2d Virginia, September 14, 1778, resigned June 25th, 1779. About 1780 he removed from New Kent County to Frederick, and thence about 1803, to Amherst (now Nelson) County. He married Sarah Cocke, of "Bremo," Henrico County, and died at his residence, "Level Green," February 2, 1834. He had three sons who have many descendants. One of them was the lamented Judge Thornton L. Massie. For an account of Major Massie's descendants see The William and Mary Quarterly XV, 125-129. Unfortunately the first page of the copy of the declaration, sent to this Society a number of years ago, has been lost.]

burg and the country between York and James Rivers, against the depredations of Lord Dunmore and his myrmidons. Within the ensuing Fall, he received a captain's commission to recruit a company of Regular soldiers to serve in the 6th Va. Reg. of the line on continental establishment. His Company, being recruited at the commencement of the following Spring, he marched it to Williamsburg, and united with the said 6th Regt., then under command of Cols. Buckner and Elliot, and Major Hendricks. All the companies were nearly complete, some he believes, quite so, viz.,—Capt. Samuel Cabell, Lieutenants Barrett and Taliaferro, and Ensign Jordan; Capt. Ruffin, two lieutenants and ensign; Capt. Johnson, two lieutenants and ensign; Capt. Hopkins, ditto; Capt. Garland, ditto; Capt. Cocke, ditto; Capt. Oliver Towles (a celebrated lawyer) and company officers; Capt. Gregory, ditto. He believes Capt. Worsham, or Dun and Avery. Also himself (Capt. Massie), Lieutenants Hockaday and Epperson, and Ensign Armistead. The companies were raised in different and distant parts of the state and he had not even personal acquaintance with many of them, which, together with the length of time, renders it difficult for him to remember every officer's name. After the Regiment was equipped and armed, it marched out and camped in the vicinity of Williamsburg where it entered into camp and military training; whence his regiment was ordered to march to the North. Within the summer following this was done under the command of Col. Buckner, and Major Hendricks (Lieu-Col. Elliot having withdrawn). Capt. Ruffin died and he believes another officer, and several resigned or withdrew. The regiment marched through Virginia by way of Fredericksburg and the Northern Neck, through the upper part of Maryland into Pennsylvania by way of Lancaster, leaving Philadelphia to the right, crossed the Delaware River above Trenton, and passed through Jersey to Perth Amboy, where the regiment was posted to defend that point and the country around until further orders. Gen. Washington at that time having the greater part of the main American army on Long and York Islands, soon after the defeat of that army on those islands, he with his said Regiment was to march up the Sound by way of Newark. The storm and capture of Fort Montgomery taking place, he met with Gen. Putnam at Newark, and marched up the North River as high as Fort Lee. The defeated army had crossed the Hudson, except a part that had marched on the east side of that river under the command of Gen. Chas. Lee, He, the said Thomas Massie, fell in the rear of those retreating troops who had been appointed to cover their retreat and marched the upper road by Springfield, Scotch Plains, &c. to New Brunswick, on the Raritan River, where the troops to which he was attached were attacked by the British van. Having destroyed a part of the bridge, the said American troops kept up a hot fire with their artillery and small arms, with the British the whole day. This checked the progress so much as to enable Gen. Washington to cross the Delaware River with the retreating army, military stores &c. The troops to which he was attached (being unencumbered) also had the good fortune to cross the Delaware without much loss. Gen. Washington having refreshed the troops and received reinforcements recrossed the Delaware in the night of the 24th of December (he thinks), surprised and defeated a large body of Hessians, posted at Trenton, captured about 900 of their number, and crossed the River again with them. Several days subsequent, Gen. Washington, having received reinforcements, again crossed the Delaware River with his army and took post at Princeton.
He, the said Massie, was for the two succeeding years generally employed on detached or particular service, consequently was seldom with the said Sixth Regiment or his company, which company was by this time much reduced. On the 1st day of January, 1777 he marched under the command of Gen. Scott (who headed a considerable body of troops) on or about the Princeton road and encamped in the evening on the Heights above Maiden-head. Soon after the van of an army under the command of Lord Cornwallis appeared, followed by the main body, said to amount to 12,000 men, and encamped in the place for the night. By dawn of the next day the enemy were in motion and filed off in columns to the American left, apparently to surround them. The Americans discharged two light field pieces of artillery at them, without return, and retreated down the road to a creek, which they crossed over a bridge and destroyed the same, and took possession of the ground on the Trenton side of the creek, then covered with large forest trees. Gen. Hard at that time, being above with a large corps of Western Pennsylvania riflemen, the Americans kept the enemy at bay for several hours (he believes) before he could effect the passage of the creek with his large and heavy artillery. The Americans retreated up and slowly along the road to the summit of a hill also covered with forest trees. Here Gen. Washington, accompanied by Gen. Green with reinforcements, come up. Here the Americans also skirmished (a considerable time) with the enemy before they retreated, and ultimately retreated to a long hill perhaps a mile to the west end of Trenton in view of the main American Army. Here they formed and awaited the attack of the enemy. The day being now very far spent, the enemy appeared and approached the Americans in columns. As they were displaying we gave them a fire in single file from right to left, and retreated under a heavy fire of musketry and artillery, and formed under the protection of the main army in Trenton. A very heavy cannonade ensued directly between the two armies that lasted until after dark and has been called the cannonade of Trenton. Gen. Washington, having fortunately gained a grand point in eluding Cornwallis' intention of bringing him into a general action, made up large fires in front and left those who had been in the van during the day to keep them up. He immediately marched with his army, and taking the Princeton road, reached that place early the next morning, defeated Col. Mahood, who Lord Cornwallis had left there with troops to defend the place and its stores. Gen. Washington, having taken off those stores
&c., proceeded down the road by Kingston and Somerset Court House to Morristown, where he established posts on the Raritan in Jersey, viz., at Perth Amboy, Bonnontown and Brunswick.
Gen. Washington also established a line of posts opposite to them with a view of preventing the British garrisons from having intercourse with and marauding the country. He, the said Massie, was placed on this duty at Middle Post, Natuchen, under the command of Col. Hendricks, and served on it near five months. This duty was extremely severe by night as well as by day, constant patrolling, frequent skirmishes, some of them very bloody nocturnal surprises, the cutting off of pickets etc., always attended with loss of men, and great fatigue.
The British called in their posts about the first of June and the American Posts were evacuated about the middle of June. He, with the other officers &c. who had been in this line of duty joined the main army at Middlebrook. Sometime after, he and five other officers were sent to Virginia with instructions.
He, on his return, joined the army under Gen. Washington at the White Marsh Hills. Shortly after, Gen. Morgan returned with troops from the capture of Burgoyne's army. Our army then marched into winter quarters by way of the gulf to Valley Forge. He was soon detailed on duty under Gen. Morgan, who was to take post at Radnor about half way between Valley Forge and the mouth of the Schuylkill River, with a view to cutting off the communication of the enemy from that part of the country which was effected. About this time (Feb. 1778) he was promoted to the rank of Major. In the Spring he commanded a large guard low in the lines not far above Philadelphia. Here he received Lord Cathcart, Aide to Gen. Clinton, with a flag of truce and dispatches for Congress. Agreeably to orders, he, Cathcart, was not permitted to proceed further.
The dispatches were read and delivered to Gen. Morgan. Immediately after, Gen. Clinton evacuated Philadelphia. He (Massie) marched under Gen. Morgan, through the city, proceeded up and crossed the river, and united with the main army. He with Major Gibbs was detailed to attend Gen. Morgan, who was appointed to command the light troops etc., to interrupt and endeavor to retard the march of the British army through Jersey to Sandy Hook. The first attempt to retard their march was made at Allentown. This stopped them a day and some prisoners were taken. The second attempt was a complete surprise, from thick shrubbery in the pines, where 16 to 18 prisoners were brought off and a few killed with little loss to the Americans. Several other attempts were made to alarm and retard their march which succeeded so far as to enable Gen. Washington to march with his main army by Englishtown and obtain a position which gave him the power of bringing Gen. Clinton to a general engagement, in which it is believed he would have been entirely successful except for the flagrant disobedience of orders by Gen. Chas. Lee, who commanded the van of the American Army. On that, the 28th day of June, 1778 (an intense hot day) Gen. Washington ordered Gen. Lee to attack in full force. This, the said Massie, knows to be the fact, the orders having been communicated verbally by Gen. Washington through him, (the said Massie) the evening before. On Gen. Lee's approach the British army drew up in order of battle. Gen. Lee ordered a retreat which was done under a slow retreating fire for some time. Gen. Lee repeatedly sent orders to the officers commanding the several flanking corps not to advance and engage. This state of things continued until Gen. Washington came into the field himself, took the command, arrested Gen. Lee, and renewed the battle by bringing the troops into action. The battle at Monmouth Court House was a bloody and hard fought action. After the sunset the British army gave way, and it being too dark for pursuit, the American Army lay on the field for the night, with a view to renew the battle the next day; but the British Army in the night, made a silent and rapid retreat, leaving their dead and wounded. Gen. Morgan, under whose command he, the said Massie still acted, was ordered to pursue the British early next morning, but they could not be overtaken except two or three hundred stragglers that were captured. Pursuit was continued to Middleton Heights immediately above Sandy Hook. After being there and thereabout for several days, the troops marched up by Sposwood to Brunswick, bridge on the Raritan River. Here we had a feu de joie in honor of the victory of Monmouth. From thence he marched to King's Ferry on the Hudson river, and crossed to the White Plains in New York. Here he remained several weeks. From there, he, with several other officers, was ordered to Rhode Island to assist Gen. Sullivan at the siege of Newport, then in the possession of the British. A violent storm, however, with rain, etc. for several days having driven Count D'Estrey's fleet from the mouth of the harbour out to sea, rendered it impracticable for Gen. Sullivan to proceed with the siege; he consequently retired from the island and the said Massie with the other officers detached as above stated returned and rejoined their respective regiments then encamped on the Hudson some distance above West Point, and on the opposite side.

Soon after this, the surprise and capture of Baylor's newly raised regiment of calvalry near Heroington, happened, when he with his regiment marched under the command of Gens. Woodford and Morgan with their troops to that neighborhood and took post on the strong heights of Paramus. By this time a large British force (said to amount to 6,000) under the command of Lord Cornwallis had taken the possession of the town of Hackensack, with a view of foraging the country, in which they did not succeed to much extend, owing to the vigilence of the American troops in attacking and repulsing their foraging parties. In a few weeks the British army returned to New York and the said Massie with his regiment under the command of Col. Febiger was posted at Hackensack. Soon after this, Col. Febiger was called off, and the said Massie was left in the sole command of the Regiment. This was the second Virginia Regiment on continental establishment. The officers were, Captains Taylor, Parker, Calmes, Catlett, Stokes, Ken- non, Gill, etc., etc., as well as recollected at the distant date.
He continued there until after the middle of December, when he with his command pursuant to orders marched into winter quarters at Boundbrook, on the north side of Raritan River (under the command of Gen. Lord Sterling, who commanded that division of the army) where he continued quietly for a considerable time. The British were confined to New York and its environs and employed in arranging and strengthening their posts of defense. Their embarkation of troops to our Southern States and other occurrences demonstrated the intention of moving the main seat of war there, with a view to attempt the subjugation of those states. Time progressing, it was known that Congress had determined to defend and save Charleston, if possible, and that the eight old Virginia Regiments were doomed to that service. Those (8) Regiments were then so much reduced in number that they were consolidated into (?) Regiments (March, 1780). The officers whose commissions bore the highest rank, of course, took the command. The said Massic was of consequence a supernumerary officer, and, with Gen. Washington's permission, returned to Virginia, holding his commission (which he at this time has) ready and subject to duty with other supernumerary officers whenever called on or required.

He ranked as Major on the 20th February, 1778, but did not take his commission from the war office (not having leisure to call for it) until the 20th March, 1779. His commission as captain was literally worn and rubbed out in his pocket while on duty from the constant exposure to rain, hail and snow day and night. He acted alternately under the commands of Gens. Scott, Weedon, Sullivan, Morgan, Woodford, Gen. Lord Sterling &c., &c. He was afterwards under the command of Gen. Nelson as Aidecamp in the winter of 1780 and 1781, when Arnold invaded Virginia and destroyed the public stores and houses at Richmond and Arsenal and foundry etc., etc., at Westdam and was finally at the siege of Yorktown, and the surrender of that Post with the British Army, in October, 1781.

After the ratification of the treaty of peace, he received five thousand, three hundred and thirty-three and a third acres of land in the states of Ohio and Kentucky (the patents for which he now has) in consideration of his services as Major aforesaid. He likewise received some three per cent and six per cent certificates, not worth much at the time, afterwards sold, amount not recollected. He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension (saving and excepting his right to half pay up to 1831, the claim to which he intends prosecuting before Congress) and he declares that his name is not on the pension roll of any Agency in any state.

My dear Madam,

Though I have no particular intelligence to convey for your amusement, the lapse of a year is such a chasm in a correspondence that it must be accounted on the decline if it is not reanimated at least once in this time: as I wish ours to be preserved, I sit down though without a precise idea of any thing worthy your perusal to endeavor to recollect what has occurred that you may wish to be informed of. Only one circumstance of moment and that a melancholy one has happened in our family since I wrote last viz. the death of my Brother Sir John Penn in 1794 which is a great loss to us all, for his excellent understanding & true friendship for us so tender & so tried we cannot hope or expect to find in another. My sister has been in very great dejection of mind but her health is rather better than formerly, and her spirits are not a little recovered. She is now at Malvern Wells, in Worcestershire where she was so kind as to take my youngest Daughter Susan for a complaint of slight swelling in the glands of her neck—which the use of the waters has nearly removed.

I have now only my youngest son remaining at school, the fourth and fifth are students at Trinity Coll. Cambridge, the sixth a Lieut. in the Royal Artillery commanded by Marquiss Cornwallis.

Naming Cambridge reminds me of telling you or rather Mr. Baylor that we visited Mr. Bond last Summer at his new built house at Wheat-ame in which he seems most comfortably settled and had a few months ago the satisfaction of having the title of Father added to that of husband. Mr. Frere answers for his little son. I hope it will live and be very good

The old master at Caius Coll. Cambridge is lately dead, and Mr. Fisher who Mr. Baylor remembers, elected in his room. His name is changed to Belnard. I mentioned to you my eldest daughter's* marriage to Sir John Orde once Governor of Dominica—then capt. in the Navy. he has lately been promoted to the rank of Rear Admiral of the White. Sir Robert Laurie is now a General & has lately sailed to Germany to take command there & will I hope return safe with honour as he did from a former campaign through a French sabre had nearly prevented the first by a cut in the temple though regarded not.

Lady Laurie† lives still at Dover.

We have news of victory obtained by Admiral Hotham in the Mediterranean, but as yet no particulars. We want some counterbalance to the defeat of the Emigrants at Quiberon Bay.

Mr. Frere joins me in kind respects to Mr. Baylor yourself and Family & Mr. Geo and Daniel Norton with my dear Cousin

Your very affectionate cousin

J. Frere.

THE TOWNES FAMILY.

Abstract From an Old Manuscript that Records the History of The Townes Family of Virginia. In possession of Miss Claudia K. Townes of Greenville, South Carolina.

There were six Townes brothers who were Englishmen. James, John, Thomas, Henry, William and Samuel. Of these James, Samuel and John came over to Virginia and settled in Henrico Co.

William, youngest son of James Townes, settled in Amelia Co. on the Appomatox River. He died in June 1774, aged 63, in possession of 21 negroes and a fine tract of land on Roanoak. He had six sons. The eldest William, Thomas, Henry, John, Joseph and Halcut. William settled in Cumberland Co. and served sometime during the Revolutionary War. He married Obedience, daughter of Samuel Allen.

Thomas enlisted in the army in his 24th year in 1776, served two years regularly and occasionally afterwards amounting in all to five years. The first two years under Washington and six months under Gates. Was engaged in the seige of Gwynns Island against Dunmore under Lewis. Was at the seige of Norfolk when it was burned, and with Wayne at Stony Point. Was then first Lieutenant and wounded in this battle, and also a small skirmish at Portsmouth. He was at the seige of York and saw Cornwallis give up his sword. Returned home and settled in Charlotte Co. but moved to South Carolina in 1798.

John enteres the army at an early age. Went to the North, was engaged in several battles. Returned South, was taken prisoner at Charlestown exchanged and returned to Philadelphia. Married and became clerk of the board of war.

Joseph married in Halifax and died in Mecklinburg.

Halcut settled first in Halifax, moved to Danville. He married a Coleman at the age of 25. Was a lawyer of considerable eminence but died at the early age of 35. Was twice married.

Henry married and reared a large family. He moved to Kentucky and lived to an advanced age. Henry and Halcut were both at the battle of Guilford.
The four sisters were Molly who married William Pride. Nancy, married Charles Jones, Lucretia, married Frank Robinson and Elizabeth who married Blackman Ligon.

Samuel Allen Townes, son of William, married Rachel Stokes of Fredericksbury, in 1799, and moved to Greenville, S. C.

Some Virginians Educated in Great Britain.

This list of natives of Virginia who attended schools or colleges in England and Scotland prior to 1800 is certainly very incomplete; but is as full as the sources accessible in Richmond would allow. Foster's Alumni Oxonienses, of course, gives full information for Oxford, but when the matriculation lists of the Cambridge Colleges, of the great schools like Harrow and Winchester (Mr. Austen-Leigh has given much information in regard to Eton), the London schools, the various grammar-schools throughout England, and Scotch schools and universities (other than the medical school at Edinburgh), and admissions to the various Inns of Court, have been carefully examined by some properly equipped person, there is no doubt that this list can be largely increased. In addition to these institutions many Virginia boys were certainly sent to private schools in England, which were of note at the time, but whose records must now be lost.

The list of names follows. The Virginia residence is given, and at least one year, preferably the first year, of the students residence in the school or college.

Sir John Zouch

In Volume XII, pages 87 and 88, July, 1904, you gave an abstract of the Will, dated 30 August, 1636, and proved 4 December, 1639, of Sir John Zouch, and in a note you made him to be the same Sir John who was knighted at Belvoir Castle 23 April, 1603, and who in 1605 made the agreement with Captain George Weymouth for the settlement of Virginia, a project which was disconcerted by the grant of the Virginia Company's Charter; and also the same (and so he was), who came to Virginia in 1634 and made a futile attempt to plant iron works at Falling Creek, below Richmond, and was mixed up in the dissension between Governor Harvey and his opponents in the Council. And in the same Volume, page 429, you published a communication from me, in which with other matter, I expressed a belief that the Sir John who visited Virginia in 1634 and made the Will of 1636-9 was not the same, but the son of the Sir John Zouch who came near, perhaps, to being the founder of Virginia in 1605.

I have since found a confirmation of my belief in "The Berkeley Manuscripts—Lives of the Berkeleys," by John Smyth, Steward of Berkeley Hundred, England. Smyth, who was himself an arms bearing gentleman, wrote his manuscript history, which is of the highest authority, in and before 1624, although it was not published until 1883, and he was well acquainted with the persons and events of the period in which he was writing. In Volume II, page 402, he gives an account of the marriage of Mary, eldest daughter of his patron, Henry, Lord Berkeley, by his 1st wife, Lady Katherine Howard (3rd daughter of the poet, Henry Howard, Earl of Surrey,) on 14 February, 1584, to John Zouch, Esquire, "after knight," son and heir apparent of Sir John Zouch of Codnor Castle, Derbyshire, which Sir John—the father—"dyed shortly thereafter," and he states that this second Sir John Zouch, who married Lady Mary Berkeley, died in the 8th year of King James the First (1611), leaving a son John, "now knight, of Codnor Castle," who married Isabel Lowe, of Denby, Derbyshire, "by whom hee hath issue John, Katharine, Isable and Elizabeth, anno 1624." He gives further details, but the above is sufficient.

There were three successive Sir John Zouches of Codnor,, the first of whom married Elizabeth, or Eleanor, Whalley—of the family to which the regicide afterwards belonged—and who died in 1586 (Will); the second married Lady Mary Berkeley, was knighted at Belvoir Castle in 1603, was the projector of the Virginia colony in 1605, and died in 1611; and the third married Isabel Lowe in 1607, was a member of the Virginia Company as "Mr. John Zouch" and "John Zouch, Esquire," in 1621-1623, and, being knighted thereafter, visited Virginia in 1634 as Sir John Zouch, attempted to plant iron works and was otherwise concerned with the Colony's affairs, and died in 1639, leaving the Will which was abstracted for the Magazine.

Everything relating to the settlement of Virginia has an interest, and it is interesting to note that the first Sir John Zouch was a companion in arms of Sir Walter Raleigh in Ireland in 1581-2 (Lives of Sir Walter Raleigh, Annals of Ireland by the Four Masters... where the name appears as “Siuitsi”, &c.), and that Raleigh was a prisoner in the Tower in 1605, but receiving visitors and with his mind constantly turned to the American Continent; and so it may well be that the settlement project of Sir John Zouch, the son of his old companion, was suggested by this ardent colonizer, or had his counsel.

Codnor Castle is now a ruin, and a much pillaged one for stone, but what is left of it is still shown to visitors, as it was to another American descendent of the Sir John Zouches a few years ago.

LAFAYETTE LETTER.

Translation of a letter from Lafayette to Washington, found among the papers of Major (Lieut. Col.) Richard C. Anderson, aide to Lafayette.

MEM:

Had the Pennsylvanians arrived before Lord Cornwallis, I had determined to attack the enemy, and I do not doubt that we would have been conquerors—their inexplicable delay cannot be too much deplored and will exercise a great influence over the fate of the campaign. If they had arrived in time to aid me in supporting the first onset of Cornwallis I would have been satisfied; but from a reply of General Wayne, dated the 17th and received to day, I fear that at this moment they have hardly left York town."

He had in the press at the time of his death a volume containing abstracts of the wills of Westmoreland County from the beginning to 1800. Dickinsons of Virginia.

The reunion of the Dickinson Family at Amherst, Mass., in 1883, resulted in the publication of a book on the history of the family. This book states that three sons of Charles Dickinson of London, Walter, Henry and John, came to Virginia in 1654. It traces Walter into Maryland and names him as the founder of the Talbot Dickinsons, who gained distinction in political, military and literary pursuits. It states that John moved into Pennsylvania, and became the progenitor of a line in that state. And it disposes of Henry by stating that he married a Miss Jennings, settled in Virginia, and became the patriarch of the Dickinsons of the Old Dominion and the South.

I can find no foundation for this last statement, although I have been informed of several pedigrees prepared by a genealogist of great reputation, which traces a complete lineage from this Henry Dickinson.

I am working on the genealogy of the Dickinsons of Virginia with an idea of publishing the results of my investigation. If any one can give me authentic information on this subject, showing the lineage of said Henry, I shall certainly be glad to receive it. In fact, I should be glad to have all descendants of Virginia Dickinsons send me as much data as they possess regarding their ancestry, in order that I may compile as full account of the family as possible.

John Rolfe.

John Rolfe the son of John and Dorothea Rolfe married in England and sailed for Virginia in May 1609. The ship in which he came was wrecked on the Bermudas and here a daughter was born, who was named Bermuda and christened Feb. 11, 1609–10. They reached Virginia in May 1610 and Rolfe’s wife and child had either died at the Bermudas or only lived a short time after reaching Virginia.

He became a prominent member of the Colony and is said to have been the first person to suggest the cultivation of tobacco. Early in April 1614 his celebrated marriage with Pocahontas took place. Though evidently greatly attached to her, he had wrestling in spirit (he had much of the Puritanism so prevalent in the eastern counties of England) before he could make up his mind to marry one of heathen birth.

He wrote to Governor Dale: “Nor am I out of hope but one day to see my countrie, nor so void of friends, nor mean of birth, but there to obtain a match to my great content”; but love was stronger than his fears. The curious and interesting letter referred to is most accessible in Meade’s “Old Churches & Families of Virginia”, I. 126–129.

In 1616 Rolfe and Pocahontas went to England and her reception there and the interest she excited are well known.

They were about to set sail for Virginia, on their return, when Pocahontas died at Gravesend and was buried in the Church there March 21, 1616–17. Some confusion has been caused by John Rolfe’s name appearing on the register as "Thomas Wrolfe;" but this is no doubt to be accounted for by the fact that he was a stranger only at Gravesend to embark, and that the clerk or rector made a mistake in the name. The Virginia Society of Colonial Dames will at an early date erect a memorial to Pocahontas in Gravesend Church.

He tried to bring his infant son Thomas with him to Virginia; but when the ship touched at Plymouth it was obvious that the child could not stand the voyage, and he was left there with Sir Lewis Stukeley, until he could be transferred to the care of his uncle Henry Rolfe of London.

On his return to Virginia Rolfe wrote a letter to Sir Edwin Sandys dated Jamestown, June 8, 1617 in which he speaks of his grief at the death of Pocahontas and explains why he had to leave his son. This letter was printed in this Magazine X 134-138.

In the year 1617 Rolfe was appointed Recorder and Secretary General of the Colony, and in 1619 was a member of the Council. As a member of this body he sat in the first American legislature, the Virginia Assembly of 1619, and is the only member of that Assembly who is known to have descendants living at the present day. He married in or before 1620 Jane, daughter of Captain William Pierce (also of the Virginia Council) and had a daughter Elizabeth born 1620. John Rolfe died in 1622 and it is probable that he was killed in the great Indian Massacre of that year. In addition to the letters referred to Rolfe was the author of a "relation" of events in Virginia. Smith, Hamor and all of the early writers speak of him as an honest and worthy gentleman.

His will has been published (in abstract) in Waters' "Gleanings" and is as follows:

John Rolfe, of James City in Virginia, Esq., dated 10 March 1621, proved May 21, 1630 [in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury] by William Pyers [Pierce], Father-in-law William Pyers, gentleman, to have charge of the two small children of very tender age. A parcel of land in the Country of Tappahannah between two creeks over against James City in the Country or Continent of Virginia, to son Thomas Rolfe and his heirs, failing his issue to my daughter Elizabeth; [The land here bequeathed was no doubt the "Smiths Fort" tract], next to my right heirs. Land on Mulberry Island Virginia, to my wife Jane, during her natural life then to daughter Elizabeth. To my servant Robert Davies twenty pounds. Witnesses: Temperance Yeardley, Richard Buck, John Cartwright, Robert Davys and John Milwarde.

THOMAS ROLFE.

Thomas Rolfe, the son of John Rolfe and Pocahontas was born in Virginia in 1615 and was taken to England by his parents. When his mother died and his father returned to Virginia, im March 1616-17 he was left at Plymouth under the care of Sir Lewis Stukeley, who became so notorious and generally detested for his treachery to Sir Walter Raleigh. Thomas Rolfe was afterwards removed to the care of his uncle Henry Rolfe, of London, who was a member of the Virginia Company. The boy remained with him for a number of years. On August 23rd 1618 the Virginia Company wrote to Governor Argall in Virginia. "We cannot imagine why you should give us warning that Opechankano and the natives have given the country to Mr. Rolfe's child and that they reserve it from all others until he comes of years." It would appear from this that the Indians were supposed to have intended that Thomas Rolfe should succeed to the chieftanship of the Powhatans.

In October 1622 Mr. Henry Rolfe petitioned the Virginia Company requesting that he be paid out of the estate of his brother John Rolfe for having brought up the son of his brother and Pocahontas. In a grant of land in 1635 to Captain William Pierce the name of Thomas Rolfe appears among the head rights. This probably indicates the time that he came to Virginia. He was then about twenty years old.

"He afterwards," says Stith, "became a person of fortune and distinction in the Colony." In 1641 he petitioned the Governor for permission to visit his aunt "Cleopatre and his Kinsman Opecacanough." In 1646 as "Lieutenant Thomas Rolfe" he was granted Fort Chickahominy and 600 acres adjoining on condition of keeping a guard there. Between that date and 1663 he patented a number of other tracts of land. There is recorded in Surry County, in 1673, a deed dated June 20, 1654, from Thomas Rolfe to William Corker, conveying 120 acres in Surry, lying between "Smiths fort old field" and "the Devils' Woodyard," which was the property of Thomas Rolfe "by gift from the Indian King." It also appears from various depositions recorded in Surry that he at one time owned the plantation called "Smiths Fort," 1200 acres, at the mouth of Gray's Creek which he sold to Thomas Warren. One of the deponents states that he was present in 1654 with Mr. Thomas Rolfe in Mr. Warren's "fifty foot brick house" on "Smiths Fort" plantation soon after it was completed.

Warren's "Fifty foot brick house" is still standing, the oldest brick dwelling in Virginia to which a date can be assigned. The farm still called "Smiths Fort" now belongs to a prosperous negro farmer. In addition to the old house there is much of interest in the neighborhood. On John Smith's map of Virginia may be seen at the mouth of Gray's Creek opposite Jamestown, the inscription "The New Fort". Smith states that on 1608 or 1609 he built a fort as a place of refuge in case of being compelled to retreat from Jamestown "on a convenient river upon a high commanding eminence." It has been suggested foolishly, that this fort was the "Old Stone House" on Ware Creek in the upper part of James City County; but any retreat to this place would have been through dense forests which afforded ample cover for the Indians. It seems there can be no doubt that the fort Smith refers to was the "New Fort" on Gray's Creek, and that this was on the "Smith's Fort" tract.
VIEW FROM THE BLUFF AT SMITH'S FORT
a half mile from the brick house referred to is a high bluff, about the middle of a long bend in Gray's Creek. On the opposite side are wide marshes, and ravines at the sides of the bluff make it something of a promontory. Across the rear of the bluff traces of trenches can be distinctly seen, though the covering of leaves makes them, in the photograph, less distinct than they really are. There can be little doubt that we have here the remains of Smiths "New Fort."

Thomas Rolfe's wife is said (though there is no proof of the correctness of the statement) to have been a Miss Poythress, and he had an only child, Jane, who married in 1675 Col. Robert Bolling and died in 1676. Among the James City records (now destroyed) was the following deed, communicated to the "Southern Literary Messenger" by the once well-known Virginia antiquary, Richard Randolph: "This Indenture made 1st October 1698 between John Bolling of the County of Henrico and parish of Varina, Gent, son and heir of Jane late wife of Robert Bolling, of Charles City County, Gent, which Jane was the only child of Thomas Rolfe, dec'd, conveying to William Brown, of the parish of Wilmington, in the County of James City, one thousand acres of land commonly called the Fort on Chickahominy River, as per patent granted to Thomas Rolfe (this was Fort Chickahominy granted him in 1646).

Thomas Rolfe probably died in James City County, so the records in regard to his will death &c. have been destroyed along with all the records of that County.

THE BEVERLEY FAMILY.

(See XX, 437)

32. William* Beverley (Robert*) entered Trinity College, Cambridge University, April 4, 1781, at the age of 18. He did not return to Virginia; but made his home at Beverley, in Yorkshire. He served for thirty years as a magistrate and deputy-lieutenant for the East Riding of Yorkshire and in 1832 was appointed vice-lieutenant.

He married Mary, daughter and co-heiress (with her sister Anna Margaretta, wife of Lord Grantley) of Jonathan Midgeley, of Beverley, and with her acquired a large fortune. Issue: 46. Robert McKenzie, a magistrate and deputy lieutenant for the East Riding died in 1868

The papers printed below were sent to the Historical Society by Mr. Fowler with the letters published in the last number.

Extract from a fragment of Mr. R. M. Beverley's diary dated June 1837.

Amongst the papers which have passed through my hands this day I find many relating to the will of my paternal grandfather which seems to have been the cause of much litigation & strife amongst his numerous sons & daughters—he died where he had lived at his vast estate of Blandfield in the county of Essex in the state of Virginia, North America; & it is painful to see how much of his property was in slaves [Quotes a clause in Robt Beverley's will, already printed]

Many other parts of his will mention his slaves, he says he has already given his son Robert Beverley (his 2nd son) sixty negroes—he gives 28 negroes to each of his daughters—

In codicils he says he has given 36 slaves to his son Carter, & 36 to his son Byrd—In many passages he mentions his slaves—sometime thus 'my slaves & stock mules' ........................ His second son Robert succeeded in supplanting his elder brother my father in the inheritance—

My grandfather left my father £6000 & nothing more, though to raise this sum slaves were to be sold together with an estate—His second son probably inherited estates of a value not less than £100,000; he still lives at the family mansion at Blandfield—he has one son—My grandfather was born at Blandfield, but was sent to be educated at Beverley Grammar School & Cambridge—

My great-grandfather was much in England, & was educated at Beverley, but I think born in Virginia, but of this I am not certain [He was born in Va]

My great great grandfather Robert Beverley sold his Yorkshire estates & was the first of the family to go to Virginia [Incorrect he was the 2nd generation]. He is the author of that 'History of Virginia' that de Tocqueville quotes—

My grandfather died in 1800—Washington was a cousin of my grandfather—The Washingtons came from South Cave in Yorkshire—

In pursuance of the directions of my grandfather's will I find the following copy of an advertisement inserted in the provincial newspapers—

'Pursuant to the last will & testament of the late Robert Beverley 'of Blandfield, will be sold for ready money at the Bowling green 'on Tuesday the 13th January 1801 being Caroline Court, if fair;
'if not the next fair day, Fifty Negroes consisting of very likely 'middleaged, young men, boys, young women & children.

Extract from a fragment of a letter written to Mr. R. M. Beverley from Mr. Francis P. Corbin from Paris during the Civil War in America— of those of your name I have heard but little lately as they are for the most part in the far South, but I make no doubt all are under arms that can bear them. Our Cousin William of Blandfield must be near if not turned of 70, & although unable to help "manibus pedibusque" in the din of battle he supplies the sinews of war in another sense—

His former banker is now here & tells me he "enjoys good health & a very ample estate for any country—" He has never married & it is supposed that he will leave his property to the son of his brother Bradshaw who lived & died near Winchester in Virginia where he too had a good estate & charming residence which the enemy have not spared—

Mr. William Beverley’s estate partly inherited & partly increased by his own savings & investments was estimated before the war began at some £250000 to £300000 sterling or about a million & a half of dollars. I give you all these family details as thinking they may be of interest to you—

BOOK REVIEWS.

Rockingham is one of Virginia's largest and richest counties and has been very fortunate in having so able and scholarly an historian as Dr. Wayland. In every phase of the history, civil, military, religious, and economic, the work of the trained student is evident.

While giving in a very interesting way all of the things usually found in county histories, the author has studied and presents many important subjects which the average writer of such works overlooks, or does nor understand the importance of.

The appendix contains much matter of interest including a good bibliography.

If our reviewing space were not crowded it would be a pleasure to enter more fully into the character and merits of this admirable work.

It is very surprising that Richmond should so long have been without a historian. Mordecai and Little, writing many years ago, did but little to supply the want, and Dr. Christian's work can hardly be called a history. It is however a very useful chronicle. The author has been an indefatigable student of newspaper files, and has given, in compact form, most of the great and small events in the history of the City down to the present time.

As a chronicle of events, especially since the Revolution, "Richmond, Her Past and Present" has much value. As a real history there is much lacking.
The author, indeed, shows in many places an unfamiliarity with history outside of the newspapers. On p. 3 he seems to think that Henricopolis was at the site of Richmond. Certainly there never was a new Henrico at Tuckahoe.

St. Johns Church (p. 8) was not called St. Johns when it was built, but was given that name about 1829. An account is given of Arnold's occupation of Richmond; but not of that by Cornwallis later in the same year. The plan for Gabriel's Insurrection (pp. 52-53) had been arranged much more carefully than would be thought from the account given here.

On page 198 it is stated in regard to William and Mary College that "the Assembly after the burning of the town of Henrico, ordered it to be built in Williamsburg." Henrico was burnt in 1622 and William and Mary was not chartered until 1692-3. The two College plans had nothing to do with each other.

A series of views of Richmond at various dates is reproduced and adds to the value of what, as has been stated, is a very useful book.

Dr. Broun did admirable work as an officer of the ordnance department of the Confederacy; but his great lifework was what he did for education in the South after the war; especially as President of the Alabama Agricultural and Mechanical College. The story of his life was worth preserving, and it has been well told by the authors of this book.

A large part of the Volume consists of letters to and from Dr. Broun, articles on his life and work other than the authors, and addresses by Dr. Broun himself.

As our review department has to be confined to historical subjects, we can only note the receipt of this collection of Judge Lucas' poems.

Judge Jones' history if this noted family, which has given so many distinguished sons to the civil and military service of the Country, has long been well and favorably known. He is the fortunate possessor of a very large and valuable collection of family papers covering the period from the emigrant to the present time. Many of these papers contained signatures, armorial seals and other matters of interest outside as well as within the family connection, and many have desired to have access to them. In addition to genealogical information they contain much relating to social history, education and economic conditions in the colonial period.

The author has now made many of these documents accessible in a new edition. This edition was prepared by using the sheets of the first edition, making large additions which are the result of investigations since that was published and inserting a very large number of good photographic fac-similes.

The book is of great interest and should be in all collections of American genealogy.

Genealogy of the Baskerville Family and Some Allied Families Including the English Descent From 1266 A.D. By Patrick Hamilton Baskerville, Richmond, Va. W. Ellis Jones' Sons Inc. 1912 pp. 214 with four illustrations and index.

This handsome and carefully prepared book was compiled by Mr. Baskerville for distribution among the members of his family. It treats of the Baskervilles, descended from John Baskerville of York County, Va., a younger son of Thomas Baskerville of Old Withington, Cheshire, the Hamiltons, Turners (of N. C.), Watkins', Douglas, Dickenson, Boling, Barber, Norvell, Minge, Harrison, Eaton, Coleman, Embry, Gordon, Murray, Kennon, Worsham, Rolfe and others.

Of course most of these families are treated of only in their relation to the main subject of the book. There is a large number of family charts, and the whole work is very well done.

Angus McDonald, believed with good reason to have been of the Glengarry family, was out in the "45", came to Virginia in 1746, settled finally in Frederick Co., named his new home "Glengarry" and did good service as a commander against the Indians. His descendants have been men of prominence, and as became their descent, have, been active in all of our wars. Mrs. Williams has written an admirable family history which is greatly helped by the number of letters, diaries &c. of the Civil War period to which she has access. Every McDonald above the age of childhood was in the Confederate Army.

Another of our well known Scotch-Irish families is here treated of in a very thorough and comprehensive way. Mr. McCue has evidently spared no pains to make his book as complete and accurate as possible.

Welsh Settlement of Pennsylvania. By Charles H. Browning, Philadelphia, W. J. Campbell, 1912, pp. 631, with 17 maps and illustrations, and index.

Beginning in the year 1682 a considerable emigration of Quakers from Wales to Pennsylvania took place.

This book exploits the chronicles and economic history of these Welsh Friends (and, incidentally, of the Welsh Baptists, and other Welsh American colonists, who removed in Colonial times to Penn's province), and their families, ancestors and descendants; records of their land companies, and of their plantations in the "Welsh Tract;" sketches of their Meetings, monthly and preparative, and of their meeting houses (especially that of the Merion Preparatory Meeting); documentary accounts of the administration of civil affairs in the "Welsh Barony;" the annals of the Welsh townships, Merion, Haverford, Radnor, etc., the substantiated story of the struggles between the Welsh Friends and William Penn, and his representatives; memoirs of many early Welsh Friends, etc., and it is such subjects that indicate the general scope of this work.

Discourse on the Lives and Characters of the Early Presidents and Trustees of Hampden-Sidney College. Delivered at the Centenary of the Founding of the College, on the 14th day of June, 1876. By Hugh Blair Grisby, LL. D. President of the Virginia Historical Society and Chancellor of the College of William and Mary, Richmond. The Hermitage Press, 1913, pp. X, 46, with several portraits.

The mingling of careful historical study with a great amount of information derived from individuals and never before in print, which gave such interest and value to Mr. Grisby's addresses on the Conventions of 1776, 1788 and 1829, characterizes that which is now printed for the first time. Mr. A. J. Morrison has again done good service to Hampden-Sidney and to Virginia in publishing this address. It is prefaced by a life of Hugh Blair Grigsby, and contains portraits of various presidents of the College.

Richmond, Virginia, MCMXII, pp. XLIII, 369, with index.

This splendidly printed series of Journals goes steadily on. They have become so familiar to historical students that all that need be said is that the high standard of the preceding volumes has been maintained in this. The prefaces are, as usual, valuable contributions to the history of the period covered by the Journals.

82. OUR WILL AND PLEASURE THEREFORE IS That for the future the Method of Granting of Land be in such form and Manner, and under the like Conditions Covenants and Reservations of Quitrent as are by the Charter and Laws of that our Colony allow'd and Directed to be made and as were permitted to be made before the Instructions given to Robert Hunter Esq' as aforesaid, PROVIDED due care be taken that in all such Grants hereafter to be made regard be had to the profitable and unprofitable Acres, and particularly that every Patentee be obliged in the best and most Effectual Manner to Cultivate & Improve three Acres part of every fifty Acres so granted within the term of three Years after the Passing of such Grant and in Case of failure thereof such Grant or Grants to be void and of None Effect.

Order of Privy Council in Regard to Money in England Belonging to Virginia

On the 26th of June 1677 their Lo’p* agree, upon a report to be made His Ma concerning Moneys raised & disposed of, by the Assembly of Virginia as follows

The Right Hon’ble the Lord Memorandum Privy Seal, is desired by the Lords of the Committee for Trade and Plantations to report, unto his Ma in Council, that whereas their Lordships have received informations from Virginia that a very considerable Sum of Money raised there in the Years 16 and 16 and deposited in England for a Public Stock, to be made use of for rewards and other expences to such as were sent as Agents from the said Colony, for procuring a Charter from his Ma and other public uses, has been for the greatest part thereof; by the late Admiralty (called while the Country was yet remaining under great distractions and incapable of making their elections after the usual manner) distributed and disposed of by bills of Exchange, to uses which may prove less agreeable to the intentions of the new Assembly, called by the Present Governor. Their Lo’p* are therefore most humbly of opinion, that in regard the present condition of this Colony is so miserable and necessitous, that the misapplication of so considerable a sum of money, would be of very evil consequence to his Ma's affairs, and re-settlement of the Country, the Treasurers now in England, and other persons who, by their correspondences and interests are nearly concerned herein, may be called upon and examined concerning this matter; to the End his Ma may be enabled to give such Orders, as to his Wisdom shall seem meet.

Green Spring, April 2d, 1677

Honoured Gentlemen,

I am commanded as Clerk of the Assembly to acquaint your Honors that there will be several Bills of Exchange drawn upon you for satisfaction of the Public debts to the value of two thousand eight hundred ninety five pounds, thirteen shillings and ten pence. The persons to whom the money is due do immediately require their bills and I suppose will send them for England by the first ships. You will please to honour them with acceptance and payment and according to the directions of the Order of Assembly place the same to account.

What is in Col. Parks his hands according to his Letters and accumpt. to the Assembly will be drawn upon him; the rest upon Mr Secretary, for that Col. Morison hath informed, it lyes in his hands.

I am most honored gentlemen
Your most humble servant

THE KING’S most EXCELLENT MA’TY in COUNCIL.

The R’t Hon’ble The Lords of the Committee of this Board for Trade, having this day reported, to his Ma’ty in Council, that they have received information from Virginia that a very considerable sum of money raised there, in the years 1674 and 1675 and deposited in England, for a Public Stock to be made use of for rewards and other Expences to such as were sent as Agents, from the said Colony for procuring a Charter, from His Ma’ty and other public necessities hath been for the greatest part thereof, by the late Assembly (called while the Country was yet remaining under great distractions and incapable of making their Elections after the usual manner) distributed and disposed of, by bills of Exchange, to uses, which may prove less agreeable to the Intentions of the New assembly, called by the present Governor; It was upon consideration thereof, and in regard the present condition of the said Colony, is so miserable and necessitous that the misapplication of so considerable a sum of money would be of very evil consequence, to his Majesty's affairs and resettlement of the Country, Ordered by his Majesty in Council, that Tho. Ludwell Esq' and Co'l Daniel Parke Treasurers for Virginia be, and they are hereby required to attend the Board concerning the matter on Friday next the 13th instant at ten of the clock in the Morning. And that in the mean time the Treasurer and all other persons who have in their hands any public Moneys of the said Colony, do forbear to dispose thereof, notwithstanding any directions, they have received from the Assembly of Virginia for that purpose.

March 13, 1676-7

Representation of the Colony and Assembly of Virginia—signed by W. Claiborne—to his Maj. Commiss'rs for the settlement of Virginia in these troublesome times of Rebellion and General disturbances. In all time, since the dissolution of the Virginia Patent, they have received assurances under the broad seal of England and many Declarations from the then King that their estates should be conserved and in no sort prejudiced—During which time the petit' Col. Claiborne hath been resident in Virginia and enjoyed as a Councillor and Secretary of State there, the benefits thereof. And by virtue of Commissions under his Maj. Government & seal of Virginia and by express directions from the Commissions under the broad seal of England did discover and plant the isle of Kent—From this time it continued under the government of Virginia and men arrested at the isle of Kent for felonies &c. were returned to appear at James City—but Lord Baltemore's officers came & expelled us by force of arms several times and hanged our men without trial or just cause given; they also took away our goods, servants and cattle and displanted us at Palmer's Island, out of their limits in Susquehanah river—All this they did in spite of his Maj. commands to the contrary not to molest us.

(The Virginia branch of the ancient and wide-spread English family of Chichester has been recently authoritatively traced to its English source. At Raleigh, Arlington, Hall and elsewhere in Devon, and in Ireland, the family was of note. A "History of the Chichester Family" by Sir A. P. B. Chichester, Bart. (London, 1871) is in the library of this Society, presented by Captain Arthur Mason Chichester of Leesburg, Va. An account of the Virginia Chichesters may be found in Hayden’s "Virginia Genealogies," pp. 91-95, 106-109. May it Please yo'r Majtie,

In Obedience to their Excellencies ye Lords Justices ord'r of reference in Councill the 3d of Novemb'r 1698, Wee have Considered of ye anexed representation of ye Councill of Trade and thee papers thereunto anexed relateing to ye granting of Letters of Denization by ye Governors in ye plantations, and by ye presidents Shewed unto us wee find ye usall Method of granting Denization in the plantations hath been by Acts of Assembly of w'h Sev'll Instances have been Shewed to us, Viz't By an Act passed In ye Gen'll Assembly of ye Province of Maryland ye 10th of June 1697 Stephen francis an Italian and George Slaumbe a German were Naturalized and thereby Vested with all ye Rights and Privileges of naturall born Subjects of ye province and ye there by another act passed in the Same Assembly ye 30th of March 1698, one Peter Dowdee a frenchman was in Like manner Naturalized But in both the said Acts there is an Express provisoe ye they Shall not be Constructed to Enable or qualify ye sd Persons to hold or enjoy any place office Calling or Employment prohibited by an Act of Parliament made In ye 7th & 8th
Years of your Majts Reign for preventing frauds and regulating Abuses in ye Plantations trade or any other Statute Law In England.

And Wee Likewise find that in November 1697, Coll: Benjamin Fletcher then Gover of the Province of New York Did Grant Letters of Denization undr ye Seale of ye sd Province unto one Arnold Nodine a Foreigner in which Grant there is a Clause to Enable ye sd Nodine to take & hold Lands Tenemts hereditamts &c. to himself his heirs and Assignes In fee Simple wth power to Sue and be Sued, and to enjoy all other rights and Priviledges as a naturall born Subject of ye Province wth out any Restriction or regard to ye sd Act of Navigation or any other Statute of England, But wee do not find ye sd Coll: Fletcher had any Express power by his Comissions to grant any Letter of Denization.

And Wee are humbly of Opinion yt ye Governs of ye plantations ought not to grant Letters of Denizations unless they were Expressly Authorized So to do by their Comissions and ye noe Acts of Denization or Naturalization in any of ye plantations will qualifie any person to be master of a ship wth in any of ye Statutes made in this Kingdom wth require masters of Ships to be Englishmen.

All which is most humbly Submitted to yo Majts Royall Wisdom.

Whitehall. Aug 21st 1700

Sir

We have rec'd yo'r Letter of the 10th of June last, with many Papers therein mentioned and referred to.

We congratulate the Success you have had in yo'r late Enterprise against the Pirats; And take this occasion to tell you that wee hope that all difficulties that might arise about the Conduct of the Governors of any of his Majesties Plantations towards Piratts will hereafter be in great measure removed, by an Act past here the Last Session of Parliam't for the more Effectuall Suppression of Pyracy, And the Comissions w'h are now preparing to be sent thither in pursuance of y's Act, not doubting but the same will also be very Effectuall towards the Suppression of Pyracy as intended.

What you write concerning Navigation Bonds (w'h we take to be much what y's same Case in Virginia as in Maryland) is proper for y's consideracon of the Com'rs of the Customs, & by them to be laid before y's L'ds Comission'rs of y's Treasury from whom all Directions in matters relateing to his Maj'ties Revenue must come; and there are many other things in yo'r s'd Letter w'h belong to y's Care of y's Lords Com'rs of y's Admiralty, & others to other Offices concerning w'h you have not observed y's advice and the reason of our so advising w'h we gave you in Ours of y's 4th of January last, and have thereby left us doubtful whether it were necessary for us to Comunicate y's Copies of what we receive from you unto them, or what else might be fit for us to do therein, w'h inconvenience we therefore againe intreat you for y's future to prevent.

The Care you promise in advancing his majesties Revenue, & y's hopes you express of being able in a year or two to Build a house for his Maj'ties Governor are very acceptable things, and as we doubt not of yo'r endeavours therein we hope they will accordingly prove Successfull.

We are glad also to Observe that you were taking care about the Revisal of the Lawes of Virg'a according to what we Explained to you of the Sence of his Maj'ties Instruccon ab't that matter, in our aforesaid Letter of y* 4th of January; And hope we shall accordingly e're long receive them so Revised, that we thereby may be enabled to consider them in Order, & offer our opinion thereupon to his Maj'ties, w'ch we cannot now, do upon these last rec'd, for want of a perfect & Authentick Collection of the whole, And we desire you therefore to make what dispatch you can therein.

We have found an inconvenience from some of his Maj'ties Plantations, in having private Acts fastened together under the same Seal with those y* are of a public nature, the one proving sometimes an obstruccon to y* dispatch of y* other; And we therefore desire you (as we have done other Governors) whenever any such private Acts come to be past in Virginia to take care y* they be sent each of y'm under a Separate Seal, and that the persons concerned therein be advised to direct some of their friends here to Sollicit their Dispatch with the Attorney or Sollicitor Generall and to furnish those friends with all memorials necessary to enable y'm to give information in any Doubts or Enquiries that may be made thereupon.

Tho' Mr Penn have given us a particular account of his having applied himself (since his arrival in Pensilvania) to y* reformation of the irregularities w'ch have been in y* Province, it is very acceptable to us to receive the confirmation thereof from You, and to understand yo* readiness to Correspond w'th him as w'th the Earle of Bellemont & Colonel Blakiston, in anything for his Maj'ties Service; And whenever it shall happen that you can all of you meet together to consult of y* mutual Welfare of your respective Governm'ts, we cannot but hope some good effect from it.

Having lately rec'd a L* from Mr John Moore, desiring y* some Salary may be appointed for his Service as Advocate in the Admiralty Court of Pensilvania, in which place he says you had put him, we desire you to let him know y* we writ you the 4th January last upon the like occasion, (viz*) That when any Salaries are Settled upon the like Officers in other places, we shall be ready to propose that y* same be done for him; But that the Consideracon of y* matter belonging more properly to the Lords of the Treasury, or Lords of the Admiralty, we do not at present think it fit for us to move anything in it.

Upon what you write of the difficulty to get a Quorum of Councillors to meet together and about Colonel Lee's desiring to be discharged from attending upon that Service, we have offered to their Excellencies the Lords Justices our Opinion that he may be discharged accordingly, and that Mr Lewis Burwell may be constituted a Member of his Majesties Council in Virginia in his stead.

We have ordered our Secretary to write to you upon some other heads of less moment; And so referring you for those matters to his Letter; We bid you heartily farewell

Your very Loving Friends

(2)-Nathaniel Causey, lived at "Causeys Cave" or "Care," in the present Prince George County, probably the later "Cawsons," which was the birthplace of John Randolph of Roanoke, and long a seat of the Bland family; at the census of 1624-5 he lived at Jordan's Journey, and his "Muster" comprised himself, who came in the Phoenix in 1607, his wife Thomasine who came in the Lyon in 1609, and five servants. Nathaniel Causey was one of John Smith's soldiers was badly wounded during the Indian Massacre of 1622, was a member of the House of Burgesses in 1623, and when he returned to England in 1627 (whether as a visitor or to stay is not known) was one of those who contributed information to Smith’s General History.

Between May, 1621 and June, 1622 among the large grants of land made by the Virginia Company was one to Rowland Truelove, and several associates, who organized themselves into a private Society called the Truelove Society Plantation. But little is known of this plantation. Brown, First Republic, (499,568) mentions two voyages in 1622 and 1623 from England of the bark Truelove belonging to the Society, carrying supplies and emigrants.

(3)-Richard Milton, who came in the Suply in 1620, lived at Jordan's Journey, 1624-5.

(4)-John Downman age 33, who had come on the John and Francis in 1611, lived at Elizabeth City in 1624-5, with his wife Elizabeth, age 22, who came in the Warwick in 1621. He was a Burgess for Elizabeth City in 1623.

Captain Nicholas Marten or Martian was a Protestant Walloon who was denizized in England and came to Virginia. He lived at the Main near Jamestown in 1624, at Elizabeth City in 1625. (when his age is given as 33 and it is stated he came in the Francis Bonaventure in 1620), was one of the first settlers at Kiskiack (in the neighborhood of the present Yorktown) in 1620. He was a member of the House of Burgess for Kiskiack in March, 1624-5, for that place and the Isle of Kent, February, 1631-2 and for Kiskiack, Sept., 1632, and February, 1632-3. His will was proved in York County April 4, 1657. His first wife appears to have been Jane, widow of Lt. Edward Berkeley and his second Isabell Beech. Captain Martian took a leading part in the first Virginia "rebellion," that against Governor Harvey in 1635, and had the honor to be the common ancestor of Washington and Lee.

The "Publique Congregation" refers to the members of the church near Hampton, whose foundations were discovered not long ago.

(5)-This entry shows that in 1624 there were stores or warehouses outside the palisades of the fort at Jamestown and that sentries were kept regularly on duty.

(9)-These entries evidently refer to an attack made by Indians on one of the Virginia settlements in 1623 or 1624. It is probable the attack occurred at Warrosquiacke (present Isle of Wight Co.) Captain Nathaniel Basse of Basses Choice in 1625, was then aged 35 and had come in the Furtherance in 1622. On June 2, 1620 and January 30, 1621-2, he with his associates, Sir Richard Worsley, Bart. John Hobson, gent. and Captain Christopher Lawne agreed with the Virginia Company to transport 100 persons to Virginia, and received a confirmation of their old patent, the plantations on which was called "The Isle of Wight Plantation." Captain Basse was Burgess for Warrosquiacke March, 1623-4 and October, 1629.

Basse's choice was at Warrosquiacke. Nearby was the plantation of Mr. Edward Bennett, and Henry Pinke, who came in the London Merchant in 1619 and John Bate, who came in the Addam in 1621, were included among Bennett's servants or subordinates. Bennett's Plantation was at the present Rock Wharf on James River and Basse's Choice was not far below on the west side of the mouth of Pagan Creek.

(7) - Rice How or Hooe (proper form of the name) was born about 1599, and came to Virginia, not in 1635, as has been heretofore stated, but at least as early as 1624. He patented considerable tracts of land in James City and Charles City Counties, and was member of the House of Burgesses for Shirley Hundred Island 1642 and for Charles City County 1644, 1645 and 1646. The destruction of the records of Charles City County and of most of the early ones of Stafford prevent us from ascertaining his relation to the Hooes of Stafford, King George, &c.

In the census of 1624-5, in Christopher Woodard's "Muster" at West and Shirley Hundred, appear his own name and those of his "partners" John Higgins and Rice Howe, who was then aged 26 and who came in the Gifte in 1618.

In the remaining records of Stafford is a suit, made 1690, by a white servant endeavoring to obtain his freedom. He states that he was sold to Thomas Howard, deceased, "predecessor to Mr. Rice Hooe" (which means that Hooe had married Howard's widow) and had served six years, making it about 1684, when he was sold. In the same county Court in 1691 is a suit against Rice Hooe, who married Mary Massey, widow. In a deed in Stafford, 1701, is mention of a mill on Occoquan built by the father of Mr. Rice Hooe, then living. The Rice Hooe of the text was probably the father of the first of the name in Stafford, though there is no positive proof. For notes on Hooe family, see this Magazine IV., 427-429; XIII, 319-320.

(8) - Silvester Bullen, aged 28 in 1625, was then a servant to Richard Tree on James City Island. Robert Marshall and Anne, his wife, both of whom came in the George, were living at James City Island 1625.

SLAUGHTER FAMILY

(Compiled by the late John S. Carpenter, Louisville, Ky.)

Arms: Argent, a saltire azure.

Motto: Invictae Fidelitatis Praemium.

The above described arms are found on a seal to a bond bearing date of 1685, signed by William Slaughter, High Sheriff of Essex County, Va. They correspond with the arms of the Slaughters of Gloucester and Worcester in England, as given by Burke in his "Landed Gentry."

The Slaughters were among the earlier settlers in Virginia. There were two of the name, John and William, in Virginia prior to 1620. William was killed in the great Indian Massacre of March 22, 1622.
1. John Slaughter had numerous grants of land, by purchase and for the importation of immigrants, between the years 1620 and 1635. He had three sons. [This is only a conjecture.—Editor.]

2. I. Francis.

II. William.—He was High Sheriff of Essex County in 1685. He married Phoebe, daughter of Colonel Toby Smith of Rappahannock, and widow of William Hodgkins, who died in 1673. She married as her third husband William Peachey and died in 1710, her will having been proved in Essex County on April 10 of that year. William Slaughter left no issue.

III. Richard.—He had grants of land in 1652, 1655, 1679, 1689, etc. No record of his marriage or of his having left issue.

2. Captain Francis Slaughter,² (John¹) the eldest son of John, was born about 1630 and died 1656-7. He was Captain of Militia, Justice for Rappahannock, a planter and merchant. He married about 1652, Elizabeth Underwood, sister of Colonel William Underwood, and his wife Margaret. Elizabeth (Underwood) Slaughter married secondly, Colonel John Catlett, Presiding Justice for Rappahannock, who was killed by the Indians in 1671, while defending a frontier fort. In 1672-3, the twice widowed Elizabeth Underwood married the Rev. Amory Butler. She died in 1673. The following is an abstract of her will:

Legatees: "son, Francis Slaughter, all the furniture of my chamber, except a chest of drawers, which I give to my daughter, Sarah, and a close-stool to my son, John Catlett—to son, Francis Slaughter, all goods, money, plate, and rings, mentioned in an account in the hands of Mr. Daniel Gaines; also one negro boy, and an equal share of my stock of pewter, brass and iron also a great chair, a small couch, a chest, and such other things in the house as my mother gave me by her will,—to daughter Elizabeth, the bed and furniture now in the dining room, the press and cushion—great looking glass, drawing table and Turkey Carpet, and my childbed linen, blankets, and fine basket, my wedding ring, my biggest diamond ring, gilded bodkin, necklace with the biggest pearls, a small bible, silver sucking bottle and the small Cabinet. To daughter, Sarah, two of my biggest stone rings, the small pearl necklace, silver bodkin, my new trunk, napkin press, a small bible, small testament, a dram cup, my wedding ring and an oval table.—to son, John, a small diamond ring, the map in the dining room, a rapier, a great cutlash, a pair of silver buttons, a pair of silver buckles, and the antimonial cup.—to son, William, a small cutlash, a ring with the stone enameled blue, a silver seal.—to two daughters, all my wearing apparel, clothes and linen.—to sons, John and William, all my books, according to the inventory.—to sons, John and William, and two daughters, all of my plate, except three spoons, and also to them, all pewter, brass, linnen and other household stuff not otherwise bequeathed.—to three sons, each a carbine.—to the four children of husband, John Catlett, a gray mare and furniture; to cousin, Wm. Underwood the elder, one colt.—to cousin, Humphrey Booth, a chest and goods which were my mothers.—to cousin, Catherine Booth, a silver candle cup which was her grandmother's—to sister Pierce, a mourning ring. My executors shall supply what tobacco may be needed for my children's education in England, according to my deceased husband's will. What money remains in the hands of Messrs. Gifford and Munford in London, to be used for the purchase of furniture for my son Francis Slaughter, in lieu of what his father-in-law owed him—Beloved husband, Amory Butler, executor, and my cousin, Captain Thos. Hawkins, my brother, Edward Rowzee and Mr. Daniel Gaines, overseers of my will—to brother Booth's children, several cattle.—to beloved husband, Amory Butler, a bed, furniture, and a mourning ring."

Captain Slaughter's will was proved in Essex County in 1657. Legacies to his mother-in-law, Margaret Upton, (she had married as her second husband, Lt. Col. John Upton); to brother-in-law, Col. Moore Fauntleroy, rapier and saddle mare; to brother-in-law, Humphrey Booth, cloth for suit of clothes to his overseer, etc; wife Elizabeth, executrix. issue:

3. 1. Francis.

3. Francis Slaughter,3 (Francis2 John1) only son of Captain Francis and Elizabeth Underwood Slaughter was born in Essex County about 1653. He was a planter in Richmond County, and died in 1718, his will dated Nov. 6, 1718, having been proved on March 4, 1718–9. He directs that his goods made over to his wife by a deed of gift before marriage be well and truly paid, and that as, with his wife's consent he had sold a negro called Frank, given her by that deed, which was in lieu of dower, he directs that she be given a negro called Caesar. His will further provides that his wife be given corn in the ground and other necessaries for the maintenance of her family. All the rest of his estate, real and personal he bequeathed to his daughters, Mary and Elizabeth. Son-in-law, John Taylor, sole executor. By his wife, Margaret Hudson, whom he married about 1679, Francis Slaughter has issue:

4. I. ROBERT. [Though most probably a son of Francis, no record evidence of the fact is given.—Ed.]

II. WILLIAM. He was a beneficiary under the will of his father's half-brother, Col. John Catlett, the second.

III. MARTHA (or Margaret). She was probably the wife of John Taylor, son-in-law and executor named in Francis Slaughter's will.

IV. MARY.

V. ELIZABETH.
4. Robert Slaughter\textsuperscript{4} (Francis \textsuperscript{3,2}John\textsuperscript{1}), was born about the year 1680. He was a prosperous planter of Essex County, where he lived and died. He had extensive grants of land in Spottsylvania County (1719 and 1723), part of which was transferred to his sons during his lifetime, and the remainder bequeathed to them by his will. He married about the year 1700 Frances Anne Jones, daughter of Lt. Colonel Cadwalader Jones, and grand-daughter of Richard Jones, a wealthy merchant of London, and the owner of a considerable landed estate in County Devonshire, England. The following is an abstract of Robert Slaughter's will, dated Feb. 5, 1725, and proved in Essex County on August 16, 1726:

"To loving wife Frances Slaughter, two negro men named Jack and Tony; to son Francis one thousand acres of land lying in the forks of the Rappahannock River, one negro boy named Fanny, one negro girl named Cate and their increase; to son Robert one negro woman named Moll and her two children named Harry and Toney and their increase, one cow and calf; to son Thomas, one tract of land lying at the Little Mountains containing two hundred and fourteen acres, one tract of land lying at the Black Walnut Run, and one tract of land lying on the Mounts Creek containing three hundred acres, also negro boy named Ben, negro girl Beck and their increase; remainder of estate to loving wife Frances and to sons Francis and Thomas. Executor Francis Slaughter.

Robert and Frances Anne Slaughter had issue:

5. I. Francis.
6. II. Robert.
7. III. Thomas of Caroline County.

5. Colonel Francis Slaughter\textsuperscript{5} (Robert\textsuperscript{4}, Francis\textsuperscript{3,2}, John\textsuperscript{1}), eldest son of Robert and Frances Anne (Jones) Slaughter was born in Essex County about 1701. After his father's death he removed to Culpeper, where he died in 1766, his will dated Sept. 18, 1765, with codicil dated Sept. 22, 1765, having been proved in May 1766. He was a large landowner in Culpeper and Orange. THE ANCESTORS AND DESCENDANTS OF JOHN ROLFE WITH NOTICES OF SOME CONNECTED FAMILIES.

BOLLING OF YORKSHIRE AND LONDON

Cudworth’s “History of Bolton and Bowling” (Bradford, 1891) contains a considerable amount of information in regard to the early history of the Bolling family, which was long resident in the vicinity of Bradford and Bolton. The author states that the spelling “Bowling” is a modernisation. The first mention he gives of the Bolling family is in a poll or head tax list of the inhabitants of the township of Bowling, in the year 1379. First in the list appears Johannes de Bollyng, Esquier, & uxor [wife] Vjs VIIjh (6sh-8d.)

“The principal contributor, who in fact paid more than all the remainder of the inhabitants of the township, was John de Bolling. He is therefore styled ‘esquire.’ The Bollings were not only the first family of any importance which took its name from the township, but it was of considerable repute in this part of Yorkshire generally. The proofs of this fact are numerous. From evidences collected by Mr. Empsall, and presented to the Bradford Antiquarian Society, illustrating the entire history of this family, we learn that towards the close of the twelfth century one Tristram Bolling was in the service of King John, and was largely concerned in his interests, and as reward he received property in Bowling. To this circumstance is ascribed the rise of the family.

In Kirby’s Inquest (1296) William de Bolling is described as holding three carucates of land in Bolling, and shortly afterwards he was described as lord of the manor, which his descendants held for several centuries, and two of them gave common of pasture and a grant of land in Bolling to Kirkstall Abbey. Part of this land is supposed to be the site of Burnett Field. There is also evidence of land in Bolling having been granted to Kirkstall Abbey as early as the reign of King John.

In a copy of Parliamentary Writs we find the following entries: ‘William de Bolling certified, pursuant to writ tested at Clepstone, 5th March, 1316, as lord of the township of Bolling, in the county of York.’
BOLLING HALL

'Johannes de Bolling, one of the Commissioners of Array, in the Wa-pentake of Morley, in the county of York. Commission tested at York 25th September, 1318.'

By the marriage of Robert Bolling to Elizabeth, daughter of Roger Thornton, in 1349, the Bolling estate was increased by the addition of the manors of Thornton, Allerton and Denholme. In the survey of the manor of Bradford taken in 1342, the Bolling family appears somewhat prominently in connection with the barter and sale of property in Bradford.

Passing over a century, we come upon an interesting episode in the past history of Bolling, namely, the attainder for high treason of one Robert Bolling and the confiscation of his estates. In the Wars of the Roses many of the landowners of this neighbourhood were implicated, and none more deeply than Robert Bolling of Bolling Hall. Like many others of Yorkshire he espoused the cause of the Lancastrians, under the banner of Lord Clifford of Skipton Castle, and was at the battle of Towton on Palm Sunday, March 29th, 1461. In that sanguinary encounter 36,000 men were slain, and the Lancastrians were utterly defeated.
The result was very disastrous to the Bollings. For the part taken in it by Robert Bolling, he was convicted of high treason, attainted by order of Parliament, and deprived of his estates, the manor of Bolling being made over to a partisan of the King named Thomas Radclyfe.
John James, in his 'History of Bradford,' gives an interesting account of this event, and quotes the following extract from a petition of Robert Bolling to King Edward IV. in 1475: "Humbly beseeching your Highness, your true liegeman, Robert Bolling, in the Shire of York, gentilman, sheweth, that in the Parliament holden at Westminster, the 4th November, in the first year of your Highness's reign, the said Robert was at-tainted of high treason, and that his lands were forfeited from the 4th March preceding; that suppliant was never against your Highness in any field or journey, except on Palme Sunday, in the first year of your most noble reigne, whereto he was dryven, not of his owne proper wille, nor of malice towards your Grace, but oonly by compulsion, and by the most drad proclamations of John, then Lord Clyfford, under whose daunger and distresse the lyvelode of your suppliant lay.''

Notwithstanding that letters of pardon were granted him, Robert Bolling and his family of ten children were reduced to great straits from the loss of his estates, but these he subsequently recovered and added much to them.

Robert Bolling made his will at Bolling Hall, October, 1485, desiring to be buried before the high altar of Bradford Church, to which he left benefactions. To Amica his daughter he left 10. The residue of his personalty, in three parts, one to James, William, Umphrey, Raynbron, and Troilus, his sons; one for masses for his soul; and a third to Isabel, his wife. The testator thus disposes of his lands:
'I have enfeoffed Edward Goldsborough, one of the barons of our Lord the Kyng, of his escheaur; Ed. Redmanye, one of the esquires of his body: Ed. Cresacre, parson, of Arksey; and James Bolling, my son, in the manors of Bolling, Thornton, and Denholme, and of all the halfendole of my manor of Haynsworth—to myself for my life. In suffrance, Isabel, my wyfe, to have all the yerey issue of the halfendole of the landes at Mikill Bolling, and to have her dower of Haynsworth. I do order a gyft to Jamys, William, Umfrey, Raynbron, and Troilus Bolling, my sons of 40s., by the yere out of Thornton, Hethlee, and Sowden; after their decease to remayne to Trystram Bolling, my son and heir, and the heires males of his bodie.'

Of two of the sons of Robert Bolling—Tristram and Raynbron—interesting evidences exist. Raynbron, the younger brother, was bailiff of the manorial property at Bradford vested in the Duchy of Lancaster, and held a lease of the manorial mills, &c, which in the 'Rolls Chronicles' is set forth in the following terms:—"1448, 8 March.—Lease to farm by the advice of the Council of the Duchy of Lancaster, for 7 years from Michaelmas last past before date of present letters, to Raynbron Boleling, yeoman of the King's Crown, of the cloth fulling and corn mill, toll, stallage, and agistment of cattle in Bradford Bank, with the perquisites and shops beneath the Halls of Pleas of the town and Lordship of Bradford, Co. York, at an annual rent of ixl. viijd."

In making the most of his bailiwick, Raynbron incurred considerable odium among the inhabitants of Bradford, and a suit was instituted in the Duchy Court for extortion and wrongdoing, of which the following is the substance, extracted from the Duchy of Lancaster Pleadings in the Record Office:—

'18, Hen. VII.—Richard Tempest and others, freeholders and King's tenants of Bradford township, and plaintiffs. Raynbron Bolling, the King's bailiff, and others defendants. Deputed titles to lands. tolls of markets, partiality of kin, &c.

Contra, Pleading—

To the Right Worshipful Chancellor Duchy of Lancaster.

&c., tenants and freeholders of Thornton; Robt. Midgley, William Mortymer, of Clayton; Richard Broadly, Thos. Stead, of Bowling; Christopher Sharp, James Sharp, Christopher Thornton, &c., of Horton; Joseph Thornton, Roger Thornton, &c., of Heaton; William Northrop, Laurence Ellynworth, William Jowett, Thos. Mortymer, Richard Rodes, &c., of Manningham, deposed that whereas three faires have been held and kept within the lordship which were a great resort of merchants, chapmen, and others of the King’s lieges of divers parts for the purpose of selling their wares to the great weal of the King’s tenants of the said lordship and to the country adjoining. That Raynbron Bolling, the bailiff of the said lordship, wrongfully, by him and his deputies, taking excessive and unreasonable tolls of your said orators and others the King’s tenants and others the King’s lieges resorting to the said faires, the said merchants and chapmen have withdrawn themselves and their merchandise from the said faires, and that thereby the said faires are greatly decreased, to the great hurt of all the King’s tenants and farmers and freeholders of the said lordship; and also that the said Rayn- bron Bolling, by reason of levying excessive mulcture at the King’s mylnes to the great hurt of your orators and taking the cattel of your orators and keeping them in secret places, so that your said orators cannot gain knowledge of them, and after keeping them a certain time claiming the said cattel as waifs and strays to his own uses; that in the 16th year of Hen. VII. he caused certain women to shear twenty sheep of the King’s tenants so that they were not known again by their owners; that he will not suffer any sheep of your orators to be unclipped after Whit-Sunday, but if there are the said bailiff will take them and cause them to be clipped, claiming and taking the wool to his own uses and to the great hurt of the King’s tenants; that on the 5th of June, in the 17 of Hen. VII. he took from Ellen, late wife of Tristram Bolling, five ewes; from Elizabeth Bristowe, two kye; and from William Wright one cow; that one William Gordon, a Scotch chapman, who was coming from Halifax with three packs of wool, was waylaid by the said bailiffs upon Manningham Moor, because the said chapman ought to have come through Bradford and paid toll, and cast him down and beat him, and caused him to pay £s. 8d. and above in money.’

Raynbron’s answer, which is filed in the Duchy records, states:—‘That there were two very great faires every year at Bradford, on the day of the Feast of St. Andrew, and the day of St. Peter in Cathedra, three days every fair—that he had to attend upon the King’s daughter, the Queen of Scots, into Scotland, and in his absence Sir Richard Tempest went into the Tolbooth of Bradford and threatened his servants (the servants of the King’s bailiff) if they took toll. That the inhabitants of Clayton, at the instigation of Sir Richard Tempest, waylaid John Aldworth, whom the said bailiff had sent to gather toll, and beat him unmercifully. So that he had been little able to do any work since; that the said Tempest had ordered all his servants and retainers, and had encouraged all others, to beat down the bailiff's servants when they gathered toll, and declared that no man should bear rule in Bradford but himself.'

This interesting episode is illustrative of the exactions resorted to by the emissaries of King Henry VII., who made use of them to extort money and to heap up wealth for his own ends, which was the ruling object of his existence.

HISTORICAL AND GENEALOGICAL NOTES AND QUERIES

Capt. Roger Jones

In Bruce's Institutional History of Virginia Capt. Roger Jones is mentioned in a connection which I think does him great injustice. So far as anything to the contrary appears, the character of Capt. Roger Jones was above reproach, and there was never a breath of suspicion against him, except for certain alleged "reports" recited in a letter of July 7, 1692, from Lieut-Gov. Francis Nicholson and seven members of his council to the Lords of Trade and Plantations, ten years after the things are alleged to have occurred, in which the evident purpose is to impair Capt. Roger Jones' influence with the Commissioners of Customs for the Colony in London. The letter has every earmark of having been dictated by the vindictive and dominating spirit of Nicholson and signed by an intimidated or too easy acquiescing council. In order to correctly estimate a paper of this character it is necessary, first and above all things, to consider the age in which it was produced. We know that this was an age of intense feeling, of passionate acting, of incontinent and undiscriminating personal abuse, and governors and councillors, though they be men of ever so great prominence, are nevertheless not exempt from the frailties peculiar to men of the period in which they live. The letter was signed by seven members of the council who were all probably, like Edmund Jennings, partisans of the governor. The point we are making is well stated by the editor of this magazine (Vol. VII., page 153), viz.:

"Nicholson was utterly unscrupulous in regard to the charges he made—indeed no great importance should be attached to any defamation of that period. A characteristic of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, which all students of the time are aware of, is the curious absence of any sense of responsibility or regard for the truth, when an enemy was to be attacked. Cases occur repeatedly in the court records of the period, not only in the colonies but in England, where a man would make most scurrilous charges, and, when brought to trial, promptly and publicly confess that all of his statements were false."

For a lengthy account of the methods employed by Nicholson to blast the reputation of those who by any chance incurred his displeasure, see the petition (Vol. III., pp. 173-182 of this Mag.) which resulted in his removal, and was presented against him in 1704 by Philip Ludwell, John Lightfoot, Matthew Page, Benj. Harrison, Robert Carter and James Blair, all members of the council. Philip Ludwell and Roger Jones were close friends; in the latter's will this bequest appears: "I give to my ten friends hereinafter named the sum of twenty shillings apiece to buy each of them a ring, that is to say Sr. Richard Haddock, Coll. Philip Ludwell, etc."

The British Public Records Office shows that the following action was taken on the governor's letter:

"Oct. 11. 2545. Journal of Lords of Trade and Plantations. * * * Captain Roger Jones attended, and explaining that he intended nothing against the Government of Virginia, was dismissed." So, the fiasco ended.

The only exhibit referred to in the letter, "No. 1799," is a letter from Roger Jones to Peter Perry, his agent in Virginia, and reads as follows:

"If the Government of Virginia insist on their duty on skins, and nothing is done on our behalf by the English Government, order all our skins to be packed in hogsheads and keep them till further orders. The Commissioners of Customs have drawn up a very favorable report, so that we can draw out our goods. Besides they have decided that no law is in force in the Colony for more than a year without the Royal Assent being then known, so that presumably all goods shipped after the expiration of a year from the date of the law will be exempt.'

* * * * *

In the governor's letter one of the complaints against Roger Jones is that of "refusing to serve in any office," which raises the question why they would offer him other offices if he had been so unfaithful in the only office he had held. The only possible explanation is their fear that in his efforts to protect his property, Roger Jones either had, or would induce the Commissioners of Customs to declare invalid an act designed to supply the governor and council with revenue, and that all the other things were lugged in through spite and in the hope of injuring his influence with the Commissioners.

While the governor's letter alleges but one instance in which Capt. Jones was "reported" to have struck the King's colors to a pirate, Dr. Bruce goes even the doughty old Virginia governor "several better," and says, in all seriousness: "His device, it appears, was to strike his colors to the vessels of pirates, his motive in doing so which they soon came to understand; and it was then their habit to dismiss him with a great quantity of French wines and other costly goods." That is, the pirates "got the habit"! All this is supposed to have occurred within a period of probably not exceeding six months, for Roger Jones' commission as captain of the sloop is dated May 28, 1683, and it is not probable that he would sail until legally protected by a commission, and the sloop was discharged November 29th following.
The letter says that for his various derelictions Lord Culpeper "tried to bring him to account." Now Roger Jones resided at Green Spring with Lord Culpeper, during his entire residence in the colony, from May, 1680, to May, 1685, when he returned to London, where he resided until the day of his death. In the York County records we find this entry, four months before he left the colony: "These are to certify whom it may concern Y. Capt. Roger Jones & Mr. X X X Chisley intend God willing for Old England by the first Ships." There was therefore no conceivable reason why the entire machinery of the law should not have been put in operation against him at any moment. If the statement is true, it can only mean that Lord Culpeper inquired into the reports and failed to find any evidence to sustain them.

There is reason to believe that Capt. Roger Jones lived in the colony, as he lived in London both before and after he visited the colony, in such state as reasonably became a gentleman of rank at the time. He had his coach or chariot on which were emblazoned his coat of arms quartering his mother's and impaling his wife's arms. His coat of arms is recognized as that of an ancient Welsh family named Ap John, which was early seated in Nottinghamshire, where Roger Jones was married and buried, where they owned valuable estates, and from which family the College of Arms think he was descended. All the indications are that he was possessed of a competent estate before he came to Virginia, and there is nothing to indicate that it was enhanced in any extraordinary manner during his residence in the colony.

Among the published letters of the elder Wm. Fitzhugh are several to Roger Jones. One, dated Jan. 8, 1682-3, addressed to him at Green Springs, requests his assistance in procuring for Fitzhugh's friend the office of sheriff of his county. In another letter, after his return to London, Fitzhugh acknowledges his indebtedness to Roger Jones for the fact that he and George Brent had been deputed to look after the Lord Proprietor's rents in Virginia. In another letter he desires Roger Jones to "negotiate" for the office of sheriff "in fee or at least for life." So, it appears that Capt. Roger Jones was a man of such standing and influence in Government circles as to be selected by Wm. Fitzhugh as one most likely to secure for him an appointment to an important office, and his influence with the Commissioners of Customs might very well have been feared by a man like Nicholson, and might very well have been the motive for a vicious attack on him in 1692.

It is not necessary to insist, for the purpose of this contention, that there may not have been reports concerning Roger Jones circulated by some evil disposed person—what prominent man has escaped them!—which were seized upon by the governor and council as a basis for their representations; but it is contended that no evidence tending to prove the truth of any report was offered or referred to by them or has since been found, and that a man like Roger Jones should be deemed to be innocent even of suspicion until some evidence is forthcoming to call for a suspicion. In the petition against Gov. Nicholson a request is made for a commission to take proof of its statements, while in the letter against Roger Jones the statements are not of matters claimed to be within the personal cognizance of the signers—indeed Nicholson was not at the time a resident of the colony—and it is not pretended that there was any evidence to be had of the truth of the "reports." Dr. Bruce is asking the readers of his history to believe, after more than two centuries have intervened, that of which the governor and his council tacitly admitted there was no evidence on which to found a belief, an admission of which appears to have been confirmed by an investigation conducted by Lord Culpeper immediately after the things are said to have occurred.

Conceding everything that can be said for Francis Nicholson and the men who composed his council, that he made an excellent governor, that he was a man of such prominence and probity of character as to have been twice appointed royal governor of Virginia, which is more than can be said of any of the others who signed the paper against Roger Jones, and, in view of the petition presented against Gov. Nicholson by Philip Ludwell and other members of the council, men of as great prominence and probity of character as any in the colony, it merely serves the more to emphasize my main contention that however distinguished and above reproach in other respects men of the period may have been, their statements concerning the character of those whom they were publicly attacking are not to be trusted. Dr. Bruce is at liberty to choose either horn of the dilemma. If he will accept as true the hear-say statements of "reports" concerning the conduct of Capt. Roger Jones, because of the prominence and character of the men who signed the governor's letter, he must likewise accept as true the statements of Philip Ludwell and others of equal prominence and character, as to matters of which they claimed to be personally cognizant and ready to prove, viz., that, owing to a peculiar frailty of men of the period, with which students of history are abundantly familiar, the methods resorted to by men of such excellent character as Gov. Francis Nicholson and those who measured up to the standard of his approval, to blast the reputation of any one who happened to incur their displeasure, were of the basest, most shameless and most unscrupulous nature, which leaves Dr. Bruce without a semblance of justification for the attitude he has assumed toward Roger Jones.

EDMUND PENDLETON

Mr. Hugh Blair Grigsby in "The Virginia Convention of 1776," gives Edmund Pendleton's public career as Burgess, Member of Convention, Speaker of House of Delegates and Judge. He states that the dates, and some of the facts in his sketch are taken from a manuscript account of himself, written by Pendleton in his latter days. Mr. Grigsby adds, that this may be seen in the archives of the Virginia Historical Society.

But it has gone astray, and is not there now. Luckily, however, it is also printed in the Norfolk, Virginia, Beacon, of October 3, 1834. Campbell's History of Virginia, with Mr. Grigsby, evidently follows this account for dates, and gives Pendleton's birth as in the year 1721; also the fact that he was bound as an apprentice to Colonel Benjamin Robinson, of Caroline County, Virginia, while in his fourteenth year.

I have an entry from the Order Book for Caroline County, Virginia, which throws some additional light upon the obscure early history of this remarkable Virginian. From this his father's name will be learned. If Pendleton was, as stated by himself, in his fourteenth year when bound as an apprentice, he must have been born in 1720, instead of 1721, or was a year older at that time, than he imagined himself. The indenture is also interesting as showing that Pendleton was bound to learn "all things belonging to a Clerks office."

TWO STUDENTS FROM VIRGINIA AT THE UNIVERSITY OF EDINBURGH; with a note regarding early botanical dissertations by Virginians at the University of Pennsylvania.

Dr. James Jones of Nottoway County, member of the Virginia Council of State and member of Congress, [1819-1823], was a graduate, in medicine, of the University of Edinburgh, 1796. See his Disputatio Medica Granguralis de Tetano, Edinburgh, 1796 [Library of Hampden Sidney College]. This book of 50 pages is dedicated to Dr. George Brown of Baltimore, and Dr. John Patterson of Virginia. Dr. Jones was a graduate of Hampden Sidney College, 1791.

Dr. David Flourney of Prince Edward County, (probably a son of Thomas Flourney, See Magazine II, 200), was a student at the University of Edinburgh before 1800, as appears from a note book kept by him. This book came into the possession of the celebrated Dr. John Peter Mettauer of Prince Edward County, and passed from his library to that of the late Dr. J. D. Eggleston, whose son, the Hon. J. D. Eggleston, formerly Superintendent of Public Instruction, now owns the book, as well as very many other valuable books from the library of Dr. Mettauer.

In this connection, it is of interest to recall the names of certain Virginians who about 1800 submitted dissertations on botanical subjects for the doctor's degree at the University of Pennsylvania, under the elder Barton. Dr. Miller printed a list of such dissertations in his Retrospect of the Eighteenth Century, New York, 1803, I, p. 511, on the Kalmia Latifolia and Angustifolia, by George Thomas of Virginia; on the Prunus Virginiana, by Charles Morris of Virginia; on the Magnolia Glauca, by Thomas D. Price of Virginia; on the Bignonia Catalpa, by Robert Holmes of Virginia; on the Polygala Senega, ['About 1740, Dr. Tennant of Virginia published a small work on the Pleurisy, in which he brought into view the virtues of Seneca Snake root, before unknown'—Miller, I, 318.], by Thomas Massie of Virginia; on the Corus Florida, and Sericea, and the Cinchona Officinalis, by John M. Walker of Virginia.

Dr. Miller's list contains twelve items only, the authors representing the States of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland, Virginia, and the 'Kingdom of Ireland'. Virginians therefore contributed half the number. It may be remarked that the "Virginia Doctors" before 1825 in Philadelphia were often, if studious, also uproarious.

Of his list, Dr. Miller observes, "The authors of all the dissertations above-mentioned, reside to the South of New York, excepting the student from Ireland." The University of Pennsylvania naturally drew its patronage from the region south of New York, but Dr. Miller, in another part of his work (I, 317) brings out the fact that "during the greater part of the century under review, and especially the earlier periods of it, medical science was cultivated with most success in the Middle and Southern States.* A taste for researches in natural history also appeared, particularly the States of South Carolina, Virginia, Pennsylvania and New York, long before a similar taste was formed to the Eastward."

Alfred J. Morrison.

---Dr. Miller (Professor in the Theological Seminary at Princeton), quotes a letter (I, 491) to him from Bishop Madison, President of William and Mary—"Dr. McClurg, of our City (Williamsburg), was educated at this college. After completing the usual course here, he studied physic at Edinburgh; was a favorite pupil of the celebrated Black; and gained much applause by his treatise De Calore. Indeed, I have lately seen in the Annals De Chimic, I think, for the year 1800, the confession that Dr. McClurg first started the idea concerning heat, which the French philosophers have since pursued with so much success."

This day came into the River the Ship Barnaby from Virginia, having on Board the Body of the Right Honourable the Lady Howard of Effingham, who died in Virginia; And of her eldest Daughter Mrs. Margaret Howard, who died in her Passage hither, both which are to be Interred at Lyngfield in Surrey, among the Ancestors of that Noble Family. This Ship left my Lord Howard very well recovered of his late Sickness.

Early Virginians in Maryland

(Communicated by Charles H. Browning, Ardmore, Pa.)

In his book, "Virginia Genealogies," (1891), Mr. Hayden, in his account of the Ball family, (pp. 52-3), in giving the issue of Col. William Ball, the presumed immigrant of this family, states:

"1. Richard, d. infant, as he is not named in Col. B's will," (which was dated 15 Oct. 1680).

Already, it has been sufficiently proved in this Magazine (Vol. VIII. p. 80), that this "Richard Ball" did not die an infant, as Hayden supposed, but lived to die in 1677, about three years before the date of his father's will and decease, at what age is unknown, but it was some thirty years after it was presumed that he "died an infant."

In addition to what has been recorded of this Richard Ball in this Magazine, there are the following items from Maryland records, which also concern other early Virginians.

"Know all men by these presents, that I, William Clapham, in ye County of Lancaster, Virginia, have made, and constituted, ordained, and appointed Mr. Thomas Todd, of Patapsco, Baltimore County; Province of Maryland, my lawful Attorney to be acknowledged either in Baltimore County, or the Provincial Court of Maryland. In Witness, I have hereunto sett my hand and Seal this 26th Day of May, 1670.

William Clapham.

Signed, sealed and Delivered in the presence of us,

Wm. Ball.
Richard Lunsfield.

"I, Jane Clapham, wife of the above named William Clapham, doe hereby give, and grant my full and free assent and consent to the Saile of ye above mentioned 500 acres of Land, and doe hereby constitute and ordain the above named Mr. Thomas Todd to be my true and Lawful Attorney to acknowledge the same in any of the Courts above mentioned, allowing and confirming what he shall doe. Jane Clapham.

(Witnessed as above, by Ball and Lunsfield).

These two powers of attorney were part of the following deed of conveyance.

"Whereas, Walter Dickerson by his Ingagement, or condition, under hand bearing Date 22d Day of Nov. 1639, doth bind and oblige himself, his heirs and Executors, to take up 500 acres of land in Patapsco River, in the Province of Md. and to erect two houses, or Edifices thereon, and to deliver a Patent for the same soe taken up and built upon, to William Clapham, Sen'r, or his assigns, at or before the first day of Feb. 1660, as by the said Condition more at large appeareth.

"Now, for as much as ye sd Dickerson failed of Performance of the sd Condition both in delivering a Patent and building ye sd Houses, which I, the sd William Clapham, was utterly incapable to force him to in regard of ye great distance of my residence from him, did therefore on ye 20th Day of Oct. 1668, for a valuable consideration to me paid by RICHARD BALL, of Patapsco afsd in ye Province of Maryland, assign and sett over unto ye sd Richard Ball, his heirs and assigns forever the said Judgement, or Condition with all my whole right title and claim to and in ye same, with a Letter of Attorney bearing the same date, to sue for and recover the sd 500 acres of Land, to his, the said Richard Ball's own proper use and behoof, by virtue of which Letter of Attorney having treated with ye said Dickerson hee ingaged himself by the first of month last past, 1669, to deliver to said Richard Ball a Patent for 500 acres of Land lying in Patapsco River, aforesaid, which hath remained upon Record in the sd Province since ye year. * * * *

"Entered by said Dickerson, in the said Clapham's name, to be the Land for satisfaction of ye said Condition, and then also to build ye said Houses, but hath not yet performed the said promises, nor put into actual possession thereof. "Now, these presents thereof Witness, that I, the sd WILLIAM CLAPHAM, doe here by from myself, my heirs and administrators, grant, bargain and sell and confirm unto the sd RICHARD BALL, his heirs and assigns, forever, 500 acres of Land, with all Edifices and priveleges thereunto appertaining, or belonging, and for the better and more authentique confirmation of ye said Saile have appointed Mr. Thomas Todd of Patapsco, to be my true and Lawful Attorney to act for me and in my name to acknowledge the same.

William Clapham."

William Clapham, Sr. and Jr., are noticed in this Magazine, in Vols. IV. p. 81, V. pp. 159. 431, XII. p. 494, XIII. p. 129, showing that William Clapham was a grantee for Va. land as early as 1635, and that he and his son were tithables in Lancaster Co. and officers of the parish church, 1652, &c.
Richard Ball died intestate in Maryland, in 1677, and his father, Col. William Ball, administered on his estate, and after paying the debts, what was left of the aforesaid 500 acres went to his only child, Hannah, wife of Thomas Everest, also a Lancaster Co. man, who was "an evidence" to the signature of Col. Wm. Ball affixed to his will, 5 Oct. 1680. The Everests sold the tract, by deed dated 12 May 1681, to Nathaniel Hinchman, and removed into Calvert Co., where they lived at The Cliffs, in 1683. The tract, known as "Clapham Point," lay in "the East side of the Patapsco River," in Baltimore Co. Md. and in time was divided and sold. Col. John Thomas, by indenture dated 6 Nov. 1700, sold 102 acres of it "for £140 of good Lawful money of England."

Further as to Mr. Hayden's "Ball" pedigree, (p. 65), he states that Capt. Joseph Ball, of "Coan," No'd Co., will proved in 1721, m. Mary, dau. of Col. Nicholas Spencer. This is an error. His wife was Mary, dau. of Spencer Mottram. Mr. Hayden also was uncertain as to who was the wife of Capt. George Ball, (p. 66), will proved in 1746. She was Grace, dau. of Anthony Haynie, will proved in 1709, and his wife, Sarah, dau. of Major John Harris, will proved in 1713. This Sarah m. 2d, Francis Waddy, of No'd Co. And Capt. Ball's son Joseph (p. 67) m. Hannah, dau. of Capt. William Haynie and his wife, Jane Waddy, and said Joseph Ball's sister Sarah Ball, m. Christopher Dameron, of Wicomico, will proved in 1764.

MARSHALL NOTES

Platte City, Mo.

My Dear Honored Sir:—

It is with profound respect and esteem that I greet you, my venerable friend, after a long silence. You have passed the 94th mile post in life’s journey, and may you pass many more, is my prayer.

I made the trip of my life during Aug., Sept. & Oct. of last year, spending nine weeks in Kentucky and Virginia, searching State and County records, old family Bibles, tombstones &c. for genealogical data. I am happy to state that I found a great deal of most valuable and interesting data, relating to several families, among them, the Marshalls of Henry Co., Ky. Soon after my return home I was taken down sick and have not been able to get to my office now for several months. Am slowly improving now and hope to get out as soon as the weather turns warm.

There were two William Marshalls who lived and died in Henry County, Ky. at an early day, one the Rev. Wm. Marshall, whose will you give a partial copy of at pp. 33-34 of your Marshall Family. I made a full copy of this will, dated Dec. 18, 1806, probated at New Castle Dec. Term of Co. Court, 1809. My copy I made from the original will. The other William Marshall lived and died at "Fairhope," (name of residence) on his 1,000 acre survey on Little Kentucky, and he was the ancestor of the wife of Col. R. C. Anderson, Judge Wm. S. Pryor, who will be 88 years old on April 1st. next, Mrs. Wiley of Fresno, Cal., who has the wonderful old Marshall Bible, my nephew, Arthur Pryor Strother, et. al. This Wm. Marshall died intestate in 1810; the appraisers were sworn by "W. Webb," Justice of the Peace, Aug. 25, 1810; see Will Book 1 p. 240. His son, John Marshall, was appointed administrator and filed his inventory, of date Sept. 3, 1810, which was ordered recorded at Sept. Term 1810, see p. 241. Report of sale of date Oct. 25, 1810, approved at Dec. Term 1810, id. pp. 255-256, id. pp. 304 to 308 is settlement of John Marshall Admr. Est. of William Marshall, Decd. Among the items are the following: "For clothing bought for Lucy Marshall at her father's funeral 16.67½." "Paid to James John for making coffin for said Lucy Marshall 11.00."

This settlement was filed at May Court 1812.

From Deed Book 4. p. 504, I abstracted the following:

"We William Middleton, David White, Jun, & Isham Henderson appointed by virtue of a bond executed on — day of — 1813, arbitrators to settle the personal estate of Wm. Marshall decd. & Lucy Marshall decd. between the heirs and representatives of said decedents John Marshall being one of the heirs—also former administrator of the Est. of said William deceased & having met at the house of John Samuel in New Castle on the 25th February 1813 & having made adjournments to this day & having proceeded according to the conditions of said bond. Do now finally award that the said John Marshall Admr. as aforesaid is indebted to Richard C. Anderson in the right of his wife Sally the sum of two hundred fifty seven dollars twenty seven cents, to William Webb in right of his wife Polly the sum of seventy Dollars nine cents, to Anne C. Samuell one hundred and fifteen dollars seventy nine cents, to Robert Tompkins in right of his wife Frances Sixty seven dollars seventy nine cents, & that the said Administrator make payments to the said heirs accordingly or execute his note to them respectively for the same." Dated March 5th, 1813. Recorded March 6, 1813.

In deed Book 1 p. 115, is deed from William Marshall of Henry Co. Ky. to Wm. Kinice, dated, Feby. 10, 1801, conveying 100 acres on Patton's creek (now in Trimble county.) His wife must have been dead at this time.

"Kentucky Patents in Virginia

The marriage records of Henry County, Ky. show that John Marshall (the Administrator above) married Milly Field April 11, 1813. She was a descendant of Col. John Field, who was killed at Point Pleasant, Oct. 10, 1774. John Marshall, ("Capt. Jack") was drowned in the Ohio river during a storm. He was the ancestor of Mrs. Wiley of Fresno, Cala. but not of my nephew, Arthur Pryor Strother, as you state in some of your letters. He is a descendant of said John Marshall's sister, "Polly Webb," who married William Webb, Jr. son of Wm. Webb, Sr., who resided on lands adjoining said William Marshall, and the Wm. Webb., Jr. homestead is said to have been a part of the William Marshall 1000 acre survey. I found the old Wm. Webb, Sr. Bible in Lagrange, Ky. & copied the family records therein, Wm. Webb, Sr. was b. Apr. 21, 1741. Mary, his wife b. Mch. 14, 1749, married Dec. 7, 1769. "Will son of William and Mary b. May 1, 1772." Wm. Webb, Sr. died June 15, 1827.

I visited the old William Marshall home, "Fairhope," in the edge of Trimble county, Ky., which county was cut off from Henry and other counties, in 1836. I ate dinner there with the present owner, Mr. James B. Sibley, an old friend of mine. I was greatly surprised to find this old Marshall home to be the identical old John Sibley place I visited over fifty years ago, with my good old grandfather, Rev. George Strother, who was born in Culpeper county, Va., Feb. 14, 1776, and died in Trimble county, Ky., July 30, 1864. I visited Mr. James B. Sibley and his sister there in 1870 odd. After a splendid dinner, in company with Mr. James B. and his elder brother, Mr. Leonard Sibley, I went to the old William Marshall grave yard, east of the dwelling some 200 yards, and there examined the tombstones to the many graves, but unfortunately there was but one marble stone among them, and that is to the grave of "Polly Webb," and reads as follows:

"Polly M.
Wife of
Wm. Webb
Died of Cholera
Aug. 25, 1850
in her 62 year
Prepare to follow me."

The grave yard is in the edge of a grove, and a large wild cherry tree has grown up on the grave of Polly Webb and has pushed the stone over considerably. All other graves were marked by native rough stones of good size, but with no inscriptions on them. Mr. Leonard Sibley stated to me, then and there, that he was present when the grave of Polly Webb was dug, and saw her body put therein. That the negro man who dug the grave was standing by him when the sled, bringing the remains to the grave came near, gave an exclamation of fright and disappeared in the woods.

When we returned to the house, Mr. James B. Sibley pointed out a spot in the garden, just back of the dwelling, and remarked that, "Maj. Anderson of Sumter fame, was born on that spot; that a log house once stood there, which was the original Marshall home, and that he had removed a number of the foundation stones from that spot."

That wonderful old Marshall Bible now in the possession of Mrs. Mary Marshall Wiley, of Fresno, California, gives the date of birth of Mary (Polly) Marshall as follows: "Mary Marshall, b. Nov. 10, 1776, m. William Webb." This entry and the tombstone inscription do not tally by a good deal. This old Marshall-Sibley home is located on the north side of the Little Kentucky Creek, about one and a half miles E. of N. of Sulphur station, on the Louisville and Cincinnati Short Line, now operated by the Louisville and Nashville R. R.

Mr. John Sibley, the father of the above named James B. and Leonard Sibley bought this Marshall place a few years after the death of Wm. Marshall and lived there until his death, which occurred Aug. 14, 1877.

This William Marshall, and Samuel Pryor, (the grandfather of my old friend and kinsman, Judge Wm. S. Pryor, of New Castle, Henry Co., Ky., who will be 88 years old on the 1st. day of next month, as above stated,) were among the 12 jurors who were appointed by the County Court of Henry County, Ky., to assess the damages to adjoining property owners, by reason of the mill race, dam &c. of George Strother's mill site on Corn Creek, Henry county, Ky. The jury reported on Aug.
24, 1802, that there were no damages to other property owners, as the race and dam were on the lands belonging to said George Strother. This George Strother was the writer's grandfather.

I trust this letter will be of interest to you, and will say that I could give more of the Henry county, Ky. records, which would be of interest to the direct descendants of this William Marshall, but will not mention them now.

With kindest regards and great respect, I am

Sincerely yours,

Henry Strother.

Ft. Smith, Ark., March 10th, 1913.

Dear Sir:—

Mr. Henry Marmaduke, who recently examined records in your office, reports this as the will of William Marshall, and from other source it is reported to be the will of Thomas Marshall. Please settle this question for me! Last Sept. I examined the record of the will of the above widow, Elizabeth Marshall, of date April 17, 1779, proven May 17,1779, recorded in Will Book "B." p. 287-9 in Culpeper C. H. "Abraham" above is called "Markham," which was his correct name. I know there is a Thomas Marshall will in your office of date, ——, probated, May 31, 1704, but I am not after that will now.

It may be of interest to you to know that the above Henry Marmaduke was a Lieutenant on the Merrimack in her fight with the Monitor, and is about the last survivor of that crew. He is a son of Governor M. M. Marmaduke, and a brother of General and Governor John S. Marmaduke of Missouri. I have known him many years.

I hope some day to get to your county and hunt up what Strother records you may have in your office. Is the original will mentioned above, in your office now, or were the old papers destroyed during Revolutionary War, or Civil War?

Trusting that you may give me an early reply, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Henry Strother.
(Note—On March 21st, 1913, I recd. from the Clerk the following, written on the bottom of the original of this, which was returned to me. The red ink marks &c above correspond to the Clerk's check marks & words.

H. Strother.

'Dear Sir:—

The will above to which you have reference is neither the will of Thomas nor of William Marshall, but is the will of John Marshall, and is of the date and mentions the children as you have them stated above and of which I have checked. We have no will on record of a William Marshall but there is a will of Thomas Marshall, probated 1704 as stated above in your letter.

Trusting this is satisfactory, I am,

Yours very truly,

(signed) "Albert Stuart, Dept. Clerk of the Circuit Court of Westmoreland County, Virginia. March 17, 1913."

(The above is a true copy of the reply of the Clerk, made by me this March 21, 1913.)

BOOK REVIEWS

Chronicles of the Scotch-Irish Settlement in Virginia [Abstracts of the Records of Augusta County, Virginia]. Extracts from the original Court Records of Augusta County 1745-1800. By Lyman Chalkley, Dean of the College of Law of Kentucky University, late Judge of the County Court of Augusta County, Virginia. Published by Mary S. Lockwood, Honorary Vice-President General, National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution. Complete in three volumes, Vol. II. Printers—The Commonwealth Company, Rosslyn, Va. pp. 653, with full index.

All the good things which have been said about the first volume of this series can be repeated and emphasized in regard to this one. It includes abstracts of the papers filed in suits in the old district and circuit courts at Staunton, comprising depositions, wills, deeds, bills and answers, &c, which contain so much information that, literally, it seems there cannot be a name between the Potomac and the North Carolina line, the Blue Ridge and the Ohio, which is not mentioned. As many Eastern Virginia people owned land in the Western portion of the colony and state, and as the jurisdiction of these courts extended to some of the counties this side the mountains, there are also many references to Eastern people. For instance, in 1804, there is a suit by Chiswell's heirs, which gives the names of all of the descendants of Col. Jno. Chiswell up to that date.

The genealogical interest is only a part of the value of the book. It shows, in a way never shown before, the immense and long continued emigration from Augusta and adjoining counties to the West and South. It gives details of many early settlements along the frontier, and shows who built the forts and cabins. It illustrates a land-hunger such as has only been revealed in later times when the United States has opened up new areas for settlement. There are masses of information about the soldiers of the French and Indian, and Revolutionary wars. Hundreds of pages are given to the marriage records of Augusta, Rockbridge and Rockingham. There are references to schools and school-masters on pages 24, 28, 78, 124, 144, 160, 200, 208, 217, (two), 218, 221, 224, 226, 264, 268, and possibly others places.

On p. 258 is a very interesting extract from the will of Dr. James Hopkins of Amherst Co., who, in 1803, made what was probably the first bequest of its kind in Virginia; and who left property to found a small hospital for the treatment of consumption, cancer and venereal disease. Only an examination of the book itself can give a proper idea of the variety and value of its contents.
BOOK REVIEWS.

There are probably, of course, errors in transcription or printing, but one which has been noted is of interest. The Richmond County home of John Monroe, a kinsman of the President, is printed Fanlis. It should be Foulis, showing that the Virginia family remembered the old home in Scotland.

As was the case with the previous volume the index is very good. Mrs. Lockwood’s address is The Columbia, Washington, D. C.

In the paper here printed Mr. Hart studies the two portraits of Patrick Henry, pronounces against the accuracy of the well-known portrait by Thomas Sully, formerly owned by Mr. W. W. Henry of this city, and attributes high value to the miniature, until recently the property of Mr. J. Syme Fleming, also of this city. Mr. Hart discovered that the miniature was by Lawrence Sully and was painted in 1795.

VIRGINIA AND THE INDEPENDENCE OF TEXAS. By James E. Winston.

Reprint from the Southwestern Historical Quarterly, January, 1913, pp. 7.

Professor Winston briefly but interestingly describes the part taken by Virginians in securing the independence of Texas. Besides such leaders as Austin, Houston and Archer, there were many other Virginians who did honorable and useful service.

Mr. Spencer has given a carefully prepared and interesting account of the Carlyle family in Scotland, of their descendant, John Carlyle, of Alexandria, Va., and of the few old houses still standing in that City, which he built, and which is noted as having been the scene of the conference at which Braddock planned his unlucky campaign.

A thesis for a doctorate in a college or university of good standing is usually quite a worthy product of grubbing among “the sources” for information in regard to a subject which the writer has previously known little or nothing about. Often the investigations of the student produce something of real value. They rarely do more, and the results are frequently dreary reading even for the most interested.
Not so with Miss Cook. She has taken a subject which evidently appealed strongly to her and in regard to which she already had much preparation.

From Boston to Charleston all of the Colonial newspapers prior to 1750 have been carefully studied and the various literary influences shown are noted. The result is a book which is not only very instructive, but which will prove most attractive to all interested in English literature and its influence in the Colonies. It is a delightful book.

We in Virginia are, of course, most interested in the chapter on our gazette. The author examines at length a series of essays in the Virginia Gazette of 1738, entitled "The Monitor", and finds them to be evidently by a Virginia author. As compared with other original essays in the colonial press, she gives this series a high place. In concluding this chapter, Miss Cook says: "The extant files, as we have seen, furnish a variety of excellent prose and tolerable verse. Most of the prose could stand comparison with the best pieces in the Pennsylvania Gazette [Franklin's paper], while it would be a poor compliment to the verse in the Virginia Gazette to compare it with that in any other Colonial weekly except the Charleston paper."

The opinion of a scholarly New England woman in regard to subjects of which she is so competent to speak must have much weight.

Regiments of the Virginia State Line.

A note on the status of these regiments was given in the introduction (Virginia Magazine, October, 1911, v. 19, p. 407). These state regiments were regular troops of Virginia, raised in addition to the regiments in the Continental line. As with the latter, their service was not confined to the defence of the commonwealth, but several of the state regiments rendered aid to the general cause beyond the present boundaries of Virginia.
In 1782 a Board of field officers, appointed by the Governor of Virginia, made a report on the officers entitled to half-pay. The list of state organizations included in their report (see House report 191, 22d Congress, 1st session) is as follows:

Second state regiment.
State artillery regiment (Marshall’s).
State garrison regiment (Muter’s).
Illinois dragoons (Rogers’).
State cavalry regiment (Nelson’s).
Illinois regiment (Clark’s).
Crockett’s regiment.

It seems proper to add to the list Taylor’s Convention guards, an organization raised and officered by the state at the request of Congress, for the purpose of guarding Burgoyne’s troops during their residence in Virginia. Although on Continental establishment, this was not a Continental line regiment, nor can it be considered as belonging to the militia.

The two legions authorized by an act passed in June, 1781, should also be included in the list of state regiments. These were raised for defence of the state at the time of the British invasion, and served until the close of the war.

First State Regiment, 1776-1782.

One of three regiments authorized by the General Assembly in December, 1776. Field officers for the First regiment were elected by the General Assembly, December 19-20, 1776. William Grayson was chosen Colonel, but did not accept his commission and entered the Continental service soon after Enlistments for the state regiments were slow, Governor Henry reporting in March, 1777, that the quotas were not half full. In June, 1777, Lieutenant-Colonel Haynes Morgan was chosen by the General Assembly to succeed Colonel Grayson. In July, 1777, the First regiment commanded by Colonel George Gibson, was on the march to join General Washington. Colonel Gibson had been elected colonel of the Third regiment the previous month, and the reason of his transfer to the First regiment is not clear. It would appear, however, from the Journal of the House of Delegates, November 28, 1777, that Colonel Morgan had been placed in command of all the state infantry. By act of the General Assembly, passed in January, 1778, it was directed that the First state regiment, “now in Continental service, be continued in the said service instead of the Ninth Virginia regiment, made prisoners by the enemy in the battle of Germantown.” Colonel Gibson’s regiment served under Washington till the close of the year 1779, when it was ordered to Virginia.

The details of its further service have not been ascertained. By act of the General Assembly passed in January, 1782, it was directed that the state troops be consolidated into one or more corps, with a corresponding reduction in the number of officers. This reduction was effected and the organization so formed (Dabney’s legion) was placed under the command of Colonel Charles Dabney, of the Second state regiment.

Second State Regiment, 1776-1782.

Authorized by the General Assembly in December, 1776. Field officers were elected by the Assembly, December 20, 1776. By act of Assembly, passed in January, 1778, it was provided that such state troops as had already been enlisted should be formed into a battalion of eight companies and marched to join the Continental army. The act of December, 1776, authorized the enlistment of three regiments of state troops. Officers were chosen for the Third regiment in December, 1776, and June, 1777. As we have found no later mention of the Third regiment, it seems probable that its organization was abolished and that the men already enlisted were incorporated with the Second regiment. This would appear to be the intent of the act of January, 1778. The Second regiment probably marched in May, 1778 to join Washington's army. It remained, with the First state regiment in the Continental service till the close of the campaign of 1779. In April and May, 1780, 280 men were discharged, about 30 remaining for the war. The remnants of the state regiments appear to have been collected by Colonel Charles Dabney in the summer of 1781 and to have been under his command at the siege of Yorktown. A consolidation of all the state troops into one battalion was directed by an act passed by the General Assembly in January, 1782. The state troops were finally disbanded in April, 1783.

In March, 1777, Governor Henry reported that the three state regiments were about half filled. By an act passed in January, 1778, the troops enlisted for the Third state regiment were added to the Second state regiment, which was sent to the North in May, 1778, to join the Continental army.

ARTILLERY REGIMENT, 1777–1781?

The act authorizing this regiment was passed by the General Assembly in June, 1777. The regiment was to consist of ten companies of 68 men each, besides officers. Field officers were elected by the General Assembly, November 15, 1777. Governor Henry reported the regiment not yet nearly filled in May, 1778. In December, 1779, its strength was about 350 men. It suffered severe losses at Camden in August, 1780. The regiment returned to Virginia early in 1781, and most of the men were discharged. Those that remained were mustered into Dabney's legion after Cornwallis' surrender.

FIELD OFFICERS.

STATE CAVALRY REGIMENT, 1778–1781?

Formed under an act passed in May, 1779, which authorized the governor and council to enlist as many troops of cavalry as should seem needful to meet the emergency of the British invasion of that year. Four troops were raised. An act passed in December, 1779 ordered that the battalion be reduced to three troops, to be completed and retained in the service of the state. Under Major Nelson's command, the organization was ordered south in 1780 and was present at Camden. After Yorktown the remnants of the corps appear to have been consolidated with other state troops as Dabney's legion.
This regiment was authorized in June, 1778. Its purpose was to garrison the harbor fortifications of the state. It was to consist of eight companies of 68 men each, with the usual officers. Service was to be for three years. The regiment took part in the southern campaign of 1780 under the command of Lieutenant-Colonel Porterfield. In January, 1781, the strength of the organization was 174. During this year it was united to the remnants of the First and Second state regiments by order of the Governor and Council. Under an act of Assembly of January, 1782, a second consolidation was effected of the remnants of the various state organizations into a legion under Colonel Charles Dabney.

FIELD OFFICERS.

Colonel.—George Muter, ?—Apr. 1, 1781. Appointed Commissioner of the Virginia War Office, 1780.

Lieutenant-Colonel.—Charles Porterfield, August 14, 1779—Jan. 10, 1781. Mortally wounded at Camden, August 16, 1780; died January 10, 1781.

Alexander Dick, ?—December, ? 1782.

ILLINOIS REGIMENT, 1778-1782 (?)

This regiment was raised under an act of Assembly passed in January, 1778, authorizing an expedition for the protection of the western frontiers. George Rogers Clark was commissioned a lieutenant colonel of Virginia militia by Governor Henry, and given secret instructions to raise seven companies of fifty men each for the purpose of attacking the British post of Kaskaskia. The expedition set out in May, 1778, with three companies. After the capture of Kaskaskia Clark's force was increased by the enlistment of a number of the French inhabitants. The regiment was recruited from Virginia in the spring of 1779, when it numbered 350 men. In August, 1780 it was reduced to 130 men. It was disbanded January 18, 1783.

101. And Upon Several Representations made concerning a Trade with the Indian Natives, it has been thought fit to permit a free Trade between our Subjects of Virginia and the Indians, and We being willing to continue the same Permission to all our Subjects or that Colony, You are therefore to Signify the same to the next Assembly, and to give them to understand that out of our great Care for the Welfare of that Colony, We have preferr'd the Particular Benefit of our Subjects before any other Advantage that might accrue unto us by restraining that Trade with the Indians, Whereof we expect they shoul'd have a due Sense and provide by some Means for the better Support of the Government.

109. Whereas great Inconveniencies do happen by Merchants Ships and other Vessels in the Plantations wearing the Colours born by our Ships of War under Pretence of Commissions granted to them by the Governors of the said Plantations, and that by Trading under those Colours not only amongst our Own Subjects, but also those of other Princes and States and committing divers Irregularities, they do very much dishonour our Service, For prevention whereof you are to oblige the Commanders of all such Ships to which you shall grant Commissions to wear no other Jack than according to the Sample here described, that is to say, such as is worn by our Ships of War with a distinction of a White Escutcheon in the middle thereof and that the said Mark of distinction may extend itself to one half of the Depth of the Jack and one third of the Fly thereof.
110. Our Will and Pleasure is That Appeals be permitted to be made in Cases of Error from the Courts in our said Colony unto you and our Council there in General Court & in Your Absence from that our Colony to the Commander in Chief for the time being, and the said Council in Civil Causes, wherein such of our said Council as shall be at that time Judges of the Court from whence such Appeals shall be made to You our Governor and Council, or to the Commander in Chief for the time being, and Council in General Court as aforesaid shall not be admitted a Vote upon the said Appeal, but they may Nevertheless be present at the hearing thereof to give the reasons of the Judgment given by them in the Cause wherein such Appeal shall be made.

111. And Inasmuch as it may not be fit that Appeals be too frequently and for too Small a Value brought unto Our Governor and Council, as aforesaid, You shall therefore with the Advice of our said Council propose a Law to be pass'd wherein the Method and Limitation of Appeals unto Our Governor and Council may be Settled and Restrain'd in such Manner as shall be most Convenient and easy to Our Subjects in Virginia.

112. And if either Party shall not rest Satisfy'd with the Judgement of you or the Commander in Chief for the time being & Council as aforesaid, they may then Appeal unto Us in Our Privy Council, provided the Sum or Value so appeal'd for unto us do exceed £300 Sterl and that such Appeal be made within one fortnight after Sentence and good Security given by the Appellant that he will Effectually prosecute the same, and Answer the Condemnation as also pay such Costs as shall be awarded by us in Case the Sentence of you the Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being and Council be Affirmed, & provided also that Execution be not Suspended by reason of any such Appeal unto Us.

113. You are also to Permit Appeals unto Us in Council in all Cases of Fines imposed for Misdemeanors, provided the Fines so impos'd amount to, or Exceed the Value of £200 the Appellant first giving good Security that he will Effectually prosecute the same, and Answer the Condemnation of the Sentence by which such Fine was impos'd in Virginia in case the said Sentence shall be confirm'd.

114. You are for the better Administration of Justice to Endeavour to get a Law pass'd (if not already done) wherein shall be Set the Value of Men's Estates either in Goods or Lands under which they shall not be capable of Serving as Jurors.

115. You are to take Care that no Courts of Judicature be adjourned but upon good Grounds, and whereas Complaint hath been made that the Orders of Court are entered in the Absence of the Magistrates and sometimes penn'd in Private at the Magistrates House, you are to take care to prevent the said abuses, and particularly that no Orders of any Court of Judicature be enter'd or allow'd which shall not be first read and approv'd of by the Magistrates in Open Court, which Rule you are in like manner to see observ'd with relation to the Proceedings in Our Council of Virginia and that all Orders there made be first read and approved in Council before they are enter'd in the Council Books.

116. You shall Endeavour to get a Law pass'd (if not already done) for the restraining of any Inhuman Severities which by ill Masters or Overseers may be used towards their Christian Servants, and their Slaves, and that Provision be made therein that the Wilfull killing of Indians and Negroes may be punish't with Death, and that a fit Penalty be impos'd for the Maiming of them. And you are also with the Assistance of the Council and Assembly to find out the best Means to facilitate and encourage the Conversion of Negroes and Indians to the Christian Religion.

117. And whereas an Agreement has been formerly made with the Indians of Virginia and of New York for their Peaceable living with Our Subjects and Submission to Our Government, We do hereby approve the Same, and do require you to endeavour as much as in you lyes that the said Agreement be Punctually observ'd and renew'd if it shall be Necessary, as conducing to the Welfare of our Colony under your Government.
118. You are to Endeavour with the Assistance of our Council to provide for the raising of Stocks and building Publick Warehouses in convenient places for the employing of Poor and indigent People.

119. You are to propose an Act to be pass'd in the Assembly whereby the Creditors of Persons becoming Bankrupts in this Kingdom and having Estates in Virginia may be reliev'd and Satisfy'd for the Debts owing to them.

120. In Case of Distress of any other of our Plantations You shall upon the Application of the Respective Governors thereof to you, Assist them with what Aid the Condition of Our Colony under Your Government can Spare.

121. You are to take Care by and with the Advice and Assistance of our Council that such Prisons there as want Reparation be forthwith repair'd and put into and kept in such a Condition as may Sufficiently Secure the Prisoners that are or shall be there in Custody.

122. And for as much as we have thought fit for the Dignity of the Government that a House be built for our Governor or Commander in Chief, for defraying of which Expence a Levy has been made, You are to hasten the Building and fitting up such a House if not already done.

123. Our Will and Pleasure is, that you do take to yourself as Governor Two Thousand Pounds Sterl. per Annum by Quarterly Payments, and shall also Cause to be paid out of the Revenues of our said Colony to the Councilors & other Judges and Officers as well Civil as Military, and to the Marshal, Clerk of the Assembly Gunner and Matrosses the Several Salaries and allowances formerly paid, or such other reasonable Ones as you with Advice of Our Council there shall think requisite a true Account whereof you shall from time to time transmit unto the Commissioners of Our Treasury or Our High Treasurer for the time being, and to Our Commissioners for Trade and Plantations.

124. Provided always that you do not dispose of any Part of our Quitrents, nor Suffer the same to be issued out upon any Occasion untill upon your Certifying to us the Value of what shall remain thereof from time to time in Our Treasury or be due Unto Us we shall Order the Same to be dispos’d of as we shall find Occasion for our Service.

125. And for the better improving the Value of Our Quit-rents, You are to take Care they be not only duly Collected, but they be Sold every Year Openly by Inch of Candle to the highest Bidder in the respective County Courts, and that due Notice be given of the time and Place of any such intended Sale in such Manner as may make it most Publickly known to all People a Competent time before hand.

126. Whereas upon considering the Entries of our Custom house here in this Kingdom with the Payment of the two Shillings per Hogshd on Tobacco, and other Duties and Impositions due unto us in Virginia there has been certain Information given of great Frauds and Abuses both in Payment thereof by Masters of Ships and others, and in the Collection by Our Officers, You are to use all Lawfull Means for the Prevention thereof and for the Improvement of our said Revenues. And where-as such Abuses cannot be committed without apparent Negligence of the Collectors or their connivance with the said Masters of Ships and other Persons, You are to take great Care with the Advice of Our Council in appointing fit and duly Qualify’d Persons for the Collecting of those duties and the like for the Employment of Naval Officers.

127. You shall not commit the Care of those different Employments to One and the same Person, nor any of them unto Persons much concern’d in Trade who may be apt thereby to be byassed from their respective Duties, nor unto the Members of our said Council.

128. You shall take Care that each of the Persons appointed by you to the said Employments (as well Naval Officers as Collectors) be sworn to Execute faithfully and diligently their Respective Offices in their Own Persons and not by Deputies unless in Cases of Absolute Necessity, and that those Deputies be then likewise sworn to the faithfull and diligent execution of their respective Offices. And that each of the said Officers or their Deputies be required accordingly to give their Attendance at such certain times and Places as you with the Advice of our said Council shall direct.
129. You are Strictly to charge and Command them and every of them in our Name to be more carefull and diligent for the future, under Penalty of the forfeiture of our respective Places by your putting others in their Stead on the first offence, and of our highest displeasure, and you are from time to time to give Us Our Commissioners of our Treasury or high Treasurer for the time being, and to Our Commissioners for Trade and Plantations a Particular Account of your Proceedings therein, and of the Duties and Impositions Collected and dispos'd of pursuant to former directions in that behalf.

130. And whereas Complaints have been made of Several undue Practices in the Office of Secretary or Register of that Colony by the Clerks or other Persons employ'd therein, You are to make Inspection into what has been the State and Management of the said Office, and Report to Us and to Our Commissioners for Trade and Plantations how you find the Same, together with your opinion by what Methods any former Mismanagements may for the future be best Prevented and in the meanwhile to take all possible care that the Records of the said Office be well and faithfully kept, and in Order thereunto that not only the Secretary or Register himself but his Clerks also be under Oath for the due Execution of the trust repos'd in them, and that they accordingly give Sufficient Security for their faithful performance.

131. Whereas Our Council of Virginia has formerly made Complaints that the Lord Baltimore hath insisted on a pretended Right to the whole River of Potomack, which did very much discourage the Merchants and Masters of Ships trading to that our Colony, You are to Assert our Rights in those Parts, & to take care that the Trade of our Subjects be not disturb'd by the said pretences, or any other whatsoever.

132. Whereas We have been pleas'd by our Commission to direct that in Case of your Death or Absence from our said Colony, & in Case there be at that time no Person upon the Place Commission'd or appointed by us to be our Lieutenant Governor or Commander in Chief the Eldest Councillor whose Name is first placed in our Instructions to you, and who shall be at the time of your Death or Absence residing within our said Colony and Dominion of Virginia, shall take upon him the Administration of the Government and Execute our said Commission and Instructions and the Several Powers and Authorities therein contain’d, in the manner thereby directed. It is nevertheless Our Express Will and Pleasure that in such Case the said President shall forbear to pass any Acts but what are Immediately necessary for the Peace and Welfare of our said Colony without our Particular Order for that Purpose.

Bacon's Rebellion.

Petition of Nicholas Prynn.

March 19, 1676-7.

Master of the Richard and Elizabeth of London, riding in James River to the Commissioners for Virginia—

(The Colonial Papers. 3 pp.)

The papers in the present instalment relate to the proceedings of the Commissioners sent from England to suppress Bacon's Rebellion, and to the quarrels with Governor Berkeley and the General Assembly, still greatly under his influence. The Commissioners resided at Swann's Point, the home of Col. Thomas Swann, on the south side of the river near Jamestown. On one of their visits to Berkeley not long before he sailed for England, they charged that they had been sent from Green Spring, his residence, to the river bank in a coach driven by the Common hangman, Governor and Lady Berkeley vehemently denied that they had instigated this insult.

William Hartwell against whom several petitions were directed, was a brother of Henry Hartwell, member of the Council, and was himself the captain of Berkeley's body-guard during Bacon's Rebellion. He had issue: (1) Henry, who died without issue; (2) William, who had an only child, Mary, who married William Macon on Sept. 24, 1719; (3) Mary, who married George Marable (high sheriff of James City Co., 1695); (4) John, will proved in Surry Co., May 19, 1714, names his wife Elizabeth (who afterwards married Stith Bolling, of Surry Co.), daughter Elizabeth (who married Richard Cocke), Uncle Thomas Rogers, friend Benjamin Howard, and cousins, John Drummond, George Marable, Jr, and Henry Hartwell Marable.

The Commiss'rs of Virginia to Gov. Berkeley. Having complied with the Commission of Oyer and Terminer "that the "Country might well perceive we come not in the least to "countenance but to try and condemn criminals" but cannot comply with his letter desiring their further sitting on the same occasion without neglect of more immediate service of his Maj. Beg him to be mindful of emergent matters that have long been before him and are yet unanswered and that he will make it his present care to make out a particular account in writing of all seizures, compositions fines and forfeitures which by the late Rebellion devolve to the Crown without any diminution concealment or embezzlement, of all Criminals impeached convicted sentenced & executed as well before as since our arrival in Virginia whereof a strict account will be exacted at his return to England. 3 pp. (Abstract)

Mem: by Sam Wiseman (Clerk to the Commiss'rs for Virginia). That no answer was returned to the preceding letter, neither did Sir W. Berkeley vouchsafe any more letters to the Commiss'rs till the occasion of the scandalous postilion—The Commiss'rs seeing Sir W. Berkeley would not comply with their request caused Wiseman to draw up a Commission directed to Lieut. Col. George Jordan and Major Theophilus Hone to empower them to inquire into the estates and forfeitures of Delinquents, which during the late Rebellion devolved to the Crown, which was accordingly done and an account upon oath taken of the same. The Commissioners for Virginia to Watkins—Are now upon preparing their intended despatch for England by Capt. Grantham next week, but take this opportunity to give this general advice: that the face of things is much amended since their arrival and they hope by degrees this poor Country will recover its former peace and prosperity. There is a general submission of the whole Colony and a joyful resentment of his Maj. royal favour & compassion. (Abstract)

Swann's Point, March 25, 1676-7.

Col. Fra. Moryson to Lady Berkeley—In favour of Jones a poor condemned person whose ignorance chiefly led him from his allegiance and whose loyalty first brought him hither for refuge—Does not find he was a bloody malicious rebel but seduced by the artifice of others—Doubts not she will intercede with the Gov't in behalf of this poor unfortunate wretch. (Abstract)

(Col. Entry Bk. No. 81. pp 178-9.)

March 25, 1677.

Lady Berkeley to Col. Moryson—There needs only his opinion in the case of Jones to make the Governor consent to it and he may be pleased to assure Jones' friends that Jones shall be pardoned. (Abstract)

(Col. Entry Bk. No. 81. pp. 180-1.)

Swann's Point, James River, March 27, 1677.

The Commissrs for Virginia to Secretary Coventry—Altho' the Assembly have sat a whole month they have not proceeded to answer the joint letter of the Commissrs—Have sat together on the Commission of Oyer & Terminer both at the trial & condemnation of seven or eight of the most notorious criminals and openly advised to have them executed in their own respective Counties—nor have they been wanting by all means to make the people rightly apprehensive of his Maj. most transcendant acts of favour and indulgence to his oppressed and seduced subjects, which have been generally received with suitable impressions of joy—Good & timely effects of his Maj. Proclamation and other gracious acts of Mercy & Pardon—Bacon's death was not pretence enough to frustrate & stifle this Proclamation or suspend the punishment of it, so long as Lawrence a Colonel and grand accomplice of Bacon's, a most stubborn desperate & resolved Rebel (with others fit to head a new faction) is still out, but rather that Berkeley might impose on the ignorant his own terms and conditions as nevertheless he has endeavoured to do—they have been mistaken or deceived in their former character of Berkeley: he has since appeared much contrary to his first professions—While Berkeley continues Governor upon the place, things will never be put into that peaceable posture and happy composure desired & by the Comm'r's endeav'd for it is his only artifice to persuade the people that Col. Jeffreys is but his Deputy and that he shall next year return Governor again—The General Grievances like to come within a very narrow compass—that of the Salary at this time under the Assembly's consultation and redress; the main Grievances chiefly concern Fort money & other public accounts and levies of this Colony proper also for redress of the Assembly—Complain of Berkeleys studied evasions & his interrupting and diverting the course of their proceedings and the ill effects; also of his illegal and arbitrary proceedings as to seizures of estates of persons not convicted of any crime: they are pursued every day with petitions & complaints of this nature. They declared their opinion in open court that the Country might perceive they did not combine with or connive at such unwarrantable practises—Have heard he hath compounded several treasons &c. for hogsheads of tobacco, cattle &c.—Hope this candid relation may not be mistaken at home as if there were any feuds or differences between them & the Governor—The gaol is now almost clear, the Governor having condemned some and pardoned and transported others. Complain, as pernicious to his Maj. interest, the dispersing of copies of the King's private additional Instructions—a rebel having publicly produced & pleaded in open Court a copy, which the Gov'r called God to witness he had never let go out of his hands or trunk. Readiness of the Indians to enter into a firm peace with the Indians which they hope a short time will accomplish—It will not be long before the Assembly rise when they will send by the Deptford Ketch a more ample account of their proceedings. 16 pp. (Abstract)

The Commissions for Virginia to Secretary Coventry—The occasion of their coming and present residence here, no house being within four or five miles, invites a constant resort of people from all parts of the Country upon public business whom they are forced to entertain at no small expense—Beg he will lay this their pressure before his Maj. so that a limited salary may not include an unlimited stay and expense. 3pp. (Abstract)

Col. Herbert Jeffreys, Sir John Berry and Col. Francis Morysom to Secretary Sir Joseph Williamson—The Peoples return to their obedience has been as general as their late disloyal Revolt & had the Governor been as open handed as his Maj. Acts of Mercy, the whole Country would now be composed—Complaints against Gov. Berkeley for treating men as Delinquents before any due Attainder seizing their Estates and marking their tobacco for his private use—How the Merchants and Factors complain of their trade being retarded and their ships being made Gaols for Rebels & Refugees without any recompense. Have observed that those who call themselves the loyal party are the only Chief Disturbers and Obstructors of this calamitous Country, so that now nothing but a general penal Act of Oblivion can make up these breaches. Advised the hanging in chains in his own Country of one Arnold a horrible resolved Rebel and Traitor—Have now no reason to fear any new Mutiny, but have advised a stop to this rigid prosecution and the Assembly have also by Address voted the Governor to forbear "and hold his hand from all future sanguinary punishments." COL. FRANCIS MORYSON TO MR. COOKE—The Commiss' doubt not but matters will be shortly composed to his Maj. satisfaction if Sir W. Berkeley will please but with freedom to permit his Maj. Acts of Grace to pass as his Maj. royalty intended them—To acquaint Sec Coventry how he has managed that affair he left Moryson to acquaint the Country with: his Royal Highness' promise that the two Patents shall be taken in and vacated without any charge to the Country which he has made known to the Assembly—His gratitude for being joined with his worthy & generous fellow Commiss a fitter person than Jeffreys would not have been found to quel this Rebellion: Sir John Berry of unbiased principles, prudent conduct and unwearied industry for the service—Protestations of his own sincerity as an Agent and in his present character. The straitness of his salary and fortune; desires Sec Coventry's exertions in his behalf. 8pp. (Abstract.)

Col. Herbert Jeffreys, Sir John Berry and Col. Francis Moryson to Thos. Watkins—Directions as to public papers sent for Secretary Coventry and the Lord Treasurer. The Country in a peaceable quiet condition; all that obstructs it, is the Governor's abiding upon the place and the fierceness of those who call themselves the Loyal Party, which are not many and among them not twenty eminent sufferers in Estate—Their rapacious insolence exasperates the other party and their importunate sollicitations to try & condemn the guilty party "which indeed is little less than the whole Country"—The necessity of a general Act of Oblivion which the Assembly will hardly be brought to without His Maj. express injunctions compel, as in the case in England. The general grievances so few and trivial that but for the Governors contrariety they see no further occasion to stay a fortnight. Have been forced to urge again and again their Instructions for retrenching the Great Salary of the Assembly—now reduced to 120 lbs. per diem, the very lowest allowance the Burgesses can support their charges under. The estates of tobacco, cattle &c. carried off by the Gov'r.—Bland executed this day at James Town—Fines imposed by the Governor, detested by Jeffreys & his Officers. (Abstract)

The Commissioners for Virginia to Secretary Coventry. On Tuesday last the Assembly concluded; only wait on account of the whole of their proceedings to send away the Deptford Ketch (their final dispatch)—The Assembly has given Berkeley £500, but they find nothing done on his part in order to a peace with the Indians. He gives no account of his late seizures as they desired & he at first promised, nor has he yet answered in any one particular their instructions but now insists on seeing their private power which they declined showing, finding him so critical and captious at all advantages to himself. The Council, the Assembly and People are and have been so overawed & biased by the Gov’r that some Counties dare not bring in their Grievances before Berkeley be gone—fear at last Col. Jeffreys will be forced to send him home, for he is still as backward as at first for ought they perceive—before the mists he by all artifices casts before them can be cleared—The main business of this letter by Capt. Morris is to give an account of his very eminent sufferings and services—his ship has not only been a receptacle for the loyal party but to the Rebels a prison—Col. Jeffreys absent at the Camp at Middle Plantation with his officers. 6pp. (Abstract) (Col. Entry Bk. No. 81. pp. 182-187.)

The Commissioners for Virginia to Governor Sir William Berkeley—Think they deserved better than to be turned off by his Coach and the Common Hangman Postilion which is an affront not only against their Commission but themselves as Gentlemen—Are resolved to make his Majesty a Judge of this high indignity which they believe he well knew and was purposely sent for, as a retainer to perform the Ceremonies of yesterday. Governor Sir Wm. Berkeley to [the Commissioners for Virginia] Of this particular of the Postilions he is as innocent as the blessed Angels themselves. But though God suffers him to be accused he has in His mercy left him a Great Exemplar to comfort him for he suffered His only Glorious Son to be accused of what he was not guilty of and our late blessed King Charles the First was brought to his death by accusations he was not in the least manner guilty of. Col. Moryson to Gov. Berkeley—Has so much charity of his own as to believe his high and solemn protests and that it was no more possible the Gov. should intend than ever his Maj. Commiss' should deserve so great an indignity. Intreats him to take Moryson's last letter into his second thoughts seriously to consider its weighty contents, otherwise he must be feign to write home on purpose to his Royal Highness whom it so highly concerns as well as himself, "therefore good Sir take once more my former letter in your hands and think it worthy of a full and particular reply." Prerogative Court of Ireland will Book; 1761, fo. 215.
[This John Martin, the testator of 1760, was certainly Col. John Martin of Virginia, to whom his brother, Dr. George Martin, of Dublin, bequeathed an estate in 1746, (see this Magazine XXI, 249). It is equally certain that he was the Col. John Martin who lived in Caroline Co. in 1732, when Col. Byrd visited his house, and who was a Burgess for that County. It will be seen from the will of Thomas Turner (This Magazine XX, 439,) that Turner states he bought a tract of land in Caroline from "Col. John Martin and his son George." This was the land sold in 1752 (see this Magazine XIII, 198) by "John and George Martin, of the City of Bristol, merchants," through "John Martin, gent., of Virginia," their attorney. Col. John Martin and his son George evidently removed from Virginia to Bristol, where they became merchants. John Martin of Virginia, their attorney, was no doubt another son of Col. Jno. Martin, and was the Burgess for King William County, who died during the session of 1756. It seems probable, as there is no mention of any children of his in Col. Martins will, that John Martin, Jr., died without issue. Of the daughters, Elizabeth married in 1742, Patrick Barclay, of Louisa Co., Va., Lucy, the eldest daughter, married first Henry Boyle, youngest son of Henry, first Earl of Shannon, and secondly, March 20, 1760, James Agar, of Co. Kilkenny, Ireland, who, in 1776 was created Baron, and in 1781, Viscount Clifden. Lady Clifden died July 26, 1802. The second surviving daughter, Agnes Martin, was unmarried at the date of her father's will. Patty youngest daughter, married in 1756, Edmond Sexton Perry, Speaker of the Irish House of Commons 1771-1785, and in 1785 created Viscount Perry. She had doubtless already been provided for. The will of Lucia, Viscountess Clifden (born Martin) was proved in 1802 in the Prerogative Court of Dublin. That of George Martin, of the City of Dublin, Esq., was proved in 1811. These would probably give additional information in regard to the family.]

Prerogative Court of Ireland
Will Book 1735, filed will.

[Though neither the will of John Cooke, of Youghall, nor that of his son Thomas Cooke, of the same place, names the Virginia Cookes of Stafford Co., it is evident that they belonged to the same family. John Cooke, a native of Ireland, settled in Stafford County, Va., early in the Eighteenth Century, and married Elizabeth, daughter of Raleigh Travers of Stafford County, and his wife Hannah, daughter of Joseph Ball. She was half sister of Mary Ball, mother of George Washington. Mrs.
Travers married secondly Simon Pearson, and in her will, proved December 13, 1748, names her daughter Elizabeth Cooke, and her grandchildren, Travers and Hannah Cooke. John Cooke, of Stafford, died in 1732 and his will was among the portions of the Stafford records destroyed by Federal Soldiers during the Civil War; but a copy of his will was proved in Dublin, from which the abstract given here was made. In this will he refers to his money in Ireland. Besides several daughters, one bearing the peculiar name, Million, which was derived from the Travers family, had one son, Travers Cooke of Stafford County. The will of the latter, dated December 1759, and proved June 13, 1759, is of record in Staff-ford. His legatees were his wife Mary, and his sons John and Mott.
He states there is "A large balance due me by my uncle Thomas Cooke, of Youghall in the Kingdom of Ireland for the rents and profits of my estate there." He directs that his sons should have as good an ed-cation as his estate would afford. The inventory of his personal property amounts to £947.14.4, and includes a set of Spectators at £1.8, Tattlers at 14 shillings, two Guardians at 5 shillings, 4 prayer books at £1.5, and a parcel of "old books" at 7 shillings 6 pence. Evidently the appraisers were fond of the essayists. As Thomas Cooke of Youghall died in 1750, without issue, it is probable that Travers Cooke's uncle Thomas, was the "Cousin Thomas Cooke" who was the residuary legatee of Thomas of Youghall. A proper examination of wills and other records in Ireland would doubtless furnish a satisfactory pedigree.
There is a notice of the Cookes of Stafford in Hayden's Virginia Genealogies, p. 300.]

GOVERNOR NICHOLSON.

Whitehall: August the 21th 1700.

Sir
There are some few things which the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations judge useful to be observed in your Correspondence, with them, which they have Commanded me to signify to you, as foll:

It is convenient for their Office that all papers they receive from the Plantations may (as much as possible) be writ in such a form that they may hereafter be bound up together and preserved in Bookes. And therefore as they are very well pleased with the Transcript you have sent them of some Late Acts of Assembly, & of yo’ journals, in the forme of Ruled Paper which was sent you from hence, they desire that yo’ Letters more especially be writ Also in the same manner, either upon large or small paper as you think fit.
Whenever you transmit any Papers to them together with your Letters (which must always be done as occasion requires) they desire you to send therewith a Separate List of those papers and not to make your whole Letters (as some of late have been) as it were one continued Index of them.

When you have several Subjects to write upon, they offer it to your consideration whether it would not be more convenient, both for you & your Subjects to divide those matters into two or three Letters, than to mix all together in One. For in that manner you may more easily enlarge upon anything as you find needful: and they would also be enabled to understand your Letters as they are read to them, without the trouble of stopping so oft (as they have been sometimes to do) and seeking into those papers for the meaning of what you hint at.

The Naval Officers accounts that you have sent them are very confused and their Lds's have therefore commanded me to send you the following observations upon them: That those Accounts may hereafter be made more intelligible and useful.

They ought to be fairly writ upon paper so ruled that they may be stucked or bound up together, and conveniently Opened & read without tearing, which can hardly be done with these when are writ upon so many single papers, and joyned together very loosely at your heads.

The mixing of Ships cleared outwards in the same List with Ships entered inwards, renders it very difficult to distinguish (as is requisite) between the one & the other: And it is therefore absolutely necessary that those Lists be kept Separate, & accordingly transmitted.

The same parcels of Goods entered inwards or Outwards, should not be twice entered & promiscuously mixed with other parcels in two different Accounts; as Mr. Hill has done in his two Accounts of Entries from the 16th November 1699 to the 17th Aprill 1700; where several of the same parcels Shipt Out in one Account are entered again as Shipt out in the other, which is a great Confusion.

All accounts should express the Hogsheads & quantity of Tobacco shipt off; which is omitted by Mr. Allerton, who only mentions that such and such Ships were Laden off with Tobacco, but expresses not what quantity each Ship carryed. The number of Hogsheads, and the pounds of Tobacco in bulk, Laden in each Ship, should in all Accs be entered exactly, & the figures so placed, that the Totals may be added up, which addition ought also to be made & set down by the respective Officers themselves, or the person who copies out their accounts I am Sir Your most obedient humble Servant Agreement between England and Algiers in regard to English Ships.

Whitehal December the 3ᵈ 1700

Sir,

We send you here Inclos'd a Copy of an Agree⁴ lately made by Captaine Munden and Consul Cole with the Goverm⁴ of Algier, by w⁵ch all English Merchant Ships are Exempted from from being molested by the Algerines, on acc⁴ of their not hav-ing Passes, until the End of Septemb' 1701, but after that time (if not provided with such Passes) will be liable to be carried up to Algier, and have their Lading Confiscated; And we desire you thereupon to take care that due notice be given thereof in yo⁵ Goverm⁴ that all persons concern'd may thereby have opp- pertunity to provide themselves with Admiralty Passes for their Security in that occasion according to the Instructions that that have not long since been sent to you by the Lords Comm'rs of the Admiralty with passes to be distributed accordingly. For the Hon'ble Francis Nicholson Esq, his Majesties Lieutenant and Governor General of his Majesties Colony and Dominion of Virginia in America. Or for the Commander in Chief of that Colony for the time being. Virginia.

First. Wee the most Excellent and most Illustrious Lords Mustapha Dey, Ali Bashaw, and Mustapha Aga, Governours of the most famous and Warlike Citty and Kingdome of Algier, do by these presents renew and confirm the Peace Wee so happily enjoy with the King of Great Brittain France & Ireland Defender of the Christian faith, and his Subjects, made in the year 1682 in every part and Article more particularly that of the 8th, wherein it is express that no Ship or Vessell belonging to ourGovernm't of Algier, shall cruise near or in sight of any of the Roads, Havens or Ports, Towns or places belonging to the said King of Great Brittain, or any ways disturb the Peace and Commerce of the same. And in compliance w'th the Eighth Article of that Treaty, Wee do sincerely promise and declare, that such Orders shall for the future be given to all our Commanders, that under a severe penalty and our utmost displeasure, they shall not enter into the Channell of England nor come or Cruise in sight of any Part of his Majesty of Great Brittains Dominions, any more for the time to come.

Secondly. That whereas Wee had declared that all Ships & Vessels belonging to the King of Great Brittain should have passes by the last of September 1700, Wee do by these declare at the desire of Captain John Munden Commander in Chief of his Majesties Ships in the Mediterranean, and Rob't Cole Esq', his Maj'ties Consul now residing at our Citty of Algier on behalf of their Great Master, that no Passes shall be required or expected from any of the English Ships or Vessells in any part of the World, but that they shall proceed on their Voyage without producing or showing a Pass to any of our Cruisers, till the Last of September 1701, and after that time is expired, and any Ship be seized not having a Pass, Wee do hereby declare that the goods in that Ship shall be restored and ye' Freight imediately paid to the said Master to the utmost value as he should have had, if he had gone safe to the Port where he was bound.
Thirdly. That whereas Captain John Munden has given us good assurance, that he had a great Affront some years past from some of our Rude Sailors at our Mould. Wee do hereby promise that at all times when ever any of ye King of Great Brittain's Ships of Warr, come to this place, Order shall be given to an Officer of the Governm't immediately, who shall attend at the Mould all the day time, during their stay here to prevent any such disorder for the future, that no misunderstanding may happen between us, and if any such disorder should happen, the Officer of the Mould shall secure the person or persons, and they shall be punished with the utmost Severity.

Fourthly. By the help of God and if he please these Articles now made between us, shall be maintained, to the truth of which Wee have hereunto Sett our hands and Seals: In the Year of the Haggira 1112, and is the account of the Christians August the 17th 1700.

Lords of Trade and Plantations to Governor Nicholson.

Whitehall December the 4th 1700.

Sir

Since Ours of the 21st August, we have re'cd Letters from you of the 1st and 27th of the same month, which containing for the most part only matter of Information, do not require much answer.

You will have seen by our last, that we have proposed Mr. Lewis Burwell to be a member of his Majesties Council in Virginia, and their Excellencies the Lords Justices having approved thereof, We doubt not but Mr. Perry to whom we gave Notice of it, will have taken out the Order of Council for that purpose, and sent it to him. We do not at present proceed to nomination of any other, but whenssoever you find the Number of Councillors residing upon the place comes by death or removal to be under Twelve, you will always do well to give us notice thereof. And therefore, we desire you to send us frequent Lists, as well of the Council in being, as of persons fit to supply Vacancies, with such observations upon each of their names, as you understand to be requisite.

We observe the Orders concerning returns of Acc\textsuperscript{ts} to with you refer us in the 14\textsuperscript{th} page of the Council proceedings of the 9\textsuperscript{th} & 10\textsuperscript{th} of July last; concerning which we have only to remind you of our Desire, signified to you by our Secretary the 21\textsuperscript{st} August last, for reforming the Method of your Naval Officers Accounts, and that you take care to transmit unto us regularly all accounts whatsoever in good form, according to yo\textsuperscript{r} instructions.

More particularly we desire you to be mindful of sending home yearly accounts of the Arms, Ammunition, and Stores remaining in his Maj\textsuperscript{ties} Magazines in yo\textsuperscript{r} Governm\textsuperscript{t} and to see that it be done accordingly. And having some while since observed that the Council of Virginia have been of Opinion that Forts are of no use for the Defence of that Country; We desire you so much the rather to take care, that the Militia of the said Country be duly regulated & frequently exercised, so as to render them usefull whenever there may be occasion.

Whatever Scruple you may have about entirely concerting affaires (as you express it) with M\textsuperscript{r} Penn, or any other Property Governours, there can be no objection against yo\textsuperscript{r} corresponding & conferring with any of them as occasion offers for his Maj\textsuperscript{ties} Service, which, whatever they arrive at, we are well assured will be the end of all yo\textsuperscript{r} proceedings; & the Advices & Informations you may thereby be enabled to give us, will be always very acceptable.

Your care in placing the ffrench Refugees that went over with the Marquess De la Muce & Mons\textsuperscript{t} De Sailly, was very well, and we hope will be an Encouragem\textsuperscript{t} to other Refugees to follow; In Order whereunto we have according to yo\textsuperscript{r} Desire intimated to some of them, that they will do well to apply themselves to M\textsuperscript{r} Perry, for his Assistance in their passage.

As to the care of the Ship Mary Ann which brought the first Refugees to Virg\textquoteleft{a} that being properly a buisness under the direction of the Commrs of the Customes, you have done well to send it to them, and we must refer you to them for Answer.

In yr Lr of the 1st August, you refer us to the 8th page of the aforesd Council proceedings to see what was done in Council upon what we had writ you, relating to the Boundaries between Virginia and North Carolina: and having looked accordingly into that matter, we find only that it is refer’d to the Consideration of Mr Audit Bird and Mr Attorney General, to make Report to the next Council, so that at present we have nothing more to add unto what we writ you the 4th Jan’ry last upon that Subject.

We desire you (as we shall do the Governours of all his Majties Plantations respectively) that a Memorandum be Entred upon the Council Books, to causion the sd Council, yr whenever the Governm of Virg’a by the death, absence or Removal of a Governr or Lieutenant Governr immediately Comissioned by his Majtie comes to devolve upon a President & the Council of yr s Province, the sd President & Council do forbear to pass any Acts, but such as are immediately necessary for the peace & welfare of yr s Province, without his Majties Express Order for that purpose. So we bid you heartily farewell.

APPRAISMENT OF THE ESTATE OF PHILIP LUDWELL
ESQR DECD

(From the Ludwell Papers, Virginia Historical Society.)

[Philip Ludwell of "Green Spring" or "Rich Neck," James City Co. Va, the last male of a family of great note in the Colonial period, was b'n Dec. 28, 1716; married in 1757 Frances, daughter of Charles Grymes, of "Morattico," Richmond Co. Va; was appointed member of the Council in 1752. He removed to England some years before his death which occurred on March 25, 1767. He had two daughters Hannah Philippa who married William Lee, of Va, then resident in London, and Lucy, who married John Paradise Esq, of Charles Street, Berkeley Square London. "Green Spring, "Rich Neck," "Hott Water," etc., were large estates lying on the north side of James River not far from James Town. Scotland was probably at the present Scotland Wharf, opposite. It has been thought that the inventory of a planter of large estate would be of interest. It should be borne in mind that the family had not been resident in Va for some years]

THE EMPEROUR FAMILY OF LOWER NORFOLK.

(By G. Andrews Moriarity, Jr., A. M., Boston, Mass.)

One of the most prominent families of Lower Norfolk county during the 17th century, was that of Emperour, and, although it has long been extinct in the male line, its blood, transmitted through females, still flows in the veins of many prominent Virginians and the name still survives as a given one among many of the old families of Norfolk and Princess Ann.

The original name appears to have been De Keyser and its first members in England were Dutchmen, who, driven out of the Low Countries at the time of the Spanish rule, settled in the Walloon Colony that flourished in Norwich in the 16th century. The Norwich records state that "Guilielmus De Keyser, lanificus, cum uxore et sex pueris, quorum unus hic natus est, et cum ancilla, ex Brabantia huc venit anno 1561." In 1567 a John de Keyser came to Norwich from Flanders and in the town records the name is called "de Keyser anglice Emperour." The records of the Dutch Church at Norwich abound with references to the De Keyser, Lempereur and Emperour family, as the name is variously spelled. In 1584, a Francis Emperour, "from the dominions of the King of Spain," is noted as living in Norwich; and in 1653 a Francis Emperour, a tobacco merchant, was residing there.

With regard to the Virginia family the late E. W. James, Esq., collected considerable data, concerning its members, in his admirable publication, "The Lower Norfolk Antiquary," but further investigation upon my part revealed so much new data, including very valuable information which I discovered at Barbados that I have decided to throw my notes into a regular pedigree form, as follows:

1. Emperour.

Probably of Norwich England; and perhaps the son of the Francis Emperour, who was in Norwich in 1584, as having recently arrived from the dominions of the King of Spain. He had at least four children:

2. Elizabeth married Horbin of Barbados.

3. Sarah married 1st Edward Oistin of Christ Church Barbados and 2ndly William Leigh or Lee.

II 2. Elizabeth Emperour, probably born in England. Married ——— Horbin of Barbados, probably the brother of Joseph Horbin of St. Michaels parish, a rich Barbadian planter, who owned estates in Jamaica and South Carolina and whose wife was related to the Seabury family in New England.

Elizabeth Horbin removed to Princess Anne County Virginia and made her will there on 30 December 1693, proved 4 November 1696. She calls herself "late of Barbados, but now of Princess Ann Co. Virginia." She bequeathes to her cousin Elizabeth Ramsden daughter of "my sister Sarah Lee in Barbados" and to my cousins Elizabeth and William Ramsden, children of my cousin Mrs. Elizabeth Ramsden; to my loving cousin, Mr. Francis Emperour, and his son, Francis; to my loving cousin Mrs. Sarah Emperour, wife of my cousin Francis Emperour; to my loving friend and kinsman Mr. Tully Robinson and makes my loving cousin Mrs. Sarah Emperour my executrix. She states that her Barbadian property is in the hands of Thomas Shearman and Joseph Hough at Barbados.

II 3. Sarah Emperour married, at Christ Church parish, Barbados, on 1 March 1659, Edward Oistin gent., son of Edward Oistin, gentleman of Christ Church parish, an early magistrate there in 1629. Oistin's Town and Oistin's Bay, in Christ Church parish, derive their name from this family, whose estates lay in the South West part of the parish on the coast. Edward Oistin died in 1669 and she married secondly William Leigh at St. John's parish, Barbados, on 3 August 1670.

Issue by her first husband:
6. Elizabeth married 1st Henry Ramsden of Christ Church Barbados and 2ndly Miles James of Christ Church about 1701.
7. Edward.
8. Sarah married her cousin, Francis Tully Emperour, of Lower Norfolk, Va., on 25 September 1679, at Christ Church, Barbados.

II 4. Captain Francis Emperour. Born about 1628, died 1662, of Lower Norfolk Co. Va. He appears to have come to Virginia about 1650 and on the 20 January 1650, Thomas Marsh gave him a Power of Attorney. On 15 September 1652 he was given a certificate for 300 acres for the transportation of himself, Mary Emperour, Charles Emperour and others into the Colony. On 15 August 1661 he was granted land for the importation of Elizabeth and William Emperour and Marcus Tully, while on 21 November 1673 his widow, Mary, received land for the importation of herself, Capt. Francis Emperour, William Emperour, Elizabeth Emperour, Markus Tuly and Wanny, a negro.
Capt. Francis Emperour settled on the Eastern Branch of the Elizabeth River in Lynnhaven Parish in Lower Norfolk and was a prominent Merchant and Master Mariner there, while he also owned a large landed estate. He was a Commissioner for Lower Norfolk County from 15 October 1652 to 15 February 1659 and on 21 December 1652 was sworn in as High Sheriff of the County. He appears to have belonged to the Puritan party then very strong in Lower Norfolk and Nansemond Counties and negotiated, as is shown by certain documents, on file at Portsmouth and dated 19 November 1656, with "Mr. Moore, Minister of God in New England [Long Island], when he was last at ye Mannadus" [i. e Manhattan], concerning his coming to Virginia. On 25 November 1655 he signed a letter to Capt. Thomas Willoughby relative to the procuring of a Puritan minister for Lynnhaven.

The records of Suffolk County, Massachusetts, show that in July 1656 he was at Boston, probably on a voyage; for, on 15 July 1656, he translated certain Dutch documents from New Amsterdam, for the use of the Massachusetts Court, in the case of Gerardy vs. Kilvert; thus confirming the fact that the family was of Dutch origin. On 17 November 1656 he sued Daniel Lane, of Salem, "Mr. of the Ketch Dolphin," in the Lower Norfolk Court, for damage done his goods on a voyage from Boston to Virginia (evidently his return trip, after his stay in Boston, during the summer of 1656). He states that the ketch sprang a leak off Nantasket and that they had to put into Plymouth to refit. In this deposition he calls himself "aged about 28 years." On 15 November, 1658 his voyage to the Indies is mentioned. These entries make it certain that he was a merchant of Puritan tendencies, who traded with New Amsterdam, New England and the West Indies.

Besides the offices already referred to he was Surveyor and Collector of the Western Shore of Lynnhaven on 1 November 1653 and Collector for both the Eastern and Western Shores and for Little Creek on 19 November 1656. His Inventory was taken on 14 June 1662 and I cannot but consider it very significant that his tenure of public office ceased in 1659, just at the close of the Puritan rule in England.

His wife, Mary Emperour, was beyond all doubt a Tully of the Eastern Shore family of that name. Two of their sons were called Francis Tully and Tully Emperour, respectively, and Mary Emperour calls Tully Robinson her nephew. Mary Emperour, like the Oistins in Barbados, was a Quaker and was frequently fined for attending Quaker meetings. Her will, dated 20 April 1676, proved 3 July 1676, mentions her sons Francis, William and Tully Emperour, her daughter Elizabeth Phillips and her three cousins [nephew and nieces] Tully, Elizabeth and Mary Robinson.
Issue:
10. ———— Tully.
11. ———— William.
13. (?) Charles probably a son. Alive 15 September 1652; probably died without issue before 20 April 1676.

II 5. John Emperour of St. Michael’s parish [i.e. Bridgetown] Barbados. He is mentioned, on 15 December 1657, by his brother Capt. Francis Emperour in a case before the Lower Norfolk Court, where he states the amount of sugar dispensed by him at Barbados for meat for a ship in which Capt. Francis was part owner. Among the Barbadian deeds at Bridgetown I found one of 4 August 1656, wherein Lieut. Benjamin Reade of Barbados conveyed to Mr. John Emperour of the same Island, his interest in four new servants, etc., together with 4,945 lbs. of good well cured muscovado sugar. This is all I have been able to find about him. He must however have been married and had issue, at least, two children; for there is no other place to fit in Thomas and Martha Emperour of Bridgetown, Barbados, except as his children. I therefore assume that he had issue:

15. Martha married at St. Michaels Cathedral Bridgetown on 22 June 1673 Thomas Farle.

III 9. Francis Emperour, gentleman, later called Francis Tully Emperour of Lower Norfolk and Princess Ann Counties, Virginia, and Christ Church parish, Barbados. Francis Tully Emperour was born probably about 1655 and resided principally in Lynnhaven parish. He was a Justice of Princess Ann in 1691-93. He appears to have been a large planter and merchant and his title of “gentleman” indicates his position in the County. His place, which he later sold to the trustees of Thomas Walke’s estate became famous as “Fairfield,” the seat of the Walke family in Princess Ann County. His large estates in Virginia lay in Lynnhaven parish, but he also acquired, by marriage, extensive estates in Christ Church parish Barbados. He appears to have resided both in Virginia and in Barbados, but chiefly in the former colony. In 1696 the Princess Ann Court found him to be temporarily deranged. His will, on file at Princess Ann, is dated 26 May 1698, proved 20 July 1711. He leaves all his property to his son, Francis, and, in the event of his death, all his estates in Virginia were to go to the children of Tully Emperour and his estates in Barbados to the children of Henry Ramsden by Elizabeth Oistin. All the executors were gentlemen in Barbados.

Tristram Bolling, the eldest son of Robert Bolling, the attainted possessor of Bolling Hall, married Beatrix, daughter of Sir Walter Calverley, of Calverley. He was a man of great courage, and was most loyal to the Lancastrian party, so much so that he appears to have idolized Henry VI. In his behalf he fought alongside his father at Towton, but, being young, escaped further consequences than the disastrous defeat of his party. He died at Chellow, near Manningham, leaving an heiress, Rosamund, who had become the wife of Sir Richard Tempest, of Bracewell. We give a copy of his will on account of its quaintness of spelling and the information it contains:

The Bolling Arms

Negative property of
H. P. Cook Photographer
Richmond, Va.
Giffen at Chellow. Pro. 3 June, 1502.'

THE BOLLINGS OF CHELLOW.

Although by the marriage of Rosamund, the daughter and heiress of Tristram Bolling, to Sir Richard Tempest, the ancient family estates left the main branch of the Bolling family, it is evident that the line was carried on at Chellow. Chellow is a hamlet of the township of Heaton, and was a separate manor at the time of the Domesday Survey. The Bollings continued at Chellow for a very long period; Edward Bolling, the son of Tristram (father of Rosamund), succeeding his father there, he in turn being succeeded by his son Tristram.

The last of this branch of the Bollings in the male line was William Bolling, to whose memory a monument was erected in the Bradford Parish Church. He was living at Chellow in 1698, but appears to have removed to a little farmstead called the "Temple", at the top of Crow Tree Lane, Manningham, which was also his property, leaving Chellow Grange to his son John. William Bolling married in 1688, Mary Lister, of Frizinghall, and died in 1730, leaving a brother Edward and a sister Mary. His own son, John, died in 1729, a year before his father. He rebuilt the old house at Chellow, and inserted on a stone the record—I. B. 1720. Another stone contained the initials W. B. and the date 1689."

It appears from a list made in the time of Henry VIII, that "Dame Rosamund Tempest, late Wiffe of Sir Ric. Tempest, Knyght," had in her household Edward, and Godfray Bollyng, who came both equipped with "horse and harnes" (armor)

Dame Rosamund's relations with her half-brother Edward Bolling, of Chellow, are somewhat ob'scure. From a deed pole dated one year after the death of her husband, Rosamund makes over to him property in Wilsden, as follows.

"31 Henry VIII, June 20

Rosamund Tempest, relict of Sir Rich. Tempest, Kt. gives to Edward Bollyng, of Chellowe, one messuage, with buildings and appurtenances, in Wylsden; and lands &c, called Wytham, in the township of Allerton, abutting on the Hardyng Becke or Hardes Broke on the South and North, on Cottingley Park on the east, and on the high road from Bradford to Keighley on the west. To pay one red rose in the time of roses should it be demanded.

Witness—Thos Bollynge, Randolph Wilman, Laurence Royds"

This property was afterwards confirmed to Tristram, son of Edward Bolling.

One member of the Bolling family mentioned by Cudworth may be noted. On November 12, 1494, William Bolling one of the Barons of the Exchequer granted to Sir Richard Tempest, the remainder of a lease of the corn and fulling mills at Bradford.

Bolling Hall is the most interesting relic of a past age in the immediate vicinity of Bradford. Dr. Whitaker thus describes it. "The Hall is a large majestic looking building with a centre and two deep wings to the North, and has been built at different periods. The South front opening to the garden is terminated by two square towers of considerable but uncertain antiquity. The rest, I think, may be safely assigned to the Tempests, in the reign of Elizabeth. Within the towers are two deeply emb windows, and between them the hall, which has one vast window of many square headed lights. It is about thirty feet long and has a plain plaster ceiling which probably covers a fine oaken roof." Ascending the oak stair case, admission is gained to the "Ghost Chamber" which occupies the Western bay, and here, it is said, the redoubtable ghost appeared which struck terror into the heart of the Earl of New Castle the royalist commander during the siege of Bradford and caused him to forego his intention of putting the town to the sack. * * * The chief feature of interest in the room, however, is the mantle piece, which is of carved oak reaching to the full height of the room. It is supported by two fluted columns, which support a canopy ornamented with oak & vine leaves, and contains two portraits painted on panels, said to be those of Lady Rosamond the last of the Bollings of Bolling and her husband Sir Richard Tempest. In the work which has been quoted at such length are views of Bolling Hall and of the mantelpiece and portraits.

Mr. Cudworth speaks of the Virginia Bollings, who descend from a branch of the family, which had settled in London, as being now the representatives of the ancient family of Bolling, of Bolling Hall.

The "Visitation of London," 1633-34, contains the following pedigree of Bolling.
Tristram Bollyng of Bradford in Com. Yorke

Edward Bollyng of Bradford in Magdelene da. of Gabriell Greene Com. Yorke, sonne and heir in Horsforth Com. Yorke

2. Edward 1 John Bollyng eldest sonne 3. Thomas Annis

The arms which accompany the pedigree are the same of those of the Virginia Bollings.

Following is a copy of the will of the Robert Bolling, of London, who was living in 1633 and signed the pedigree. We are indebted to Mr. Lothrop Withington for the copy. There can be no doubt that Robert Bolling, the emigrant to Virginia was a son of John Bolling, "eldest sonne." An examination of the registers of All Hallows Barking would doubtless confirm this. And a thorough examination of Yorkshire records might furnish proof as to the exact place in the pedigree of the Bollings of Bolling Hall, of the Tristram Bolling of the visitation pedigree.

HUDSON FAMILY.

I am sending a copy of a letter verbatim from my great-grandfather's Bible. He made a trip in 1813 to Louisa County, Va., especially (as he says in his Bible) to find out concerning the genealogy of his mother's family—she was named Rebecca and was the daughter of Charles Hudson and his wife Susan Patrick, and is the Charles mentioned in Sarah Thompson's letter as son of John Hudson and Elizabeth Harris. Now I am satisfied that the Harris Hudson & Patricks who are mentioned in Wm. & Mary Quarterly of Hanover Records, July, 1912, page 49-53, are the same line—in 1734 John Hudson is dead, &c—but you see Charles, according to Sarah Thompson's letter is living in Prince Edward in 1776. Can you not now get me record of some Revolutionary service, if he settled there in 1776—he lived either in Hanover or Louisa the latter being taken from Hanover.

MRS. W. T.

"Memoranda of Mrs. Sarah Thompson age 64 year respecting her family:

"My paternal Grandfather was named John Hudson, he had a brother Charles. He was an Englishman and lived and died in the County of Hanover State of Virginia. John Hudson married Elizabeth Harris and they had the following children: George, Christopher, John, William, Charles, David, Cuthbert & Thomas. My fathers name was Charles who settled in Prince Edward in the year 1776. About the year 1770 I visited my Grand Mother who lived about 7 miles from Hanover Town or Page's Ware House at it was more commonly called.

My Uncle George Hudson was then an Inspector of Tobacco at that Ware House. He had no son & only 2 daughters viz Elizabeth and Polly, the latter married a Mr. Watkins, the former a Mr. Clay my grandfather John Hudson had only one brother Charles whose family I know nothing of except that a daughter of his named Sarah who married a Colonel Richard Holland of Prince Edward Co., This great Uncle Charles was a merchant and said to be wealthy. My grandfather died suddenly and intestate, by which means, my Uncle George being the eldest son, held all the lands and there by became much wealthier than the rest of the family

SLAUGHTER—ADDENDA.

I am interested in the Slaughter Genealogy which appeared in the last number of the "Virginia Magazine," and I take the liberty of sending you the following data which may be of interest to you in this connection:—

1. Gabriel Slaughter (afterwards Governor of Kentucky) married Sarah Hord. (See a record of this marriage in "Virginia County Records" by Crozier Vol ix—page 12). Sarah (Hord) Slaughter was daughter of John (William, John) of "Shady Grove" Caroline County, Va. John Hord father of Sarah (Hord) Slaughter was Lieutenant 4th Continental Dragoons January 20, 1777—Heitman's "Register"). There is a deed in Prince William County, Sep 27, 1822 from "John H. Slaughter to Thomas Hord and Robert Hord" mentioning land bequeathed to John H. Slaughter by Hawkins Hord brother of Sarah (Hord) Slaughter. John H. Slaughter was son of Sarah (Hord) Slaughter. (See this deed in Prince William County, Book 8—page 519).

2. Frances Hord married a Mr. Slaughter, and you will find my authority for this statement in the "History of St. Mark's Parish, Culpeper" (revised & enlarged edition by Green) Part II, page 50. On the same page you will find an abstract of the will of James Hord (Thomas, John) dated December 14, 1802, father of Frances (Hord) Slaughter.

LETTER FROM GENERAL M. R. PATRICK U. S. A. TO REV. M. D. HOGES, 1866

[Masena R. Patrick was born in Jefferson O. N. Y. in 1811, graduated at West Point and served with distinction in the Mexican War. He resigned from the army in 1850; but entered the United States service at the beginning of the Civil War, became brigadier-general of volunteers, and was, after Lee's surrender, provost-martial general of the Department of Virginia. He resigned in June 1865. His conduct during the brief but most critical period during] which he was stationed in Richmond as provost-martial-general, won him many friends here. We are indebted to Mr. Charles Pondexter for permission to copy the letter, which shows a spirit very unusual at the time]

Geneva, 15 Feb'y 1866

Dear Doctor,

Your very kind & most acceptable letter of 5-9 Dec. reached me in due season & I have only delayed acknowledging it, because I hoped ere this, the political horizon would be clearer. Still progress is made in the right direction, & the spirit so strongly evinced by the President, to maintain his integrity, holding firmly his position against all the assaults of Radicals, gives assurance to the Conservative element in the North, which is becoming stronger every day. I have great hope that the reign of the Radicals is near its close & that Peace, such a peace as springs only from the principles of the Gospel of Christ, is very soon to be inaugurated throughout all our land.

There appears to be a feeling in all our communities that for a few years past in the violence & heat of political & sectional strife, the fundamental principles of religion even, have been deserted by the entire membership of many of the churches, or by such a majority as to make it unsafe for the few not carried away by the storm, to express their opinions openly; and that spiritual desolation has been the legitimate result. Vice, Intemperance, Breach of Trust, utter disregard of plighted faith and a general breaking down of all the time-honored safeguards of public morals & virtue appear to be the most striking characteristics of the masses as viewed from almost any stand-point in the years 1861-64 & 65.

It is only within a few weeks past that I have seen a disposition, among the people with whom I am brought in contact to enter upon this work of selfexamination, & to take an observation as to our present position. In this place, Geneva, with a population of say 6,000, considerable wealth, refinement, literary taste & social enjoyment, without much active business, I was looked upon with distrust & aversion by all the citizens, excepting the very few who knew me well and had independence enough to think for themselves.

Circumstances have made it necessary for me to express myself decidedly.—At first, & in our religious assemblies there would be some rejoinder, showing the animus.

For weeks, however, all this has ceased and in the gatherings, daily, of the active members of all the Evangelical churches, I have heard none of the stereotyped, uncharitable allusions, to the South, which were but a short time ago, a great staple.
On the Sabbath evening preceding the week of prayer (7 Jan'y) I took the occasion to say, that if we expected God's blessing while our hearts were full of hatred and all uncharitableness, we might more than doubt the fact of our discipleship.

You can imagine what I would say under such circumstances as a Christian man, to which I added, that my right to speak as I did, none could question, for it had been caused by years of toil & danger in the service of our whole country. It had more effect than I then knew because they had begun to think they might not be altogether without sin themselves.

Since that time we have had a Union meeting for prayer, daily, morning & evening—with frequent gatherings in the respective churches.

Without excitement many converts have been gathered in, mostly of the young. The children and youth of the Sabbath Schools have shared largely in this precious ingathering. I meet 3 or 4 times in the week a band of young disciples, of both sexes, numbering from 70 to 80 to counsel & instruct them; to teach them how to pray and how to work for Christ. What a change in the character of my duties—training young recruits for the service of the Prince of Peace. Yesterday was observed in our churches as a day of fasting, humiliation & prayer for the purification of the church, the sanctification of God's people & the conversion of sinners.

At 4 P. M. I met 164 young converts. It was good to be there, and though I cannot but tremble at the responsibilities of the position, yet I feel that Providence has placed me there, after having given me such training as does not usually fall to the lot of clergymen, to whom such service is usually assigned. God grant that the evening of my life may be spent in promoting Peace on Earth & Good Will among men—its morning & meridian were certainly passed in the turmoil of life—the Battle & the Storm.

But I find myself running into matters personal—though such as interest you.

You ask if I still fancy at times that I would like to live in the South? If I were not almost 55 years of age I should go South where I have spent some of the happiest years of my life; but with my family in its present condition, & the South in its present condition it would be unwise to make the change.

Yet I often feel & especially since the receipt of your letter, that I would dearly love to spend some weeks in your church, in somewhat such manner as I am spending my time here—with little other business than what I find in the Vineyard of the Master. I trust that the religious interest in your church continues, & increases. May the Spirit of the Lord be & abide with you.

I was glad to notice, not long since, the liberality of a New York gentleman to Dr. Read's church, and hope that a sufficient fund may be raised for the rebuilding of his church.

Please remember me to him and to Dr. Moore. I think of many others in Richmond with whom my relations, tho' brief, can never be forgotten. Perhaps when my affairs are in such condition that I can leave them, I may revisit Richmond & some other places in Virginia of deep interest to me. You were kind enough to allude to the feeling towards me in your city. I do not affect to conceal the fact, that the malignity of the Radicals is more than counterbalanced by the respect shown to me whenever I am known in the South, for I cannot doubt the feeling if exhibited now when I am not only without power but in Coventry.

I shall always be glad to hear from you, and to know of the welfare of your church, as of the church generally in Virginia. I note what you say of church matters generally & agree with your views as to re-union for the present.

Commend me to Mrs. Hoge & believe me,

Sincerely yours,

M. R. Patrick.

GOODWYN—MITCHELL—RAINES, Wanted the parents of Amy Goodwyn, born Aug. 31, 1732; died Jan. 14, 1773; married 1st Thomas Mitchell, of Sussex Co., Va.; and second Oct. 5, 1762, in Sussex Co., John Raines, of Prince George and Sussex Co.'s, Va., born July 5, 1726; and died after 1780.

By her first marriage, she was the mother of Henry and Richard Mitchell, and perhaps others; by her second marriage, she was the mother of Robert, Caldwallader, Thomas and Amy Goodwyn Raines, and two other children that died in infancy.

Amy Goodwyn Raines, was born Jan. 14, 1773 in Virginia, either Sussex or Prince George Co.; and died Oct. 7, 1840, in Madison Co., Ala., He mother, Amy (Goodwyn) Mitchell Raines, died at her birth and she was reared in the home of her mothers brother, a Peterson Goodwyn, of Petersburg, Va., from whose home she was married, on Apr. 6, 1790, to Robert Stewart, who was born in Scotland, April 4, 1756; and died in Madison Co., Ala., Nov. 17, 1840; (He married first in Scotland, name of wife unknown, but she was a sister of the wife of Thomas Beard, of Petersburg.) The said Robert Stewart, was a Tobacconist, and his home in Petersburg, was located on High St., About the year 1815, he removed from Petersburg to Augusta, Ga., and later from there to Madison Co., Ala., (I have a complete line of their descendants.)

Now the Peterson Goodwyn, with whom Amy Goodwyn Raines, made her home, had the following children, Edward, Eppes, Eliza, Lucy Ann and Patsy, of these Eliza married Thomas Whitworth, These facts I have gained from some old family papers, and from the older members of the family, and in every branch of the family the tradition is that Amy Goodwyn Raines, was a niece of Peterson Goodwyn, and reared as a member of his family.

The children of Robert Stewart and Amy Goodwyn Raines, were Thomas Raines, Harriet, Mary Goodwyn, Peterson Goodwyn, Ellen Gordon, Jane Osborn, Emily, and Elizabeth Stewart, only the three youngest of these lived to maturity.

Robert Stewart, had a brother who came to America prior to his own coming, this brother was Archibald Stewart, and he located in Baltimore, Md., he had among other children, a son James, who in 1816, visited his uncle Robert Stewart's family at Augusta, Ga., and it is said fell in love with his cousin, Jane Osborn Stewart.

I hope some one can give me the ancestry of Amy Goodwyn, 1732-1733, of her first husband Thomas Mitchell, and her second husband John Raines, 1726-17--; I should also like to know something of Archibald Stewart, of Baltimore, Md., and his descendants.

Sincerely

Stella Pickett Hardy

THE FREE NEGRO IN VIRGINIA, 1619-1865. BY JOHN H. RUSSELL, PH.D., BALTIMORE. THE JOHNS HOPKINS PRESS, 1913.

The art of writing historical monographs has progressed to such an extent in recent years that this work will probably not receive special notice; though it well deserves something more than the customary scant critique given a dissertation for a degree. Few more scientific, thoughtful and fair-minded books have ever appeared on the subject of slavery. A very wide field of sources has been examined and the material so gathered is handled in masterly fashion. The work is a study of slavery from another view-point, that of the free negro, who occupied a strange and anomalous position in a society which had no place whatever for him. That, notwithstanding, the free negro in many instances made a place for himself is due in part to the race's remarkable power of adaptibility, and partly, also, to the tolerance of the white people, who preferred to be inconsistent rather than to enforce the logical laws enacted against the free negro as a menace to slavery.

In his introductory chapter Dr. Russell clinches the theory, introduced to students by Dr. Ballagh, of the evolutionary origin of slavery in Virginia. There can be no question that slavery in English America was a development of indentured servitude. The historic blacks, whose names would be immortal if we only knew them, brought to Jamestown in 1619, were not sold as slaves for life and posterity, but as time-limited servants. Slavery, that is perpetual servitude, arose by degrees and through the working of the law of natural selection, for the negro is peculiarly—it used to be said providentially), fitted for a servile condition. Slavery had defeated and almost eliminated indentured servitude as a labor system before the Revolution. In 1775 there were few indentured servants and fewer free negroes, for the law forbade manumission and people were not bothered much by the rights of man in the Colonial epoch.

But behold the world-reaching influence of Jean Jacques! The Revolution came, and with it, the Declaration of Independence, which, contrary to the outworn sneers of Abolitionists, was very largely believed to apply to blacks as well as whites. Popular sentiment forced the government to concede to slave owners the privilege of freeing their chattels, and between 1782, the date of the manumitting act, and 1806, the free negro population increased by leaps and bounds. Then, in the latter year, the Legislature, in order to preserve the seriously-threatened institution of slavery, exiled all slaves freed after that date. This act kept manumission within limits, but in 1860, 60,000 free negroes lived in Virginia.

All this Dr. Russell has set forth with learning and skill. He has also made many new points which will somewhat change the current conception of slavery. In one notable instance he bears testimony to the good-heartedness of the Virginia people. It used to be the impression, based chiefly on the orthodox theory of the negro's total inferiority, that the free negro was the lowest and most degraded portion of the human family. If this had been true it would have been a sad reflection on the civilizing qualities of the Southern people; but Dr. Russell shows conclusively that many free negroes were prosperous and respected citizens—that is that the dice were not coggd too much against them; they had a chance to better themselves, even in a slave-holding community. In doing this he incidentally raps Miss Ellen Glasgow, quoting her description of Free Levi in "The Battle-Ground," 'who shares alike the pity of his white neighbors and the withering contempt of his black ones.' It is pleasant to learn that this conception of the free negro is, in considerable part, mistaken, and that many freedmen of antebellum days, though in themselves a menace to slavery, found fair treatment at the hands of slaveowners.

The Illinois State Historical Library is doing a great work for the history of the West, and also (as far as the Virginia Series is concerned) for the history of Virginia. The Volumes so far published have been models in selection and scholarly editing. In the present volume a complete collection has been made, for the first time, of the letters and papers of George Rogers Clark and his lieutenants and correspondents. No account of the time could possibly be as graphic as that written from day to day by the men who were in the field or who were, with limited resources, supporting the movement. No one who is interested in Clark's Campaigns or in the American occupation of the West can afford to be without this volume. It comes down to November 1781. Documents will be completed in another volume. The introduction is probably the best short account of the Conquest of the Northwest which has been written.

The Life and Letters of John Paul Jones. By Mrs. Reginald de Koven. Illustrated. Two Vols. New York, 1913; xvi, 478; vii, 513, with index.
It is a remarkable fact that nobody in the United States knows anything about John Paul Jones—that is no one but the authors of lives of him. On any other subject, from the Creation to the present Mexican troubles, there can be nothing written, which does not call forth an endless number of students, experts and critics who learnedly dissect, patronize or refute what has been published. In regard to Paul Jones, however, the case is different. The critics are exceedingly diffident and do not attempt any show of superior knowledge, but praise the excellence of the author's work. The fact that the reviewers praised Buells famous work of fiction as they now do Mrs de Koven's biography, is nothing against her book, but only an evidence of the general ignorance referred to. The writer, like the others, cannot pretend to make a critical review; but it always has been a source of some little pride to the publishers of this magazine that when all the reviews (including the Historical) were praising Buell, we (see Vol. VIII, 442, &c.) were not taken in
Of course, Mrs. de Koven's book is free from the faults of Buell's (which she touches in a mild way) and contains a great amount of valuable material treated in an attractive way. Whether her knowledge of sources and her ability to handle her subject has enabled her to write the definitive life of Jones, experts who may arise in the future must decide. Certainly her work is of much interest.

It may be treating the subject from a parochial point of view, but Mrs. de Koven makes no reference to the fact that the letter to Hewes (I, 102 &c.) was printed in this magazine in July 1905 from the original owned by Mrs John G. Wood, of Edenton, N. C; nor that in January 1900 we printed from the originals in the Virginia State Land Office the claim for land bounty made by the heirs of Jones in 1838, on the ground that he was a citizen of Virginia. The State acted favorably and granted the heirs a large tract of land. As neither Virginia nor Fredericksburg appear in the index, perhaps we should not be surprised at the other omissions.

Mrs de Koven may or may not have written a thoroughly satisfactory life of Jones. Time will tell. In the meantime it is certainly the best we have and like the remains brought from Paris will be a "good enough Jones." Let us join the gentleman, who, in the New York Times proposed an epitaph for the monument at Annapolis:

And curst be he who doubts 'tis Jones."
