VAUGH T Volumes 4 are dedicated to Aneta Vaught Gentry for her encouragement, her constant assistance, her unfailing enthusiasm, her long hours of effort, and her financial assistance to the Vaught Association of the United States. Her determination that the puzzle of the VAUGHT family history be solved is the driving force behind the series of Vaught books now being published by the Vaught Lineage Research Group.

Many thanks, Aneta.
SUMMARY

MAJOR LINES CONTAINED IN VOLUME 4

1. Jacob Vaught (1787) and Magdalena Cormany (1791)
2. William Vaught (1789) and Pheronica Miller (1789)
3. Elizabeth Vaught (1791) and Christy Vaught (1782)
4. Henry Vaught (1794) and Nancy Hail (1791)
5. Mary Magdalena Vaught (1798) and her son John Jackson Vaught (1815)
6. Isaac Vaught (1799) and Mary "Polly" Hail (1801)
7. Anna Vaught (1804) and Solomon Hines (1804)
8. Sarah Vaught (1806) and her daughter Mahulda Vaught Warren (1828)
9. Jeremiah Vaught (1814) and Sarah Carmichael (1820)
10. Abraham Vaught (1816) and Cyrena Patton (1828)
All VAUGHT volumes have the John Paul Vaught children and grandchildren in sections 1 and 2. The Henry volume, from section 3 on, contains only the descendants of Henry Vaught, son of Andrew Vaught, and grandson of John Paul Vaught. There are many lines descended from Henry that we have not included as we have no information on those children at this time. Sections 1-2 contain more current data than the same sections in VAUGHT Vol 1 1st edition, or in VAUGHT Vol 2.

Vaught Volume 1 has descendants of Chrisley Vaught.
Vaught Volume 2 has descendants of Gaspar Vaught.
Vaught Volume 3 has descendants of George Vaught.
Vaught Volume 4 has descendants of Henry Vaught.

Sources for birth, death, and marriage dates have not been included in this compilation. Marriage dates are from county marriage books or bible records or other family records. Death records are from county vital statistic records, tombstones, or bible records or other personal family records. An approximate birth date is based on ages from census records, ages from marriage records, or is a guess based on the marriage date of the parents or other known data. A birth date giving the month but not the day is from the 1900 census or is from a record of a full date where the day of the month is not readable. A full birth date is from county vital statistic records, sometimes from a marriage record, bible records or other personal family records, church baptismal records, or tombstones.

The source for all the children in every family has been included. The source appears at the first mention of the child as a family member.

Each section of this volume is a generation. Since the most recent known information on the Henry Vaught line is in the eleventh generation of John Paul Vaught’s descendants, there are eleven sections. Too much material is available to be conveniently bound into one book. Therefore, the Henry Vaught volume has been separated into VAUGHT VOL 4a and VAUGHT VOL 4b. Volume 4a has sections 1 through 8. Volume 4b has sections 9 through 11 and includes the index for both 4a and 4b. Vol 4b also has all maps and documents.

Each section, i.e. generation, is subdivided and the subdivision is headed by the name of the child of Henry whose descendants will be in that subdivision. Each subdivision has the known (or presumed) oldest child first and the known (or presumed) youngest child last.
The lineage of any individual is recorded in a pedigree flow chart prior to the individual’s heading as well as in a ‘first name’ lineage line after the individual’s heading. The lineage line goes back to the immigrant, John Paul Vaught, but the pedigree flow chart is restricted to 3 or 4 generations.

Without the help of the above named people and the hundreds of Vaught descendants who have contributed their knowledge and documents to the creating of this book, there would be no book.
