MDCCCCVIII
ADAMS. New Kent county.

Arms: Ermine three cats passant in pale azure.

Ebenezer Adams, gent., of St. Peter's parish, New Kent, was in Va. ante. 1714; died 13 June, 1735. He was the son of Richard Adams of Abridge, Essex, Eng., citizen and merchant tailor of London, and his wife Anne. From her will which is filed in the Preg. Court of Canterbury, London, 8 Oct., 1734, she styles herself widow. Ebenezer Adams, married about 1718, Tabitha, dau. of Richard Cocke of Bremo, Va. Their sixth child, Thomas Adams, born about 1730 in New Kent, died 1788 in Augusta county, used on his seal the arms of Adams of London, a branch of the county Salop family.

ALLEN. Surry county.

Arms: Per chevron gules and ermine, in chief two lions' heads erased or.

Crest: A horse's head.

Arthur Allen, the immigrant, born 1602, died 1670; patented 56 acres in 1649, between Lawnes and Lower Chippoakes Creeks. He built the house known as "Bacons Castle." His wife was Alice, sister of Daniel Tucker of York county. Their son, Major Arthur Allen, Speaker of the House of Burgesses, married Katherine, daughter of Captain Lawrence Baker of Surry county. The will of Arthur 2nd was proved in Surry, 5 Sept., 1710. He had issue, Elizabeth, John, Katherine, James, Arthur, Ann, Mary, and Joseph Allen. The son John Allen, will proved 5 March, 1741, married Elizabeth, born 1697, died 1733, daughter of William Bassett, of the Council of Va. Upon Elizabeth Allen's tombstone at Claremont, Surry, are found the arms of Allen, impaling Bassett, the latter being," argent, three bars wavy gules.

The arms of the Virginia family are the same as those of the Derbyshire, Staffordshire and London families, with the exception of the crest, which in the English arms has the "horse's head issuing from a ducal coronet."

BRAY. James City county.

Arms: Azure a chevron between three eagles legs erased a la Cuisse sable, armed gules.

Crest: An ounce ppr.
James Bray, J. P., of James City county 1666; member of the Council, 4 March, 1674-5; married Angelica _______. They had issue, (1) Thomas; (2) James, J. P., of James City county, in 1710, vestryman of Bruton parish; sheriff in 1717; married about 1698, Mourning, widow of Col. Thomas Pettus. (3) Col. David Bray, J. P., of James City county, 1710; vestryman of Bruton parish; had issue David, born 1699, member of the Council; died 1731; married Elizabeth, dau. of John Page of Gloucester. (4) Angelica, married Mingo Inglis of Williamsburg. The Bray arms are on the tombs of the first and second David Bray in Bruton churchyard. They correspond with the arms of Bray in the Visitation of Nottingham in 1614.

JETT. King George county.
Arms: Argent three fleurs de lis.
At the court house at Williamsburg is a letter of Thomas Jett of Rappahannock River, dated 28 Oct., 1774, sealed with above arms, and addressed to Mrs. Dorothy Jordan. Thomas Jett had a son William Storke Jett, and two brothers who resided in King George county, viz: Francis Jett, whose will was proved in 1761, and whose wife was Frances _______; and Burkett Jett, whose will was proved in 1771.

The arms of Jett of London are, "Argent on a cross gules, five fleurs de lis of the field." There is no cross in the Virginia arms.

KEEBLE. Middlesex county.
Arms: Argent a chevron engrailed gules, on a chief azure three escallops of the field.
Crest: An elephant's head couped.
From a wax impression on a deed at Urbana, Middlesex, dated 1693, and signed by George Keeble.
These arms are somewhat similar to those of Sir Henry Keble, Knt. temp. Henry VIII., whose dau. Alice married William Browne, son and heir to Sir John Browne, Knt., Lord Mayor of London. (See Visitation of London, 1568.)

ENGLISH. Lancaster county.
Arms: Four martlets, three and one.
Will of Alexander English, dated 23 Jan., 1685, prob. 10 March, 1696, Lancaster. He mentions his brother Mr. William English in England. The will is sealed with a wax impression bearing the above arms.
The will of another Alexander English in same county, dated 16 Dec., 1696, prob. 14 Apr., 1697, leaves a small estate to Joseph, son of William and Susana Paine. This will is sealed with a duplicate of the above arms, so that it is evident there was some degree of relationship between them. There are, however, no arms given in the English records in the name of English, which have four birds as charges.
ABRAHALL. New Kent county.
Arms: Azure three hedgehogs or.
Crest: A hedgehog ppr.
Wax seal on a deed dated 1690, from Colonel Robert Abrahall of New Kent to William Bassett.
The arms are similar to those of Abrahall of the county of Herefordshire.

CAY. Elizabeth City county.
Crest: A hawk.
The above crest is on a bookplate in a book entitled, "Johnstones Edition of Shakespeare," and was once the property of Gabriel Cay, one of the Justices of Elizabeth City county, in 1767. The English authorities give for Cay, "A hand ppr. and flotant behind, a pennon vert, tied round the neck and charged with the arms. Cay of Northumberland use "a royal eagle," and Cay of Durham "a griffin's head."

GARLICK.
Arms: Argent three heads of garlick ppr.
The above arms of Edward Garlick of Va. are engraved on an old silver bowl, now the property of Mrs. John B. Minor.

LANGBORNE. King William county.
Arms: Argent two chevrons gules.
Arms on the tomb of William Langborne in King William county. He was born in 1723, and was the son of Robert Langborne of Fetter Lane, London, and his wife Mary Dandridge. The tomb also bears the arms of his mother, viz: "Azure a lion's head erased or, between three mascles argent." He married Susannah Smith of Shooters Hill, by whom he had Colonel William Langborne of the Revolution.

AITCHISON. Princess Anne county.
Arms: A double-headed eagle displayed.
Upon the tomb of William Aitchison at Rose Hall, Princess Anne county, are the above arms, nearly obliterated. His will was probated 12 June, 1777. The various Aitchison families of Scotland bear the above charge in their arms, with the addition of other charges. Some portions of the shield have become defaced, so that it is impossible to say to what branch the above William belonged.

FOX. Gloucester county.
Arms: Argent a chevron sable, between three cocks gules, on a chief azure a fox courant or.
Crest: A lion sejant guardant or, supporting with the dexter foot a book of the last.
Arms engraved on the tomb of Isabel Fox, wife of the Reverend John Fox, minister of Ware parish, and daughter of Mr. Thomas Booth. She died 13 June, 1742, aged 38 years.
These are the arms of Fox of Missenden, Buckinghamshire.
ANDREWS. Williamsburg.

Arms: Azure a cross ermine, between four fleurs de lis or.

Robert Andrews, son of Moses and Letitia (Cooke) Andrews, and great-grandson of John Andrews, who came from Leicestershire to Maryland in 1654, and who was descended from Anthony Andrews of Bisbrooke, county of Rutland. Robert Andrews was born in Penna, and was tutor in the family of Mann Page. He was Professor in William and Mary College in 1779, and private secretary in 1781 to General Nelson at Yorktown. He represented Williamsburg in 1788 at the State convention, and was member of the Legislature in 1798. He married first, Elizabeth Ballard, and secondly, Mary Blair.

BATCHELDOR. Middlesex county.

Arms: A double-headed eagle displayed.

Upon a wax seal on the will of John Batcheldor, 1685, at Urbanna. He is probably the John Batcheldor who embarked for St. Christophers, 2 Oct., 1635, on the "John" of London, at which time he was aged 26 years. (Hotten.)

In the Christ Church, Middlesex, parish register we find the following entry: "Mr. John Batcheldor departed this life 4 Xemb. and was buried at home the 15 Xemb., 1655. In the same register we find, Mary, dau. of John and Mary Batcheldor, bapt. 12 Sept., 1653; Sarah, dau. of above, born ______; Rebecca, dau. of above, born 2 Oct., 1655; William, son of above, born 22 July, 1667.

The British authorities give no such arms as above in the name of Batcheldor.

GORDON. Dinwiddie county.

Arms: Azure three boars heads erased or.

Arms on tomb in Blandford churchyard of Samuel Gordon, son of David Gordon, Esq., of Craig, county Kirkcudbright. Died 14 April, 1771, aged 54 years.

LUDWELL. Williamsburg.

Arms: Gules on a bend argent between two towers or, three eagles displayed sable.

Motto: I pensieri stretti edil viso sciolto.

Thomas Ludwell came to Virginia about 1612, and was Secretary of the Colony in 1660. He was a son of Thomas Ludwell of Bruton, Somersetshire, and Jane, daughter of James Cottington, the brother of Lord Cottington. He died 1 Oct., 1673, but left no issue.

Philip Ludwell was brother of Thomas and was Deputy-Secretary 1675-77, he was also Governor of North Carolina and member of the Va. Council. He married, 1st, Lucy, daughter of Captain Robert Higginson, and, 2nd, Frances Berkeley, widow of Sir William Berkeley. He left issue by his first marriage, and died in England about 1707. The above arms are on a book plate, dated 1737, of Phillip Ludwell of Green Spring in Va., Esq.
ASHTON. Northumberland county.

Arms: Argent a mullet sable.

Charles Ashton was a resident of Northumberland county in 1660; Justice of the Peace and Captain in the Militia. He died in 1672. His grandson, Colonel Henry Ashton, was born in 1671, and died in 1731, and upon his tombstone on Nominy Creek is engraved the above arms, which are the same as Ashton of Chadderton in the county of Lancashire. The immigrant is thought to have been descended from the Ashtons of Spalding, Lincolnshire, a branch of the Chadderton family.

BAKER. Norfolk.

Arms: Argent on a fess nebulee between three keys sable, a tower triple towered of the first.

Wax seal on a deed of Henry Baker, now in possession of Richard H. Baker, Esq., of Norfolk. The arms are those of Baker of Kent.

Motto: Durete.

Robert Evelyn, son of Robert Evelyn of Long Ditton and Godstone, county of Surrey (an uncle of John Evelyn, the Diarist), was born in 1606. He came to Virginia in 1634, and in 1637 was Surveyor-General and member of the Council. He returned to England, but afterwards became a resident of Maryland, being Commander of Kent Isle, and member of the Assembly 1637-38, and 1642.

Captain George Evelyn, brother of Robert, was born in 1609, and resided in James City county. He had two children, Mountjoy, who married into the Robins family of Northampton county, and a daughter Rebecca, who married, first, Bartholomew Knipe of Virginia and, secondly (prior to 1658), Colonel Daniel Parke, Snr., by whom she has left many descendants.

BARRADALL. Williamsburg.

Arms: A bend between three pheons, an annulet for difference.

In Bruton Churchyard, Williamsburg, is the tomb of Edward Barradall, Attorney-General of Virginia, who died 1743. Upon it are the arms as above, impaling Fitzhugh, viz., “Azure three chevrons barased in base, interlaced or, a chief of the last.” Edward Barradall married Sarah, daughter of Colonel William Fitzhugh. No tinctures can be distinguished on the Attorney-General’s arms. The arms given by Burke to Barradall or Borrodaile, are, “Or three water bougets in pale sable, between two torteaux a chief vert.”

BASKERVILLE. York county.

Arms: Argent a chevron gules between three hurts.

Crest: A forester vested vert, edged or, holding over his dexter shoulder a crossbow of the last, and with the other hand in a leash, a hound passant argent.

John Baskerville was in York county ante 1667, and was Clerk of the Court. He died in 1673. Married Mary, daughter of Lt.-Col. William Barber of York. Issue: Mary and George, whose descendants settled in Cumberland county. The above John, born in 1635, was the 5th child of John Baskerville and Magdalen, his wife, of Gossestry, Cheshire, and was descended from John de Baskervyle, Knt., of Old Withington, A.D. 1266 (See Omerod's History of Cheshire). Henry Baskerville, the 6th child of John and Magdalen, was a citizen and Fishmonger of London, and his will, proved in Preg. Court of Canterbury, 19 May, 1676, mentions his brother John in Virginia.

FAUNTLEROY. Richmond county.

Arms: Gules three infant's heads crined or.

Crest: A fleur de lis or, between two wings expanded azure.

The first of this family in Virginia was Major Moore Fauntleroy, who was in the colony prior to 1648. He is believed to have been a son of John Fauntleroy, gent., of Crandall, county of Southampton. In 1633, Sir John Borough, Garter King of Arms, confirmed the above arms to Moore Fauntleroy, gent., who is thought to have been the immigrant. William Fauntleroy, either a son or grandson of Moore, was born in 1684 and died in 1757. He married Apphia Bushrod, and had issue: William, born 1712; Moore, born 1716, whose children moved to King and Queen county; and John, born 1724.

BATHURST. New Kent county.

Arms: Quarterly, 1st and 4th. Sable two bars ermined, in chief three crosses patee or. 2nd and 3rd. gules a chevron between three lances argent.

The immigrant was Lancelot Bathurst, who was in New Kent county in 1653. In 1658 he was clerk of the committee of Private Causes in House of Burgesses, and in 1698 served as High Sheriff of New Kent. He was the 5th son of Sir Edward Bathurst and his 2nd wife, Susan Rich, of Cranbrook, Kent. The name of his wife is unknown. He had issue, a daughter, who married prior to 1704, William Tomlin; Mary, who married prior to 1704, Francis Meriwether; Susan, married Drury Stith; Lawrence, who d.s.p. in Essex county. Locke Weems and Sarah Louisa Weems, the sum of five guineas to be laid out for them in silver plate, as their mother shall think proper, the said plate to be engraved with the arms of the Chapman and Pearson families." On a silver salver, now owned by Mrs. Susan Swann Calvert, of Alexandria, Va., the above combined arms are found, as follows: As above for Chapman, and for Pearson, "Per fess embattled argent and gules, three suns or." Constantia Chapman was daughter of Simon Pearson, gent., of Overwharton Parish, Stafford; his will was probated in 1733. (For Pearson family, see under that name.)

BICKLEY. Louisa county.

Arms: Argent a chevron embattled, counter-embattled, between three griffins heads erased sable, each charged with a plate.

Crest: A hind's head ppr. collared argent.

The Virginia branch descend from Sir Francis Bickley, Bart., of Attleborough Hall, Norfolk. Sir Francis, 3rd, Bart., married 2nd, Mary, daughter and co-heir of Sir Humphrey Winch, Bart. He died 1537 and is buried at St. Mary's, Attleborough. By his 1st wife he had a son, Francis, who became 4th Baronet, but d.s.p. 1746. A son, Humphrey, by the 2nd wife, became 5th Baronet and d.s.p. 1752. Joseph Bickley, brother of Humphrey, and a son of the 3rd Baronet, immigrated to Virginia, and died before 4 Dec., 1751. In 1703, this Joseph was in King and Queen county, afterwards removing to King William, and finally settling in Louisa county, of which he was the first Sheriff and Justice. He married Sarah Gessedge, widow of Richard Gessedge, and had issue, William, who succeeded as 6th Baronet on the death of his uncle, Sir Humphrey Bickley (William's father Joseph being then dead). Sir William died intestate, 3 Sept., 1771, the title going to his eldest son Joseph, who thus became the 7th Baronet. He removed in 1820 to Tennessee, and the title is now vested in the direct male heir of this line. The immigrant, Joseph Bickley, had besides his son William, 6th Bart., the following children: Joseph, Jr., John, Frances, Charles, Francis and James Bickley.

GORDON. Middlesex county.
Arms: Azure three boars heads couped or.
Wax seal on the will of William Gordon, dated 29 Feb., 1684, at Urbanna. As Lieut. William Gordon he patented 245 acres of land in Middlesex in 1672.

The Virginia family are of the same line as Sir Thomas Bland, of Kippax Park, Yorkshire, who was created a Baronet by Charles I. 30 Aug., 1642. John Bland of Syth Lane, London, and Plaistow, Essex, born 1573, married Susan Duclere, born 1590, and had issue, seventeen children. Edwin Bland, their fifth child, married Jane, daughter of Gregory Bland, died 1653, and is buried at "Kymages," near Westover. Theodorick Bland, the fifteenth child, afterwards of "Berkeley," James River, was baptized 16 Jan., 1629, at St. Antholin’s, London. He came to Virginia in 1654, and died Aug. 1669. His tombstone at Westover bears the above arms, impaling Bennett. "Or, three demi-lions rampant gules." He married Anne, daughter of Colonel Richard Bennett of Weyanoke, who was sometime Governor of Virginia. Anne Bland died Nov., 1687.

EDWARDS. Lancaster county.
Arms: Argent a fess ermines between three martlets or.
Crest: On a ducal coronet argent, a tiger passant or.
John Edwards patented 350 acres of land in Lancaster in 1653. In May, 1657, the Lancaster Court gave to him a certificate of the importation of his children, John and Mary. On 30 Nov., 1659, there is mention that he had married Frances, daughter of Francis Cole of Lancaster, decd. John Edwards's will, dated 3 Feb., 1667, proved in March of same year, bears the impression of his seal with the above arms. His will was also probated in England, in the Preg. Court of Canterbury, the 24 Nov., 1668. In it he states, "Since I left behind me in England my dear wife and three children, what I left with them, as also the produce of my Virginia estate, and the produce of the ship "Susan," to be divided into four parts to them equally."

CHURCHILL. Middlesex county.
Arms: Sable a lion rampant argent, debruised with a bendlet gules.
Crest: Out of a ducal coronet or, a demi-lion rampant argent.
William Churchill, first of the family in Virginia, was deputy sheriff of Middlesex county in 1674, and member of the Council in 1705. According to his own deposition, he was born 1649 in North Aston, Oxfordshire. The arms of the family on a wax seal attached to a deed of his son Armistead, identify the family in Virginia with the Churchills of Devon, Somerset and Dorset. William Churchill was married twice, his first wife being Mary ———. By her, according to a deed dated 20 Dec., 1683, he had two daughters. He married, 2nd, 5 Oct., 1703, Elizabeth, daughter of Colonel John Armistead of Gloucester, and widow of Ralph Wormeley, late Secretary of State. At Back Creek is the tomb of Rachel, born 1630, died 23 May, 1666, the first wife of Major James Goodwin. The arms engraved upon it are almost obliterated. The shield is impaled; the dexter is much defaced, but in the chief there is a lozenge. In the sinister, which is divided quarterly, there is, 1st and 4th, a bend; 2nd and 3rd, three bars. It is possible that Rachel was a sister of John Porter, for whom Major James Goodwin obtained "head rights," the arms of Porter, Warwick, Eng., being "sable, three bars argent." In the Goodwin genealogy, compiled by Judge John S. Goodwin, the theory is advanced that Maj. James was a son of Peter Goodwin of London (Visitation of London, 1633). The arms of Peter Goodwin of London do not contain the lozenge and the latter is traceable on the dexter side of the arms of Rachel Goodwin. It may be that the arms on the dexter side are those of Goodwin of London, exemplified in 1640, viz.: "or a lion passant, guardant sable on a chief gules three lozenges vair." These are the only Goodwin arms containing a lozenge. The dexter side of the shield on the tomb being much worn, it is possible that the two other lozenges have been obliterated. The arms of Peter Goodwin of London are: "Per pale or and gules, a lion rampant between three fleur de lis counterchanged."

JERDONE. Louisa county.

Arms: Argent, a saltire and chief gules, the last charged with three mullets of the field.

Crest: A spur-rowel-of six points argent.

Motto: Cave adsum.

Francis Jerdone of Louisa county, was born at Jedburgh, Scot., 30 Jan., 1720-1, married Sarah Macon of New Kent county, Va., 10 Feb., 1753. He was the son of John Jerdone, born 7 July, 1680, a Magistrate of Jedburgh, who was the son of Adam Jerdone. The immigrant brought over with him some old silver, on which is engraved the above arms, the same being in the possession of his descendants at Shirley, Charles City county. The crest and motto is identical with that of Jardine of Applegirth, county Dumfries, Bart., 1672, and it is evident that the immigrant was a cadet of that family.

COOKE. Gloucester county.

Arms: Or, a fesse between two lions passant gules.

Crest: A wolf's head argent, ducally gorged gules.

Arms on the tomb of Mary Booth, died 21 Jan., 1723, wife of Thomas Booth and daughter of Mordecai Cooke at Jarvis' Farm, Ware River, Gloucester. The above arms are impaled with Booth: "Argent three bears' heads erect sable," which are the arms of Booth of Barton, county Lancaster. The Cooke arms are the same as Cooke of Whitefield, county Suffolk. The first of the Cooke family in Virginia was Mordecai of Gloucester county, 1650. His wife's name is unknown, but he had issue: Mordecai, Thomas, Giles, John, Mary, Francis, Susannah and possibly others.

Henry Filmer, Member of the House of Burgesses for James City county 1642, Justice of Warwick 1647, had land grants as early as 1637 in James City county. He was a son of Sir Robert Filmer, Knt., of East Sutton, Kent, who married Anne, daughter of Martin Heton, Lord Bishop of Ely.

In the Isle of Wight Records is a Bill of Exchange, dated 16 June, 1665, "on Mr. Robert Filmer, Esq., of London," and signed "Your loving uncle, Henry Filmer." The above Robert was created a Baronet in 1675.

DIGGES. York county.

Arms: Gules on a cross argent, five double-headed eagles' heads erased sable; a crescent for difference.

Edward Digges, son of Sir Dudley Digges of Chilham, Kent, Master of the Rolls, was born 1621, and died 15 March, 1675-6. He entered Greys' Inn 19 May, 1637, and came to Virginia in 1650, settling at "Belfield," on York River. He was a member of the Council in 1654, Auditor-General 1670-75, and Governor from 31 March, 1655, to 13 March, 1657. His wife Elizabeth, who died about 1691, is believed to have been a sister of Col. John Page of York county. By her he had six sons and seven daughters. The Digges arms are on the tomb of Dudley Digges at Belfield.

PRENTIS. Suffolk county.

Arms: Per chevron or and sable, three greyhounds courant and counterchanged, collared gules.

Crest: A demi greyhound rampant or, collared, ringed and lined sable. The line coiled in a knot at the end.

The above emblazoning is in possession of the Prentis family, and has been handed down from Joseph Prentis, who was Judge of the Admiralty Court in 1776, Speaker of the House of Delegates in 1787, and Judge of the General Court of Virginia. He was a son of William Prentis of York county, whose will was probated 19 Aug., 1765, in which he mentions his sons John, Joseph, Daniel and William, and daughters Sarah, wife of William Waters, and Elizabeth Prentis. The arms are the same as those of Prentys of Wygenhall and Burston, Norfolk.

CLAYTON. Gloucester county.

Arms: Argent a cross engrailed sable, between four pellets.

Crest: A leopard's gamb erased and erect argent grasping a pellet.

John Clayton, born 1665, died 18 Nov., 1737, appointed in 1705 Attorney-General of Virginia, Judge of the Admiralty Court, member of the House of Burgesses, and Recorder of Williamsburg. His descent is as follows: (1) Thomas Clayton, of Clayton Hall, Lancashire; (2) William Clayton, of the Inner Temple, died 1627; (3) Sir Jasper Clayton of London, Alderman, fourth son of above William; (4) Sir John Clayton of the Inner Temple and of Parsons Green, Middlesex, third son and heir, knighted 17 Nov., 1664, married Alice, daughter of Sir William Bowyer, Bart., of Denham, Bucks, by whom he had: John of Virginia and others. The arms of Sir John Clayton, as recorded by Le Neve, differ from those used by John of Virginia, the English arms being, "Argent a cross engrailed sable, between three torteaux. Crest: A dexter arm ppr. holding a dagger, the point downward." John Clayton, the emigrant, had issue: (1) John, the eminent botanist; (2) Arthur; (3) Dr. Thomas Clayton, educated at Cambridge, married 1723 Isabella Lewis of Warner Hall, and died Oct. 12, 1739, and upon his tomb in Gloucester county we find the above arms, which are those of Clayton of the county of Lancashire.

The will of James Jameson was probated in Essex 17 Nov., 1736. In it he mentions three sons: James, Thomas and David. James, the son, born 1720, died 1766, married Mary Gaines, daughter of Daniel and Elizabeth Gaines of Essex. David, the fourth child of James and Mary Jameson, was born 15 Oct., 1757. He married Mildred, daughter of Edmund and Agnes Smith, and upon Mildred Jameson’s tomb, at Temple Farm, are the above arms impaling Smith. For the latter, “Azure a chevron between three acorns slipped and leaved or.” Edmund Smith was descended from the Martians and Reades of Yorktown, and through them was a kinsman of George Washington. Mildred Smith Jameson died 11 Dec., 1778, aged 46 years. David, her husband, was member of the Privy Council in 1777, Lieut.-Governor in 1781, and member of the State Senate in 1783. His will was proved at Yorktown 22 July, 1793.

CHEW. James City.

Arms: Gules, a chevron argent upon a chief azure three leopards’ faces or.
John Chew came to Virginia in 1622 in the “Charitie,” his wife Sarah following him in the “Seafoure” the next year. He was a Burgess in 1623, 1624-9; Colonel of Militia, and a Burgess for York county 1642-4, and Justice 1634-52. In 1651, in view of his intended marriage to Mrs. Rachel Constable, he makes a deed of certain land. In 1668 he appears to be deceased. He had at least two sons, Samuel and Joseph. Samuel removed to Maryland, and in 1659 was a member of the House of Burgesses. He married about 1658 Anne, daughter of William Ayres of Nansemond county, Va., and died 15 March, 1676-7, leaving issue, nine children. His eldest son, Samuel, had, in addition to other children, also a son Samuel, and it is from a seal belonging to the latter that the above arms are taken. They are the same, with some difference in the tinctures, as those of John Chew, Gent., died 1639, of Bewdley, Worcestershire.

KEMPE. Lancaster county.
Arms: Gules, three garbs and a bordure engrailed or.
Crest: On a garb or, a pelican vulning herself ppr.

John Graham of Prince William county was a son of John Graham who married Elizabeth, daughter of Catesby Cocke of Fairfax county, and granddaughter of Dr. William Cocke of Williamsburg. John Graham (1) was a son of John Graham of Mackinston, County Perth, whose mother, Margaret, was the eldest daughter of John Graham, descended from the Dukes of Montrose.

HILL. King and Queen county.

Arms: Azure, on a chevron between three owls argent, three mullets sable, a bordure ermine.

From a seal once the property of Col. Humphrey Hill of Hillsborough, King and Queen county. The arms are the same as Hill of Alverton, Gloucestershire. Col. Hill died in 1775, and his will was probated 13 March of that year. In it he mentions his wife, Frances, his four daughters, Mary, Frances, Ann and Elizabeth, and sons John, Humphrey, Robert, Edward, William and Baylor Hill.

KINGSMILL. James City county.

Arms: Argent, semee of crosses crosslet fitchee sable, a chevron ermine between three fers de moline of the second, a chief of the third.

In 1624, Richard Kingsmill, his wife, Jane, his son Nathaniel, aged five years, and his daughter Susan, one year old, lived near James City. Elizabeth Kingsmill, a daughter of Richard, was born 1625. She married, 1st, Col. William Tayloe, and her tomb bears the Kingsmill arms impaling Tayloe, the latter being, “Vert, a sword erect or between two lions rampant endorsed ermine.” The Kingsmill arms are those of Kingsmill, County Hants, and in Berry’s Genealogies we find Sir William Kingsmill married Ann Wilks of Hodwell, County Warwick, and had issue: Thomas, Richard (living in 1634 and doubtless the immigrant), Robert, Frederick, Francis and John.

LIGHTFOOT. Charles City county.

Arms: Barry of six or and gules on a bend sable, three escallops argent.

Arms on the tomb of Phillip Lightfoot at Sandy Point, Charles City county. He married Alice, daughter of Henry Corbin, and the latter’s arms are also impaled, namely: “Argent, on a chief or three ravens ppr.” Philip Lightfoot was a son of John Lightfoot, Barrister, of Northamptonshire, Eng. He, with his brother John, was in Gloucester county in 1670. John married, 1st, Ann, daughter of Thomas Goodrich. He died 28 May, 1707. By his first wife he had: Alice, born 25 Dec., 1698. His second wife was Mary ———, and by her he had: Goodrich, Sherwood, Thomas and Alice. Goodrich Lightfoot married Susannah———, and by her had: Anne, born 22 Oct., 1708; John, born 17 Feb., 1711, Goodrich, bapt. 14 Feb., 1713; Mary, born 2 Oct., 1717; William, born ———; Elizabeth, born ———.

WALLER. Spotsylvania county.

Arms: Sable, three walnut leaves or, between two bendlets argent.

Col. John Waller of Newport, Spots. Co., son of John Waller, was Sheriff of King and Queen county 1702, Justice of King William county 1705, and member of the House of Burgesses 1719. He became first Clerk of Spotsylvania in 1722. His will was proved there 1 Oct., 1754. He married Dorothy King and had: (1) Mary, married Zachary Lewis; (2) Edmund, second Clerk of Spotsylvania Co.; (3) John, third Clerk of Spotsylvania Co., who married Agnes, daughter of Capt. Thomas Carr; (4) William, born 1715; (5) Thomas; (6) Benjamin of Williamsburg. The Virginia Wallers came from Newport Pagnall, County Bucks, and in the parish register there we find the following entries: "Children of Dr. John Waller and Mary, his wife: (1) William, born 24 Sept., 1671; (2) John, born 23 Feb., 1673; (3) Mary, born 23 May, 1674; (4) Thomas, born 17 Oct., 1675; (5) Steven, born 24 Nov., 1676; (6) Benjamin, born 18 March, 1678; (7) Edmund, born 3 Feb., 1680; (8) James, born 25 May, 1683; (9) Jemima, born 31 Aug., 1684."

John Waller of Newport Pagnall, born 1673, is believed to have been the Col. John Waller of Virginia who married Dorothy King. Col. Waller's residence in Spotsylvania county was called "Newport," and the arms he used were the same as the Waller's of Bucks, of which family was the celebrated poet, Edmund Waller of Beaconsfield.

He was born 24 Nov., 1640, in the Parish of St. Michael, Lewes, Sussex, Eng., and died 30 May, 1700. He left no issue, bequeathing his property to his nephews, Pasco and Joshua, sons of his brother Pasco Curle, Justice 1688 and feoffe of Hampton 1691. Another brother, Samuel Curle, was also in Virginia. The arms on the tomb are those of Curle or Kyrle, of London.

NEWCE. Elizabeth City.

Arms: Sable, two pallets argent, a canton ermine.

Sir William Newce came to Virginia with Francis Wyatt in 1621, dying the same year. His brother, Capt. Thomas Newce, came over in the winter of 1621, and was made a member of the Council. He died 1st Apr., 1623, leaving a widow and child in Virginia.
LITTLETON. Acocamac county.

Arms: Argent, a chevron between three escallops sable.

Crest: A stag's head cabossed sable, attired or, between the attires a buglehorn or, hanging by a bend gules.

Col. Nathaniel Littleton was in Virginia in 1635. He was Chief Magistrate of Northampton county, and Counsellor in 1640, and Burgess in 1652. He died in 1654. He married Ann, the widow of Charles Harmar, of Acocamac, and daughter of Henry Southey. Col. Littleton had issue: (1) Edward, (2) Southey, (3) Esther, (4) Mary, (?) who married Col. Edmund Scarburgh. The connection of the Virginia Littletons with Sir Edward Littleton, Lord Chief Justice of England, is shown in the pedigree book of the family in the possession of the present Lord Hatherton. The pedigree, in condensed form, as follows: 1. Sir Thomas Littleton, died 23 Aug., 1481; 2. Thomas, married Anne Batreaux; 3. John, married Alice Thomas; 4. Sir Edward of Henley, Shropshire, married Mary Walter, and they had issue: (1) Sir Edward, Lord Chief Justice; (2) William; (3) James; (4) William; (5) John; (6) Nathaniel, who came to Virginia in 1635, and who was a gentleman of the Earl of Southampton's Company in the Low Countries in 1625; (7) Timothy; (8) Anne; (9) Mary; (10) Martha; (11) Priscilla; (12) Joanne.

Col. Southey Littleton, the son of Col. Nathaniel, married, 1st, Sarah ______; 2nd, Elizabeth, daughter of Major Edmund Bowman. Gertrude, daughter of Edmund Bowman (alive 1681), married John Cropper, and the estate of Major Bowman, called "Bowman's Folly," has descended in a direct line for eight generations in the Cropper family.

Col. William Douglas of Loudoun county, was a son of Hugh Douglas, Esq., of Garallan, Ayrshire, a descendant of Douglas, Earl of Drumlanrig, and the Earls of Douglas. Col. Douglas was a Justice in 1770, and High Sheriff in 1780. His will was probated in March Court 1783.

LONG. New Kent county.

Arms: A lion rampant.

Crest: A lion's head.

From arms on a tomb at Blissland, New Kent, of Mr. John Long of Ramsgate, in the county of Kent, in Great Britain, Commander of the ship "John and Mary," who departed this life 24 July, 1736, aged 25 years.
PLACE.

Arms: Per pale or and gules, a lion passant guardant counter-changed.

Crest: Out of a ducal coronet or, a dexter arm embowed in armor, holding in the hand a battle axe all ppr.

Rowland Place, of Dinsdale, county Durham, born 1642, died 1713, married Priscilla, daughter of Sir John Brooks of Norton, Yorkshire, Bart. He was a member of the Virginia Council in 1650. (Familiae Minorum Gentium, p3. 921.)

DOODES. Middlesex county.

On the will of Minor Doodles at Urbanna, Middlesex, dated 13 Dec., 1677, is a seal, bearing the impression of a 17th Century ship with three masts and resting on water. The same seal is also impressed on the will of his wife, Mary Doodles. Among the Dutch immigrants who came to Virginia about 1650, was a merchant who signed himself indifferently Doodles Minor and Minor or Mindert Doodles. As Minor Doodles of Nansemond county, he signs a deed in 1655, and in 1665 he and his wife Mary, hailing from Lancaster county, unite in a deed to Peter Montague. The will of Mary Doodles mentions a daughter, Marie Montague, and her daughter Marie; sons Doodles Mindert and Peter Montague. The will of the last named Doodles Minor, dated 13 Nov., 1694, mentions his wife Elizabeth and four sons: Minor, William, Garrett and Peter. In the Christ Church Parish Register, Middlesex, are a number of entries pertaining to this family.

HERBERT. Dinwiddie county.

Arms: Per pale, azure and gules, three lions rampant argent, armed and langued or.

Crest: A bundle of arrows or, headed and feathered argent, six in saltire, one in pale; girt round the middle with a belt gules, buckle and point extended of the first.

The above arms are engraved on the tomb of John Herbert of Prince George county, which was taken from the family residence "Puddledock," in Dinwiddie county (formerly part of Prince George) to Blandford churchyard at Petersburg. According to the inscription on the tomb, he died 17 March, 1704, aged 46 years, and was the son of John Herbert, apothecary of London, and grandson of Richard Herbert, citizen and grocer of London. He married Frances, sister of John Anderson, of Prince George county, she marrying secondly, Peter Wynne. Her will was proved in 1726-7. By her first husband she had Buller and Richard Herbert. The family claim descent from Lord Herbert of Cherbury, which claim is supported by the arms and crest engraved on the tombstone, they being the same as those borne by Sir Richard Herbert of Colbrooke, Monmouth, the youngest brother of William, first Earl of Pembroke. It is probable that Richard Herbert, citizen of London, is the same Richard mentioned in the Visitation of London, 1633.
LUNSFORD. Middlesex county.

Arms: Azure, a chevron between three boars' heads or, couped gules.

Crest: A boar's head or, couped gules.

Sir Thomas Lunsford, Knt. (28 Dec., 1641), came to Virginia in 1649, and on the 24 Oct., 1650, received a grant for 3,423 acres of land on the south side of Rappahannock River. He was a Lieut.-Genl. of the Colony and member of the Council. He died ante 1656. He was married three times, his first wife being Catherine, daughter of Sir Henry Neville of Berkshire, by whom he had two daughters, and probably a son, William, the latter, it is thought, being the William Lunsford, Esq., who is mentioned as being one of the headrights in the grant to Sir Thomas in 1650. Sir Thomas married, 3rdly, Elizabeth, widow of Richard Kempe, late Secretary of State for Virginia. After Lunsford's death she married Maj.-Genl. Robert Smith of Middlesex county. By Lunsford she had a daughter Catherine, who married, 1st, Peter Jennings, Attorney-General, and, 2nd, about 1672, Ralph Wormeley, Secretary of State. She died 17 of May, 1685, leaving issue by Wormeley: (1) Elizabeth, married John Lomax and left issue; (2) Catherine, married Gawin Corbin, but left no issue.

GRAY. Stafford county.

Arms: Gules, a lion rampant within a bordure engrailed argent.

Crest: An anchor in pale or.

Motto: Anchor, fast anchor.

William Gray of Garlcraig, Scotland, married in 1718, Janet Barrie. His son, William Gray, also of Garlcraig, born 1729, died 1777, married Isabella, only child and heiress of John Bowie of "Hill of Bath" and Agnes Spreul, his wife. Their son, John Gray, born 4 March, 1769, at Garlcraig, came to America in 1784, and in 1809 purchased "Travellers' Rest," Stafford county, once the residence of Col. Burgess Ball. An old seal, brought to America by John Gray with the above arms engraved upon it, had once been the property of his grandfather, William Gray. It is now in the possession of his great grandson, John Bowie Gray of Stafford county.

HANSFORD. Gloucester county.

Arms: Sable, a star of eight rays argent.

Crest: On a chapeau gules, turned up ermine, a wyvern of the first, wings expanded argent.

The will of John Handford of Ludlowe, County Salop, Esqr. 17 Sept., 1669, probated 24 Jan., 1669-70 (P. C. C. Penn. 6), leaves certain estates contingently to "Tobias Handford, Gent., now living in Virginia, one of the sons of Hugh Handford, late of London, deceased, and then to his eldest sons in succession, and in case my said son and the said Tobias decease without issue, to Walter Handford of Wollashall, County Worcester."
The name of Handford was spelled indifferently Hansford, Handford or Handford. The Hanfords of Wollashall, Worcestershire, had several branches of the family in London, and it is evident that Hugh Handford, deceased, was a member of the family. His son Tobias Hansford, named in the above will, lived in Gloucester county, Va. On 8 Jan., 1666, Tobias Hansford received a grant of 324 acres in Ware Parish. On 24 Oct., 1673, he, together with Philip Ludwell and Richard Whitehead, received a grant of 20,000 acres in New Kent county.

LLOYD. Norfolk county.

Arms: Azure, a lion rampant or.

Crest: A demi lion rampant guardant or, supporting in the paws an arrow in pale argent.

Cornelius Lloyd was a Lieut.-Col. of Militia in Lower Norfolk county in 1611, and a member of the House of Burgesses between 1642 and 1653. His wife was Elizabeth ———. Her will is dated 19 Feb., 1656-7, probated 15 June, 1657, in London. In it she describes herself as widow of Elizabeth River, Lower Norfolk county, Va. Cornelius Lloyd was a brother of Edward Lloyd of "Wye House," Maryland. This connection being established by a deed in 1655 from Elizabeth, the widow of Col. Cornelius Lloyd to Philemon Lloyd, son of her brother-in-law Edward Lloyd of Maryland, and in which she conveys to him certain personal estate. Edward Lloyd was born in Wales about 1600, came to Virginia in 1623, and was a member of the House of Burgesses 1637-49, removing in the latter year to Maryland with his wife, who was Alice Crouch and his son, Philemon. He was one of the original founders of Providence, afterward called Annapolis. He died in London, Eng., in 1696. The above arms are engraved upon numerous pieces of silver plate in the possession of his descendants and are also on the tomb of his son Philemon Lloyd, who married Henrietta Maria Neale, widow of Hon. Richard Bennett, and dau. of Capt. James Neale and Ann, his wife, who was Maid of Honour to Queen Henrietta Maria, wife of Charles I. Philemon Lloyd died 22 June, 1685, and the Lloyd arms impaling Bennett are on their tombs at "Wye House."

COKE. Williamsburg.

Arms: Gules, three crescents and a canton or.

Crest: The sun in splendour or.

Motto: Non aliunde pendere.

John Coke, who settled in Williamsburg in 1724, is identified by his letters and receipts for legacies preserved by the English branch of the family. His wife was Sarah Hoge, as shown in his will, proved 16 Nov., 1767, in which she is named and his two sons Samuel and Robie Coke. John Coke was descended from the Cokes of Trusley, Derbyshire, through Sir Francis Coke. Richard Coke, born 9 Nov., 1664, died 1739, married Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas Robie of Donnington, County Lincoln, and their third son,
John, born 6 Apr., 1704, settled in Williamsburg in 1724 (For English pedigree see Cokes of Trusley, County Derby).

Crest: A falconer's right hand glove fesswise argent, thereon perched a falcon, wings inverted, also argent, belled and beaked or.

Sir Fleetwood Dormer, Bart., of Arle Court, Gloucestershire, emigrated to Virginia (Burke's Extinct Baronetage). By a deed dated 26 Dec., 1649, John White of James Parish in Virginia sold 1,060 acres of land adjoining that of Fleetwood Dormer, Gent. Sir Fleetwood Dormer was the son of Sir Fleetwood Dormer, Bart., of Lee Grange, and Purton, County Bucks.

LUCKIN. Williamsburg.

Arms: Sable, a fesse indented between two leopards' faces or.
Crest: A demi griffin or, issuing out of a tower, paly of six of the last and sable.

The above arms (impaling those of Page) are engraved on the tomb of Alice Page, wife of Col. John Page of York county. She was Alice Luckin of Essex, Eng., born 1625, married 1656, died 22 June, 1698. Her tomb is in Bruton churchyard.

HOOKE. Elizabeth City.

Arms: Quarterly argent and sable, a cross between four escallops all counterchanged.
Crest: An escallop sable between two wings argent.

Capt. Francis Hooke was a naval officer, and on the 18th of Jan., 1636-7, was a member of the Council. He was dead in 1640, for at a Quarter Court, held at Jamestown April, 1640, Capt. Thomas Willoughby represented that he had furnished a barrel of gunpowder to accommodate the funeral of Capt. Francis Hooke, the late Commander of the Fort at Point Comfort. In Berry's Hampshire Genealogies, we find a pedigree of the family of Hooke, which is doubtless that from which Capt. Hooke descended, namely: (1) Richard Hooke of Surrey, married ——— Payne, of Eaton, and was the grandfather of John Hooke of Branshott, County Southampton, the latter having issue: (1) Henry of Branshott, and (2) Francis Hooke, Captain in R. N. 1634.

LINDSAY. Northumberland county.

Crest: A cubit arm in armor in pale, holding in the hand a sword erect argent, on the point a pair of balances of the last.

Motto: Recta sed ardua.

The Rev. David Lindsay of Yeocomico, Northumberland county, was the eldest son of Sir Hierome Lindsay, Knt., of "The Mount," Lyon King of Arms of Scotland, and his wife, Margaret Colville. An entry in the South Leith Church records shows that he was baptized 2 Jan., 1603. His broken tombstone, with portions of the above arms upon it, states that he died 3 Apr., 1667. His will was probated in Northumberland county, his wife being Susanna ———. His only daughter, Helen, married Capt. Thomas Opie, and their son, Capt. Thomas Opie, Jr., died 16 Nov., 1702, and was buried with his grandfather, the Rev. David Lindsay.

HOLFORD. Charles City county.

Arms: Argent a greyhound passant sable, a canton sable for difference.

In Omerod's History of Cheshire, vol. 2, p. 239, is the following pedigree of Holford of Davenham: (1) Arthur Holford, younger son of Sir George Holford of Holford; (2) Arthur of Davenham, Gent., living 6th Edward VI., married Anne, daughter of William Ecstock of Huxley; (3) John of Davenham, Gent., born there 29 March, 1587-8, married Eleanor, daughter of Richard Hussey of Albright-Hussey, Salop; (4) John of Davenham, married Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas Reddish, Gent.; (5) John of Davenham, married Jane, daughter of Thomas Mallory, Dean of Chester, and had issue: (1) John, son and heir; (2) Richard; (3) Thomas Holford, married and in Virginia.

On 29 May, 1668, a patent for 5,578 acres in Charles City county, was granted to Thomas and Henry Batte, sons of Mr. John Batte, deceased, (whose wife was Martha, daughter of Thomas Mallory, Dean of Chester, and whose sister, Catherine, had married the Rev. Philip Mallory, a son of the Dean and afterwards a prominent minister in Virginia). Among the headrights for this patent are several persons named Batte, and Mallory, as well as Thomas and Anne Holford. This Thomas was, undoubtedly, the son of John and Jane Holford of Davenham.
CUSTIS. Northampton county.

Arms: Argent three popinjays vert.
Crest: An archer ppr. coat vert, shooting an arrow from a bow of the first.

The immigrant ancestor of this family was John Custis of Rotterdam, who was in Virginia in 1640. He had six sons: (1) Thomas of Baltimore, Ireland; (2) Edward of London; (3) Robert of Rotterdam, who was a tavern keeper there and whose daughter married about 1649 Argall Yardley, a son of the Virginia Governor; (4) John of Virginia; (5) William of Virginia; (6) Joseph of Virginia. John Custis, son of the immigrant, was Sheriff of Northampton in 1664, and Major-General of Militia in 1676. His estate, "Arlington," gave its name to the celebrated Custis estate near Washington. The family was originally from Gloucester county, Eng. The will of John Smithier of Arlington, County Gloucester, dated 16 Feb., 1618, probated 31 Oct., 1626, mentions his cousin "Henry Custis, alias Cliffe, son-in-law Edward Custis, alias Cliffe, and his son, John Custis; also William Custis, Nicholas Custis, etc."
The tomb of John Custis at Northampton county bears the above arms (without the crest); stating he was one of the Council and Major-General of Virginia, and that he died 29 Jan., 1696, aged 66 years. The tomb of John Custis, grandson of the above, is also at "Arlington," and bears the Custis arms. The latter's will was dated Nov. 14, 1749, and probated in London 19 Nov., 1753. In it he desires "that he be interred by the side of his grandfather, under a white marble tombstone, engraved with his arms of 'three parrots.'" He was born in 1673, and married Frances Parke. The arms adopted by the Custis family were those of Cliffe of the county of Essex, Eng.

MILNER. Nansemond county.

Arms: Per pale or and sable, a chevron between three horses' bits, counterchanged.
Crest: A horse's head, coupèd argent, bridled and maned or.

Col. Thomas Milner was in Nansemond county 1675. He was Clerk of the House of Burgesses 1681-4, and Speaker of the same 1691-3. He married Mary ————, and his daughter Mary, born 6 Aug., 1667, married Col. Miles Cary, of "Richneck," Warwick county, and died 27 Oct., 1700. Upon her tomb are the above arms, which are those of Milner of Yorkshire. Col. Milner was deceased in 1694. His grandson, Thomas Milner, married in 1719, Mary, daughter of Samuel Selden and Rebecca, his wife. (Elizabeth City Records.)

HEYMAN. Elizabeth City.

Arms: Argent, on a chevron engrailed azure, between three martlets sable, as many cinquefoils or.
Crest: A Moor full faced, wreathed around the temples, holding in the dexter hand a rose slipped and leaved all ppr.

Peter Heyman was appointed one of the Deputy Postmaster Generals 18 Apr., 1692, and one of the Commissioners of the Customs in 1699. He was killed 29 Apr., 1700, on board the King's ship "Shoreham," which was engaged in a fight with a pirate. His tomb, at "Penibroke," near Hampton, bears the above arms, and it also states that he was a grandson of Sir Peter Heyman of Summerfield, county Kent, Eng.

TIMSON. York county.

Samuel Timson was in Virginia in 1677. He was a Justice in 1683 and subsequent years; died 23 Jan., 1694-5, and married Mary Juxon, sister of William Juxon, Gent., of London. She died 10 Oct., 1702, and they had issue: William, John, Samuel and Mary Timson. The tomb of Samuel Timson, the immigrant, is at Queen's Creek, York county, and bears the Timson arms impaling Juxon, namely: In the dexter for Juxon "Or, a cross gules between four blackamoors' heads, couped at the shoulders ppr. wreathed about the temples of the field." Sinister for Timson: charges much defaced, but representing "in chief two fleurs de lis, in base a sun in glory."

The arms in the sinister quarter bear no resemblance to those of Timson given in any of the English authorities.

Motto: Fide et amore.

Edwin Conway of the county of Worcester, England, came to Virginia in 1640, and in 1642 was Clerk of Northampton county. He was born about 1610, and died in Lancaster county in 1675. He married, 1st, in England, Martha, daughter of Richard Eltonhead, Esq., of Lancashire. He moved from Northampton to Lancaster county about 1652; his second wife being either a sister or sister-in-law of John Carter of Corotoman. His known issue, gathered from deeds in Lancaster Court House: (1) Edwin, born about 1640-4, died 1695, married, 1st, Sarah Fleet; married, 2nd, in 1695, Elizabeth Thompson; (2) Eltonhead (daughter), born about 1646, married about 1662 Henry Thacker.

Edwin Conway, second of the name, by his first wife, Sarah Fleet, daughter of Lieut.-Col. Henry Fleet of Lancaster county, had: (1) Edwin, born 1651, died 1762, married, 1st, in 1704, Anna Ball, and, 2nd, Ann Hack; (2) Mary, born about 1686, died 1730, married, 1st, in 1703, John Daingerfield, and, 2nd, in 1707, Major James Ball.

Edwin Conway, by his second marriage to Elizabeth Thompson, had Francis, born 1697, married, 1720, to Rebecca Catlett.

There are several deeds at Lancaster Court House made by Edwin Conway, 3rd of the name, bearing the above arms.

DALE. Lancaster county.

Arms: Gules on a mount vert a swan argent, membered and ducally gorged or.

Crest: On a chapeau gules turned up ermine, a heron argent, beaked, legged and ducally gorged or.

Edward Dale, gent., was a brother-in-law of Sir Grey Skipwith, 3rd, Baronet of Prestwould, Leicestershire, both of whom settled in Lancaster county, Virginia. Edward Dale was appointed Clerk in 1655, holding this office until 10 May, 1674. He was Justice from 1669 to 1684; Sheriff in 1670, '71, '79 and 1680, and member of the House of Burgesses in 1677 and 1682.

In the Lancaster records there is a letter from Sir Grey Skipwith, which shows that Edward Dale's wife was the former's sister, Diana Skipwith, daughter of Sir Henry Skipwith of Prestwould, Leicestershire. In the several records of the county he is frequently referred to as Edward Dale, "Gent.," or "Major" Edward Dale. His will was recorded in March, 1695, but the original cannot be found. He left two daughters: (1) Catharine, who married Thomas Carter of Lancaster; (2) Elizabeth, who married William Rogers of Northumberland.

In the existing Dale records of Lancaster no armorial seal can be found attached. His son-in-law, Thomas Carter, who married his daughter Catharine, used a seal bearing the above crest, which has until now been ascribed as a crest of the Carter family. It is undoubtedly, however, the crest and armorial bearing of Edward Dale, and is the same as Dale of London and Northampton, from which family he probably was descended. This seal is attached to Carter deeds as late as 1776 and it has descended in the family from the distaff side of the house. (See Capt. Thomas Carter of Lancaster county.)

MALLORY. New Kent and Elizabeth City counties.

Arms: Or, a lion rampant gules collared argent.

Crest: A nag's head couped gules.

The Virginia Mallorys descend from the ancient family of that name of Studley Royal, Yorkshire. The manor of Studley Royal came into the family through the marriage of William Mallory of Hutton Conyers (whose will, proved 24 April, 1475, is preserved at York) with Dionisia, co-heiress with her sister Isabel, and daughter of William Tempest of Studley, who died 4 Jan., 1444. William Mallory was the representative of an ancient family who possessed Hutton Conyers, Yorkshire, by the marriage of Sir
Christopher Mallory (son of Sir Thomas and a daughter of Lord Zouch) with Joan, daughter and heiress of Robert Conyers, whose ancestor, Robert Conyers, possessed it in 1246.

A very full account of the Mallorys of Studley can be found in Walbran's, "Memoir of the Lords of Studley in Yorkshire."

Coming to a more recent date, we find Sir William Mallory of Studley and Hutton, heir to his brother Christopher. He was High Sheriff of Ripon, and M. P. for Yorkshire in 1585. He married Ursula, daughter of George Gayle, Esq., of York, Master of the Mint there, and sometime Lord Mayor. Sir William's will was probated 5 April, 1603.

Thomas Mallory, son of the above, was Dean of Chester. He married Elizabeth, daughter of Richard Vaughan, Bishop of Chester, and died 3 April, 1644. He left issue: (1) Richard; (2) William, knighted in 1612, d.s.p.; (3) Thomas, of whom later; (4) George; (5) John; (6) Avery; (7) Everard; (8) Philip; (9) Francis; (10) Jane; (11) Katherine (Martha?); (12) Elizabeth; (13) Mary.

Philip Mallory, son of the Dean, was born 1617; matriculated 28 May, 1634, at Corpus Christi, Oxford; B. A. 1637; M. A. 1639. He was in Virginia as early as 1656 and was minister in York county in 1660. His wife was Catherine, daughter of Robert Batte, Vice-Master of University Coll., Oxford. Rev. Philip Mallory returned to England, and his will was proved in London 27 July, 1661. He left all his plantations in Virginia to his nephew, Roger Mallory.

Thomas Mallory, son of the Dean, and brother of Philip, was baptized at Davenham, 27 Aug., 1695; matriculated at New Coll., Oxford, 15 Oct., 1624; B. A. 7 May, 1628; M. A. 17 Jan., 1631-2. He became Rector of Easington, Oxfordshire, 1632, and in 1634 was presented to the family living of Northenden, Cheshire. On the 30th of July, 1660, he was made Canon of Chester, and died at Brindle, near Eccleston in Lancashire, in 1671. He was twice married, his first wife being Jane, who died 12 Feb., 1633, his second wife being Frances. In his will he mentions "sonne Roger in Virginia, sonne Thomas in Virginia." Many particulars of the Dean and his son, Thomas, can be found in the "Cheshire Sheaf"; also of Thomas in the "Dictionary of National Biography."

Roger Mallory patented land in Virginia in 1660 and he was also the heir of his uncle, the Rev. Philip Mallory. He settled in that part of New Kent county which later became King and Queen, and, still later, King William county. He was a Justice of New Kent in 1680 and of King and Queen county in 1693, having also the title of Captain. In 1704-5 he was a Justice of King William county.

William Mallory, son of Roger, settled in Elizabeth City county as early as 1680. He married Ann, daughter of Thomas Wythe, gent., Justice of that county. His will was probated 15 Feb., 1720, in which he mentions sons, Francis and William, and daughters, Mary and Ann.
Francis, son of William Mallory, married Ann, widow of Edward Myhill. His will was probated in Elizabeth City 18 July, 1744. His only son, Johnson Mallory, married Diana (King?). His will probated 5 May, 1762, mentions daughters, Margaret, Mary and Ann King and sons, Francis and Edward. Francis, son of Johnson Mallory, was married twice before he was twenty-one, and once just afterward, his last wife being Mary, sister of Miles King, of Norfolk. He was a Lieut.-Col. of the Elizabeth City Militia, June, 1776, and was killed in action 8 March, 1781. He left daughters, Diana, Elizabeth and Mary, and a son, Charles King Mallory. The latter was born about 1781. He was a member of the Virginia Legislature and the Council, and Lieutenant-Governor of Virginia during the War of 1812. He married Frances Lowry Stevenson, a daughter of Lieut. William Stevenson of the Revolution, and left issue: Francis Mallory, M. C.; William S. Mallory; Colonel Charles K. Mallory of the Confederate Army; Catherine Beverley Mallory and Mary King Mallory. Among living descendants of the foregoing are: Professor Francis Mallory of the Virginia Military Institute (grandson of Francis); William S. Mallory of Charlotte, N. C. (son of William); Lieut. Charles K. Mallory, U. S. N., retired (grandson of Charles); and Lieut.-Col. John S. Mallory, U. S. A. (son of Charles), who married Sarah, daughter of the late J. H. Reed of Portland, Oregon, and who has issue, Henry Reed Mallory, born 1892, and John Stevenson Mallory, born 1894.

ARCHER. Henrico county.

Arms: Azure three arrows argent.

Crest: Out of a mural coronet gules a dragon's head argent.

Motto: Fortitudo.

The first of this family in Virginia was George Archer, who, in 1665, had a grant of 550 acres of land on Tunstalls Creek, Henrico county; he also was granted other patents. He died in 1677, in that part of Henrico which is now Chesterfield county. It is not known whom he married, but he left issue: (1) George, born 1654, died 1731, a vestryman of Bristol Parish in 1721, who married Elizabeth, sister of William Harris of Henrico; (2) Elizabeth, married Thomas Branch of Henrico; (3) John of Henrico, vestryman and Justice in 1713, married, 1st, Frances, relict of Thomas Shippey; married, 2nd, Martha, daughter of Major Peter Field of Henrico; (4) Margaret.

The arms are from the book plate of Col. William Archer of Amelia county, who was a Justice in 1743. He was a grandson of John and Martha (Field) Archer of Henrico.

BERNARD. Nansemond county.

Arms: Argent a bear rampant sable, muzzled or.

Col. William Bernard settled in Nansemond county about 1640. He was a member of the Council 1642-3 and in 1659-60. He married about 1655, Lucy, widow of Major Lewis Burwell and daughter of Robert Higginson, and in that year had a son, George.

Col. William Bernard was a brother of Sir Robert Bernard, Bart., of Brampton Hall, Huntingdonshire. The Baronetcy was created in 1662 and became extinct in 1789. Sir Robert's will is dated 5 Dec., 1665, and probated 15 May, 1666, in it he says: "I give to my brother William's son, now at Brampton, 100 pounds if he lives to be eighteen, and I leave him to my son John to bring up, and some care to be had to inquire what his father left him in Virginia." In addition to the son George, Col. Bernard is said to have had two daughters, Lucy and Elizabeth.

BECKWITH. Richmond county.

Arms: Argent a chevron between three hind's heads erased gules.

Crest: An antelope ppr. in the mouth a branch vert.

Motto: Joir en bien.

Sir Marmaduke Beckwith, Baronet, of Aldborough, Yorkshire, was born there in 1687. He was the son of Sir Roger Beckwith and Elizabeth Jennings. Elizabeth was the daughter of Sir Edmund Jennings, Knt., of Ripon and his wife Margaret, daughter of Sir Edward Barkham, Knt. and Bart., of Middlesex.

Sir Marmaduke settled in Richmond county, of which he was clerk and died at an advanced age. His known children were: (1) Jonathan, married Rebecca Barnes; (2) Tarpley, born 2 Oct., 1718, died 7 Nov., 1723; (3) Elizabeth, born 15 Oct., 1723, died 7 April, 1726; (4) Margaret, born 27 July, 1725; (5) Mary, born 12 June, 1727; (6) Rebecca, married Major John Bellfield; (7) Marmaduke, married Sybil, daughter of Major Elsie. One of the daughters, either Mary or Margaret, married Joseph Morton of James City, gent. This is proved from a deed dated 20 Dec., 1756, from Sir Marmaduke Beckwith of Richmond county to his son-in-law, Joseph Morton.

HENDERSON. Augusta county.

Arms: Gules three piles issuing out of the sinister side argent, on a chief of the last a crescent azure between two ermine spots.

Crest: A cubit arm ppr. the hand holding a star or, ensignied with a crescent azure.

Motto: Sola virtus nobilitat.

John, James and Samuel Henderson, sons of William and Margaret Henderson, came to Virginia about 1749, and settled in Augusta county, where they still have descendants. In an old Bible belonging to Lieut. James Henderson of the French and Indian Wars, are the following entries: "This record set down from the memory of James Henderson, now aged 75."

"William Henderson, gent., and Margaret Bruce married 7 Feb., 1705. John, son to William, born 9 Feb., 1706; James, son to William, born 17 Jan., 1708; Bruce, son to William, born 10 May, 1710, died Sept., 1719; Samuel, son to William, born 28 Nov., 1713.
Grandsons to John Henderson, gent., Fifeshire, Scotland. William Henderson, born 30 April, 1676, died 1 Aug., 1757; Margaret Henderson, born 1 March, 1680-1, died 15 Dec., 1759; Jean Henderson Stuart, died in child bed, March, 1730, aged 19; John Henderson died 1 May, 1766, aged 60; Samuel Henderson, died 19 Jan., 1782."

Then follows the record of marriage of James Henderson to Martha Hamilton, daughter of Audley Hamilton and Elenor, his wife, 23 June, 1733. Their children were: David, William, John, James, Sarah, Joseph, Jean, Samuel, Archibald and Margaret.

James Henderson, born 1708, died 1754, was a Lieutenant in the Augusta County Militia, and in 1758 received pay for services in the French and Indian Wars. (Crozier's "Va. Colonial Militia," p. 60.) His son, John Henderson, born 1740, died 1787, married in 1765, Anne Givens, youngest sister of the wife of General Andrew Lewis. In 1774 he served in the Battle of Point Pleasant as a lieutenant in Capt. John Lewis' company from Botetourt county. He removed to Greenbrier, and in 1775 and 1776 was a Captain in the Militia of that county. On 6 Dec., 1776, he enlisted as a Corporal in Capt. Gregory's company, Gen. Daniel Morgan's Virginia Regiment, and served until Nov. 1779. He was a Justice of Greenbrier in 1780. He left at his death in 1787, four sons and two daughters: (1) Samuel Henderson, married Sarah Donnally in 1794, a daughter of Col. Andrew Donnally. He settled on a grant of land his father had received for military services, and which was situated on the Great Kanawha River. Here, in 1811, he built the second brick house in Mason county. He died in 1838, leaving issue, John Givens, who lived at the home plantation, and Charles and Andrew Henderson, both lawyers who d.s.p. (2) Col. John Henderson, born 1768, died 1824, was the most prominent of the sons of Lieut. John Henderson. He was Commissioner of Revenue for Greenbrier in 1786 and 97. In the latter year he moved with his family to the Henderson grant, in what later became Mason county. Here, in 1804, he was Justice of the First Court, Sheriff in 1815 and 1818, Member of the Va. Legislature in 1809, 1810, 1811, 1812, 1813, 1814, 1817, 1818, 1819 and 1820. He was also Colonel of the Mason County Militia for many years, some of his old regimental orders showing that he served in the War of 1812. In 1792 he married Elizabeth Stodghill, daughter of John and Elizabeth Harvey Stodghill, by whom he had six daughters. (3) Margaret Henderson, daughter of Lieut. John Henderson, born 1771, died 1853, married in 1795, William Vawter, and left many descendants who became prominent in Va. and W. Va. One son and four of her grandsons being captains in the Confederate army.

The Henderson family is of Scotch ancestry, the above arms being engraved on the watch used by Lieut. John Henderson, who died in 1787. The arms are also found in wax on a paper signed by Col. John, who died in 1824. The watch and paper are now owned by a great-great-grandson, Dr. Joseph Lyon Miller, Thomas, W. Va.
BEVERLEY. Middlesex county.

Arms: Ermine, a rose gules, barbed and seeded ppr.

Robert Beverley, the immigrant, came from Yorkshire (Burke's "Landed Gentry") to Virginia in 1663 and settled in Middlesex county, of which he was a Justice in 1673, and Clerk of the House of Burgesses in 1670. His first wife was Mary, said to have been a daughter of George Keeble of Lancaster county, and his second, Catherine, either the daughter of Major Theophilus Hone of James City county or his widow, it is uncertain which, whom he married in Gloucester county, 28 March, 1679 (Christ Church Par. Reg.). Major Beverley died 15 March, 1686. He had issue by his first wife: Peter, Robert and Harry Beverley, and a daughter, Mary, who married in 1694 William Jones of King and Queen. By his second wife, Catherine Hone, he had issue: William, bapt. 4 Jan., 1680, married Judith, daughter of Christopher Wormeley, and widow of Cerbin Griffin, and died 1702. John, in 1687 under the guardianship of his brother Peter, he d.s.p. Thomas, d.s.p. 1686. Christopher, bapt. 19 Feb., 1686, he was Sheriff of King and Queen in 1729 and d.s.p. Catharine Beverley, married John Robinson, son of Christopher Robinson, Secretary of State and member of the Council, and nephew of John Robinson, Bishop of London.

Col. Peter Beverley, eldest son of Major Robert, the immigrant, was clerk of Gloucester county, and also of the House of Burgesses 1691-99; he was also Speaker of the House 1700-14, Treasurer of Virginia 1710-23, member of the Council in 1719, and died in 1728. He married Elizabeth, daughter of Major Robert Peyton of "Isleham," Gloucester county, and left issue, two daughters, Susanna and Elizabeth.

Robert Beverley, second son of Major Robert, lived in King and Queen county, of which he was clerk 1699-1702, member of the House of Burgesses for Jamestown 1699, 1700, 1702, 1706, etc. He was clerk of the Council in 1697. He married Ursula, died 31 Oct., 1698, aged 16 years and 11 months, daughter of Col. William Byrd, leaving a son William.

Captain Harry Beverley, third son of Major Robert, was Justice of Middlesex in 1700. He removed to Spotsylvania county about 1720, and was for a number of years presiding Justice. He died 1730, and married about 1700, Elizabeth, daughter and heiress of Robert Smith of "Brandon," Middlesex, by whom he had issue: Elizabeth, Robert, Susanna, Mary, Catherine, Judith, Peter, Agatha, Anne and Margaret.

There has been some confusion in regard to the correct arms of the Beverley family. Upon the will of the first Major Robert Beverley, preserved at Middlesex Court House, there is a wax seal, which has upon it, "Quarterly argent and gules, a rose counterchanged, barbed vert." William Beverley of "Blandfield," son of Robert Beverley, 2nd, and grandson of the immigrant, writing to his London agent in 1729, states, "That he sends him a seal which he wishes recut, that it was made in 1723, but had the wrong arms engraved upon it, that the arms his father used were, 'red rose seeded and barbed in a field ermine, with a unicorn's head for crest, and not the three bull's heads.'" On a bond of William Beverley, 1726, in Essex County Court, there is a wax seal with the following arms, "Argent a chevron sable, on a chief of the second three bulls' heads cabossed of the first." These are the arms spoken of by William Beverley in his letter, and were, according to him, incorrect. The old tomb of Ursula (Byrd) Beverley, who died in 1698 bore Beverley and Byrd impaled, for the former, "Ermine a rose gules, barbed and seeded ppr." The Beverley book plates bear the arms of the three bulls' heads and chevron, but it is evident that they are incorrect, and that the proper arms are as given above.

Clarke. York county.

Arms: Quarterly. (1) Or on a bend engrailed azure, a cinquefoil of the field. (2) Argent on a chevron gules, between three Columbines azure, as many crescents or. (3) Azure a cross between five billets saltire argent in each quarter. (4) Or on a cross sable five crescents argent.

John Clarke of York county was decd. ante 1645. (York county records.) There is a power of atty. at Yorktown, dated 29 Dec., 1671, which recites, "That John Clarke of Wrotham in the county of Kent, Esq., nephew and sole heir-at-law of John Clarke, formerly of Virginia, merchant, decd., who was a son of Sir John Clarke, Knt., of Wrotham, long since deceased, and younger and only brother of Sir William Clarke, Knt. (lately decd.), which said Sir William Clarke was father of me, John Clarke, his son and heir."

In the Visitation of Kent there is a pedigree of the family which shows that John Clarke of Virginia was born in 1614, and that he had an elder brother, William, born in 1610, and a sister Cecilia. He was son of Sir John Clarke and Elizabeth, daughter of Sir William Steed of Hautsham.

Brodnax. York county.

Arms: Or two chevrons gules, on a chief of the second three cinquefoils argent.

Crest: Out of a mural crown argent, a griffin's head or, winged and collared gules, charged with three cinquefoils argent.

The above arms were granted by Clarenceux King of Arms, William Camden, to Thomas Brodnax, gent., of Godmersham of the county of Kent. The family was of some antiquity in England, the name appearing in Kent as early as the time of Henry IV. Berry, in his "Kentish Genealogies" gives the pedigree of the family from the time of Robert Brodnax, who married Alice Scappe, died 1487, down to the year 1794, when the direct line of descent in England became extinct. Sir William Brodnax, 8th in descent from Robert, was knighted by Charles II. in 1664. In 1727 Thomas Brodnax assumed the name of May in pursuance of the will of Sir Thomas May, from whom he derived a considerable estate in Sussex and London. Still later he exchanged the name of May for Knight, upon his inheritance of landed estate in Hampshire. Thomas, a son of the above, married Catherine, the daughter of Dr. Wadham Knatchbull, Chancellor of Durham and Dean of Canterbury. He d.s.p. 23 Oct., 1794, leaving his property to his cousin, Edward Austin, a brother of Jane Austin, the novelist, who also changed his name to that of Knight. Godmersham Park, the seat for many generations of the Brodnax family, at the death of Thomas Knight, passed into the hands of the Austin-Knight family, the present owner being Montague Knight, Esq.

The first of the family to come to Virginia was Major John Brodnax, who settled in York county. His will is dated 23 July, 1657, and was probated 16 Nov. of that year. In it he mentions, "His wife Dorothy, daughter Elizabeth, youngest sons, William and Robert; eldest son, Thomas, to be executor, living at 'the Golden Griffin' with Mr. Thomas Turges in Fenchurch street; son John, living with Mr. Joseph King in 'ye Golden Sun' in Gratious street."

Major John Brodnax was the uncle of Sir William Brodnax (Berry's Kent). He was born at Godmersham, and his title of "Major" evidently indicates that he was a Cavalier officer, as his name does not appear in the Militia lists of the Colony. The character of his personal estate would also indicate the same, as it included three periwigs, a rapier and belt, five broadcloth suits, slippers, ribbons, cuffs, etc. Towards the end of the 17th century two brothers, John and William Brodnax, came to Virginia. They were the sons of Robert Brodnax, goldsmith, of London, and grandsons of Major John Brodnax. They were born at Godmersham, and John being the oldest preceeded his brother in Virginia by some few years. William Brodnax was born 23 Feb., 1655, and married Rebecca Travis of Jamestown. He died in 1727 and was buried at James City Island. He brought with him a large blazoning of the family arms, also the portraits of his father, Robert, and mother, Ann Brodnax, painted by Sir Peter Lely; a seal with his arms engraved upon it, and his father's Bible, in which is recorded his own date of birth. He was a member of the House of Burgesses from James City in 1718, 1720, 1722, 1723 and 1726. He left issue, and from William descend the branch now in North Carolina.

John Brodnax, brother of William, settled first in Henrico county where he had several large land grants. He married Mary, the daughter of William and Mary Skerme of Henrico. He afterwards removed to Williamsburg, where he engaged in the business of a goldsmith, and where he died in 1719, leaving his brother William and his oldest son, Robert, administrators of his estate. His children were: Robert, William, Winfield, Mary Ann and Sarah. But few of the name of Brodnax are now left in Virginia, one of the direct descendants being Dr. John W. Brodnax of Manchester, Va.
CHICHESTER. Lancaster county. Arms: Chequy or and gules, a chief vair. Crest: A heron with wings expanded, holding in the beak a snake all ppr. Motto: Ferme en foy.

The Virginia branch of this family descends from the ancient house of Chichester of the county of Devon. (1) Sir Roger Chichester, knighted at Calais, died 1370. (2) John, son of Sir Roger, born 1365, died 1384, married Thomasine Raleigh, daughter of Sir John Raleigh, granddaughter of Sir Robert de Raleigh and wife Laura Peverel (daughter of Sir Hugh Peveral), great-granddaughter of Sir Walter de Raleigh and wife, Lady Sabilla de Umfraville (daughter of Gilbert de Umfraville and his wife, Matilda, Countess of Angus), and great-great-granddaughter of Sir Peter de Raleigh, Lord of Raleigh, who died 1223, and whose wife was Matilda de Braybroc, daughter of Galfridus de Braybroc, Lord of Braybroc. (3) John, son of John above, born 1386, died 14 Dec., 1437, married, 1424, Alice, daughter of John Walton and his wife Johanna de Dinham (daughter of Robert de Dinham and his wife, Emma Moels, who was the daughter of Roger Moels and his wife, Alice le Prouse, the latter being the daughter of William le Prouse, Lord of Orton). (4) Richard, son of John Chichester, born 23 Feb., 1424, married Margaret Kaynes of Winkley, daughter of Nicholas Kaynes. (5) Nicholas, son of Richard Chichester, born 1452, married Christine Paulett, daughter of Sir William Paulett. (6) John, son of Nicholas Chichester, married Johanna Brett. He died 22 Feb., 1537. (11) John, heir to his grandfather Hugh Chichester, was baptized at Widworthy, 11 Oct., 1626, buried 11 June, 1661, will dated 3 June, 1661; married Margaret, daughter of John Ware of Hallerton and Silverton, Devon, and his wife, Margaret, daughter of Thomas Dart of Silverton. (12) Richard, second son of John Chichester of Widworthy and Margaret Ware, was born at Silverton 5 March, baptized 16 March, 1657. He married, 1st, in England, Anna ———, came to Virginia in 1702, bringing with him his son John, and settled in Lancaster county. He married, 2nd, 11 July, 1719, Ann Chinn, widow of William Fox (Lancaster county M. L. Bonds, p. 48, Crozier's Va. Marriages).
Richard Chichester's will is dated 14 April, 1734. (13) John, son of Richard Chichester and Anna ———, was baptized at Widworthy 10 May, 1631, and died in Virginia, Oct. —, 1728; married Elizabeth Symes of Dorset, England, who was buried at Powerstock, Dorset, Jan., 1728. (14) Richard, son of John Chichester and Elizabeth Symes, died in England, 30 Dec., 1743, and was buried at Powerstock 3 January. He married, 3 July, 1734 (Lancaster county M. L. Bonds, p. 49, Crozier's Va. Marriages), Ellen Ball, daughter of Col. William Ball and Hannah Beale, and lived at "Fairweathers," Lancaster county, Virginia. (15) Richard, son of Richard Chichester and Ellen Ball, married, 1st, 7 June, 1759 (Lancaster County M. L. Bonds, p. 52, Crozier's Va. Marriages), by this marriage there was no issue. He married, 2nd, Sarah McCarty, daughter of Col. Daniel McCarty and Sarah Ball. They lived at "Newington," Fairfax county, and were buried there. (16) Richard McCarty Chichester, son of Richard Chichester of Newington and Sarah McCarty, was born 1709 and died 1793. He married Ann Thomson Mason, daughter of Thomas Mason of Stafford (brother of George Mason of Gunston), and Elizabeth Barnes. After his death his widow returned to her home in Loudoun county, and died there in 1817. Ann Mason Chichester, daughter of the above, was born 16 Oct., 1789, and died 12 July, 1882. She married Charles Pendleton Tutt, and lived at " Locust Hill," Loudoun county. (17) George Mason Chichester, son of Richard McCarty Chichester, born 2 March, 1793, died 12 Dec., 1835; married 23 Dec., 1824, Mary Bowie, daughter of Washington Bowie and Margaret John, of Georgetown, D. C., and lived at "Ivon," Loudoun county. The present owner of "Ivon" is Arthur Mason Chichester, Esq.

CHICHELEY. Lancaster county.

Arms: Or a chevron between three cinquefoils gules.

Crest: A tiger passant argent, holding in the mouth a man's leg couped at the thighs ppr., the foot downward.

Sir Henry Chicheley, son of Sir Henry Chicheley, Bart., of Wimpole, Cambridgeshire, served in the Royal Army during the Civil War, and came to Virginia in 1649. He was Burgess for Lancaster county, 1656, member of the Council 1670, Deputy-Governor 23 Feb., 1673-4, acting Governor Dec., 1673 to 16 May, 1680. He married Agatha Eltonhead, the widow of Ralph Wormeley of "Rosegill," Middlesex county, and died 5 Feb., 1682.

FEILDING. King and Queen county.

Arms: Argent on a fess azure, three lozenges or.

This family had but two generations in Virginia bearing the name, viz.: Henry Feilding, gent., and his daughter Frances. The arms described above are on a wax seal attached to the will of Henry Feilding, who died in King and Queen county in 1712, bequeathing the bulk of his estate to his daughter Frances, who married John Lewis of Warner Hall, Gloucester county. From this marriage have descended some of the most prominent and cultured people of the South. One of their sons was Colonel Fielding Lewis, who married Betty Washington, the only sister of General George Washington. Old silver plate still in possession of the family show the above arms engraved upon it, which are those of the Earls of Denbigh.

Creyke...

Arms: Per fess argent and sable, on a pale three martlets.

Smith. Essex county.

Arms: Argent a fess dancette between three roses gules barbed vert.

Wax seal on the will of Colonel Joseph Smith, 1728, at Tappahannock, Essex. The arms are similar to Smyth of Honyngton, Lincolnshire.

Butler. Westmoreland county.

A silver waiter, at one time belonging to the Butler family, and now in the possession of Mr. Laurence Washington, has engraved upon it the arms of Butler and Beckwith quarterly. 1st and 4th for Beckwith, "a chevron between three hinds' heads." 2nd and 3rd for Butler, "a chief indented and a saltire with three covered cups." Crest: Out of a plume of ostrich feathers, a falcon rising, for Butler.

The Butlers were a Westmoreland county family. Jane Butler, daughter of Caleb Butler, marrying Augustine Washington.

Rodes. Louisa county.

Arms: Argent a lion passant guardant gules, between two acorns azure, within two bendlets ermines.

Crest: An arm couped at the elbow argent, holding an oak branch or fructed azure.

In "Familiae Minorum Gentium," Vol. II., pp. 583-87, Harleian Society Publications, the following pedigree is given: John Rodes, fifth son of Sir Francis Rodes and Elizabeth (Lascelles) Rodes, married Elizabeth, daughter of Simon Jason of Edial, Staffordshire, and had issue: (1) John, living in 1695; (2) Francis, resided in Maryland, where he was twice married, but is now (1698) in England, and has issue; (3) Charles, third son, living in Virginia, where he is lately married, 1695; (4) Anne.

It is believed that John Rodes, who was born in Virginia, 6 Nov., 1697, died 3 May, 1775, was a son of the above-named Charles Rodes. He was a vestryman of Fredericksville Parish,
Louisa county in 1765. In Oct., 1766, John Rodes and Mary, his wife, made a deed of gift to their son, Clifton Rodes of Louisa. They had four sons, Clifton, Charles, John and David. The name of Clifton is found in the English branch of the Rodes family, and on account of its peculiarity as a given name, is a strong indication that the American branch was of the same line as Sir Francis Rodes.

TAZEWELL. Brunswick county.

Arms: Vaire purpure and ermine, on a chief gules a lion passant or.

Crest: A demi-lion purpure, in the paws a chaplet of eight roses gules.

In the Visitation of London made in 1664, is a pedigree of the Tazewell family. They were originally of the county of Somerset. James, son of William Tazewell of “Buckland Newton,” was bapt. at the parish church July, 1588, county of Dorset. His first wife was Mary, daughter of ———— Hunt of Forston, Dorset, and died in 1659. He died in 1663. His son, James Tazewell, was a merchant in London, and married, 1st, 26 March, 1649, Elizabeth Up- sal, who died in 1667. He married. 2nd, in 1673, Elizabeth, daughter of John Kingsmill of Andover; she died 1702, s.p. James Tazewell died 26 March, 1685. In 1663 James Tazewell was seised of the manor of South Brent, Somerset, and in 1672 owned the manor of Limington, Somerset. James Tazewell, eldest son and heir, born 20 Feb., 1650, succeeded his father in the manor of Limington. He married Ann Kingsmill, and had issue, three sons and three daughters. The third son, William Tazewell, baptized 17 July, 1690, went to Virginia in 1715, and in 1721 married Sophia, daughter of Henry Harmanson by his wife Gertrude, daughter of Col. Southey Littleton. He died in 1752. His son, Littleton Tazewell, resided in Brunswick county and was a churchwarden and vestryman of the parish. One of his descendants was Littleton Waller Tazewell, Governor of Virginia.

FEILDING. Northumberland county.

Arms: Or, a lion rampant gules; also, argent on a fess azure three lozenges or.

The lion seal was used by Edward Feilding (son of Ambrose) on a letter of attorney in Sept., 1684, and both coats are given in a drawing made from Feilding silver in 1792, then in the possession of a descendant of Ambrose Feilding.

The Feildings of Northumberland appear in that county in 1662 in the person of Richard Feilding, a merchant from Bristol, England. He bought several large tracts of land in this county, and besides, owned a share in the ship “Phoenix,” and in a mercantile business at Bristol with his brother, Edward. Richard Feilding died in 1666 unmarried. He left a plantation of a thousand acres, with all stock, servants, household goods, etc., to his brother. Ambrose Feilding, who came out to take possession of his Virginia.
place in 1667. He was a King's Justice from June 23, 1669, to Feb. 4, 1675. Ambrose Feilding's will was probated November 17, 1675, and devised his property to sons, Richard, Edward, and daughter Ann. Wife Ann received money for a mourning ring. In the inventory of his personal estate he is designated as "Mr. Ambrose Feilding of Wickocomico Hall, gent." This inventory names a good lot of household furniture contained in a five-room house and a two-room detached kitchen; included in this list were eighteen silver spoons and seven larger pieces of plate, two of which were marked with "re Ffeilding Armes."

Of the sons of Ambrose Feilding, Richard died unmarried; and Edward took a more or less prominent part in county affairs till the time of his death in 1696. He appears first as a Justice-March 19, 1679, and last on Sept. 12, 1683. He left four sons and two daughters, who have many descendants in Virginia, Kentucky, Alabama, Arkansas, and Texas.

All the original Feilding papers on file in the Northumberland Clerk's office were destroyed in the Civil War, but an old letter of Attorney, signed by Edward Feilding in Sept., 1684, is now owned by a descendant; this old letter bears a seal showing a lion rampant guules on a field or. This is the old Hapsburg seal of the principal family of Feilding in England—the Feildings of "Newham Paddox," Warwickshire, who were created Earls of Denbigh in 1620. This old letter of Attorney also bears the seal of Thomas Hobson, who was Clerk of Northumberland county from 1664 to 1716, Justice of the County Court, etc., and who has descendants yet in this country. This seal shows a three-masted ship under full sail, with prow pointed to the sinister side. In 1792 a descendant of Ambrose Feilding in Spotsylvania county, Va., made a drawing from old Feilding silver then in her possession, and sent it in a letter to her brother, who had gone to Kentucky to live. This drawing and letter are now owned by recipient's great grandson—Dr. J. L. Miller, Thomas, West Va., and shows two shields, one with the lion rampant and the other with the gold lozenges on a blue fess.

WOODHOUSE. Princess Anne county.

Arms: Quarterly ermine and azure, in the 2nd and 3rd quarters a leopard's head or.

Crest: A griffin's segreant or.

This old and distinguished Virginia family descends from Woodhouse of Waxham, Norfolk. John Woodhouse of this place had a son, Sir William, who married for his second wife, Elizabeth, daughter of Sir Philip Calthorpe and widow of Sir Henry Parker. A second son, Sir Henry Woodhouse, died in 1624, and by his marriage with Ann, daughter of Sir Nicholas Bacon, the Lord Keeper, and sister of Francis Bacon, first Lord Verulam, was father of Captain Henry Woodhouse, who was Governor of the Bermudas from Oct., 1623, to Jan. 13, 1626-7. Henry Woodhouse, son of Captain Henry, was born in 1607, and came to Virginia in 1637, settling in Lower Norfolk (now Princess Anne) county. He was Justice in 1642-3 and member of the House of Burgesses 1647 and 1652. He died in 1655, leaving several daughters and four sons, Henry, Horatio, John and William, who have numerous descendants.

BENNETT. Nansemond county.

Arms: Gules a bezant between three demi lions rampant argent.

Crest: Out of a mural coronet or, a lion's head gules, on the neck a bezant.

Richard Bennett was a nephew of Edward Bennett, a wealthy merchant of London and member of the Virginia Company. Richard Bennett was a member of the House of Burgesses in 1629 and 1631, and member of the Council 1642-9, removing in the latter year to Maryland. He returned to Virginia and in 1651 was appointed by Parliament one of the Commissioners to reduce Virginia and Maryland. He was Governor of the Colony from 30 April, 1652, to March, 1655. In 1658 he was again a member of the Council. In 1666 he was a Major-General of Militia, and in the "Salisbury Abstracts" we find that in that year Thomas Ludwell, writing to Bennett, Lord Arlington, states that Major-General Bennett bore his (Arlington's) arms, and was he believed of his family. His will is dated 15 March, 1674, and was proved in Nansemond 12 April, 1675. He married Mary Ann Utie, and they had issue: (1) Richard of Greenbury Point, Maryland, who was drowned shortly before his father's death, leaving issue; (2) Anne Bennett, married, 1st, Theodorick Bland of Westover, 2nd, Colonel St. Leger Codd of Northumberland county, Va., and afterward of Maryland. She died 1687. (3) A daughter, married Col. Charles Scarborough of Accomac county, Va.

Robert Bennett, a brother of Edward Bennett of London, also came to Virginia prior to January, 1623-4, and in 1648 Mr. Philip Bennett, administrator of Robert Bennett, had a grant of land in Nansemond county.

NICHOLSON.

Arms: Azure on a cross argent between four suns ppr., a cathedral gules.

Crest: A demi-man habited in a close coat azure, buttons and cuff turned up or, face and hands ppr., armed with a head piece and gorget argent. In dexter hand a sword erect ppr., hilt and pommele of the second; in sinister an open Bible, clasps argent.

Sir Francis Nicholson of Downham Park, Yorkshire, was born in 1600; received an ensign's commission in the army 9 June, 1678; made lieutenant 6 May, 1684; Lieutenant-Governor of Virginia 1690; Governor of Maryland Jan., 1694; in 1698 returned to Virginia and remained there until 1705; in 1713 was made Governor of Acadia, and in 1719 Governor of South Carolina. He was knighted in 1720, returned to England in June, 1725, and died in London 5 March, 1728. He was one of the founders of William and Mary College, of which he was one of the first trustees.

COCK. Lancaster and Middlesex counties.

Arms: Argent a chevron engrailed gules between three eagle's heads erased sable, on a canton azure an anchor or.

In 1653 there is a patent to Nicholas Cock for 600 acres in Lancaster county, and in 1663 a grant to Maurice Cock, son of the above, of a like amount. In 1683 there is a grant recorded to Nicholas Cock of 346 acres in Middlesex. It is evident that Nicholas Cock was a Dutch settler, as he was naturalized with Minor Doodes and other Dutchmen in Middlesex in 1673. He died 25 Oct., 1687, and his tombstone in Middlesex bears the above arms, which are those of Cocke of the counties of Lancashire and Cornwall. There was a Nicholas Cock of South Pederwyn, Cornwall, who was married to Elizabeth Lower, daughter of Ferdinando Lower of Lesaunt, Cornwall, and whose pedigree is given in the Visitation of Cornwall for 1620. It is possible that this Nicholas might have been the father of Nicholas who came to Virginia. During the period of the Civil War in England many Englishmen went to Holland and became Dutch subjects, and it is possible that Nicholas may have done the same and, after settling in Virginia, became once more an English subject. He married, about 1661, Jane, widow of Bartholomew Curtis. By her second husband she had issue, Jane Cock, who married Rice Jones, and a son, Maurice Cock, who married Elizabeth, widow of Doodles Minor, son of Minor Doodles. Maurice Cock made his will 15 May, 1696, and with him the male line of this family became extinct.

WILLOUGHBY. Elizabeth City county.

Arms: Or on two bars gules three water bougets argent.

Crest: A griffin argent.

According to family tradition, Thomas Willoughby, the Virginia immigrant, was a nephew of Sir Percival Willoughby of Wallaton. He was born in 1601 and, according to Hotten, came to the colony in 1610. He was a Justice of Elizabeth City in 1628, member of the House of Burgesses 1629-32 and of the Council 1644-46. He was a large land owner in Lower Norfolk county, which his descendants owned for many generations. His wife's name is not known, but he had an only son, Col. Thomas Willoughby, born in Va., 25 Dec., 1632, and educated at Merchant Taylors School, London. He married Sarah, daughter of Richard and Ursula (Bisshe) Thompson of Northumberland county. He died in 1672 and his widow, Sarah, in 1673, leaving children, Thomas and Sarah.

WORMELEY. Middlesex county.

Arms: Gules on a chief indented argent, three lions rampant sable.

The immigrant, Ralph Wormeley, was descended from Sir John de Wormeley of Hadfield, Yorkshire. He was a member of the Council and died in 1649. His son Ralph of "Rosegill," Middlesex county, born 1620, died 1665, member of the Council, married Agatha, daughter of Richard Eltonhead and widow of Luke Stubbins of Northampton county, Va., and she married, 3rd, Sir Henry Chicheley, Governor of Virginia. Ralph Wromeley, 3rd, born 1650, died 5 Dec., 1703, educated at Oxford, was Secretary of State in 1693 and President of the Council.

Skelton. Goochland county.

Arms: Azure a fess or between three fleur de lis.

Crest: A peacock’s head erased ppr. in the beak an acorn or, stalked and leaved vert.

James Skelton, a gentleman of wealth and social prominence, was living in St. James Parish, Goochland, in 1735. He married Jane Meriwether, a daughter of Francis Meriwether and his wife, Mary Bathurst, who was a descendant of the ancient family of English Bathursts. The Skelton arms are engraved on old silverware now in possession of the Skeltons of Kentucky, which were brought from Virginia, and is also found on the book plate of Reuben Skelton, son of James Skelton. James and Jane Skelton had issue: (1) Reuben, clerk of St. Paul’s Parish, Hanover county; (2) Meriwether of Hanover county, d.s.p.; (3) Lucy; (4) Sally, who married Col. Thomas Jones of Hanover county; (5) Bathurst, who married in 1766, Martha, daughter of John Wayles, lawyer, of Charles City. He died in 1769, leaving one child, who died in infancy. His widow, Martha Skelton, married, 2nd, 1 Jan., 1772, Thomas Jefferson, who was afterward President.

Temple. King William county.

Arms: Argent two bars sable each charged with three martlets or.

Crest: A talbot sejant sable, collared and lined or.

Motto: Flecti non frangi.

The first member of the Temple family who settled in Virginia was Joseph Temple, born 1666, married Ann Arnold in England. They lived at Presque Isle, King William county. Joseph was the son of William and the grandson of John Temple of Kingston Deverell. (See Burke’s “Landed Gentry.”) Joseph and Ann Temple had a son Joseph, who married Mary, daughter of Col. Humphrey Hill of King and Queen county, by whom he had issue.

Foote. Stafford county.

Arms: Vert a chevron between three martlets argent.

Crest: A lion’s head erased.

Motto: Pendentim.

The Footees were an old family long settled in the county of Cornwall. In the register of St. Paul’s Parish, Stafford county, Va., are the following entries concerning the family: “Richard Foote, son of John Foote, gent., was born at Cardenham, in the county of Cornwall, the 10th of August, Anno 1632. Was married the 19th day of Dec., 1657 to his beloved wife Hester, the daughter of Nicholas Hayward of London, grocer, who was born in Allhallows Parish, the 24th day of March, 1639-40."

Richard Foote came to Virginia to manage the extensive business of Nicholas Hayward; he returned to England and there married the daughter, Hester. They had issue, the following children: (1) Samuel, born 25 Jan., 1659, died 1697; (2) Susannah, born 13 Aug., 1658; (3) Mary, born 1 Oct., 1662, died 1664; (4) John, born 27 March, 1665, died 1692 at Jamaica; (5) Richard (first of the family to settle permanently in Va.), born 31 Jan., 1666; (6) Elizabeth, born 27 Oct., 1668; (7) Mary, born 10 Jan., 1670; (8) Hester, born 8 Dec., 1672; (9) George, born 22 Oct., 1673; (10) Sarah, born 22 Oct., 1675, died an infant; (11) Sarah, born 27 June, 1676; (12) Francis, born 8 Jan., 1678, died 1697; (13) Henry, born 5 July, 1680; (14) Mathias, born 13 Dec., 1683, died an infant.

Richard Foote, the younger, born 1666, settled in Stafford county, Va., where he died 21 March, 1729. Owing to the destruction of the records his wife's name is unknown, but he had issue: (1) Richard, born 1704, Justice of Stafford in 1745, and who left issue; (2) George; (3) John, d.s.p.; (4) Hester, married John Grant of Prince William, gent.; (5) Elizabeth.

DAVISON. James City.

Arms: Argent a stag trippant ppr. attired or.
Crest: A stag courant or, shot through the neck with an arrow argent.

Christopher Davison was the Colonial Secretary for Virginia in 1621; he was born in Stepney, Middlesex, and was the son of William Davison, Secretary of State to Queen Elizabeth.

FOWKE. Westmoreland county.

Arms: Vert a fleur de lis argent, a mullet for difference.
Crest: An Indian goat's head erased argent.

The first of this family was Col. Gerard Fowke, an ex-Royalist officer, who came to Virginia in 1651 and settled in Westmoreland county, purchasing lands there in 1657 from Nicholas Meriwether. He was the sixth son of Roger Fowke of Breward and Gunston Hall, Staffordshire. He died in 1663. An old deed, now in the possession of his descendants, has impressed upon it the above arms. He was a Burgess for Westmoreland county in 1663, and in 1664 moved to Maryland, near Port Tobacco, where he took up large grants of land. In 1665 he was a member of the Maryland Assembly and Colonel of Militia for Worcester county. His wife, whom he married in England, was named Ann ———, and they have left numerous descendants in the South.

MERCER. Stafford county.

Arms: Or on a fess between three crosses pattee gules in chief, and a mullet azure in base, as many bezants.

John Mercer of Marlborough, Stafford county, founder of the family in Virginia, was the son of John Mercer of Dublin, Ireland, and the great grandson of Noel Mercer of Chester, England. He was born 6 Feb., 1704, came to Virginia in 1720, and died 14 Oct.,
1768. He was a lawyer and large landed proprietor. He married, 1st, Catherine, only daughter of Col. George Mason, 2nd, by whom he had issue, and, 2nd, Elizabeth, daughter of the Rev. John Waugh. She was born in 1707 and died in 1750.

NICHOLSON. York county.
Crest: Out of a ducal crown, an arm grasping a battle axe.
The above crest is engraved on a silver tankard, formerly the property of Dr. Robert Nicholson of Yorktown, who married Elizabeth, daughter of Dudley Digges, member of the Committee of Safety. It is now in the possession of a descendant, Mrs. Sally Nelson Robins of Richmond.

SKIPWITH. Prince George county.
Arms: Argent three bars gules, a greyhound in full course in chief, sable, collared or.
Crest: A turnstile ppr.
Motto: Sans Dieu je ne puis.
The Virginia family descend from the Skipwiths of Prestwould in Leicestershire. Sir Henry Skipwith, Knight of Prestwould, was created a Baronet 20 Dec., 1622. His eldest son, Sir Henry, died single, and was succeeded by his brother, Sir Grey, who settled in Virginia. His son, Sir William, married Sarah, daughter of John Peyton. His eldest son, Sir Grey, born 1705, died without issue and the title devolved upon his brother Sir William, born 1707, died 1764, who married Elizabeth, only daughter of John Smith, High Sheriff of Middlesex. Their eldest son, Sir Peyton, 7th Baronet, married Ann, daughter of Hugh Miller. The descendants of the Skipwith family are still numerous in the South.

STEPTOE. Lancaster county.
Arms: Azure a fleur de lis argent.
Crest: Out of a ducal coronet or, a stag's head ppr.
Motto: Spes mea in Deo.
The immigrant was Anthony Steptoe, who was in Lancaster county in 1697. His son, Capt. John Steptoe, married Elizabeth, widow of John Eustace, they had issue: (1) William, who married Ann ———, and settled in Northumberland county; (2) John, who married Jane Lawson 12 June 1727; (3) James, who settled in Westmoreland county and was vestryman of Cople Parish in 1755. He married, first, Elizabeth Eskridge, daughter of George Eskridge, and, 2nd, Elizabeth, widow of Capt. William Aylett, by whom he had four sons. On the tomb of Philip Steptoe at Teddington, on the James River, is cut the above arms.

BALL. Lancaster county.
Arms: Argent a lion passant sable, on a chief of the second, three mullets of the first.
Crest: Out of the clouds ppr. a demi lion rampant sable, powdered with estoiles argent, holding a globe or.
Motto: Coelumqui tueri.
The above arms are from a painting on vellum which was brought to Virginia by the immigrant, William Ball. He was born in 1615 and died at "Millenbeck," Lancaster county, in 1680; married in London 2 July, 1638, to Hannah Atherold. They had issue: (1) Richard, died young; (2) William, born 2 Jan., 1641, who had issue; (2) Joseph, born 25 May, 1649, married and had issue; (4) Hannah, born 12 March, 1650. The descendants of the above have intermarried with the most prominent families of Virginia. Mary, daughter of Col. William Ball of Lancaster, being the mother of General George Washington.

MONTAGUE. Nansemond and Lancaster counties.
Arms: Argent three fusils in fess gules, between as many pellets.
Crest: A griffin's head couped, wings elevated or.
Motto: Disponendo me, non mutando me.

This family can trace descent from Drogo de Monteacuto, who came with William of Normandy to England in 1066. The Virginia immigrant, Peter, was a son of Peter and Eleanor Montague of Boveney, Parish of Burnham, Bucks, and was born in 1603. His mother was a daughter of William Allen of Burnham. His uncle, William Montague was a Fellow of Kings College, Cambridge, and Richard Montague, Bishop of Norwich, was his father's cousin. Peter Montague came to Virginia at the age of eighteen years. In 1627 he patented 150 acres in Upper Norfolk county, what is now Nansemond, and of which he was a Burgess in 1652 and 1653. He also owned considerable land in Lancaster and represented that county in the House of Burgesses from 1651 to 1658. His will, dated 27 March, 1659, was probated 25 May of that year. He mentions his wife Cicely, and sons, Peter and William, his three daughters, Ellen, Margaret and Elizabeth, and the child of Ann, late wife of John Jadwin.

CORBIN. King and Queen county.
Arms: Sable on a chief or three ravens ppr.

Thomas Corbin of Hall End, Warwickshire, born 24 May, 1594, died June, 1637, buried at Kingswinford; married in 1620, Winifred, daughter of Gawin Grosvenor of Sutton Coldfield, Warwickshire. Their third son, Henry Corbin, born in 1629, came to Virginia in 1654, and died 8 Jan., 1675. He first settled in Stratton Major Parish, King and Queen county, but also owned land in Lancaster, Westmoreland and Middlesex. He was Burgess for Lancaster in 1659, Justice for Middlesex in 1673, and Member of the Council in 1663. He married 25 July, 1645, Alice Eltonhead, daughter of Richard Eltonhead of Lancashire, England. His son, Gawin Corbin, was Burgess in 1700, 1702, 1718 and 1736, and also member of the Council. He died 1 Jan., 1745.

CARTER. Lancaster county.
Crest: On a chapeau gules turned up ermine, a heron argent, beaked, legged and ducally gorged or.
The above seal is used on the original will of Thomas Carter, gent., recorded in Lancaster county, August, 1700, also on a deed in Spotsylvania county, made by Joseph Carter in 1739, a grandson of Thomas, and it is also used on the will of another grandson, Dale Carter, gent., recorded in Lancaster county in 1776. By referring to the Dale pedigree and arms it will be seen that the above is not a Carter crest, but the crest of Catherine Dale, his wife, who was a daughter of Edward Dale and his wife Diana Skipwith, sister of Sir Grey Skipwith, Bart., and daughter of Sir Henry Skipwith, Bart., of Prestwould, Leicestershire, England.

In 1653 there appeared in Lancaster county, Mr. Thomas Carter, who paid tithes upon himself and four servants. His home plantation was one he had purchased from Col. John Carter of Corotoman. It is not known, however, that there was any relationship between them. Thomas Carter was Justice in 1683 and in 1670 Deputy Clerk of the county, his father-in-law, Edward Dale, being Clerk from 1655 to 1674. Sometime prior to 1674 he married Catherine Dale, by whom he had six sons and two daughters: (1) Edward Carter, the eldest son, died in Lancaster in 1743, leaving sons, Thomas and William, and a wife, Elizabeth; (2) Thomas Carter, second son, inherited the plantation on Corotoman River. He was a Justice from 1704 to 1723 and a Captain in the Militia. He died in 1733, leaving a wife, Arabella, and eight sons and two grandsons; (3) Henry Carter, third son, was a Justice from 1728 to 1740 and a vestryman of Christ Church until his death. He married prior to 1700, Anne Harris, daughter of Gany Harris, gent. He died in 1743, leaving five sons and three daughters. (4) James Carter, fourth son, removed to Stafford county, where he died 24 Oct., 1743. He married in 1724, Mary, daughter of Hugh Brent of Lancaster county, and left six sons and one daughter. (5) Peter Carter, fifth son, inherited a plantation in St. Mary's parish, Lancaster county from his grandfather, Edward Dale, where he lived and died in 1721. He left a second wife named Margaret, and two sons and two daughters, one of each by each wife. (6) Joseph Carter, the youngest son, inherited a plantation in St. Mary's Parish from his grandfather Dale, where he lived until his death in 1759. His wife's name was Anne, and they had at least three sons and a daughter. He was a Justice in 1729, and in 1741 High Sheriff. (7) Elizabeth Carter, the elder daughter, married William George, who died in 1709, leaving several children. Thomas Carter, Sr., had also a son John, and a daughter Catherine.

GOOKIN. Lower Norfolk county.

Arms: Gules a chevron ermine between three crosses or.

Capt. John Gookin came to Virginia at a very early period. He was a brother of Daniel Gookin, who left Virginia in 1644 and settled at Roxbury, Mass., and the above arms are found on the tomb of Daniel Gookin, Jr., son of Daniel, who died at Cambridge, Mass., in 1636-7. Capt. John Gookin was a member of the Assembly from Lower Norfolk in 1639, and died 2 Nov., 1643. He married Sarah Offley, the widow of Lieut.-Col. Adam Thoroughgood, and she afterwards married Francis Yeardley, son of Gov. Sir George Yeardley. By his wife Sarah, Capt. Gookin had a daughter Mary, who married William Moseley 2nd, she afterwards married Col. Anthony Lawson.

NEWTON. Westmoreland county.

Arms: Sable two shinbones salterways, the sinister surmounted of the dexter or.

Crest: A lion rampant argent.

The Virginia Newtons claim descent from the Newtons of Barr’s Court, Gloucestershire. John Newton was in Westmoreland county in 1672. His will was probated 28 July, 1697, in it he leaves land at Carlton and Camelford, Yorkshire, Eng., to his son John, and also the house at Hull, “which was my father’s,” he also leaves land to his son John and his said son’s four children; to son Joseph and his three sons; to son Benjamin and his daughter; to son Gerrard; to daughter Elizabeth Newton; to son Thomas; to wife Rose Newton; to grandson John, son of Joseph Newton. The will of Rose Newton, the wife of the immigrant, was probated in Westmoreland county 28 Jan., 1712, and from a deposition taken in 1709, she states that she was “aged 80 years” and the widow of John Newton, Sr.

LEFTWICH. New Kent county.

Arms: Azure three garbs or on a fess engrailed argent.

Crest: Five leaves conjoined at base vert.

Motto: Ver non semper floret.

The Virginia immigrant was Ralph Leftwich, who received grants of land as early as 1653. Owing to the destruction of the New Kent and Caroline county records, a gap occurs in the pedigree of at least two generations. The arms borne by the descendants of Augustine Leftwich are the same as those of Leftwich, county of Cheshire.

WISE. Accomac county.

Arms: Sable three chevronels ermine.

Crest: A demi-lion rampant gules, guttee d’eau, holding in the dexter paw a mace or.

The first of this family in Virginia was John Wise, a descendant of the Wise family of Sydenham, Devonshire. He sailed from Gravesend, England, 4 July, 1635, and settled in Accomac, then Northampton county. When Accomac was formed from this county in 1662, he was one of the Justices. Major John Wise, one of the old clerks of Accomac county, was the oldest son of Col. John Wise and his wife Margaret Douglas, she being the daughter of Col. George Douglas, a native of Scotland, who settled in Accomac, a descendant of the famous Earls of Angus. This Col. John Wise died in 1770. He was Colonel of Militia, a Justice and County-Lieutenant. The son, Major John Wise, represented Accomac in the House of Delegates, 1790, and in 1798 and 1799 he was Speaker of the House. He was Commonwealth Attorney in 1805, and was afterward Clerk of the Court, holding that office until his death, 30 March, 1812. He was twice married, his first wife being Mary Henry, daughter of Judge James Henry of Northumberland county. By her he had four sons, two of whom died in infancy. He married secondly, Sarah Corbin Cropper, daughter of General John Cropper, by whom he had five sons and one daughter.

FONTAINE. King William county.

Arms: D'azur au. chevron acc. en chef de deux trefles, et en p. d'une garbe, le tout d'or.

The Virginia branch of this family is descended from the noble family of De La Fontaine, Maine, France. John de la Fontaine was born about 1500 and held a commission in "Les Ordonnances du Roi," in the household of Francis I., retaining his commission during the succeeding reigns of Henry II. and Francis II. and until the second year of Charles IX. He and his father became converts to Protestantism about 1535. John De La Fontaine and his wife were murdered during the troublous period of 1563. They had four children, but only the names of two are known, viz: (1), James, aged about 14 in 1563. (2) Abraham, aged about 12 in 1563. James died in 1633 and left issue, a son, the Rev. James Fontaine, who went to London and married a Miss Thompson in 1628, by whom he had issue: (1) Jane. (2) Judith. (3) James, who became a Protestant minister in Germany. (4) Elizabeth. (5) Rev. Peter, who settled in London. (6) Francis d.s.p. The Rev. James Fontaine married, secondly, in 1641, Marie Chaillon of Pons, in Saintonge, who died in 1678, aged 63 years, by her he had issue: (1) Susan. (2) Peter. (3) Mary. (4) Ann. (5) Rev. James, born at Jenouille, France, 7 April, 1658, married at Barnstaple, England, 8 Feb., 1686, to Anne Elizabeth Boursiquot, who died 29 Jan., 1721 at Dublin, Ireland. By her he had issue: (1) James, born 1686, who arrived in Virginia in Oct., 1717. (2) Aaron, born 1688. (3) Mary Anne, born 1690, died 1755 in Virginia, married 1716 in Dublin, Ireland, Matthew Maury of Castel Mauron, Gascony, came to Va. 1718. (4) Moses, born 1694. (5) Elizabeth, born 1701. (6) Rev. Peter, born 1691, married 1714, Elizabeth Fourreau; married, 2nd, E. Wade, and in 1716 came to Virginia and became rector of King William and Westover parishes. (7) John, born 1693, died in England. (8) Rev. Francis, born 1697, came to Va. and was Professor in William and Mary College and rector of York-Hampton parish.

WYCHE. Surry county.

Arms: Azure a pile ermine.

Crest: A dexter arm embowed, habited gules, turned up or, holding in the hand ppr. a sprig vert.

The Virginia line trace descent from Wyche of Davenham, Cheshire, and from the ancient house of Wyche of Alderly, A. D.

HONE. James City county.
Arms: Sable a leopard's head erased between three mullets argent.
Major Theophilus Hone, Justice of Warwick county in 1652, removed to Jamestown, where he was Burgess in 1666, and Sheriff in 1676. He married prior to 1672, the widow of William Richardson. The Virginia family claim descent from the Hones of Essex. Major Theophilus being the third son of Thomas Hone of Farnham, who married Judith, daughter of Theophilus Aylmer, Archdeacon of London.

EPPES. Charles City county.
Arms: Per fesse gules and or, a pale counterchanged, three eagles displayed of the last.
Crest: On a chaplet vert flowered or, a falcon rising of the last.
The above arms are on documents in the possession of the Eppes family and is also engraved on old silver which has been in the family for many generations. The arms correspond with Eppes of Canterbury. Lieut.-Col. Francis Eppes was in Virginia in 1635, bringing with him three sons, John, Francis and Thomas. The Eppes of Prince George are descended from Thomas, through Col. Peter Eppes, and the Nottoway branch also descend from Col. Peter. Francis Eppes, son of the immigrant, settled in what is now Chesterfield. He was born about 1628 and died in 1678. He married Elizabeth, widow of William Worsham of Henrico county, by whom he had four children. The descendants of Col. Francis Eppes are very numerous in Virginia.

PEYTON. Gloucester county.
Arms: Sable a cross engrailed or.
Crest: A griffin sejant or.
Motto: Patior potior.
Major Robert Peyton of Rougham, Norfolk, and of Isleham, Gloucester county, Virginia, was born in 1640 and died 1694. He was a son of Thomas Peyton and Elizabeth Yelverton, a daughter of Sir William Yelverton, Bart., of Rougham, Norfolk. He married in 1668 and was in Virginia before 1679. He was Major of the Gloucester County Militia. He had the following issue: (1) Elizabeth, born ante 1670, married Col. Peter Beverley. (2) Thomas, born about 1675, married Frances Tabb. (3) Robert, born 1650, married Mary ————. Sir John Peyton, son of Thomas and Frances (Tabb) Peyton, was born in 1710 and died 1790. (6) Seigniora, born 1767, married Thomas Tabb of Bolli ng. (7) Martha. (8) Henry Yelverton, born 1770. (9) John, born 1775, married Mary Chiswell, daughter of Warner Lewis. Sir John Peyton of Virginia became heir to the Baronetcy in 1721 through the death of Sir John Peyton of Isleham, England.

The Peytons of Westmoreland county are of kin to those of Gloucester county and use the same arms, with the addition of “a mullet argent, in the second quarter, and a bordure ermine” for a difference. Henry Peyton of Lincoln Inn died in London in 1656 and was a cadet of the Peytons of Isleham. He had issue, Robert born 1624; Valentine, Henry, Laurence, Catherine, Margaret, Henry, John, Charles and Mary. Of these, Valentine, Lawrence, Henry and John came to Virginia. Valentine died in Westmoreland county in 1665 at his estate of Nominy. Henry, his brother, died in 1659, and from these two brothers came a numerous progeny whose descendants are found through Virginia and the South.

ROOTES. King and Queen county.

Arms: Quarterly 1st and 4th, between three bugle horns, a chevron on which three arrows, points downwards, 2nd and 3rd, on a cross five pheons.

The above arms are on the bookplate of Philip Rootes, the elder, of “Rosewall,” King and Queen county. They do not correspond in any degree to the arms given to Rootes in the Heralds College, which are “or three lozenges gules.”

Philip Rootes, gent., the earliest ancestor to whom the family of that name in Virginia has been traced, lived at “Rosewall.” The first mention of him is in a deed dated 1729, wherein the trustees of the town of Fredericksburg convey to Susannah Livingston, widow, a lot, and after her death to descend to Philip Rootes. In the vestry book of Stratton-Major he is referred to as “Captain,” and he was a vestryman and churchwarden during the years from 1732 to 1751. In 1756 he is called “Major Philip Rootes.” He owned estates in New Kent, Spotsylvania, Orange and Culpeper counties, and valuable property in Fredericksburg.
Major Philip Rootes was born about 1700 and his will was proved 12 Oct., 1756. He married Mildred, born about 1703, the daughter of Thomas Read of Gloucester county, by whom he had the following children: (1) Philip; (2) Thomas Read; (3) John; (4) George; (5) George; (6) Mildred; (7) Elizabeth; (8) Priscilla; (9) Mary; (10) Lucy. An extended pedigree of the family is given in "Rootes of Rosewall," by W. Clayton-Torrence.

This family was seated at Towcester in Northumberland at the Conquest. The pedigree begins with Richard de Fairfax, son of John and grandson of Henry of Shapenbeck, who in 1204 possessed the Manor of Askham and other lands in Yorkshire. Sir Nicholas Fairfax died in 1570 leaving a son, Sir William, whose son, Sir Thomas, was created in 1629 Viscount Fairfax of Emely, in the peerage of Ireland. Of the same family, Sir Guy Fairfax was appointed Judge of the Court of King's Bench in 1478, his son Sir William, was Judge of the Court of Common Pleas in 1510, his son, Sir William, as High Sheriff of York in 1518. Thomas, eldest son of above, was Sheriff of Yorkshire in 1571 and knighted in 1576. Thomas, the eldest son of above, born in 1560, fought in the Low Country Wars, and was knighted by Lord Essex, and on 18 Oct., 1627, was created Baron Fairfax of Cameron in the Peerage of Scotland. He married in 1582, Ellen, daughter of Robert Aske of Aughton, and died 1 May, 1640. Ferdinando succeeded his father as second Baron. Thomas, eldest son of above, third Baron, was born 1611-12 and married in 1637 Anne, daughter of Lord Vere of Tilbury. Henry, fourth Lord Fairfax, married Frances, daughter of Sir Robert Barwicke. Thomas, fifth Lord Fairfax, married Catherine, daughter of Thomas, Lord Colepeper. Thomas, sixth Lord Fairfax, removed in 1747 to Virginia, and alienated his English estates in favor of his brother Robert, and built "Belvoir" and "Greenway Court" in Va. He d.s.p. 9 Dec., 1781. William Fairfax, son of Henry and Anne (Harrison) Fairfax, was born in 1691; was Virginia agent of his cousin, the sixth Lord Fairfax; married, 1st, in 1723, Sarah, daughter of Major Walker of the Bahamas; married, 2nd, Deborah Clarke of Salem, Mass., and died in 1757; his son Bryan succeeded as eighth Lord Fairfax. Thomas, eldest son of the eighth Lord, born in 1762. succeeded his father in the title. Albert, eldest son of the ninth Lord, had Charles Snowden Fairfax, tenth Lord, d.s.p. in 1869, being succeeded by his brother, Dr. John Contee Fairfax he being succeeded by his eldest son Albert Kirby Fairfax, born 23 June, 1870, twelfth and present Baron Fairfax.

(2) William. (3) Dr. Thomas, Fellow of New College, Oxford; Principal of Magdalen Hall, Oxford, 1643. (4) Robert, Secretary to Sir Francis Windebanke and living in 1665. (5) George, who came to Virginia in 1637, and in 1640 was Secretary of State pro tem., Burgess for James City county in 1649 and 1656. Member of the Council 1657-8, holding this office until his death in 1671. He married Elizabeth, daughter of Capt. Nicholas Martian of York county, and had at least seven children, viz: (1) Mildred, died 1694; (2) George d.s.p.; (3) Robert; (4) Thomas; (5) Francis; (6) Benjamin; (7) Elizabeth.

CARRINGTON. Cumberland county.

Arms: Sable on a bend argent three lozenges of the field.

Crest: Out of a ducal coronet or, a unicorn's head sable, armed and crested or.

The Virginia Carringtons descend from the ancient family of that name in Cheshire, England. The first of the name in this country was Colonel George Carrington, who settled at Boston Hill, Cumberland county, and was a son of Dr. Paul Carrington of the Island of Barbadoes. He married about 1732, when in his 21st year, Anne, the daughter of William Mayo, descended from another distinguished family. They both died in February 1785, and had issue, eleven children. Edward Carrington, their eighth child, born 11 Feb., 1748, died 10 Oct., 1810, was a most distinguished officer in the Revolution. He married Elizabeth Jacquelin Ambler. Another son of George Carrington was Judge Paul Carrington, who was a member of the Revolutionary Committee of Safety. His grandson, Colonel Henry A. Carrington, son of Henry and Louisa E. Carrington, was born in Charlotte county 13 Sept., 1832. His mother was a daughter of the Hon. William H. Cabell, Governor of Virginia from 1805 to 1808. Colonel Carrington was elected Clerk of the Circuit and County Courts of Charlotte in 1870, and continued in the office of County Clerk until his death in 1885. He was commissioned Lieut.-Col. of the 18th Virginia Infantry, and served in twenty-nine pitched battles, being three times wounded, and was taken prisoner at Gettysburg. One of his sons, John C. Carrington, is now the County Clerk for Charlotte.

CLAIBORNE. King William county.

Arms: Argent three chevronels interlaced in base sable, a chief and bordure of the last.
Crest: A dove and olive branch.
Motto: Pax et copia.

This most distinguished family descend from Claiborn of the county of Westmoreland, of the Manor of that name which is mentioned in Doomsday Book, A. D., 1086. Col. William Claiborne, the Virginia immigrant, was born about 1587, and was the third son of Edmund Claiborne of Cleburne Hall, Yorkshire, and his wife Grace, daughter of Sir Alan Bellingham. He came to Virginia with Governor Wyatt in 1621 and in 1625 was appointed Secretary of State for the Colony and member of the Council, and held the latter place in 1627. On 6 April, 1642, he was appointed Treasurer of Virginia. He was a Justice for Accomac in 1631-2 and for York in 1633 and of Northumberland in 1653. He married twice, his first wife being Jane Buller of London, and his second, whom he married in Virginia, Elizabeth ————. He had known issue, three sons and one daughter: (1) William, who settled in King William county; (2) Thomas, who settled in King William county; (3) Leonard, who went to Jamaica, W. I., and died there in 1694; (4) Jane, married Col. Thomas Brereton of Northumberland county, and died before 20 May, 1671. Colonel William Claiborne died in 1676. His son, Leut.-Col. The immigrant of this family was John Carter, who, in 1649, was a member of the House of Burgesses for Upper Norfolk, and in 1654 from Lancaster county, and Commander-in-Chief of the forces sent against the Indians. He died in 1669. His first wife was Jane, daughter of Morgan Glynn, by whom he had George and Eleanor; he married, 2nd, Ann, daughter of Cleve Carter, by whom he had Charles and John, and by his third marriage to Sarah, daughter of Gabriel Ludloue, he had Sarah and Robert. The Carter arms are found on a seal attached to a deed of Landon Carter 18 Sept., 1752, and they are found on the tombstone of Hon. Robert Carter at Christ Church, Lancaster; also on the tomb of Robert's wife, Judith Armistead; and also on that of the Hon. Mann Page, who died 1730, having married a daughter of the said Robert Carter.
PARKER.

Arms: Vert a chevron between three stags' heads cabossed or.
Crest: On a chapeau gules turned up ermine, a stag trippant ppr.

The family records of the Parkers of Browsholme, Yorkshire, England, show that two members, at least, of that family went to Virginia. The family descend from William Parker, Archdeacon of Cornwall, the second brother of Thomas Parker of Browsholme, Esqr. William Parker was Justice of Cornwall and had two sons, James, the eldest, marrying Katherine, eldest daughter of Sir Richard Buller of Shillingham, Cornwall, by whom he had twenty-one children. The Parker family removed from Yorkshire to Cornwall about 1580, and the pedigree of the Bullers, which shows the intermarriage of James Parker of "Blisland," is given in the Visitation of Cornwall in 1620. In the English records of the Parker family, entered under date 1st Sept., 1673, and in possession of descendants, is given: "Richard, the 9th son of James and Katherine Buller Parker, was Doctor of "Phyzicke," went into Virginy, married a Londoner and had issue, six children. Liveth upon St. James River in ye uplands of Virginy and hath been High Sheriffe of ye said county." “George, ye 13th child, prentice to a wollings draper at Hunginton, 12 myles of Exeter, went from there into Virginy.” There was a George Parker who patented 450 acres of land in Northampton county 5 June, 1650, and 1,300 acres 30 March, 1655, there was also a Mr. Richard Parker who patented 400 acres in Nansemond county 5 Oct., 1654, and he also patented 350 acres on north side of James River in 1669. It seems quite probable that these were the two brothers above mentioned, there was, however, no Richard Parker who was a High Sheriff at that period, but George Parker was High Sheriff of Accomac county in 1656, and a member of the County Courts of both Accomac and Northampton. It is reasonable to suppose, therefore, that it was George Parker who was the High Sheriff and not his brother Richard, as given in the English records. While some of the Virginia Parkers (Northampton county) claim descent from the Parkers, Earls of Morley, the proof of such descent is not conclusive. Captain George Parker of Accomac lived at "Poplar Grove" and his will was proved in 1674.

TUCKER. Williamsburg.

Arms: Azure a chevron or between three seahorses of the second.
Crest: A lion's gamb erased gules holding a battle axe, the head argent and handle or.
Motto: Suspice Teucro.

St. George Tucker, son of Henry Tucker of Bermuda, W. I., was born at Port Royal, on that island, 27 June, 1752, and came to Virginia in 1771 to enter William and Mary College. After graduation he commenced the practice of law. He was Colonel of Militia in the Revolution; Judge of the General Court in 1787;
Professor of Law in William and Mary in 1789, and in 1813 a Judge of the U. S. Circuit Court. He married, 1st, 22 Sept., 1777, Frances, daughter of Theodorick Bland, Sr., of Prince George, and widow of John Randolph of "Mattoax," Chesterfield county; and 2nd, in 1791, Lelia, widow of George Carter and daughter of Sir Peyton Skipwith, but had no issue by the second marriage. He died 10 Nov., 1828. In the Church of St. Peter at St. George's, Bermuda, may be seen monumental inscriptions of the Tucker family bearing the above arms.

STRotHER. King George county.

Arms: Gules on a bend argent three eagles displayed azure.
Crest: A greyhound sejant or.

William Strother, the founder in Virginia of this family, is said to have emigrated from Northumberland, England. He settled on the Rappahannock River, near the present Port Conway, about 1673. His will was probated in Richmond county 4 Nov., 1702. He left a wife, Dorothy, and sons, William, James, Jeremiah, Robert, Benjamin and Joseph. An extended history of the Strother family will be found in "The Buckners of Virginia," edited by Wm. Armstrong Crozier, N. Y., 1907.

The family tradition has always been that the Virginia immigrant was of the Northumberland Strothers, and they have used the arms of that family.

THORNTON. Gloucester county.

Arms: Argent a chevron sable between three hawthorn trees ppr.
Crest: Out of a ducal coronet or, a lion's head ppr.

The arms used by the Virginia family are those of Thornton of Yorkshire, and the immigrant, William Thornton, is believed to have come from that county. He is mentioned as early as 1646 and in 1665 he received a grant of land in Gloucester county and was vestryman of Petsworth Parish in 1677. He had issue, three sons, William, Francis and Rowland. The son, William, was born 27 March, 1649, died 15 Feb., 1727. Like his father, he was a vestryman of Petsworth Parish. He married three times, and had sixteen children. Francis Thornton of Stafford county was born 5 Nov. 1651, and died 1726. His first wife was Alice, daughter of Capt. Anthony Savage of Gloucester, and by her had issue seven children. He had no issue by his second wife. Rowland Thornton, third son of William, married Elizabeth, daughter of Alexander Fleming. He was dead in 1701, and it is thought left no issue.

STITH. Charles City county.

Arms: Argent a chevron engrailed between three fleurs de lis sable.

The first of this family in Virginia was Col. John Stith, who had a grant of land in Charles City county in 1663. He was a practicing lawyer in 1680; Sheriff in 1691, and a member of the House of Burgesses in 1685, 1692 and 1693. His known children were:
(1) Anne, married Col. Robert Bolling of Kippax, Prince George.
(2) Col. Drury Stith, who had land in Charles City in 1703, Sheriff in 1719-20 and 1724-5. He removed to Brunswick county about this time and was first clerk of the county in 1732. He married Susannah, daughter of Launcelot Bathhurst, the second son of Sir Edward Bathurst, who was knighted in 1643. Of the descendants of Col. Drury Stith, at least eight became county clerks. (3) Capt. John Stith, married Mary, daughter of William Randolph of Turkey Island, and sister of Sir John Randolph. Their son, Rev. William Stith, born 1689, was a graduate of William and Mary College. His theological studies were completed in England, where he was ordained to the Episcopal Church. He was elected master of the Grammar school at William and Mary in 1731, and Chaplain to the House of Burgesses. In 1736 he was rector of Henrico Parish and resided at "Varina," where he wrote his celebrated "History of Virginia." In 1752 he was President of William and Mary College, and remained in that office until his death in 1755. He married his cousin Judith Randolph, by whom he had three daughters. The arms given above, are taken from President Stith's book-plate, and are also on a wax seal to a deed of conveyance. The Stith family are very prominent, not only in Virginia, but in Georgia, South Carolina and North Carolina. One of the most prominent branches settling in the latter State are the descendants of Dr. Buckner Stith, who settled in Rockingham county in 1820. He married Lucinda, daughter of Capt. Thomas Blackwell of the above county, who was for many years a member of the Senate. They had issue, twelve children: (1) Washington Lafayette, born 1827, d.s.p.; (2) Thomas Randolph, born 1829, d.s.p.; (3) Laurence Augustine, born 1832, married Frances Jarvis; (4) Virginia Caroline, born 1834, married Thomas C. Davis; (5) Buckner Dade, born 1836; (6) Frances Rebecca, born 1838, married Alpheus Brown; (7) Landonia, born 1840, d.s.p.; (8) Powhattan, born 1841, d.s.p.; (9) Thomas Bertrand, born 1843, Lieut. in C. S. A., killed 1864; (10) Roberta Washington, born 1845, married a Tyler of Va.; (11) Lucinda Cornelia, born 1848, married ——— Evans of S. C.; (12) John Randolph, born 1857, d.s.p. Dr. Laurence Augustine Stith, third of above children, Surgeon in C. S. A., married 26 Jan., 1876, Frances, daughter of Moses W. Jarvis, and Frances Blackwell, his wife, of New Berne, N. C. They had issue: (1) Jarvis Wicksborn, born 1877; (2) Frances Blackwell, born 1878, married Elizabeth E. Bateman; (3) Charles Herbert, born 1880, married Cora Virginia Farley, by whom he has issue. Mary Jarvis Stith, born 1901, and Laurence Augustine Stith, born 1904. Extended notices of the Stith family are found in the "William and Mary Quarterly," the "Richmond Critic of 1890" and Crozier's "History of the Buckners of Virginia."

MINOR.

For arms and pedigree, see under Doodles.
MOREHEAD. Prince William county.

Crest: Two hands conjoined grasping a two-handed sword ppr.

Motto: Auxilio Dei.

The first of this family was Charles Morehead, a Scottish gentleman, who settled in what is now Prince William county, in the early part of the eighteenth century. He is known to have had at least one son, John Morehead, whose will was probated in Fauquier county, 24 Oct., 1768, in which he mentions sons, Charles, Joseph, John, Alexander, William, Samuel and Presley Morehead, and daughters, Mary Lawrence and Elizabeth Brixtraw. His son, Charles Morehead, a captain in the Revolution, died in Leeds Parish, Fauquier county, in 1783. His will mentions, son Turner, son Charles, sons Armistead, James and Presley; daughter Kerrenhappuch Morehead, and wife Mary. Joseph Morehead, grandson of Charles, the immigrant, moved to North Carolina, and married Elizabeth Turner, the daughter of James and Kerrenhappuch Turner of Maryland, whose sons and grandsons were with General Greene in the Revolution. Another daughter, Mary Turner, married Charles, the brother of Joseph Morehead, and left offspring in the West, of these, Governor Charles S. Morehead of Kentucky, and his cousin, Governor James Turner Morehead of the same State, have been eminent statesmen, serving not only as Governor, but also in the Senate of the U. S. from that State. The North Carolina branch has also produced the late Governor John M. Morehead, and his brother, Hon. James Turner Morehead, who, at one time, represented his District in Congress. Another descendant in the West is the Hon. Charles R. Morehead, some time Mayor of El Paso, Texas, who served with gallantry in the Mexican War. The Morehead arms are found on an old painting in possession of the North Carolina branch of the family.

According to the tradition in the family, which, however, has not been proven by documentary evidence, John Alexander, the first of the name in Virginia, was the fourth son of William Alexander, the Poet, and first Earl of Stirling, born 1580, died 1640, and married Janet Erskine, daughter of Sir William Erskine. John Alexander obtained a grant of 1,500 acres in Northampton county in 1659. In 1664 as John Alexander, Sr., he patented land in Westmoreland county. He died in 1677 and had issue, John, Robert and Philip. Robert Alexander, eldest son and heir at time of his father's decease, lived in Stafford county. He married Frances ———. He died before 1 June, 1704. He had sons, Robert, born 1658, died 1735, married Ann, daughter of Col. Gerard Fowke of Maryland, and who left issue, and Charles Alexander, who d.s.p.

HARRISON. Stafford county.
Arms: Azure three demi-lions rampant or.
Crest: A demi-lion rampant argent, holding a laurel branch vert.
The first of this line, which is distinct from the James River Harrisons, was Burr Harrison, who was baptized in England in 1637, died 1706, and married Mary, widow of Edward Smith. One of his sons, Thomas, born 1665, called Thomas of Chappawamsic, was Justice and Burgess for Prince William county from 1741 to 1746, in which year he died. His son, Col. Burr Harrison, born 1699, married 31 July, 1722, Ann Barnes, by whom he had issue, ten children. The above arms are on a seal attached to a deed at Stafford county given by Col. Burr Harrison. They are similar to the arms of the Harrisons of Westmoreland and Yorkshire.

HARRISON. Surry county.
Arms: Azure two bars ermine, between five estoiles, three, two and one, argent.
The immigrant was Benjamin Harrison, Clerk of the Council 1633 and Burgess in 1642. His son, Benjamin of "Wakefield," was a Justice of Surry 1671, Sheriff 1679, Burgess 1680 and 1682 and member of the Council from 1693 until his death 30 Jan., 1712-13. From his eldest son, Benjamin, descend the Harrisons of "Berkley," and from the youngest, Nathaniel, the families of the name at "Brandon" and "Wakefield." The latter, Col. Nathaniel Harrison, married Mary, daughter of Hon. Cole Digges, born 1717, died 12 Nov., 1744, by whom he had four children: Nathaniel, born 1739, died 1740; Digges, born Oct., 1743, died Nov. of that year; Elizabeth, born 1737; Benjamin, born 1742. Upon the tomb of Mrs. Mary Harrison at Denbigh Church, Warwick county, are found the following arms: Dexter. Between two bars, five estoiles, three, two and one, for Harrison. Sinister—Five eagles displayed, for Digges. These arms are the same as Harrison of the counties of Essex and Kent, England.

AMBLER. York county.

Arms: Sable on a fesse or between three pheons argent, a lion passant guardant gules.

Crest: Two dexter hands conjoined sustaining a mural crown.

John Ambler of Yorkshire, England, Sheriff in 1651, married Elizabeth Paradike, and had, with other issue, a son, Richard, born 24 Dec., 1690, died 1766, who came to Virginia in 1716 and settled at Yorktown. He married Elizabeth, daughter of Edward Jacqueline of Jamestown. Richard Ambler's sister, Mary, married the Rev. George Shaw of Yorkshire, and was the grandmother of Charles Shaw Lefevre, Speaker of the House of Commons, and afterward raised to the dignity of Viscount Eversley. Richard and Mary Ambler had issue: (1) Elizabeth, born 1731; (2) Edward, born 1733; (3) John, born 1735; (4) Richard, born 1736; (5) Martha, born 1736 (twins); (6) Mary, born 1740; (7) Jacqueline, born 1742; (8) George, born 1744; (9) Richard, born 1748. Edward Ambler, born 1733, married Mary Cary, daughter of Wilson Cary. One of his sons was Col. John Ambler, born 1762, died 1836, and was Lieut.-Col. in the War of 1812. Upon his tombstone is a shield of arms, bearing those of Ambler, Cary and Jacqueline.

WILSON. Elizabeth City.

Arms: Sable on a cross engrailed between four cherubims or, a human heart of the first, wounded on the left side ppr. and crowned with a crown of thistles vert.

Capt. Willis Wilson, Burgess for Elizabeth City in 1692 and died 19 Nov., 1701, aged 28 years, was the son of Col. William Wilson and Jane, his wife. Col. Wilson died 17 June 1713, aged 67 years, and his wife 5 May, 1713, aged 53 years, and left an only surviving daughter. The tomb of Col. Wilson bearing above arms was formerly in the churchyard at Hampton, but was destroyed by Federal vandals during the War.

BYRD. Charles City county.

Arms: Argent a cross flory, between four martlets gules, on a canton azure a crescent of the field for difference.

Crest: A bird rising gules.

The Virginia branch descend from Byrd of Braxton, Cheshire. The immediate ancestor was John Byrd, goldsmith, of London, who married a sister of Thomas Stagg, who had settled in Virginia. His son William Byrd, born 1652, came to Virginia about 1674 and settled first in Henrico county. He was Justice, Sheriff, member of the House of Burgesses, in 1631 member of the Council, and in 1687 Auditor-General. In 1688 he removed to “Westover,” Charles City county. He married Mary, daughter of Col. Warham Hors-mandenh of the Virginia Council, formerly of Purley, Essex. He died in 1704 and had issue: (1) Ursula, died 1698, married Robert Beverly; (2) Susan, married John Brayne of London; (3) a daughter; (4) a son; (5) Col. William Byrd of Westover, born 28 March, 1674, died 1744. The armorial bookplate of the second William Byrd is well-known to American collectors.

CARY. Warwick county.

Arms: Argent on a bend sable, three roses of the field leaved vert.

Crest: A swan ppr. wings elevated.

Mottoes: (1) Comme je trove. (2) Sine Deo careo.

The Carys descend from an ancient English family. William Cary, born about 1500, died 1572, was Mayor of Bristol in 1546. He had a son Richard, a merchant in Bristol, born 1525, died 1570, leaving a son, William, born 1550, died 1632, Mayor of Bristol in 1611. He had John Cary of Bristol, who married Alice, daughter of Henry Hobson, Alderman of Bristol, by whom an only son, Miles Cary, born 1620, came to Virginia in 1640. He settled in Warwick county, was a Colonel of Militia; Justice in 1652; Burgess in 1659 and member of the Council until his death 10 June, 1667. He married a daughter of Thomas Taylor of Warwick and had issue: (1) Major Thomas; (2) Ann; (3) Henry; (4) Bridget; (5) Elizabeth; (6) Col. Miles of “Ceeleys,” born 1665, died 1708. The arms of Cary are on the tomb of the immigrant at Windmill Point, Warwick county.

BRANCH. Henrico county.

Arms: Argent a lion rampant gules oppressed by a bend sable.

Crest: Out of a ducal coronet or, a cock’s head ppr. in its beak a branch vert.

According to a tradition in the family, the grandfather of the Virginia immigrant was Sir John Branch, Lord Mayor of London, circa 1485. Christopher Branch of “Arrowhallocks” and “Kingsland,” Henrico county, was born about 1600. He came to Virginia with his wife Mary in March, 1619-20, and died about 1682. He had issue: (1) Thomas of Henrico, born April, 1623, died 1633, married Elizabeth, by whom he had issue; (2) William of Henrico, born about 1625, died 1676, married Jane ————, and had issue; (3) Christopher of Charles City county, born 1627, died 1665, and left issue. The descendants of the above three sons have become prominent in the history of the State.

CABELL. Henrico county.

Arms: Sable a horse rampant argent, bitted and bridled or.

Crest: An arm in armor embowed, grasping a sword all ppr.

Motto: Impavide.
William Cabell, born in England 9 March, 1699, was the son of Nicholás Cabell of Warminster and his wife, Rachel Hooper of Frome Selwood, and the grandson of William Cabell of Brooke, Esqr. William Cabell, graduated at the Royal College of Medicine, London, and afterward entered the Royal Navy as a surgeon. Resigning his commission, he came to Virginia about 1724. In 1726 he was a Deputy-Sheriff in St. James Parish, Henrico. He married Elizabeth Burks and had issue: (1) Mary, born 1726; (2) William, born 1730; (3) Joseph, born 1732; (4) John; (5) Nicholas, born 1750.

MOORE. King William county.

Arms: Ermine three greyhounds courant sable collared gules, and for augmentation on a canton gules, a lion passant.

The Moores of King William county descend from John Moore, who came to Virginia in 1620 at the age of 36. His wife, Elizabeth, came in 1622, and they were living in Elizabeth City in 1625. Their son, Augustine Moore, was living in 1676 and died before 1688. He married twice, his first wife being Anne, and his second Elizabeth. He had issue: (1) John; (2) Elizabeth, married Capt. John Goodwin; (3) Capt. Augustine, one of the Justices of Elizabeth City county. He probably married Mary Woolley, and had issue. John, Edward, Merritt, Daniel, Martha, Ann, William and Augustine. Daniel Moore, above, had a son Augustine located in King William county, and named his house "Chelsea," after the home of the celebrated Sir Thomas More. He died in 1743 and left issue, five children. The above arms are given on the authority of Campbell, the historian, and are taken from his "History of the Spotswood Family."

GRANTIN. Rappahannock county.

The first of this family in Virginia was Thomas Griffin, who from 1651 received various grants of land. His wife was Sarah ———. He died about 1660, his widow married, secondly, Samuel Griffin of Northumberland county. The children of Thomas and Sarah Griffin were: (1) Colonel Leroy Griffin of Rappahannock, born 1646 (deposition); (2) Thomas Griffin; (3) Winifred Griffin.

Colonel Leroy Griffin was Justice of Rappahannock in 1680. He married Winifred, daughter of Henry Corbin of "Buckingham," Middlesex county. Her will was probated in Richmond county in 1711. They had issue: (1) Thomas; (2) Corbin of Middlesex, Justice in 1700, will probated in 1701, married Judith, daughter of Christopher Worneley of Middlesex, and d.s.p.; (3) Winifred, married Col. Peter Presley of "Northumberland House," Northumberland county. The latter's will was probated 10 Sept., 1750, and his only daughter and heiress, Winifred, married Anthony Thornton, and was mother of Colonel Presley Thornton of "Northumberland House," member of the Council 1760-69.

Thomas, son of Colonel Leroy Griffin and Winifred Corbin, re-received a grant of 3,136 acres in Richmond county in 1707. He was member of the House of Burgesses for that county in 1718 and 1723. He married Elizabeth ————, and his will was probated in 1733, and his wife's in 1761. They had issue: (1) Leroy of Richmond county, will probated in 1750, in which he mentions “five family pictures and a coat of arms.” He was sheriff of the county in 1754, and married Mary Ann, only daughter and heiress of John Bertrand of “Belleisle,” Lancaster county. (2) Winifred Griffin, married Capt. Samuel Peachey of Richmond county. (3) Alice Griffin, married Travers Colston. (4) Ann Griffin, married ———— Tarpley. (5) Sarah.

Note.—The editor has made every effort to obtain a description of the Griffin arms, but without success.

PAGE. Gloucester county.
Arms: Or a fess dancette between three martlets azure, within a bordure of the last.
Crest: A demi-horse per pale dancette or and azure.
Motto: Spe labor levis.

Francis Page, born 1594 died 1678, of Bedfont, Middlesex, England, had issue: (1) Matthew, settled in James City county, where he died in 1673, and had issue, Matthew, Luke and Mary, who married James Whaley. (2) Francis. (3) Robert of Hatton, Hounsley Heath, England, had a son John who came to Virginia. (4) Gibbs. (5) Ince. (6) John, born 1627 and died 1692. He was a member of the Council and married Alice Luckin. In his will he mentions two sons, Francis, born in 1657, he married Mary, daughter of Edward Digges and their daughter, Elizabeth, married her cousin, John, son of Robert Page above. Matthew Page, second son of John Page, the Councillor, was born at Williamsburg in 1659, and died in 1703, he was one of the Council from Gloucester county. He married about 1689, Mary, daughter of John Mann of Gloucester, and settled about 1700 at “Rosewell,” which has since been the home of the Page family.

MERIWETHER. Albemarle county.
Arms. Or three martlets sable, on a chief azure a sun in splendor ppr.
Crest: An arm in armor embowed, in the hand a sword argent, hilt and pommel or, entwined with a serpent vert.
Motto: Vi et consilio.

The immigrant ancestor of this family was Nicholas, who was thought to have been born in Wales. He died in 1678, leaving issue, four sons: (1) Nicholas, born 1647, married Elizabeth, daughter of David Crawford of New Kent, by whom he had issue, nine children. He was a vestryman of St. Peters, New Kent, from 1655 to 1698. (2) Francis, married Mary Bathurst, daughter of Lance-lot, and granddaughter of Sir Edward Bathurst. (3) David, married and had issue, one son. (4) William, married Elizabeth, daughter of John Bushrod of Westmoreland county. (5) Thomas, lived and died near Tappahannock, Essex county, his will was probated in 1708. The descendants of the above settled in what is now Albemarle county.

CRAWFORD. New Kent county.
Arms: Gules a fesse ermine.
Crest: An ermine argent.
Motto: Sine labora nota.

John Crawford, scion of an old Scottish family, and by tradition, said to have been of the line of the Earls of Crawford, came to Virginia about 1643. His son David was born in Scotland about 1625, and was granted land in James City county in 1667. He afterward moved to New Kent and patented land there in 1672. David had known issue: (1) Elizabeth, born about 1650, married Nicholas Meriwether; (2) a daughter, who married a Lewis; (3) Angelina, married a McGuire; (4) David, born about 1662, died 1762, aged 100 years; (5) John, died 13 Dec., 1689, and had a daughter, Angeline, who was baptized 2 Nov., 1659. The above arms are taken from the Crawford book-plate.

JADWIN. Rappahannock county.
Arms: Sable, ten plates, four, three, two and one, a chief or.
Crest: An oak tree vert, fructed or, supported by two lions' paws erased of the same, entwined with a scroll, inscribed with this motto: "Robur in vita Deus."
The first of this family in Virginia was John Jadwin who patented 650 acres on the south side of the Rappahannock 13 Nov., 1658. A pedigree of the family is given in the Visitation of London for 1634. The arms were exemplified by Sir William Segar, Garter King of Arms, to Robert Jadwyn of London, under date 1629. The family descend from William Jadwyn of Barwick, who had Thomas Jadwyn of London, gent., who married Lucy, daughter and heir of Sir John Skilllicorne of Presthall, Lancashire. Their son, Robert of London, living in 1634, married Cisley, daughter of Sir Francis Clarke of London, Knt., by whom sons Robert and John. Robert Jadwyn had a son, John, who, as stated, went to Virginia. Thomas Jadwyn, above, married for his second wife, Elizabeth Rodway, widow, 23 May, 1594. (Par. Reg. of St. Mary Aldemary, London.) He was one of the Virginia adventurers and was present at several meetings of the Virginia Council in 1619. His will was probated in London 5 March, 1627, and that of his wife Elizabeth 4 March, 1638. Thomas left to his son Robert all his lands in Virginia. Descendants of this family are now living in Pennsylvania and New York.

FLEET. Lancaster county.
Arms: Chequy or and gules, a canton argent.
Capt. Henry Fleet, born about 1600, died about 1661, came to Virginia before 1623, at which date he was captured by the Indians and remained with them until 1627. He was Burgess for Lancaster in 1652. He was a merchant and trader and wrote "A brief journal of a voyage made in the bark 'Virginia,' to Virginia and the other parts of the Continent of America." His wife Sarah married after his death, Col. John Walker of Rappahannock, by whom she had several daughters. By Capt. Fleet, she had a son, Henry, died 1728, Justice of Lancaster in 1695, Sheriff in 1718 and 1719. He married Elizabeth Wildey, by whom he had: (1) Henry; (2) William; (3) Elizabeth; (4) Judith, married 1723, William Hobson of Northumberland; (5) Margaret, married Presley Cox of Westmoreland; (6) Ann, married Leonard Howson of Northumberland; (7) a daughter who married Brent.

The maternal ancestry of Capt. Henry Fleet is very distinguished. Sir Henry Wyatt of Allington Castle, Kent, Privy Councillor to Henry VIII., married Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas Brooke, Lord Cobham. Their son, Sir Thomas Wyatt, "The Rebel," born 1520, beheaded on Tower Hill, 11 April, 1554, married Jane, daughter of Sir William Howt. Their daughter Joan Wyatt, married Charles Scott, son of Sir Reginald Scott of Scott Hall, Kent, and their daughter, Deborah Scott, married William Fleet, gent., of Chatham, Kent, a member of the Virginia Company. They had issue, seven sons and four daughters; four of the sons being among the early immigrants to Virginia and Maryland, viz: (1) Henry; (2) Edward, member of the Maryland Legislature in 1638; (3) Reginald, member of the Maryland Legislature in 1638; (4) John, member of the Maryland Legislature in 1638.

TAYLOR. Caroline county.

Crest: A naked arm couped at the shoulder embowed, holding an arrow ppr.

Motto: Consequitur quodcunque petit.

James Taylor, ancestor of the Caroline county family of that name, is said to have come from the vicinity of Carlisle, England. He was in Virginia before 1650 and took out patents of land on the Mattaponi River. By his first wife, Frances, he had Jane, born 27 Dec., 1668; James, born 1674; Sarah, born 1676. His first wife died in 1680, and in 1682 he married Mary, sister of John Gregory, by whom he had the following children: John and Anne, twins, born 1685, John died young; Mary, born 1688; Edmund, born 1690; John, born 1693, died young; Elizabeth, born 1694, died young; John, born 1696. James Taylor died about 1698 at an advanced age. An old ring handed down in the family is said to have once been his property, and it bears engraved upon it the above crest which is that of the Taylors of Pennington Castle. The descendants of James Taylor have been exceedingly prominent in the history of the State, one of them—Zachary, becoming President.

BUCKNER. Gloucester county.

Arms: Sable three fleurs de lis or.

Crest: A fleur de lis gules, an adder entwined around it issuing from the centre leaf ppr.

John and Philip Buckner, brothers, were in Virginia as early as 1667, and possibly before that time. They were the sons of Thomas Buckner, who was baptized at Oxford in 1590, and grandsons of Hugh Buckner, who was Bailiff of Oxford in 1592. The family were originally of Cumnor in Berkshire. John Buckner patented land in Gloucester county in 1667, and in 1671 was a vestryman of Petsworth Parish, he was also Clerk of the County, and in 1683 a member of the House of Burgesses. He is noted as being the first man to introduce the printing press into Virginia. He died about 1695, as in that year there is an inventory of his estate recorded in Essex county. His wife's name is not known, but he had at least the following children: (1) William of York county; (2) John of Gloucester county; (3) Richard of Caroline county; (4) Thomas of Gloucester county; (5) Elizabeth, who married James Williams. Philip Buckner, brother of the first John, settled in Stafford county, and it is thought married Elizabeth Sadler in 1667. He died about 1699, as his will is probated in Stafford county in that year. He had issue, two sons, Robert, who was alive in 1722, and Andrew.

WASHINGTON. Westmoreland county.

Arms: Argent two bars gules, in chief three mullets of the second.

Crests: (1) Out of a ducal coronet or, a raven wings endorsed ppr. (2) Out of a ducal coronet or, an eagle, wings endorsed sable.

That George Washington, President of the United States, was descended from Royalty can be shown by the following descent, commencing with Edward I., although the descent can be carried back for many more generations: (1) Edward I., King of England, married Margaret, daughter of Philip III., King of France; (2) Edmund of Woodstock, Earl of Kent, married Margaret, daughter of John, Lord Wake; (3) Sir Thomas Holland, died 1360, married Joan, "the fair maid of Kent"; (4) Thomas Holland, Earl of Kent, died 1397, married Alice, daughter of Richard, Earl of Arundel; (5) Eleanor, died 1405, married Edward Charlton, Baron Powis; (6) Sir John Tiptoft, died 1443, married Joyce Chariton, born 1403; (7) Edmond Sutton, married Joyce Tiptoft; (8) John Sutton, died 1487; (9) Sir John Sutton, living 1541, of Aston-le-Walls; (10) Margaret Sutton, heiress of Aston-le-Walls, buried there 17 April, 1563, married John Butler, buried 1553; (11) Alban Butler, buried at Aston-le-Walls, 27 April, 1609; (12) Simon Butler, married Barbara Washington, the daughter of Laurence Washington of Sulgrave. Barbara (Washington) Butler's brother, Robert Washington, married Elizabeth Light, by whom Laurence Washington of Sulgrave, buried at Brington 1616, who married 3 Aug., 1588, Margaret Butler, the daughter of William Butler of Tighes, Sussex, and the brother of Alban Butler, named above. (13) Laurence Washington, son of Laurence, was Rector of Purleigh, Essex, and expelled from the living in 1643, he married Amphylis Rhodes. (14) John Washington, born 1631, died 1671, married Anna Pope and went to Virginia. (15) Laurence Washington mar-

The Washington family came to Virginia about 1657 and was represented by John and his brother Laurence. The elder John was employed against the Indians in Maryland, and as a reward for his services was made "Colonel," and the parish where he lived was named after him. He was baptised at Warton, Lancaster, England, in 1627, and died in 1677, within a few days of his brother Laurence. He was married first in England, but his wife and two children died soon after arrival in Virginia. By his second wife, Anne Pope, he had issue: Laurence, born about 1661; John, born about 1663; Elizabeth, born about 1665; Anne, born about 1667.

UNDERHILL. York county.

Arms: Sable two bars argent, on a chief or a mount vert.

Capt. John Underhill of Felgates Creek, York county, was born in the city of Worcester, England. He died 1672-3 and his tomb at "Ringfield" has armorial bearings. They are too broken for positive identification, the "two bars" being distinguishable, however. As Capt. Underhill was born in Worcester, and as there is but one family of the name having "bars" in their arms, viz: Underhill of Worcestershire, the above arms are undoubtedly correct. Capt. Underhill's will was proved in York county, 24 Feb., 1672-3; mentions children, John, Nathaniel and Mary. To John he leaves the plantation on Felgate's Creek, and to Nathaniel land in New Kent county. Capt. Underhill married in 1660 Mary, widow of William Felgate, skinner, of London, and brother of Capt. Robert Felgate. The widow had another husband, Thomas Bassett, who left two children, William and Mary. The former moved to New Kent, where he patented lands jointly with Capt. Underhill.

FOLLIOTT. York county.

Arms: Argent a lion rampant, double queued purpure, crowned or.

The Rev. Edward Folliott was minister of York Parish from 1652 to 1690. He left two daughters: (1) Elizabeth, who married, first, Josias Moody, and, secondly, Capt. Charles Hansford; (2) Mary, married first Dr. Henry Power, secondly, John Seal. There are many descendants from the above two daughters. A pedigree of the Folliott family is given in Nash's "History of Worcestershire." Francis Folliott married Avis, daughter of Thomas Tracey of North Piddle, and had a son John, who married Eleanor, daughter and heir of John More of Duncient, they had a son, Thomas of Pirton, Worcestershire, who married Catherine, daughter of Sir William Lygon of Madresfield, and they had a son John, knighted in 1603, who married Elizabeth, daughter of John Aylmer, Bishop of London. Sir John resided at Naunton, Worcestershire, and had a son, Edward, born 1610, matriculated at Oxford, 1632, who was Rector of Alderton, Northampton, until 1634, when the living was sequestrated by the Parliamentary Committee. Rev.
Edward afterwards came to Virginia. Henry Folliott, brother of Sir John, was created in 1619, Baron Folliott of Ballyshannon, Ireland.

ROANE. Gloucester county.

Arms: Argent three stags trippant ppr.

Chest: A stag's head erased ppr, attired or, holding in the mouth an acorn of the last leaved vert.

Charles Roane came to Virginia as early as 1664, and settled in Gloucester county, his first patent for land being entered 13 Sept., 1664. He left at least one son, William Roane of Petsworth Parish, Gloucester county, who in 1726, bought land in Essex county, and was the ancestor of Judge Spencer Roane. Charles Roane was the son of Robert Roane of Chaldon, Surrey, gent., whose will was proved 5 May, 1676. In it he specifically mentions his son Charles of Virginia, as follows: "To son Charles Roane and to his child or children, if any, £600, and to discharge him and them of all sums paid for his use since his transport to Virginia. To his wife, Mrs. Frances Roane, £20. To his son, Robert Roane, £100, if his father be living." He also leaves his son Thomas the manor of Tollesworth in Surrey, and in default to his Charles in Virginia. Thomas Roane, brother of the immigrant, died in 1689, aged 39 years, and his tomb at Chaldon, Surrey, bears the above arms, impaling "3 falconers gloves" which are the arms of his wife Elizabeth, daughter of Henry Bartelot, who died in 1701, aged 30 years.

GILMER. Williamsburg.

Arms: Azure a chevron between two fleurs de lis in chief or, and a writing pen full feathered in base argent.

Dr. George Gilmer, son of William Gilmer, an advocate, was born near Edinburgh, Scotland, in 1700. He studied medicine at the University of Edinburgh and went to London to practice with Dr. Ridgway. He married the daughter of his partner and, in 1731, came to Williamsburg. He married 2nd, Mary Peachy, in 1732, daughter of Dr. Thomas Walker of King and Queen. By her he had two sons, Peachy Ridgway and George. He married 3rd, in 1745, Harrison Blair, sister of the Hon. John Blair, president of the Virginia Council. This last wife bore two sons—John and William—and died 1755. Dr. Gilmer died in Williamsburg, Jan. 15, 1755. The arms are taken from the Gilmer book-plate.

QUISENBERRY. Jamestown.

Arms: Escartele de or et de azur, au hon de sable arme et lampassee, de gules la queue fourchette brochant sur les escarte-leurs. Casque couronne.

Crest: Un panache de cinque plumes de autriche, escartele de or et de azur.

Lambrequin: De or et de azur.

The Quisenberry family descend from Heinrich Questenburg of Cologne, Germany, who settled in Canterbury, England, in 1467.
A descendant, Thomas, settled near Jamestown about 1624. A branch of the family, John Quesenbury, settled in Northumberland county in 1649. An extended pedigree of the family is found "In the Memorials of the Quisenberry Family," published by A. C. Quisenberry, of Hyattsville, Md.

STRACHAN. Prince George county.

Arms: Azure a stag trippant or, attired and unguled gules, for Strachan. Argent a saltire sable on a chief of the second three oak leaves ppr. for Blackwood.

Dr. Alexander Glas Strachan, son of Joseph Strachan and Miss Glas, the granddaughter of Sir Robert Blackwood of Petrovia, Scotland, was born on the Strachan estates at Luscar, near Edinburgh, 29 July, 1748. He was educated in the latter city and came to Virginia, settling near Petersburg, and was vestryman for Bristol Parish 1785. He was descended from the ancient house of Strachan of Thornton. He married twice, and by his second wife, a Miss Field of Petersburg, had issue eight children, viz: Robert Glas Strachan, Theophilus Field Strachan, John Blackwood Strachan, Alexander Glas Strachan, Martha, Eliza, Jane and Mary Strachan. The family intermarried with the Fields, Bollings, Blands and MADisons.

WALDOE. Lancaster county.

Arms: Argent, a chevron between three birds sable, beaked and legged or.

The above arms are on a wax seal at Lancaster court-house, said impression being on the will of Edward Waldoe, dated 1693-4. The arms correspond with the English arms of Waldoure, which has in addition; for a crest, "a wolf's head erased or."
