VIRGINIA AND NORTH CAROLINA SERVICE OF JAMES HIGNIGHT

JAMES HIGNIGHT applied in LEE COUNTY VIRGINIA 21 October 1833 under the Act passed June 7 1832, age 79.

States he was drafted into service of the militia of Virginia April or May 1777 in BERKLEY COUNTY VIRGINIA and was marched to Wheeling Virginia to guard the frontiers from the Northwestern Indians. John Vanmeter of the Va militia was the applicant captain, and McIntire and Hants Vanmeter the Lieutenant and ensign. The company remained three months at Wheeling, having several partial skirmishes, with the Indians, in which our loss was one man killed and it was not known of more than one Indian being killed by our company, on our march from Berkley to Wheeling, we went by way of Fort Pitt, where we received our arms and ammunition, and went from thence to Wheeling in boats down the Ohio River. Col Zachariah Morgan was in command at Fort Pitt when we received the guns and ammunition, and this declarant's recollection at the time is, that Morgan had previously been an officer under the King of Great Britain. The declarant with his company were discharged at Wheeling after the term of their enlistment had expired which was for 3 months, for this service, the declarant obtained a discharge signed by Capt VanMeter which we afterwards lost in a tour of service which he performed in the south by having his pocket book which contained it, stolen from him at his camp. In fall of 1777 this applicant removed from VIRGINIA TO WAKE COUNTY NORTH CAROLINA, where he was drafted in Summer 1778 to serve a tour of five months in aid of the South Carolina line. -- Jamison Jamison was his captain and was marched to Santee river, near the raft Swamps east of Charleston in S C and placed in the regiment commanded by Col Archey Lytte, a continental officer, as well as the declarant now recollects. In this enlistment the declarant and his company, and the regiment in which they were placed were kept marching through the country in the neighborhood of the Swamps, at Short intervals, to watch the Scotch tories and keep them in check, and returned home at the expiration of his term without receiving a discharge, until the year following, As soon as the applicant returned home from this enlistment, another draft took place in his company and the applicant was again drafted and started into service for Charlestown. This was in Dec 1778. On this expedition Woodson Daniel was his Captain, Wm Har? the lieutenant and Wm Mobley the ensign, James Saunders the Col. In marching to Charlestown, at Salisbury in North Carolina Col Launders Regt. joined two other light ones of which was composed of 9 month men, These 3 regiments were all under command of General Griffith Rutherford under whom we marched to the neighborhood of Charlestown. At what was called the ten mile house from Charlestown, all the two militia regiments mentioned declared that they would not march any further on that direction, except this declarant and 4 others of his mess and we were stopped at this place two or 3 days before the men could be got to march. The General having to send into Charlestown for the laws and regulations in retaliation to militia service. The men who rebelled were under the impression that they could not be taken to serve out of their own states and many or all of them were from North Carolina and were now in South Carolina, and were here informed that they had to march into GEORGIA. On hearing the laws and regulations read to them, however, they again took up their line of March towards GEORGIA. From the ten mile house we marched on the direction to Farysburg on the Savannah river, but after learning the ten mile house some distance, at the forks of the road near Bacon Bridge on the Edisto river, Col Frank Locke's regiment of the Salisbury militia took the right hand side road, to return home and could not be prevailed upon by General Rotherford to take the Georgia roads, until he put them under guard and turned them by compulsion. For this 2nd meeting several of the mutiniers were whipped which put an end to the spirit of insubordination which had been for several days disturbing the army. At Farysburg General Rotherford command joined Gen Lincoln at the continental army with whom the declarant remained for a short time, when he, with a detachment of about three hundred under Col Lyttle of the regulars as on contile corps marched from Farysburg up the Savannah river on the South Carolina side to watch the British who were on the Georgia side of the river and to endeavour to prevent their crossing. He served two or 3 months when the detachment returned to the main army - on this detached service we proceeded up the river to opposite Augusta where the British were then stationed, we bring previously joined, by General Ash and Col Elbert, Col Williamson and Col Caswell with their respective commands, on our approach to Augusta, the British retreated from the place, and we crossed the river and entered the town from Augusta, we followed the British to Brier creek, where the British attacked us, when General Ash with his command which was our principal force deserted us by which the rest of the detachment were mostly killed or taken. Ashe's men in endeavouring to escape came to a bridge cross the creek which had been broken up and not being able to cross the creek and surmounted by the British on the rear were also nearly all taken prisoners without having participated in the fight, Col Lytell with his detachment, of which this declarant was one, were the last on the ground and fought until they were nearly surrounded and found it extremely difficult to effect their escape which they however did, after sustaining considerable loss, from Brier Creek Col Lytill with his detachment crossed the river, where we met with General Retherford, who was coming to our support and then Col Lytell left us and went to Genler Lincoln, Gen Retherford stationed us at a place on the river called the two sisters where we remained until the end of our enlistment from whence we returned home, General Rutherford having previously left us, and also Col Saunders of the regiment to which the declarant belonged, after their department the principal officer in command at the two sisters, were Col Spurlock of the North Carolina militia, Capt Daniel brought us home in a body and gave us discharges after we got home, my discharge from Capt Woodson Daniel marked (A) is hereby filed in proof of this declaration.  In 1781 he volunteered on the expedition to Kings Mountain and joined the regiment of North Carolina Militia under Col Benjamin Cleveland.

Her residence has lately been included in Scott Co (Tenn) near county lately laid off. - that her husband's father and her father lived close neighbors in Washington Co Va. That her husband enlisted under Capt Bill Campbell and knows he was absent for a long time and in service in the Revolutionary war. And that one John Hill who was also a close neighbor to his father and her father enlisted at same time and in same company and returned home at the same time, that John Hill is now deceased and Richard Crabtree is also dead, that Richard Crabtree drew a pension for many years before his death. in said Campbell County Tenn and died there about 23 April 1850; that she and her husband lived there for over 40 years. She believes she can prove that her husband went into and returned home from service under Capt Campbell by Evan Walden, who was then a boy and lived close to her said husband and he now lives somewhere in Kentucky; that said Walden was after that in the war of 1812 from CAMPBELL CO TENN.

Certified copy of marriage record of Arthur Marcum and Ann Bruncagrove June 25 1794. is filed showing they married in Washington Co Va by Nicholas Reagan.
He was born May 2, 1759, in Chesterfield County, Virginia.
When age 4 or 5 he moved to Prince Edward County, Va, and when still young, to Bedford Co, Va. Josiah Marcum enlisted Marcy or April before the battle of Gates' defeat served as private and drummer in Capt Nathaniel Tate's and Richard Edmonson's companies, Col Campbell's Va regiment and was guarding the baggage wagons at the time of the battle of Gates' defeat, and was similarly engaged at the battle of Guilford Court House length of service 18 months. warrant 38359 for 160 acres in 1855.

Residence of soldier 1855 in HANCOCK COUNTY TENNESSEE, residence the widow March 20 1907.

The widow Leathy Livasay applied Lee Co Va 24 June 1880 age 62 before Judge Carr Bailey in county sitting judge of county court of Lee Co Va. The same being a court of record for said county- he served as a private under Capt Jamieson in regiment of infantry under Col David Rogers in War of 1812; states her husband volunteered at GRAYSON COUNTY VA in 1812 or 1814 for term of months and was honorably discharged. He was about 20 or 30 years of age when he enlisted, tall and rather dark complexion, black hair . that she was married to James Livesay in HANCOCK CO TENN 19 Feb 1850 or 51. by Wm Gilbert, a J P; that her maiden name was Leathy Goins,

A letter from Stuart (his x mark) Frost 1881 June 6 a citizen of Lee County Va, states "I am in the neighborhood of 40 years old and I am a son of Leatha Livasay, the widow of James Livasay who has made application for a pension as his wide and as a matter of course, I know her well. I rember the former wife of James Livasay as my mother and they lived near each other in Hawkins County Tennessee, and Nellie Livasay the said James Livasay's first wife died to the best of my recollection about 31 years ago. I remember the time she died but I did not see her die, nor go to her burial, but I rememr that my mother and grand mother were there and I have often seen her grave on said James Livasay's farm now in Hancock County Tennessee. Some years afterwards the said James Livasay married my mother and then he afterwards died and was buried on his plantation by the side of his first wife and I being one of the family, saw him die and saw him buried, which occurred some over 20 years ago as I now rememr. She and her family continued to live on the farm in Tenn and I lived with them until some time during the war when we all moved to Lee Co Va, and she is now living with me. She has never remarried since her husband's death. If necessary she could get evidence of those facts by going 10 or 12 miles into Tenn in her former neighborhood but she x she is now feeble. There is no family records that I know of.

--- The last known address of Leathy Livesay in 1907 was given as Blackwatter Va.
James Livesay applied personally 20 March 1855 in Hancock County Tennessee - he was then age 73 a resident of said county, states he was a private in Capt Dolton 18th regiment of the Va Militia, under Col --- in the War of 1812; that he was drafted 18 Sept 1814 at Grayson County Court House VA for six months and continued in actual service for one month and was honorably discharged at Grayson Court House about 1st Feb 1815 as will appear by the muster roll of said company, - He makes this declaration for the purpose of obtaining the bounty land to which he may be entitled to. under Act March 3 1855.
Amanda Wade stated her maiden name was Amanda Collier and that she was married to James M. Wade 22 Dec 1853 at the Turkey Cove in Lee Co Va by James Edwards a minister of the gospel and that there is record evidence of said marriage. That her said husband died in service at Columbia Ky Feb 8 1864.

--- Affidavit of Lucretia Slemp affidavit in Lee Co Va March 1870 states she was present in Lee Co Va at James M. Wade’s residence when Amanda Wade his wife was delivered of a son on 27 June 1856 and they called his name Francis Alexander Wade.

LAFAYETTE WADE WAS BORN 21 May 1850 or 1860 (year of birth illegible) and Mary Jane Wade was born 19 April 1853 or 1863, also illegible.

The First in Lee County Va, the two last about 10 miles west of Ge; Columbia in the STATE OF KENTUCKY as stated. There is no eye witness now living that affiant knows of Elizabeth Joyne or Jayne said to over 80 of age was acc__ in both cases and affiant has sent affidavits to Kentucky to get her affidavit but gets no return and has not hear of her being alive since 1867. My Attorney Dr. James W Sage has informed me that he has sent three times and gets no response therefrom I would say that it is impracticable to get evidence of eye witness to the birth of my two children born in Kentucky and must rely for proof of age to the judgment of a physician in regular practice to examine them and state their probable age for proof. WITNESSES TO AMANDA WADE'S signature were Samuel Field, EMILY R. WADE A D MARTHA L MORRISON

A dr. S C Stallard in Lee Co Va in 1870 he states that he judged LaFayette WM Wade to be about age 10, this would show that he was born about 1860.

Amanda Wade made application in Lee Co Va 27 Sept 169 she stated she resided in Adair Co Ky whence she has lately removed to Lee Co Va and intends to remain and desires her pension transferred as her father, mother, brothers and sisters all live in Lee Co Va where she was born also my father in law and I wanted to be with my people.

VIRGINIA SERVICE OF GEORGE GREEN PAID AT SOUTH CAROLINA AGENCY

No 56,912 a resident of Asheville District, S C, age 70, on the 15 January 1833 entered service 1781, in the last part of the year with Capt. Charles Atwell, and John Smith his lieutenant and served under LaFayette in his third division, until the winter of 1782 when he was discharged. States he resided in Prince William County when he entered service under Capt. Charles Atwell; that he served (watching the movements of the British near Baltimore). In another statement George Green states he belonged to the French army which was laid off into four divisions and was for a short time served a short time under Col. Smith, who was succeeded by Col. Wadsworth under whom he served until the close of the war and was personally discharged by him at Williamsburg, Mass.

I applied for pension 12 or 15 years ago and was informed by the Department that the British in the late war burned all the papers and army rolls at Washington and that my name could not be found. I know of nothing further that can enlighten the Department relative to my claim.

Affidavit of George Dale, made in Chester District, South Carolina, October 25, states he was well acquainted with George Green from his childhood and continued companions and neighbors until he went in the army 1781, shortly after the capture of Lord Cornwallis, I think about a month that after that capture, I know he enlisted in the regular service under Capt. Charles Atwell, in Prince William County, Va, he was born in the adjoining county, Fauquier Va 1762. He was marched to Williamsburg to Baltimore with the main army; commanded by LaFayette and he was stationed there from June until October 1782, during this time I saw him in actual service for I was living there at the time the reason I recollect this last statement so well now is that I was a stranger there myself and he being an old schoolmate, I slept with him many nights in the camp during his stay there. After this last date he was marched to Philadelphia I saw him no more until he returned home after peace. He is here present and I know he is the identical person he represents himself to be.
