Accounts of Salaries in 1770.

President [Rev. James Horrocks], £200
Professor of Humanity [Rev. Josiah Johnson], 150
Two Professors of Divinity [Rev. John Dixon and Rev. John Camm], 200
Professor of Moral Philosophy [Rev. Samuel Henley], 100
Professor of Natural Philosophy [Rev. Thomas Gwatkin], 100

1 From the bursar's book of the college. The sums represent sterling money. The professors, being ministers of neighboring parishes, managed to double the salaries above. The president, being also minister, councillor, and commissary, contrived to get about £550, equivalent nearly to $10,000 of our present money.
