Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.
TALBOTT FAMILY.

MATAGORDA, MATAGORDA COUNTY, TEX., December, 1864.

Memorandum of the Talbot family in America, furnished in 1849 by Edmund Talbot, who was the son of Matthew Talbot. The said Edmund Talbot died in the year 1858 in his eighty-seventh year. He was the father of the present writer, M. Talbot.

The words of the memorandum are those of my father, as written by himself, which are now copied word for word, as follows:

"My grandfather's name was Matthew. When a young man he came from England, and settled in Maryland, where he married a Miss Annie Williston, by whom he had a son named Charles. He then moved to Amelia county, Va., where he had three other sons born, viz., Matthew, James and John. His wife died; he then moved to Bedford county, now Culpeper, where he married a Miss Clayton, by whom he had a son and daughter, Isham and Martha. He then died, age unknown. I have often passed by his grave in my boyhood in the neighborhood where I was born. There was a cousin, came from England with him, whose name was Edmund. Grandfather was by profession a High Churchman. Charles became a Baptist before his death, which took place during the Revolutionary War. He had several sons and two daughters. Williston, who lived over eighty years, David and another son, name forgotten, who died without any family. This branch of the family, I believe, at this date [1849] still reside in Virginia.

"Matthew, who was my father, when a young man married a young widow (with one child, a daughter) by the name of Day, her maiden name being Hale. There were born to him by her one daughter and six sons, viz., Mary, Hale, Matthew, Thomas, William, Edmund and Clayton. My mother died in the fall of 1785. Father married again, but had no other children. During this time he moved to East Tennessee, and finally settled in Wilkes county, Ga. His move from Virginia to Tennessee was in consequence of his business being stock raising. All his sons were engaged in the war except Edmund and Clayton, who were too young to enter the service. Matthew was commissary, and was at the retaking of Augusta; Thomas was wounded, a ball struck the top of his head and cut a furrow."
“Before the Revolutionary War a great revival of religion took place in Virginia, and father and mother became Baptists, but previous to that time father was a High Churchman. After that he became a preacher and continued so until his death, which took place in the eighty-second year of his age, and for fifty years a member of the church of Christ.

“James died during the Revolutionary War. He had four sons and a daughter, viz., Mary, Isham, James, John and Williston. They all went west. John was a member of the Legislature of Virginia for twenty-five years, and after he moved to Wilkes county, Ga., he was elected several years to the Legislature. He was a great Whig during the Revolutionary War. He was the pleasantest man I ever knew. I loved him dearly. He died at sixty years of age. He had five children, viz., Thomas, Matthew, Phoebe, Mary and Elizabeth. Thomas is still living in Wilkes county, Ga. Matthew was a senator of the Georgia Legislature for twenty years, and was candidate for governor, but died during the canvass in the year 1827. Isham moved to Kentucky from Virginia. He had as many as three sons, viz., Isham, James and Edmund. Isham became a great lawyer and statesman in Kentucky. He was generally called little Isham. James was a doctor, and married my brother Hale’s eldest daughter.”

The Georgia Baptist, a newspaper published in Georgia, states about my father, Edmund Talbot, as follows:

“Born in Campbell county, Va., 28th of March, 1767. When about twenty-two years of age joined the Baptist Church, and was baptized by Sanders Walker. In 1787 he married a daughter of John Harvey, Mary, of Washington county, Ga. He began soon thereafter to preach, and was ordained at Williamson’s Swamp Church in Washington county. He continued to preach from that time onward until his death in 1858.”

By my mother, as before stated, Mary Harvey, he had the following children, which arrived to maturity: William, Sally, John, Martha, Matthew (myself), Polly and Elizabeth. Sally married a Mr. Davis and settled in Georgia. Martha married Mr. Ashburn. Polly married Mr. Bullard [?], Elizabeth married Mr. Walker, all of Georgia. All of my brothers and sisters are long since dead, though they left families of children. My mother died some time near the year 1807, after which my father married a widow by the name of McCulloch, but whose maiden name was Cauthorn. He had by her the following children, who grew to maturity, Eliza, who married Mr. Cason, who resides in Florida; Amelia, who married a Mr. Porter, of Alabama; Amanda, who married a Dr. A. I. Robinson, of Columbus, Ga. These three half sisters of mine are all living at the present date and have families.

Copy made by Mary Elizabeth (Robinson) Freeman, second wife of Col. Dandridge Claiborne Freeman, C. S. A., and daughter of Dr. Alexander I. Robinson and Amanda Fitzallen Talbot, half-sister of the above Matthew Talbot.

Communicated by Miss Rosa Freeman-Duckers, Kentucky, through Miss Kate Mason Rowland.

LEWIS FAMILY OF WARNER HALL.*

(Continued from page 91.)

It has been seen that there is nothing from the records to show the existence of any "General Robert Lewis" as the propositus of the "Lewis family of Warner Hall." The Robert Lewis who lived in York county and owned land on Poropotank Creek had only two daughters, Mary and Alice. He was, doubtless, a kinsman of the Lewises of Warner Hall. Major William Lewis, who lived about the same time had a plantation in New Kent called "Chemokins," or "Chemohocans," which afterwards was in possession of Col. John Lewis, of Warner Hall. He was also a kinsman beyond reasonable question.

Now there was a John Lewis who has better claims than either Robert or Major William Lewis to be considered the propositus of the family of Warner Hall. This was John Lewis, who patented 100 acres in Warwick county at the head of Deep Creek, and in 1653 patented 250 acres on a branch of Poropotank Creek, in Gloucester county, which branch was then called Lewis' Creek,

* This instalment, as far as 24 Warner Lewis, is based entirely upon original evidence, viz.: Land grants, Abingdon Parish Register, tombstones at Warner Hall, MSS. chancery suits, and Hening's Statutes. From 24 Warner Lewis the chief authority is The Marshall Family, by William Paxton. Where the matter varies, the new version is due to the superior authority of the parish records and other documents.